

Is the Hot Air Blogger a Democrat?

This is a serious question. Regularly, almost every day, the Hot Blogger claims to be following and protecting the Linn County Republican Party Constitution and the Linn County Republican Central Committee Bylaws.

So how does he square that with supporting Democrats?

Joel Miller is the Linn County Auditor. Now many think Joel does a great job, but that doesn't qualify him as a Republican.

So why is the Hot Air Blogger promoting keeping more people on the Auditor's staff than the Linn County Supervisors think he needs to do his job? Wasn't it a Republican Supervisor who challenged the staffing?

Isn't that active support of a Democrat in opposition to a Republican?

Didn't the Hot Air Blogger support kicking a Republican out of the Central Committee? So perhaps the Linn County Republican Central Committee is about to receive the resignation of the Hot Air Blogger ... otherwise it seems as if by his statements that he might be a hypocrite. hhhhmmmmmm????

"Constitution of the Republican Party of Linn County"

"The purpose of the organization shall be, under one central committee ... to aid in every way the establishment of Republican principles and policies and assist ... in support of the Republican ticket."

What Republican principle supports growing government? Even the ICU doesn't support that do they??? Some of their members are questionable Republicans or even conservatives.

Is supporting a Democrat in keeping with "aiding and assisting" the support of Republicans under the Linn County Constitution? Don't think so.

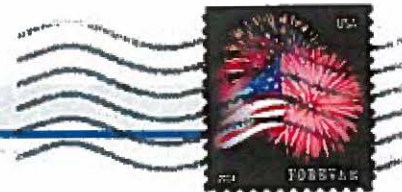

BIGGER QUESTION - What Republican activities has or does the Hot Air Blogger support? so far none on his blog. Isn't that curious?

A FRIEND of Republican principles.

CEDAR RAPIDS IA 524

08 MAY 2015 PM 1 T

A FRIEND

Dan Kaufman

1637 D Avenue

Cedar Rapids, Iowa 52402

52402$523i

