OBITUARY

"To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven."

Ecclesiastes 3: 1-8

"A Time To Be Born"

Ada Markham Robinson was born in Caseyville, MS on October 14, 1913 to the late John and Ida Blue Markham. She was the youngest of five children. Her sister, Cora Lee Coleman, and brothers, Arlynch and Samuel Markham preceded her in death.

"A Time To Find"

She confessed Christ as her Savior at an early age and united with the Galilee AME Church. Later she moved to Brookhaven, MS where she met and married the late N. Z. Robinson, and to this union eight children were born. She united with the New Hope M. B. Church where she served as a mother of the church and raised all of her children. After all of her children were grown she moved her membership to Ebenezer AME Church where she served faithfully as a Stewartess until she became disabled.

"A Time To Plant"

She received her education in Caseyville, MS. She often spoke about the good old days of her childhood and often wanted to go home. She loved people no matter who's or where they were and often kept children in her home and never seemed to get tired of them. She always had something to give others in need. She touched many lives.

"A Time To Die"

She departed this life February 16, 1999 at King's Daughters Hospital.

"A Time To Weep"

She leaves to cherish her memories five daughters, Dorothy McMurtry (Leon), Camden, MS, Daisy Jenkins (Charlie), Jackson, MS, Evelyn Packer, Mobile, AL, Josie Lloyd (Alfred), and Ida Pearl Jenkins (John, Jr.), Brookhaven, MS; two step-daughters, Angelene Smith (James), Hattiesburg, MS, Gloria Mays (Elijah), San Francisco, CA; three sons, John Robinson (Lenora), San Diego, CA, Robert E. Robinson (Anna) and S. L. Robinson, (Joe Dell), Brookhaven, MS; two sisters, Ora Lee Johnson, Los Angeles, CA, and Dora Johnson, Jackson, MS; two grandsons she reared, Wendell and Keith Robinson, Brookhaven, MS, twenty seven grandchildren, thirty four great-grandchildren, two great-great-grandchildren, one niece, Betty Coleman Littleton (Wade), Jackson, MS, and a host of other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by one step-son, Amos Robinson.
