

Ophelia Markham

Services for Ophelia Markham of Brookhaven are 11 a.m., Friday, Dec. 17, at Tyler Funeral Home Chapel with burial in Carver Heights Cemetery.

Visitation is Thursday, Dec. 16, from noon until 5 p.m. at Tyler Funeral Home.

Mrs. Markham, 90, died Dec. 14, 1999, of heart failure at King's Daughters Medical Center. She was born in Brookhaven on Nov. 24, 1909, to Anis Smith and Ida Rogers Smith.

She was a homemaker. She was employed for a number of years with Spotty Cleaners. She was a member of St. Paul M. B. Church.

Preceding her in death were her parents; her husband, A. C. Markham; her brothers, Willie Porter Smith and Johnny B. Smith; and her sisters, Maxine Diggs and Gladys Richardson.

Survivors are her daughter, Rosalyn Markham of New Orleans; two grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews; and her longtime friend, Elsie Allen.