

Elvie Yancey with his wife, Velva (Lyons) and two of their children, Marion and Velva

Denise Yancey Matson and her twin daughters, Jeanne and Jayne Matson, and Denise's mom, Velva (Lyons) Yancey

Velva Ruby Lyons as a young girl

Denise Yancey, age 3 and her mother

www.matson.info
Picture copies from
Hugh Yancey

Velva Ruby Lyons Yancey

Elvie Hyde Yancey, his mother Marie Hyde and others.

NOTES FROM UNCLE HUGH HUGH YANCEY (Son of Velva Ruby Lyons Yancey)

"Velva Ruby Lyons Yancey as a young girl" is really "Velva Ruby Lyons" as a "bride." This picture was taken on her wedding day, "Christmas Day" in Weiser, Idaho. This is the only dress that she owned and she loved it and so did your Grandpa. She was married by Elvie's father, William Elvie Yancey, who was also the bishop of the ward. The wedding was in the house in the background. She does look very young, "like a young girl." Grandpa worshiped her.

There is another picture on the previous page that says, "Grandpa, his mother, and others." The others are Bill Kegel, (Marion's first husband) and their three children: Larry, Gayle Marie (Maud) and Bruce.