

Marti G. Brockman, 64, of Beloit, WI, died Sunday, November 12, 2017 in Premier Rehabilitation and Skilled Nursing.

She was born September 16, 1953 in Beloit, WI, the daughter of Trevor and Barbara (Alcott) Porter. Marti was a graduate of Beloit Turner High School.

Marti was employed by United Industries, Motion Industries, Black & Decker, and Wisconsin Knife Works, retiring in 2012. She was a member of the Beloit Women's Bowling Association. She was inducted into the Greater Beloit Bowling Council Hall of Fame in 2005. Marti enjoyed all of her nieces, nephews and grandson's sporting activities. Most of all she enjoyed spending time with her family.

Survivors include her daughter, Valerie (Josh Schlegel) Brockman; grandson, J.J Schlegel; brothers, Trevor (Cheryl Lind) Porter and K.C. (Wendy) Porter all of Beloit, WI; nephews and nieces, T.J. (Tammy Ziembra-Virgin) Porter, Trent Porter, Ally Porter, Belinda (Dennis) McCarthy, Chad (Tara) Schultz; several great nieces, great nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins.