

package for pre-registration). Andy Shaw suggested a cruise trip (prior to September 9) as an add-on. (It was re-affirmed that this UNTD event will not be connected to any NAC event and that it be a "stand alone" celebration of the 75th anniversary of the UNTD.)

(4) Land cruise: Bill Thomas has already laid out details of a bus trip around the lower Great Lakes with visits to important naval and historical sites. It cannot be done this year but August 2017 was suggested. He will get some idea of prices from June Longpre (travel agent).

(5) Ties and regalia for 2018: In anticipation of demand for UNTD ties and wire-badge crests (for blazers), Bill Thomas suggested we purchase some in advance of the Reunion. He then moved, seconded by Richard Wilson, that we purchase ties (at $30 per) and crests (at $40 per), with the order not to exceed $1000. CARRIED

(6) Honourary members: We welcomed aboard Captain Chris Pratt and Senator Noel Kinsella.

New business:

(1) NAC Ottawa 2016: The NAC AGM will take place from Thursday October 20 to Friday October 21. Saturday and Sunday are therefore open for a Saturday evening weepers and a Sunday up spirits at HMCS BYTOWN. Michael Mace will follow up on this.

(2) NAC Vancouver 2019: We may consider our participation at a future meeting.

(3) Next meeting: Tuesday March 15, 2016 at the Royal Canadian Military Institute, 1130 for 1200.

Adjournment: Moved by Bob Williamson. CARRIED
