

Email News

by Jack Healey

As I watch and wait for email news I often think of you and ponder how good my life has been and is, how blessed I am in spite of self.

But human nature oft' steps forward
When I'm most prone to idly wonder.
Doubts, fears & baseless thoughts take over - my peace held back by worry-bandits.

So if you pause and think of home, take time to jot a heart-felt note.
You may not sense the value in it,
But rest assured, it's precious treasure.

I Love You,

Dad

Precious in his Father's Eyes
Always on His Mind
Forever in His Heart
God Bless and Protect
