“I now have the Rejoice! Rejoice! CD. It is without a doubt, a very unique, spiritual experience! God is smiling. You are truly blessed! I think that what you are giving is wonderful. One may find prosperity, solve problems, have better health, and achieve good personal relations by listening to your work of art. The basic principles will teach one to turn defeat into victory. You have said that only that which is true of God is true of me, for I and the Father are one. In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy paths. YOU GOT IT, MAN!!! I wish you all the BEST!”

“My prayer has been answered.

Rejoice! Rejoice! Deserves to be heard by people everywhere, of all cultures and religions. The rub of this work is the obvious spiritual awakening in the musical representations that specify the African contribution to music, period.

A proud work of art that will live on for many years. Perhaps this effort will inspire religions to look at spirituality and its music in a pure and realistic light. It is also intergenerational. That is why I brought my 12-year-old granddaughter to Indy to experience the joy and the truth expressed in such a fine work of musical writing.

Rejoice! Rejoice! Is, and always will be a hit with me. I listened to it, with no lights on, several times this past 2 weeks. It sounds better every time I meditate on it. Also, each time I listen, I hear some beautiful notes I had not heard before. All of the vocalizing and instrumentation is so well balanced and complimentary to each other and to the theme.

Jesus' resurrection is indeed the only thing we have to rejoice about. That gives us a hope for following His example. Rejoice is your ministry through music. God is pleased with your hard work and devotion to His message for mankind, sent through His Son, Jesus Christ.”

*Sincerely,
Madlyn Evans*
