

Judy K. Schoenike age 64 died Saturday July 9, 2016 at Beloit Memorial Hospital. She was born October 31, 1951 to the late Ernest and Ruth (Splitgerber) Endl in Watertown, WI. Judy graduated from Jefferson High School, class of 1969. She married Bruce M. Schoenike on November 6, 1971 at St. John's Lutheran Church in Jefferson. Judy was an active member of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church and enjoyed being at many church functions, especially the after service fellowship. She worked at Woodman's for many years as a front end supervisor. Judy was an avid bowler, traveled extensively and followed her passion for bowling on a national level. She adored her two grandchildren and cherished caring for them especially in the summer months.

She is survived by husband Bruce Schoenike; her son, Barry (Dawn) Schoenike and their two daughters, Kaitlyn & Carolyn; her two brothers, Richard (Kay) Endl and James Endl; her two sisters, Mary Lou (Larry) Rupperecht and Joanne (Dennis) Roth; her mother and father in law, Merlin and Lois (Streng) Schoenike and her sister in law, Debra Schoenike.

She was preceded in death by parents, her brothers, Roger Endl, and Jack Splitgerber and her brother in law, Todd Schoenike.
