It has been such an incredible blessing to serve as Senior Pastor at Christ Community Church. A few months ago, the Lord let me know that it was time to move on. My husband Warren and I have re-located to East Sandwich on Cape Cod. I'm not sure what the future holds but I know who holds the future.

It is amazing that eight wonderful years have passed so quickly and that is because of the beautiful saints at Christ Community Church. As I step into the future my heart is full to overflowing with the love and generosity of everyone at the church. You have made my time of serving, eight of the best years of my life.

To those who will read this on the website: if you don't have a home church you will never find one that is better and more loving than Christ Community. As another pastor once said: "It's the best kept secret in town." Come and find out for yourself. The invitation is always open. Jesus is here.

No matter where the Lord takes me, Christ Community and everyone there will always be in my heart and prayers.
