

Dear Jesus, long before I knew how much I needed You, You were there for me. Thank You for loving me so much that You were willing to die on the cross for my sins. You gave everything for me. I give You all that I have, my heart, my life, my love in return. Come and live within me that I might honour You in everything I do, Amen.

To continue as a true believer you must follow the Lord Jesus Christ. This involves regularly: 1. Reading the Bible; 2. Praying to God in Jesus' name; 3. Fellowshiping with other born-again believers.

THE COWBOY

Most people living in and around Wolverhampton, England know the local man called the Cowboy. In fact he has often approached people in the streets, giving his opinions about all sorts of things.

Many preachers who visit the city have also been on the receiving end of his “hatred” of religion.

So what made David William Cox this way? David was abandoned by his mother when he was only 3 years old and was raised by “strict” religious institutions, in which he suffered physical abuse. Consequently he was deprived of real “love” and the teachings of the God of love through Jesus Christ.

So for many years David led a lonely and confused lifestyle and could only gain some form of recognition by acting the part of the Cowboy.

One day whilst walking around the city he was approached by a loving Christian who told him that Jesus loved him.

One day whilst walking around the city he was approached by a loving Christian who told him that Jesus loved him.

However David was not initially impressed by the words and kept saying “Show me love and I will believe you!” The Christian man and his wife did show him love, as did a local church. Eventually David was drawn into a family of Christians who cared for him and put Jesus words into practice when He said, “Love your neighbour as yourself.”

In 2005 David accepted Jesus Christ into his life and was baptised in water. David has a far more important activity now telling people about Jesus. This testimony illustrates the fact that Jesus accepts anyone, whatever state they are in.

The Bible says:-

...if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. Romans 10: 9

Therefore, we urge you to pray a prayer such as that on the back page right NOW!
