TRAPPED

Under Saudi Arabia's guardianship system, every woman must have a male guardian - a father, brother, husband, or even a son - who has the authority to make a range of critical decisions on her behalf. Women are required to receive guardian approval to apply for a passport, travel outside the country, study abroad on a government scholarship, get married, get divorced, conduct official business, undergo certain medical procedures and even exit prison.

A WOUND THAT NEVER HEALS (ft. Tammy Benson, Tuwana M. Dumond and Cheryl Frazier)

Raw, honest accounts of what it's like to have a loved one incarcerated.

FATHER'S DAY

For children who lose their parents to death or a military deployment, there's a level of sympathy and understanding.

When a child loses a parent because the parent is serving time, that level of empathy just doesn't exist.

FORCED

UNHCR says more than four million people have fled Syria since the conflict began. More than 75% of Syrian refugees are women and children.

LEAD POISONING

When the police are going to serve a warrant and they know there are two small children present, breaking down the door and taking the first shot in a standoff ain't it. At the very least think about the impression this will leave on the child...

A WOUND THAT NEVER HEALS (Documentary)

Raw, honest accounts of what it's like to have a loved one incarcerated.

A SECOND CHANCE

Ben and Alice have been married for 42 years. They lived across the street from each other as kids growing up in Queens. At the tender age of fourteen they began going steady. There had never been anyone else in either of their lives. They were the quintessential childhood sweethearts. A few years after graduating high school they decided to marry and start a family. But after three miscarriages the doctors told them they would never be able to have children. Alice so wanted a daughter, Ben a son. Though they took the news hard, at least they had each other. Then one day...

YOU SHAVED

Military families are often forgotten for their service and sacrifice. They, too, serve this nation. They weather holidays, birthdays and major milestones without their military loved ones. In the worst cases, they must deal with their loved one's ultimate sacrifice.

This is the story of one such brother and sister.

A WOUND THAT NEVER HEALS

As of 2014, in the United States, there were 160,000 inmates serving life and 3,000 on death row. This film is not about their guilt or innocence, but about the families they left behind.

AT FIRST LIGHT

I was only trying to spread the word. You know, tell the world, or at least a tiny slice of it, about my film. That's all.

I never meant to cause an international incident.

POWER (The Siren)

The dictionary defines power as the ability to influence the behavior of others with or without resistance.

Ancient Kings, the Greek gods, the Roman Empire, the United Kingdom, with their religion, money and family, have all held power throughout history.

But few powers can leave all the above in total ruin, like the power of a woman.

And the most powerful seductress of all was the SIREN.

EXONERATED

Based on a true story about a former high school football star whose dreams of a pro career were shattered by a rape conviction.

HONORE TON PÈRE

Hundreds, if not thousands, of women are murdered by their families each year in the name of family "honor". The murders frequently go unreported, the perpetrators unpunished, and the concept of family honor remains justified in the eyes of the FATHER.

BAILOUT

George is an economist with political aspirations. A quiet, reserved man, hard working and sincere. His demanding wife of two years has grown tired of being left alone. If his proposal to save our nation's economy is accepted by the President, George will be working in the new administration by week's end. There's just one problem....

IN THE PRESENCE OF EVIL

Tony Bennett sits in his tiny apartment. A compulsive man. Repeatedly making his bed, arranging his things, checking to see if the doors and windows are locked. He has no job, no friends. Allowed to collect from social services until he gets back on his feet, he's on probation for the next 5 years. Today is the first day his Probation Officer comes to the house. He can't bring himself to take down all Grace's pictures. They wallpaper his room. He sits on a wooden chair.... waiting..... The clock ticks away on the wall.

25 to life.....

BLESS ME FATHER

A suicide hotline operator seeks spiritual guidance.
The last few nights a very troubled girl has called numerous times.
She said she was being threatened by a very powerful man.
