Obituary

Annie Pearl Holloway Johnson was born May 28, 1935 in Brookhaven, Mississippi to Earnest L. (E.L.) and Bessie Markham Holloway. Both parents and a brother (N.C.) preceded her in death.

She joined Zion Chapel A.M.E. Church in Mississippi and accepted Christ as her personal Savior at an early age. After moving to Chicago, she became affiliated with The First New Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist Church where she remained a sincere member.

On November 22, 1962, she was united in marriage to Jesse Johnson (who preceded her in death).

Pearl (as she was lovingly called) was an outgoing person who never met a stranger.

She departed this life Saturday, March 29, 1997.

Pearl leaves loving memories with a son, Larry Holloway (Sharon); three grandsons: Lawrence, Leonard, and Kahlin; three sisters: Clotee Levy, Edith Williams (J.C.), and Mary L. Toliver (Frank); a loving niece, Brenda; one uncle, Charles Holloway (Eula); one aunt, Alberta McCrory (Joseph), of Moss Point, Mississippi; a very dear and special friend, Beulah Brown; many nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

God Cares!

When His eye is on the sparrow
And each budding leaf that grows;
When He sends the dew each morning
And the sunshine to the rose;
You may know beyond all doubting,
In this trial you're passing through,
God cares . . . and every moment
He is watching over you!
