OBITUARY

Louvella Markham was born November 13, 1913, to the late Octavius and Mamie Markham at Caseyville, Mississippi, in Lincoln County.

During her early childhood, she joined the Zion Chapel A. M. E. Church, in Caseyville. After the family moved to Brookhaven, MS, she united with Avery Chapel A. M. E. Church.

She received her high school education at Alexander High School. After graduating from high school, she furthered her education by first attending Jackson State College, and then by attending Alcorn A & M College where she received a B. S. Degree in Elementary Education. Afterwards, she did further study at Jackson State College, and Atlanta University.

Louvella served as a teacher in this area for approximately twenty years working at the St. John School in Wesson, MS, the Bogue Chitto Attendance Center, the Friendship School, and Eva Harris.

After her tenure with the various county schools she worked at the Lindsey Head Start Center until she reached retirement age.

She was preceded in death by her parents, a brother, L. D. Markham, and two sisters, Eva Markham and Marilda Diggs.

She leaves to mourn her passing two sisters, her twin, Louvenia Markham, and Allie Moncrief, Brookhaven; one brother, Earlie Markham, Weed, CA; one nephew, James (Fannie) Earl Diggs, Sr.; a great nephew, James Earl Diggs, II; a great niece, Kishara M. Diggs; a brother-in-law, Eley Diggs, all of Brookhaven and a host of other relatives and friends.
