

Diamonds and Desire (Track 5 on Fable - Live at the Odeum Theater)

Rain wash this pain away
Sunshine roll back the years
You don't love me anymore
Broken hearts and angry voices
Bitter tears, unfortunate choices
You don't love me anymore
Blue like a diamond, red like desire
Rain wash this pain away, put out your fire

Rain wash this pain away
Sunshine roll back the years
You don't love me anymore
Nothin' better when it was good
Tried and true, well, it's understood
You don't love me anymore

Blue like a diamond, red like desire
Rain wash this pain away, put out your fire

Broken hearts and spirits mended
Shattered dreams - a time we've ended
You don't love me anymore
Think of all the time we wasted
Think of all the hurt we've tasted
You don't love me anymore

Blue like a diamond, red like desire
Rain wash this pain away, put out your fire

You don't love me anymore
You don't love me anymore
You don't love me anymore
You don't love me anymore

Written by John Crafton Jr. & C.W. Johnson. Arranged by John Crafton Jr. Produced and recorded by John Spreier live at the Odeum Theater in East Greenwich, Rhode Island on September 19, 1998. Bass guitar and harmony vocals by Anthony Gavoli. Lead vocals by J.Q. Crafton. Percussion and harmony vocals by Joshua Willis. Six string guitar and harmony vocals by John Crafton Jr. Twelve string acoustic guitar and harmony vocals by John Spreier.

© 1993 ASCAP. All rights reserved.