

OBITUARY

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven;
a time to be born; and a time to die.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2a

The season for the late Mr. X. L. Thedford, Sr. came to end at Hardy Wilson Memorial Hospital, November 23, 1985, a time spun 66 years came to a successful end for a dedicated servant of God and mankind.

Life for the true christian has been rich and full. X. L. Thedford, was August 10, 1919, to the late Henry and Eudell Thedford.

On April 16, 1938, he united in holy matrimony to Eva Mae Armstrong, 46 beautiful years of marriage and to this union, 10 children were born, two preceded him in death.

He was a devoted husband, loving father and trusting friend to all.

Brother Thedford, who had the love for his church, worked faithfully as head usher. He was a member of the Hazlehurst King David Lodge.

He leaves to cherish his memories: A wife, Mrs. Eva Mae Thedford of Hazlehurst, Step-mother, Mrs. Vernora Thedford, Hazlehurst, MS; Three daughters: Mrs. Shevie Jean Green, Mrs. Deloris Norrells and Mrs. Debbie Sue Stovall all of Hazlehurst. Five sons: Mr. X.L.Thedford, Jr., John Harold Thedford, Glenn L. Thedford, Lynell Thedford and Van Dyke Thedford all of this city. Five brothers: Robert Lee Thedford, Hazlehurst, Elpae Thedford, Houston, Texas, Ernest Thedford and Roy Thedford of New Orleans, LA., Henry Thedford, Jr. of Shereveport, LA. Five Sisters: Mrs. Louise Jones, Haiti, Missoiur, Christine Thedford and Margaret Thedford of Los Angeles, Calif., Dorothy Ann Fuller, Shereveport, LA. and Mrs. Denise Corley, Hazlehurst. Three uncles: Wilmer Durr, W.M.Durr and Lorse Durr. Twenty-one Grandchildren