【●ぶんかノート: Cultural Notes】

More Manners in a Japanese Classroom.

Japanese students sit at full attention when in class.

They sit:

1. with both feet flat on the floor. (No feet resting on chairs, no crossed legs, etc.)
2. with their backs straight, resting only on seat backs. (No slouching, no resting heads on desk, no resting heads on one hand, etc.)
3. always facing the teacher. When called to answer a question or when speaking up, they will always stand before responding.

【👩👧 アクティビティー: Activities】

A. Pair Work

Play the Simon Says game. Give commands to your partner using expressions you have learned.

B. Pair Work - Hiragana Speed Reading Contest

You show the hiragana cards one by one to your partner as your partner reads them aloud. Count how many he/she can read in 20 seconds. Take turns.
