

MRS. ORA LEE WHITTING, 92, passed September 2, 1987 at the Angels of Mercy Nursing Home. She was born in Union Church, Mississippi, to the union of Daniel and Lavenia Culver. She lived most of her life in Meadville, Mississippi, and was active in the Meadville Methodist Episcopal Church.

She was employed by Judge R.E. Bennett family for over 35 years. She moved to Kansas City in 1980 after the death of Mr. Whitting, to live with her only child Mr. Andrew Causey. After the loss of a limb in 1983 she was a patient in the Angels of Mercy Nursing Home.

Mrs. Whitting attended the Paseo Baptist Church with her son and family until her health failed.

She is survived by one son, Andrew Causey, a daughter-in-law, Jean Causey, two granddaughters, Orera LaDaen Causey, and Melaine Jones, a grandson-in-law, Clifford Jones, and three great-grandchildren, all of the city, several nieces and a great nephew of Brookhaven, Mississippi, and a host of other relatives and friends, and a special friend, Mrs. Sarah E. Bennett of Black Mountain, North Carolina, daughter of Judge R.E. Bennett and retired Missionary from South America.