

Obituary

Emsley Spencer, born on October 26, 1902 in Barlow, Mississippi to Emsley and Ollie Wallace. She left this trouble world, to take her eternal rest with Jesus, on July 13, 2000 at Manhattan Nursing Home.

She married in Holy matrimony to Petro Spencer 1922, he preceded her in death. She was a mid-wife for Copiah and Hinds County until her retirement.

Early in life she found Christ and joined the Mt. Olive Baptist Church where she served faithfully until she moved to Jackson, then she joined the Greater Northside Missionary Baptist Church where she served faithfully on the Mother Board, Pastor's Aide, and worked in the Senior Mission until her health failed her.

She leaves to cherish her fonde memories: two sons: Abraham & L.W. (Joe) Spencer (Veola): one adopted son Emanuel Bailey: four grandchildren: Robert Spencer & Joseph Spencer both of Jackson, Mississippi; Curley Griggs (Richard), Carrie Burrell (Percy) and twenty-two great grandchildren, nineteen great great grandchildren, one sister, Rosie Martin (Louisville, Kentucky), one brother, Jack Wallace (Dayton, Ohio), and a host of nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Spencer was a woundful god mother. When we stayed with her as we was growing up. She taught us a lot of things. She stay by our side. As a god mother she was the best. We love you and we will miss you.

Your God Children:

Geraldine, and Glaynail,

Nice: Michelle, and Stephanie Burns