

Occupants in Governor Bradford's Household

- Governor William Bradford (b. 1589/90), using his house also as his "office".
- His wife, Alice (Carpenter) (Southworth) Bradford (b. 1590/91), performing both domestic duties and "first lady" responsibilities.
- The Governor's oldest son, John (b. 1615), by his first wife, Dorothy. John moved out in c1645.
- The Governor's oldest son, William (b. 1624), by Alice. William moved out in c1651.
- The Governor's only daughter, Mercy (b. 1626). Mercy moved out in c1648.
- The Governor's youngest son, Joseph (b. 1630). Joseph moved out in c1664.
- Alice's son, Constant Southworth (b. 1615), from her previous marriage. Constant moved out in c1637.
- Alice's son, Thomas Southworth (b. 1616), from her previous marriage, Thomas moved out in c1641.
- Alice's nephew, Nathaniel Morton (b. c1613), son of George Morton and Juliana Carpenter (Alice's sister). Nathaniel moved out in c1635
- Joseph Rogers (b. 1609/10), orphaned son of Thomas Rogers of the Mayflower. Thomas died in the first winter, 1621. Joseph moved out in c1631.
- Thomas Cushman, orphaned son of Deacon Robert Cushman. Thomas moved out in c1636.
- William Latham (b. c1608), orphan, possibly a delinquent youth. William moved out in c1638
- Samuel Cuthbertson, orphaned son of a passenger on the ship, Anne, which arrived in Plymouth in 1623. It is not known when Samuel moved out.
- Mary Carpenter (b. c1596), younger sister of Alice. Mary never married, and lived to the age of 90 in the Governor's house.

(researched and compiled by Phillips V. Bradford)