

A small correction to the page about Algean:

Elven Matson served 3 years in the Air Force (he was a pilot) and became a captain later in the reserves.

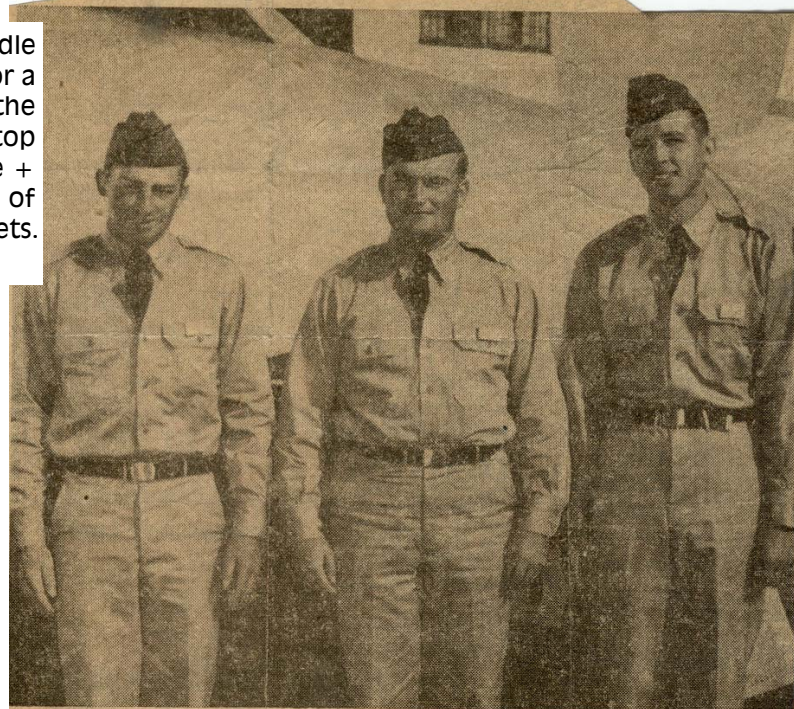

Algean (Griffith) Matson is the woman in the hat. She is with her two children, the taller one is Elven Matson and the shorter one is Jerry Matson. Her mother, Mary Jane (Sharp Griffith) Lyons is on the right.

PHOTO TAKEN JULY 1941

Elven Matson is the middle one in this photo. For a closer look, click on the magnifying glass at the top of your screen with the +

A few of the cadet command staff officers, of which Elven was one, were given rides in T-33 jets.

Nampa Air Cadets at McChord

Air Force ROTC cadets from Nampa attending summer camp at McCord Air Force Base, Wash., include (left to right) James L. Pline, Elven G. Matson and Robert T. Stivers. Included in their summer program will be tours and flights in an Air Force C-124 Globemaster. All men attending camp participated in a parade through Seattle on July 4.

HOME PAGE:

<http://www.matson.info>

By Terry Ann (Matson) Morgan,
Daughter of Elven Gene Matson