

David Lee Lambert

2380 Lindell Rd., Sterling Heights, MI 48310 • 1-586-979-5903 • lamber45@msu.edu • <http://www.w.cse.msu.edu/~lamber45/>

Objective:

Software engineering of I18N, networks and security in an environment with high coding standards and proven ethics

Skills:

Computer languages:	Ada, C, C++, Java, perl, Visual Basic
Protocols and standards:	HTML, VoiceXML, TCP/IP, SQL, Unicode
Operating systems:	Linux, Solaris, Windows 95/98/ME/NT/2000
Hardware:	MIPS, 6800, Intel, SPARC
Software:	StarOffice, MS Office, WordPerfect, Visual Studio, Borland C++, GNU tools, Apache

Fluent in Spanish
Experience with Arabic, German and Korean

Education:

Michigan State University
Bachelor of Science, Computer Science (GPA=3.4117/4.0), May 2003
Emphasis: Algorithms; Operating Systems; Graphics; Protocols

Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México (UNAM)
Classes, Summer 2002
Emphasis: Spanish as a Second Language

Sterling Heights High School
Graduated, May 1997
Emphasis: Electronics; Science

Work Experience:

Teaching assistant, Computing Concepts and Competencies (CSE 101)
MSU Department of Computer Science
Sep 2002 to May 2003
Taught students how to use Microsoft Office and other typical business software to accomplish complex tasks; graded assignments according to standardized criteria; participated in a test of a Java-based interface to the grading database

Ticket checker/dishwasher
MSU Food Services
Jan 2001 to May 2002

Cook/janitor/dishwasher
McDonalds
Aug 1996 to Jun 1997

Volunteer experience:

Aug 1998 to Aug 2000
Missionary
California - San Jose Mission
The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints