 11: My days are past, my plans are broken off, the desires of my heart.

Job 17:11

v11: My days are past, my motivations are torn apart, also the desires of my Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul.

12: They make night into day; `The light,' they say, `is near to the darkness.'

13: If I look for Sheol as my house, if I spread my couch in darkness,
14: if I say to the pit, 'You are my father,' and to the worm, 'My mother,' or 'My sister,'
15: where then is my hope? Who will see my hope?
16: Will it go down to the bars of Sheol? Shall we descend together into the dust?"

Chapter 18
Job, chapter 18

1: Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:
2: "How long will you hunt for words? Consider, and then we will speak.
3: Why are we counted as cattle? Why are we stupid in your sight?
4: You who tear yourself in your anger, shall the earth be forsaken for you, or the rock be removed out of its place?
5: "Yea, the light of the wicked is put out, and the flame of his fire does not shine.
6: The light is dark in his tent, and his lamp above him is put out.
7: His strong steps are shortened and his own schemes throw him down.
8: For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walks on a pitfall.
9: A trap seizes him by the heel, a snare lays hold of him.
10: A rope is hid for him in the ground, a trap for him in the path.
11: Terrors frighten him on every side, and chase him at his heels.
12: His strength is hunger-bitten, and calamity is ready for his stumbling.
13: By disease his skin is consumed, the first-born of death consumes his limbs.
14: He is torn from the tent in which he trusted, and is brought to the king of terrors.
15: In his tent dwells that which is none of his; brimstone is scattered upon his habitation.
16: His roots dry up beneath, and his branches wither above.
17: His memory perishes from the earth, and he has no name in the street.

Job 18:17

v17: The memory of him perishes from the earth, and he has no name around him or abroad in his periphery.

18: He is thrust from light into darkness, and driven out of the world.
19: He has no offspring or descendant among his people, and no survivor where he used to live.
20: They of the west are appalled at his day, and horror seizes them of the east.
21: Surely such are the dwellings of the ungodly, such is the place of him who knows not God."

Job, chapter 19

1: Then Job answered:
2: "How long will you torment me, and break me in pieces with words?
3: These ten times you have cast reproach upon me; are you not ashamed to wrong me?
4: And even if it be true that I have erred, my error remains with myself.
5: If indeed you magnify yourselves against me, and make my humiliation an argument against me,
6: know then that God has put me in the wrong, and closed his net about me.
7: Behold, I cry out, 'Violence!' but I am not answered; I call aloud, but there is no justice.
8: He has walled up my way, so that I cannot pass, and he has set darkness upon my paths.
9: He has stripped from me my glory, and taken the crown from my head.
10: He breaks me down on every side, and I am gone, and my hope has he pulled up like a tree.
11: He has kindled his wrath against me, and counts me as his adversary.
12: His troops come on together; they have cast up siegeworks against me, and encamp round about my tent.
13: "He has put my brethren far from me, and my acquaintances are wholly estranged from me.
14: My kinsfolk and my close friends have failed me;
15: the guests in my house have forgotten me; my maidservants count me as a stranger; I have become an alien in their eyes.
16: I call to my servant, but he gives me no answer; I must beseech him with my mouth.
17: I am repulsive to my wife, loathsome to the sons of my own mother.
18: Even young children despise me; when I rise they talk against me.
19: All my intimate friends abhor me, and those whom I loved have turned against me.
20: My bones cleave to my skin and to my flesh, and I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.
21: Have pity on me, have pity on me, O you my friends, for the hand of God has touched me!
22: Why do you, like God, pursue me? Why are you not satisfied with my flesh?
23: "Oh that my words were written! Oh that they were inscribed in a book!
24: Oh that with an iron pen and lead they were graven in the rock for ever!
25: For I know that my Redeemer lives, and at last he will stand upon the earth;

Job 19:25

v25: I know that my redeemer lives and in the end he shall stand upon the earth,

26: and after my skin has been thus destroyed, then from my flesh I shall see God,

Job 19:26

v26: and after my skin has been destroyed (Physical Body) yet in my flesh, I will see God.

27: whom I shall see on my side, and my eyes shall behold, and not another. My heart faints within me!

28: If you say, 'How we will pursue him!' and, 'The root of the matter is found in him';

29: be afraid of the sword, for wrath brings the punishment of the sword, that you may know there is a judgment."

Job, chapter 20

1: Then Zophar the Na'amathite answered:

2: "Therefore my thoughts answer me, because of my haste within me.

3: I hear censure which insults me, and out of my understanding a spirit answers me.

4: Do you not know this from of old, since man was placed upon earth,

5: that the exulting of the wicked is short, and the joy of the godless but for a moment?

6: Though his height mount up to the heavens, and his head reach to the clouds,

7: he will perish for ever like his own dung; those who have seen him will say, 'Where is he?'

8: He will fly away like a dream, and not be found; he will be chased away like a vision of the night.

9: The eye which saw him will see him no more, nor will his place any more behold him.

10: His children will seek the favor of the poor, and his hands will give back his wealth.

11: His bones are full of youthful vigor, but it will lie down with him in the dust.

12: "Though wickedness is sweet in his mouth, though he hides it under his tongue, 13: though he is loath to let it go, and holds it in his mouth, 14: yet his food is turned in his stomach; it is the gall of asps within him.

15: He swallows down riches and vomits them up again; God casts them out of his belly.

16: He will suck the poison of asps; the tongue of a viper will kill him.

17: He will not look upon the rivers, the streams flowing with honey and curds.

18: He will give back the fruit of his toil, and will not swallow it down; from the profit of his trading he will get no enjoyment.

19: For he has crushed and abandoned the poor, he has seized a house which he did not build.

20: "Because his greed knew no rest, he will not save anything in which he delights.

21: There was nothing left after he had eaten; therefore his prosperity will not endure.

22: In the fulness of his sufficiency he will be in straits; all the force of misery will come upon him.

23: To fill his belly to the full God will send his fierce anger into him, and rain it upon him as his food.

24: He will flee from an iron weapon; a bronze arrow will strike him through.

25: It is drawn forth and comes out of his body, the glittering point comes out of his gall; terrors come upon him.

26: Utter darkness is laid up for his treasures; a fire not blown upon will devour him; what is left in his tent will be consumed.

27: The heavens will reveal his iniquity, and the earth will rise up against him.

28: The possessions of his house will be carried away, dragged off in the day of God's wrath.

29: This is the wicked man's portion from God, the heritage decreed for him by God."

Job, chapter 21

1: Then Job answered:

2: "Listen carefully to my words, and let this be your consolation.

3: Bear with me, and I will speak, and after I have spoken, mock on.

4: As for me, is my complaint against man? Why should I not be impatient?

5: Look at me, and be appalled, and lay your hand upon your mouth.

6: When I think of it I am dismayed, and shuddering seizes my flesh.

7: Why do the wicked live, reach old age, and grow mighty in power?

8: Their children are established in their presence, and their offspring before their eyes.

9: Their houses are safe from fear, and no rod of God is upon them.

10: Their bull breeds without fail; their cow calves, and does not cast her calf.

11: They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.

12: They sing to the tambourine and the lyre, and rejoice to the sound of the pipe.

13: They spend their days in prosperity, and in peace they go down to Sheol.

14: They say to God, 'Depart from us! We do not desire the knowledge of thy ways.

15: What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? And what profit do we get if we pray to him?'

16: Behold, is not their prosperity in their hand? The counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17: "How often is it that the lamp of the wicked is put out? That their calamity comes upon them? That God distributes pains in his anger?

18: That they are like straw before the wind, and like chaff that the storm carries away?

19: You say, 'God stores up their iniquity for their sons.' Let him recompense it to themselves, that they may know it.

20: Let their own eyes see their destruction, and let them drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

21: For what do they care for their houses after them, when the number of their months is cut off?

22: Will any teach God knowledge, seeing that he judges those that are on high?

23: One dies in full prosperity, being wholly at ease and secure,

24: his body full of fat and the marrow of his bones moist.

25: Another dies in bitterness of soul, never having tasted of good.

26: They lie down alike in the dust, and the worms cover them.

27: "Behold, I know your thoughts, and your schemes to wrong me.

28: For you say, 'Where is the house of the prince? Where is the tent in which the wicked dwelt?'

29: Have you not asked those who travel the roads, and do you not accept their testimony

30: that the wicked man is spared in the day of calamity, that he is rescued in the day of wrath?

31: Who declares his way to his face, and who requites him for what he has done?

32: When he is borne to the grave, watch is kept over his tomb.

33: The clods of the valley are sweet to him; all men follow after him, and those who go before him are innumerable.

34: How then will you comfort me with empty nothings? There is nothing left of your answers but falsehood."

Job, chapter 22

1: Then Eli'phaz the Te'manite answered:

2: "Can a man be profitable to God? Surely he who is wise is profitable to himself.

3: Is it any pleasure to the Almighty if you are righteous, or is it gain to him if you make your ways blameless?

4: Is it for your fear of him that he reproves you, and enters into judgment with you?

5: Is not your wickedness great? There is no end to your iniquities.

6: For you have exacted pledges of your brothers for nothing, and stripped the naked of their clothing.

7: You have given no water to the weary to drink, and you have withheld bread from the hungry.

8: The man with power possessed the land, and the favored man dwelt in it.

9: You have sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless were crushed.

10: Therefore snares are round about you, and sudden terror overwhelms you;

11: your light is darkened, so that you cannot see, and a flood of water covers you.

12: "Is not God high in the heavens? See the highest stars, how lofty they are!

13: Therefore you say, 'What does God know? Can he judge through the deep darkness?'

14: Thick clouds enwrap him, so that he does not see, and he walks on the vault of heaven.'

15: Will you keep to the old way which wicked men have trod?

16: They were snatched away before their time; their foundation was washed away.

17: They said to God, 'Depart from us,' and 'What can the Almighty do to us?'

18: Yet he filled their houses with good things -- but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

19: The righteous see it and are glad; the innocent laugh them to scorn,

20: saying, 'Surely our adversaries are cut off, and what they left the fire has consumed.'

21: "Agree with God, and be at peace; thereby good will come to you.

22: Receive instruction from his mouth, and lay up his words in your heart.

23: If you return to the Almighty and humble yourself, if you remove unrighteousness far from your tents,

24: if you lay gold in the dust, and gold of Ophir among the stones of the torrent bed,

25: and if the Almighty is your gold, and your precious silver;

26: then you will delight yourself in the Almighty, and lift up your face to God.

27: You will make your prayer to him, and he will hear you; and you will pay your vows.

28: You will decide on a matter, and it will be established for you, and light will shine on your ways.

29: For God abases the proud, but he saves the lowly.

30: He delivers the innocent man; you will be delivered through the cleanness of your hands."

Job, chapter 23

1: Then Job answered:

2: "Today also my complaint is bitter, his hand is heavy in spite of my groaning.

3: Oh, that I knew where I might find him, that I might come even to his seat!

4: I would lay my case before him and fill my mouth with arguments.

5: I would learn what he would answer me, and understand what he would say to me.

6: Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power? No; he would give heed to me.
7: There an upright man could reason with him, and I should be acquitted for ever by my judge.
8: "Behold, I go forward, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive him;
9: on the left hand I seek him, but I cannot behold him; I turn to the right hand, but I cannot see him.
10: But he knows the way that I take; when he has tried me, I shall come forth as gold.
11: My foot has held fast to his steps; I have kept his way and have not turned aside.
12: I have not departed from the commandment of his lips; I have treasured in my bosom the words of his mouth.
13: But he is unchangeable and who can turn him? What he desires, that he does.
14: For he will complete what he appoints for me; and many such things are in his mind.
15: Therefore I am terrified at his presence; when I consider, I am in dread of him.
16: God has made my heart faint; the Almighty has terrified me;
17: for I am hemmed in by darkness, and thick darkness covers my face.

Job, chapter 24

1: "Why are not times of judgment kept by the Almighty, and why do those who know him never see his days?
2: Men remove landmarks; they seize flocks and pasture them.
3: They drive away the ass of the fatherless; they take the widow's ox for a pledge.
4: They thrust the poor off the road; the poor of the earth all hide themselves.
5: Behold, like wild asses in the desert they go forth to their toil, seeking prey in the wilderness as food for their children.

v5: Behold, like wild asses in the desert they go out seeking food in their activities in the wilderness as food for their children.

6: They gather their fodder in the field and they glean the vineyard of the wicked man.
7: They lie all night naked, without clothing, and have no covering in the cold.
8: They are wet with the rain of the mountains, and cling to the rock for want of shelter.
9: (There are those who snatch the fatherless child from the breast, and take in pledge the infant of the poor.)
10: They go about naked, without clothing; hungry, they carry the sheaves;
11: among the olive rows of the wicked they make oil; they tread the wine presses, but suffer thirst.
12: From out of the city the dying groan, and the soul of the wounded cries for help; yet God pays no attention to their prayer.
13: "There are those who rebel against the light, who are not acquainted with its ways, and do not stay in its paths.
14: The murderer rises in the dark, that he may kill the poor and needy; and in the night he is as a thief.
15: The eye of the adulterer also waits for the twilight, saying, 'No eye will see me'; and he disguises his face.
16: In the dark they dig through houses; by day they shut themselves up; they do not know the light.
17: For deep darkness is morning to all of them; for they are friends with the terrors of deep darkness.
18: "You say, "They are swiftly carried away upon the face of the waters; their portion is cursed in the land; no treader turns toward their vineyards.
19: Drought and heat snatch away the snow waters; so does Sheol those who have sinned.
20: The squares of the town forget them; their name is no longer remembered; so wickedness is broken like a tree.'
v20: The womb forgets them; the worm feasts on them; evil men are no longer remembered but are broken like a tree 21: "They feed on the barren childless woman, and do no good to the widow.
22: Yet God prolongs the life of the mighty by his power; they rise up when they despair of life.
23: He gives them security, and they are supported; and his eyes are upon their ways.
24: They are exalted a little while, and then are gone; they wither and fade like the mallow; they are cut off like the heads of grain.
25: If it is not so, who will prove me a liar, and show that there is nothing in what I say?"

Job, chapter 25

1: Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:
2: "Dominion and fear are with God; he makes peace in his high heaven.
3: Is there any number to his armies? Upon whom does his light not arise?
4: How then can man be righteous before God? How can he who is born of woman be clean?
5: Behold, even the moon is not bright and the stars are not clean in his sight;
6: how much less man, who is a maggot, and the son of man, who is a worm!"

Chapter 26
Job, chapter 26

1: Then Job answered:
2: "How you have helped him who has no power! How you have saved the arm that has no strength!

3: How you have counseled him who has no wisdom, and plentifully declared sound knowledge!
 4: With whose help have you uttered words, and whose spirit has come forth from you?
 5: The shades below tremble, the waters and their inhabitants.
 6: Sheol is naked before God, and Abaddon has no covering.
 7: He stretches out the north over the void, and hangs the earth upon nothing.
 8: He binds up the waters in his thick clouds, and the cloud is not rent under them.
 9: He covers the face of the moon, and spreads over it his cloud.
 10: He has described a circle upon the face of the waters at the boundary between light and darkness.
 11: The pillars of heaven tremble, and are astounded at his rebuke.
 12: By his power he stilled the sea; by his understanding he smote Rahab.
 13: By his wind the heavens were made fair; his hand pierced the fleeing serpent.
 14: Lo, these are but the outskirts of his ways; and how small a whisper do we hear of him! But the thunder of his power who can understand?"

Chapter 27
 Job, chapter 27

1: And Job again took up his discourse, and said:
 2: "As God lives, who has taken away my right, and the Almighty, who has made my soul bitter;
 3: as long as my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils;
 4: my lips will not speak falsehood, and my tongue will not utter deceit.
 5: Far be it from me to say that you are right; till I die I will not put away my integrity from me.
 6: I hold fast my righteousness, and will not let it go; my heart does not reproach me for any of my days.
 7: "Let my enemy be as the wicked, and let him that rises up against me be as the unrighteous.
 8: For what is the hope of the godless when God cuts him off, when God takes away his life?
 9: Will God hear his cry, when trouble comes upon him?
 10: Will he take delight in the Almighty? Will he call upon God at all times?
 11: I will teach you concerning the hand of God; what is with the Almighty I will not conceal.
 12: Behold, all of you have seen it yourselves; why then have you become altogether vain?
 13: "This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage which oppressors receive from the Almighty:
 14: If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword; and his offspring have not enough to eat.
 15: Those who survive him the pestilence buries, and their widows make no lamentation.
 16: Though he heap up silver like dust, and pile up clothing like clay;
 17: he may pile it up, but the just will wear it, and the innocent will divide the silver.
 18: The house which he builds is like a spider's web, like a booth which a watchman makes.
 19: He goes to bed rich, but will do so no more; he opens his eyes, and his wealth is gone.
 20: Terrors overtake him like a flood; in the night a whirlwind carries him off.
 21: The east wind lifts him up and he is gone; it sweeps him out of his place.
 22: It hurls at him without pity; he flees from its power in headlong flight.
 23: It claps its hands at him, and hisses at him from its place.

 Job, chapter 28

1: "Surely there is a mine for silver, and a place for gold which they refine.
 2: Iron is taken out of the earth, and copper is smelted from the ore.
 3: Men put an end to darkness, and search out to the farthest bound the ore in gloom and deep darkness.
 4: They open shafts in a valley away from where men live; they are forgotten by travelers, they hang afar from men, they swing to and fro.
 5: As for the earth, out of it comes bread; but underneath it is turned up as by fire.
 6: Its stones are the place of sapphires, and it has dust of gold.
 7: "That path no bird of prey knows, and the falcon's eye has not seen it.
 8: The proud beasts have not trodden it; the lion has not passed over it.
 9: "Man puts his hand to the flinty rock, and overturns mountains by the roots.
 10: He cuts out channels in the rocks, and his eye sees every precious thing.
 11: He binds up the streams so that they do not trickle, and the thing that is hid he brings forth to light.
 12: "But where shall wisdom be found? And where is the place of understanding?
 13: Man does not know the way to it, and it is not found in the land of the living.
 14: The deep says, 'It is not in me,' and the sea says, 'It is not with me.'
 15: It cannot be gotten for gold, and silver cannot be weighed as its price.
 16: It cannot be valued in the gold of Ophir, in precious onyx or sapphire.

17: Gold and glass cannot equal it, nor can it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.
18: No mention shall be made of coral or of crystal; the price of wisdom is above pearls.
19: The topaz of Ethiopia cannot compare with it, nor can it be valued in pure gold.
20: "Whence then comes wisdom? And where is the place of understanding?
21: It is hid from the eyes of all living, and concealed from the birds of the air.
22: Abaddon and Death say, 'We have heard a rumor of it with our ears.'
23: "God understands the way to it, and he knows its place.
24: For he looks to the ends of the earth, and sees everything under the heavens.
25: When he gave to the wind its weight, and meted out the waters by measure;
26: when he made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder;
27: then he saw it and declared it; he established it, and searched it out.
28: And he said to man, 'Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.'"

Job, chapter 29

1: And Job again took up his discourse, and said:
2: "Oh, that I were as in the months of old, as in the days when God watched over me;
3: when his lamp shone upon my head, and by his light I walked through darkness;
4: as I was in my autumn days, when the friendship of God was upon my tent;
5: when the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me;
6: when my steps were washed with milk, and the rock poured out for me streams of oil!
7: When I went out to the gate of the city, when I prepared my seat in the square,
8: the young men saw me and withdrew, and the aged rose and stood;
9: the princes refrained from talking, and laid their hand on their mouth;
10: the voice of the nobles was hushed, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.
11: When the ear heard, it called me blessed, and when the eye saw, it approved;
12: because I delivered the poor who cried, and the fatherless who had none to help him.
13: The blessing of him who was about to perish came upon me, and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
14: I put on righteousness, and it clothed me; my justice was like a robe and a turban.
15: I was eyes to the blind, and feet to the lame.
16: I was a father to the poor, and I searched out the cause of him whom I did not know.
17: I broke the fangs of the unrighteous, and made him drop his prey from his teeth.
18: Then I thought, 'I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand, 19: my roots spread out to the waters, with the dew all night on my branches,
20: my glory fresh with me, and my bow ever new in my hand.'
21: "Men listened to me, and waited, and kept silence for my counsel.
22: After I spoke they did not speak again, and my word dropped upon them.
23: They waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouths as for the spring rain.
24: I smiled on them when they had no confidence; and the light of my countenance they did not cast down.
25: I chose their way, and sat as chief, and I dwelt like a king among his troops, like one who comforts mourners.

Job, chapter 30

1: "But now they make sport of me, men who are younger than I, whose fathers I would have disdained to set with the dogs of my flock.
2: What could I gain from the strength of their hands, men whose vigor is gone?
3: Through want and hard hunger they gnaw the dry and desolate ground;
4: they pick mallow and the leaves of bushes, and to warm themselves the roots of the broom.
5: They are driven out from among men; they shout after them as after a thief.
6: In the gullies of the torrents they must dwell, in holes of the earth and of the rocks.
7: Among the bushes they bray; under the nettles they huddle together.
8: A senseless, a disreputable brood, they have been whipped out of the land.
9: "And now I have become their song, I am a byword to them.
10: They abhor me, they keep aloof from me; they do not hesitate to spit at the sight of me.
11: Because God has loosed my cord and humbled me, they have cast off restraint in my presence.
12: On my right hand the rabble rise, they drive me forth, they cast up against me their ways of destruction.
13: They break up my path, they promote my calamity; no one restrains them.
14: As through a wide breach they come; amid the crash they roll on.
15: Terrors are turned upon me; my honor is pursued as by the wind, and my prosperity has passed away like a cloud.

v15: Terrors are turned against me; they pursue my honor as the wind, and my prosperity has passed away like a cloud.

16: "And now my soul is poured out within me; days of affliction have taken hold of me.

17: The night racks my bones, and the pain that gnaws me takes no rest.

18: With violence it seizes my garment; it binds me about like the collar of my tunic.

19: God has cast me into the mire, and I have become like dust and ashes.

20: I cry to thee and thou dost not answer me; I stand, and thou dost not heed me.

21: Thou hast turned cruel to me; with the might of thy hand thou dost persecute me.

22: Thou liftest me up on the wind, thou makest me ride on it, and thou tосest me about in the roar of the storm.

23: Yea, I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

24: "Yet does not one in a heap of ruins stretch out his hand, and in his disaster cry for help?

25: Did not I weep for him whose day was hard? Was not my soul grieved for the poor?

26: But when I looked for good, evil came; and when I waited for light, darkness came.

27: My heart is in turmoil, and is never still; days of affliction come to meet me.

28: I go about blackened, but not by the sun; I stand up in the assembly, and cry for help.

29: I am a brother of jackals, and a companion of ostriches.

30: My skin turns black and falls from me, and my bones burn with heat.

31: My lyre is turned to mourning, and my pipe to the voice of those who weep.

Chapter 31

Job, chapter 31

1: "I have made a covenant with my eyes; how then could I look upon a virgin?

2: What would be my portion from God above, and my heritage from the Almighty on high?

3: Does not calamity befall the unrighteous, and disaster the workers of iniquity?

4: Does not he see my ways, and number all my steps?

5: "If I have walked with falsehood, and my foot has hastened to deceit;

6: (Let me be weighed in a just balance, and let God know my integrity!)

7: if my step has turned aside from the way, and my heart has gone after my eyes, and if any spot has cleaved to my hands;

8: then let me sow, and another eat; and let what grows for me be rooted out.

9: "If my heart has been enticed to a woman, and I have lain in wait at my neighbor's door;

10: then let my wife grind for another, and let others bow down upon her.

11: For that would be a heinous crime; that would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges;

12: for that would be a fire which consumes unto Abaddon, and it would burn to the root all my increase.

13: "If I have rejected the cause of my manservant or my maidservant, when they brought a complaint against me;

14: what then shall I do when God rises up? When he makes inquiry, what shall I answer him?

15: Did not he who made me in the womb make him? And did not one fashion us in the womb?

16: "If I have withheld anything that the poor desired, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail,

17: or have eaten my morsel alone, and the fatherless has not eaten of it

18: (for from his youth I reared him as a father, and from his mother's womb I guided him);

19: if I have seen any one perish for lack of clothing, or a poor man without covering;

20: if his loins have not blessed me, and if he was not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;

21: if I have raised my hand against the fatherless, because I saw help in the gate;

22: then let my shoulder blade fall from my shoulder, and let my arm be broken from its socket.

23: For I was in terror of calamity from God, and I could not have faced his majesty.

24: "If I have made gold my trust, or called fine gold my confidence;

25: if I have rejoiced because my wealth was great, or because my hand had gotten much;

26: if I have looked at the sun when it shone, or the moon moving in splendor,

Job 31:26-28

v26: if I have worshiped looked at the sun when it shone, or the moon moving in its splendor,

27: and my heart has been secretly enticed, and my mouth has kissed my hand;

v27: Then my Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul would have become secretly enticed, but my hand through a good bye kiss from my mouth

28: this also would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges, for I should have been false to God above.

v28: that too would have been sin resulting in judgment, for I would have denied the God above after Salvation Adjustment to the Justice of God.

29: "If I have rejoiced at the ruin of him that hated me, or exulted when evil overtook him

30: (I have not let my mouth sin by asking for his life with a curse);

31: if the men of my tent have not said, 'Who is there that has not been filled with his meat?'

32: (the sojourner has not lodged in the street; I have opened my doors to the wayfarer);

33: if I have concealed my transgressions from men, by hiding my iniquity in my bosom,

34: because I stood in great fear of the multitude, and the contempt of families terrified me, so that I kept silence, and did not go out of doors --

35: Oh, that I had one to hear me! (Here is my signature! let the Almighty answer me!) Oh, that I had the indictment written by my adversary!

36: Surely I would carry it on my shoulder; I would bind it on me as a crown;

37: I would give him an account of all my steps; like a prince I would approach him.

38: "If my land has cried out against me, and its furrows have wept together;

39: if I have eaten its yield without payment, and caused the death of its owners;

40: let thorns grow instead of wheat, and fowl weeds instead of barley." The words of Job are ended.

Job, chapter 32

1: So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

v1: Then these three men ceased answering Job, they quit arguing with him, because he was righteous in his own eyes, arrogant and unteachable.

2: Then Eli'hu the son of Bar'achel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, became angry. He was angry at Job because he justified himself rather than God;

v2: But the anger of Eli'hu the son of Bar'achel the Buzite, of the family of Ram burned. Against Job his anger burned because Job justified himself rather than God;

3: he was angry also at Job's three friends because they had found no answer, although they had declared Job to be in the wrong.

v3: Also his anger burned against Job's three friends because they had found no answer, and yet they had condemned Job.

4: Now Eli'hu had waited to speak to Job because they were older than he.

v4: Now Eli'hu with good manners and poise waited his turn to speak to Job because the others were older than he.

5: And when Eli'hu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, he became angry.

v5: And when Eli'hu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his anger burned.

6: And Eli'hu the son of Bar'achel the Buzite answered: "I am young in years, and you are aged; therefore I was timid and afraid to declare my opinion to you.

v6: So Eli'hu the son of Bar'achel the Buzite answered and said: "I am young in years, and you are older; therefore I was reticent and shy about telling you my knowledge of Bible Doctrine.

7: I said, 'Let days speak, and many years teach wisdom.'

Job 32:7

v7: I said or thought to myself, I am repeating what I had previously thought and it should be said over and over again, Age should speak first or Days should be devoted to communication of Bible Doctrine under the Grace Apparatus for Perception, and a multitude or accumulation of years should cause to teach, present or communicate or cause us to understand maximum epignosis doctrinal wisdom.

8: But it is the spirit in a man, the breath of the Almighty, that makes him understand.

v8: But God the Holy Spirit inside man and the constant inhale of Bible Doctrine under the function of the Grace Apparatus for Perception from the Almighty causes understanding of Bible Doctrine 9: It is not the old that are wise, nor the aged that understand what is right.

v9: The abundant in years believers who have been saved a long time nor the elders understand Adjustment to the Justice of God.

10: Therefore I say, 'Listen to me; let me also declare my opinion.'

11: "Behold, I waited for your words, I listened for your wise sayings, while you searched out what to say.

12: I gave you my attention, and, behold, there was none that confuted Job, or that answered his words, among you.

13: Beware lest you say, 'We have found wisdom; God may vanquish him, not man.'

14: He has not directed his words against me, and I will not answer him with your speeches.

15: "They are discomfited, they answer no more; they have not a word to say.

16: And shall I wait, because they do not speak, because they stand there, and answer no more?

17: I also will give my answer; I also will declare my opinion.

18: For I am full of words, the spirit within me constrains me.

19: Behold, my heart is like wine that has no vent; like new wineskins, it is ready to burst.

20: I must speak, that I may find relief; I must open my lips and answer.

21: I will not show partiality to any person or use flattery toward any man.

22: For I do not know how to flatter, else would my Maker soon put an end to me.

Job, chapter 33

1: "But now, hear my speech, O Job, and listen to all my words.

2: Behold, I open my mouth; the tongue in my mouth speaks.
3: My words declare the uprightness of my heart, and what my lips know they speak sincerely.
4: The spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.

Job 33:4

v4: The spirit of God has manufactured or made me and the spark of life from the breath of the almighty has given me life, (GHS gives life at birth),

5: Answer me, if you can; set your words in order before me; take your stand.
6: Behold, I am toward God as you are; I too was formed from a piece of clay.
7: Behold, no fear of me need terrify you; my pressure will not be heavy upon you.
8: "Surely, you have spoken in my hearing, and I have heard the sound of your words.
9: You say, 'I am clean, without transgression; I am pure, and there is no iniquity in me.
10: Behold, he finds occasions against me, he counts me as his enemy;
11: he puts my feet in the stocks, and watches all my paths.'
12: "Behold, in this you are not right. I will answer you. God is greater than man.
13: Why do you contend against him, saying, 'He will answer none of my words'?
14: For God speaks in one way, and in two, though man does not perceive it.
15: In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls upon men, while they slumber on their beds, 16: then he opens the ears of men, and terrifies them with warnings, v16: When He opens the ears of men through Perception, Cognition, Inculcation & Metabolization of Bible Doctrine and he seals their instructions because of their motivation and self discipline of enforced or genuine humility converting gnosis to epignosis.

17: that he may turn man aside from his deed, and cut off pride from man;

v17: that he may turn man aside from his Divine Discipline and protect them from the Interlocking System of Arrogance

18: he keeps back his soul from the Pit, his life from perishing by the sword.
19: "Man is also chastened with pain upon his bed, and with continual strife in his bones;
20: so that his life loathes bread, and his appetite dainty food.
21: His flesh is so wasted away that it cannot be seen; and his bones which were not seen stick out.
22: His soul draws near the Pit, and his life to those who bring death.
23: If there be for him an angel, a mediator, one of the thousand, to declare to man what is right for him;
24: and he is gracious to him, and says, 'Deliver him from going down into the Pit, I have found a ransom;
25: let his flesh become fresh with youth; let him return to the days of his youthful vigor';
26: then man prays to God, and he accepts him, he comes into his presence with joy. He recounts to men his salvation, 27: and he sings before men, and says: 'I sinned and perverted what was right, and it was not required to me.
28: He has redeemed my soul from going down into the Pit, and my life shall see the light.'
29: "Behold, God does all these things, twice, three times, with a man, 30: to bring back his soul from the Pit, that he may see the light of life.
31: Give heed, O Job, listen to me; be silent, and I will speak.
32: If you have anything to say, answer me; speak, for I desire to justify you.
33: If not, listen to me; be silent, and I will teach you wisdom."

Job, chapter 34

1: Then Eli'hu said:
2: "Hear my words, you wise men, and give ear to me, you who know;
3: for the ear tests words as the palate tastes food.
4: Let us choose what is right; let us determine among ourselves what is good.
5: For Job has said, 'I am innocent, and God has taken away my right;
6: in spite of my right I am counted a liar; my wound is incurable, though I am without transgression.'
7: What man is like Job, who drinks up scoffing like water,
8: who goes in company with evildoers and walks with wicked men?
9: For he has said, 'It profits a man nothing that he should take delight in God.'
10: "Therefore, hear me, you men of understanding, far be it from God that he should do wickedness, and from the Almighty that he should do wrong.
11: For according to the work of a man he will requite him, and according to his ways he will make it befall him.
12: Of a truth, God will not do wickedly, and the Almighty will not pervert justice.
13: Who gave him charge over the earth and who laid on him the whole world?
14: If he should take back his spirit to himself, and gather to himself his breath, 15: all flesh would perish together, and man would return to dust.
16: "If you have understanding, hear this; listen to what I say.

17: Shall one who hates justice govern? Will you condemn him who is righteous and mighty, 18: who says to a king, 'Worthless one,' and to nobles, 'Wicked man';
 19: who shows no partiality to princes, nor regards the rich more than the poor, for they are all the work of his hands?
 20: In a moment they die; at midnight the people are shaken and pass away, and the mighty are taken away by no human hand.
 21: "For his eyes are upon the ways of a man, and he sees all his steps.
 22: There is no gloom or deep darkness where evildoers may hide themselves.
 23: For he has not appointed a time for any man to go before God in judgment.
 24: He shatters the mighty without investigation, and sets others in their place.
 25: Thus, knowing their works, he overturns them in the night, and they are crushed.
 26: He strikes them for their wickedness in the sight of men, 27: because they turned aside from following him, and had no regard for any of his ways,
 28: so that they caused the cry of the poor to come to him, and he heard the cry of the afflicted --
 29: When he is quiet, who can condemn? When he hides his face, who can behold him, whether it be a nation or a man? -- 30: that a godless man should not reign, that he should not ensnare the people.
 31: "For has any one said to God, 'I have borne chastisement; I will not offend any more;
 32: teach me what I do not see; if I have done iniquity, I will do it no more'?
 33: Will he then make requital to suit you, because you reject it? For you must choose, and not I; therefore declare what you know.
 34: Men of understanding will say to me, and the wise man who hears me will say:
 35: 'Job speaks without knowledge, his words are without insight.'
 36: Would that Job were tried to the end, because he answers like wicked men.
 37: For he adds rebellion to his sin; he claps his hands among us, and multiplies his words against God."

 Job, chapter 35

1: And Eli'hu said:
 2: "Do you think this to be just? Do you say, 'It is my right before God,'
 3: that you ask, 'What advantage have I? How am I better off than if I had sinned?'
 4: I will answer you and your friends with you.
 5: Look at the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds, which are higher than you.
 6: If you have sinned, what do you accomplish against him? And if your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to him?
 7: If you are righteous, what do you give to him; or what does he receive from your hand?
 8: Your wickedness concerns a man like yourself, and your righteousness a son of man.
 9: "Because of the multitude of oppressions people cry out; they call for help because of the arm of the mighty.

Job 35:9

v9: Because of a multitude of oppressions (reversionistic discipline) they cry out for help to other people, because the arm of the mighty is stretched out to them.

10: But none says, 'Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night,

Job 35:10

v10: But no one under the influence of evil says, "where is God my maker who gives songs in the night

11: who teaches us more than the beasts of the earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of the air?"

Job 35:11

v11: and teaches us more than the beasts of the earth, and makes us wiser than birds of the heaven, 12: There they cry out, but he does not answer, because of the pride of evil men.

Job 35:12

v12: There they cry out but mankind does not answer because of the pride or arrogance of evil men, 13: Surely God does not hear an empty cry, nor does the Almighty regard it.

Job 35:13

v13: surely God will not listen to an empty cry nor will the almighty regard, because of Pride of Evil Men.

14: How much less when you say that you do not see him, that the case is before him, and you are waiting for him!

15: And now, because his anger does not punish, and he does not greatly heed transgression, 16: Job opens his mouth in empty talk, he multiplies words without knowledge."

 Job, chapter 36

1: And Eli'hu continued, and said:
 2: "Bear with me a little, and I will show you, for I have yet something to say on God's behalf.
 3: I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
 4: For truly my words are not false; one who is perfect in knowledge is with you.
 5: "Behold, God is mighty, and does not despise any; he is mighty in strength of understanding.

6: He does not keep the wicked alive, but gives the afflicted their right.
7: He does not withdraw his eyes from the righteous, but with kings upon the throne he sets them for ever, and they are exalted.
8: And if they are bound in fetters and caught in the cords of affliction, 9: then he declares to them their work and their transgressions, that they are behaving arrogantly.
10: He opens their ears to instruction, and commands that they return from iniquity.

Job 36:10-14

v10: Therefore He opens their ears to doctrinal teaching, and commands that they return from evil.

11: If they hearken and serve him, they complete their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasantness.

v11: If they hear and serve him breaking out of homosexuality and reversionism, they end their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasure.

12: But if they do not hearken, they perish by the sword, and die without knowledge.

v12: But if they do not hear Bible Doctrine, they perish by the sword of the Sin Unto Death, and they shall die without knowledge of Bible Doctrine.

13: "The godless in heart cherish anger; they do not cry for help when he binds them.

v13: Now the godless in heart the reversionists store up anger; they do not cry for help when he binds them, they are so full of Mental Attitude Sins they do not respond to Divine Discipline and thus do not break out of homosexuality or reversionism by the intake of Bible Doctrine..

14: They die in youth, and their life ends in shame.

v14: They die in youth, and their life ends in among the sodomites.

15: He delivers the afflicted by their affliction, and opens their ear by adversity.

16: He also allured you out of distress into a broad place where there was no cramping, and what was set on your table was full of fatness.

17: "But you are full of the judgment on the wicked; judgment and justice seize you.

18: Beware lest wrath entice you into scoffing; and let not the greatness of the ransom turn you aside.

19: Will your cry avail to keep you from distress, or all the force of your strength?

20: Do not long for the night, when peoples are cut off in their place.

21: Take heed, do not turn to iniquity, for this you have chosen rather than affliction.

22: Behold, God is exalted in his power; who is a teacher like him?

23: Who has prescribed for him his way, or who can say, 'Thou hast done wrong'?

24: "Remember to extol his work, of which men have sung.

25: All men have looked on it; man beholds it from afar.

26: Behold, God is great, and we know him not; the number of his years is unsearchable.

27: For he draws up the drops of water, he distils his mist in rain 28: which the skies pour down, and drop upon man abundantly.

29: Can any one understand the spreading of the clouds, the thunderings of his pavilion?

30: Behold, he scatters his lightning about him, and covers the roots of the sea.

31: For by these he judges peoples; he gives food in abundance.

32: He covers his hands with the lightning, and commands it to strike the mark.

33: Its crashing declares concerning him, who is jealous with anger against iniquity.

Job, chapter 37

"At this also my heart trembles, and leaps out of its place.

2: Harken to the thunder of his voice and the rumbling that comes from his mouth.

3: Under the whole heaven he lets it go, and his lightning to the corners of the earth.

4: After it his voice roars; he thunders with his majestic voice and he does not restrain the lightnings when his voice is heard.

5: God thunders wondrously with his voice; he does great things which we cannot comprehend.

6: For to the snow he says, 'Fall on the earth'; and to the shower and the rain, 'Be strong.'

7: He seals up the hand of every man, that all men may know his work.

8: Then the beasts go into their lairs, and remain in their dens.

9: From its chamber comes the whirlwind, and cold from the scattering winds.

Job 37:9

v9: Out of the vacuum the low pressure area comes the whirlwind, and out of the north comes the cold weather.

10: By the breath of God ice is given, and the broad waters are frozen fast.

11: He loads the thick cloud with moisture; the clouds scatter his lightning.

12: They turn round and round by his guidance, to accomplish all that he commands them on the face of the habitable world.

13: Whether for correction, or for his land, or for love, he causes it to happen.

14: "Hear this, O Job; stop and consider the wondrous works of God.

15: Do you know how God lays his command upon them, and causes the lightning of his cloud to shine?

16: Do you know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him who is perfect in knowledge, 17: you whose garments are hot when the earth is still because of the south wind?
18: Can you, like him, spread out the skies, hard as a molten mirror?
19: Teach us what we shall say to him; we cannot draw up our case because of darkness.
20: Shall it be told him that I would speak? Did a man ever wish that he would be swallowed up?
21: "And now men cannot look on the light when it is bright in the skies, when the wind has passed and cleared them.
22: Out of the north comes golden splendor; God is clothed with terrible majesty.
23: The Almighty -- we cannot find him; he is great in power and justice, and abundant righteousness he will not violate.
24: Therefore men fear him; he does not regard any who are wise in their own conceit."

Job, chapter 38

1: Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind:
2: "Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge?
3: Gird up your loins like a man, I will question you, and you shall declare to me.
4: "Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding.
5: Who determined its measurements -- surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it?
6: On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone,
7: when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?
8: "Or who shut in the sea with doors, when it burst forth from the womb;
9: when I made clouds its garment, and thick darkness its swaddling band,
10: and prescribed bounds for it, and set bars and doors,
11: and said, `Thus far shall you come, and no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stayed?'
12: "Have you commanded the morning since your days began, and caused the dawn to know its place, 13: that it might take hold of the skirts of the earth, and the wicked be shaken out of it?
14: It is changed like clay under the seal, and it is dyed like a garment.
15: From the wicked their light is withheld, and their uplifted arm is broken.
16: "Have you entered into the springs of the sea, or walked in the recesses of the deep?
17: Have the gates of death been revealed to you, or have you seen the gates of deep darkness?
18: Have you comprehended the expanse of the earth? Declare, if you know all this.
19: "Where is the way to the dwelling of light, and where is the place of darkness, 20: that you may take it to its territory and that you may discern the paths to its home?
21: You know, for you were born then, and the number of your days is great!
22: "Have you entered the storehouses of the snow, or have you seen the storehouses of the hail,
23: which I have reserved for the time of trouble, for the day of battle and war?
24: What is the way to the place where the light is distributed, or where the east wind is scattered upon the earth?
25: "Who has cleft a channel for the torrents of rain, and a way for the thunderbolt, 26: to bring rain on a land where no man is, on the desert in which there is no man;
27: to satisfy the waste and desolate land, and to make the ground put forth grass?
28: "Has the rain a father, or who has begotten the drops of dew?
29: From whose womb did the ice come forth, and who has given birth to the hoarfrost of heaven?
30: The waters become hard like stone, and the face of the deep is frozen.
31: "Can you bind the chains of the Plei'ades, or loose the cords of Orion?
32: Can you lead forth the Maz'zaroth in their season, or can you guide the Bear with its children?
33: Do you know the ordinances of the heavens? Can you establish their rule on the earth?
34: "Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, that a flood of waters may cover you?
35: Can you send forth lightnings, that they may go and say to you, `Here we are?'
36: Who has put wisdom in the clouds, or given understanding to the mists?
37: Who can number the clouds by wisdom? Or who can tilt the waterskins of the heavens, 38: when the dust runs into a mass and the clods cleave fast together?
39: "Can you hunt the prey for the lion, or satisfy the appetite of the young lions, 40: when they crouch in their dens, or lie in wait in their covert?
41: Who provides for the raven its prey, when its young ones cry to God, and wander about for lack of food?"

Job, chapter 39

1: "Do you know when the mountain goats bring forth? Do you observe the calving of the hinds?
v1: "Do you know when the mountain goats the Ibex give birth? Do you observe the calving of the hinds?
2: Can you number the months that they fulfil, and do you know the time when they bring forth, v2: Can you count the months when the ibex gives birth, and do you know the time when they give birth, NO,

- 3: when they crouch, bring forth their offspring, and are delivered of their young?
- 4: Their young ones become strong, they grow up in the open; they go forth, and do not return to them.
- 5: "Who has let the wild ass go free? Who has loosed the bonds of the swift ass,
- 6: to whom I have given the steppe for his home, and the salt land for his dwelling place?
- 7: He scorns the tumult of the city; he hears not the shouts of the driver.
- 8: He ranges the mountains as his pasture, and he searches after every green thing.
- 9: "Is the wild ox willing to serve you? Will he spend the night at your crib?
- 10: Can you bind him in the furrow with ropes, or will he harrow the valleys after you?
- 11: Will you depend on him because his strength is great, and will you leave to him your labor?
- 12: Do you have faith in him that he will return, and bring your grain to your threshing floor?
- 13: "The wings of the ostrich wave proudly; but are they the pinions and plumage of love?
- 14: For she leaves her eggs to the earth, and lets them be warmed on the ground,
- 15: forgetting that a foot may crush them, and that the wild beast may trample them.
- 16: She deals cruelly with her young, as if they were not hers; though her labor be in vain, yet she has no fear;
- 17: because God has made her forget wisdom, and given her no share in understanding.
- 18: When she rouses herself to flee, she laughs at the horse and his rider.
- 19: "Do you give the horse his might? Do you clothe his neck with strength?
- 20: Do you make him leap like the locust? His majestic snorting is terrible.
- 21: He paws in the valley, and exults in his strength; he goes out to meet the weapons.
- 22: He laughs at fear, and is not dismayed; he does not turn back from the sword.
- 23: Upon him rattle the quiver, the flashing spear and the javelin.
- 24: With fierceness and rage he swallows the ground; he cannot stand still at the sound of the trumpet.
- 25: When the trumpet sounds, he says `Aha!' He smells the battle from afar, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.
- 26: "Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars, and spreads his wings toward the south?
- 27: Is it at your command that the eagle mounts up and makes his nest on high?
- 28: On the rock he dwells and makes his home in the fastness of the rocky crag.
- 29: Thence he spies out the prey; his eyes behold it afar off.
- 30: His young ones suck up blood; and where the slain are, there is he."

Job, chapter 40

- 1: And the LORD said to Job:
- 2: "Shall a faultfinder contend with the Almighty? He who argues with God, let him answer it."
- 3: Then Job answered the LORD:
- 4: "Behold, I am of small account; what shall I answer thee? I lay my hand on my mouth.
- 5: I have spoken once, and I will not answer; twice, but I will proceed no further."
- 6: Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind:
- 7: "Gird up your loins like a man; I will question you, and you declare to me.
- 8: Will you even put me in the wrong? Will you condemn me that you may be justified?
- 9: Have you an arm like God, and can you thunder with a voice like his?
- 10: "Deck yourself with majesty and dignity; clothe yourself with glory and splendor.
- 11: Pour forth the overflowings of your anger, and look on every one that is proud, and abase him.
- 12: Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked where they stand.
- 13: Hide them all in the dust together; bind their faces in the world below.
- 14: Then will I also acknowledge to you, that your own right hand can give you victory.
- 15: "Behold, Be'hemoth, which I made as I made you; he eats grass like an ox.
- 16: Behold, his strength in his loins, and his power in the muscles of his belly.
- 17: He makes his tail stiff like a cedar; the sinews of his thighs are knit together.
- 18: His bones are tubes of bronze, his limbs like bars of iron.
- 19: "He is the first of the works of God; let him who made him bring near his sword!
- 20: For the mountains yield food for him where all the wild beasts play.
- 21: Under the lotus plants he lies, in the covert of the reeds and in the marsh.
- 22: For his shade the lotus trees cover him; the willows of the brook surround him.
- 23: Behold, if the river is turbulent he is not frightened; he is confident though Jordan rushes against his mouth.
- 24: Can one take him with hooks, or pierce his nose with a snare?

Job, chapter 41

1: "Can you draw out Leviathan with a fishhook, or press down his tongue with a cord?
2: Can you put a rope in his nose, or pierce his jaw with a hook?
3: Will he make many supplications to you? Will he speak to you soft words?
4: Will he make a covenant with you to take him for your servant for ever?
5: Will you play with him as with a bird, or will you put him on leash for your maidens?
6: Will traders bargain over him? Will they divide him up among the merchants?
7: Can you fill his skin with harpoons, or his head with fishing spears?
8: Lay hands on him; think of the battle; you will not do it again!
9: Behold, the hope of a man is disappointed; he is laid low even at the sight of him.
10: No one is so fierce that he dares to stir him up. Who then is he that can stand before me?
11: Who has given to me, that I should repay him? Whatever is under the whole heaven is mine.
12: "I will not keep silence concerning his limbs, or his mighty strength, or his goodly frame.
13: Who can strip off his outer garment? Who can penetrate his double coat of mail?
14: Who can open the doors of his face? Round about his teeth is terror.
15: His back is made of rows of shields, shut up closely as with a seal.
16: One is so near to another that no air can come between them.
17: They are joined one to another; they clasp each other and cannot be separated.
18: His sneezings flash forth light, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the dawn.
19: Out of his mouth go flaming torches; sparks of fire leap forth.
20: Out of his nostrils comes forth smoke, as from a boiling pot and burning rushes.
21: His breath kindles coals, and a flame comes forth from his mouth.
22: In his neck abides strength, and terror dances before him.
23: The folds of his flesh cleave together, firmly cast upon him and immovable.
24: His heart is hard as a stone, hard as the nether millstone.
25: When he raises himself up the mighty are afraid; at the crashing they are beside themselves.
26: Though the sword reaches him, it does not avail; nor the spear, the dart, or the javelin.

Job 41:26-29

v26: The sword that reaches him, the mature believer in combat, cannot prevail; nor the spear, nor the dart, nor the javelin.

27: He counts iron as straw, and bronze as rotten wood.

v27: He, the believer in Maturity Adjustment to the Justice of God, regards iron as straw, and bronze as rotten wood, not being deterred by the armor of his opponents.

28: The arrow cannot make him flee; for him slingstones are turned to stubble.

v28: The arrow cannot cause him to flee; for him sling stones are turned to stubble.

29: Clubs are counted as stubble; he laughs at the rattle of javelins.

v29: Battle Clubs are regarded as stubble; and he laughs at the rattling of the many javelins coming toward him in attack.

30: His underparts are like sharp potsherds; he spreads himself like a threshing sledge on the mire.

31: He makes the deep boil like a pot; he makes the sea like a pot of ointment.

32: Behind him he leaves a shining wake; one would think the deep to be hoary.

33: Upon earth there is not his like, a creature without fear.

34: He beholds everything that is high; he is king over all the sons of pride."

Job, chapter 42

1: Then Job answered the LORD:

Job 42:1

v1: Then Job answered the Lord and said:

2: "I know that thou canst do all things, and that no purpose of thine can be thwarted.

v2: I know that you can do all things and no purpose of yours can be prevented."

3: 'Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?' Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.

Job 42:3

v3: "Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge, therefore I have declared that which I did not understand, Things too wonderful for me which I did not know."

4: 'Hear, and I will speak; I will question you, and you declare to me.'

Job 42:4

v4: "Hear now I will speak, I will ask you and you (God) will instruct me."

5: I had heard of thee by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees thee;

Job 42:5

v5: "I have heard of you by the hearing of the ear, and now my eyes see you."

6: therefore I despise myself, and repent in dust and ashes."

Job 42:6

v6: "I retract and change my mind in dust and ashes" (Rebound)

7: After the LORD had spoken these words to Job, the LORD said to Eli'phaz the Te'manite: "My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends; for you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has.

v7: And it came about after the lord had spoken these words to Job, the Lord said to Eli'phaz the Te'manite: "My wrath is kindled against you and your 2 friends, because you have not spoken the right view as my servant Job has".

8: Now therefore take seven bulls and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you, for I will accept his prayer not to deal with you according to your folly; for you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has."

v8: Now therefore take seven bulls and seven rams (Burnt offering part) and you are to go to my servant Job, and you are to offer up a burnt offering for yourselves (rebound) and my servant Job will pray for you, I will accept his prayer, so that I may not deal with you in punishment according to your foolishness, because you have not spoken what is right as my servant Job has.

9: So Eli'phaz the Te'manite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Na'amathite went and did what the LORD had told them; and the LORD accepted Job's prayer.

Job 42:9

v9: So Eli'phas the te'manite, and Bildad the shuhite and Zophar the Na'amathite went and did what the Lord had told them and the lord accepted Job's powerful prayer.

10: And the LORD restored the fortunes of Job, when he had prayed for his friends; and the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.

Job 42:10

v10: And the Lord restored the fortunes of Job, and the Lord increased all that Job had 2 fold.

11: Then came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and ate bread with him in his house; and they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him; and each of them gave him a piece of money and a ring of gold.

v11: Then all of his brothers and sisters and all who had known him came to see him, they ate bread with him (he treated them to good food) in his own castle, and they consoled and comforted him and comforted him (now he was rich) for all the evil that the Lord Brought on him, and each of them gave him one piece of money and a ring of Gold.

12: And the LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; and he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-asses.

Job 42:12

v12: And the lord blessed the latter days of Job more than the beginning, and he had 14,000 sheep and 6,000 camels, and 1000 yoke of oxen, and 1000 female donkeys, 13: He had also seven sons and three daughters.

Job 42:13

v13: And he had 7 sons and 3 daughters (his second group of children)

14: And he called the name of the first Jemi'mah; and the name of the second Kezi'ah; and the name of the third Ker'en-hap'puch.

Job 42:14

v14: He named the first Jeremiah, he named the second Kezi'ah, and he named the third, Ker'en-Hap-puch.

15: And in all the land there were no women so fair as Job's daughters; and their father gave them inheritance among their brothers.

Job 42:15

v15: and in all the land no women were found so fair as Job's Daughters and their father gave them inheritance beyond or more than their brothers

16: And after this Job lived a hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, four generations.

v16: And after this Job lived 140 years and saw his sons and his grandsons and 4 generations.

17: And Job died, an old man, and full of days.

Job 42:17

v17: And Job died an old man and had the greatest happiness in the rest of his life.

Joel, chapter 1

1: The word of the LORD that came to Joel, the son of Pethu'el:

2: Hear this, you aged men, give ear, all inhabitants of the land! Has such a thing happened in your days, or in the days of your fathers?

3: Tell your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

4: What the cutting locust left, the swarming locust has eaten. What the swarming locust left, the hopping locust has eaten, and what the hopping locust left, the destroying locust has eaten.

5: Awake, you drunkards, and weep; and wail, all you drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine, for it is cut off from your mouth.

6: For a nation has come up against my land, powerful and without number; its teeth are lions' teeth, and it has the fangs of a lioness.

7: It has laid waste my vines, and splintered my fig trees; it has stripped off their bark and thrown it down; their branches are made white.

8: Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the bridegroom of her youth.

9: The cereal offering and the drink offering are cut off from the house of the LORD. The priests mourn, the ministers of the LORD.

10: The fields are laid waste, the ground mourns; because the grain is destroyed, the wine fails, the oil languishes.

11: Be confounded, O tillers of the soil, wail, O vinedressers, for the wheat and the barley; because the harvest of the field has perished.

12: The vine withers, the fig tree languishes. Pomegranate, palm, and apple, all the trees of the field are withered; and gladness fails from the sons of men.

13: Gird on sackcloth and lament, O priests, wail, O ministers of the altar. Go in, pass the night in sackcloth, O ministers of my God! Because cereal offering and drink offering are withheld from the house of your God.

14: Sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly. Gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land to the house of the LORD your God; and cry to the LORD.

15: Alas for the day! For the day of the LORD is near, and as destruction from the Almighty it comes.

16: Is not the food cut off before our eyes, joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17: The seed shrivels under the clods, the storehouses are desolate; the granaries are ruined because the grain has failed.

18: How the beasts groan! The herds of cattle are perplexed because there is no pasture for them; even the flocks of sheep are dismayed.

19: Unto thee, O LORD, I cry. For fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and flame has burned all the trees of the field.

20: Even the wild beasts cry to thee because the water brooks are dried up, and fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

Joel, chapter 2

1: Blow the trumpet in Zion; sound the alarm on my holy mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of the LORD is coming, it is near, v1: Sound the Rams Horn warning of the coming of invaders in Zion or Jerusalem; sound the alarm on my holy mountain of Jerusalem (Dan 11:45)! Let All the inhabitants of the earth and of southern Palestine tremble with awe and fear, for the day of the LORD is coming at the end of the tribulation, surely it is near at hand, chronologically,

2: a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness! Like blackness there is spread upon the mountains a great and powerful people; their like has never been from of old, nor will be again after them through the years of all generations.

v2: a day of supernatural darkness as occurred at the cross and a gloominess of Human Viewpoint hopelessness, a day of clouds of invading armies (Ez 38:9-10) and thick abnormal darkness to protect the resisting believers in Jerusalem! As the dawn spreads upon the mountains and invades the darkness with pockets of protecting darkness remaining but cannot be stopped, a great and powerful people from the king of the North; their like has never been from of old, nor will be again after them through the years of all generations.

3: Fire devours before them, and behind them a flame burns. The land is like the garden of Eden before them, but after them a desolate wilderness, and nothing escapes them.

v3: As a Fire devours or eats up everything before it, and behind it a flame burns the land. The land is like the garden of Eden where they had not been with great economic prosperity, but behind them or where they had been a desolate wilderness, and escape shall not be unto him, the dictator of Palestine the false messiah and his administration and also the King of the North.

4: Their appearance is like the appearance of horses, and like war horses they run.

v4: Their appearance is like the appearance of horses or mobile forces or calvary, and like war horses or armored calvary they shall advance.

5: As with the rumbling of chariots, they leap on the tops of the mountains, like the crackling of a flame of fire devouring the stubble, like a powerful army drawn up for battle.

v5: Like the noise of chariots, they leap on the tops of the mountains moving with great rapidity, like the popping or crackling noise of a flame of fire devouring the stubble, like a powerful army drawn up and organized for battle.

6: Before them peoples are in anguish, all faces grow pale.

v6: Before them the peoples are in maximum pain and anguish, because of the shock of it all the faces pale with worry or anxiety.

7: Like warriors they charge, like soldiers they scale the wall. They march each on his way, they do not swerve from their paths.

v7: They shall advance in the attack with great courage, like professional soldiers they overrun the fortification wall of Jerusalem. They march with perfect discipline and incredible training, they will not break ranks under fire.

8: They do not jostle one another, each marches in his path; they burst through the weapons and are not halted.

v8: They do not jostle one another or have any friendly fire casualties, They will advance effectively in their own tactical situation; although they stumble or fall amidst intense fire they shall not be wounded but get up and continue the attack.

9: They leap upon the city, they run upon the walls; they climb up into the houses, they enter through the windows like a thief.

v9: They shall break into the city and plunder it and rape the women destroying it all (Zech 12, 14:1-2), they assault the walls; they assault the houses, they suddenly enter through the windows and with great surprise.

10: The earth quakes before them, the heavens tremble. The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.

v10: The earth will quake before him, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, the heavens tremble. The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.

11: The LORD utters his voice before his army, for his host is exceedingly great; he that executes his word is powerful. For the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; who can endure it?

v11: And the LORD shall utter his voice out in front of his army, for his military organization is exceedingly great; he is very powerful that executes his word to kill by speaking. For the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; who can endure or stand up under all this divine judgment?

12: "Yet even now," says the LORD, "return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning;

v12: "Therefore also", says the LORD, "turn you to me for help with all your Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul for Salvation Adjustment to the Justice of God, with concentrated bible study setting all other normal activities aside, with weeping for joy expressing great happiness having found Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ for salvation, and with mourning of the gentiles who realize what they have missed in the Church Age;

13: and rend your hearts and not your garments." Return to the LORD, your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and repents of evil.

v13: Tear open the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of your Soul with the gospel and express faith alone in Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ alone and not your garments as when you have ecstatic emotional experiences, and turn to the LORD, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, your God, for he is gracious from Eternity Past and he is merciful to bring it all into action in time manifesting his character, slow to anger, and having great steadfast love and kindness, and changes his mind of the disastrous punishment for sin and disciplines us by his love through his justice.

14: Who knows whether he will not turn and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, a cereal offering and a drink offering for the LORD, your God?

v14: Who, of the people of the tribulation, know when he, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, will return and change his mind regarding the 5th cycle of Divine Discipline for Israel, and leave a gift not deserved nor earned blessing of the perfect environment of the millennium behind him, a grain offering and a drink offering for the LORD, your God looking back to the cross?

15: Blow the trumpet in Zion; sanctify a fast; call a solemn assembly;

v15: Blow the metal trumpet in Zion to gather the people; sanctify or set apart a special worship period for Occupation with the Person of Christ and celebration of the Grace of God and awareness of his character and plan and faithfulness and love; call a solemn assembly of Jewish believers;

16: gather the people. Sanctify the congregation; assemble the elders; gather the children, even nursing infants. Let the bridegroom leave his room, and the bride her chamber.

v16: gather the people; Sanctify or Set apart the assembly of Jewish believers for a celebration of the return of Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ; assemble the elders ruling the country and stop the function of government; gather the children who are in school, and bring nursing infants and those who have not reached accountability. Let the bridegroom leave his room, and the bride her chamber and stop their honeymoon.

17: Between the vestibule and the altar let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep and say, "Spare thy people, O LORD, and make not thy heritage a reproach, a byword among the nations. Why should they say among the peoples, `Where is their God?'"

v17: Before the party during great crisis and disaster let the priests and ministers or prophets of the Lord, pray with great intensity between the vestibule and the altar of the temple, "Have pity and compassion and exercise grace toward your people, oh LORD, and do not give your heritage of these people who are under your covenants to reproach under the 5th cycle of discipline among the other nations. So that the heathen should not rule over them and they should not say among the people of the world, `Where is their God?'"

18: Then the LORD became jealous for his land, and had pity on his people.

v18: Then will the LORD be Zealous for his land, and then he will have compassion on his people with grace finding a solution.

19: The LORD answered and said to his people, "Behold, I am sending to you grain, wine, and oil, and you will be satisfied; and I will no more make you a reproach among the nations.

v19: Yes! The LORD will answer in both near and far historical disasters and say to his people, "Behold, I am sending to you corn, wine, and oil as an expression of incredible economic prosperity, and you will be satisfied Sharing the Happiness of God while in prosperity; and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen thus no more 5th cycle of discipline.

20: "I will remove the northerner far from you, and drive him into a parched and desolate land, his front into the eastern sea, and his rear into the western sea; the stench and foul smell of him will rise, for he has done great things.

v20: "I will remove far from you the northern army (Dan 11:40-45, Zech 14:1-9), and drive him into a land barren and desolate, his face toward the eastern sea of the dead sea, and the rear of his army toward the western sea of the Mediterranean sea and they will be destroyed; and their stench and foul smell will come up from the great number of dead (Ez 39:11), because he, God the Son, has done great things.

v21: "Fear not and relax mentally, Oh land of Israel; rejoice and possess inner happiness because of the Grace of God, the LORD has done and will do great things!

22: Fear not, you beasts of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness are green; the tree bears its fruit, the fig tree and vine give their full yield.

v22: Do not be afraid you animals of the field, for the pastures of the desert will become green; the tree bears its fruit, the fig tree and vine give their full yield in agricultural prosperity.

23: "Be glad, O sons of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD, your God; for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the latter rain, as before.

v23: "Have inner happiness, Oh you children of Zion, believing Jews, and rejoice in the LORD, your God; for he has given you believers the teacher, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, of righteousness for your vindication (Is 11), and he will cause to come down for you abundant rain, the early rain for planting and the latter rain for growth, as before bringing great economic prosperity.

24: "The threshing floors shall be full of grain, the vats shall overflow with wine and oil.

v24: "The threshing floors shall be full of wheat, and the vats shall overflow with wine and oil demonstrating incredible prosperity.

25: I will restore to you the years which the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent among you.

v25: I will restore to you the years which the swarming locust of the Assyrian invasion has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent among you.

26: "You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame.

v26: "You shall eat magnificently enjoying it and healthfully benefit from it and be satisfied, and you will praise the name of the LORD your God, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, who has done wonderful things for you in grace. And my people the believers in the millennium shall never again be confused, upset or off balance mentally. (Is 11)

27: You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the LORD, am your God and there is none else. And my people shall never again be put to shame.

v27: You shall know from Metabolized Bible Doctrine that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the LORD, am your God and there is none else. And my people shall never again be confused, upset or off balance mentally.

28: "And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions.

v28: Because of no confusion and maximum Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the believer in the millennium "And it shall come about after this institution of the kingdom, that I will pour out God the Holy Spirit on all believers surviving the tribulation forming the nucleus of the millennial civilization; and your, Israel's, sons and daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions.

29: Even upon the menservants and maidservants in those days, I will pour out my spirit.

v29: Even upon the menservants and maidservants in those days, I will pour out God the Holy Spirit.

30: "And I will give portents in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke.

v30: "And I will show wonders and miracles in the heavens (Rev 1:7) and on the earth, blood (Rev 14, Ez 38-39, Is 63) and fire (Rev 9:17-18) and columns of smoke (Rev 18:9+18, 19:30).

31: The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes.

v31: The sun shall be turned to absolute darkness (Is 13:9-10, Ez 32:7-8, Joel 2:10-11, etc), and the moon to the color of blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes.

32: And it shall come to pass that all who call upon the name of the LORD shall be delivered; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the LORD has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the LORD calls.

v32: And it shall come to pass that all who call upon the name of the LORD using the Faith Rest Drill (4 categories), shall be delivered in Salvation Adjustment to the Justice of God; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the LORD has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the LORD calls.

1: "For behold, in those days and at that time, when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem,
2: I will gather all the nations and bring them down to the valley of Jehoshaphat, and I will enter into judgment with them there, on account of my people and my heritage Israel, because they have scattered them among the nations, and have divided up my land,
v2: I will gather all nations to Battle and I will bring them down to the valley of Jehosaphat (JHWH Judges) and I will enter into judgement there with them on behalf of my people (Israel) and my heritage or inheritance of Israel, because they have scattered them among the nations (taken prisoners) and divided my land.

The Book of Jonah

Chapter 1

Jonah, chapter 1

1: Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of Amit'tai, saying,

2: "Arise, go to Nin'evah, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness has come up before me."

3: But Jonah rose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid the fare, and went on board, to go with them to Tarshish, away from the presence of the LORD.

4: But the LORD hurled a great wind upon the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship threatened to break up.

5: Then the mariners were afraid, and each cried to his god; and they threw the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it for them. But Jonah had gone down into the inner part of the ship and had lain down, and was fast asleep.

6: So the captain came and said to him, "What do you mean, you sleeper? Arise, call upon your god! Perhaps the god will give a thought to us, that we do not perish."

7: And they said to one another, "Come, let us cast lots, that we may know on whose account this evil has come upon us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

8: Then they said to him, "Tell us, on whose account this evil has come upon us? What is your occupation? And whence do you come? What is your country? And of what people are you?"

9: And he said to them, "I am a Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land."

10: Then the men were exceedingly afraid, and said to him, "What is this that you have done!" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11: Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you, that the sea may quiet down for us?" For the sea grew more and more tempestuous.

12: He said to them, "Take me up and throw me into the sea; then the sea will quiet down for you; for I know it is because of me that this great tempest has come upon you."

13: Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring the ship back to land, but they could not, for the sea grew more and more tempestuous against them.

14: Therefore they cried to the LORD, "We beseech thee, O LORD, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not on us innocent blood; for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee."

15: So they took up Jonah and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased from its raging.

16: Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows.

17: And the LORD appointed a great fish to swallow up Jonah; and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

Chapter 2

Jonah, chapter 2

1: Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from the belly of the fish,

2: saying, "I called to the LORD, out of my distress, and he answered me; out of the belly of Sheol I cried, and thou didst hear my voice.

3: For thou didst cast me into the deep, into the heart of the seas, and ` was round about me; all thy waves and thy billows passed over me.

4: Then I said, `I am cast out from thy presence; how shall I again look upon thy holy temple?'

5: The waters closed in over me, the deep was round about me; weeds were wrapped about my head

6: at the roots of the mountains. I went down to the land whose bars closed upon me for ever; yet thou didst bring up my life from the Pit, O LORD my God.

7: When my soul fainted within me, I remembered the LORD; and my prayer came to thee, into thy holy temple.

8: Those who pay regard to vain idols forsake their true loyalty.

9: But I with the voice of thanksgiving will sacrifice to thee; what I have vowed I will pay. Deliverance belongs to the LORD!"

10: And the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

Jonah, chapter 3

- 1: Then the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying,
  - 2: "Arise, go to Nin'evah, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you."
  - 3: So Jonah arose and went to Nin'evah, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nin'evah was an exceedingly great city, three days' journey in breadth.
  - 4: Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's journey. And he cried, "Yet forty days, and Nin'evah shall be overthrown!"
  - 5: And the people of Nin'evah believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least of them.
  - 6: Then tidings reached the king of Nin'evah, and he arose from his throne, removed his robe, and covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.
  - 7: And he made proclamation and published through Nin'evah, "By the decree of the king and his nobles: Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, or drink water,
  - 8: but let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and let them cry mightily to God; yea, let every one turn from his evil way and from the violence which is in his hands.
  - 9: Who knows, God may yet repent and turn from his fierce anger, so that we perish not?"
  - 10: When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil way, God repented of the evil which he had said he would do to them; and he did not do it.
- v10: When God saw their deeds, how they turned from their evil way, God repented of the evil which he declared he would do to them; and he did not do it.

Jonah, chapter 4

- 1: But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry.
- 2: And he prayed to the LORD and said, "I pray thee, LORD, is not this what I said when I was yet in my country? That is why I made haste to flee to Tarshish; for I knew that thou art a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and repentest of evil.
- 3: Therefore now, O LORD, take my life from me, I beseech thee, for it is better for me to die than to live."
- 4: And the LORD said, "Do you do well to be angry?"
- 5: Then Jonah went out of the city and sat to the east of the city, and made a booth for himself there. He sat under it in the shade, till he should see what would become of the city.
- 6: And the LORD God appointed a plant, and made it come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to save him from his discomfort. So Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the plant.
- 7: But when dawn came up the next day, God appointed a worm which attacked the plant, so that it withered.
- 8: When the sun rose, God appointed a sultry east wind, and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah so that he was faint; and he asked that he might die, and said, "It is better for me to die than to live."
- 9: But God said to Jonah, "Do you do well to be angry for the plant?" And he said, "I do well to be angry, angry enough to die."
- 10: And the LORD said, "You pity the plant, for which you did not labor, nor did you make it grow, which came into being in a night, and perished in a night.
- 11: And should not I pity Nin'evah, that great city, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand persons who do not know their right hand from their left, and also much cattle?"

The Book of Joshua

Chapter 1
Joshua, chapter 1

- 1: After the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, the LORD said to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister,
- Josh 1:1
- v1: Now it came about after the death of Moses the servant of the Lord, that the Lord spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses second in command
- 2: "Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, into the land which I am giving to them, to the people of Israel.
- Josh 1:2
- v2: Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise cross the Jordan and move into the west bank, you and all your people into the land which I am giving to you and the people of Israel.
- 3: Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given to you, as I promised to Moses.
- Josh 1:3
- v3: Everyplace on which the soul of your foot marches when fighting, I have given it to you just as I have spoken to Moses.

4: From the wilderness and this Lebanon as far as the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites to the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun shall be your territory.

Josh 1:4

v4: From the desert this is Lebanon, as far as the Great river the river Euphrates, all of the land of the Hittites in eastern Anatolia or Turkey, and as far as the Great Sea the Mediterranean Sea toward the setting of the sun including Syria and Lebanon, all of this will be your territory.

5: No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life; as I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will not fail you or forsake you.

v5: No man will be able to stand before you all the days of your life; just as it was with Moses, I will be with you, I will not fail you I will not forsake you.

6: Be strong and of good courage; for you shall cause this people to inherit the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.

v6: Be strong and courageous for you shall give this people possession of the Land which I promised to their fathers.

7: Only be strong and very courageous, being careful to do according to all the law which Moses my servant commanded you; turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may have good success wherever you go.

Josh 1:7

v7: Only Be strong and very courageous, be careful to do according to all the law which Moses my servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right or left, so that you may have success acting wisely wherever you go.

8: This book of the law shall not depart out of your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it; for then you shall make your way prosperous, and then you shall have good success.

v8: This book of the law (/ot) shall not depart from your mouth but you shall meditate on it day and night so that you may be careful to do according to all that has written, for then you will make your way prosperous and then you will have success

9: Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; be not frightened, neither be dismayed; for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go."

Josh 1:9

v9: have I not commanded you to be strong and courageous, do not tremble nor be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go.

10: Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people,

11: "Pass through the camp, and command the people, `Prepare your provisions; for within three days you are to pass over this Jordan, to go in to take possession of the land which the LORD your God gives you to possess."

12: And to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh Joshua said,

13: "Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, `The LORD your God is providing you a place of rest, and will give you this land.'

14: Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle shall remain in the land which Moses gave you beyond the Jordan; but all the men of valor among you shall pass over armed before your brethren and shall help them,

15: until the LORD gives rest to your brethren as well as to you, and they also take possession of the land which the LORD your God is giving them; then you shall return to the land of your possession, and shall possess it, the land which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise."

16: And they answered Joshua, "All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.

17: Just as we obeyed Moses in all things, so we will obey you; only may the LORD your God be with you, as he was with Moses!

18: Whoever rebels against your commandment and disobeys your words, whatever you command him, shall be put to death. Only be strong and of good courage."

Chapter 2

Joshua, chapter 2

1: And Joshua the son of Nun sent two men secretly from Shittim as spies, saying, "Go, view the land, especially Jericho." And they went, and came into the house of a harlot whose name was Rahab, and lodged there.

2: And it was told the king of Jericho, "Behold, certain men of Israel have come here tonight to search out the land."

3: Then the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, "Bring forth the men that have come to you, who entered your house; for they have come to search out all the land."

4: But the woman had taken the two men and hidden them; and she said, "True, men came to me, but I did not know where they came from;

5: and when the gate was to be closed, at dark, the men went out; where the men went I do not know; pursue them quickly, for you will overtake them."

6: But she had brought them up to the roof, and hid them with the stalks of flax which she had laid in order on the roof.

7: So the men pursued after them on the way to the Jordan as far as the fords; and as soon as the pursuers had gone out, the gate was shut.

8: Before they lay down, she came up to them on the roof, 9: and said to the men, "I know that the LORD has given you the land, and that the fear of you has fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt away before you.
10: For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites that were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed.
11: And as soon as we heard it, our hearts melted, and there was no courage left in any man, because of you; for the LORD your God is he who is God in heaven above and on earth beneath.
12: Now then, swear to me by the LORD that as I have dealt kindly with you, you also will deal kindly with my father's house, and give me a sure sign, 13: and save alive my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all who belong to them, and deliver our lives from death."
14: And the men said to her, "Our life for yours! If you do not tell this business of ours, then we will deal kindly and faithfully with you when the LORD gives us the land."
15: Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was built into the city wall, so that she dwelt in the wall.
16: And she said to them, "Go into the hills, lest the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers have returned; then afterward you may go your way."
17: The men said to her, "We will be guiltless with respect to this oath of yours which you have made us swear.
18: Behold, when we come into the land, you shall bind this scarlet cord in the window through which you let us down; and you shall gather into your house your father and mother, your brothers, and all your father's household.
19: If any one goes out of the doors of your house into the street, his blood shall be upon his head, and we shall be guiltless; but if a hand is laid upon any one who is with you in the house, his blood shall be on our head.
20: But if you tell this business of ours, then we shall be guiltless with respect to your oath which you have made us swear."
21: And she said, "According to your words, so be it." Then she sent them away, and they departed; and she bound the scarlet cord in the window.
22: They departed, and went into the hills, and remained there three days, until the pursuers returned; for the pursuers had made search all along the way and found nothing.
23: Then the two men came down again from the hills, and passed over and came to Joshua the son of Nun; and they told him all that had befallen them.
24: And they said to Joshua, "Truly the LORD has given all the land into our hands; and moreover all the inhabitants of the land are fainthearted because of us."

Chapter 3

Joshua, chapter 3

1: Early in the morning Joshua rose and set out from Shittim, with all the people of Israel; and they came to the Jordan, and lodged there before they passed over.
2: At the end of three days the officers went through the camp
3: and commanded the people, "When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God being carried by the Levitical priests, then you shall set out from your place and follow it,
4: that you may know the way you shall go, for you have not passed this way before. Yet there shall be a space between you and it, a distance of about two thousand cubits; do not come near it."
5: And Joshua said to the people, "Sanctify yourselves; for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you."
6: And Joshua said to the priests, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass on before the people." And they took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people.
7: And the LORD said to Joshua, "This day I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with you.
v7: And the LORD said to Joshua, "This day I will begin to exalt or magnify you in the sight of all Israel, in order that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with you.
8: And you shall command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, "When you come to the brink of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan."
9: And Joshua said to the people of Israel, "Come hither, and hear the words of the LORD your God."
10: And Joshua said, "Hereby you shall know that the living God is among you, and that he will without fail drive out from before you the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Hivites, the Per'izzites, the Gir'gashites, the Amorites, and the Jeb'usites.
11: Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is to pass over before you into the Jordan.
12: Now therefore take twelve men from the tribes of Israel, from each tribe a man.
13: And when the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan shall be stopped from flowing, and the waters coming down from above shall stand in one heap."
14: So, when the people set out from their tents, to pass over the Jordan with the priests bearing the ark of the covenant before the people,
15: and when those who bore the ark had come to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests bearing the ark were dipped in the brink of the water (the Jordan overflows all its banks throughout the time of harvest),

16: the waters coming down from above stood and rose up in a heap far off, at Adam, the city that is beside Zar'ethan, and those flowing down toward the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, were wholly cut off; and the people passed over opposite Jericho.
17: And while all Israel were passing over on dry ground, the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan, until all the nation finished passing over the Jordan.

Chapter 4 Joshua, chapter 4

1: When all the nation had finished passing over the Jordan, the LORD said to Joshua,
2: "Take twelve men from the people, from each tribe a man,
3: and command them, 'Take twelve stones from here out of the midst of the Jordan, from the very place where the priests' feet stood, and carry them over with you, and lay them down in the place where you lodge tonight.'"
4: Then Joshua called the twelve men from the people of Israel, whom he had appointed, a man from each tribe;
5: and Joshua said to them, "Pass on before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of the Jordan, and take up each of you a stone upon his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the people of Israel,
6: that this may be a sign among you, when your children ask in time to come, 'What do those stones mean to you?'
7: Then you shall tell them that the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it passed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. So these stones shall be to the people of Israel a memorial for ever."
8: And the men of Israel did as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of the Jordan, according to the number of the tribes of the people of Israel, as the LORD told Joshua; and they carried them over with them to the place where they lodged, and laid them down there.
9: And Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests bearing the ark of the covenant had stood; and they are there to this day.
10: For the priests who bore the ark stood in the midst of the Jordan, until everything was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to tell the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua. The people passed over in haste;
11: and when all the people had finished passing over, the ark of the LORD and the priests passed over before the people.
12: The sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh passed over armed before the people of Israel, as Moses had bidden them;
13: about forty thousand ready armed for war passed over before the LORD for battle, to the plains of Jericho.
14: On that day the LORD exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they stood in awe of him, as they had stood in awe of Moses, all the days of his life.
15: And the LORD said to Joshua,
16: "Command the priests who bear the ark of the testimony to come up out of the Jordan."
17: Joshua therefore commanded the priests, "Come up out of the Jordan."
18: And when the priests bearing the ark of the covenant of the LORD came up from the midst of the Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet were lifted up on dry ground, the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and overflowed all its banks, as before.
19: The people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and they encamped in Gilgal on the east border of Jericho.
20: And those twelve stones, which they took out of the Jordan, Joshua set up in Gilgal.
21: And he said to the people of Israel, "When your children ask their fathers in time to come, 'What do these stones mean?'
22: then you shall let your children know, 'Israel passed over this Jordan on dry ground.'
23: For the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan for you until you passed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea, which he dried up for us until we passed over,
24: so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the hand of the LORD is mighty; that you may fear the LORD your God for ever."

Chapter 5 Joshua, chapter 5

1: When all the kings of the Amorites that were beyond the Jordan to the west, and all the kings of the Canaanites that were by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan for the people of Israel until they had crossed over, their heart melted, and there was no longer any spirit in them, because of the people of Israel.
2: At that time the LORD said to Joshua, "Make flint knives and circumcise the people of Israel again the second time."
3: So Joshua made flint knives, and circumcised the people of Israel at Gibeath-haaraloth.
4: And this is the reason why Joshua circumcised them: all the males of the people who came out of Egypt, all the men of war, had died on the way in the wilderness after they had come out of Egypt.
5: Though all the people who came out had been circumcised, yet all the people that were born on the way in the wilderness after they had come out of Egypt had not been circumcised.
6: For the people of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the nation, the men of war that came forth out of Egypt, perished, because they did not hearken to the voice of the LORD; to them the LORD swore that he would not let them see the land which the LORD had sworn to their fathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.

7: So it was their children, whom he raised up in their stead, that Joshua circumcised; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not been circumcised on the way.
8: When the circumcising of all the nation was done, they remained in their places in the camp till they were healed.
9: And the LORD said to Joshua, "This day I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you." And so the name of that place is called Gilgal to this day.
10: While the people of Israel were encamped in Gilgal they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening in the plains of Jericho.
11: And on the morrow after the passover, on that very day, they ate of the produce of the land, unleavened cakes and parched grain.
12: And the manna ceased on the morrow, when they ate of the produce of the land; and the people of Israel had manna no more, but ate of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.
13: When Joshua was by Jericho, he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, a man stood before him with his drawn sword in his hand; and Joshua went to him and said to him, "Are you for us, or for our adversaries?"
14: And he said, "No; but as commander of the army of the LORD I have now come." And Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and worshiped, and said to him, "What does my lord bid his servant?"
15: And the commander of the LORD's army said to Joshua, "Put off your shoes from your feet; for the place where you stand is holy." And Joshua did so.

Chapter 6 Joshua, chapter 6

1: Now Jericho was shut up from within and from without because of the people of Israel; none went out, and none came in.
2: And the LORD said to Joshua, "See, I have given into your hand Jericho, with its king and mighty men of valor.
3: You shall march around the city, all the men of war going around the city once. Thus shall you do for six days.
4: And seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark; and on the seventh day you shall march around the city seven times, the priests blowing the trumpets.
5: And when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, as soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city will fall down flat, and the people shall go up every man straight before him."
6: So Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD."
7: And he said to the people, "Go forward; march around the city, and let the armed men pass on before the ark of the LORD."
8: And as Joshua had commanded the people, the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the LORD went forward, blowing the trumpets, with the ark of the covenant of the LORD following them.
9: And the armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rear guard came after the ark, while the trumpets blew continually.
10: But Joshua commanded the people, "You shall not shout or let your voice be heard, neither shall any word go out of your mouth, until the day I bid you shout; then you shall shout."
11: So he caused the ark of the LORD to compass the city, going about it once; and they came into the camp, and spent the night in the camp.
12: Then Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.
13: And the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD passed on, blowing the trumpets continually; and the armed men went before them, and the rear guard came after the ark of the LORD, while the trumpets blew continually.
14: And the second day they marched around the city once, and returned into the camp. So they did for six days.
15: On the seventh day they rose early at the dawn of day, and marched around the city in the same manner seven times: it was only on that day that they marched around the city seven times.
16: And at the seventh time, when the priests had blown the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, "Shout; for the LORD has given you the city.
17: And the city and all that is within it shall be devoted to the LORD for destruction; only Rahab the harlot and all who are with her in her house shall live, because she hid the messengers that we sent.
18: But you, keep yourselves from the things devoted to destruction, lest when you have devoted them you take any of the devoted things and make the camp of Israel a thing for destruction, and bring trouble upon it.
19: But all silver and gold, and vessels of bronze and iron, are sacred to the LORD; they shall go into the treasury of the LORD."
20: So the people shouted, and the trumpets were blown. As soon as the people heard the sound of the trumpet, the people raised a great shout, and the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.
21: Then they utterly destroyed all in the city, both men and women, young and old, oxen, sheep, and asses, with the edge of the sword.
22: And Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, "Go into the harlot's house, and bring out from it the woman, and all who belong to her, as you swore to her."
23: So the young men who had been spies went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father and mother and brothers and all who belonged to her; and they brought all her kindred, and set them outside the camp of Israel.

24: And they burned the city with fire, and all within it; only the silver and gold, and the vessels of bronze and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.

25: But Rahab the harlot, and her father's household, and all who belonged to her, Joshua saved alive; and she dwelt in Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

26: Joshua laid an oath upon them at that time, saying, "Cursed before the LORD be the man that rises up and rebuilds this city, Jericho. At the cost of his first-born shall he lay its foundation, and at the cost of his youngest son shall he set up its gates."

27: So the LORD was with Joshua; and his fame was in all the land.

Chapter 7 Joshua, chapter 7

1: But the people of Israel broke faith in regard to the devoted things; for Achan the son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of the devoted things; and the anger of the LORD burned against the people of Israel.

2: Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-a'ven, east of Bethel, and said to them, "Go up and spy out the land." And the men went up and spied out Ai.

3: And they returned to Joshua, and said to him, "Let not all the people go up, but let about two or three thousand men go up and attack Ai; do not make the whole people toil up there, for they are but few."

4: So about three thousand went up there from the people; and they fled before the men of Ai,

5: and the men of Ai killed about thirty-six men of them, and chased them before the gate as far as Sheb'arim, and slew them at the descent. And the hearts of the people melted, and became as water.

6: Then Joshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face before the ark of the LORD until the evening, he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust upon their heads.

7: And Joshua said, "Alas, O Lord GOD, why hast thou brought this people over the Jordan at all, to give us into the hands of the Amorites, to destroy us? Would that we had been content to dwell beyond the Jordan!

8: O Lord, what can I say, when Israel has turned their backs before their enemies!

9: For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and will surround us, and cut off our name from the earth; and what wilt thou do for thy great name?"

10: The LORD said to Joshua, "Arise, why have you thus fallen upon your face?

11: Israel has sinned; they have transgressed my covenant which I commanded them; they have taken some of the devoted things; they have stolen, and lied, and put them among their own stuff.

12: Therefore the people of Israel cannot stand before their enemies; they turn their backs before their enemies, because they have become a thing for destruction. I will be with you no more, unless you destroy the devoted things from among you.

13: Up, sanctify the people, and say, `Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow; for thus says the LORD, God of Israel, "There are devoted things in the midst of you, O Israel; you cannot stand before your enemies, until you take away the devoted things from among you."

14: In the morning therefore you shall be brought near by your tribes; and the tribe which the LORD takes shall come near by families; and the family which the LORD takes shall come near by households; and the household which the LORD takes shall come near man by man.

15: And he who is taken with the devoted things shall be burned with fire, he and all that he has, because he has transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he has done a shameful thing in Israel."

16: So Joshua rose early in the morning, and brought Israel near tribe by tribe, and the tribe of Judah was taken;

17: and he brought near the families of Judah, and the family of the Zer'ahites was taken; and he brought near the family of the Zer'ahites man by man, and Zabdi was taken;

18: and he brought near his household man by man, and Achan the son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

19: Then Joshua said to Achan, "My son, give glory to the LORD God of Israel, and render praise to him; and tell me now what you have done; do not hide it from me."

20: And Achan answered Joshua, "Of a truth I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and this is what I did:

21: when I saw among the spoil a beautiful mantle from Shinar, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a bar of gold weighing fifty shekels, then I coveted them, and took them; and behold, they are hidden in the earth inside my tent, with the silver underneath."

22: So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and behold, it was hidden in his tent with the silver underneath.

23: And they took them out of the tent and brought them to Joshua and all the people of Israel; and they laid them down before the LORD.

24: And Joshua and all Israel with him took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver and the mantle and the bar of gold, and his sons and daughters, and his oxen and asses and sheep, and his tent, and all that he had; and they brought them up to the Valley of Achor.

25: And Joshua said, "Why did you bring trouble on us? The LORD brings trouble on you today." And all Israel stoned him with stones; they burned them with fire, and stoned them with stones.

26: And they raised over him a great heap of stones that remains to this day; then the LORD turned from his burning anger. Therefore to this day the name of that place is called the Valley of Achor.

Chapter 8

Joshua, chapter 8

1: And the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not fear or be dismayed; take all the fighting men with you, and arise, go up to Ai; see, I have given into your hand the king of Ai, and his people, his city, and his land;

v1: And the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not fear or be dismayed or lose your poise; take the entire army with you therefore assemble it, advance against Ai; behold, I have given it into your hand all the king of Ai, the people, the city, and the land;

2: and you shall do to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king; only its spoil and its cattle you shall take as booty for yourselves; lay an ambush against the city, behind it."

3: So Joshua arose, and all the fighting men, to go up to Ai; and Joshua chose thirty thousand mighty men of valor, and sent them forth by night.

4: And he commanded them, "Behold, you shall lie in ambush against the city, behind it; do not go very far from the city, but hold yourselves all in readiness;

5: and I, and all the people who are with me, will approach the city. And when they come out against us, as before, we shall flee before them;

6: and they will come out after us, till we have drawn them away from the city; for they will say, 'They are fleeing from us, as before.' So we will flee from them;

7: then you shall rise up from the ambush, and seize the city; for the LORD your God will give it into your hand.

8: And when you have taken the city, you shall set the city on fire, doing as the LORD has bidden; see, I have commanded you."

9: So Joshua sent them forth; and they went to the place of ambush, and lay between Bethel and Ai, to the west of Ai; but Joshua spent that night among the people.

10: And Joshua arose early in the morning and mustered the people, and went up, with the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.

11: And all the fighting men who were with him went up, and drew near before the city, and encamped on the north side of Ai, with a ravine between them and Ai.

12: And he took about five thousand men, and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, to the west of the city.

13: So they stationed the forces, the main encampment which was north of the city and its rear guard west of the city. But Joshua spent that night in the valley.

14: And when the king of Ai saw this he and all his people, the men of the city, made haste and went out early to the descent toward the Arabah to meet Israel in battle; but he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city.

15: And Joshua and all Israel made a pretense of being beaten before them, and fled in the direction of the wilderness.

16: So all the people who were in the city were called together to pursue them, and as they pursued Joshua they were drawn away from the city.

17: There was not a man left in Ai or Bethel, who did not go out after Israel; they left the city open, and pursued Israel.

18: Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Stretch out the javelin that is in your hand toward Ai; for I will give it into your hand." And Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand toward the city.

19: And the ambush rose quickly out of their place, and as soon as he had stretched out his hand, they ran and entered the city and took it; and they made haste to set the city on fire.

20: So when the men of Ai looked back, behold, the smoke of the city went up to heaven; and they had no power to flee this way or that, for the people that fled to the wilderness turned back upon the pursuers.

21: And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city went up, then they turned back and smote the men of Ai.

22: And the others came forth from the city against them; so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side; and Israel smote them, until there was left none that survived or escaped.

23: But the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

24: When Israel had finished slaughtering all the inhabitants of Ai in the open wilderness where they pursued them and all of them to the very last had fallen by the edge of the sword, all Israel returned to Ai, and smote it with the edge of the sword.

25: And all who fell that day, both men and women, were twelve thousand, all the people of Ai.

26: For Joshua did not draw back his hand, with which he stretched out the javelin, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

27: Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel took as their booty, according to the word of the LORD which he commanded Joshua.

28: So Joshua burned Ai, and made it for ever a heap of ruins, as it is to this day.

29: And he hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening; and at the going down of the sun Joshua commanded, and they took his body down from the tree, and cast it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raised over it a great heap of stones, which stands there to this day.

30: Then Joshua built an altar in Mount Ebal to the LORD, the God of Israel, 31: as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the people of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, "an altar of unhewn stones, upon which no man has lifted an iron tool"; and they offered on it burnt offerings to the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings.

32: And there, in the presence of the people of Israel, he wrote upon the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he had written.
33: And all Israel, sojourner as well as homeborn, with their elders and officers and their judges, stood on opposite sides of the ark before the Levitical priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, half of them in front of Mount Ger'izim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded at the first, that they should bless the people of Israel.
34: And afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessing and the curse, according to all that is written in the book of the law.
35: There was not a word of all that Moses commanded which Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel, and the women, and the little ones, and the sojourners who lived among them.

Chapter 9
Joshua, chapter 9

1: When all the kings who were beyond the Jordan in the hill country and in the lowland all along the coast of the Great Sea toward Lebanon, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Per'izzites, the Hivites, and the Jeb'usites, heard of this,

Josh 9:1

v1: And it came to pass when all the kings which were on this side of the Jordan, in the hills and in the valleys and on the coast of the Great Sea (Med) over against Lebanon, the Hitites, Amorites (Mountain People) the Canaanites (valley people), the Parazite, Hivites, Gibianites, and the Jebusite.

2: they gathered together with one accord to fight Joshua and Israel.

Josh 9:2

v2: They all were together with one accord.

3: But when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai,

4: they on their part acted with cunning, and went and made ready provisions, and took worn-out sacks upon their asses, and wineskins, worn-out and torn and mended,

5: with worn-out, patched sandals on their feet, and worn-out clothes; and all their provisions were dry and moldy.

6: And they went to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal, and said to him and to the men of Israel, "We have come from a far country; so now make a covenant with us."

7: But the men of Israel said to the Hivites, "Perhaps you live among us; then how can we make a covenant with you?"

8: They said to Joshua, "We are your servants." And Joshua said to them, "Who are you? And where do you come from?"

9: They said to him, "From a very far country your servants have come, because of the name of the LORD your God; for we have heard a report of him, and all that he did in Egypt,

10: and all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who dwelt in Ash'taroth.

11: And our elders and all the inhabitants of our country said to us, 'Take provisions in your hand for the journey, and go to meet them, and say to them, "We are your servants; come now, make a covenant with us.'"

12: Here is our bread; it was still warm when we took it from our houses as our food for the journey, on the day we set forth to come to you, but now, behold, it is dry and moldy;

13: these wineskins were new when we filled them, and behold, they are burst; and these garments and shoes of ours are worn out from the very long journey."

14: So the men partook of their provisions, and did not ask direction from the LORD.

15: And Joshua made peace with them, and made a covenant with them, to let them live; and the leaders of the congregation swore to them.

16: At the end of three days after they had made a covenant with them, they heard that they were their neighbors, and that they dwelt among them.

17: And the people of Israel set out and reached their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, Chephi'rah, Be-er'oth, and Kir'iath-je'arim.

18: But the people of Israel did not kill them, because the leaders of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel. Then all the congregation murmured against the leaders.

19: But all the leaders said to all the congregation, "We have sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel, and now we may not touch them.

20: This we will do to them, and let them live, lest wrath be upon us, because of the oath which we swore to them."

21: And the leaders said to them, "Let them live." So they became hewers of wood and drawers of water for all the congregation, as the leaders had said of them.

22: Joshua summoned them, and he said to them, "Why did you deceive us, saying, 'We are very far from you,' when you dwell among us?"

23: Now therefore you are cursed, and some of you shall always be slaves, hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God."

24: They answered Joshua, "Because it was told to your servants for a certainty that the LORD your God had commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you; so we feared greatly for our lives because of you, and did this thing.

25: And now, behold, we are in your hand: do as it seems good and right in your sight to do to us."

26: So he did to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the people of Israel; and they did not kill them.

27: But Joshua made them that day hewers of wood and drawers of water for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, to continue to this day, in the place which he should choose.

Joshua, chapter 10

1: When Ado'ni-ze'dek king of Jerusalem heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it, doing to Ai and its king as he had done to Jericho and its king, and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were among them,

2: he feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty.

3: So Ado'ni-ze'dek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, to Piram king of Jarmuth, to Japhi'a king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, saying,

4: "Come up to me, and help me, and let us smite Gibeon; for it has made peace with Joshua and with the people of Israel."

5: Then the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, gathered their forces, and went up with all their armies and encamped against Gibeon, and made war against it.

6: And the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua at the camp in Gilgal, saying, "Do not relax your hand from your servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us; for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the hill country are gathered against us."

7: So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valor.

8: And the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not fear them, for I have given them into your hands; there shall not a man of them stand before you."

9: So Joshua came upon them suddenly, having marched up all night from Gilgal.

10: And the LORD threw them into a panic before Israel, who slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them by the way of the ascent of Beth-hor'on, and smote them as far as Aze'kah and Makke'dah.

11: And as they fled before Israel, while they were going down the ascent of Beth-hor'on, the LORD threw down great stones from heaven upon them as far as Aze'kah, and they died; there were more who died because of the hailstones than the men of Israel killed with the sword.

12: Then spoke Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD gave the Amorites over to the men of Israel; and he said in the sight of Israel, "Sun, stand thou still at Gibeon, and thou Moon in the valley of Ai'jalon."

13: And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the nation took vengeance on their enemies.

14: There has been no day like it before or since, when the LORD hearkened to the voice of a man; for the LORD fought for Israel.

15: Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

16: These five kings fled, and hid themselves in the cave at Makke'dah.

17: And it was told Joshua, "The five kings have been found, hidden in the cave at Makke'dah."

18: And Joshua said, "Roll great stones against the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to guard them;

19: but do not stay there yourselves, pursue your enemies, fall upon their rear, do not let them enter their cities; for the LORD your God has given them into your hand."

20: When Joshua and the men of Israel had finished slaying them with a very great slaughter, until they were wiped out, and when the remnant which remained of them had entered into the fortified cities, 21: all the people returned safe to Joshua in the camp at Makke'dah; not a man moved his tongue against any of the people of Israel.

22: Then Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave, and bring those five kings out to me from the cave."

23: And they did so, and brought those five kings out to him from the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

24: And when they brought those kings out to Joshua, Joshua summoned all the men of Israel, and said to the chiefs of the men of war who had gone with him, "Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings." Then they came near, and put their feet on their necks.

25: And Joshua said to them, "Do not be afraid or dismayed; be strong and of good courage; for thus the LORD will do to all your enemies against whom you fight."

26: And afterward Joshua smote them and put them to death, and he hung them on five trees. And they hung upon the trees until evening;

27: but at the time of the going down of the sun, Joshua commanded, and they took them down from the trees, and threw them into the cave where they had hidden themselves, and they set great stones against the mouth of the cave, which remain to this very day.

28: And Joshua took Makke'dah on that day, and smote it and its king with the edge of the sword; he utterly destroyed every person in it, he left none remaining; and he did to the king of Makke'dah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

29: Then Joshua passed on from Makke'dah, and all Israel with him, to Libnah, and fought against Libnah;

30: and the LORD gave it also and its king into the hand of Israel; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and every person in it; he left none remaining in it; and he did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

31: And Joshua passed on from Libnah, and all Israel with him, to Lachish, and laid siege to it, and assaulted it:

32: and the LORD gave Lachish into the hand of Israel, and he took it on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and every person in it, as he had done to Libnah.

33: Then Hiram king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua smote him and his people, until he left none remaining.
34: And Joshua passed on with all Israel from Lachish to Eglon; and they laid siege to it, and assaulted it;
35: and they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword; and every person in it he utterly destroyed that day, as he had done to Lachish.
36: Then Joshua went up with all Israel from Eglon to Hebron; and they assaulted it, 37: and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and its king and its towns, and every person in it; he left none remaining, as he had done to Eglon, and utterly destroyed it with every person in it.
38: Then Joshua, with all Israel, turned back to Debir and assaulted it, 39: and he took it with its king and all its towns; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed every person in it; he left none remaining; as he had done to Hebron and to Libnah and its king, so he did to Debir and to its king.
40: So Joshua defeated the whole land, the hill country and the Negeb and the lowland and the slopes, and all their kings; he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel commanded.
41: And Joshua defeated them from Ka'desh-bar'nea to Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, as far as Gibeon.
42: And Joshua took all these kings and their land at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.
43: Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

Chapter 11

Joshua, chapter 11

1: When Jabin king of Hazor heard of this, he sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Ach'shaph,
2: and to the kings who were in the northern hill country, and in the Arabah south of Chin'neroth, and in the lowland, and in Naphtod on the west,
3: to the Canaanites in the east and the west, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Per'izzites, and the Jeb'usites in the hill country, and the Hivites under Hermon in the land of Mizpah.
4: And they came out, with all their troops, a great host, in number like the sand that is upon the seashore, with very many horses and chariots.
5: And all these kings joined their forces, and came and encamped together at the waters of Merom, to fight with Israel.
6: And the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them, for tomorrow at this time I will give over all of them, slain, to Israel; you shall hamstring their horses, and burn their chariots with fire."
7: So Joshua came suddenly upon them with all his people of war, by the waters of Merom, and fell upon them.
8: And the LORD gave them into the hand of Israel, who smote them and chased them as far as Great Sidon and Mis'rephoth-ma'im, and eastward as far as the valley of Mizpeh; and they smote them, until they left none remaining.
9: And Joshua did to them as the LORD bade him; he hamstrung their horses, and burned their chariots with fire.
10: And Joshua turned back at that time, and took Hazor, and smote its king with the sword; for Hazor formerly was the head of all those kingdoms.
11: And they put to the sword all who were in it, utterly destroying them; there was none left that breathed, and he burned Hazor with fire.
12: And all the cities of those kings, and all their kings, Joshua took, and smote them with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded.
13: But none of the cities that stood on mounds did Israel burn, except Hazor only; that Joshua burned.
14: And all the spoil of these cities and the cattle, the people of Israel took for their booty; but every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, and they did not leave any that breathed.
15: As the LORD had commanded Moses his servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.
16: So Joshua took all that land, the hill country and all the Negeb and all the land of Goshen and the lowland and the Arabah and the hill country of Israel and its lowland
17: from Mount Halak, that rises toward Se'ir, as far as Ba'al-gad in the valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. And he took all their kings, and smote them, and put them to death.
18: Joshua made war a long time with all those kings.
19: There was not a city that made peace with the people of Israel, except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon; they took all in battle.
20: For it was the LORD's doing to harden their hearts that they should come against Israel in battle, in order that they should be utterly destroyed, and should receive no mercy but be exterminated, as the LORD commanded Moses.
21: And Joshua came at that time, and wiped out the Anakim from the hill country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel; Joshua utterly destroyed them with their cities.
22: There was none of the Anakim left in the land of the people of Israel; only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, did some remain.
23: So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD had spoken to Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to their tribal allotments. And the land had rest from war.

Josh 11:23

v23: So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to the divisions of their tribes, therefore the land had peace from war.

Joshua, chapter 12

- 1: Now these are the kings of the land, whom the people of Israel defeated, and took possession of their land beyond the Jordan toward the sunrising, from the valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon, with all the Arabah eastward:
- 2: Sihon king of the Amorites who dwelt at Heshbon, and ruled from Aro'er, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and from the middle of the valley as far as the river Jabbok, the boundary of the Ammonites, that is, half of Gilead,
- 3: and the Arabah to the Sea of Chin'neroth eastward, and in the direction of Beth-jesh'imoth, to the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, southward to the foot of the slopes of Pisgah;
- 4: and Og king of Bashan, one of the remnant of the Reph'aim, who dwelt at Ash'taroth and at Ed're-i
- 5: and ruled over Mount Hermon and Sal'ecah and all Bashan to the boundary of the Gesh'urites and the Ma-ac'athites, and over half of Gilead to the boundary of Sihon king of Heshbon.
- 6: Moses, the servant of the LORD, and the people of Israel defeated them; and Moses the servant of the LORD gave their land for a possession to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manas'seh.
- 7: And these are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the people of Israel defeated on the west side of the Jordan, from Ba'al-gad in the valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak, that rises toward Se'ir (and Joshua gave their land to the tribes of Israel as a possession according to their allotments,
- 8: in the hill country, in the lowland, in the Arabah, in the slopes, in the wilderness, and in the Negeb, the land of the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Per'izzites, the Hivites, and the Jeb'usites):
- 9: the king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one;
- 10: the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one;
- 11: the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one;
- 12: the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one;
- 13: the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one;
- 14: the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one;
- 15: the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one;
- 16: the king of Makke'dah, one; the king of Bethel, one;
- 17: the king of Tap'puah, one; the king of Hopher, one;
- 18: the king of Aphek, one; the king of Lashar'on, one;
- 19: the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one;
- 20: the king of Shim'ron-me'ron, one; the king of Ach'shaph, one;
- 21: the king of Ta'anach, one; the king of Megid'do, one;
- 22: the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jok'ne-am in Carmel, one;
- 23: the king of Dor in Naphath-dor, one; the king of Goi'im in Galilee, one;
- 24: the king of Tirzah, one: in all, thirty-one kings.

Joshua, chapter 13

- 1: Now Joshua was old and advanced in years; and the LORD said to him, "You are old and advanced in years, and there remains yet very much land to be possessed.
- 2: This is the land that yet remains: all the regions of the Philistines, and all those of the Gesh'urites
- 3: (from the Shihor, which is east of Egypt, northward to the boundary of Ekron, it is reckoned as Canaanite; there are five rulers of the Philistines, those of Gaza, Ashdod, Ash'kelon, Gath, and Ekron), and those of the Avvim,
- 4: in the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mear'ah which belongs to the Sido'nians, to Aphek, to the boundary of the Amorites,
- 5: and the land of the Geb'alites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrising, from Ba'al-gad below Mount Hermon to the entrance of Hamath,
- 6: all the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Mis'rephoth-ma'im, even all the Sido'nians. I will myself drive them out from before the people of Israel; only allot the land to Israel for an inheritance, as I have commanded you.
- 7: Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes and half the tribe of Manas'seh."
- 8: With the other half of the tribe of Manas'seh the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond the Jordan eastward, as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them:
- 9: from Aro'er, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the tableland of Med'eba as far as Dibon;
- 10: and all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the boundary of the Ammonites;
- 11: and Gilead, and the region of the Gesh'urites and Ma-ac'athites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Sal'ecah;
- 12: all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ash'taroth and in Ed're-i (he alone was left of the remnant of the Reph'aim); these Moses had defeated and driven out.
- 13: Yet the people of Israel did not drive out the Gesh'urites or the Ma-ac'athites; but Geshur and Ma'acath dwell in the midst of Israel to this day.

14: To the tribe of Levi alone Moses gave no inheritance; the offerings by fire to the LORD God of Israel are their inheritance, as he said to him.

15: And Moses gave an inheritance to the tribe of the Reubenites according to their families.

16: So their territory was from Aro'er, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the tableland by Med'eba;

17: with Heshbon, and all its cities that are in the tableland; Dibon, and Ba'moth-ba'al, and Beth-ba'al-me'on,

18: and Jahaz, and Ked'emoth, and Meph'aath,

19: and Kir'iatha'im, and Sibmah, and Zer'eth-sha'har on the hill of the valley,

20: and Beth-pe'or, and the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth-jesh'imoth, 21: that is, all the cities of the tableland, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses defeated with the leaders of Mid'ian, Evi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reba, the princes of Sihon, who dwelt in the land.

22: Balaam also, the son of Be'or, the soothsayer, the people of Israel killed with the sword among the rest of their slain.

23: And the border of the people of Reuben was the Jordan as a boundary. This was the inheritance of the Reubenites, according to their families with their cities and villages.

24: And Moses gave an inheritance also to the tribe of the Gadites, according to their families.

25: Their territory was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the Ammonites, to Aro'er, which is east of Rabbah, 26: and from Heshbon to Ra'math-miz'peh and Bet'onim, and from Mahana'im to the territory of Debir, 27: and in the valley Beth-ha'ram, Beth-nim'rah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, having the Jordan as a boundary, to the lower end of the Sea of Chin'nereth, eastward beyond the Jordan.

28: This is the inheritance of the Gadites according to their families, with their cities and villages.

29: And Moses gave an inheritance to the half-tribe of Manas'seh; it was allotted to the half-tribe of the Manas'sites according to their families.

30: Their region extended from Mahana'im, through all Bashan, the whole kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Ja'ir, which are in Bashan, sixty cities, 31: and half Gilead, and Ash'taroth, and Ed're-i, the cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan; these were allotted to the people of Machir the son of Manas'seh for the half of the Machirites according to their families.

32: These are the inheritances which Moses distributed in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan east of Jericho.

33: But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave no inheritance; the LORD God of Israel is their inheritance, as he said to them.

Chapter 14

Joshua, chapter 14

1: And these are the inheritances which the people of Israel received in the land of Canaan, which Elea'zar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the people of Israel distributed to them.

2: Their inheritance was by lot, as the LORD had commanded Moses for the nine and one-half tribes.

3: For Moses had given an inheritance to the two and one-half tribes beyond the Jordan; but to the Levites he gave no inheritance among them.

4: For the people of Joseph were two tribes, Manas'seh and E'phraim; and no portion was given to the Levites in the land, but only cities to dwell in, with their pasture lands for their cattle and their substance.

5: The people of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses; they allotted the land.

6: Then the people of Judah came to Joshua at Gilgal; and Caleb the son of Jephun'neh the Ken'izzite said to him, "You know what the LORD said to Moses the man of God in Ka'desh-bar'nea concerning you and me.

7: I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Ka'desh-bar'nea to spy out the land; and I brought him word again as it was in my heart.

8: But my brethren who went up with me made the heart of the people melt; yet I wholly followed the LORD my God.

9: And Moses swore on that day, saying, `Surely the land on which your foot has trodden shall be an inheritance for you and your children for ever, because you have wholly followed the LORD my God.'

10: And now, behold, the LORD has kept me alive, as he said, these forty-five years since the time that the LORD spoke this word to Moses, while Israel walked in the wilderness; and now, lo, I am this day eighty-five years old.

11: I am still as strong to this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me; my strength now is as my strength was then, for war, and for going and coming.

12: So now give me this hill country of which the LORD spoke on that day; for you heard on that day how the Anakim were there, with great fortified cities: it may be that the LORD will be with me, and I shall drive them out as the LORD said."

13: Then Joshua blessed him; and he gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephun'neh for an inheritance.

14: So Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephun'neh the Ken'izzite to this day, because he wholly followed the LORD, the God of Israel.

15: Now the name of Hebron formerly was Kir'iath-ar'ba; this Arba was the greatest man among the Anakim. And the land had rest from war.

Chapter 15

Joshua, chapter 15

- 1: The lot for the tribe of the people of Judah according to their families reached southward to the boundary of Edom, to the wilderness of Zin at the farthest south.
- 2: And their south boundary ran from the end of the Salt Sea, from the bay that faces southward;
- 3: it goes out southward of the ascent of Akrab'bim, passes along to Zin, and goes up south of Ka'desh-bar'nea, along by Hezron, up to Addar, turns about to Karka,
- 4: passes along to Azmon, goes out by the Brook of Egypt, and comes to its end at the sea. This shall be your south boundary.
- 5: And the east boundary is the Salt Sea, to the mouth of the Jordan. And the boundary on the north side runs from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan;
- 6: and the boundary goes up to Beth-hoglah, and passes along north of Beth-arabah; and the boundary goes up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben;
- 7: and the boundary goes up to Debir from the Valley of Achor, and so northward, turning toward Gilgal, which is opposite the ascent of Adum'mim, which is on the south side of the valley; and the boundary passes along to the waters of En-she'mesh, and ends at En-ro'gel;
- 8: then the boundary goes up by the valley of the son of Hinnom at the southern shoulder of the Jeb'usite (that is, Jerusalem); and the boundary goes up to the top of the mountain that lies over against the valley of Hinnom, on the west, at the northern end of the valley of Reph'aim;
- 9: then the boundary extends from the top of the mountain to the spring of the Waters of Nephto'ah, and from there to the cities of Mount Ephron; then the boundary bends round to Ba'alah (that is, Kir'iath-je'arim);
- 10: and the boundary circles west of Ba'alah to Mount Se'ir, passes along to the northern shoulder of Mount Je'arim (that is, Ches'alon), and goes down to Beth-she'mesh, and passes along by Timnah;
- 11: the boundary goes out to the shoulder of the hill north of Ekron, then the boundary bends round to Shik'keron, and passes along to Mount Ba'alah, and goes out to Jabneel; then the boundary comes to an end at the sea.
- 12: And the west boundary was the Great Sea with its coast-line. This is the boundary round about the people of Judah according to their families.
- 13: According to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, he gave to Caleb the son of Jephun'neh a portion among the people of Judah, Kir'iath-ar'ba, that is, Hebron (Arba was the father of Anak).
- 14: And Caleb drove out from there the three sons of Anak, She'shai and Ahi'man and Talmi, the descendants of Anak.
- 15: And he went up from there against the inhabitants of Debir; now the name of Debir formerly was Kir'iath-se'pher.
- 16: And Caleb said, "Whoever smites Kir'iath-se'pher, and takes it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter as wife."
- 17: And Oth'ni-el the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it; and he gave him Achsah his daughter as wife.
- 18: When she came to him, she urged him to ask her father for a field; and she alighted from her ass, and Caleb said to her, "What do you wish?"
- 19: She said to him, "Give me a present; since you have set me in the land of the Negeb, give me also springs of water." And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.
- 20: This is the inheritance of the tribe of the people of Judah according to their families.
- 21: The cities belonging to the tribe of the people of Judah in the extreme South, toward the boundary of Edom, were Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur,
- 22: Kinah, Dimo'nah, Ada'dah,
- 23: Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan,
- 24: Ziph, Telem, Be-a'loth,
- 25: Ha'zor-hadat'tah, Ker'i-oth-hezron (that is, Hazor),
- 26: Amam, Shema, Mola'dah,
- 27: Ha'zar-gad'dah, Heshmon, Beth-pel'et,
- 28: Hazar-shu'al, Beer-sheba, Biziothi'ah,
- 29: Ba'alah, I'im, Ezem,
- 30: Elto'lad, Chesil, Hormah,
- 31: Ziklag, Madman'nah, Sansan'nah,
- 32: Leba'oth, Shilhim, A'in, and Rimmon: in all, twenty-nine cities, with their villages.
- 33: And in the lowland, Eshta'ol, Zorah, Ashnah,
- 34: Zano'ah, En-gan'nim, Tap'puah, Enam,
- 35: Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Aze'kah,
- 36: Shaara'im, Aditha'im, Gede'rah, Gederotha'im: fourteen cities with their villages.
- 37: Zenan, Hadash'ah, Mig'dal-gad,
- 38: Di'lean, Mizpeh, Jok'theel,
- 39: Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon,
- 40: Cabbon, Lahmam, Chitlish,
- 41: Gede'roth, Beth-da'gon, Na'amah, and Makke'dah: sixteen cities with their villages.
- 42: Libnah, Ether, Ashan,

43: Iphtah, Ashnah, Nezib,
 44: Kei'lah, Achzib, and Mare'shah: nine cities with their villages.
 45: Ekron, with its towns and its villages;
 46: from Ekron to the sea, all that were by the side of Ashdod, with their villages.
 47: Ashdod, its towns and its villages; Gaza, its towns and its villages; to the Brook of Egypt, and the Great Sea with its coast-line.
 48: And in the hill country, Shamir, Jattir, Socoh, 49: Dannah, Kir'iath-san'nah (that is, Debir),
 50: Anab, Esh'temoh, Anim,
 51: Goshen, Holon, and Giloh: eleven cities with their villages.
 52: Arab, Dumah, Eshan,
 53: Janim, Beth-tap'puah, Aphe'kah,
 54: Humtah, Kir'iath-ar'ba (that is, Hebron), and Zi'or: nine cities with their villages.
 55: Ma'on, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah,
 56: Jezreel, Jok'de-am, Zano'ah,
 57: Kain, Gib'e-ah, and Timnah: ten cities with their villages.
 58: Halhul, Beth-zur, Gedor,
 59: Ma'arath, Beth-anoth, and El'tekon: six cities with their villages.
 60: Kir'iath-ba'al (that is, Kir'iath-je'arim), and Rabbah: two cities with their villages.
 61: In the wilderness, Beth-arabah, Middin, Seca'cah, 62: Nibshan, the City of Salt, and En-ge'di: six cities with their villages.
 63: But the Jeb'usites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the people of Judah could not drive out; so the Jeb'usites dwell with the people of Judah at Jerusalem to this day.

Chapter 16

Joshua, chapter 16

1: The allotment of the descendants of Joseph went from the Jordan by Jericho, east of the waters of Jericho, into the wilderness, going up from Jericho into the hill country to Bethel;
 2: then going from Bethel to Luz, it passes along to At'aroth, the territory of the Archites;
 3: then it goes down westward to the territory of the Japh'letites, as far as the territory of Lower Beth-hor'on, then to Gezer, and it ends at the sea.
 4: The people of Joseph, Manas'seh and E'phraim, received their inheritance.
 5: The territory of the E'phraimites by their families was as follows: the boundary of their inheritance on the east was At'aroth-ad'dar as far as Upper Beth-hor'on,
 6: and the boundary goes thence to the sea; on the north is Mich-me'thath; then on the east the boundary turns round toward Ta'anath-shi'loh, and passes along beyond it on the east to Jan-o'ah,
 7: then it goes down from Jan-o'ah to At'aroth and to Na'arah, and touches Jericho, ending at the Jordan.
 8: From Tap'puah the boundary goes westward to the brook Kanah, and ends at the sea. Such is the inheritance of the tribe of the E'phraimites by their families, 9: together with the towns which were set apart for the E'phraimites within the inheritance of the Manas'sites, all those towns with their villages.
 10: However they did not drive out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer: so the Canaanites have dwelt in the midst of E'phraim to this day but have become slaves to do forced labor.

Chapter 17

Joshua, chapter 17

1: Then allotment was made to the tribe of Manas'seh, for he was the first-born of Joseph. To Machir the first-born of Manas'seh, the father of Gilead, were allotted Gilead and Bashan, because he was a man of war.
 2: And allotments were made to the rest of the tribe of Manas'seh, by their families, Abi-e'zer, Helek, As'ri-el, Shechem, Hopher, and Shemi'da; these were the male descendants of Manas'seh the son of Joseph, by their families.
 3: Now Zeloph'ehad the son of Hopher, son of Gilead, son of Machir, son of Manas'seh, had no sons, but only daughters; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.
 4: They came before Elea'zar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the leaders, and said, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance along with our brethren." So according to the commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.
 5: Thus there fell to Manas'seh ten portions, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is on the other side of the Jordan;
 6: because the daughters of Manas'seh received an inheritance along with his sons. The land of Gilead was allotted to the rest of the Manas'sites.
 7: The territory of Manas'seh reached from Asher to Mich-me'thath, which is east of Shechem; then the boundary goes along southward to the inhabitants of En-tap'puah.

8: The land of Tap'puah belonged to Manas'seh, but the town of Tap'puah on the boundary of Manas'seh belonged to the sons of E'phraim.

9: Then the boundary went down to the brook Kanah. The cities here, to the south of the brook, among the cities of Manas'seh, belong to E'phraim. Then the boundary of Manas'seh goes on the north side of the brook and ends at the sea;

10: the land to the south being E'phraim's and that to the north being Manas'seh's, with the sea forming its boundary; on the north Asher is reached, and on the east Is'sachar.

11: Also in Is'sachar and in Asher Manas'seh had Beth-she'an and its villages, and Ibleam and its villages, and the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, and the inhabitants of En-dor and its villages, and the inhabitants of Ta'anach and its villages, and the inhabitants of Megid'do and its villages; the third is Naphath.

12: Yet the sons of Manas'seh could not take possession of those cities; but the Canaanites persisted in dwelling in that land.

13: But when the people of Israel grew strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, and did not utterly drive them out.

14: And the tribe of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, "Why have you given me but one lot and one portion as an inheritance, although I am a numerous people, since hitherto the LORD has blessed me?"

15: And Joshua said to them, "If you are a numerous people, go up to the forest, and there clear ground for yourselves in the land of the Per'izzites and the Reph'aim, since the hill country of E'phraim is too narrow for you."

16: The tribe of Joseph said, "The hill country is not enough for us; yet all the Canaanites who dwell in the plain have chariots of iron, both those in Beth-she'an and its villages and those in the Valley of Jezreel (Isdrelan)."

17: Then Joshua said to the house of Joseph, to E'phraim and Manas'seh, "You are a numerous people, and have great power; you shall not have one lot only,

18: but the hill country shall be yours, for though it is a forest, you shall clear it and possess it to its farthest borders; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, though they have chariots of iron, and though they are strong."

Chapter 18

Joshua, chapter 18

1: Then the whole congregation of the people of Israel assembled at Shiloh, and set up the tent of meeting there; the land lay subdued before them.

2: There remained among the people of Israel seven tribes whose inheritance had not yet been apportioned.

3: So Joshua said to the people of Israel, "How long will you be slack to go in and take possession of the land, which the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you?"

4: Provide three men from each tribe, and I will send them out that they may set out and go up and down the land, writing a description of it with a view to their inheritances, and then come to me.

5: They shall divide it into seven portions, Judah continuing in his territory on the south, and the house of Joseph in their territory on the north.

6: And you shall describe the land in seven divisions and bring the description here to me; and I will cast lots for you here before the LORD our God.

7: The Levites have no portion among you, for the priesthood of the LORD is their heritage; and Gad and Reuben and half the tribe of Manas'seh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan eastward, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them."

8: So the men started on their way; and Joshua charged those who went to write the description of the land, saying, "Go up and down and write a description of the land, and come again to me; and I will cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh."

9: So the men went and passed up and down in the land and set down in a book a description of it by towns in seven divisions; then they came to Joshua in the camp at Shiloh,

10: and Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD; and there Joshua apportioned the land to the people of Israel, to each his portion.

11: The lot of the tribe of Benjamin according to its families came up, and the territory allotted to it fell between the tribe of Judah and the tribe of Joseph.

12: On the north side their boundary began at the Jordan; then the boundary goes up to the shoulder north of Jericho, then up through the hill country westward; and it ends at the wilderness of Beth-a'ven.

13: From there the boundary passes along southward in the direction of Luz, to the shoulder of Luz (the same is Bethel), then the boundary goes down to At'aroth-ad'dar, upon the mountain that lies south of Lower Beth-hor'on.

14: Then the boundary goes in another direction, turning on the western side southward from the mountain that lies to the south, opposite Beth-hor'on, and it ends at Kir'iath-ba'al (that is, Kir'iath-je'arim), a city belonging to the tribe of Judah. This forms the western side.

15: And the southern side begins at the outskirts of Kir'iath-je'arim; and the boundary goes from there to Ephron, to the spring of the Waters of Nephto'ah;

16: then the boundary goes down to the border of the mountain that overlooks the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is at the north end of the valley of Reph'aim; and it then goes down the valley of Hinnom, south of the shoulder of the Jeb'usites, and downward to En-rogel;

17: then it bends in a northerly direction going on to En-she'mesh, and thence goes to Geli'loth, which is opposite the ascent of Adum'mim; then it goes down to the Stone of Bohan the son of Reuben;

18: and passing on to the north of the shoulder of Beth-arabah it goes down to the Arabah;
 19: then the boundary passes on to the north of the shoulder of Beth-hoglah; and the boundary ends at the northern bay of the Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan: this is the southern border.
 20: The Jordan forms its boundary on the eastern side. This is the inheritance of the tribe of Benjamin, according to its families, boundary by boundary round about.
 21: Now the cities of the tribe of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, Beth-hoglah, Emek-ke'ziz, 22: Beth-arabah, Zemara'im, Bethel,
 23: Avvim, Parah, Ophrah,
 24: Che'phar-am'moni, Ophni, Geba -- twelve cities with their villages:
 25: Gibeon, Ramah, Be-er'oth,
 26: Mizpeh, Chephi'rah, Mozah,
 27: Rekem, Irpeel, Tar'alah,
 28: Zela, Ha-eleph, Jebus (that is, Jerusalem), Gib'e-ah and Kir'iath-je'arim -- fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the tribe of Benjamin according to its families.

Chapter 19

Joshua, chapter 19

1: The second lot came out for Simeon, for the tribe of Simeon, according to its families; and its inheritance was in the midst of the inheritance of the tribe of Judah.
 2: And it had for its inheritance Beer-sheba, Sheba, Mola'dah,
 3: Hazar-shu'al, Balah, Ezem,
 4: Elto'lad, Bethul, Hormah,
 5: Ziklag, Beth-mar'caboth, Ha'zar-su'sah,
 6: Beth-leba'oth, and Sharu'hen -- thirteen cities with their villages;
 7: En-rimmon, Ether, and Ashan -- four cities with their villages;
 8: together with all the villages round about these cities as far as Ba'alath-beer, Ramah of the Negeb. This was the inheritance of the tribe of Simeon according to its families.
 9: The inheritance of the tribe of Simeon formed part of the territory of Judah; because the portion of the tribe of Judah was too large for them, the tribe of Simeon obtained an inheritance in the midst of their inheritance.
 10: The third lot came up for the tribe of Zeb'ulun, according to its families. And the territory of its inheritance reached as far as Sarid;
 11: then its boundary goes up westward, and on to Mar'eal, and touches Dab'besheth, then the brook which is east of Jok'ne-am;
 12: from Sarid it goes in the other direction eastward toward the sunrise to the boundary of Chis'loth-ta'bor; thence it goes to Dab'erath, then up to Japhi'a;
 13: from there it passes along on the east toward the sunrise to Gath-hepher, to Eth-kazin, and going on to Rimmon it bends toward Ne'ah;
 14: then on the north the boundary turns about to Han'nathon, and it ends at the valley of Iph'tahel;
 15: and Kattath, Nahal'al, Shimron, I'dalah, and Bethlehem -- twelve cities with their villages.
 16: This is the inheritance of the tribe of Zeb'ulun, according to its families -- these cities with their villages.
 17: The fourth lot came out for Is'sachar, for the tribe of Is'sachar, according to its families.
 18: Its territory included Jezreel, Chesul'loth, Shunem, 19: Haph'ara-im, Shion, Ana'harath,
 20: Rabbith, Kish'ion, Ebez,
 21: Remeth, En-gan'nim, En-had'dah, Beth-paz'zez;
 22: the boundary also touches Tabor, Shahazu'mah, and Beth-she'mesh, and its boundary ends at the Jordan -- sixteen cities with their villages.
 23: This is the inheritance of the tribe of Is'sachar, according to its families -- the cities with their villages.
 24: The fifth lot came out for the tribe of Asher according to its families.
 25: Its territory included Helkath, Hali, Beten, Ach'shaph, 26: Allam'melech, Amad, and Mishal; on the west it touches Carmel and Shihor-lib'nath, 27: then it turns eastward, it goes to Beth-dagon, and touches Zeb'ulun and the valley of Iph'tahel northward to Beth-emek and Nei'el; then it continues in the north to Cabul, 28: Ebron, Rehob, Hammon, Kanah, as far as Sidon the Great;
 29: then the boundary turns to Ramah, reaching to the fortified city of Tyre; then the boundary turns to Hosah, and it ends at the sea; Mahalab, Achzib, 30: Ummah, Aphek and Rehob -- twenty-two cities with their villages.
 31: This is the inheritance of the tribe of Asher according to its families -- these cities with their villages.
 32: The sixth lot came out for the tribe of Naph'tali, for the tribe of Naph'tali, according to its families.
 33: And its boundary ran from Heleph, from the oak in Za-anan'nim, and Ad'ami-nekeb, and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum; and it ended at the Jordan;

34: then the boundary turns westward to Az'noth-tabor, and goes from there to Hukkok, touching Zeb'ulun at the south, and Asher on the west, and Judah on the east at the Jordan.

35: The fortified cities are Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chin'nereth, 36: Ad'amah, Ramah, Hazor,

37: Kedesh, Ed're-i, En-ha'zor,

38: Yiron, Mig'dal-el, Horem, Beth-anath, and Beth-she'mesh -- nineteen cities with their villages.

39: This is the inheritance of the tribe of Naph'tali according to its families -- the cities with their villages.

40: The seventh lot came out for the tribe of Dan, according to its families.

41: And the territory of its inheritance included Zorah, Esh'ta-ol, Ir-she'mesh, 42: Sha-alab'bin, Ai'jalon, Ithlah,

43: Elon, Timnah, Ekron,

44: El'tekeh, Gib'bethon, Ba'alath,

45: Jehud, Bene-be'rak, Gath-rim'mon,

46: and Me-jar'kon and Rakkon with the territory over against Joppa.

47: When the territory of the Danites was lost to them, the Danites went up and fought against Leshem, and after capturing it and putting it to the sword they took possession of it and settled in it, calling Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their ancestor.

48: This is the inheritance of the tribe of Dan, according to their families -- these cities with their villages.

49: When they had finished distributing the several territories of the land as inheritances, the people of Israel gave an inheritance among them to Joshua the son of Nun.

50: By command of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked, Tim'nath-se'rah in the hill country of E'phraim; and he rebuilt the city, and settled in it.

51: These are the inheritances which Elea'zar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the people of Israel distributed by lot at Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tent of meeting. So they finished dividing the land.

Chapter 20 Joshua, chapter 20

1: Then the LORD said to Joshua,

2: "Say to the people of Israel, `Appoint the cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you through Moses,

3: that the manslayer who kills any person without intent or unwittingly may flee there; they shall be for you a refuge from the avenger of blood.

4: He shall flee to one of these cities and shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city, and explain his case to the elders of that city; then they shall take him into the city, and give him a place, and he shall remain with them.

5: And if the avenger of blood pursues him, they shall not give up the slayer into his hand; because he killed his neighbor unwittingly, having had no enmity against him in times past.

6: And he shall remain in that city until he has stood before the congregation for judgment, until the death of him who is high priest at the time: then the slayer may go again to his own town and his own home, to the town from which he fled."

7: So they set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naph'tali, and Shechem in the hill country of E'phraim, and Kir'iath-ar'ba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.

8: And beyond the Jordan east of Jericho, they appointed Bezer in the wilderness on the tableland, from the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead, from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan, from the tribe of Manas'seh.

9: These were the cities designated for all the people of Israel, and for the stranger sojourning among them, that any one who killed a person without intent could flee there, so that he might not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, till he stood before the congregation.

Chapter 21 Joshua, chapter 21

1: Then the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites came to Elea'zar the priest and to Joshua the son of Nun and to the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the people of Israel;

2: and they said to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, "The LORD commanded through Moses that we be given cities to dwell in, along with their pasture lands for our cattle."

3: So by command of the LORD the people of Israel gave to the Levites the following cities and pasture lands out of their inheritance.

4: The lot came out for the families of the Ko'hathites. So those Levites who were descendants of Aaron the priest received by lot from the tribes of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin, thirteen cities.

5: And the rest of the Ko'hathites received by lot from the families of the tribe of E'phraim, from the tribe of Dan and the half-tribe of Manas'seh, ten cities.

6: The Gersonites received by lot from the families of the tribe of Is'sachar, from the tribe of Asher, from the tribe of Naph'tali, and from the half-tribe of Manas'seh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

7: The Merar'ites according to their families received from the tribe of Reuben, the tribe of Gad, and the tribe of Zeb'ulun, twelve cities.

8: These cities and their pasture lands the people of Israel gave by lot to the Levites, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.
9: Out of the tribe of Judah and the tribe of Simeon they gave the following cities mentioned by name,
10: which went to the descendants of Aaron, one of the families of the Ko'hathites who belonged to the Levites; since the lot fell to them first.
11: They gave them Kir'iath-ar'ba (Arba being the father of Anak), that is Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, along with the pasture lands round about it.
12: But the fields of the city and its villages had been given to Caleb the son of Jephun'neh as his possession.
13: And to the descendants of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron, the city of refuge for the slayer, with its pasture lands, Libnah with its pasture lands,
14: Jattir with its pasture lands, Eshtemo'a with its pasture lands, 15: Holon with its pasture lands, Debir with its pasture lands,
16: A'in with its pasture lands, Juttah with its pasture lands, Beth-she'mesh with its pasture lands -- nine cities out of these two tribes;
17: then out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with its pasture lands, Geba with its pasture lands, 18: An'athoth with its pasture lands, and Almon with its pasture lands -- four cities.
19: The cities of the descendants of Aaron, the priests, were in all thirteen cities with their pasture lands.
20: As to the rest of the Ko'hathites belonging to the Ko'hathite families of the Levites, the cities allotted to them were out of the tribe of E'phraim.
21: To them were given Shechem, the city of refuge for the slayer, with its pasture lands in the hill country of E'phraim, Gezer with its pasture lands, 22: Kib'za-im with its pasture lands, Beth-hor'on with its pasture lands -- four cities;
23: and out of the tribe of Dan, El'teke with its pasture lands, Gib'bethon with its pasture lands, 24: Ai'jalon with its pasture lands, Gath-rim'mon with its pasture lands -- four cities;
25: and out of the half-tribe of Manas'seh, Ta'anach with its pasture lands, and Gath-rim'mon with its pasture lands -- two cities.
26: The cities of the families of the rest of the Ko'hathites were ten in all with their pasture lands.
27: And to the Gershonites, one of the families of the Levites, were given out of the half-tribe of Manas'seh, Golan in Bashan with its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the slayer, and Beesh'terah with its pasture lands -- two cities;
28: and out of the tribe of Is'sachar, Ki'shion with its pasture lands, Dab'erath with its pasture lands, 29: Jarmuth with its pasture lands, En-gan'nim with its pasture lands -- four cities;
30: and out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with its pasture lands, Abdon with its pasture lands, 31: Helkath with its pasture lands, and Rehob with its pasture lands -- four cities;
32: and out of the tribe of Naph'tali, Kedesh in Galilee with its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the slayer, Ham'moth-dor with its pasture lands, and Kartan with its pasture lands -- three cities.
33: The cities of the several families of the Gershonites were in all thirteen cities with their pasture lands.
34: And to the rest of the Levites, the Merar'ite families, were given out of the tribe of Zeb'ulun, Jok'ne-am with its pasture lands, Kartah with its pasture lands, 35: Dimnah with its pasture lands, Na'halal with its pasture lands -- four cities;
36: and out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with its pasture lands, Jahaz with its pasture lands, 37: Ked'emoth with its pasture lands, and Meph'a-ath with its pasture lands -- four cities;
38: and out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the slayer, Mahana'im with its pasture lands, 39: Heshbon with its pasture lands, Jazer with its pasture lands -- four cities in all.
40: As for the cities of the several Merar'ite families, that is, the remainder of the families of the Levites, those allotted to them were in all twelve cities.
41: The cities of the Levites in the midst of the possession of the people of Israel were in all forty-eight cities with their pasture lands.
42: These cities had each its pasture lands round about it; so it was with all these cities.
43: Thus the LORD gave to Israel all the land which he swore to give to their fathers; and having taken possession of it, they settled there.
44: And the LORD gave them rest on every side just as he had sworn to their fathers; not one of all their enemies had withstood them, for the LORD had given all their enemies into their hands.
45: Not one of all the good promises which the LORD had made to the house of Israel had failed; all came to pass.

Chapter 22

Joshua, chapter 22

1: Then Joshua summoned the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manas'seh,
2: and said to them, "You have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I have commanded you;
3: you have not forsaken your brethren these many days, down to this day, but have been careful to keep the charge of the LORD your God.
4: And now the LORD your God has given rest to your brethren, as he promised them; therefore turn and go to your home in the land where your possession lies, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan.

5: Take good care to observe the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave to him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul."

v5: be Very careful to observe the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God with all your heart, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to hold fast to him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul."

6: So Joshua blessed them, and sent them away; and they went to their homes.

7: Now to the one half of the tribe of Manas'seh Moses had given a possession in Bashan; but to the other half Joshua had given a possession beside their brethren in the land west of the Jordan. And when Joshua sent them away to their homes and blessed them,

8: he said to them, "Go back to your homes with much wealth, and with very many cattle, with silver, gold, bronze, and iron, and with much clothing; divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren."

9: So the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manas'seh returned home, parting from the people of Israel at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, their own land of which they had possessed themselves by command of the LORD through Moses.

10: And when they came to the region about the Jordan, that lies in the land of Canaan, the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manas'seh built there an altar by the Jordan, an altar of great size.

11: And the people of Israel heard say, "Behold, the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manas'seh have built an altar at the frontier of the land of Canaan, in the region about the Jordan, on the side that belongs to the people of Israel."

12: And when the people of Israel heard of it, the whole assembly of the people of Israel gathered at Shiloh, to make war against them.

13: Then the people of Israel sent to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manas'seh, in the land of Gilead, Phin'ehas the son of Elea'zar the priest, 14: and with him ten chiefs, one from each of the tribal families of Israel, every one of them the head of a family among the clans of Israel.

15: And they came to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manas'seh, in the land of Gilead, and they said to them,

16: "Thus says the whole congregation of the LORD, `What is this treachery which you have committed against the God of Israel in turning away this day from following the LORD, by building yourselves an altar this day in rebellion against the LORD?"

17: Have we not had enough of the sin at Pe'or from which even yet we have not cleansed ourselves, and for which there came a plague upon the congregation of the LORD, 18: that you must turn away this day from following the LORD? And if you rebel against the LORD today he will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel tomorrow.

19: But now, if your land is unclean, pass over into the LORD's land where the LORD's tabernacle stands, and take for yourselves a possession among us; only do not rebel against the LORD, or make us as rebels by building yourselves an altar other than the altar of the LORD our God.

20: Did not Achan the son of Zerah break faith in the matter of the devoted things, and wrath fell upon all the congregation of Israel? And he did not perish alone for his iniquity."

21: Then the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manas'seh said in answer to the heads of the families of Israel,

22: "The Mighty One, God, the LORD! The Mighty One, God, the LORD! He knows; and let Israel itself know! If it was in rebellion or in breach of faith toward the LORD, spare us not today

23: for building an altar to turn away from following the LORD; or if we did so to offer burnt offerings or cereal offerings or peace offerings on it, may the LORD himself take vengeance.

24: Nay, but we did it from fear that in time to come your children might say to our children, `What have you to do with the LORD, the God of Israel?"

25: For the LORD has made the Jordan a boundary between us and you, you Reubenites and Gadites; you have no portion in the LORD.' So your children might make our children cease to worship the LORD.

26: Therefore we said, `Let us now build an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice,

27: but to be a witness between us and you, and between the generations after us, that we do perform the service of the LORD in his presence with our burnt offerings and sacrifices and peace offerings; lest your children say to our children in time to come, "You have no portion in the LORD."

28: And we thought, If this should be said to us or to our descendants in time to come, we should say, `Behold the copy of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifice, but to be a witness between us and you.'

29: Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn away this day from following the LORD by building an altar for burnt offering, cereal offering, or sacrifice, other than the altar of the LORD our God that stands before his tabernacle!"

30: When Phin'ehas the priest and the chiefs of the congregation, the heads of the families of Israel who were with him, heard the words that the Reubenites and the Gadites and the Manas'sites spoke, it pleased them well.

31: And Phin'ehas the son of Elea'zar the priest said to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the Manas'sites, "Today we know that the LORD is in the midst of us, because you have not committed this treachery against the LORD; now you have saved the people of Israel from the hand of the LORD."

32: Then Phin'ehas the son of Elea'zar the priest, and the chiefs, returned from the Reubenites and the Gadites in the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the people of Israel, and brought back word to them.

33: And the report pleased the people of Israel; and the people of Israel blessed God and spoke no more of making war against them, to destroy the land where the Reubenites and the Gadites were settled.

34: The Reubenites and the Gadites called the altar Witness; "For," said they, "it is a witness between us that the LORD is God."

Chapter 23

Joshua, chapter 23

1: A long time afterward, when the LORD had given rest to Israel from all their enemies round about, and Joshua was old and well advanced in years,

2: Joshua summoned all Israel, their elders and heads, their judges and officers, and said to them, "I am now old and well advanced in years;

3: and you have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations for your sake, for it is the LORD your God who has fought for you.

4: Behold, I have allotted to you as an inheritance for your tribes those nations that remain, along with all the nations that I have already cut off, from the Jordan to the Great Sea in the west.

5: The LORD your God will push them back before you, and drive them out of your sight; and you shall possess their land, as the LORD your God promised you.

6: Therefore be very steadfast to keep and do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, turning aside from it neither to the right hand nor to the left,

7: that you may not be mixed with these nations left here among you, or make mention of the names of their gods, or swear by them, or serve them, or bow down yourselves to them,

8: but cleave to the LORD your God as you have done to this day.

9: For the LORD has driven out before you great and strong nations; and as for you, no man has been able to withstand you to this day.

10: One man of you puts to flight a thousand, since it is the LORD your God who fights for you, as he promised you.

v10: One, mature believer, who puts to flight thousands of soldiers, for the LORD your God is he who fights for you, just as he promised you.

11: Take good heed to yourselves, therefore, to love the LORD your God.

v11: Therefore, Take careful heed to yourselves, that you love the LORD your God.

12: For if you turn back, and join the remnant of these nations left here among you, and make marriages with them, so that you marry their women and they yours,

13: know assuredly that the LORD your God will not continue to drive out these nations before you; but they shall be a snare and a trap for you, a scourge on your sides, and thorns in your eyes, till you perish from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

14: "And now I am about to go the way of all the earth, and you know in your hearts and souls, all of you, that not one thing has failed of all the good things which the LORD your God promised concerning you; all have come to pass for you, not one of them has failed.

15: But just as all the good things which the LORD your God promised concerning you have been fulfilled for you, so the LORD will bring upon you all the evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you,

16: if you transgress the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and go and serve other gods and bow down to them. Then the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you, and you shall perish quickly from off the good land which he has given to you."

Chapter 24

Joshua, chapter 24

1: Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and summoned the elders, the heads, the judges, and the officers of Israel; and they presented themselves before God.

2: And Joshua said to all the people, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, `Your fathers lived of old beyond the Euphra'tes, Terah, the father of Abraham and of Nahor; and they served other gods.

Josh 24:2-3

v2: And Joshua said to all the people, "Thus says the Jehovah , the God of Israel, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ , From ancient times your forefathers lived beyond the river Euphra'tes, Terah, the father of Abraham and of Nahor; and they all served other gods.

3: Then I took your father Abraham from beyond the River and led him through all the land of Canaan, and made his offspring many. I gave him Isaac;

v3: Then I, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, took your forefather Abraham from beyond the River Euhprates and led him through all the land of Canaan, I both multiplied his seed and gave him Isaac;

4: and to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. And I gave Esau the hill country of Se'ir to possess, but Jacob and his children went down to Egypt.

5: And I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt with what I did in the midst of it; and afterwards I brought you out.

6: Then I brought your fathers out of Egypt, and you came to the sea; and the Egyptians pursued your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea.

7: And when they cried to the LORD, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and made the sea come upon them and cover them; and your eyes saw what I did to Egypt; and you lived in the wilderness a long time.

8: Then I brought you to the land of the Amorites, who lived on the other side of the Jordan; they fought with you, and I gave them into your hand, and you took possession of their land, and I destroyed them before you.

9: Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and fought against Israel; and he sent and invited Balaam the son of Be'or to curse you,

10: but I would not listen to Balaam; therefore he blessed you; so I delivered you out of his hand.

11: And you went over the Jordan and came to Jericho, and the men of Jericho fought against you, and also the Amorites, the Per'izzites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Gir'gashites, the Hivites, and the Jeb'usites; and I gave them into your hand.

12: And I sent the hornet before you, which drove them out before you, the two kings of the Amorites; it was not by your sword or by your bow.

13: I gave you a land on which you had not labored, and cities which you had not built, and you dwell therein; you eat the fruit of vineyards and oliveyards which you did not plant.'

14: "Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in faithfulness; put away the gods which your fathers served beyond the River, and in Egypt, and serve the LORD.

15: And if you be unwilling to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your fathers served in the region beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you dwell; but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD."

16: Then the people answered, "Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods;

17: for it is the LORD our God who brought us and our fathers up from the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, and who did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way that we went, and among all the peoples through whom we passed;

18: and the LORD drove out before us all the peoples, the Amorites who lived in the land; therefore we also will serve the LORD, for he is our God."

19: But Joshua said to the people, "You cannot serve the LORD; for he is a holy God; he is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions or your sins.

20: If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, then he will turn and do you harm, and consume you, after having done you good."

21: And the people said to Joshua, "Nay; but we will serve the LORD."

22: Then Joshua said to the people, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen the LORD, to serve him." And they said, "We are witnesses."

23: He said, "Then put away the foreign gods which are among you, and incline your heart to the LORD, the God of Israel."

24: And the people said to Joshua, "The LORD our God we will serve, and his voice we will obey."

25: So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made statutes and ordinances for them at Shechem.

26: And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God; and he took a great stone, and set it up there under the oak in the sanctuary of the LORD.

27: And Joshua said to all the people, "Behold, this stone shall be a witness against us; for it has heard all the words of the LORD which he spoke to us; therefore it shall be a witness against you, lest you deal falsely with your God."

28: So Joshua sent the people away, every man to his inheritance.

29: After these things Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being a hundred and ten years old.

30: And they buried him in his own inheritance at Tim'nath-se'rah, which is in the hill country of E'phraim, north of the mountain of Ga'ash.

31: And Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua and had known all the work which the LORD did for Israel.

32: The bones of Joseph which the people of Israel brought up from Egypt were buried at Shechem, in the portion of ground which Jacob bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for a hundred pieces of money; it became an inheritance of the descendants of Joseph.

Joshua 24:32

v32: And Joseph's Bones which the people of Israel had brought up from Egypt, were buried in Shekem on a tract of land which Jacob bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for 100 peices of silver, this became the inheritance of Joseph's descendants.

33: And Elea'zar the son of Aaron died; and they buried him at Gib'e-ah, the town of Phin'ehas his son, which had been given him in the hill country of E'phraim.

The Book of Judges

Chapter 1

Judges, chapter 1

1: After the death of Joshua the people of Israel inquired of the LORD, of "Who shall go up first for us against the Canaanites, to fight against them?"

2: The LORD said, "Judah shall go up; behold, I have given the land into his hand."

3: And Judah said to Simeon his brother, "Come up with me into the territory allotted to me, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with you into the territory allotted to you." So Simeon went with him.

4: Then Judah went up and the LORD gave the Canaanites and the Per'izzites into their hand; and they defeated ten thousand of them at Bezek.

5: They came upon Ado'ni-be'zek at Bezek, and fought against him, and defeated the Canaanites and the Per'izzites.

6: Ado'ni-be'zek fled; but they pursued him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

7: And Ado'ni-be'zek said, "Seventy kings with their thumbs and their great toes cut off used to pick up scraps under my table; as I have done, so God has requited me." And they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

8: And the men of Judah fought against Jerusalem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.

9: And afterward the men of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who dwelt in the hill country, in the Negeb, and in the lowland.

10: And Judah went against the Canaanites who dwelt in Hebron (now the name of Hebron was formerly Kir'iath-ar'ba); and they defeated She'shai and Ahi'man and Talmi.

11: From there they went against the inhabitants of Debir. The name of Debir was formerly Kir'iath-se'pher.

12: And Caleb said, "He who attacks Kir'iath-se'pher and takes it, I will give him Achsah my daughter as wife."

13: And Oth'ni-el the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it; and he gave him Achsah his daughter as wife.

14: When she came to him, she urged him to ask her father for a field; and she alighted from her ass, and Caleb said to her, "What do you wish?"

15: She said to him, "Give me a present; since you have set me in the land of the Negeb, give me also springs of water." And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

16: And the descendants of the Ken'ite, Moses' father-in-law, went up with the people of Judah from the city of palms into the wilderness of Judah, which lies in the Negeb near Arad; and they went and settled with the people.

17: And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they defeated the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. So the name of the city was called Hormah.

18: Judah also took Gaza with its territory, and Ash'kelon with its territory, and Ekron with its territory.

19: And the LORD was with Judah, and he took possession of the hill country, but he could not drive out the inhabitants of the plain, because they had chariots of iron.

20: And Hebron was given to Caleb, as Moses had said; and he drove out from it the three sons of Anak.

21: But the people of Benjamin did not drive out the Jeb'usites who dwelt in Jerusalem; so the Jeb'usites have dwelt with the people of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.

22: The house of Joseph also went up against Bethel; and the LORD was with them.

23: And the house of Joseph sent to spy out Bethel. (Now the name of the city was formerly Luz.)

24: And the spies saw a man coming out of the city, and they said to him, "Pray, show us the way into the city, and we will deal kindly with you."

25: And he showed them the way into the city; and they smote the city with the edge of the sword, but they let the man and all his family go.

26: And the man went to the land of the Hittites and built a city, and called its name Luz; that is its name to this day.

27: Manas'seh did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth-she'an and its villages, or Ta'a-nach and its villages, or the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages, or the inhabitants of Megid'do and its villages; but the Canaanites persisted in dwelling in that land.

28: When Israel grew strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but did not utterly drive them out.

29: And E'phraim did not drive out the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

30: Zeb'ulun did not drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, or the inhabitants of Na'halol; but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became subject to forced labor.

31: Asher did not drive out the inhabitants of Acco, or the inhabitants of Sidon, or of Ahlab, or of Achzib, or of Helbah, or of Aphik, or of Rehob;

32: but the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out.

33: Naph'tali did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth-she'mesh, or the inhabitants of Beth-anath, but dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth-she'mesh and of Beth-anath became subject to forced labor for them.

34: The Amorites pressed the Danites back into the hill country, for they did not allow them to come down to the plain;

35: the Amorites persisted in dwelling in Har-heres, in Ai'jalon, and in Sha-al'bim, but the hand of the house of Joseph rested heavily upon them, and they became subject to forced labor.

36: And the border of the Amorites ran from the ascent of Akrab'bim, from Sela and upward.

Chapter 2

Judges, chapter 2

1: Now the angel of the LORD went up from Gilgal to Bochim. And he said, "I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you into the land which I swore to give to your fathers. I said, 'I will never break my covenant with you, 2: and you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall break down their altars.' But you have not obeyed my command. What is this you have done?

 3: So now I say, I will not drive them out before you; but they shall become adversaries to you, and their gods shall be a snare to you."
 4: When the angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the people of Israel, the people lifted up their voices and wept.
 5: And they called the name of that place Bochim; and they sacrificed there to the LORD.
 6: When Joshua dismissed the people, the people of Israel went each to his inheritance to take possession of the land.
 7: And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work which the LORD had done for Israel.
 8: And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of one hundred and ten years.
 9: And they buried him within the bounds of his inheritance in Tim'nath-he'res, in the hill country of E'phraim, north of the mountain of Ga'ash.
 10: And all that generation also were gathered to their fathers; and there arose another generation after them, who did not know the LORD or the work which he had done for Israel.
 11: And the people of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the LORD and served the Ba'als;
 12: and they forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt; they went after other gods, from among the gods of the peoples who were round about them, and bowed down to them; and they provoked the LORD to anger.
 13: They forsook the LORD, and served the Ba'als and the Ash'taroth.
 14: So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he gave them over to plunderers, who plundered them; and he sold them into the power of their enemies round about, so that they could no longer withstand their enemies.
 15: Whenever they marched out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had warned, and as the LORD had sworn to them; and they were in sore straits.
 16: Then the LORD raised up judges, who saved them out of the power of those who plundered them.
 17: And yet they did not listen to their judges; for they played the harlot after other gods and bowed down to them; they soon turned aside from the way in which their fathers had walked, who had obeyed the commandments of the LORD, and they did not do so.
 18: Whenever the LORD raised up judges for them, the LORD was with the judge, and he saved them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for the LORD was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who afflicted and oppressed them.
 19: But whenever the judge died, they turned back and behaved worse than their fathers, going after other gods, serving them and bowing down to them; they did not drop any of their practices or their stubborn ways.
 20: So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel; and he said, "Because this people have transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not obeyed my voice,
 21: I will not henceforth drive out before them any of the nations that Joshua left when he died,
 22: that by them I may test Israel, whether they will take care to walk in the way of the LORD as their fathers did, or not."
 23: So the LORD left those nations, not driving them out at once, and he did not give them into the power of Joshua.

Chapter 3 Judges, chapter 3

1: Now these are the nations which the LORD left, to test Israel by them, that is, all in Israel who had no experience of any war in Canaan;
v1: Now these are the nations which the Lord left to test Israel by them in military training under combat conditions, all who had not experienced the previous wars of Canaan having lived in Joshua's generation.
 2: it was only that the generations of the people of Israel might know war, that he might teach war to such at least as had not known it before.
v2: In order that the generations of the sons of Israel might be taught war, those who had not experienced it formally.
 3: These are the nations: the five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sido'nians, and the Hivites who dwelt on Mount Lebanon, from Mount Ba'al-her'mon as far as the entrance of Hamath.
 4: They were for the testing of Israel, to know whether Israel would obey the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their fathers by Moses.
 5: So the people of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Per'izzites, the Hivites, and the Jeb'usites;
 6: and they took their daughters to themselves for wives, and their own daughters they gave to their sons; and they served their gods.
 7: And the people of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, forgetting the LORD their God, and serving the Ba'als and the Ashe'roth.
 8: Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Cu'shan-rishatha'im king of Mesopota'mia; and the people of Israel served Cu'shan-rishatha'im eight years.
 9: But when the people of Israel cried to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for the people of Israel, who delivered them, Oth'ni-el the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.
 10: The Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel; he went out to war, and the LORD gave Cu'shan-rishatha'im king of Mesopota'mia into his hand; and his hand prevailed over Cu'shan-rishatha'im.
 11: So the land had rest forty years. Then Oth'ni-el the son of Kenaz died.

12: And the people of Israel again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done what was evil in the sight of the LORD.
13: He gathered to himself the Ammonites and the Amal'ekites, and went and defeated Israel; and they took possession of the city of palms.
14: And the people of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.
15: But when the people of Israel cried to the LORD, the LORD raised up for them a deliverer, Ehud, the son of Gera, the Benjaminite, a left-handed man. The people of Israel sent tribute by him to Eglon the king of Moab.
16: And Ehud made for himself a sword with two edges, a cubit in length; and he girded it on his right thigh under his clothes.
17: And he presented the tribute to Eglon king of Moab. Now Eglon was a very fat man.
18: And when Ehud had finished presenting the tribute, he sent away the people that carried the tribute.
19: But he himself turned back at the sculptured stones near Gilgal, and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king." And he commanded, "Silence." And all his attendants went out from his presence.
20: And Ehud came to him, as he was sitting alone in his cool roof chamber. And Ehud said, "I have a message from God for you." And he arose from his seat.
21: And Ehud reached with his left hand, took the sword from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly;
22: and the hilt also went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, for he did not draw the sword out of his belly; and the dirt came out.
23: Then Ehud went out into the vestibule, and closed the doors of the roof chamber upon him, and locked them.
24: When he had gone, the servants came; and when they saw that the doors of the roof chamber were locked, they thought, "He is only relieving himself in the closet of the cool chamber."
25: And they waited till they were utterly at a loss; but when he still did not open the doors of the roof chamber, they took the key and opened them; and there lay their lord dead on the floor.
26: Ehud escaped while they delayed, and passed beyond the sculptured stones, and escaped to Se-i'rah.
27: When he arrived, he sounded the trumpet in the hill country of E'phraim; and the people of Israel went down with him from the hill country, having him at their head.
28: And he said to them, "Follow after me; for the LORD has given your enemies the Moabites into your hand." So they went down after him, and seized the fords of the Jordan against the Moabites, and allowed not a man to pass over.
29: And they killed at that time about ten thousand of the Moabites, all strong, able-bodied men; not a man escaped.
30: So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest for eighty years.
31: After him was Shamgar the son of Anath, who killed six hundred of the Philistines with an oxgoad; and he too delivered Israel.

Judges 3:31

v31: And after him came Shamgar (a judge) the son of Enok who struck down 600 philistines with an ox therefore he also delivered israel.

Chapter 4 Judges, chapter 4

1: And the people of Israel again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, after Ehud died.
2: And the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the commander of his army was Sis'era, who dwelt in Haro'sheth-ha-goiim.
3: Then the people of Israel cried to the LORD for help; for he had nine hundred chariots of iron, and oppressed the people of Israel cruelly for twenty years.
4: Now Deb'orah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapp'idoth, was judging Israel at that time.
5: She used to sit under the palm of Deb'orah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of E'phraim; and the people of Israel came up to her for judgment.
6: She sent and summoned Barak the son of Abin'o-am from Kedesh in Naph'tali, and said to him, "The LORD, the God of Israel, commands you, 'Go, gather your men at Mount Tabor, taking ten thousand from the tribe of Naph'tali and the tribe of Zeb'ulun.
7: And I will draw out Sis'era, the general of Jabin's army, to meet you by the river Kishon with his chariots and his troops; and I will give him into your hand.'"
8: Barak said to her, "If you will go with me, I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go."
9: And she said, "I will surely go with you; nevertheless, the road on which you are going will not lead to your glory, for the LORD will sell Sis'era into the hand of a woman." Then Deb'orah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.
10: And Barak summoned Zeb'ulun and Naph'tali to Kedesh; and ten thousand men went up at his heels; and Deb'orah went up with him.
11: Now Heber the Ken'ite had separated from the Ken'ites, the descendants of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, and had pitched his tent as far away as the oak in Za-anan'nim, which is near Kedesh.
12: When Sis'era was told that Barak the son of Abin'o-am had gone up to Mount Tabor, 13: Sis'era called out all his chariots, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the men who were with him, from Haro'sheth-ha-goiim to the river Kishon.
14: And Deb'orah said to Barak, "Up! For this is the day in which the LORD has given Sis'era into your hand. Does not the LORD go out before you?" So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men following him.

15: And the LORD routed Sis'era and all his chariots and all his army before Barak at the edge of the sword; and Sis'era alighted from his chariot and fled away on foot.

16: And Barak pursued the chariots and the army to Haro'sheth-ha-goim, and all the army of Sis'era fell by the edge of the sword; not a man was left.

17: But Sis'era fled away on foot to the tent of Ja'el, the wife of Heber the Ken'ite; for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Ken'ite.

18: And Ja'el came out to meet Sis'era, and said to him, "Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me; have no fear." So he turned aside to her into the tent, and she covered him with a rug.

19: And he said to her, "Pray, give me a little water to drink; for I am thirsty." So she opened a skin of milk and gave him a drink and covered him.

20: And he said to her, "Stand at the door of the tent, and if any man comes and asks you, 'Is any one here?' say, No."

21: But Ja'el the wife of Heber took a tent peg, and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him and drove the peg into his temple, till it went down into the ground, as he was lying fast asleep from weariness. So he died.

22: And behold, as Barak pursued Sis'era, Ja'el went out to meet him, and said to him, "Come, and I will show you the man whom you are seeking." So he went in to her tent; and there lay Sis'era dead, with the tent peg in his temple.

23: So on that day God subdued Jabin the king of Canaan before the people of Israel.

24: And the hand of the people of Israel bore harder and harder on Jabin the king of Canaan, until they destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

Chapter 5 Judges, chapter 5

1: Then sang Deb'orah and Barak the son of Abin'o-am on that day:

2: "That the leaders took the lead in Israel, that the people offered themselves willingly, bless the LORD!

3: "Hear, O kings; give ear, O princes; to the LORD I will sing, I will make melody to the LORD, the God of Israel.

4: "LORD, when thou didst go forth from Se'ir, when thou didst march from the region of Edom, the earth trembled, and the heavens dropped, yea, the clouds dropped water.

5: The mountains quaked before the LORD, yon Sinai before the LORD, the God of Israel.

6: "In the days of Shamgar, son of Anath, in the days of Ja'el, caravans ceased and travelers kept to the byways.

7: The peasantry ceased in Israel, they ceased until you arose, Deb'orah, arose as a mother in Israel.

8: When new gods were chosen, then war was in the gates. Was shield or spear to be seen among forty thousand in Israel?

Judges 5:8

v8: Now new idolatry gods were chosen, then war was in the gates, Not a shield nor spear was seen among the 40,000 in Israel

9: My heart goes out to the commanders of Israel who offered themselves willingly among the people. Bless the LORD.

10: "Tell of it, you who ride on tawny asses, you who sit on rich carpets and you who walk by the way.

11: To the sound of musicians at the watering places, there they repeat the triumphs of the LORD, the triumphs of his peasantry in Israel. "Then down to the gates marched the people of the LORD.

12: "Awake, awake, Deb'orah! Awake, awake, utter a song! Arise, Barak, lead away your captives, O son of Abin'o-am.

13: Then down marched the remnant of the noble; the people of the LORD marched down for him against the mighty.

14: From E'phraim they set out thither into the valley, following you, Benjamin, with your kinsmen; from Machir marched down the commanders, and from Zeb'ulun those who bear the marshal's staff;

15: the princes of Is'sachar came with Deb'orah, and Is'sachar faithful to Barak; into the valley they rushed forth at his heels. Among the clans of Reuben there were great searchings of heart.

16: Why did you tarry among the sheepfolds, to hear the piping for the flocks? Among the clans of Reuben there were great searchings of heart.

17: Gilead stayed beyond the Jordan; and Dan, why did he abide with the ships? Asher sat still at the coast of the sea, settling down by his landings.

18: Zeb'ulun is a people that jeopardized their lives to the death; Naph'tali too, on the heights of the field.

19: "The kings came, they fought; then fought the kings of Canaan, at Ta'anach, by the waters of Megid'do; they got no spoils of silver.

20: From heaven fought the stars, from their courses they fought against Sis'era.

21: The torrent Kishon swept them away, the onrushing torrent, the torrent Kishon. March on, my soul, with might!

22: "Then loud beat the horses' hoofs with the galloping, galloping of his steeds.

23: "Curse Meroz, says the angel of the LORD, curse bitterly its inhabitants, because they came not to the help of the LORD, to the help of the LORD against the mighty.

24: "Most blessed of women be Ja'el, the wife of Heber the Ken'ite, of tent-dwelling women most blessed.

25: He asked water and she gave him milk, she brought him curds in a lordly bowl.

26: She put her hand to the tent peg and her right hand to the workmen's mallet; she struck Sis'era a blow, she crushed his head, she shattered and pierced his temple.

27: He sank, he fell, he lay still at her feet; at her feet he sank, he fell; where he sank, there he fell dead.
28: "Out of the window she peered, the mother of Sis'era gazed through the lattice: `Why is his chariot so long in coming? Why tarry the hoofbeats of his chariots?'
29: Her wisest ladies make answer, nay, she gives answer to herself,
30: `Are they not finding and dividing the spoil? -- A maiden or two for every man; spoil of dyed stuffs for Sis'era, spoil of dyed stuffs embroidered, two pieces of dyed work embroidered for my neck as spoil?"
31: "So perish all thine enemies, O LORD! But thy friends be like the sun as he rises in his might." And the land had rest for forty years.

Chapter 6 Judges, chapter 6

1: The people of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD gave them into the hand of Mid'ian seven years.
2: And the hand of Mid'ian prevailed over Israel; and because of Mid'ian the people of Israel made for themselves the dens which are in the mountains, and the caves and the strongholds.
3: For whenever the Israelites put in seed the Mid'ianites and the Amal'ekites and the people of the East would come up and attack them;
4: they would encamp against them and destroy the produce of the land, as far as the neighborhood of Gaza, and leave no sustenance in Israel, and no sheep or ox or ass.
5: For they would come up with their cattle and their tents, coming like locusts for number; both they and their camels could not be counted; so that they wasted the land as they came in.
6: And Israel was brought very low because of Mid'ian; and the people of Israel cried for help to the LORD.
7: When the people of Israel cried to the LORD on account of the Mid'ianites,
8: the LORD sent a prophet to the people of Israel; and he said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I led you up from Egypt, and brought you out of the house of bondage;
9: and I delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians, and from the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out before you, and gave you their land;
10: and I said to you, `I am the LORD your God; you shall not pay reverence to the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell.' But you have not given heed to my voice."
11: Now the angel of the LORD came and sat under the oak at Ophrah, which belonged to Jo'ash the Abiez'rite, as his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the wine press, to hide it from the Mid'ianites.
12: And the angel of the LORD appeared to him and said to him, "The LORD is with you, you mighty man of valor."
13: And Gideon said to him, "Pray, sir, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this befallen us? And where are all his wonderful deeds which our fathers recounted to us, saying, `Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?' But now the LORD has cast us off, and given us into the hand of Mid'ian."
14: And the LORD turned to him and said, "Go in this might of yours and deliver Israel from the hand of Mid'ian; do not I send you?"
15: And he said to him, "Pray, Lord, how can I deliver Israel? Behold, my clan is the weakest in Manas'seh, and I am the least in my family."
16: And the LORD said to him, "But I will be with you, and you shall smite the Mid'ianites as one man."
17: And he said to him, "If now I have found favor with thee, then show me a sign that it is thou who speakest with me.
18: Do not depart from here, I pray thee, until I come to thee, and bring out my present, and set it before thee." And he said, "I will stay till you return."
19: So Gideon went into his house and prepared a kid, and unleavened cakes from an ephah of flour; the meat he put in a basket, and the broth he put in a pot, and brought them to him under the oak and presented them.
20: And the angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and the unleavened cakes, and put them on this rock, and pour the broth over them." And he did so.
21: Then the angel of the LORD reached out the tip of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the meat and the unleavened cakes; and there sprang up fire from the rock and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and the angel of the LORD vanished from his sight.
22: Then Gideon perceived that he was the angel of the LORD; and Gideon said, "Alas, O Lord GOD! For now I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face."
23: But the LORD said to him, "Peace be to you; do not fear, you shall not die."
24: Then Gideon built an altar there to the LORD, and called it, The LORD is peace. To this day it still stands at Ophrah, which belongs to the Abiez'rites.

Judges 6:24

v24: Then Gideon built an altar there to the Jehovah, and named it, Jehovah Shalom, Jehovah is Prosperity. To this day it still stands at Ophrah, which belongs to the Abiez'rites.

25: That night the LORD said to him, "Take your father's bull, the second bull seven years old, and pull down the altar of Ba'al which your father has, and cut down the Ashe'rah that is beside it;
26: and build an altar to the LORD your God on the top of the stronghold here, with stones laid in due order; then take the second bull, and offer it as a burnt offering with the wood of the Ashe'rah which you shall cut down."

27: So Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had told him; but because he was too afraid of his family and the men of the town to do it by day, he did it by night.

28: When the men of the town rose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Ba'al was broken down, and the Ashe'rah beside it was cut down, and the second bull was offered upon the altar which had been built.

29: And they said to one another, "Who has done this thing?" And after they had made search and inquired, they said, "Gideon the son of Jo'ash has done this thing."

30: Then the men of the town said to Jo'ash, "Bring out your son, that he may die, for he has pulled down the altar of Ba'al and cut down the Ashe'rah beside it."

31: But Jo'ash said to all who were arrayed against him, "Will you contend for Ba'al? Or will you defend his cause? Whoever contends for him shall be put to death by morning. If he is a god, let him contend for himself, because his altar has been pulled down."

32: Therefore on that day he was called Jerubba'al, that is to say, "Let Ba'al contend against him," because he pulled down his altar.

33: Then all the Mid'ianites and the Amal'ekites and the people of the East came together, and crossing the Jordan they encamped in the Valley of Jezreel.

34: But the Spirit of the LORD took possession of Gideon; and he sounded the trumpet, and the Abiez'rites were called out to follow him.

35: And he sent messengers throughout all Manas'seh; and they too were called out to follow him. And he sent messengers to Asher, Zeb'ulun, and Naph'tali; and they went up to meet them.

36: Then Gideon said to God, "If thou wilt deliver Israel by my hand, as thou hast said, 37: behold, I am laying a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there is dew on the fleece alone, and it is dry on all the ground, then I shall know that thou wilt deliver Israel by my hand, as thou hast said."

38: And it was so. When he rose early next morning and squeezed the fleece, he wrung enough dew from the fleece to fill a bowl with water.

39: Then Gideon said to God, "Let not thy anger burn against me, let me speak but this once; pray, let me make trial only this once with the fleece; pray, let it be dry only on the fleece, and on all the ground let there be dew."

40: And God did so that night; for it was dry on the fleece only, and on all the ground there was dew.

Chapter 7

Judges, chapter 7

1: Then Jerubba'al (that is, Gideon) and all the people who were with him rose early and encamped beside the spring of Harod; and the camp of Mid'ian was north of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley.

2: The LORD said to Gideon, "The people with you are too many for me to give the Mid'ianites into their hand, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, 'My own hand has delivered me.'

3: Now therefore proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, 'Whoever is fearful and trembling, let him return home.'" And Gideon tested them; twenty-two thousand returned, and ten thousand remained.

4: And the LORD said to Gideon, "The people are still too many; take them down to the water and I will test them for you there; and he of whom I say to you, 'This man shall go with you,' shall go with you; and any of whom I say to you, 'This man shall not go with you,' shall not go."

5: So he brought the people down to the water; and the LORD said to Gideon, "Every one that laps the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, you shall set by himself; likewise every one that kneels down to drink."

6: And the number of those that lapped, putting their hands to their mouths, was three hundred men; but all the rest of the people knelt down to drink water.

7: And the LORD said to Gideon, "With the three hundred men that lapped I will deliver you, and give the Mid'ianites into your hand; and let all the others go every man to his home."

8: So he took the jars of the people from their hands, and their trumpets; and he sent all the rest of Israel every man to his tent, but retained the three hundred men; and the camp of Mid'ian was below him in the valley.

9: That same night the LORD said to him, "Arise, go down against the camp; for I have given it into your hand.

10: But if you fear to go down, go down to the camp with Purah your servant;

11: and you shall hear what they say, and afterward your hands shall be strengthened to go down against the camp." Then he went down with Purah his servant to the outposts of the armed men that were in the camp.

12: And the Mid'ianites and the Amal'ekites and all the people of the East lay along the valley like locusts for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand which is upon the seashore for multitude.

13: When Gideon came, behold, a man was telling a dream to his comrade; and he said, "Behold, I dreamed a dream; and lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Mid'ian, and came to the tent, and struck it so that it fell, and turned it upside down, so that the tent lay flat."

14: And his comrade answered, "This is no other than the sword of Gideon the son of Jo'ash, a man of Israel; into his hand God has given Mid'ian and all the host."

15: When Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, he worshiped; and he returned to the camp of Israel, and said, "Arise; for the LORD has given the host of Mid'ian into your hand."

16: And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and put trumpets into the hands of all of them and empty jars, with torches inside the jars.
17: And he said to them, "Look at me, and do likewise; when I come to the outskirts of the camp, do as I do.
18: When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then blow the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and shout, `For the LORD and for Gideon."
19: So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the outskirts of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, when they had just set the watch; and they blew the trumpets and smashed the jars that were in their hands.
20: And the three companies blew the trumpets and broke the jars, holding in their left hands the torches, and in their right hands the trumpets to blow; and they cried, "A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!"
21: They stood every man in his place round about the camp, and all the army ran; they cried out and fled.
22: When they blew the three hundred trumpets, the LORD set every man's sword against his fellow and against all the army; and the army fled as far as Beth-shit'tah toward Zer'erah, as far as the border of A'bel-meho'lah, by Tabbath.
23: And the men of Israel were called out from Naph'tali and from Asher and from all Manas'seh, and they pursued after Mid'ian.
24: And Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of E'phraim, saying, "Come down against the Mid'ianites and seize the waters against them, as far as Beth-bar'ah, and also the Jordan." So all the men of E'phraim were called out, and they seized the waters as far as Beth-bar'ah, and also the Jordan.
25: And they took the two princes of Mid'ian, Oreb and Zeeb; they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the wine press of Zeeb, as they pursued Mid'ian; and they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond the Jordan.

Chapter 8 Judges, chapter 8

1: And the men of E'phraim said to him, "What is this that you have done to us, not to call us when you went to fight with Mid'ian?" And they upbraided him violently.
2: And he said to them, "What have I done now in comparison with you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of E'phraim better than the vintage of Abi-e'zer?
3: God has given into your hands the princes of Mid'ian, Oreb and Zeeb; what have I been able to do in comparison with you?" Then their anger against him was abated, when he had said this.
4: And Gideon came to the Jordan and passed over, he and the three hundred men who were with him, faint yet pursuing.
5: So he said to the men of Succoth, "Pray, give loaves of bread to the people who follow me; for they are faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmun'na, the kings of Mid'ian."
6: And the officials of Succoth said, "Are Zebah and Zalmun'na already in your hand, that we should give bread to your army?"
7: And Gideon said, "Well then, when the LORD has given Zebah and Zalmun'na into my hand, I will flail your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers."
8: And from there he went up to Penu'el, and spoke to them in the same way; and the men of Penu'el answered him as the men of Succoth had answered.
9: And he said to the men of Penu'el, "When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower."
10: Now Zebah and Zalmun'na were in Karkor with their army, about fifteen thousand men, all who were left of all the army of the people of the East; for there had fallen a hundred and twenty thousand men who drew the sword.
11: And Gideon went up by the caravan route east of Nobah and Jog'behah, and attacked the army; for the army was off its guard.
12: And Zebah and Zalmun'na fled; and he pursued them and took the two kings of Mid'ian, Zebah and Zalmun'na, and he threw all the army into a panic.
13: Then Gideon the son of Jo'ash returned from the battle by the ascent of Heres.
14: And he caught a young man of Succoth, and questioned him; and he wrote down for him the officials and elders of Succoth, seventy-seven men.
15: And he came to the men of Succoth, and said, "Behold Zebah and Zalmun'na, about whom you taunted me, saying, `Are Zebah and Zalmun'na already in your hand, that we should give bread to your men who are faint?'"
16: And he took the elders of the city and he took thorns of the wilderness and briers and with them taught the men of Succoth.
17: And he broke down the tower of Penu'el, and slew the men of the city.
18: Then he said to Zebah and Zalmun'na, "Where are the men whom you slew at Tabor?" They answered, "As you are, so were they, every one of them; they resembled the sons of a king."
19: And he said, "They were my brothers, the sons of my mother; as the LORD lives, if you had saved them alive, I would not slay you."
20: And he said to Jether his first-born, "Rise, and slay them." But the youth did not draw his sword; for he was afraid, because he was still a youth.
21: Then Zebah and Zalmun'na said, "Rise yourself, and fall upon us; for as the man is, so is his strength." And Gideon arose and slew Zebah and Zalmun'na; and he took the crescents that were on the necks of their camels.
22: Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, "Rule over us, you and your son and your grandson also; for you have delivered us out of the hand of Mid'ian."
23: Gideon said to them, "I will not rule over you, and my son will not rule over you; the LORD will rule over you."

24: And Gideon said to them, "Let me make a request of you; give me every man of you the earrings of his spoil." (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ish'maelites.)
 25: And they answered, "We will willingly give them." And they spread a garment, and every man cast in it the earrings of his spoil.
 26: And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was one thousand seven hundred shekels of gold; besides the crescents and the pendants and the purple garments worn by the kings of Mid'ian, and besides the collars that were about the necks of their camels.
 27: And Gideon made an ephod of it and put it in his city, in Ophrah; and all Israel played the harlot after it there, and it became a snare to Gideon and to his family.
 28: So Mid'ian was subdued before the people of Israel, and they lifted up their heads no more. And the land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon.
 29: Jerubba'al the son of Jo'ash went and dwelt in his own house.
 30: Now Gideon had seventy sons, his own offspring, for he had many wives.
 31: And his concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, and he called his name Abim'elech.
 32: And Gideon the son of Jo'ash died in a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Jo'ash his father, at Ophrah of the Abiez'rites.
 33: As soon as Gideon died, the people of Israel turned again and played the harlot after the Ba'als, and made Ba'al-be'rith their god.
 34: And the people of Israel did not remember the LORD their God, who had rescued them from the hand of all their enemies on every side;
 35: and they did not show kindness to the family of Jerubba'al (that is, Gideon) in return for all the good that he had done to Israel.

Chapter 9 Judges, chapter 9

1: Now Abim'elech the son of Jerubba'al went to Shechem to his mother's kinsmen and said to them and to the whole clan of his mother's family,
 2: "Say in the ears of all the citizens of Shechem, 'Which is better for you, that all seventy of the sons of Jerubba'al rule over you, or that one rule over you?' Remember also that I am your bone and your flesh."
 3: And his mother's kinsmen spoke all these words on his behalf in the ears of all the men of Shechem; and their hearts inclined to follow Abim'elech, for they said, "He is our brother."
 4: And they gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the house of Ba'al-be'rith with which Abim'elech hired worthless and reckless fellows, who followed him.
 5: And he went to his father's house at Ophrah, and slew his brothers the sons of Jerubba'al, seventy men, upon one stone; but Jotham the youngest son of Jerubba'al was left, for he hid himself.
 6: And all the citizens of Shechem came together, and all Beth-millo, and they went and made Abim'elech king, by the oak of the pillar at Shechem.
 7: When it was told to Jotham, he went and stood on the top of Mount Ger'izim, and cried aloud and said to them, "Listen to me, you men of Shechem, that God may listen to you.
 8: The trees once went forth to anoint a king over them; and they said to the olive tree, 'Reign over us.'
 9: But the olive tree said to them, 'Shall I leave my fatness, by which gods and men are honored, and go to sway over the trees?'
 10: And the trees said to the fig tree, 'Come you, and reign over us.'
 11: But the fig tree said to them, 'Shall I leave my sweetness and my good fruit, and go to sway over the trees?'
 12: And the trees said to the vine, 'Come you, and reign over us.'
 13: But the vine said to them, 'Shall I leave my wine which cheers gods and men, and go to sway over the trees?'
 14: Then all the trees said to the bramble, 'Come you, and reign over us.'
 15: And the bramble said to the trees, 'If in good faith you are anointing me king over you, then come and take refuge in my shade; but if not, let fire come out of the bramble and devour the cedars of Lebanon.'
 16: "Now therefore, if you acted in good faith and honor when you made Abim'elech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubba'al and his house, and have done to him as his deeds deserved --
 17: for my father fought for you, and risked his life, and rescued you from the hand of Mid'ian;
 18: and you have risen up against my father's house this day, and have slain his sons, seventy men on one stone, and have made Abim'elech, the son of his maidservant, king over the citizens of Shechem, because he is your kinsman --
 19: if you then have acted in good faith and honor with Jerubba'al and with his house this day, then rejoice in Abim'elech, and let him also rejoice in you;
 20: but if not, let fire come out from Abim'elech, and devour the citizens of Shechem, and Beth-millo; and let fire come out from the citizens of Shechem, and from Beth-millo, and devour Abim'elech."
 21: And Jotham ran away and fled, and went to Beer and dwelt there, for fear of Abim'elech his brother.
 22: Abim'elech ruled over Israel three years.
 23: And God sent an evil spirit between Abim'elech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abim'elech;
 24: that the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerubba'al might come and their blood be laid upon Abim'elech their brother, who slew them, and upon the men of Shechem, who strengthened his hands to slay his brothers.
 25: And the men of Shechem put men in ambush against him on the mountain tops, and they robbed all who passed by them along that way; and it was told Abim'elech.

26: And Ga'al the son of Ebed moved into Shechem with his kinsmen; and the men of Shechem put confidence in him.

27: And they went out into the field, and gathered the grapes from their vineyards and trod them, and held festival, and went into the house of their god, and ate and drank and reviled Abim'elech.

28: And Ga'al the son of Ebed said, "Who is Abim'elech, and who are we of Shechem, that we should serve him? Did not the son of Jerubba'al and Zebul his officer serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem? Why then should we serve him?"

29: Would that this people were under my hand! then I would remove Abim'elech. I would say to Abim'elech, "Increase your army, and come out."

30: When Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Ga'al the son of Ebed, his anger was kindled.

31: And he sent messengers to Abim'elech at Aru'mah, saying, "Behold, Ga'al the son of Ebed and his kinsmen have come to Shechem, and they are stirring up the city against you.

32: Now therefore, go by night, you and the men that are with you, and lie in wait in the fields.

33: Then in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, rise early and rush upon the city; and when he and the men that are with him come out against you, you may do to them as occasion offers."

34: And Abim'elech and all the men that were with him rose up by night, and laid wait against Shechem in four companies.

35: And Ga'al the son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city; and Abim'elech and the men that were with him rose from the ambush.

36: And when Ga'al saw the men, he said to Zebul, "Look, men are coming down from the mountain tops!" And Zebul said to him, "You see the shadow of the mountains as if they were men."

37: Ga'al spoke again and said, "Look, men are coming down from the center of the land, and one company is coming from the direction of the Diviners' Oak."

38: Then Zebul said to him, "Where is your mouth now, you who said, 'Who is Abim'elech, that we should serve him?' Are not these the men whom you despised? Go out now and fight with them."

39: And Ga'al went out at the head of the men of Shechem, and fought with Abim'elech.

40: And Abim'elech chased him, and he fled before him; and many fell wounded, up to the entrance of the gate.

41: And Abim'elech dwelt at Aru'mah; and Zebul drove out Ga'al and his kinsmen, so that they could not live on at Shechem.

42: On the following day the men went out into the fields. And Abim'elech was told.

43: He took his men and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the fields; and he looked and saw the men coming out of the city, and he rose against them and slew them.

44: Abim'elech and the company that was with him rushed forward and stood at the entrance of the gate of the city, while the two companies rushed upon all who were in the fields and slew them.

45: And Abim'elech fought against the city all that day; he took the city, and killed the people that were in it; and he razed the city and sowed it with salt.

46: When all the people of the Tower of Shechem heard of it, they entered the stronghold of the house of El-be'rith.

47: Abim'elech was told that all the people of the Tower of Shechem were gathered together.

48: And Abim'elech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the men that were with him; and Abim'elech took an axe in his hand, and cut down a bundle of brushwood, and took it up and laid it on his shoulder. And he said to the men that were with him, "What you have seen me do, make haste to do, as I have done."

49: So every one of the people cut down his bundle and following Abim'elech put it against the stronghold, and they set the stronghold on fire over them, so that all the people of the Tower of Shechem also died, about a thousand men and women.

50: Then Abim'elech went to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it.

v50: Then Abim'elech advanced to Thebez, and besieged Thebez, and captured most of it.

51: But there was a strong tower within the city, and all the people of the city fled to it, all the men and women, and shut themselves in; and they went to the roof of the tower.

v51: But there was a strong citadel in the center of the city, and all the men and women with all the leaders of the city fled there and locked themselves inside; and they went up to the turrets of the towers of the citadel.

52: And Abim'elech came to the tower, and fought against it, and drew near to the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

v52: Now Abim'elech advanced to the citadel and attacked it, and approached the gate of the citadel to burn it with fire.

53: And a certain woman threw an upper millstone upon Abim'elech's head, and crushed his skull.

v53: And as he did so a certain woman threw heavy stone and it landed upon Abim'elech's head, and crushed his skull.

54: Then he called hastily to the young man his armor-bearer, and said to him, "Draw your sword and kill me, lest men say of me, 'A woman killed him.'" And his young man thrust him through, and he died.

v54: Then he called hastily to the young man who was his armor-bearer, and said to him, "Draw your sword and kill me, lest it be said of me, 'A woman killed him.'" Therefore his aide thrust him through with his short sword, and he died.

55: And when the men of Israel saw that Abim'elech was dead, they departed every man to his home.

v55: And when the men of Israel saw that Abim'elech was dead, they departed every man to his home.

56: Thus God requited the crime of Abim'elech, which he committed against his father in killing his seventy brothers;

57: and God also made all the wickedness of the men of Shechem fall back upon their heads, and upon them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubba'al.

Chapter 10
Judges, chapter 10

- 1: After Abim'elech there arose to deliver Israel Tola the son of Pu'ah, son of Dodo, a man of Is'sachar; and he lived at Shamir in the hill country of E'phraim.
- 2: And he judged Israel twenty-three years. Then he died, and was buried at Shamir.
- 3: After him arose Ja'ir the Gileadite, who judged Israel twenty-two years.
- 4: And he had thirty sons who rode on thirty asses; and they had thirty cities, called Hav'voth-ja'ir to this day, which are in the land of Gilead.
- 5: And Ja'ir died, and was buried in Kamon.
- 6: And the people of Israel again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and served the Ba'als and the Ash'taroth, the gods of Syria, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the Ammonites, and the gods of the Philistines; and they forsook the LORD, and did not serve him.
- 7: And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the Ammonites,
- 8: and they crushed and oppressed the children of Israel that year. For eighteen years they oppressed all the people of Israel that were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.
- 9: And the Ammonites crossed the Jordan to fight also against Judah and against Benjamin and against the house of E'phraim; so that Israel was sorely distressed.
- 10: And the people of Israel cried to the LORD, saying, "We have sinned against thee, because we have forsaken our God and have served the Ba'als."
- 11: And the LORD said to the people of Israel, "Did I not deliver you from the Egyptians and from the Amorites, from the Ammonites and from the Philistines?"
- 12: The Sido'nians also, and the Amal'ekites, and the Ma'onites, oppressed you; and you cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand.
- 13: Yet you have forsaken me and served other gods; therefore I will deliver you no more.
- 14: Go and cry to the gods whom you have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your distress."
- 15: And the people of Israel said to the LORD, "We have sinned; do to us whatever seems good to thee; only deliver us, we pray thee, this day."
- 16: So they put away the foreign gods from among them and served the LORD; and he became indignant over the misery of Israel.
- 17: Then the Ammonites were called to arms, and they encamped in Gilead; and the people of Israel came together, and they encamped at Mizpah.
- 18: And the people, the leaders of Gilead, said one to another, "Who is the man that will begin to fight against the Ammonites? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

Chapter 11
Judges, chapter 11

- 1: Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty warrior, but he was the son of a harlot. Gilead was the father of Jephthah.
- 2: And Gilead's wife also bore him sons; and when his wife's sons grew up, they thrust Jephthah out, and said to him, "You shall not inherit in our father's house; for you are the son of another woman."
- 3: Then Jephthah fled from his brothers, and dwelt in the land of Tob; and worthless fellows collected round Jephthah, and went raiding with him.
- 4: After a time the Ammonites made war against Israel.
- 5: And when the Ammonites made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to bring Jephthah from the land of Tob;
- 6: and they said to Jephthah, "Come and be our leader, that we may fight with the Ammonites."
- 7: But Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "Did you not hate me, and drive me out of my father's house? Why have you come to me now when you are in trouble?"
- 8: And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "That is why we have turned to you now, that you may go with us and fight with the Ammonites, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."
- 9: Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you bring me home again to fight with the Ammonites, and the LORD gives them over to me, I will be your head."
- 10: And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "The LORD will be witness between us; we will surely do as you say."
- 11: So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and leader over them; and Jephthah spoke all his words before the LORD at Mizpah.
- 12: Then Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites and said, "What have you against me, that you have come to me to fight against my land?"
- 13: And the king of the Ammonites answered the messengers of Jephthah, "Because Israel on coming from Egypt took away my land, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and to the Jordan; now therefore restore it peaceably."
- 14: And Jephthah sent messengers again to the king of the Ammonites

15: and said to him, "Thus says Jephthah: Israel did not take away the land of Moab or the land of the Ammonites, 16: but when they came up from Egypt, Israel went through the wilderness to the Red Sea and came to Kadesh.
17: Israel then sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, 'Let us pass, we pray, through your land'; but the king of Edom would not listen. And they sent also to the king of Moab, but he would not consent. So Israel remained at Kadesh.
18: Then they journeyed through the wilderness, and went around the land of Edom and the land of Moab, and arrived on the east side of the land of Moab, and camped on the other side of the Arnon; but they did not enter the territory of Moab, for the Arnon was the boundary of Moab.
19: Israel then sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, king of Heshbon; and Israel said to him, 'Let us pass, we pray, through your land to our country.'
20: But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory; so Sihon gathered all his people together, and encamped at Jahaz, and fought with Israel.
21: And the LORD, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they defeated them; so Israel took possession of all the land of the Amorites, who inhabited that country.
22: And they took possession of all the territory of the Amorites from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan.
23: So then the LORD, the God of Israel, dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel; and are you to take possession of them?
24: Will you not possess what Chemosh your god gives you to possess? And all that the LORD our God has dispossessed before us, we will possess.
25: Now are you any better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever go to war with them?
26: While Israel dwelt in Heshbon and its villages, and in Aro'er and its villages, and in all the cities that are on the banks of the Arnon, three hundred years, why did you not recover them within that time?
27: I therefore have not sinned against you, and you do me wrong by making war on me; the LORD, the Judge, decide this day between the people of Israel and the people of Ammon."
28: But the king of the Ammonites did not heed the message of Jephthah which he sent to him.
29: Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manas'seh, and passed on to Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he passed on to the Ammonites.
30: And Jephthah made a vow to the LORD, and said, "If thou wilt give the Ammonites into my hand, 31: then whoever comes forth from the doors of my house to meet me, when I return victorious from the Ammonites, shall be the LORD's, and I will offer him up for a burnt offering."
32: So Jephthah crossed over to the Ammonites to fight against them; and the LORD gave them into his hand.
33: And he smote them from Aro'er to the neighborhood of Minnith, twenty cities, and as far as Abel-keramim, with a very great slaughter. So the Ammonites were subdued before the people of Israel.
34: Then Jephthah came to his home at Mizpah; and behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances; she was his only child; beside her he had neither son nor daughter.
35: And when he saw her, he rent his clothes, and said, "Alas, my daughter! you have brought me very low, and you have become the cause of great trouble to me; for I have opened my mouth to the LORD, and I cannot take back my vow."
36: And she said to him, "My father, if you have opened your mouth to the LORD, do to me according to what has gone forth from your mouth, now that the LORD has avenged you on your enemies, on the Ammonites."
37: And she said to her father, "Let this thing be done for me; let me alone two months, that I may go and wander on the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my companions."
38: And he said, "Go." And he sent her away for two months; and she departed, she and her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains.
39: And at the end of two months, she returned to her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had made. She had never known a man. And it became a custom in Israel 40: that the daughters of Israel went year by year to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in the year.

Chapter 12

Judges, chapter 12

1: The men of E'phraim were called to arms, and they crossed to Zaphon and said to Jephthah, "Why did you cross over to fight against the Ammonites, and did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house over you with fire."
2: And Jephthah said to them, "I and my people had a great feud with the Ammonites; and when I called you, you did not deliver me from their hand.
3: And when I saw that you would not deliver me, I took my life in my hand, and crossed over against the Ammonites, and the LORD gave them into my hand; why then have you come up to me this day, to fight against me?"
4: Then Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead and fought with E'phraim; and the men of Gilead smote E'phraim, because they said, "You are fugitives of E'phraim, you Gileadites, in the midst of E'phraim and Manas'seh."
5: And the Gileadites took the fords of the Jordan against the E'phraimites. And when any of the fugitives of E'phraim said, "Let me go over," the men of Gilead said to him, "Are you an E'phraimite?" When he said, "No,"

6: they said to him, "Then say Shibboleth," and he said, "Sibboleth," for he could not pronounce it right; then they seized him and slew him at the fords of the Jordan. And there fell at that time forty-two thousand of the E'phraimites.
7: Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in his city in Gilead.
8: After him Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel.
9: He had thirty sons; and thirty daughters he gave in marriage outside his clan, and thirty daughters he brought in from outside for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years.
10: Then Ibzan died, and was buried at Bethlehem.
11: After him Elon the Zeb'ulunite judged Israel; and he judged Israel ten years.
12: Then Elon the Zeb'ulunite died, and was buried at Ai'jalon in the land of Zeb'ulun.
13: After him Abdon the son of Hillel the Pira'thonite judged Israel.
14: He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy asses; and he judged Israel eight years.
15: Then Abdon the son of Hillel the Pira'thonite died, and was buried at Pira'thon in the land of E'phraim, in the hill country of the Amal'ekites.

Chapter 13

Judges, chapter 13

1: And the people of Israel again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD gave them into the hand of the Philistines for forty years.
2: And there was a certain man of Zorah, of the tribe of the Danites, whose name was Mano'ah; and his wife was barren and had no children.
3: And the angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, "Behold, you are barren and have no children; but you shall conceive and bear a son.
4: Therefore beware, and drink no wine or strong drink, and eat nothing unclean,
5: for lo, you shall conceive and bear a son. No razor shall come upon his head, for the boy shall be a Nazirite to God from birth; and he shall begin to deliver Israel from the hand of the Philistines."
6: Then the woman came and told her husband, "A man of God came to me, and his countenance was like the countenance of the angel of God, very terrible; I did not ask him whence he was, and he did not tell me his name;
7: but he said to me, 'Behold, you shall conceive and bear a son; so then drink no wine or strong drink, and eat nothing unclean, for the boy shall be a Nazirite to God from birth to the day of his death.'"
8: Then Mano'ah entreated the LORD, and said, "O, LORD, I pray thee, let the man of God whom thou didst send come again to us, and teach us what we are to do with the boy that will be born."
9: And God listened to the voice of Mano'ah, and the angel of God came again to the woman as she sat in the field; but Mano'ah her husband was not with her.
10: And the woman ran in haste and told her husband, "Behold, the man who came to me the other day has appeared to me."
11: And Mano'ah arose and went after his wife, and came to the man and said to him, "Are you the man who spoke to this woman?" And he said, "I am."
12: And Mano'ah said, "Now when your words come true, what is to be the boy's manner of life, and what is he to do?"
13: And the angel of the LORD said to Mano'ah, "Of all that I said to the woman let her beware.
14: She may not eat of anything that comes from the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, or eat any unclean thing; all that I commanded her let her observe."
15: Mano'ah said to the angel of the LORD, "Pray, let us detain you, and prepare a kid for you."
16: And the angel of the LORD said to Mano'ah, "If you detain me, I will not eat of your food; but if you make ready a burnt offering, then offer it to the LORD." (For Mano'ah did not know that he was the angel of the LORD.)
17: And Mano'ah said to the angel of the LORD, "What is your name, so that, when your words come true, we may honor you?"
18: And the angel of the LORD said to him, "Why do you ask my name, seeing it is wonderful?"
19: So Mano'ah took the kid with the cereal offering, and offered it upon the rock to the LORD, to him who works wonders.
20: And when the flame went up toward heaven from the altar, the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar while Mano'ah and his wife looked on; and they fell on their faces to the ground.
21: The angel of the LORD appeared no more to Mano'ah and to his wife. Then Mano'ah knew that he was the angel of the LORD.
22: And Mano'ah said to his wife, "We shall surely die, for we have seen God."
23: But his wife said to him, "If the LORD had meant to kill us, he would not have accepted a burnt offering and a cereal offering at our hands, or shown us all these things, or now announced to us such things as these."
24: And the woman bore a son, and called his name Samson; and the boy grew, and the LORD blessed him.
25: And the Spirit of the LORD began to stir him in Ma'haneh-dan, between Zorah and Esh'ta-ol.

Chapter 14

Judges, chapter 14

1: Samson went down to Timnah, and at Timnah he saw one of the daughters of the Philistines.
2: Then he came up, and told his father and mother, "I saw one of the daughters of the Philistines at Timnah; now get her for me as my wife."

3: But his father and mother said to him, "Is there not a woman among the daughters of your kinsmen, or among all our people, that you must go to take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?" But Samson said to his father, "Get her for me; for she pleases me well."

4: His father and mother did not know that it was from the LORD; for he was seeking an occasion against the Philistines. At that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

5: Then Samson went down with his father and mother to Timnah, and he came to the vineyards of Timnah. And behold, a young lion roared against him;

6: and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he tore the lion asunder as one tears a kid; and he had nothing in his hand. But he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done.

7: Then he went down and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well.

8: And after a while he returned to take her; and he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion, and behold, there was a swarm of bees in the body of the lion, and honey.

9: He scraped it out into his hands, and went on, eating as he went; and he came to his father and mother, and gave some to them, and they ate. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey from the carcass of the lion.

10: And his father went down to the woman, and Samson made a feast there; for so the young men used to do.

11: And when the people saw him, they brought thirty companions to be with him.

12: And Samson said to them, "Let me now put a riddle to you; if you can tell me what it is, within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty festal garments;

13: but if you cannot tell me what it is, then you shall give me thirty linen garments and thirty festal garments." And they said to him, "Put your riddle, that we may hear it."

14: And he said to them, "Out of the eater came something to eat. Out of the strong came something sweet." And they could not in three days tell what the riddle was.

16: And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, "You only hate me, you do not love me; you have put a riddle to my countrymen, and you have not told me what it is." And he said to her, "Behold, I have not told my father nor my mother, and shall I tell you?"

17: She wept before him the seven days that their feast lasted; and on the seventh day he told her, because she pressed him hard. Then she told the riddle to her countrymen.

18: And the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down, "What is sweeter than honey? What is stronger than a lion?" And he said to them, "If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have found out my riddle."

19: And the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he went down to Ash'kelon and killed thirty men of the town, and took their spoil and gave the festal garments to those who had told the riddle. In hot anger he went back to his father's house.

20: And Samson's wife was given to his companion, who had been his best man.

Chapter 15

Judges, chapter 15

1: After a while, at the time of wheat harvest, Samson went to visit his wife with a kid; and he said, "I will go in to my wife in the chamber." But her father would not allow him to go in.

2: And her father said, "I really thought that you utterly hated her; so I gave her to your companion. Is not her younger sister fairer than she? Pray take her instead."

3: And Samson said to them, "This time I shall be blameless in regard to the Philistines, when I do them mischief."

4: So Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took torches; and he turned them tail to tail, and put a torch between each pair of tails.

5: And when he had set fire to the torches, he let the foxes go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burned up the shocks and the standing grain, as well as the olive orchards.

6: Then the Philistines said, "Who has done this?" And they said, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken his wife and given her to his companion." And the Philistines came up, and burned her and her father with fire.

7: And Samson said to them, "If this is what you do, I swear I will be avenged upon you, and after that I will quit."

8: And he smote them hip and thigh with great slaughter; and he went down and stayed in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

9: Then the Philistines came up and encamped in Judah, and made a raid on Lehi.

10: And the men of Judah said, "Why have you come up against us?" They said, "We have come up to bind Samson, to do to him as he did to us."

11: Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and said to Samson, "Do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What then is this that you have done to us?" And he said to them, "As they did to me, so have I done to them."

12: And they said to him, "We have come down to bind you, that we may give you into the hands of the Philistines." And Samson said to them, "Swear to me that you will not fall upon me yourselves."

13: They said to him, "No; we will only bind you and give you into their hands; we will not kill you." So they bound him with two new ropes, and brought him up from the rock.

14: When he came to Lehi, the Philistines came shouting to meet him; and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and the ropes which were on his arms became as flax that has caught fire, and his bonds melted off his hands.

15: And he found a fresh jawbone of an ass, and put out his hand and seized it, and with it he slew a thousand men.

16: And Samson said, "With the jawbone of an ass, heaps upon heaps, with the jawbone of an ass have I slain a thousand men."

17: When he had finished speaking, he threw away the jawbone out of his hand; and that place was called Ra'math-le'hi.

18: And he was very thirsty, and he called on the LORD and said, "Thou hast granted this great deliverance by the hand of thy servant; and shall I now die of thirst, and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?"

19: And God split open the hollow place that is at Lehi, and there came water from it; and when he drank, his spirit returned, and he revived. Therefore the name of it was called En-hakkor'e; it is at Lehi to this day.

20: And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

Chapter 16

Judges, chapter 16

1: Samson went to Gaza, and there he saw a harlot, and he went in to her.

2: The Gazites were told, "Samson has come here," and they surrounded the place and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city. They kept quiet all night, saying, "Let us wait till the light of the morning; then we will kill him."

3: But Samson lay till midnight, and at midnight he arose and took hold of the doors of the gate of the city and the two posts, and pulled them up, bar and all, and put them on his shoulders and carried them to the top of the hill that is before Hebron.

4: After this he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Deli'lal.

5: And the lords of the Philistines came to her and said to her, "Entice him, and see wherein his great strength lies, and by what means we may overpower him, that we may bind him to subdue him; and we will each give you eleven hundred pieces of silver."

6: And Deli'lal said to Samson, "Please tell me wherein your great strength lies, and how you might be bound, that one could subdue you."

7: And Samson said to her, "If they bind me with seven fresh bowstrings which have not been dried, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man."

8: Then the lords of the Philistines brought her seven fresh bowstrings which had not been dried, and she bound him with them.

9: Now she had men lying in wait in an inner chamber. And she said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he snapped the bowstrings, as a string of tow snaps when it touches the fire. So the secret of his strength was not known.

10: And Deli'lal said to Samson, "Behold, you have mocked me, and told me lies; please tell me how you might be bound."

11: And he said to her, "If they bind me with new ropes that have not been used, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man."

12: So Deli'lal took new ropes and bound him with them, and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" And the men lying in wait were in an inner chamber. But he snapped the ropes off his arms like a thread.

13: And Deli'lal said to Samson, "Until now you have mocked me, and told me lies; tell me how you might be bound." And he said to her, "If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web and make it tight with the pin, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man."

14: So while he slept, Deli'lal took the seven locks of his head and wove them into the web. And she made them tight with the pin, and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he awoke from his sleep, and pulled away the pin, the loom, and the web.

15: And she said to him, "How can you say, 'I love you,' when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and you have not told me wherein your great strength lies."

16: And when she pressed him hard with her words day after day, and urged him, his soul was vexed to death.

17: And he told her all his mind, and said to her, "A razor has never come upon my head; for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother's womb. If I be shaved, then my strength will leave me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man."

18: When Deli'lal saw that he had told her all his mind, she sent and called the lords of the Philistines, saying, "Come up this once, for he has told me all his mind." Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and brought the money in their hands.

19: She made him sleep upon her knees; and she called a man, and had him shave off the seven locks of his head. Then she began to torment him, and his strength left him.

20: And she said, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" And he awoke from his sleep, and said, "I will go out as at other times, and shake myself free." And he did not know that the LORD had left him.

21: And the Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with bronze fetters; and he ground at the mill in the prison.

22: But the hair of his head began to grow again after it had been shaved.

23: Now the lords of the Philistines gathered to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to rejoice; for they said, "Our god has given Samson our enemy into our hand."

24: And when the people saw him, they praised their god; for they said, "Our god has given our enemy into our hand, the ravager of our country, who has slain many of us."

25: And when their hearts were merry, they said, "Call Samson, that he may make sport for us." So they called Samson out of the prison, and he made sport before them. They made him stand between the pillars;

26: and Samson said to the lad who held him by the hand, "Let me feel the pillars on which the house rests, that I may lean against them."

27: Now the house was full of men and women; all the lords of the Philistines were there, and on the roof there were about three thousand men and women, who looked on while Samson made sport.

28: Then Samson called to the LORD and said, "O Lord GOD, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may be avenged upon the Philistines for one of my two eyes."

29: And Samson grasped the two middle pillars upon which the house rested, and he leaned his weight upon them, his right hand on the one and his left hand on the other.

30: And Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines." Then he bowed with all his might; and the house fell upon the lords and upon all the people that were in it. So the dead whom he slew at his death were more than those whom he had slain during his life.

31: Then his brothers and all his family came down and took him and brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Esh'ta-ol in the tomb of Mano'ah his father. He had judged Israel twenty years.

Chapter 17

Judges, chapter 17

1: There was a man of the hill country of E'phraim, whose name was Micah.

2: And he said to his mother, "The eleven hundred pieces of silver which were taken from you, about which you uttered a curse, and also spoke it in my ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it." And his mother said, "Blessed be my son by the LORD."

3: And he restored the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother; and his mother said, "I consecrate the silver to the LORD from my hand for my son, to make a graven image and a molten image; now therefore I will restore it to you."

4: So when he restored the money to his mother, his mother took two hundred pieces of silver, and gave it to the silversmith, who made it into a graven image and a molten image; and it was in the house of Micah.

5: And the man Micah had a shrine, and he made an ephod and teraphim, and installed one of his sons, who became his priest.

6: In those days there was no king in Israel; every man did what was right in his own eyes.

7: Now there was a young man of Bethlehem in Judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite; and he sojourned there.

8: And the man departed from the town of Bethlehem in Judah, to live where he could find a place; and as he journeyed, he came to the hill country of E'phraim to the house of Micah.

9: And Micah said to him, "From where do you come?" And he said to him, "I am a Levite of Bethlehem in Judah, and I am going to sojourn where I may find a place."

10: And Micah said to him, "Stay with me, and be to me a father and a priest, and I will give you ten pieces of silver a year, and a suit of apparel, and your living."

11: And the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man became to him like one of his sons.

12: And Micah installed the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah.

13: Then Micah said, "Now I know that the LORD will prosper me, because I have a Levite as priest."

Chapter 18

Judges, chapter 18

1: In those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking for itself an inheritance to dwell in; for until then no inheritance among the tribes of Israel had fallen to them.

2: So the Danites sent five able men from the whole number of their tribe, from Zorah and from Esh'ta-ol, to spy out the land and to explore it; and they said to them, "Go and explore the land." And they came to the hill country of E'phraim, to the house of Micah, and lodged there.

3: When they were by the house of Micah, they recognized the voice of the young Levite; and they turned aside and said to him, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What is your business here?"

4: And he said to them, "Thus and thus has Micah dealt with me: he has hired me, and I have become his priest."

5: And they said to him, "Inquire of God, we pray thee, that we may know whether the journey on which we are setting out will succeed."

6: And the priest said to them, "Go in peace. The journey on which you go is under the eye of the LORD."

7: Then the five men departed, and came to La'ish, and saw the people who were there, how they dwelt in security, after the manner of the Sido'nians, quiet and unsuspecting, lacking nothing that is in the earth, and possessing wealth, and how they were far from the Sido'nians and had no dealings with any one.

8: And when they came to their brethren at Zorah and Esh'ta-ol, their brethren said to them, "What do you report?"

9: They said, "Arise, and let us go up against them; for we have seen the land, and behold, it is very fertile. And will you do nothing? Do not be slow to go, and enter in and possess the land."

10: When you go, you will come to an unsuspecting people. The land is broad; yea, God has given it into your hands, a place where there is no lack of anything that is in the earth."

11: And six hundred men of the tribe of Dan, armed with weapons of war, set forth from Zorah and Esh'ta-ol, 12: and went up and encamped at Kir'iath-je'arim in Judah. On this account that place is called Ma'haneh-dan to this day; behold, it is west of Kir'iath-je'arim.

13: And they passed on from there to the hill country of E'phraim, and came to the house of Micah.
14: Then the five men who had gone to spy out the country of La'ish said to their brethren, "Do you know that in these houses there are an ephod, teraphim, a graven image, and a molten image? Now therefore consider what you will do."
15: And they turned aside thither, and came to the house of the young Levite, at the home of Micah, and asked him of his welfare.
16: Now the six hundred men of the Danites, armed with their weapons of war, stood by the entrance of the gate;
17: and the five men who had gone to spy out the land went up, and entered and took the graven image, the ephod, the teraphim, and the molten image, while the priest stood by the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men armed with weapons of war.
18: And when these went into Micah's house and took the graven image, the ephod, the teraphim, and the molten image, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?"
19: And they said to him, "Keep quiet, put your hand upon your mouth, and come with us, and be to us a father and a priest. Is it better for you to be priest to the house of one man, or to be priest to a tribe and family in Israel?"
20: And the priest's heart was glad; he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the people.
21: So they turned and departed, putting the little ones and the cattle and the goods in front of them.
22: When they were a good way from the home of Micah, the men who were in the houses near Micah's house were called out, and they overtook the Danites.
23: And they shouted to the Danites, who turned round and said to Micah, "What ails you that you come with such a company?"
24: And he said, "You take my gods which I made, and the priest, and go away, and what have I left? How then do you ask me, `What ails you?'"
25: And the Danites said to him, "Do not let your voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows fall upon you, and you lose your life with the lives of your household."
26: Then the Danites went their way; and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his home.
27: And taking what Micah had made, and the priest who belonged to him, the Danites came to La'ish, to a people quiet and unsuspecting, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and burned the city with fire.
28: And there was no deliverer because it was far from Sidon, and they had no dealings with any one. It was in the valley which belongs to Beth-rehob. And they rebuilt the city, and dwelt in it.
29: And they named the city Dan, after the name of Dan their ancestor, who was born to Israel; but the name of the city was La'ish at the first.
30: And the Danites set up the graven image for themselves; and Jonathan the son of Gershom, son of Moses, and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the day of the captivity of the land.
31: So they set up Micah's graven image which he made, as long as the house of God was at Shiloh.

Chapter 19

Judges, chapter 19

1: In those days, when there was no king in Israel, a certain Levite was sojourning in the remote parts of the hill country of E'phraim, who took to himself a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah.
2: And his concubine became angry with him, and she went away from him to her father's house at Bethlehem in Judah, and was there some four months.
3: Then her husband arose and went after her, to speak kindly to her and bring her back. He had with him his servant and a couple of asses. And he came to her father's house; and when the girl's father saw him, he came with joy to meet him.
4: And his father-in-law, the girl's father, made him stay, and he remained with him three days; so they ate and drank, and lodged there.
5: And on the fourth day they arose early in the morning, and he prepared to go; but the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Strengthen your heart with a morsel of bread, and after that you may go."
6: So the two men sat and ate and drank together; and the girl's father said to the man, "Be pleased to spend the night, and let your heart be merry."
7: And when the man rose up to go, his father-in-law urged him, till he lodged there again.
8: And on the fifth day he arose early in the morning to depart; and the girl's father said, "Strengthen your heart, and tarry until the day declines." So they ate, both of them.
9: And when the man and his concubine and his servant rose up to depart, his father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him, "Behold, now the day has waned toward evening; pray tarry all night. Behold, the day draws to its close; lodge here and let your heart be merry; and tomorrow you shall arise early in the morning for your journey, and go home."
10: But the man would not spend the night; he rose up and departed, and arrived opposite Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). He had with him a couple of saddled asses, and his concubine was with him.
11: When they were near Jebus, the day was far spent, and the servant said to his master, "Come now, let us turn aside to this city of the Jeb'usites, and spend the night in it."
12: And his master said to him, "We will not turn aside into the city of foreigners, who do not belong to the people of Israel; but we will pass on to Gib'e-ah."
13: And he said to his servant, "Come and let us draw near to one of these places, and spend the night at Gib'e-ah or at Ramah."
14: So they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down on them near Gib'e-ah, which belongs to Benjamin, 15: and they turned aside there, to go in and spend the night at Gib'e-ah. And he went in and sat down in the open square of the city; for no man took them into his house to spend the night.

16: And behold, an old man was coming from his work in the field at evening; the man was from the hill country of E'phraim, and he was sojourning in Gib'e-ah; the men of the place were Benjaminites.

17: And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the wayfarer in the open square of the city; and the old man said, "Where are you going? and whence do you come?"

18: And he said to him, "We are passing from Bethlehem in Judah to the remote parts of the hill country of E'phraim, from which I come. I went to Bethlehem in Judah; and I am going to my home; and nobody takes me into his house.

19: We have straw and provender for our asses, with bread and wine for me and your maidservant and the young man with your servants; there is no lack of anything."

20: And the old man said, "Peace be to you; I will care for all your wants; only, do not spend the night in the square."

21: So he brought him into his house, and gave the asses provender; and they washed their feet, and ate and drank.

22: As they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, base fellows, beset the house round about, beating on the door; and they said to the old man, the master of the house, "Bring out the man who came into your house, that we may know him."

23: And the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, "No, my brethren, do not act so wickedly; seeing that this man has come into my house, do not do this vile thing.

24: Behold, here are my virgin daughter and his concubine; let me bring them out now. Ravish them and do with them what seems good to you; but against this man do not do so vile a thing."

25: But the men would not listen to him. So the man seized his concubine, and put her out to them; and they knew her, and abused her all night until the morning. And as the dawn began to break, they let her go.

26: And as morning appeared, the woman came and fell down at the door of the man's house where her master was, till it was light.

27: And her master rose up in the morning, and when he opened the doors of the house and went out to go on his way, behold, there was his concubine lying at the door of the house, with her hands on the threshold.

28: He said to her, "Get up, let us be going." But there was no answer. Then he put her upon the ass; and the man rose up and went away to his home.

29: And when he entered his house, he took a knife, and laying hold of his concubine he divided her, limb by limb, into twelve pieces, and sent her throughout all the territory of Israel.

30: And all who saw it said, "Such a thing has never happened or been seen from the day that the people of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt until this day; consider it, take counsel, and speak."

Chapter 20

Judges, chapter 20

1: Then all the people of Israel came out, from Dan to Beer-sheba, including the land of Gilead, and the congregation assembled as one man to the LORD at Mizpah.

2: And the chiefs of all the people, of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand men on foot that drew the sword.

3: (Now the Benjaminites heard that the people of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) And the people of Israel said, "Tell us, how was this wickedness brought to pass?"

4: And the Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered and said, "I came to Gib'e-ah that belongs to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to spend the night.

5: And the men of Gib'e-ah rose against me, and beset the house round about me by night; they meant to kill me, and they ravished my concubine, and she is dead.

6: And I took my concubine and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel; for they have committed abomination and wantonness in Israel.

7: Behold, you people of Israel, all of you, give your advice and counsel here."

8: And all the people arose as one man, saying, "We will not any of us go to his tent, and none of us will return to his house.

9: But now this is what we will do to Gib'e-ah: we will go up against it by lot,

10: and we will take ten men of a hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred of a thousand, and a thousand of ten thousand, to bring provisions for the people, that when they come they may requite Gib'e-ah of Benjamin, for all the wanton crime which they have committed in Israel."

11: So all the men of Israel gathered against the city, united as one man.

12: And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What wickedness is this that has taken place among you?

13: Now therefore give up the men, the base fellows in Gib'e-ah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel." But the Benjaminites would not listen to the voice of their brethren, the people of Israel.

14: And the Benjaminites came together out of the cities to Gib'e-ah, to go out to battle against the people of Israel.

15: And the Benjaminites mustered out of their cities on that day twenty-six thousand men that drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gib'e-ah, who mustered seven hundred picked men.

16: Among all these were seven hundred picked men who were left-handed; every one could sling a stone at a hair, and not miss.

17: And the men of Israel, apart from Benjamin, mustered four hundred thousand men that drew sword; all these were men of war.

18: The people of Israel arose and went up to Bethel, and inquired of God, "Which of us shall go up first to battle against the Benjaminites?" And the LORD said, "Judah shall go up first."
19: Then the people of Israel rose in the morning, and encamped against Gib'e-ah.
20: And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel drew up the battle line against them at Gib'e-ah.
21: The Benjaminites came out of Gib'e-ah, and felled to the ground on that day twenty-two thousand men of the Israelites.
22: But the people, the men of Israel, took courage, and again formed the battle line in the same place where they had formed it on the first day.
23: And the people of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until the evening; and they inquired of the LORD, "Shall we again draw near to battle against our brethren the Benjaminites?" And the LORD said, "Go up against them."
24: So the people of Israel came near against the Benjaminites the second day.
25: And Benjamin went against them out of Gib'e-ah the second day, and felled to the ground eighteen thousand men of the people of Israel; all these were men who drew the sword.
26: Then all the people of Israel, the whole army, went up and came to Bethel and wept; they sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until evening, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.
27: And the people of Israel inquired of the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, 28: and Phin'eas the son of Elea'zar, son of Aaron, ministered before it in those days), saying, "Shall we yet again go out to battle against our brethren the Benjaminites, or shall we cease?" And the LORD said, "Go up; for tomorrow I will give them into your hand."
29: So Israel set men in ambush round about Gib'e-ah.
30: And the people of Israel went up against the Benjaminites on the third day, and set themselves in array against Gib'e-ah, as at other times.
31: And the Benjaminites went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and as at other times they began to smite and kill some of the people, in the highways, one of which goes up to Bethel and the other to Gib'e-ah, and in the open country, about thirty men of Israel.
32: And the Benjaminites said, "They are routed before us, as at the first." But the men of Israel said, "Let us flee, and draw them away from the city to the highways."
33: And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and set themselves in array at Ba'al-ta'mar; and the men of Israel who were in ambush rushed out of their place west of Geba.
34: And there came against Gib'e-ah ten thousand picked men out of all Israel, and the battle was hard; but the Benjaminites did not know that disaster was close upon them.
35: And the LORD defeated Benjamin before Israel; and the men of Israel destroyed twenty-five thousand one hundred men of Benjamin that day; all these were men who drew the sword.
36: So the Benjaminites saw that they were defeated. The men of Israel gave ground to Benjamin, because they trusted to the men in ambush whom they had set against Gib'e-ah.
37: And the men in ambush made haste and rushed upon Gib'e-ah; the men in ambush moved out and smote all the city with the edge of the sword.
38: Now the appointed signal between the men of Israel and the men in ambush was that when they made a great cloud of smoke rise up out of the city
39: the men of Israel should turn in battle. Now Benjamin had begun to smite and kill about thirty men of Israel; they said, "Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle."
40: But when the signal began to rise out of the city in a column of smoke, the Benjaminites looked behind them; and behold, the whole of the city went up in smoke to heaven.
41: Then the men of Israel turned, and the men of Benjamin were dismayed, for they saw that disaster was close upon them.
42: Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel in the direction of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them, and those who came out of the cities destroyed them in the midst of them.
43: Cutting down the Benjaminites, they pursued them and trod them down from Nohah as far as opposite Gib'e-ah on the east.
44: Eighteen thousand men of Benjamin fell, all of them men of valor.
45: And they turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon; five thousand men of them were cut down in the highways, and they were pursued hard to Gidom, and two thousand men of them were slain.
46: So all who fell that day of Benjamin were twenty-five thousand men that drew the sword, all of them men of valor.
47: But six hundred men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and abode at the rock of Rimmon four months.
48: And the men of Israel turned back against the Benjaminites, and smote them with the edge of the sword, men and beasts and all that they found. And all the towns which they found they set on fire.

Chapter 21

Judges, chapter 21

1: Now the men of Israel had sworn at Mizpah, "No one of us shall give his daughter in marriage to Benjamin."
2: And the people came to Bethel, and sat there till evening before God, and they lifted up their voices and wept bitterly.
3: And they said, "O LORD, the God of Israel, why has this come to pass in Israel, that there should be today one tribe lacking in Israel?"

4: And on the morrow the people rose early, and built there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

5: And the people of Israel said, "Which of all the tribes of Israel did not come up in the assembly to the LORD?" For they had taken a great oath concerning him who did not come up to the LORD to Mizpah, saying, "He shall be put to death."

6: And the people of Israel had compassion for Benjamin their brother, and said, "One tribe is cut off from Israel this day.

7: What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them any of our daughters for wives?"

8: And they said, "What one is there of the tribes of Israel that did not come up to the LORD to Mizpah?" And behold, no one had come to the camp from Ja'bish-gil'ead, to the assembly.

9: For when the people were mustered, behold, not one of the inhabitants of Ja'bish-gil'ead was there.

10: So the congregation sent thither twelve thousand of their bravest men, and commanded them, "Go and smite the inhabitants of Ja'bish-gil'ead with the edge of the sword; also the women and the little ones.

11: This is what you shall do; every male and every woman that has lain with a male you shall utterly destroy."

12: And they found among the inhabitants of Ja'bish-gil'ead four hundred young virgins who had not known man by lying with him; and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

13: Then the whole congregation sent word to the Benjaminites who were at the rock of Rimmon, and proclaimed peace to them.

14: And Benjamin returned at that time; and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Ja'bish-gil'ead; but they did not suffice for them.

15: And the people had compassion on Benjamin because the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

16: Then the elders of the congregation said, "What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since the women are destroyed out of Benjamin?"

17: And they said, "There must be an inheritance for the survivors of Benjamin, that a tribe be not blotted out from Israel.

18: Yet we cannot give them wives of our daughters." For the people of Israel had sworn, "Cursed be he who gives a wife to Benjamin."

19: So they said, "Behold, there is the yearly feast of the LORD at Shiloh, which is north of Bethel, on the east of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebo'nah."

20: And they commanded the Benjaminites, saying, "Go and lie in wait in the vineyards, 21: and watch; if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then come out of the vineyards and seize each man his wife from the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin.

22: And when their fathers or their brothers come to complain to us, we will say to them, `Grant them graciously to us; because we did not take for each man of them his wife in battle, neither did you give them to them, else you would now be guilty.'"

23: And the Benjaminites did so, and took their wives, according to their number, from the dancers whom they carried off; then they went and returned to their inheritance, and rebuilt the towns, and dwelt in them.

24: And the people of Israel departed from there at that time, every man to his tribe and family, and they went out from there every man to his inheritance.

25: In those days there was no king in Israel; every man did what was right in his own eyes.

The First Book of Kings

Chapter 1

First Kings, chapter 1

- 1: Now King David was old and advanced in years; and although they covered him with clothes, he could not get warm.
- 2: Therefore his servants said to him, "Let a young maiden be sought for my lord the king, and let her wait upon the king, and be his nurse; let her lie in your bosom, that my lord the king may be warm."
- 3: So they sought for a beautiful maiden throughout all the territory of Israel, and found Ab'ishag the Shu'nammite, and brought her to the king.
- 4: The maiden was very beautiful; and she became the king's nurse and ministered to him; but the king knew her not.
- 5: Now Adoni'jah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king"; and he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.
- 6: His father had never at any time displeased him by asking, "Why have you done thus and so?" He was also a very handsome man; and he was born next after Ab'salom.
- 7: He conferred with Jo'ab the son of Zeru'iah and with Abi'athar the priest; and they followed Adoni'jah and helped him.
- 8: But Zadok the priest, and Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shim'e-i, and Re'i, and David's mighty men were not with Adoni'jah.
- 9: Adoni'jah sacrificed sheep, oxen, and fatlings by the Serpent's Stone, which is beside En-ro'gel, and he invited all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the royal officials of Judah,
- 10: but he did not invite Nathan the prophet or Benai'ah or the mighty men or Solomon his brother.
- 11: Then Nathan said to Bathshe'ba the mother of Solomon, "Have you not heard that Adoni'jah the son of Haggith has become king and David our lord does not know it?"
- 12: Now therefore come, let me give you counsel, that you may save your own life and the life of your son Solomon.
- 13: Go in at once to King David, and say to him, "Did you not, my lord the king, swear to your maidservant, saying, "Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne"? Why then is Adoni'jah king?"
- 14: Then while you are still speaking with the king, I also will come in after you and confirm your words."
- 15: So Bathshe'ba went to the king into his chamber (now the king was very old, and Ab'ishag the Shu'nammite was ministering to the king).
- 16: Bathshe'ba bowed and did obeisance to the king, and the king said, "What do you desire?"
- 17: She said to him, "My lord, you swore to your maidservant by the LORD your God, saying, "Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne."
- 18: And now, behold, Adoni'jah is king, although you, my lord the king, do not know it.
- 19: He has sacrificed oxen, fatlings, and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the sons of the king, Abi'athar the priest, and Jo'ab the commander of the army; but Solomon your servant he has not invited.
- 20: And now, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are upon you, to tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.
- 21: Otherwise it will come to pass, when my lord the king sleeps with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be counted offenders."
- 22: While she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet came in.
- 23: And they told the king, "Here is Nathan the prophet." And when he came in before the king, he bowed before the king, with his face to the ground.
- 24: And Nathan said, "My lord the king, have you said, "Adoni'jah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne'?"
- 25: For he has gone down this day, and has sacrificed oxen, fatlings, and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king's sons, Jo'ab the commander of the army, and Abi'athar the priest; and behold, they are eating and drinking before him, and saying, "Long live King Adoni'jah!"
- 26: But me, your servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada, and your servant Solomon, he has not invited.
- 27: Has this thing been brought about by my lord the king and you have not told your servants who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"
- 28: Then King David answered, "Call Bathshe'ba to me." So she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king.
- 29: And the king swore, saying, "As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my soul out of every adversity,
- 30: as I swore to you by the LORD, the God of Israel, saying, "Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead"; even so will I do this day."
- 31: Then Bathshe'ba bowed with her face to the ground, and did obeisance to the king, and said, "May my lord King David live for ever!"
- 32: King David said, "Call to me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada." So they came before the king.
- 33: And the king said to them, "Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride on my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon;
- 34: and let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet there anoint him king over Israel; then blow the trumpet, and say, "Long live King 35: You shall then come up after him, and he shall come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead; and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah."

36: And Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada answered the king, "Amen! May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, say so.

37: As the LORD has been with my lord the king, even so may he be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David."

38: So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada, and the Cher'ethites and the Pel'ethites, went down and caused Solomon to ride on King David's mule, and brought him to Gihon.

39: There Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the tent, and anointed Solomon. Then they blew the trumpet; and all the people said, "Long live King Solomon!"

40: And all the people went up after him, playing on pipes, and rejoicing with great joy, so that the earth was split by their noise.

41: Adoni'jah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they finished feasting. And when Jo'ab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, "What does this uproar in the city mean?"

42: While he was still speaking, behold, Jonathan the son of Abi'athar the priest came; and Adoni'jah said, "Come in, for you are a worthy man and bring good news."

43: Jonathan answered Adoni'jah, "No, for our lord King David has made Solomon king;

44: and the king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada, and the Cher'ethites and the Pel'ethites; and they have caused him to ride on the king's mule;

45: and Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon; and they have gone up from there rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar. This is the noise that you have heard.

46: Solomon sits upon the royal throne.

47: Moreover the king's servants came to congratulate our lord King David, saying, 'Your God make the name of Solomon more famous than yours, and make his throne greater than your throne.' And the king bowed himself upon the bed.

48: And the king also said, 'Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who has granted one of my offspring to sit on my throne this day, my own eyes seeing it.'

49: Then all the guests of Adoni'jah trembled, and rose, and each went his own way.

50: And Adoni'jah feared Solomon; and he arose, and went, and caught hold of the horns of the altar.

51: And it was told Solomon, "Behold, Adoni'jah fears King Solomon; for, lo, he has laid hold of the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let King Solomon swear to me first that he will not slay his servant with the sword.'"

52: And Solomon said, "If he prove to be a worthy man, not one of his hairs shall fall to the earth; but if wickedness is found in him, he shall die."

53: So King Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and did obeisance to King Solomon; and Solomon said to him, "Go to your house."

Chapter 2

First Kings, chapter 2

1: When David's time to die drew near, he charged Solomon his son, saying,

2: "I am about to go the way of all the earth. Be strong, and show yourself a man,

3: and keep the charge of the LORD your God, walking in his ways and keeping his statutes, his commandments, his ordinances, and his testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn;

4: that the LORD may establish his word which he spoke concerning me, saying, 'If your sons take heed to their way, to walk before me in faithfulness with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail you a man on the throne of Israel.'

5: "Moreover you know also what Jo'ab the son of Zeru'iah did to me, how he dealt with the two commanders of the armies of Israel, Abner the son of Ner, and Ama'sa the son of Jether, whom he murdered, avenging in time of peace blood which had been shed in war, and putting innocent blood upon the girdle about my loins, and upon the sandals on my feet.

6: Act therefore according to your wisdom, but do not let his gray head go down to Sheol in peace.

7: But deal loyally with the sons of Barzil'lai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table; for with such loyalty they met me when I fled from Ab'salom your brother.

8: And there is also with you Shim'e-i the son of Gera, the Benjaminite from Bahu'rim, who cursed me with a grievous curse on the day when I went to Mahana'im; but when he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by the LORD, saying, 'I will not put you to death with the sword.'

9: Now therefore hold him not guiltless, for you are a wise man; you will know what you ought to do to him, and you shall bring his gray head down with blood to Sheol."

10: Then David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.

11: And the time that David reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and thirty-three years in Jerusalem.

12: So Solomon sat upon the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was firmly established.

13: Then Adoni'jah the son of Haggith came to Bathshe'ba the mother of Solomon. And she said, "Do you come peaceably?" He said, "Peaceably."

14: Then he said, "I have something to say to you." She said, "Say on."

15: He said, "You know that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel fully expected me to reign; however the kingdom has turned about and become my brother's, for it was his from the LORD.

16: And now I have one request to make of you; do not refuse me." She said to him, "Say on."

17: And he said, "Pray ask King Solomon -- he will not refuse you -- to give me Ab'ishag the Shu'nammite as my wife."

18: Bathshe'ba said, "Very well; I will speak for you to the king."

19: So Bathshe'ba went to King Solomon, to speak to him on behalf of Adoni'jah. And the king rose to meet her, and bowed down to her; then he sat on his throne, and had a seat brought for the king's mother; and she sat on his right.

20: Then she said, "I have one small request to make of you; do not refuse me." And the king said to her, "Make your request, my mother; for I will not refuse you."

21: She said, "Let Ab'ishag the Shu'nammite be given to Adoni'jah your brother as his wife."

22: King Solomon answered his mother, "And why do you ask Ab'ishag the Shu'nammite for Adoni'jah? Ask for him the kingdom also; for he is my elder brother, and on his side are Abi'athar the priest and Jo'ab the son of Zeru'iah."

23: Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, "God do so to me and more also if this word does not cost Adoni'jah his life!

24: Now therefore as the LORD lives, who has established me, and placed me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house, as he promised, Adoni'jah shall be put to death this day."

25: So King Solomon sent Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada; and he struck him down, and he died.

26: And to Abi'athar the priest the king said, "Go to An'athoth, to your estate; for you deserve death. But I will not at this time put you to death, because you bore the ark of the Lord GOD before David my father, and because you shared in all the affliction of my father."

27: So Solomon expelled Abi'athar from being priest to the LORD, thus fulfilling the word of the LORD which he had spoken concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

28: When the news came to Jo'ab -- for Jo'ab had supported Adoni'jah although he had not supported Ab'salom -- Jo'ab fled to the tent of the LORD and caught hold of the horns of the altar.

29: And when it was told King Solomon, "Jo'ab has fled to the tent of the LORD, and behold, he is beside the altar," Solomon sent Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada, saying, "Go, strike him down."

30: So Benai'ah came to the tent of the LORD, and said to him, "The king commands, `Come forth.'" But he said, "No, I will die here." Then Benai'ah brought the king word again, saying, "Thus said Jo'ab, and thus he answered me."

31: The king replied to him, "Do as he has said, strike him down and bury him; and thus take away from me and from my father's house the guilt for the blood which Jo'ab shed without cause.

32: The LORD will bring back his bloody deeds upon his own head, because, without the knowledge of my father David, he attacked and slew with the sword two men more righteous and better than himself, Abner the son of Ner, commander of the army of Israel, and Ama'sa the son of Jether, commander of the army of Judah.

33: So shall their blood come back upon the head of Jo'ab and upon the head of his descendants for ever; but to David, and to his descendants, and to his house, and to his throne, there shall be peace from the LORD for evermore."

34: Then Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada went up, and struck him down and killed him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

35: The king put Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada over the army in place of Jo'ab, and the king put Zadok the priest in the place of Abi'athar.

36: Then the king sent and summoned Shim'e-i, and said to him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and do not go forth from there to any place whatever.

37: For on the day you go forth, and cross the brook Kidron, know for certain that you shall die; your blood shall be upon your own head."

38: And Shim'e-i said to the king, "What you say is good; as my lord the king has said, so will your servant do." So Shim'e-i dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

39: But it happened at the end of three years that two of Shim'e-i's slaves ran away to Achish, son of Ma'acah, king of Gath. And when it was told Shim'e-i, "Behold, your slaves are in Gath," 40: Shim'e-i arose and saddled an ass, and went to Gath to Achish, to seek his slaves; Shim'e-i went and brought his slaves from Gath.

41: And when Solomon was told that Shim'e-i had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and returned,

42: the king sent and summoned Shim'e-i, and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by the LORD, and solemnly admonish you, saying, `Know for certain that on the day you go forth and go to any place whatever, you shall die'? And you said to me, `What you say is good; I obey.'"

43: Why then have you not kept your oath to the LORD and the commandment with which I charged you?"

44: The king also said to Shim'e-i, "You know in your own heart all the evil that you did to David my father; so the LORD will bring back your evil upon your own head.

45: But King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever."

46: Then the king commanded Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada; and he went out and struck him down, and he died. So the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

Chapter 3
First Kings, chapter 3

1: Solomon made a marriage alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt; he took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had finished building his own house and the house of the LORD and the wall around Jerusalem.

2: The people were sacrificing at the high places, however, because no house had yet been built for the name of the LORD.

3: Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father; only, he sacrificed and burnt incense at the high places.

4: And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place; Solomon used to offer a thousand burnt offerings upon that altar.

5: At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask what I shall give you."

6: And Solomon said, "Thou hast shown great and steadfast love to thy servant David my father, because he walked before thee in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart toward thee; and thou hast kept for him this great and steadfast love, and hast given him a son to sit on his throne this day.

7: And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king in place of David my father, although I am but a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in.

8: And thy servant is in the midst of thy people whom thou hast chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered or counted for multitude.

9: Give thy servant therefore an understanding mind to govern thy people, that I may discern between good and evil; for who is able to govern this thy great people?"

10: It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this.

11: And God said to him, "Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches or the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, 12: behold, I now do according to your word. Behold, I give you a wise and discerning mind, so that none like you has been before you and none like you shall arise after you.

13: I give you also what you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that no other king shall compare with you, all your days.

14: And if you will walk in my ways, keeping my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days."

15: And Solomon awoke, and behold, it was a dream. Then he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings, and made a feast for all his servants.

16: Then two harlots came to the king, and stood before him.

17: The one woman said, "Oh, my lord, this woman and I dwell in the same house; and I gave birth to a child while she was in the house.

18: Then on the third day after I was delivered, this woman also gave birth; and we were alone; there was no one else with us in the house, only we two were in the house.

19: And this woman's son died in the night, because she lay on it.

20: And she arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while your maidservant slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead son in my bosom.

21: When I rose in the morning to nurse my child, behold, it was dead; but when I looked at it closely in the morning, behold, it was not the child that I had borne."

22: But the other woman said, "No, the living child is mine, and the dead child is yours." The first said, "No, the dead child is yours, and the living child is mine." Thus they spoke before the king.

23: Then the king said, "The one says, 'This is my son that is alive, and your son is dead'; and the other says, 'No; but your son is dead, and my son is the living one.'"

24: And the king said, "Bring me a sword." So a sword was brought before the king.

25: And the king said, "Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other."

26: Then the woman whose son was alive said to the king, because her heart yearned for her son, "Oh, my lord, give her the living child, and by no means slay it." But the other said, "It shall be neither mine nor yours; divide it."

27: Then the king answered and said, "Give the living child to the first woman, and by no means slay it; she is its mother."

28: And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had rendered; and they stood in awe of the king, because they perceived that the wisdom of God was in him, to render justice.

Chapter 4 First Kings, chapter 4

1: King Solomon was king over all Israel,

2: and these were his high officials: Azari'ah the son of Zadok was the priest;

3: Elihor'eph and Ahi'jah the sons of Shisha were secretaries; Jehosh'aphat the son of Ahi'lud was recorder;

4: Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada was in command of the army; Zadok and Abi'athar were priests;

5: Azari'ah the son of Nathan was over the officers; Zabud the son of Nathan was priest and king's friend;

6: Ahi'shar was in charge of the palace; and Adoni'ram the son of Abda was in charge of the forced labor.

7: Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, who provided food for the king and his household; each man had to make provision for one month in the year.

8: These were their names: Ben-hur, in the hill country of E'phraim;

9: Ben-deker, in Makaz, Sha-al'bim, Beth-she'mesh, and E'lonbeth-ha'nan;
 10: Ben-hesed, in Arub'both (to him belonged Socoh and all the land of Hepher);
 11: Ben-abin'adab, in all Naphath-dor (he had Taphath the daughter of Solomon as his wife);
 12: Ba'ana the son of Ahi'lud, in Ta'anach, Megid'do, and all Beth-she'an which is beside Zarethan below Jezreel, and from Beth-she'an to A'bel-meho'lah, as far as the other side of Jok'meam;
 13: Ben-geber, in Ra'moth-gil'ead (he had the villages of Ja'ir the son of Manas'seh, which are in Gilead, and he had the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and bronze bars);
 14: Ahin'adab the son of Iddo, in Mahana'im;
 15: Ahi'ma-az, in Naph'tali (he had taken Bas'emath the daughter of Solomon as his wife);
 16: Ba'ana the son of Hushai, in Asher and Bealoth;
 17: Jehosh'aphat the son of Paruah, in Is'sachar;
 18: Shim'e-i the son of Ela, in Benjamin;
 19: Geber the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and of Og king of Bashan. And there was one officer in the land of Judah.
 20: Judah and Israel were as many as the sand by the sea; they ate and drank and were happy.
 21: Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the Euphra'tes to the land of the Philistines and to the border of Egypt; they brought tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life.
 22: Solomon's provision for one day was thirty cors of fine flour, and sixty cors of meal, 23: ten fat oxen, and twenty pasture-fed cattle, a hundred sheep, besides harts, gazelles, roebucks, and fatted fowl.
 24: For he had dominion over all the region west of the Euphra'tes from Tiphseh to Gaza, over all the kings west of the Euphra'tes; and he had peace on all sides round about him.
 25: And Judah and Israel dwelt in safety, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, all the days of Solomon.
 26: Solomon also had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.
 27: And those officers supplied provisions for King Solomon, and for all who came to King Solomon's table, each one in his month; they let nothing be lacking.
 28: Barley also and straw for the horses and swift steeds they brought to the place where it was required, each according to his charge.
 29: And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding beyond measure, and largeness of mind like the sand on the seashore, 30: so that Solomon's wisdom surpassed the wisdom of all the people of the east, and all the wisdom of Egypt.
v30: And solomon's wisdom surpassed the wisdom of the sons of the east and all of Egyptians 31: For he was wiser than all other men, wiser than Ethan the Ez'rahite, and Heman, Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol; and his fame was in all the nations round about.
v31: He was wiser than all men even wiser than ethan the Ezrahite, heman (Ps 88), Kalko and Darda sons of Mahoe and his fame was known in all the surrounding nations.
 32: He also uttered three thousand proverbs; and his songs were a thousand and five.
 33: He spoke of trees, from the cedar that is in Lebanon to the hyssop that grows out of the wall; he spoke also of beasts, and of birds, and of reptiles, and of fish.
 34: And men came from all peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and from all the kings of the earth, who had heard of his wisdom.

Chapter 5

First Kings, chapter 5

1: Now Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, when he heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father; for Hiram always loved David.
v1: Now Hiram king of Tyre sent his ambassadors to Solomon, when he heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father; for Hiram had always been a friend to David.
 2: And Solomon sent word to Hiram, v2: And Solomon sent a deputation to Hiram saying 3: "You know that David my father could not build a house for the name of the LORD his God because of the warfare with which his enemies surrounded him, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet.
v3: "You know that David my father was unable to build a temple for the name of Jehovah his Elohim, because of the warfare with which surrounded him, until Jehovah had put them under the soles of his feet.
 4: But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side; there is neither adversary nor misfortune.
v4: But now Jehovah my Elohim has given peace on every side; there does not exist any enemy nor any evil.
 5: And so I purpose to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD said to David my father, 'Your son, whom I will set upon your throne in your place, shall build the house for my name.'
v5: And behold I have been commanded to build a temple for the name of Jehovah my Elohim, as Jehovah spoke to my father David, 'Your son, whom I will set upon your throne in your place, He will build a temple for my name.'
 6: Now therefore command that cedars of Lebanon be cut for me; and my servants will join your servants, and I will pay you for your servants such wages as you set; for you know that there is no one among us who knows how to cut timber like the Sido'nians."

7: When Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced greatly, and said, "Blessed be the LORD this day, who has given to David a wise son to be over this great people."
8: And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, "I have heard the message which you have sent to me; I am ready to do all you desire in the matter of cedar and cypress timber.
9: My servants shall bring it down to the sea from Lebanon; and I will make it into rafts to go by sea to the place you direct, and I will have them broken up there, and you shall receive it; and you shall meet my wishes by providing food for my household."
10: So Hiram supplied Solomon with all the timber of cedar and cypress that he desired, 11: while Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand cors of wheat as food for his household, and twenty thousand cors of beaten oil. Solomon gave this to Hiram year by year.
12: And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and the two of them made a treaty.
13: King Solomon raised a levy of forced labor out of all Israel; and the levy numbered thirty thousand men.
14: And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month in relays; they would be a month in Lebanon and two months at home; Adoni'ram was in charge of the levy.
15: Solomon also had seventy thousand burden-bearers and eighty thousand hewers of stone in the hill country, 16: besides Solomon's three thousand three hundred chief officers who were over the work, who had charge of the people who carried on the work.
17: At the king's command, they quarried out great, costly stones in order to lay the foundation of the house with dressed stones.
18: So Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and the men of Gebal did the hewing and prepared the timber and the stone to build the house.

Chapter 6 First Kings, chapter 6

1: In the four hundred and eightieth year after the people of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv, which is the second month, he began to build the house of the LORD.
2: The house which King Solomon built for the LORD was sixty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and thirty cubits high.
3: The vestibule in front of the nave of the house was twenty cubits long, equal to the width of the house, and ten cubits deep in front of the house.
4: And he made for the house windows with recessed frames.
5: He also built a structure against the wall of the house, running round the walls of the house, both the nave and the inner sanctuary; and he made side chambers all around.
6: The lowest story was five cubits broad, the middle one was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad; for around the outside of the house he made offsets on the wall in order that the supporting beams should not be inserted into the walls of the house.
7: When the house was built, it was with stone prepared at the quarry; so that neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron was heard in the temple, while it was being built.
8: The entrance for the lowest story was on the south side of the house; and one went up by stairs to the middle story, and from the middle story to the third.
9: So he built the house, and finished it; and he made the ceiling of the house of beams and planks of cedar.
10: He built the structure against the whole house, each story five cubits high, and it was joined to the house with timbers of cedar.
11: Now the word of the LORD came to Solomon,
12: "Concerning this house which you are building, if you will walk in my statutes and obey my ordinances and keep all my commandments and walk in them, then I will establish my word with you, which I spoke to David your father.
13: And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel."
14: So Solomon built the house, and finished it.
15: He lined the walls of the house on the inside with boards of cedar; from the floor of the house to the rafters of the ceiling, he covered them on the inside with wood; and he covered the floor of the house with boards of cypress.
16: He built twenty cubits of the rear of the house with boards of cedar from the floor to the rafters, and he built this within as an inner sanctuary, as the most holy place.
17: The house, that is, the nave in front of the inner sanctuary, was forty cubits long.
18: The cedar within the house was carved in the form of gourds and open flowers; all was cedar, no stone was seen.
19: The inner sanctuary he prepared in the innermost part of the house, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD.
20: The inner sanctuary was twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and twenty cubits high; and he overlaid it with pure gold. He also made an altar of cedar.
21: And Solomon overlaid the inside of the house with pure gold, and he drew chains of gold across, in front of the inner sanctuary, and overlaid it with gold.
22: And he overlaid the whole house with gold, until all the house was finished. Also the whole altar that belonged to the inner sanctuary he overlaid with gold.
23: In the inner sanctuary he made two cherubim of olivewood, each ten cubits high.
24: Five cubits was the length of one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the length of the other wing of the cherub; it was ten cubits from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other.

25: The other cherub also measured ten cubits; both cherubim had the same measure and the same form.

26: The height of one cherub was ten cubits, and so was that of the other cherub.

27: He put the cherubim in the innermost part of the house; and the wings of the cherubim were spread out so that a wing of one touched the one wall, and a wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; their other wings touched each other in the middle of the house.

28: And he overlaid the cherubim with gold.

29: He carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, in the inner and outer rooms.

30: The floor of the house he overlaid with gold in the inner and outer rooms.

31: For the entrance to the inner sanctuary he made doors of olivewood; the lintel and the doorposts formed a pentagon.

32: He covered the two doors of olivewood with carvings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers; he overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubim and upon the palm trees.

33: So also he made for the entrance to the nave doorposts of olivewood, in the form of a square, 34: and two doors of cypress wood; the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.

35: On them he carved cherubim and palm trees and open flowers; and he overlaid them with gold evenly applied upon the carved work.

36: He built the inner court with three courses of hewn stone and one course of cedar beams.

37: In the fourth year the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid, in the month of Ziv.

38: And in the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, which is the eighth month, the house was finished in all its parts, and according to all its specifications. He was seven years in building it.

Chapter 7

First Kings, chapter 7

1: Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished his entire house.

2: He built the House of the Forest of Lebanon; its length was a hundred cubits, and its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits, and it was built upon three rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.

3: And it was covered with cedar above the chambers that were upon the forty-five pillars, fifteen in each row.

4: There were window frames in three rows, and window opposite window in three tiers.

5: All the doorways and windows had square frames, and window was opposite window in three tiers.

6: And he made the Hall of Pillars; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth thirty cubits; there was a porch in front with pillars, and a canopy before them.

7: And he made the Hall of the Throne where he was to pronounce judgment, even the Hall of Judgment; it was finished with cedar from floor to rafters.

8: His own house where he was to dwell, in the other court back of the hall, was of like workmanship. Solomon also made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter whom he had taken in marriage.

9: All these were made of costly stones, hewn according to measure, sawed with saws, back and front, even from the foundation to the coping, and from the court of the house of the LORD to the great court.

10: The foundation was of costly stones, huge stones, stones of eight and ten cubits.

11: And above were costly stones, hewn according to measurement, and cedar.

12: The great court had three courses of hewn stone round about, and a course of cedar beams; so had the inner court of the house of the LORD, and the vestibule of the house.

13: And King Solomon sent and brought Hiram from Tyre.

14: He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naph'tali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in bronze; and he was full of wisdom, understanding, and skill, for making any work in bronze. He came to King Solomon, and did all his work.

15: He cast two pillars of bronze. Eighteen cubits was the height of one pillar, and a line of twelve cubits measured its circumference; it was hollow, and its thickness was four fingers; the second pillar was the same.

16: He also made two capitals of molten bronze, to set upon the tops of the pillars; the height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits.

17: Then he made two nets of checker work with wreaths of chain work for the capitals upon the tops of the pillars; a net for the one capital, and a net for the other capital.

18: Likewise he made pomegranates; in two rows round about upon the one network, to cover the capital that was upon the top of the pillar; and he did the same with the other capital.

19: Now the capitals that were upon the tops of the pillars in the vestibule were of lily-work, four cubits.

20: The capitals were upon the two pillars and also above the rounded projection which was beside the network; there were two hundred pomegranates, in two rows round about; and so with the other capital.

21: He set up the pillars at the vestibule of the temple; he set up the pillar on the south and called its name Jachin; and he set up the pillar on the north and called its name Bo'az.

22: And upon the tops of the pillars was lily-work. Thus the work of the pillars was finished.

23: Then he made the molten sea; it was round, ten cubits from brim to brim, and five cubits high, and a line of thirty cubits measured its circumference.

24: Under its brim were gourds, for thirty cubits, compassing the sea round about; the gourds were in two rows, cast with it when it was cast.

25: It stood upon twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east; the sea was set upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

26: Its thickness was a handbreadth; and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily; it held two thousand baths.

27: He also made the ten stands of bronze; each stand was four cubits long, four cubits wide, and three cubits high.

28: This was the construction of the stands: they had panels, and the panels were set in the frames

29: and on the panels that were set in the frames were lions, oxen, and cherubim. Upon the frames, both above and below the lions and oxen, there were wreaths of beveled work.

30: Moreover each stand had four bronze wheels and axles of bronze; and at the four corners were supports for a laver. The supports were cast, with wreaths at the side of each.

31: Its opening was within a crown which projected upward one cubit; its opening was round, as a pedestal is made, a cubit and a half deep. At its opening there were carvings; and its panels were square, not round.

32: And the four wheels were underneath the panels; the axles of the wheels were of one piece with the stands; and the height of a wheel was a cubit and a half.

33: The wheels were made like a chariot wheel; their axles, their rims, their spokes, and their hubs, were all cast.

34: There were four supports at the four corners of each stand; the supports were of one piece with the stands.

35: And on the top of the stand there was a round band half a cubit high; and on the top of the stand its stays and its panels were of one piece with it.

36: And on the surfaces of its stays and on its panels, he carved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, according to the space of each, with wreaths round about.

37: After this manner he made the ten stands; all of them were cast alike, of the same measure and the same form.

38: And he made ten lavers of bronze; each laver held forty baths, each laver measured four cubits, and there was a laver for each of the ten stands.

39: And he set the stands, five on the south side of the house, and five on the north side of the house; and he set the sea on the southeast corner of the house.

40: Hiram also made the pots, the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram finished all the work that he did for King Solomon on the house of the LORD:

41: the two pillars, the two bowls of the capitals that were on the tops of the pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the tops of the pillars;

42: and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were upon the pillars;

43: the ten stands, and the ten lavers upon the stands;

44: and the one sea, and the twelve oxen underneath the sea.

45: Now the pots, the shovels, and the basins, all these vessels in the house of the LORD, which Hiram made for King Solomon, were of burnished bronze.

46: In the plain of the Jordan the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan.

47: And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because there were so many of them; the weight of the bronze was not found out.

48: So Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of the LORD: the golden altar, the golden table for the bread of the Presence,

49: the lampstands of pure gold, five on the south side and five on the north, before the inner sanctuary; the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs, of gold;

50: the cups, snuffers, basins, dishes for incense, and firepans, of pure gold; and the sockets of gold, for the doors of the innermost part of the house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the nave of the temple.

51: Thus all the work that King Solomon did on the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated, the silver, the gold, and the vessels, and stored them in the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

Chapter 8

First Kings, chapter 8

1: Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the fathers' houses of the people of Israel, before King Solomon in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

2: And all the men of Israel assembled to King Solomon at the feast in the month Eth'anim, which is the seventh month.

3: And all the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark.

4: And they brought up the ark of the LORD, the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the tent; the priests and the Levites brought them up.

5: And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who had assembled before him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and oxen that they could not be counted or numbered.

6: Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, in the inner sanctuary of the house, in the most holy place, underneath the wings of the cherubim.

7: For the cherubim spread out their wings over the place of the ark, so that the cherubim made a covering above the ark and its poles.

8: And the poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the holy place before the inner sanctuary; but they could not be seen from outside; and they are there to this day.

9: There was nothing in the ark except the two tables of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the people of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

10: And when the priests came out of the holy place, a cloud filled the house of the LORD, v10: And it came to pass when the priests came out of the holy place, a cloud filled the house of the LORD, 11: so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud; for the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD.

v11: so that the priests could not continue to minister because of the cloud; for the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD.

12: Then Solomon said, "The LORD has set the sun in the heavens, but has said that he would dwell in thick darkness.

13: I have built thee an exalted house, a place for thee to dwell in for ever."

14: Then the king faced about, and blessed all the assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel stood.

15: And he said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who with his hand has fulfilled what he promised with his mouth to David my father, saying,

16: 'Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city in all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house, that my name might be there; but I chose David to be over my people Israel.'

v16: 'Since the day that I, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city in all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house, that my name might be there; but I chose David to be ruler over my people Israel.'

17: Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

v17: Now it was in the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul of David my father to build a temple for the name of Jehovah, the God of Israel.

18: But the LORD said to David my father, 'Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart;

v18: But the LORD said to David my father, 'Because it was in your heart to build a temple for my name, you did well that it was in your Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul;

19: nevertheless you shall not build the house, but your son who shall be born to you shall build the house for my name.'

20: Now the LORD has fulfilled his promise which he made; for I have risen in the place of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and I have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

21: And there I have provided a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt."

22: Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven;

23: and said, "O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in heaven above or on earth beneath, keeping covenant and showing steadfast love to thy servants who walk before thee with all their heart;

24: who hast kept with thy servant David my father what thou didst declare to him; yea, thou didst speak with thy mouth, and with thy hand hast fulfilled it this day.

25: Now therefore, O LORD, God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father what thou hast promised him, saying, 'There shall never fail you a man before me to sit upon the throne of Israel, if only your sons take heed to their way, to walk before me as you have walked before me.'

26: Now therefore, O God of Israel, let thy word be confirmed, which thou hast spoken to thy servant David my father.

27: "But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built!

28: Yet have regard to the prayer of thy servant and to his supplication, O LORD my God, hearkening to the cry and to the prayer which thy servant prays before thee this day;

29: that thy eyes may be open night and day toward this house, the place of which thou hast said, 'My name shall be there,' that thou mayest hearken to the prayer which thy servant offers toward this place.

30: And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant and of thy people Israel, when they pray toward this place; yea, hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place; and when thou hearest, forgive.

31: "If a man sins against his neighbor and is made to take an oath, and comes and swears his oath before thine altar in this house, 32: then hear thou in heaven, and act, and judge thy servants, condemning the guilty by bringing his conduct upon his own head, and vindicating the righteous by rewarding him according to his righteousness.

33: "When thy people Israel are defeated before the enemy because they have sinned against thee, if they turn again to thee, and acknowledge thy name, and pray and make supplication to thee in this house;

v33: "When your people Israel are defeated before the enemy because they have sinned against you, if they turn again to you, and acknowledge or rebound to your name, and pray and make specific prayers for specific needs to you in this house of God;

34: then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again to the land which thou gavest to their fathers.

v34: then hear you in heaven, and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them again to the land which you gave to their fathers.

35: "When heaven is shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against thee, if they pray toward this place, and acknowledge thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them, v35: "When heaven is shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against you, if they pray toward this temple place, and acknowledge or rebound to your name, and turn from their sin of ignorance to doctrine or idolatry etc, when you do afflict them,

36: then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, thy people Israel, when thou dost teach them the good way in which they should walk; and grant rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people as an inheritance.

v36: then hear you in heaven, and forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel, when you do teach them doctrine; then grant rain upon your land, which you hast given to your people as an inheritance.

37: "If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence or blight or mildew or locust or caterpillar; if their enemy besieges them in any of their cities; whatever plague, whatever sickness there is;

38: whatever prayer, whatever supplication is made by any man or by all thy people Israel, each knowing the affliction of his own heart and stretching out his hands toward this house;

39: then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and act, and render to each whose heart thou knowest, according to all his ways (for thou, thou only, knowest the hearts of all the children of men);

40: that they may fear thee all the days that they live in the land which thou gavest to our fathers.

41: "Likewise when a foreigner, who is not of thy people Israel, comes from a far country for thy name's sake

42: (for they shall hear of thy great name, and thy mighty hand, and of thy outstretched arm), when he comes and prays toward this house,

43: hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to thee; in order that all the peoples of the earth may know thy name and fear thee, as do thy people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by thy name.

44: "If thy people go out to battle against their enemy, by whatever way thou shalt send them, and they pray to the LORD toward the city which thou hast chosen and the house which I have built for thy name, 45: then hear thou in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

46: "If they sin against thee -- for there is no man who does not sin -- and thou art angry with them, and dost give them to an enemy, so that they are carried away captive to the land of the enemy, far off or near;

v46: "If they sin against you and you are angry with them, and do give them to an enemy far off or near, so that they are carried away captive to the land of the enemy;

47: yet if they lay it to heart in the land to which they have been carried captive, and repent, and make supplication to thee in the land of their captors, saying, `We have sinned, and have acted perversely and wickedly';

v47: yet if they reconsider in their souls in the land to which they have been carried captive, and repent or change their minds, and make supplication or specific prayers to you in the land of their captors, saying a rebound prayer, `We have sinned, and have acted perversely and wickedly';

48: if they repent with all their mind and with all their heart in the land of their enemies, who carried them captive, and pray to thee toward their land, which thou gavest to their fathers, the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name;

v48: if they repent or rebound with all their mind and with all their soul in the land of their enemies, who carried them captive, and pray to you toward their land of Israel, which you gave to their fathers, the city of Jerusalem, which you hast chosen, and the temple which I have built for your name;

49: then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause

v49: then hear you in heaven your dwelling place their prayer and their supplication or specific prayers for specific purpose, and maintain their cause

50: and forgive thy people who have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions which they have committed against thee; and grant them compassion in the sight of those who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them

51: (for they are thy people, and thy heritage, which thou didst bring out of Egypt, from the midst of the iron furnace).

52: Let thy eyes be open to the supplication of thy servant, and to the supplication of thy people Israel, giving ear to them whenever they call to thee.

53: For thou didst separate them from among all the peoples of the earth, to be thy heritage, as thou didst declare through Moses, thy servant, when thou didst bring our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord GOD."

54: Now as Solomon finished offering all this prayer and supplication to the LORD, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, where he had knelt with hands outstretched toward heaven;

55: and he stood, and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying,

56: "Blessed be the LORD who has given rest to his people Israel, according to all that he promised; not one word has failed of all his good promise, which he uttered by Moses his servant.

57: The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers; may he not leave us or forsake us;

58: that he may incline our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, his statutes, and his ordinances, which he commanded our fathers.

59: Let these words of mine, wherewith I have made supplication before the LORD, be near to the LORD our God day and night, and may he maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel, as each day requires;

60: that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God; there is no other.

71: Let your heart therefore be wholly true to the LORD our God, walking in his statutes and keeping his commandments, as at this day."

72: Then the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD.

73: Solomon offered as peace offerings to the LORD twenty-two thousand oxen and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.

74: The same day the king consecrated the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD; for there he offered the burnt offering and the cereal offering and the fat pieces of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar that was before the LORD was too small to receive the burnt offering and the cereal offering and the fat pieces of the peace offerings.

75: So Solomon held the feast at that time, and all Israel with him, a great assembly, from the entrance of Hamath to the Brook of Egypt, before the LORD our God, seven days.

76: On the eighth day he sent the people away; and they blessed the king, and went to their homes joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had shown to David his servant and to Israel his people.

Chapter 9

First Kings, chapter 9

1: When Solomon had finished building the house of the LORD and the king's house and all that Solomon desired to build,

2: the LORD appeared to Solomon a second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon.

3: And the LORD said to him, "I have heard your prayer and your supplication, which you have made before me; I have consecrated this house which you have built, and put my name there for ever; my eyes and my heart will be there for all time.

4: And as for you, if you will walk before me, as David your father walked, with integrity of heart and uprightness, doing according to all that I have commanded you, and keeping my statutes and my ordinances,

5: then I will establish your royal throne over Israel for ever, as I promised David your father, saying, 'There shall not fail you a man upon the throne of Israel.'

6: But if you turn aside from following me, you or your children, and do not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods and worship them,

7: then I will cut off Israel from the land which I have given them; and the house which I have consecrated for my name I will cast out of my sight; and Israel will become a proverb and a byword among all peoples.

8: And this house will become a heap of ruins; everyone passing by it will be astonished, and will hiss; and they will say, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this land and to this house?'

9: Then they will say, 'Because they forsook the LORD their God who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshiped them and served them; therefore the LORD has brought all this evil upon them.'"

10: At the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the king's house, 11: and Hiram king of Tyre had supplied Solomon with cedar and cypress timber and gold, as much as he desired, King Solomon gave to Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

12: But when Hiram came from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, they did not please him.

13: Therefore he said, "What kind of cities are these which you have given me, my brother?" So they are called the land of Cabul to this day.

14: Hiram had sent to the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold.

15: And this is the account of the forced labor which King Solomon levied to build the house of the LORD and his own house and the Millo and the wall of Jerusalem and Hazor and Megid'do and Gezer

16: (Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up and captured Gezer and burnt it with fire, and had slain the Canaanites who dwelt in the city, and had given it as dowry to his daughter, Solomon's wife;

17: so Solomon rebuilt Gezer) and Lower Beth-hor'on

18: and Ba'alath and Tamar in the wilderness, in the land of Judah, 19: and all the store-cities that Solomon had, and the cities for his chariots, and the cities for his horsemen, and whatever Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

20: All the people who were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Per'izzites, the Hivites, and the Jeb'usites, who were not of the people of Israel --

21: their descendants who were left after them in the land, whom the people of Israel were unable to destroy utterly -- these Solomon made a forced levy of slaves, and so they are to this day.

22: But of the people of Israel Solomon made no slaves; they were the soldiers, they were his officials, his commanders, his captains, his chariot commanders and his horsemen.

23: These were the chief officers who were over Solomon's work: five hundred and fifty, who had charge of the people who carried on the work.

24: But Pharaoh's daughter went up from the city of David to her own house which Solomon had built for her; then he built the Millo.
25: Three times a year Solomon used to offer up burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar which he built to the LORD, burning incense before the LORD. So he finished the house.
26: King Solomon built a fleet of ships at E'zion-g'e'ber, which is near Eloth on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom.
27: And Hiram sent with the fleet his servants, seamen who were familiar with the sea, together with the servants of Solomon;
28: and they went to Ophir, and brought from there gold, to the amount of four hundred and twenty talents; and they brought it to King Solomon.

Chapter 10
First Kings, chapter 10

1: Now when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to test him with hard questions.
2: She came to Jerusalem with a very great retinue, with camels bearing spices, and very much gold, and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she told him all that was on her mind.
3: And Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing hidden from the king which he could not explain to her.
4: And when the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built,
5: the food of his table, the seating of his officials, and the attendance of his servants, their clothing, his cupbearers, and his burnt offerings which he offered at the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her.
6: And she said to the king, "The report was true which I heard in my own land of your affairs and of your wisdom,
7: but I did not believe the reports until I came and my own eyes had seen it; and, behold, the half was not told me; your wisdom and prosperity surpass the report which I heard.
8: Happy are your wives! Happy are these your servants, who continually stand before you and hear your wisdom!
9: Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delighted in you and set you on the throne of Israel! Because the LORD loved Israel for ever, he has made you king, that you may execute justice and righteousness."
10: Then she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and a very great quantity of spices, and precious stones; never again came such an abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.
11: Moreover the fleet of Hiram, which brought gold from Ophir, brought from Ophir a very great amount of almug wood and precious stones.
12: And the king made of the almug wood supports for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, lyres also and harps for the singers; no such almug wood has come or been seen, to this day.
13: And King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all that she desired, whatever she asked besides what was given her by the bounty of King Solomon. So she turned and went back to her own land, with her servants.
14: Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, 15: besides that which came from the traders and from the traffic of the merchants, and from all the kings of Arabia and from the governors of the land.
16: King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of gold went into each shield.
1Kings 10:16
v16: He made 200 large shields of beaten gold using 600 shekels of Gold on each large shield
17: And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three minas of gold went into each shield; and the king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.
1Kings 10:17
v17: He made 300 shields of beaten Gold, using 3 minas of Gold on each shield, and the king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.
18: The king also made a great ivory throne, and overlaid it with the finest gold.
19: The throne had six steps, and at the back of the throne was a calf's head, and on each side of the seat were arm rests and two lions standing beside the arm rests,
20: while twelve lions stood there, one on each end of a step on the six steps. The like of it was never made in any kingdom.
21: All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; none were of silver, it was not considered as anything in the days of Solomon.
22: For the king had a fleet of ships of Tarshish at sea with the fleet of Hiram. Once every three years the fleet of ships of Tarshish used to come bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.
23: Thus King Solomon excelled all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom.
24: And the whole earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put into his mind.
25: Every one of them brought his present, articles of silver and gold, garments, myrrh, spices, horses, and mules, so much year by year.
26: And Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen; he had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.
27: And the king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stone, and he made cedar as plentiful as the sycamore of the Shephe'lah.
28: And Solomon's import of horses was from Egypt and Ku'e, and the king's traders received them from Ku'e at a price.

29: A chariot could be imported from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty; and so through the king's traders they were exported to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Syria.

Chapter 11

First Kings, chapter 11

1: Now King Solomon loved many foreign women: the daughter of Pharaoh, and Moabite, Ammonite, E'domite, Sido'nian, and Hittite women,

2: from the nations concerning which the LORD had said to the people of Israel, "You shall not enter into marriage with them, neither shall they with you, for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods"; Solomon clung to these in love.

3: He had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart.

4: For when Solomon was old his wives turned away his heart after other gods; and his heart was not wholly true to the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father.

v4: For it came to pass when Solomon was old his wives turned away his Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul away toward other gods; and his Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul was not complete with Jehovah his Elohim, as was the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul of David his father.

5: For Solomon went after Ash'toreth the goddess of the Sido'nians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

v6: And Solomon manufactured the evil out of reversionism and lack of Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the eyes of the LORD, and did not follow the Lord completely and did not attain Maturity Adjustment to the Justice of God, like David his father had done.

6: So Solomon did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and did not wholly follow the LORD, as David his father had done.

7: Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Molech the abomination of the Ammonites, on the mountain east of Jerusalem.

8: And so he did for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.

9: And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice,

10: and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods; but he did not keep what the LORD commanded.

11: Therefore the LORD said to Solomon, "Since this has been your mind and you have not kept my covenant and my statutes which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you and will give it to your servant.

12: Yet for the sake of David your father I will not do it in your days, but I will tear it out of the hand of your son.

13: However I will not tear away all the kingdom; but I will give one tribe to your son, for the sake of David my servant and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen."

14: And the LORD raised up an adversary against Solomon, Hadad the E'domite; he was of the royal house in Edom.

15: For when David was in Edom, and Jo'ab the commander of the army went up to bury the slain, he slew every male in Edom

16: (for Jo'ab and all Israel remained there six months, until he had cut off every male in Edom);

17: but Hadad fled to Egypt, together with certain E'domites of his father's servants, Hadad being yet a little child.

18: They set out from Mid'ian and came to Paran, and took men with them from Paran and came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, and assigned him an allowance of food, and gave him land.

19: And Hadad found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him in marriage the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tah'penes the queen.

20: And the sister of Tah'penes bore him Genu'bath his son, whom Tah'penes weaned in Pharaoh's house; and Genu'bath was in Pharaoh's house among the sons of Pharaoh.

21: But when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers and that Jo'ab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me depart, that I may go to my own country."

22: But Pharaoh said to him, "What have you lacked with me that you are now seeking to go to your own country?" And he said to him, "Only let me go."

23: God also raised up as an adversary to him, Rezon the son of Eli'ada, who had fled from his master Hadade'zer king of Zobah.

24: And he gathered men about him and became leader of a marauding band, after the slaughter by David; and they went to Damascus, and dwelt there, and made him king in Damascus.

25: He was an adversary of Israel all the days of Solomon, doing mischief as Hadad did; and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

26: Jerobo'am the son of Nebat, an E'phraimite of Zer'edah, a servant of Solomon, whose mother's name was Zeru'ah, a widow, also lifted up his hand against the king.

27: And this was the reason why he lifted up his hand against the king. Solomon built the Millo, and closed up the breach of the city of David his father.

28: The man Jerobo'am was very able, and when Solomon saw that the young man was industrious he gave him charge over all the forced labor of the house of Joseph.

29: And at that time, when Jerobo'am went out of Jerusalem, the prophet Ahi'jah the Shi'lonite found him on the road. Now Ahi'jah had clad himself with a new garment; and the two of them were alone in the open country.

30: Then Ahi'jah laid hold of the new garment that was on him, and tore it into twelve pieces.
31: And he said to Jerobo'am, "Take for yourself ten pieces; for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, `Behold, I am about to tear the kingdom from the hand of Solomon, and will give you ten tribes
32: (but he shall have one tribe, for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel),
33: because he has forsaken me, and worshiped Ash'toreth the goddess of the Sido'nians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the Ammonites, and has not walked in my ways, doing what is right in my sight and keeping my statutes and my ordinances, as David his father did.
34: Nevertheless I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand; but I will make him ruler all the days of his life, for the sake of David my servant whom I chose, who kept my commandments and my statutes;
35: but I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it to you, ten tribes.
36: Yet to his son I will give one tribe, that David my servant may always have a lamp before me in Jerusalem, the city where I have chosen to put my name.
37: And I will take you, and you shall reign over all that your soul desires, and you shall be king over Israel.
38: And if you will hearken to all that I command you, and will walk in my ways, and do what is right in my eyes by keeping my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did, I will be with you, and will build you a sure house, as I built for David, and I will give Israel to you.
39: And I will for this afflict the descendants of David, but not for ever."
40: Solomon sought therefore to kill Jerobo'am; but Jerobo'am arose, and fled into Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.
41: Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon?
42: And the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.
43: And Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father; and Rehobo'am his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 12 First Kings, chapter 12

1: Rehobo'am went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.
2: And when Jerobo'am the son of Nebat heard of it (for he was still in Egypt, whither he had fled from King Solomon), then Jerobo'am returned from Egypt.
3: And they sent and called him; and Jerobo'am and all the assembly of Israel came and said to Rehobo'am,
4: "Your father made our yoke heavy. Now therefore lighten the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke upon us, and we will serve you."
5: He said to them, "Depart for three days, then come again to me." So the people went away.
6: Then King Rehobo'am took counsel with the old men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he was yet alive, saying, "How do you advise me to answer this people?"
7: And they said to him, "If you will be a servant to this people today and serve them, and speak good words to them when you answer them, then they will be your servants for ever."
8: But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him and stood before him.
9: And he said to them, "What do you advise that we answer this people who have said to me, `Lighten the yoke that your father put upon us'?"
10: And the young men who had grown up with him said to him, "Thus shall you speak to this people who said to you, `Your father made our yoke heavy, but do you lighten it for us'; thus shall you say to them, `My little finger is thicker than my father's loins.
11: And now, whereas my father laid upon you a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions."
12: So Jerobo'am and all the people came to Rehobo'am the third day, as the king said, "Come to me again the third day."
13: And the king answered the people harshly, and forsaking the counsel which the old men had given him,
14: he spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions."
15: So the king did not hearken to the people; for it was a turn of affairs brought about by the LORD that he might fulfil his word, which the LORD spoke by Ahi'jah the Shi'lonite to Jerobo'am the son of Nebat.
16: And when all Israel saw that the king did not hearken to them, the people answered the king, "What portion have we in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. To your tents, O Israel! Look now to your own house, David." So Israel departed to their tents.
17: But Rehobo'am reigned over the people of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah.
18: Then King Rehobo'am sent Ador'am, who was taskmaster over the forced labor, and all Israel stoned him to death with stones. And King Rehobo'am made haste to mount his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.
19: So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.
20: And when all Israel heard that Jerobo'am had returned, they sent and called him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. There was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

21: When Rehobo'am came to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, and the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to restore the kingdom to Rehobo'am the son of Solomon.
 22: But the word of God came to Shemai'ah the man of God:
 23: "Say to Rehobo'am the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people,
 24: `Thus says the LORD, You shall not go up or fight against your kinsmen the people of Israel. Return every man to his home, for this thing is from me.'" So they hearkened to the word of the LORD, and went home again, according to the word of the LORD.
 25: Then Jerobo'am built Shechem in the hill country of E'phraim, and dwelt there; and he went out from there and built Penu'el.
 26: And Jerobo'am said in his heart, "Now the kingdom will turn back to the house of David;
 27: if this people go up to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will turn again to their lord, to Rehobo'am king of Judah, and they will kill me and return to Rehobo'am king of Judah."
 28: So the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold. And he said to the people, "You have gone up to Jerusalem long enough. Behold your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt."
 29: And he set one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan.
 30: And this thing became a sin, for the people went to the one at Bethel and to the other as far as Dan.
 31: He also made houses on high places, and appointed priests from among all the people, who were not of the Levites.
 32: And Jerobo'am appointed a feast on the fifteenth day of the eighth month like the feast that was in Judah, and he offered sacrifices upon the altar; so he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made. And he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places that he had made.
 33: He went up to the altar which he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, in the month which he had devised of his own heart; and he ordained a feast for the people of Israel, and went up to the altar to burn incense.

Chapter 13 First Kings, chapter 13

1: And behold, a man of God came out of Judah by the word of the LORD to Bethel. Jerobo'am was standing by the altar to burn incense.
 2: And the man cried against the altar by the word of the LORD, and said, "O altar, altar, thus says the LORD: `Behold, a son shall be born to the house of David, Josi'ah by name; and he shall sacrifice upon you the priests of the high places who burn incense upon you, and men's bones shall be burned upon you."
 3: And he gave a sign the same day, saying, "This is the sign that the LORD has spoken: `Behold, the altar shall be torn down, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out."
 4: And when the king heard the saying of the man of God, which he cried against the altar at Bethel, Jerobo'am stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, "Lay hold of him." And his hand, which he stretched out against him, dried up, so that he could not draw it back to himself.
 5: The altar also was torn down, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.
 6: And the king said to the man of God, "Entreat now the favor of the LORD your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me." And the man of God entreated the LORD; and the king's hand was restored to him, and became as it was before.
 7: And the king said to the man of God, "Come home with me, and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward."
 8: And the man of God said to the king, "If you give me half your house, I will not go in with you. And I will not eat bread or drink water in this place;
 9: for so was it commanded me by the word of the LORD, saying, `You shall neither eat bread, nor drink water, nor return by the way that you came."
 10: So he went another way, and did not return by the way that he came to Bethel.
 11: Now there dwelt an old prophet in Bethel. And his sons came and told him all that the man of God had done that day in Bethel; the words also which he had spoken to the king, they told to their father.
 12: And their father said to them, "Which way did he go?" And his sons showed him the way which the man of God who came from Judah had gone.
 13: And he said to his sons, "Saddle the ass for me." So they saddled the ass for him and he mounted it.
 14: And he went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak; and he said to him, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?" And he said, "I am."
 15: Then he said to him, "Come home with me and eat bread."
 16: And he said, "I may not return with you, or go in with you; neither will I eat bread nor drink water with you in this place;
 17: for it was said to me by the word of the LORD, `You shall neither eat bread nor drink water there, nor return by the way that you came."
 18: And he said to him, "I also am a prophet as you are, and an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, saying, `Bring him back with you into your house that he may eat bread and drink water.'" But he lied to him.
 19: So he went back with him, and ate bread in his house, and drank water.
 20: And as they sat at the table, the word of the LORD came to the prophet who had brought him back;
 21: and he cried to the man of God who came from Judah, "Thus says the LORD, `Because you have disobeyed the word of the LORD, and have not kept the commandment which the LORD your God commanded you, 22: but have come back, and have eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which he said to you, "Eat no bread, and drink no water"; your body shall not come to the tomb of your fathers."

 23: And after he had eaten bread and drunk, he saddled the ass for the prophet whom he had brought back.
 24: And as he went away a lion met him on the road and killed him. And his body was thrown in the road, and the ass stood beside it; the lion also stood beside the body.
 25: And behold, men passed by, and saw the body thrown in the road, and the lion standing by the body. And they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.
 26: And when the prophet who had brought him back from the way heard of it, he said, "It is the man of God, who disobeyed the word of the LORD; therefore the LORD has given him to the lion, which has torn him and slain him, according to the word which the LORD spoke to him."
 27: And he said to his sons, "Saddle the ass for me." And they saddled it.
 28: And he went and found his body thrown in the road, and the ass and the lion standing beside the body. The lion had not eaten the body or torn the ass.
 29: And the prophet took up the body of the man of God and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back to the city, to mourn and to bury him.
 30: And he laid the body in his own grave; and they mourned over him, saying, "Alas, my brother!"
 31: And after he had buried him, he said to his sons, "When I die, bury me in the grave in which the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones."
 32: For the saying which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Sama'ria, shall surely come to pass."
 33: After this thing Jerobo'am did not turn from his evil way, but made priests for the high places again from among all the people; any who would, he consecrated to be priests of the high places.
 34: And this thing became sin to the house of Jerobo'am, so as to cut it off and to destroy it from the face of the earth.

Chapter 14 First Kings, chapter 14

1: At that time Ahi'jah the son of Jerobo'am fell sick.
 2: And Jerobo'am said to his wife, "Arise, and disguise yourself, that it be not known that you are the wife of Jerobo'am, and go to Shiloh; behold, Ahi'jah the prophet is there, who said of me that I should be king over this people.
 3: Take with you ten loaves, some cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him; he will tell you what shall happen to the child."
 4: Jerobo'am's wife did so; she arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahi'jah. Now Ahi'jah could not see, for his eyes were dim because of his age.
 5: And the LORD said to Ahi'jah, "Behold, the wife of Jerobo'am is coming to inquire of you concerning her son; for he is sick. Thus and thus shall you say to her." When she came, she pretended to be another woman.
 6: But when Ahi'jah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, he said, "Come in, wife of Jerobo'am; why do you pretend to be another? For I am charged with heavy tidings for you.
 7: Go, tell Jerobo'am, `Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: "Because I exalted you from among the people, and made you leader over my people Israel,
 8: and tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you; and yet you have not been like my servant David, who kept my commandments, and followed me with all his heart, doing only that which was right in my eyes,
 9: but you have done evil above all that were before you and have gone and made for yourself other gods, and molten images, provoking me to anger, and have cast me behind your back;
 10: therefore behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jerobo'am, and will cut off from Jerobo'am every male, both bond and free in Israel, and will utterly consume the house of Jerobo'am, as a man burns up dung until it is all gone.
 11: Any one belonging to Jerobo'am who dies in the city the dogs shall eat; and any one who dies in the open country the birds of the air shall eat; for the LORD has spoken it."
 12: Arise therefore, go to your house. When your feet enter the city, the child shall die.
 13: And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him; for he only of Jerobo'am shall come to the grave, because in him there is found something pleasing to the LORD, the God of Israel, in the house of Jerobo'am.
 14: Moreover the LORD will raise up for himself a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jerobo'am today. And henceforth 15: the LORD will smite Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water, and root up Israel out of this good land which he gave to their fathers, and scatter them beyond the Euphra'tes, because they have made their Ashe'rim, provoking the LORD to anger.

1Kings 14:15

v15: And the lord will strike Israel as a reed is shaken in the water and he will uproot Israel from this good land which he gave to their fathers therefore he will scatter them beyond the Euphrates river.

16: And he will give Israel up because of the sins of Jerobo'am, which he sinned and which he made Israel to sin."
 17: Then Jerobo'am's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah. And as she came to the threshold of the house, the child died.
 18: And all Israel buried him and mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant Ahi'jah the prophet.

19: Now the rest of the acts of Jerobo'am, how he warred and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

20: And the time that Jerobo'am reigned was twenty-two years; and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his stead.

21: Now Rehobo'am the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehobo'am was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. His mother's name was Na'amah the Ammonitess.

22: And Judah did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, more than all that their fathers had done.

23: For they also built for themselves high places, and pillars, and Ashe'rim on every high hill and under every green tree;

24: and there were also male cult prostitutes in the land. They did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD drove out before the people of Israel.

1Kings 14:24

v24: and there were also sodomites male homosexuals in the land. They did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD dispossessed before the people of Israel.

25: In the fifth year of King Rehobo'am, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem;

v25: Now it came to pass In the fifth year of King Rehobo'am, than Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem;

26: he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house; he took away everything. He also took away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made;

v26: And he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house inherited from Solomon and David; he took away everything. He also took away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made;

27: and King Rehobo'am made in their stead shields of bronze, and committed them to the hands of the officers of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house.

v27: and King Rehobo'am made in their stead shields of bronze, and committed them to the hands of the commanders of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house.

28: And as often as the king went into the house of the LORD, the guard bore them and brought them back to the guardroom.

v28: And as often as the king went into the house of the LORD, the guard bore them and afterward brought them back to the guardroom.

29: Now the rest of the acts of Rehobo'am, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

30: And there was war between Rehobo'am and Jerobo'am continually.

31: And Rehobo'am slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. His mother's name was Na'amah the Ammonitess. And Abi'jam his son reigned in his stead.

v31: And Rehobo'am, son of Solomon, rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the city of David. His mother's name was Na'amah the Ammonitess. And Abi'jam his son succeeded him

Chapter 15

First Kings, chapter 15

1: Now in the eighteenth year of King Jerobo'am the son of Nebat, Abi'jam began to reign over Judah.

2: He reigned for three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Ma'acah the daughter of Abish'alom.

v2: He reigned for three years in Jerusalem. His wife's name was Ma'acah the daughter of Absalom grand daughter of David.

3: And he walked in all the sins which his father did before him; and his heart was not wholly true to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father.

v3: And he walked in all the sins which his father committed before him; and his Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul was not complete with Jehovah is Elohim having no integrity, honor or doctrine, like the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul of David his father who had great integrity.

4: Nevertheless for David's sake the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, setting up his son after him, and establishing Jerusalem;

v4: Nevertheless for David's sake Jehovah his Elohim gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, to raise up a son after him, and to establish Jerusalem;

5: because David did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, and did not turn aside from anything that he commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uri'ah the Hittite.

v5: because David did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, and did not turn aside from anything which God commanded him all the days of his life, except in the case of Uri'ah the Hittite.

6: Now there was war between Rehobo'am and Jerobo'am all the days of his life.

7: The rest of the acts of Abi'jam, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? And there was war between Abi'jam and Jerobo'am.

8: And Abi'jam slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the city of David. And Asa his son reigned in his stead.

9: In the twentieth year of Jerobo'am king of Israel Asa began to reign over Judah,

10: and he reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Ma'acah the daughter of Abish'alom.

11: And Asa did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, as David his father had done.

v11: And Asa manufactured from Metabolized Bible Doctrine integrity in the eyes of Jehovah, like David his ancestor had done.

12: He put away the male cult prostitutes out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made.

v12: He, Asa, put away the Sodomites the male homosexuals from the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made.

13: He also removed Ma'acah his mother from being queen mother because she had an abominable image made for Ashe'rah; and Asa cut down her image and burned it at the brook Kidron.

14: But the high places were not taken away. Nevertheless the heart of Asa was wholly true to the LORD all his days.

15: And he brought into the house of the LORD the votive gifts of his father and his own votive gifts, silver, and gold, and vessels.

16: And there was war between Asa and Ba'asha king of Israel all their days.

17: Ba'asha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might permit no one to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

18: Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house, and gave them into the hands of his servants; and King Asa sent them to Ben-ha'dad the son of Tabrim'mon, the son of He'zion, king of Syria, who dwelt in Damascus, saying,

19: "Let there be a league between me and you, as between my father and your father: behold, I am sending to you a present of silver and gold; go, break your league with Ba'asha king of Israel, that he may withdraw from me."

20: And Ben-ha'dad hearkened to King Asa, and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel, and conquered Ijon, Dan, A'bel-beth-ma'acah, and all Chin'neroth, with all the land of Naph'tali.

21: And when Ba'asha heard of it, he stopped building Ramah, and he dwelt in Tirzah.

22: Then King Asa made a proclamation to all Judah, none was exempt, and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber, with which Ba'asha had been building; and with them King Asa built Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah.

23: Now the rest of all the acts of Asa, all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? But in his old age he was diseased in his feet.

24: And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Jehosh'aphat his son reigned in his stead.

25: Nadab the son of Jerobo'am began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah; and he reigned over Israel two years.

26: He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin which he made Israel to sin.

27: Ba'asha the son of Ahi'jah, of the house of Is'sachar, conspired against him; and Ba'asha struck him down at Gib'bethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gib'bethon.

28: So Ba'asha killed him in the third year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead.

29: And as soon as he was king, he killed all the house of Jerobo'am; he left to the house of Jerobo'am not one that breathed, until he had destroyed it, according to the word of the LORD which he spoke by his servant Ahi'jah the Shi'lonite;

30: it was for the sins of Jerobo'am which he sinned and which he made Israel to sin, and because of the anger to which he provoked the LORD, the God of Israel.

31: Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

32: And there was war between Asa and Ba'asha king of Israel all their days.

33: In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Ba'asha the son of Ahi'jah began to reign over all Israel at Tirzah, and reigned twenty-four years.

34: He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jerobo'am and in his sin which he made Israel to sin.

Chapter 16

First Kings, chapter 16

1: And the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hana'ni against Ba'asha, saying,

2: "Since I exalted you out of the dust and made you leader over my people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jerobo'am, and have made my people Israel to sin, provoking me to anger with their sins,

3: behold, I will utterly sweep away Ba'asha and his house, and I will make your house like the house of Jerobo'am the son of Nebat.

4: Any one belonging to Ba'asha who dies in the city the dogs shall eat; and any one of his who dies in the field the birds of the air shall eat."

5: Now the rest of the acts of Ba'asha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

6: And Ba'asha slept with his fathers, and was buried at Tirzah; and Elah his son reigned in his stead.

7: Moreover the word of the LORD came by the prophet Jehu the son of Hana'ni against Ba'asha and his house, both because of all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jerobo'am, and also because he destroyed it.

8: In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Ba'asha began to reign over Israel in Tirzah, and reigned two years.

9: But his servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him. When he was at Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the household in Tirzah, 10: Zimri came in and struck him down and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead.

11: When he began to reign, as soon as he had seated himself on his throne, he killed all the house of Ba'asha; he did not leave him a single male of his kinsmen or his friends.

12: Thus Zimri destroyed all the house of Ba'asha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke against Ba'asha by Jehu the prophet, 13: for all the sins of Ba'asha and the sins of Elah his son which they sinned, and which they made Israel to sin, provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their idols.

14: Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

15: In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. Now the troops were encamped against Gib'bethon, which belonged to the Philistines, 16: and the troops who were encamped heard it said, "Zimri has conspired, and he has killed the king"; therefore all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp.

17: So Omri went up from Gib'bethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.

18: And when Zimri saw that the city was taken, he went into the citadel of the king's house, and burned the king's house over him with fire, and died, 19: because of his sins which he committed, doing evil in the sight of the LORD, walking in the way of Jerobo'am, and for his sin which he committed, making Israel to sin.

20: Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and the conspiracy which he made, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

21: Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts; half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king, and half followed Omri.

22: But the people who followed Omri overcame the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath; so Tibni died, and Omri became king.

23: In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel, and reigned for twelve years; six years he reigned in Tirzah.

24: He bought the hill of Sama'ria from Shemer for two talents of silver; and he fortified the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, Sama'ria, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill.

25: Omri did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and did more evil than all who were before him.

v25: Omri did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and acted more wickedly than all who were before him.

26: For he walked in all the way of Jerobo'am the son of Nebat, and in the sins which he made Israel to sin, provoking the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger by their idols.

v26: For he walked in all the way of Jerobo'am the son of Nebat, and in the sins which he made Israel to sin, provoking the LORD, the God of Israel, with their vanities and demonistic Idolatry.

27: Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and the might that he showed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

28: And Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Sama'ria; and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

29: In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab the son of Omri began to reign over Israel, and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Sama'ria twenty-two years.

30: And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD more than all that were before him.

v30: And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD more than all that were before him.

31: And as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jerobo'am the son of Nebat, he took for wife Jez'ebel the daughter of Ethba'al king of the Sido'nians, and went and served Ba'al, and worshiped him.

v31: And it came to pass as if it had been a trivial thing for him (King Ahab) to walk in the sins of Jeraboahm the son of Nebat, that He (Ahab) took to wife Jezebel the Daughter of Ethbaal the king of the Tsidonians (tyre – Phoenicians) consequently HE (Ahab) went (to Tyre) and served Baal and Worshiped him

32: He erected an altar for Ba'al in the house of Ba'al, which he built in Sama'ria.

1Kings 16:32

v32: and he raised up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal which he had built in Sumaria, 33: And Ahab made an Ashe'rah. Ahab did more to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him.

1Kings 16:33

v33: and Ahab made a Grove and Ahab did more to provoke the Lord God into Anger than All the Kings before Him (Through Infiltration of Baal

34: In his days Hi'el of Bethel built Jericho; he laid its foundation at the cost of Abi'ram his first-born, and set up its gates at the cost of his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.

Chapter 17
First Kings, chapter 17

1: Now Eli'jah the Tishbite, of Tishbe in Gilead, said to Ahab, "As the LORD the God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall be neither dew nor rain these years, except by my word."

v1: Now Eli'jah of Tishbe who settled in Gilead, said to Ahab, "By the life of invisible LORD Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, the God of Israel, before whom I stand, there shall be neither dew nor rain these years, except by my word."

2: And the word of the LORD came to him,

v2: Therefore the word of the LORD came to him, overtly and verbally saying,

3: "Depart from here and turn eastward, and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, that is east of the Jordan.

v3: "Depart from here and turn eastward, and hide yourself in the brook Cherith, that is east of the Jordan.

4: You shall drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there."

v4: Furthermore it shall be that you shall drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to provide for you there." 7

5: So he went and did according to the word of the LORD; he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith that is east of the Jordan.

v5: So he moved out in organized thinking and marching and did according to the word of the LORD; and from Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul he went in obedience of Faith Rest and lived by the brook Cherith that is east of the Jordan.

6: And the ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening; and he drank from the brook.

v6: And the ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening; and he drank from the brook.

7: And after a while the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land.

v7: And after a while the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land.

8: Then the word of the LORD came to him,

v8: Then the word of the LORD came to him, overtly and verbally saying

9: "Arise, go to Zar'ephath, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there. Behold, I have commanded a widow there to feed you."

v9: Get Up, march quickly over the mountains 100 miles to the town of Zar'ephath a city of Phoenicia, which belongs to Sidon, and YOU stay there during the drought. Behold, I have issued a decree or order from Eternity Past that a widow there to provide for you."

10: So he arose and went to Zar'ephath; and when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks; and he called to her and said, "Bring me a little water in a vessel, that I may drink."

v10: So he arose and forced marched over rough terrain 100 miles to Zar'ephath the smelting town; and when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a starving widow was there gathering 2 sticks; and he called to her and said, "Please, Bring me a little water in a jar, that I may drink."

11: And as she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, "Bring me a morsel of bread in your hand."

v11: Now as she was going to get the water, he raised his voice and called to her and said, "Please, Bring me a mouthful or bite of bread in your hand."

12: And she said, "As the LORD your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of meal in a jar, and a little oil in a cruse; and now, I am gathering a couple of sticks, that I may go in and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it, and die."

v12: And she identifying Elijah as a Jewish believer said, "As the LORD your God lives, I have no bread nothing baked, only a handful of meal in a jar, and a little oil in a cruse; and now, I am gathering a 2 sticks, that I may go in and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it, and die."

13: And Eli'jah said to her, "Fear not; go and do as you have said; but first make me a little cake of it and bring it to me, and afterward make for yourself and your son.

v13: Then Eli'jah said to her, "Fear not; go and do as you have said; but first make me a little bread cake from the flour and oil and bring it out to me, and afterward you can make some for yourself and your son.

14: For thus says the LORD the God of Israel, "The jar of meal shall not be spent, and the cruse of oil shall not fail, until the day that the LORD sends rain upon the earth."

v14: For so Jehovah, the LORD Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ the God of Israel has spoken, "The bowl of flour shall not be exhausted, nor will the jar of oil be empty, until the day that the LORD sends rain upon the ground."

15: And she went and did as Eli'jah said; and she, and he, and her household ate for many days.

v15: Therefore she went and manufactured a meal from what she had and did according to the doctrine of Eli'jah; Therefore they all ate, she, and he, and her household day after day after day.

16: The jar of meal was not spent, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD which he spoke by Eli'jah.

v16: The barrel of flour was not empty, the Jar of oil did not diminish, according to the word of the LORD which he spoke through Eli'jah.

17: After this the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became ill; and his illness was so severe that there was no breath left in him.

v17: Now is came to pass after several years of these things that the son of the woman, the mistress or owner of the house, became sick; consequently his illness was so severe that the spark of life did not remain in him.

18: And she said to Eli'jah, "What have you against me, O man of God? You have come to me to bring my sin to remembrance, and to cause the death of my son!"

v18: And she said to Eli'jah, "What do I have to do with you, or What do we have in common, I a sinful woman you a man of God? Have you come to me to call to remembrance my depravity or sinfulness or iniquity, and to cause the death of my son!"

19: And he said to her, "Give me your son." And he took him from her bosom, and carried him up into the upper chamber, where he lodged, and laid him upon his own bed.

v19: And he replied commanding her, "Give me your son." Then he took him from her lap, and carried him up the grand stairs into the master bedroom, where he was living, and laid him stretched out on the bed.

20: And he cried to the LORD, "O LORD my God, hast thou brought calamity even upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by slaying her son?"

v20: Now he called to the LORD and said in prayer, "Oh my LORD, Even on the widow with whom I am staying have you brought disaster causing evil by causing the death of her son?"

21: Then he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried to the LORD, "O LORD my God, let this child's soul come into him again."

v21: Then he stretched his warm body out upon the child three times, and he called to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, Please! let the life or soul of this boy return within him."

22: And the LORD hearkened to the voice of Eli'jah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived.

v22: Now the LORD, Jehovah, heard the voice of Eli'jah; so that the soul of the young boy returned within him again, and he lived.

23: And Eli'jah took the child, and brought him down from the upper chamber into the house, and delivered him to his mother; and Eli'jah said, "See, your son lives."

v23: And Eli'jah caused the young boy to walk down from the master bedroom into the lower house, and they walked together delivering him to his mother; and Eli'jah said, "See, your son is alive."

24: And the woman said to Eli'jah, "Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth."

v24: Then the woman said to Eli'jah, "Now I am in the process of learning that you are a man of God having authority in spiritual matters, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is doctrine or absolute truth."

Chapter 18

First Kings, chapter 18

1: After many days the word of the LORD came to Eli'jah, in the third year, saying, "Go, show yourself to Ahab; and I will send rain upon the earth."

v1: Now it came to pass after the elapse of many days that the word of the LORD came to Eli'jah, in the third year, saying, "Go, show yourself to Ahab the king; in order that I may send rain upon the ground."

2: So Eli'jah went to show himself to Ahab. Now the famine was severe in Sama'ria.

v2: So Elijah was motivated to obey implicitly the divine command and went to present himself to Ahab. Now the economic depression was severe in Samaria.

3: And Ahab called Obadi'ah, who was over the household. (Now Obadi'ah revered the LORD greatly;

v3: And about the same time, Ahab had called Obadiah, who was over the household the master of the horse, second in command of the kingdom. (Now as a matter of explanation, Obadiah was one who feared or was frightened of or respected the LORD exceedingly;

4: and when Jez'ebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, Obadi'ah took a hundred prophets and hid them by fifties in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.)

v4: So it came to pass when Jezebel was killing the prophets of the LORD, Obadiah used an underground rebellion against Baal to take a hundred prophets and caused them to be hidden in caves by fifties, and kept on providing them with bread and water and sustained their security.)

5: And Ahab said to Obadi'ah, "Go through the land to all the springs of water and to all the valleys; perhaps we may find grass and save the horses and mules alive, and not lose some of the animals."

v5: Then said Ahab to Obadiah, "March through the land to all the springs of water and through all the wadis and arroyos; perhaps we will find grass and keep both the horses and mules alive, and not have to slaughter some of the cattle."

6: So they divided the land between them to pass through it; Ahab went in one direction by himself, and Obadi'ah went in another direction by himself.

v6: So they divided the land into 2 spheres between them to pass through it also to make a reconnaissance for grass ; Ahab went in one direction by himself with a reconnaissance force, and Obadiah went in another direction by himself with his reconnaissance force.

7: And as Obadi'ah was on the way, behold, Eli'jah met him; and Obadi'ah recognized him, and fell on his face, and said, "Is it you, my lord Eli'jah?"

v7: Now Obadiah was on the road, and behold Elijah met him; and when Obadiah recognized him, he fell on his face, and said, "Is that you, my lord Elijah?"

8: And he answered him, "It is I. Go, tell your lord, 'Behold, Eli'jah is here.'"

v8: And he, Elijah, answered replying to him, "Right, I am, Go Move Out, and tell your real Lord Ahab, 'Elijah here.'" (Eliphtical for toughness)

9: And he said, "Wherein have I sinned, that you would give your servant into the hand of Ahab, to kill me?"

v9: And he, Obidiah, said, "In what manner have I sinned, that you would give your servant into the hand of Ahab, to cause my death?"

10: As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom whither my lord has not sent to seek you; and when they would say, 'He is not here,' he would take an oath of the kingdom or nation, that they had not found you.

V10: By the life of the LORD your God, there is no nation or kingdom where my lord Ahab has not sent to search for you; furthermore when they said, 'He is not here,' he made that kingdom or nation take an Oath, that they had not found you.

11: And now you say, 'Go, tell your lord, "Behold, Eli'jah is here.'"

v11: And now you are saying, 'Go, tell your lord, "Elijah is here.'"

12: And as soon as I have gone from you, the Spirit of the LORD will carry you whither I know not; and so, when I come and tell Ahab and he cannot find you, he will kill me, although I your servant have revered the LORD from my youth.

v12: And it will come to pass as soon as I leave you, the God the Holy Spirit will carry you away to an unknown place; and therefore, when I go and tell Ahab and he cannot find you, then he will slaughter or murder me, even though I your servant has respected or feared the LORD from my youth.

13: Has it not been told my lord what I did when Jez'ebel killed the prophets of the LORD, how I hid a hundred men of the LORD'S prophets by fifties in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

v13: Has it not been told to you my lord what I have done when Jezebel was slaughtering, killing the prophets of the LORD, how I hid a hundred men of the LORD'S prophets by fifties in a cave, and I provided for them and sustained them with bread and water?

14: And now you say, 'Go, tell your lord, "Behold, Eli'jah is here"; and he will kill me."

v14: And now you keep saying, 'Go, tell your lord, "behold, Elijah is here"; therefore he will violently murder me.

15: And Eli'jah said, "As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to him today."

v15: And Elijah replied, "By the life, essence or attributes of the Lord of the armies, before whom I stand, Today I will surely show myself to Ahab."

16: So Obadi'ah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Eli'jah.

v16: So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and reported to him; with the result that Ahab went to meet Elijah

17: When Ahab saw Eli'jah, Ahab said to him, "Is it you, you troubler of Israel?"

v17: And it came to pass when Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab immediately accused him saying, "Is that you, you troubler of Israel?"

18: And he answered, "I have not troubled Israel; but you have, and your father's house, because you have forsaken the commandments of the LORD and followed the Ba'als.

v18: And he replied, "I have not troubled Israel; but you, and the dynasty of your father Omri, because you have forsaken or deserted the Lord by rejection of Bible Doctrine the commandments of the LORD and you have gone after or followed all the Baals 19: Now therefore send and gather all Israel to me at Mount Carmel, and the four hundred and fifty prophets of Ba'al and the four hundred prophets of Ashe'rah, who eat at Jez'ebel's table."

v19: Now therefore, says Elijah, send a message, assemble for me at Mount Carmel, and the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal and the and the four hundred prophets of Ashe'rah, who were totally supported by Jezebel and lived in the palace as the state religion."

20: So Ahab sent to all the people of Israel, and gathered the prophets together at Mount Carmel.

v20: So Ahab sent to all the people of Israel, and assembled the prophets together at Mount Carmel.

21: And Eli'jah came near to all the people, and said, "How long will you go limping with two different opinions? If the LORD is God, follow him; but if Ba'al, then follow him." And the people did not answer him a word.

v21: And Elijah, with great courage, advanced or came near to or approached all the people, still being able to see all of them, and said, "How long will you continue limping or vacillating between two divided or antithetical opinions? If Jehovah is the God, march under authority of Bible Doctrine, strict discipline and logistics and follow him; If the Ba'al cult, follow it." But the people did not answer him a word.

22: Then Eli'jah said to the people, "I, even I only, am left a prophet of the LORD; but Ba'al's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

v22: Then Elijah said to the people, "I alone remain the only prophet of the LORD Jehovah; but the prophets of Baal are four hundred and fifty men.

23: Let two bulls be given to us; and let them choose one bull for themselves, and cut it in pieces and lay it on the wood, but put no fire to it; and I will prepare the other bull and lay it on the wood, and put no fire to it.

v23: Therefore let them give to us 2 oxen; and let them choose one ox for themselves, and (a suggestion) cut it into pieces (they did not do this but burned sacrifices alive) and place it on the wood, but do not put fire to it; and I will prepare the other ox and lay it on the wood, and I will not put fire to it either.

24: And you call on the name of your god and I will call on the name of the LORD; and the God who answers by fire, he is God." And all the people answered, "It is well spoken."

v24: Then you call on the name of your god in your demonic system of prayer and I will call on the name of the LORD Jehovah; and it shall come to pass consequently that the God who answers by fire, he is the true God." And all the PEOPLE answered, "Good the Word, or well spoken, good idea."

25: Then Eli'jah said to the prophets of Ba'al, "Choose for yourselves one bull and prepare it first, for you are many; and call on the name of your god, but put no fire to it."

v25: Then Eli'jah said to the prophets of Ba'al, "Choose for yourselves one ox and prepare it your way first, for you are the many; then call in the name of your god, but do not put a fire under it."

26: And they took the bull which was given them, and they prepared it, and called on the name of Ba'al from morning until noon, saying, "O Ba'al, answer us!" But there was no voice, and no one answered. And they limped about the altar which they had made.

v26: And they violently seized the bull Ox which was donated to them, and they prepared it as a sacrifice, and called on the name of Ba'al from morning until noon, saying, "O Ba'al, answer us!" But no voice, and no answer at all. Consequently then they made a frenzied emotional ceremonial dance under demon possession about the altar which they had made.

27: And at noon Eli'jah mocked them, saying, "Cry aloud, for he is a god; either he is musing, or he has gone aside, or he is on a journey, or perhaps he is asleep and must be awakened."

v27: Now it came to pass at noon with the sun at its zenith and the sun God at its greatest power that Eli'jah mocked, ridiculed, derided, taunted, and jeered at them, and said, "shout with a louder voice he may be deaf, for he many gods; either he is occupied pursuing women for seduction or involvement is distorted sex or he is in deep thought as in meditation or has gone out to lunch, or he has stepped out for a contest, perhaps he is on a journey traveling the world, or there is still hope, perhaps he is close and asleep after a drunken orgy and must be awakened."

28: And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their custom with swords and lances, until the blood gushed out upon them.

v28: So they cried with a loud voice, and gashed and slashed and cut themselves according to their custom with swords and spears, until the blood gushed out of them.

29: And as midday passed, they raved on until the time of the offering of the oblation, but there was no voice; no one answered, no one heeded.

v29: And it came to pass when noon was passed, they continued their frantic screaming and raving like madmen until the evening sacrifice, yet there was no voice from their god; no one answered, and furthermore no one paid any attention.

30: Then Eli'jah said to all the people, "Come near to me"; and all the people came near to him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that had been thrown down;

v30: Then Eli'jah said to all the people inviting them, "Approach and Come near to or gather around me"; and all the people came near to him. First he repaired the altar of the LORD which had been destroyed;

31: Eli'jah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD came, saying, "Israel shall be your name";

v31: Now Eli'jah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD came, saying, "Israel shall be your name";

32: and with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD. And he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed.

v32: and with the stones he constructed an altar in the name of the LORD, and he dug a trench around the altar, as great as would contain or allow the planting of 16 or more quarts of seed.

33: And he put the wood in order, and cut the bull in pieces and laid it on the wood. And he said, "Fill four jars with water, and pour it on the burnt offering, and on the wood."

v33: Then he carefully and specifically arranged the wood, and put the live ox on the altar and cut his carotid arteries allow the blood to flow over the altar and wood then when it was dead he cut the ox in pieces and laid it on the wood. Finally he said, "Fill four barrels with water, and pour it on THE burnt offering, and on the wood."

34: And he said, "Do it a second time"; and they did it a second time. And he said, "Do it a third time"; and they did it a third time.

v34: And then he said, "Do it a second time"; and they did it a second time. Finally then he said, "Do it a third time"; and they did it a third time.

35: And the water ran round about the altar, and filled the trench also with water.

v35: With the result that the water flowed round the altar saturating it, furthermore he filled the trench also with water.

36: And at the time of the offering of the oblation, Eli'jah the prophet came near and said, "O LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things at thy word.

v36: And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the Minchah, Elijah the Prophet approached the altar and prayed, "Oh Lord Jehovah, God of Abraham Isaac and Jacob, (Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ), today, let it be known that you are the God of Israel and that I am merely your servant and that by means of your doctrine I have prepared all these things.

37: Answer me, O LORD, answer me, that this people may know that thou, O LORD, art God, and that thou hast turned their hearts back."

v37: Answer me I AM I AM, Jehovah, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, answer me (Essence of God rationale from the burning bush), that this people may know that you Oh Jehovah are the God or Elohim of Israel and that you have caused to turn or change the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of their Soul backwards again to Laws of Divine Establishment and client nation principles."

38: Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

v38: Then the fire of Jehovah fell down suddenly from the sky and consumed the burnt offering and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and evaporated all the water that had been in the trench dug by the heathens

39: And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces; and they said, "The LORD, he is God; the LORD, he is God."

v39: And when all the people saw all that the fire destroyed, they fell on their faces; and they said, "Jehovah, he is the God; Jehovah, he is the God."

40: And Eli'jah said to them, "Seize the prophets of Ba'al; let not one of them escape." And they seized them; and Eli'jah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and killed them there.

v40: Then Eli'jah said to them, "Capture or Seize violently the prophets of Ba'al using whatever force needed; let not one of them escape." And the people responded immediately and they violently seized them; and Eli'jah took them down to the brook Kishon, and slaughtered them there.

41: And Eli'jah said to Ahab, "Go up, eat and drink; for there is a sound of the rushing of rain."

v41: And Eli'jah ordered Ahab, "Go up, eat fine food and drink alcohol; for there is the sound of heavy of rain (Faith Rest Drill 3rd stage)."

42: So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Eli'jah went up to the top of Carmel; and he bowed himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees.

v42: So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. But Eli'jah went up to a promontory headland on top of Carmel; and he crouched or squatted himself down upon the ground, and put his face between his knees. (James 5:17-18)

43: And he said to his servant, "Go up now, look toward the sea." And he went up and looked, and said, "There is nothing." And he said, "Go again seven times."

v43: And he, Elijah, said to his young lad, the widows son, "Go up or ascend now, look around toward the Mediterranean sea." And he walked up ascending and scanned the horizon carefully, and reported saying, "There is nothing." therefore, 7 times he, Elijah, said, "Go back up, go back up, go back up, go back up, go back up, go back up, go back up."

44: And at the seventh time he said, "Behold, a little cloud like a man's hand is rising out of the sea." And he said, "Go up, say to Ahab, 'Prepare your chariot and go down, lest the rain stop you.'"

v44: And it came to pass that on the seventh trip up to the promontory he, the young man, reported, "Behold, a cloud the size of a man's hand rising out from the sea." And he, Elijah, said, "Go up and tell Ahab, 'Harness your chariot, do not let anything detain you and go down, lest the rain stop you.'"

45: And in a little while the heavens grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode and went to Jezreel.

v45: Meanwhile it came to pass that the sky grew black with clouds the wind rose and heavy rain fell but Ahab rode off and came to Jezreel the capital of the Northern Kingdom.

46: And the hand of the LORD was on Eli'jah; and he girded up his loins and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

v46: And the hand, the power and inspiration of the LORD was on Eli'jah; and he tucked his robe into his belt and out ran Ahab the 6 miles to the entrance of Jezreel.

Chapter 19

First Kings, chapter 19

1: Ahab told Jez'ebel all that Eli'jah had done, and how he had slain all the prophets with the sword.

v1: Now Ahab told Jez'ebel everything that Eli'jah had done, and how he had killed, all the prophets of baal with the sword.

2: Then Jez'ebel sent a messenger to Eli'jah, saying, "So may the gods do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life as the life of one of them by this time tomorrow."

v2: Then Jez'ebel sent a messenger to Eli'jah, saying, "So may God do to me, and cause to add more severely doing something worse than death, if by this time tomorrow, I do not make your life and soul like the life and soul of one of the prophets of baal you have killed."

3: Then he was afraid, and he arose and went for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there.

v3: As a result he became extremely frightened, and he, Elijah, jumped up in panic and ran 230 miles for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongs to Judah, and deserted his young man, the widow's son from Zerapheth there.

4: But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a broom tree; and he asked that he might die, saying, "It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am no better than my fathers."

v4: But he himself went a day's journey into the desert, and came and sat down under a broom tree; then he prayed for his life for himself to die, saying, "Too much; Now, I've Had it, Oh Jehovah, take my soul and life; because I am no better than my ancestors."

5: And he lay down and slept under a broom tree; and behold, an angel touched him, and said to him, "Arise and eat."

v5: And he lay down and slept from exhaustion under the broom tree; now behold or look at this, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ as a theophany repeatedly touched him, and he ordered him, "Get Up, Eat."

6: And he looked, and behold, there was at his head a cake baked on hot stones and a jar of water. And he ate and drank, and lay down again.

v6: And he looked around, and behold, there was by his head a loaf of bread baked on hot stones and a jug of water. Consequently he ate and drank, and returned to the broom tree and lay down again to sleep.

7: And the angel of the LORD came again a second time, and touched him, and said, "Arise and eat, else the journey will be too great for you."

v7: And the angel of the LORD, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, came again a second time, and touched him, and said, "Get up, eat, else the journey will be too great for you."

8: And he arose, and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God.

v8: And he got up, and he ate and drank, and marched in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb or Sinai the mount of God.

9: And there he came to a cave, and lodged there; and behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said to him, "What are you doing here, Eli'jah?"

v9: Now there he entered a cave, and spent the night there; and behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and the Lord said to him, "Elijah, What are you doing here in this place or cave?"

10: He said, "I have been very jealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the people of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thy altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away."

v10: And He replied, "I have most certainly been extremely zealous for Jehovah, the God of the armies; for the people of Israel have deserted or forsaken your covenant and the Laws of Divine Establishment and rejection of Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ as the God of Israel thus Bible Doctrine, they have pulled down and destroyed your altars, and slaughtered your prophets with the sword; and I, even I myself alone remain; and they constantly seek my life, to violently take it away."

11: And he said, "Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD." And behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake;

v11: Therefore he, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, Jehovah of the armies, God of Israel, Replied, "GET OUT of the CAVE, Go outside, and Go stand on the mountain face to face with the LORD recognizing his authority in teaching Bible Doctrine." And behold, Jehovah, God the Holy Spirit, was passing by, and a great and strong wind like a tornado representing human power outside a system, tore the mountains apart which represent stabilized establishment systems, and broke in pieces the rocks before the LORD, but the Jehovah was not in the wind because he does not authorize power outside the system; and after the wind an earthquake showing again great human power abuse or prejudice, but the LORD was not in the earthquake and does not authorize power abuse nor prejudice;

12: and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a still small voice.

v12: and after the earthquake a fire like those who seek to destroy or confiscate property of others, but the Jehovah was not in the fire and does not authorize property destruction; and after the fire a voice of silence atomic having great power, or a sound of a low gentle whisper.

13: And when Eli'jah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. And behold, there came a voice to him, and said, "What are you doing here, Eli'jah?"

v13: And it came to pass when Eli'jah heard it, he covered his face with his mantle or collar not understanding or not accepting it and he went out again and stood at the entrance of the cave. And behold again, a voice came to him, and said, "What are you doing here, Eli'jah?"

14: He said, "I have been very jealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the people of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thy altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away."

v14: and He, Elijah, self righteously replied, "I have been extremely zealous for Jehovah, the God of the armies; for the people of Israel have deserted your covenant, they have destroyed your altars, they have slaughtered your prophets with the sword; and I, even I alone remain; and they seek my life, to take it away."

15: And the LORD said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; and when you arrive, you shall anoint Haz'ael to be king over Syria;

v15: And the LORD said to him, "March, MOVE OUT, return in disgrace on your way to the desert to Damascus; and when you get there, you will appoint or commission Haz'ael a young officer to become king over Aram or Syria;

16: and Jehu the son of Nimshi you shall anoint to be king over Israel; and Eli'sha the son of Shaphat of A'bel-meho'lah you shall anoint to be prophet in your place.

v16: and Jehu the grandson of Nimshi you shall appoint and commission to become king over Israel; and Eli'sha the son of Shaphat of A'bel-meho'lah you shall commission and anoint to be prophet in your place.

17: And him who escapes from the sword of Haz'ael shall Jehu slay; and him who escapes from the sword of Jehu shall Eli'sha slay.

v17: And it shall come to pass that the one who escapes from the sword of Haz'ael the syrian civil ruler shall Jehu the Israeli civil ruler put to death through Law Enforcement; and him who escapes from the sword of Jehu the civil ruler shall Eli'sha cause divine judgment in the Sin Unto Death.

18: Yet I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Ba'al, and every mouth that has not kissed him."

v18: Furthermore I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all that have not bowed a knee to Ba'al, and every mouth that has not kissed him by engaging in all the aspects of the phallic cult."

19: So he departed from there, and found Eli'sha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing, with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he was with the twelfth. Eli'jah passed by him and cast his mantle upon him.

20: And he left the oxen, and ran after Eli'jah, and said, "Let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you." And he said to him, "Go back again; for what have I done to you?"

21: And he returned from following him, and took the yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh with the yokes of the oxen, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he arose and went after Eli'jah, and ministered to him.

Chapter 20

First Kings, chapter 20

1: Ben-ha'dad the king of Syria gathered all his army together; thirty-two kings were with him, and horses and chariots; and he went up and besieged Sama'ria, and fought against it.

2: And he sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel, and said to him, "Thus says Ben-ha'dad:

3: `Your silver and your gold are mine; your fairest wives and children also are mine.'"

4: And the king of Israel answered, "As you say, my lord, O king, I am yours, and all that I have."

5: The messengers came again, and said, "Thus says Ben-ha'dad: `I sent to you, saying, "Deliver to me your silver and your gold, your wives and your children";

6: nevertheless I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house and the houses of your servants, and lay hands on whatever pleases them, and take it away.'"

7: Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, "Mark, now, and see how this man is seeking trouble; for he sent to me for my wives and my children, and for my silver and my gold, and I did not refuse him."

8: And all the elders and all the people said to him, "Do not heed or consent."

9: So he said to the messengers of Ben-ha'dad, "Tell my lord the king, `All that you first demanded of your servant I will do; but this thing I cannot do.'"

10: Ben-ha'dad sent to him and said, "The gods do so to me, and more also, if the dust of Sama'ria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people who follow me."

11: And the king of Israel answered, "Tell him, `Let not him that girds on his armor boast himself as he that puts it off.'"

12: When Ben-ha'dad heard this message as he was drinking with the kings in the booths, he said to his men, "Take your positions." And they took their positions against the city.

13: And behold, a prophet came near to Ahab king of Israel and said, "Thus says the LORD, Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, I will give it into your hand this day; and you shall know that I am the LORD."

14: And Ahab said, "By whom?" He said, "Thus says the LORD, By the servants of the governors of the districts." Then he said, "Who shall begin the battle?" He answered, "You."

15: Then he mustered the servants of the governors of the districts, and they were two hundred and thirty-two; and after them he mustered all the people of Israel, seven thousand.

16: And they went out at noon, while Ben-ha'dad was drinking himself drunk in the booths, he and the thirty-two kings who helped him.

17: The servants of the governors of the districts went out first. And Ben-ha'dad sent out scouts, and they reported to him, "Men are coming out from Sama'ria."

18: He said, "If they have come out for peace, take them alive; or if they have come out for war, take them alive."

19: So these went out of the city, the servants of the governors of the districts, and the army which followed them.

20: And each killed his man; the Syrians fled and Israel pursued them, but Ben-ha'dad king of Syria escaped on a horse with horsemen.

21: And the king of Israel went out, and captured the horses and chariots, and killed the Syrians with a great slaughter.

22: Then the prophet came near to the king of Israel, and said to him, "Come, strengthen yourself, and consider well what you have to do; for in the spring the king of Syria will come up against you."

23: And the servants of the king of Syria said to him, "Their gods are gods of the hills, and so they were stronger than we; but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they."

24: And do this: remove the kings, each from his post, and put commanders in their places;

25: and muster an army like the army that you have lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot; then we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they." And he hearkened to their voice, and did so.

26: In the spring Ben-ha'dad mustered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek, to fight against Israel.

27: And the people of Israel were mustered, and were provisioned, and went against them; the people of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of goats, but the Syrians filled the country.

28: And a man of God came near and said to the king of Israel, "Thus says the LORD, `Because the Syrians have said, "The LORD is a god of the hills but he is not a god of the valleys," therefore I will give all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD.'"

29: And they encamped opposite one another seven days. Then on the seventh day the battle was joined; and the people of Israel smote of the Syrians a hundred thousand foot soldiers in one day.

30: And the rest fled into the city of Aphek; and the wall fell upon twenty-seven thousand men that were left. Ben-ha'dad also fled, and entered an inner chamber in the city.

31: And his servants said to him, "Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings; let us put sackcloth on our loins and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will spare your life."

32: So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and went to the king of Israel and said, "Your servant Ben-ha'dad says, 'Pray, let me live.'" And he said, "Does he still live? He is my brother."

33: Now the men were watching for an omen, and they quickly took it up from him and said, "Yes, your brother Ben-ha'dad." Then he said, "Go and bring him." Then Ben-ha'dad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot.

34: And Ben-ha'dad said to him, "The cities which my father took from your father I will restore; and you may establish bazaars for yourself in Damascus, as my father did in Sama'ria." And Ahab said, "I will let you go on these terms." So he made a covenant with him and let him go.

35: And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his fellow at the command of the LORD, "Strike me, I pray." But the man refused to strike him.

36: Then he said to him, "Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as you have gone from me, a lion shall kill you." And as soon as he had departed from him, a lion met him and killed him.

37: Then he found another man, and said, "Strike me, I pray." And the man struck him, smiting and wounding him.

38: So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, disguising himself with a bandage over his eyes.

39: And as the king passed, he cried to the king and said, "Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and behold, a soldier turned and brought a man to me, and said, 'Keep this man; if by any means he be missing, your life shall be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.'

40: And as your servant was busy here and there, he was gone." The king of Israel said to him, "So shall your judgment be; you yourself have decided it."

41: Then he made haste to take the bandage away from his eyes; and the king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets.

42: And he said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Because you have let go out of your hand the man whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore your life shall go for his life, and your people for his people.'"

43: And the king of Israel went to his house resentful and sullen, and came to Sama'ria.

Chapter 21

First Kings, chapter 21

1: Now Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard in Jezreel, beside the palace of Ahab king of Sama'ria.

2: And after this Ahab said to Naboth, "Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a vegetable garden, because it is near my house; and I will give you a better vineyard for it; or, if it seems good to you, I will give you its value in money."

3: But Naboth said to Ahab, "The LORD forbid that I should give you the inheritance of my fathers."

4: And Ahab went into his house vexed and sullen because of what Naboth the Jezreelite had said to him; for he had said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." And he lay down on his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no food.

5: But Jez'ebel his wife came to him, and said to him, "Why is your spirit so vexed that you eat no food?"

6: And he said to her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to him, 'Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it please you, I will give you another vineyard for it'; and he answered, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'"

7: And Jez'ebel his wife said to him, "Do you now govern Israel? Arise, and eat bread, and let your heart be cheerful; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."

8: So she wrote letters in Ahab's name and sealed them with his seal, and she sent the letters to the elders and the nobles who dwelt with Naboth in his city.

9: And she wrote in the letters, "Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people;

10: and set two base fellows opposite him, and let them bring a charge against him, saying, 'You have cursed God and the king.' Then take him out, and stone him to death."

11: And the men of his city, the elders and the nobles who dwelt in his city, did as Jez'ebel had sent word to them. As it was written in the letters which she had sent to them, 12: they proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people.

13: And the two base fellows came in and sat opposite him; and the base fellows brought a charge against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, "Naboth cursed God and the king." So they took him outside the city, and stoned him to death with stones.

14: Then they sent to Jez'ebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned; he is dead."

15: As soon as Jez'ebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, Jez'ebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead."

16: And as soon as Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab arose to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

17: Then the word of the LORD came to Eli'jah the Tishbite, saying, 18: "Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who is in Sama'ria; behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone to take possession.

19: And you shall say to him, 'Thus says the LORD, "Have you killed, and also taken possession?'" And you shall say to him, 'Thus says the LORD: "In the place where dogs licked up the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick your own blood."'''

20: Ahab said to Eli'jah, "Have you found me, O my enemy?" He answered, "I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do what is evil in the sight of the LORD.

21: Behold, I will bring evil upon you; I will utterly sweep you away, and will cut off from Ahab every male, bond or free, in Israel; 22: and I will make your house like the house of Jerobo'am the son of Nebat, and like the house of Ba'asha the son of Ahi'jah, for the anger to which you have provoked me, and because you have made Israel to sin.

23: And of Jez'ebel the LORD also said, 'The dogs shall eat Jez'ebel within the bounds of Jezreel.'

24: Any one belonging to Ahab who dies in the city the dogs shall eat; and any one of his who dies in the open country the birds of the air shall eat."

25: (There was none who sold himself to do what was evil in the sight of the LORD like Ahab, whom Jez'ebel his wife incited.

26: He did very abominably in going after idols, as the Amorites had done, whom the LORD cast out before the people of Israel.)

27: And when Ahab heard those words, he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted and lay in sackcloth, and went about dejectedly.

28: And the word of the LORD came to Eli'jah the Tishbite, saying,

29: "Have you seen how Ahab has humbled himself before me? Because he has humbled himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days; but in his son's days I will bring the evil upon his house."

Chapter 22

First Kings, chapter 22

1: For three years Syria and Israel continued without war.

2: But in the third year Jehosh'aphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.

3: And the king of Israel said to his servants, "Do you know that Ramoth-gilead belongs to us, and we keep quiet and do not take it out of the hand of the king of Syria?"

4: And he said to Jehosh'aphat, "Will you go with me to battle at Ramoth-gilead?" And Jehosh'aphat said to the king of Israel, "I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

5: And Jehosh'aphat said to the king of Israel, "Inquire first for the word of the LORD."

6: Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall I go to battle against Ramoth-gilead, or shall I forbear?" And they said, "Go up; for the Lord will give it into the hand of the king."

7: But Jehosh'aphat said, "Is there not here another prophet of the LORD of whom we may inquire?"

8: And the king of Israel said to Jehosh'aphat, "There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD, Micai'ah the son of Imlah; but I hate him, for he never prophesies good concerning me, but evil." And Jehosh'aphat said, "Let not the king say so."

9: Then the king of Israel summoned an officer and said, "Bring quickly Micai'ah the son of Imlah."

10: Now the king of Israel and Jehosh'aphat the king of Judah were sitting on their thrones, arrayed in their robes, at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Sama'ria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them.

11: And Zedeki'ah the son of Chena'anah made for himself horns of iron, and said, "Thus says the LORD, 'With these you shall push the Syrians until they are destroyed.'"

12: And all the prophets prophesied so, and said, "Go up to Ramoth-gilead and triumph; the LORD will give it into the hand of the king."

13: And the messenger who went to summon Micai'ah said to him, "Behold, the words of the prophets with one accord are favorable to the king; let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak favorably."

14: But Micai'ah said, "As the LORD lives, what the LORD says to me, that I will speak."

15: And when he had come to the king, the king said to him, "Micai'ah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we forbear?" And he answered him, "Go up and triumph; the LORD will give it into the hand of the king."

16: But the king said to him, "How many times shall I adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

17: And he said, "I saw all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd; and the LORD said, 'These have no master; let each return to his home in peace.'"

18: And the king of Israel said to Jehosh'aphat, "Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

19: And Micai'ah said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing beside him on his right hand and on his left;

20: and the LORD said, 'Who will entice Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?' And one said one thing, and another said another.

21: Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, saying, 'I will entice him.'

22: And the LORD said to him, 'By what means?' And he said, 'I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And he said, 'You are to entice him, and you shall succeed; go forth and do so.'

23: Now therefore behold, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets; the LORD has spoken evil concerning you."

24: Then Zedeki'ah the son of Chena'anah came near and struck Micai'ah on the cheek, and said, "How did the Spirit of the LORD go from me to speak to you?"

25: And Micai'ah said, "Behold, you shall see on that day when you go into an inner chamber to hide yourself."
26: And the king of Israel said, "Seize Micai'ah, and take him back to Amon the governor of the city and to Jo'ash the king's son;
27: and say, `Thus says the king, "Put this fellow in prison, and feed him with scant fare of bread and water, until I come in peace.'"
28: And Micai'ah said, "If you return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Hear, all you peoples!"
29: So the king of Israel and Jehosh'aphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.
30: And the king of Israel said to Jehosh'aphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you wear your robes." And the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.
31: Now the king of Syria had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, "Fight with neither small nor great, but only with the king of Israel."
32: And when the captains of the chariots saw Jehosh'aphat, they said, "It is surely the king of Israel." So they turned to fight against him; and Jehosh'aphat cried out.
33: And when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.
34: But a certain man drew his bow at a venture, and struck the king of Israel between the scale armor and the breastplate; therefore he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn about, and carry me out of the battle, for I am wounded."
35: And the battle grew hot that day, and the king was propped up in his chariot facing the Syrians, until at evening he died; and the blood of the wound flowed into the bottom of the chariot.
36: And about sunset a cry went through the army, "Every man to his city, and every man to his country!"
37: So the king died, and was brought to Sama'ria; and they buried the king in Sama'ria.
38: And they washed the chariot by the pool of Sama'ria, and the dogs licked up his blood, and the harlots washed themselves in it, according to the word of the LORD which he had spoken.
39: Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he built, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?
40: So Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahazi'ah his son reigned in his stead.
41: Jehosh'aphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.
42: Jehosh'aphat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azu'bah the daughter of Shilhi.
43: He walked in all the way of Asa his father; he did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the sight of the LORD; yet the high places were not taken away, and the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.
44: Jehosh'aphat also made peace with the king of Israel.
45: Now the rest of the acts of Jehosh'aphat, and his might that he showed, and how he warred, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?
46: And the remnant of the male cult prostitutes who remained in the days of his father Asa, he exterminated from the land.

1Kings 22:46
v46: And the remnant of the sodomites the male homosexuals who remained in the days of his father Asa, he, Jeshophat exterminated or expelled from the land.

47: There was no king in Edom; a deputy was king.
48: Jehosh'aphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold; but they did not go, for the ships were wrecked at E'zion-ge'ber.
49: Then Ahazi'ah the son of Ahab said to Jehosh'aphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships," but Jehosh'aphat was not willing.
50: And Jehosh'aphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Jeho'ram his son reigned in his stead.
51: Ahazi'ah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Sama'ria in the seventeenth year of Jehosh'aphat king of Judah, and he reigned two years over Israel.
52: He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jerobo'am the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.
53: He served Ba'al and worshiped him, and provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger in every way that his father had done.

The Second Book of Kings

Chapter 1

Second Kings, chapter 1

1: After the death of Ahab, Moab rebelled against Israel.

2: Now Ahazi'ah fell through the lattice in his upper chamber in Sama'ria, and lay sick; so he sent messengers, telling them, "Go, inquire of Ba'al-ze'bub, the god of Ekron, whether I shall recover from this sickness."

3: But the angel of the LORD said to Eli'jah the Tishbite, "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Sama'ria, and say to them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Ba'al-ze'bub, the god of Ekron?'"

4: Now therefore thus says the LORD, 'You shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone, but you shall surely die.'" So Eli'jah went.

5: The messengers returned to the king, and he said to them, "Why have you returned?"

6: And they said to him, "There came a man to meet us, and said to us, 'Go back to the king who sent you, and say to him, Thus says the LORD, Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Ba'al-ze'bub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone, but shall surely die.'"

7: He said to them, "What kind of man was he who came to meet you and told you these things?"

8: They answered him, "He wore a garment of haircloth, with a girdle of leather about his loins." And he said, "It is Eli'jah the Tishbite."

9: Then the king sent to him a captain of fifty men with his fifty. He went up to Eli'jah, who was sitting on the top of a hill, and said to him, "O man of God, the king says, 'Come down.'"

10: But Eli'jah answered the captain of fifty, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty." Then fire came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

11: Again the king sent to him another captain of fifty men with his fifty. And he went up and said to him, "O man of God, this is the king's order, 'Come down quickly!'"

12: But Eli'jah answered them, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty." Then the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

13: Again the king sent the captain of a third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Eli'jah, and entreated him, "O man of God, I pray you, let my life, and the life of these fifty servants of yours, be precious in your sight.

14: Lo, fire came down from heaven, and consumed the two former captains of fifty men with their fifties; but now let my life be precious in your sight."

15: Then the angel of the LORD said to Eli'jah, "Go down with him; do not be afraid of him." So he arose and went down with him to the king,

16: and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Ba'al-ze'bub, the god of Ekron, -- is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? -- therefore you shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone, but you shall surely die.'"

17: So he died according to the word of the LORD which Eli'jah had spoken. Jeho'ram, his brother, became king in his stead in the second year of Jeho'ram the son of Jehosh'aphat, king of Judah, because Ahazi'ah had no son.

18: Now the rest of the acts of Ahazi'ah which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Second Kings of Israel?

Chapter 2

Second Kings, chapter 2

1: Now when the LORD was about to take Eli'jah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Eli'jah and Eli'sha were on their way from Gilgal.

2: And Eli'jah said to Eli'sha, "Tarry here, I pray you; for the LORD has sent me as far as Bethel." But Eli'sha said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel.

3: And the sons of the prophets who were in Bethel came out to Eli'sha, and said to him, "Do you know that today the LORD will take away your master from over you?" And he said, "Yes, I know it; hold your peace."

4: Eli'jah said to him, "Eli'sha, tarry here, I pray you; for the LORD has sent me to Jericho." But he said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they came to Jericho.

5: The sons of the prophets who were at Jericho drew near to Eli'sha, and said to him, "Do you know that today the LORD will take away your master from over you?" And he answered, "Yes, I know it; hold your peace."

6: Then Eli'jah said to him, "Tarry here, I pray you; for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan." But he said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So the two of them went on.

7: Fifty men of the sons of the prophets also went, and stood at some distance from them, as they both were standing by the Jordan.

8: Then Eli'jah took his mantle, and rolled it up, and struck the water, and the water was parted to the one side and to the other, till the two of them could go over on dry ground.

9: When they had crossed, Eli'jah said to Eli'sha, "Ask what I shall do for you, before I am taken from you." And Eli'sha said, "I pray you, let me inherit a double share of your spirit."

10: And he said, "You have asked a hard thing; yet, if you see me as I am being taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if you do not see me, it shall not be so."

11: And as they still went on and talked, behold, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them. And Eli'jah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

12: And Eli'sha saw it and he cried, "My father, my father! the chariots of Israel and its horsemen!" And he saw him no more. Then he took hold of his own clothes and rent them in two pieces.

13: And he took up the mantle of Eli'jah that had fallen from him, and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan.

14: Then he took the mantle of Eli'jah that had fallen from him, and struck the water, saying, "Where is the LORD, the God of Eli'jah?" And when he had struck the water, the water was parted to the one side and to the other; and Eli'sha went over.

15: Now when the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho saw him over against them, they said, "The spirit of Eli'jah rests on Eli'sha." And they came to meet him, and bowed to the ground before him.

16: And they said to him, "Behold now, there are with your servants fifty strong men; pray, let them go, and seek your master; it may be that the Spirit of the LORD has caught him up and cast him upon some mountain or into some valley." And he said, "You shall not send."

17: But when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, "Send." They sent therefore fifty men; and for three days they sought him but did not find him.

18: And they came back to him, while he tarried at Jericho, and he said to them, "Did I not say to you, Do not go?"

19: Now the men of the city said to Eli'sha, "Behold, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees; but the water is bad, and the land is unfruitful."

20: He said, "Bring me a new bowl, and put salt in it." So they brought it to him.

21: Then he went to the spring of water and threw salt in it, and said, "Thus says the LORD, I have made this water wholesome; henceforth neither death nor miscarriage shall come from it."

22: So the water has been wholesome to this day, according to the word which Eli'sha spoke.

23: He went up from there to Bethel; and while he was going up on the way, some small boys came out of the city and jeered at him, saying, "Go up, you baldhead! Go up, you baldhead!"

v23: Then He Elisha went up from Jericho to Bethel because of apostate worship of the golden calf; and while he was going up on the mountain road approaching the city, some teen aged punks came out of the city and jeered him, making fun of him, saying, "Go on up into town, you baldy!` Go on up into town, you baldy!"

24: And he turned around, and when he saw them, he cursed them in the name of the LORD. And two she-bears came out of the woods and tore forty-two of the boys.

v24: And he turned around and and looked at them and then, he called down on them a curse in the name of the LORD such as "let the Lord judge you", Then two she-bears came out of the forest and tore in pieces forty-two of the teen agers.

25: From there he went on to Mount Carmel, and thence he returned to Sama'ria.

v25: From Bethel he went on to Mount Carmel where Elijah Failed, and then he returned to Sama'ria where Elijah should have gone instead of Jezreel.

Chapter 3

Second Kings, chapter 3

1: In the eighteenth year of Jehosh'aphat king of Judah, Jeho'ram the son of Ahab became king over Israel in Sama'ria, and he reigned twelve years.

2: He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, though not like his father and mother, for he put away the pillar of Ba'al which his father had made.

3: Nevertheless he clung to the sin of Jerobo'am the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin; he did not depart from it.

4: Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep breeder; and he had to deliver annually to the king of Israel a hundred thousand lambs, and the wool of a hundred thousand rams.

5: But when Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6: So King Jeho'ram marched out of Sama'ria at that time and mustered all Israel.

7: And he went and sent word to Jehosh'aphat king of Judah, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me; will you go with me to battle against Moab?" And he said, "I will go; I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

8: Then he said, "By which way shall we march?" Jeho'ram answered, "By the way of the wilderness of Edom."

9: So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom. And when they had made a circuitous march of seven days, there was no water for the army or for the beasts which followed them.

10: Then the king of Israel said, "Alas! The LORD has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab."

11: And Jehosh'aphat said, "Is there no prophet of the LORD here, through whom we may inquire of the LORD?" Then one of the king of Israel's servants answered, "Eli'sha the son of Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Eli'jah."

12: And Jehosh'aphat said, "The word of the LORD is with him." So the king of Israel and Jehosh'aphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

13: And Eli'sha said to the king of Israel, "What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father and the prophets of your mother." But the king of Israel said to him, "No; it is the LORD who has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab."

14: And Eli'sha said, "As the LORD of hosts lives, whom I serve, were it not that I have regard for Jehosh'aphat the king of Judah, I would neither look at you, nor see you.

15: But now bring me a minstrel." And when the minstrel played, the power of the LORD came upon him.

16: And he said, "Thus says the LORD, 'I will make this dry stream-bed full of pools.'

17: For thus says the LORD, 'You shall not see wind or rain, but that stream-bed shall be filled with water, so that you shall drink, you, your cattle, and your beasts.'

18: This is a light thing in the sight of the LORD; he will also give the Moabites into your hand,

19: and you shall conquer every fortified city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop up all springs of water, and ruin every good piece of land with stones."

20: The next morning, about the time of offering the sacrifice, behold, water came from the direction of Edom, till the country was filled with water.

21: When all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, all who were able to put on armor, from the youngest to the oldest, were called out, and were drawn up at the frontier.

22: And when they rose early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, the Moabites saw the water opposite them as red as blood.

23: And they said, "This is blood; the kings have surely fought together, and slain one another. Now then, Moab, to the spoil!"

24: But when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose and attacked the Moabites, till they fled before them; and they went forward, slaughtering the Moabites as they went.

25: And they overthrew the cities, and on every good piece of land every man threw a stone, until it was covered; they stopped every spring of water, and felled all the good trees; till only its stones were left in Kir-har'eseth, and the slingers surrounded and conquered it.

26: When the king of Moab saw that the battle was going against him, he took with him seven hundred swordsmen to break through, opposite the king of Edom; but they could not.

27: Then he took his eldest son who was to reign in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall. And there came great wrath upon Israel; and they withdrew from him and returned to their own land.

Second Kings, chapter 4

1: Now the wife of one of the sons of the prophets cried to Eli'sha, "Your servant my husband is dead; and you know that your servant feared the LORD, but the creditor has come to take my two children to be his slaves."

2: And Eli'sha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me; what have you in the house?" And she said, "Your maidservant has nothing in the house, except a jar of oil."

3: Then he said, "Go outside, borrow vessels of all your neighbors, empty vessels and not too few.

4: Then go in, and shut the door upon yourself and your sons, and pour into all these vessels; and when one is full, set it aside."

5: So she went from him and shut the door upon herself and her sons; and as she poured they brought the vessels to her.

6: When the vessels were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel." And he said to her, "There is not another." Then the oil stopped flowing.

7: She came and told the man of God, and he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debts, and you and your sons can live on the rest."

8: One day Eli'sha went on to Shunem, where a wealthy woman lived, who urged him to eat some food. So whenever he passed that way, he would turn in there to eat food.

9: And she said to her husband, "Behold now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God, who is continually passing our way.

10: Let us make a small roof chamber with walls, and put there for him a bed, a table, a chair, and a lamp, so that whenever he comes to us, he can go in there."

11: One day he came there, and he turned into the chamber and rested there.

12: And he said to Geha'zi his servant, "Call this Shu'nammite." When he had called her, she stood before him.

13: And he said to him, "Say now to her, See, you have taken all this trouble for us; what is to be done for you? Would you have a word spoken on your behalf to the king or to the commander of the army?" She answered, "I dwell among my own people."

14: And he said, "What then is to be done for her?" Geha'zi answered, "Well, she has no son, and her husband is old."

15: He said, "Call her." And when he had called her, she stood in the doorway.

16: And he said, "At this season, when the time comes round, you shall embrace a son." And she said, "No, my lord, O man of God; do not lie to your maidservant."

17: But the woman conceived, and she bore a son about that time the following spring, as Eli'sha had said to her.

18: When the child had grown, he went out one day to his father among the reapers.

19: And he said to his father, "Oh, my head, my head!" The father said to his servant, "Carry him to his mother."

20: And when he had lifted him, and brought him to his mother, the child sat on her lap till noon, and then he died.

21: And she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him, and went out.

22: Then she called to her husband, and said, "Send me one of the servants and one of the asses, that I may quickly go to the man of God, and come back again."

23: And he said, "Why will you go to him today? It is neither new moon nor sabbath." She said, "It will be well."

24: Then she saddled the ass, and she said to her servant, "Urge the beast on; do not slacken the pace for me unless I tell you."

25: So she set out, and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel. When the man of God saw her coming, he said to Geha'zi his servant, "Look, yonder is the Shu'nammite;
26: run at once to meet her, and say to her, Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child?" And she answered, "It is well."
27: And when she came to the mountain to the man of God, she caught hold of his feet. And Geha'zi came to thrust her away. But the man of God said, "Let her alone, for she is in bitter distress; and the LORD has hidden it from me, and has not told me."
28: Then she said, "Did I ask my lord for a son? Did I not say, Do not deceive me?"
29: He said to Geha'zi, "Gird up your loins, and take my staff in your hand, and go. If you meet any one, do not salute him; and if any one salutes you, do not reply; and lay my staff upon the face of the child."
30: Then the mother of the child said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So he arose and followed her.
31: Geha'zi went on ahead and laid the staff upon the face of the child, but there was no sound or sign of life. Therefore he returned to meet him, and told him, "The child has not awaked."
32: When Eli'sha came into the house, he saw the child lying dead on his bed.
33: So he went in and shut the door upon the two of them, and prayed to the LORD.
34: Then he went up and lay upon the child, putting his mouth upon his mouth, his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands; and as he stretched himself upon him, the flesh of the child became warm.
35: Then he got up again, and walked once to and fro in the house, and went up, and stretched himself upon him; the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.
36: Then he summoned Geha'zi and said, "Call this Shu'nammite." So he called her. And when she came to him, he said, "Take up your son."
37: She came and fell at his feet, bowing to the ground; then she took up her son and went out.
38: And Eli'sha came again to Gilgal when there was a famine in the land. And as the sons of the prophets were sitting before him, he said to his servant, "Set on the great pot, and boil pottage for the sons of the prophets."
39: One of them went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine and gathered from it his lap full of wild gourds, and came and cut them up into the pot of pottage, not knowing what they were.
40: And they poured out for the men to eat. But while they were eating of the pottage, they cried out, "O man of God, there is death in the pot!" And they could not eat it.
41: He said, "Then bring meal." And he threw it into the pot, and said, "Pour out for the men, that they may eat." And there was no harm in the pot.
42: A man came from Ba'al-shal'ishah, bringing the man of God bread of the first fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and fresh ears of grain in his sack. And Eli'sha said, "Give to the men, that they may eat."
43: But his servant said, "How am I to set this before a hundred men?" So he repeated, "Give them to the men, that they may eat, for thus says the LORD, 'They shall eat and have some left.'"
44: So he set it before them. And they ate, and had some left, according to the word of the LORD.

Chapter 5 Second Kings, chapter 5

1: Na'aman, commander of the army of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master and in high favor, because by him the LORD had given victory to Syria. He was a mighty man of valor, but he was a leper.
2: Now the Syrians on one of their raids had carried off a little maid from the land of Israel, and she waited on Na'aman's wife.
3: She said to her mistress, "Would that my lord were with the prophet who is in Sama'ria! He would cure him of his leprosy."
4: So Na'aman went in and told his lord, "Thus and so spoke the maiden from the land of Israel."
5: And the king of Syria said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So he went, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten festal garments.
6: And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read, "When this letter reaches you, know that I have sent to you Na'aman my servant, that you may cure him of his leprosy."
7: And when the king of Israel read the letter, he rent his clothes and said, "Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Only consider, and see how he is seeking a quarrel with me."
8: But when Eli'sha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, he sent to the king, saying, "Why have you rent your clothes? Let him come now to me, that he may know that there is a prophet in Israel."
9: So Na'aman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the door of Eli'sha's house.
10: And Eli'sha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored, and you shall be clean."
11: But Na'aman was angry, and went away, saying, "Behold, I thought that he would surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the place, and cure the leper."
12: Are not Aba'na and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage.
13: But his servants came near and said to him, "My father, if the prophet had commanded you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much rather, then, when he says to you, 'Wash, and be clean?'"

14: So he went down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

15: Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and he came and stood before him; and he said, "Behold, I know that there is no God in all the earth but in Israel; so accept now a present from your servant."

16: But he said, "As the LORD lives, whom I serve, I will receive none." And he urged him to take it, but he refused.

17: Then Na'aman said, "If not, I pray you, let there be given to your servant two mules' burden of earth; for henceforth your servant will not offer burnt offering or sacrifice to any god but the LORD.

18: In this matter may the LORD pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, leaning on my arm, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, when I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon your servant in this matter."

19: He said to him, "Go in peace." But when Na'aman had gone from him a short distance, 20: Gehazi, the servant of Eli'sha the man of God, said, "See, my master has spared this Na'aman the Syrian, in not accepting from his hand what he brought. As the LORD lives, I will run after him, and get something from him."

21: So Gehazi followed Na'aman. And when Na'aman saw some one running after him, he alighted from the chariot to meet him, and said, "Is all well?"

22: And he said, "All is well. My master has sent me to say, 'There have just now come to me from the hill country of E'phraim two young men of the sons of the prophets; pray, give them a talent of silver and two festal garments.'"

23: And Na'aman said, "Be pleased to accept two talents." And he urged him, and tied up two talents of silver in two bags, with two festal garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they carried them before Gehazi.

24: And when he came to the hill, he took them from their hand, and put them in the house; and he sent the men away, and they departed.

25: He went in, and stood before his master, and Eli'sha said to him, "Where have you been, Gehazi?" And he said, "Your servant went nowhere."

26: But he said to him, "Did I not go with you in spirit when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Was it a time to accept money and garments, olive orchards and vineyards, sheep and oxen, menservants and maidservants?"

27: Therefore the leprosy of Na'aman shall cleave to you, and to your descendants for ever." So he went out from his presence a leper, as white as snow.

Chapter 6

Second Kings, chapter 6

1: Now the sons of the prophets said to Eli'sha, "See, the place where we dwell under your charge is too small for us.

2: Let us go to the Jordan and each of us get there a log, and let us make a place for us to dwell there." And he answered, "Go."

3: Then one of them said, "Be pleased to go with your servants." And he answered, "I will go."

4: So he went with them. And when they came to the Jordan, they cut down trees.

5: But as one was felling a log, his axe head fell into the water; and he cried out, "Alas, my master! It was borrowed."

6: Then the man of God said, "Where did it fall?" When he showed him the place, he cut off a stick, and threw it in there, and made the iron float.

7: And he said, "Take it up." So he reached out his hand and took it.

8: Once when the king of Syria was warring against Israel, he took counsel with his servants, saying, "At such and such a place shall be my camp."

9: But the man of God sent word to the king of Israel, "Beware that you do not pass this place, for the Syrians are going down there."

10: And the king of Israel sent to the place of which the man of God told him. Thus he used to warn him, so that he saved himself there more than once or twice.

11: And the mind of the king of Syria was greatly troubled because of this thing; and he called his servants and said to them, "Will you not show me who of us is for the king of Israel?"

12: And one of his servants said, "None, my lord, O king; but Eli'sha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedchamber."

13: And he said, "Go and see where he is, that I may send and seize him." It was told him, "Behold, he is in Dothan."

14: So he sent there horses and chariots and a great army; and they came by night, and surrounded the city.

15: When the servant of the man of God rose early in the morning and went out, behold, an army with horses and chariots was round about the city. And the servant said, "Alas, my master! What shall we do?"

16: He said, "Fear not, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them."

17: Then Eli'sha prayed, and said, "O LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes that he may see." So the LORD opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw; and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Eli'sha.

18: And when the Syrians came down against him, Eli'sha prayed to the LORD, and said, "Strike this people, I pray thee, with blindness." So he struck them with blindness in accordance with the prayer of Eli'sha.

19: And Eli'sha said to them, "This is not the way, and this is not the city; follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek." And he led them to Sama'ria.

20: As soon as they entered Sama'ria, Eli'sha said, "O LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see." So the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and lo, they were in the midst of Sama'ria.

21: When the king of Israel saw them he said to Eli'sha, "My father, shall I slay them? Shall I slay them?"

22: He answered, "You shall not slay them. Would you slay those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink and go to their master."

23: So he prepared for them a great feast; and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. And the Syrians came no more on raids into the land of Israel.

24: Afterward Ben-ha'dad king of Syria mustered his entire army, and went up, and besieged Sama'ria.

25: And there was a great famine in Sama'ria, as they besieged it, until an ass's head was sold for eighty shekels of silver, and the fourth part of a kab of dove's dung for five shekels of silver.

26: Now as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, a woman cried out to him, saying, "Help, my lord, O king!"

27: And he said, "If the LORD will not help you, whence shall I help you? From the threshing floor, or from the wine press?"

28: And the king asked her, "What is your trouble?" She answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give your son, that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.'

29: So we boiled my son, and ate him. And on the next day I said to her, 'Give your son, that we may eat him'; but she has hidden her son."

30: When the king heard the words of the woman he rent his clothes -- now he was passing by upon the wall -- and the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth beneath upon his body --

31: and he said, "May God do so to me, and more also, if the head of Eli'sha the son of Shaphat remains on his shoulders today."

32: Eli'sha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. Now the king had dispatched a man from his presence; but before the messenger arrived Eli'sha said to the elders, "Do you see how this murderer has sent to take off my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold the door fast against him. Is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?"

33: And while he was still speaking with them, the king came down to him and said, "This trouble is from the LORD! Why should I wait for the LORD any longer?"

Chapter 7

Second Kings, chapter 7

1: But Eli'sha said, "Hear the word of the LORD: thus says the LORD, Tomorrow about this time a measure of fine meal shall be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, at the gate of Sama'ria."

2: Then the captain on whose hand the king leaned said to the man of God, "If the LORD himself should make windows in heaven, could this thing be?" But he said, "You shall see it with your own eyes, but you shall not eat of it."

3: Now there were four men who were lepers at the entrance to the gate; and they said to one another, "Why do we sit here till we die?"

4: If we say, 'Let us enter the city,' the famine is in the city, and we shall die there; and if we sit here, we die also. So now come, let us go over to the camp of the Syrians; if they spare our lives we shall live, and if they kill us we shall but die."

2Kings 7:4 (4 Lepers in a conversation)

v4: If we say "We will enter into the city" then the famine is in the City and we shall die there, and if we sit here outside the Gate we will die here also (Syrian Army will kill them) Now therefore come let us fall unto the Syrians (Surrender) if they deliver us alive we will live and if they decide to kill us we will die but it will be quick.

5: So they arose at twilight to go to the camp of the Syrians; but when they came to the edge of the camp of the Syrians, behold, there was no one there.

2Kings 7:5

v5: So when evening came on they rose up in the twilight to go to the camp of the Syrians, and when they were come to the outpost of the Bivoac of the Syrians behold there was NO sentry there for the Lord had made the army of the Syrians to Hear a Noise, and this noise was like a noise of horses even the noise of a Great chariot army and they (the syrians) the King of Israel has hired against us the Kings of the Hitites and the Kings of the Egyptians to Attack us.

6: For the Lord had made the army of the Syrians hear the sound of chariots, and of horses, the sound of a great army, so that they said to one another, "Behold, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Egypt to come upon us."

7: So they fled away in the twilight and forsook their tents, their horses, and their asses, leaving the camp as it was, and fled for their lives.

8: And when these lepers came to the edge of the camp, they went into a tent, and ate and drank, and they carried off silver and gold and clothing, and went and hid them; then they came back, and entered another tent, and carried off things from it, and went and hid them.

9: Then they said to one another, "We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news; if we are silent and wait until the morning light, punishment will overtake us; now therefore come, let us go and tell the king's household."

10: So they came and called to the gatekeepers of the city, and told them, "We came to the camp of the Syrians, and behold, there was no one to be seen or heard there, nothing but the horses tied, and the asses tied, and the tents as they were."

11: Then the gatekeepers called out, and it was told within the king's household.

12: And the king rose in the night, and said to his servants, "I will tell you what the Syrians have prepared against us. They know that we are hungry; therefore they have gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the open country, thinking, 'When they come out of the city, we shall take them alive and get into the city."

13: And one of his servants said, "Let some men take five of the remaining horses, seeing that those who are left here will fare like the whole multitude of Israel that have already perished; let us send and see."

14: So they took two mounted men, and the king sent them after the army of the Syrians, saying, "Go and see."

15: So they went after them as far as the Jordan; and, lo, all the way was littered with garments and equipment which the Syrians had thrown away in their haste. And the messengers returned, and told the king.

16: Then the people went out, and plundered the camp of the Syrians. So a measure of fine meal was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

17: Now the king had appointed the captain on whose hand he leaned to have charge of the gate; and the people trod upon him in the gate, so that he died, as the man of God had said when the king came down to him.

18: For when the man of God had said to the king, "Two measures of barley shall be sold for a shekel, and a measure of fine meal for a shekel, about this time tomorrow in the gate of Sama'ria,"

19: the captain had answered the man of God, "If the LORD himself should make windows in heaven, could such a thing be?" And he had said, "You shall see it with your own eyes, but you shall not eat of it."

20: And so it happened to him, for the people trod upon him in the gate and he died.

Chapter 8

Second Kings, chapter 8

1: Now Eli'sha had said to the woman whose son he had restored to life, "Arise, and depart with your household, and sojourn wherever you can; for the LORD has called for a famine, and it will come upon the land for seven years."

2: So the woman arose, and did according to the word of the man of God; she went with her household and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.

3: And at the end of the seven years, when the woman returned from the land of the Philistines, she went forth to appeal to the king for her house and her land.

4: Now the king was talking with Geha'zi the servant of the man of God, saying, "Tell me all the great things that Eli'sha has done."

5: And while he was telling the king how Eli'sha had restored the dead to life, behold, the woman whose son he had restored to life appealed to the king for her house and her land. And Geha'zi said, "My lord, O king, here is the woman, and here is her son whom Eli'sha restored to life."

6: And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed an official for her, saying, "Restore all that was hers, together with all the produce of the fields from the day that she left the land until now."

7: Now Eli'sha came to Damascus. Ben-ha'dad the king of Syria was sick; and when it was told him, "The man of God has come here,"

8: the king said to Haz'ael, "Take a present with you and go to meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD through him, saying, 'Shall I recover from this sickness?'"

9: So Haz'ael went to meet him, and took a present with him, all kinds of goods of Damascus, forty camel loads. When he came and stood before him, he said, "Your son Ben-ha'dad king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, 'Shall I recover from this sickness?'"

10: And Eli'sha said to him, "Go, say to him, 'You shall certainly recover'; but the LORD has shown me that he shall certainly die."

11: And he fixed his gaze and stared at him, until he was ashamed. And the man of God wept.

12: And Haz'ael said, "Why does my lord weep?" He answered, "Because I know the evil that you will do to the people of Israel; you will set on fire their fortresses, and you will slay their young men with the sword, and dash in pieces their little ones, and rip up their women with child."

v12: And hazael said to Elisha "why does my Lord weep", and Elisha said to him "I know the evil you will do to the people of Israel; You will set afire their fortifications, you will kill their young men with the sword and their little children you will bash their heads in and their pregnant women your soldiers will rip open".

13: And Haz'ael said, "What is your servant, who is but a dog, that he should do this great thing?" Eli'sha answered, "The LORD has shown me that you are to be king over Syria."

14: Then he departed from Eli'sha, and came to his master, who said to him, "What did Eli'sha say to you?" And he answered, "He told me that you would certainly recover."

15: But on the morrow he took the coverlet and dipped it in water and spread it over his face, till he died. And Haz'ael became king in his stead.

16: In the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Jeho'ram the son of Jehosh'aphat, king of Judah, began to reign.

17: He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

18: And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for the daughter of Ahab was his wife. And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD.

19: Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah, for the sake of David his servant, since he promised to give a lamp to him and to his sons for ever.

v19: Therefore the LORD was not willing to destroy Judah, for the sake of David his servant, since he promised to give him a descent on the throne through his sons for ever.

20: In his days Edom revolted from the rule of Judah, and set up a king of their own.

21: Then Joram passed over to Za'ir with all his chariots, and rose by night, and he and his chariot commanders smote the E'domites who had surrounded him; but his army fled home.

22: So Edom revolted from the rule of Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time.

23: Now the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

24: So Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Ahazi'ah his son reigned in his stead.

25: In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Ahazi'ah the son of Jeho'ram, king of Judah, began to reign.

26: Ahazi'ah was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athali'ah; she was a granddaughter of Omri king of Israel.

27: He also walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as the house of Ahab had done, for he was son-in-law to the house of Ahab.

28: He went with Joram the son of Ahab to make war against Haz'ael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead, where the Syrians wounded Joram.

29: And King Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Haz'ael king of Syria. And Ahazi'ah the son of Jeho'ram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

Chapter 9

Second Kings, chapter 9

1: Then Eli'sha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets and said to him, "Gird up your loins, and take this flask of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead.

2: And when you arrive, look there for Jehu the son of Jehosh'aphat, son of Nimshi; and go in and bid him rise from among his fellows, and lead him to an inner chamber.

3: Then take the flask of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, `Thus says the LORD, I anoint you king over Israel.' Then open the door and flee; do not tarry."

4: So the young man, the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead.

5: And when he came, behold, the commanders of the army were in council; and he said, "I have an errand to you, O commander." And Jehu said, "To which of us all?" And he said, "To you, O commander."

6: So he arose, and went into the house; and the young man poured the oil on his head, saying to him, "Thus says the LORD the God of Israel, I anoint you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel.

7: And you shall strike down the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge on Jez'ebel the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD.

8: For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; and I will cut off from Ahab every male, bond or free, in Israel.

9: And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jerobo'am the son of Nebat, and like the house of Ba'asha the son of Ahi'jah.

10: And the dogs shall eat Jez'ebel in the territory of Jezreel, and none shall bury her." Then he opened the door, and fled.

11: When Jehu came out to the servants of his master, they said to him, "Is all well? Why did this mad fellow come to you?" And he said to them, "You know the fellow and his talk."

12: And they said, "That is not true; tell us now." And he said, "Thus and so he spoke to me, saying, `Thus says the LORD, I anoint you king over Israel.'"

13: Then in haste every man of them took his garment, and put it under him on the bare steps, and they blew the trumpet, and proclaimed, "Jehu is king."

14: Thus Jehu the son of Jehosh'aphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram with all Israel had been on guard at Ramoth-gilead against Haz'ael king of Syria;

15: but King Joram had returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Haz'ael king of Syria.) So Jehu said, "If this is your mind, then let no one slip out of the city to go and tell the news in Jezreel."

16: Then Jehu mounted his chariot, and went to Jezreel, for Joram lay there. And Ahazi'ah king of Judah had come down to visit Joram.

17: Now the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, "I see a company." And Joram said, "Take a horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, `Is it peace?'"

18: So a man on horseback went to meet him, and said, "Thus says the king, `Is it peace?'" And Jehu said, "What have you to do with peace? Turn round and ride behind me." And the watchman reported, saying, "The messenger reached them, but he is not coming back."

19: Then he sent out a second horseman, who came to them, and said, "Thus the king has said, `Is it peace?'" And Jehu answered, "What have you to do with peace? Turn round and ride behind me."

20: Again the watchman reported, "He reached them, but he is not coming back. And the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he drives furiously."

21: Joram said, "Make ready." And they made ready his chariot. Then Joram king of Israel and Ahazi'ah king of Judah set out, each in his chariot, and went to meet Jehu, and met him at the property of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22: And when Joram saw Jehu, he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?" He answered, "What peace can there be, so long as the harlotries and the sorceries of your mother Jez'ebel are so many?"

23: Then Joram reined about and fled, saying to Ahazi'ah, "Treachery, O Ahazi'ah!"

24: And Jehu drew his bow with his full strength, and shot Joram between the shoulders, so that the arrow pierced his heart, and he sank in his chariot.

25: Jehu said to Bidkar his aide, "Take him up, and cast him on the plot of ground belonging to Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember, when you and I rode side by side behind Ahab his father, how the LORD uttered this oracle against him:

26: 'As surely as I saw yesterday the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons -- says the LORD -- I will requite you on this plot of ground.' Now therefore take him up and cast him on the plot of ground, in accordance with the word of the LORD."

27: When Ahazi'ah the king of Judah saw this, he fled in the direction of Beth-haggan. And Jehu pursued him, and said, "Shoot him also"; and they shot him in the chariot at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. And he fled to Megid'do, and died there.

28: His servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the city of David.

29: In the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab, Ahazi'ah began to reign over Judah.

30: When Jehu came to Jezreel, Jez'ebel heard of it; and she painted her eyes, and adorned her head, and looked out of the window.

31: And as Jehu entered the gate, she said, "Is it peace, you Zimri, murderer of your master?"

32: And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, "Who is on my side? Who?" Two or three eunuchs looked out at him.

33: He said, "Throw her down." So they threw her down; and some of her blood splattered on the wall and on the horses, and they trampled on her.

34: Then he went in and ate and drank; and he said, "See now to this cursed woman, and bury her; for she is a king's daughter."

35: But when they went to bury her, they found no more of her than the skull and the feet and the palms of her hands.

36: When they came back and told him, he said, "This is the word of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant Eli'jah the Tishbite, 'In the territory of Jezreel the dogs shall eat the flesh of Jez'ebel;

37: and the corpse of Jez'ebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the territory of Jezreel, so that no one can say, This is Jez'ebel.'"

Chapter 10 Second Kings, chapter 10

1: Now Ahab had seventy sons in Sama'ria. So Jehu wrote letters, and sent them to Sama'ria, to the rulers of the city, to the elders, and to the guardians of the sons of Ahab, saying,

2: "Now then, as soon as this letter comes to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, fortified cities also, and weapons,

3: select the best and fittest of your master's sons and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house."

4: But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, "Behold, the two kings could not stand before him; how then can we stand?"

5: So he who was over the palace, and he who was over the city, together with the elders and the guardians, sent to Jehu, saying, "We are your servants, and we will do all that you bid us. We will not make any one king; do whatever is good in your eyes."

6: Then he wrote to them a second letter, saying, "If you are on my side, and if you are ready to obey me, take the heads of your master's sons, and come to me at Jezreel tomorrow at this time." Now the king's sons, seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who were bringing them up.

7: And when the letter came to them, they took the king's sons, and slew them, seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them to him at Jezreel.

8: When the messenger came and told him, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons," he said, "Lay them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning."

9: Then in the morning, when he went out, he stood, and said to all the people, "You are innocent. It was I who conspired against my master, and slew him; but who struck down all these?"

10: Know then that there shall fall to the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab; for the LORD has done what he said by his servant Eli'jah."

11: So Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, all his great men, and his familiar friends, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

12: Then he set out and went to Sama'ria. On the way, when he was at Beth-eked of the Shepherds,

13: Jehu met the kinsmen of Ahazi'ah king of Judah, and he said, "Who are you?" And they answered, "We are the kinsmen of Ahazi'ah, and we came down to visit the royal princes and the sons of the queen mother."

14: He said, "Take them alive." And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of Beth-eked, forty-two persons, and he spared none of them.

15: And when he departed from there, he met Jehon'adab the son of Rechab coming to meet him; and he greeted him, and said to him, "Is your heart true to my heart as mine is to yours?" And Jehon'adab answered, "It is." Jehu said, "If it is, give me your hand." So he gave him his hand. And Jehu took him up with him into the chariot.

16: And he said, "Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD." So he had him ride in his chariot.

17: And when he came to Sama'ria, he slew all that remained to Ahab in Sama'ria, till he had wiped them out, according to the word of the LORD which he spoke to Eli'jah.

18: Then Jehu assembled all the people, and said to them, "Ahab served Ba'al a little; but Jehu will serve him much.

19: Now therefore call to me all the prophets of Ba'al, all his worshipers and all his priests; let none be missing, for I have a great sacrifice to offer to Ba'al; whoever is missing shall not live." But Jehu did it with cunning in order to destroy the worshipers of Ba'al.

20: And Jehu ordered, "Sanctify a solemn assembly for Ba'al." So they proclaimed it.

21: And Jehu sent throughout all Israel; and all the worshipers of Ba'al came, so that there was not a man left who did not come. And they entered the house of Ba'al, and the house of Ba'al was filled from one end to the other.

22: He said to him who was in charge of the wardrobe, "Bring out the vestments for all the worshipers of Ba'al." So he brought out the vestments for them.

23: Then Jehu went into the house of Ba'al with Jehon'adab the son of Rechab; and he said to the worshipers of Ba'al, "Search, and see that there is no servant of the LORD here among you, but only the worshipers of Ba'al."

24: Then he went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had stationed eighty men outside, and said, "The man who allows any of those whom I give into your hands to escape shall forfeit his life."

25: So as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, Jehu said to the guard and to the officers, "Go in and slay them; let not a man escape." So when they put them to the sword, the guard and the officers cast them out and went into the inner room of the house of Ba'al

26: and they brought out the pillar that was in the house of Ba'al, and burned it.

27: And they demolished the pillar of Ba'al, and demolished the house of Ba'al, and made it a latrine to this day.

28: Thus Jehu wiped out Ba'al from Israel.

29: But Jehu did not turn aside from the sins of Jerobo'am the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin, the golden calves that were in Bethel, and in Dan.

30: And the LORD said to Jehu, "Because you have done well in carrying out what is right in my eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, your sons of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel."

31: But Jehu was not careful to walk in the law of the LORD the God of Israel with all his heart; he did not turn from the sins of Jerobo'am, which he made Israel to sin.

32: In those days the LORD began to cut off parts of Israel. Haz'ael defeated them throughout the territory of Israel:

33: from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manas'sites, from Aro'er, which is by the valley of the Arnon, that is, Gilead and Bashan.

34: Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

35: So Jehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Sama'ria. And Jeho'ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

36: The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Sama'ria was twenty-eight years.

Chapter 11

Second Kings, chapter 11

1: Now when Athali'ah the mother of Ahazi'ah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal family.

2: But Jehosh'eba, the daughter of King Joram, sister of Ahazi'ah, took Jo'ash the son of Ahazi'ah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were about to be slain, and she put him and his nurse in a bedchamber. Thus she hid him from Athali'ah, so that he was not slain;

3: and he remained with her six years, hid in the house of the LORD, while Athali'ah reigned over the land.

4: But in the seventh year Jehoi'ada sent and brought the captains of the Carites and of the guards, and had them come to him in the house of the LORD; and he made a covenant with them and put them under oath in the house of the LORD, and he showed them the king's son.

5: And he commanded them, "This is the thing that you shall do: one third of you, those who come off duty on the sabbath and guard the king's house

6: (another third being at the gate Sur and a third at the gate behind the guards), shall guard the palace;

7: and the two divisions of you, which come on duty in force on the sabbath and guard the house of the LORD,

8: shall surround the king, each with his weapons in his hand; and whoever approaches the ranks is to be slain. Be with the king when he goes out and when he comes in."

9: The captains did according to all that Jehoi'ada the priest commanded, and each brought his men who were to go off duty on the sabbath, with those who were to come on duty on the sabbath, and came to Jehoi'ada the priest.

10: And the priest delivered to the captains the spears and shields that had been King David's, which were in the house of the LORD;

11: and the guards stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, from the south side of the house to the north side of the house, around the altar and the house.

12: Then he brought out the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony; and they proclaimed him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, "Long live the king!"

13: When Athali'ah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she went into the house of the LORD to the people;

14: and when she looked, there was the king standing by the pillar, according to the custom, and the captains and the trumpeters beside the king, and all the people of the land rejoicing and blowing trumpets. And Athali'ah rent her clothes, and cried, "Treason! Treason!"

15: Then Jehoi'ada the priest commanded the captains who were set over the army, "Bring her out between the ranks; and slay with the sword any one who follows her." For the priest said, "Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD."

16: So they laid hands on her; and she went through the horses' entrance to the king's house, and there she was slain.

17: And Jehoi'ada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and people, that they should be the LORD's people; and also between the king and the people.

18: Then all the people of the land went to the house of Ba'al, and tore it down; his altars and his images they broke in pieces, and they slew Mattan the priest of Ba'al before the altars. And the priest posted watchmen over the house of the LORD.

19: And he took the captains, the Carites, the guards, and all the people of the land; and they brought the king down from the house of the LORD, marching through the gate of the guards to the king's house. And he took his seat on the throne of the kings.

20: So all the people of the land rejoiced; and the city was quiet after Athali'ah had been slain with the sword at the king's house.

21: Jeho'ash was seven years old when he began to reign.

Chapter 12

Second Kings, chapter 12

1: In the seventh year of Jehu Jeho'ash began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zib'iah of Beer-sheba.

2: And Jeho'ash did what was right in the eyes of the LORD all his days, because Jehoi'ada the priest instructed him.

3: Nevertheless the high places were not taken away; the people continued to sacrifice and burn incense on the high places.

4: Jeho'ash said to the priests, "All the money of the holy things which is brought into the house of the LORD, the money for which each man is assessed -- the money from the assessment of persons -- and the money which a man's heart prompts him to bring into the house of the LORD,

5: let the priests take, each from his acquaintance; and let them repair the house wherever any need of repairs is discovered."

6: But by the twenty-third year of King Jeho'ash the priests had made no repairs on the house.

7: Therefore King Jeho'ash summoned Jehoi'ada the priest and the other priests and said to them, "Why are you not repairing the house? Now therefore take no more money from your acquaintances, but hand it over for the repair of the house."

8: So the priests agreed that they should take no more money from the people, and that they should not repair the house.

9: Then Jehoi'ada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar on the right side as one entered the house of the LORD; and the priests who guarded the threshold put in it all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.

10: And whenever they saw that there was much money in the chest, the king's secretary and the high priest came up and they counted and tied up in bags the money that was found in the house of the LORD.

11: Then they would give the money that was weighed out into the hands of the workmen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they paid it out to the carpenters and the builders who worked upon the house of the LORD,

12: and to the masons and the stonecutters, as well as to buy timber and quarried stone for making repairs on the house of the LORD, and for any outlay upon the repairs of the house.

13: But there were not made for the house of the LORD basins of silver, snuffers, bowls, trumpets, or any vessels of gold, or of silver, from the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, 14: for that was given to the workmen who were repairing the house of the LORD with it.

15: And they did not ask an accounting from the men into whose hand they delivered the money to pay out to the workmen, for they dealt honestly.

16: The money from the guilt offerings and the money from the sin offerings was not brought into the house of the LORD; it belonged to the priests.

17: At that time Haz'ael king of Syria went up and fought against Gath, and took it. But when Haz'ael set his face to go up against Jerusalem, 18: Jeho'ash king of Judah took all the votive gifts that Jehosh'aphat and Jeho'ram and Ahazi'ah, his fathers, the kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own votive gifts, and all the gold that was found in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent these to Haz'ael king of Syria. Then Haz'ael went away from Jerusalem.

19: Now the rest of the acts of Jo'ash, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

20: His servants arose and made a conspiracy, and slew Jo'ash in the house of Millo, on the way that goes down to Silla.

21: It was Jo'zacar the son of Shim'e-ath and Jeho'zabad the son of Shomer, his servants, who struck him down, so that he died. And they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and Amazi'ah his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 13

Second Kings, chapter 13

1: In the twenty-third year of Jo'ash the son of Ahazi'ah, king of Judah, Jeho'ahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Sama'ria, and he reigned seventeen years.

2: He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jerobo'am the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin; he did not depart from them.

3: And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he gave them continually into the hand of Haz'ael king of Syria and into the hand of Ben-ha'dad the son of Haz'ael.

4: Then Jeho'ahaz besought the LORD, and the LORD hearkened to him; for he saw the oppression of Israel, how the king of Syria oppressed them.

5: (Therefore the LORD gave Israel a savior, so that they escaped from the hand of the Syrians; and the people of Israel dwelt in their homes as formerly.

6: Nevertheless they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jerobo'am, which he made Israel to sin, but walked in them; and the Ashe'rah also remained in Sama'ria.)

7: For there was not left to Jeho'ahaz an army of more than fifty horsemen and ten chariots and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them and made them like the dust at threshing.

8: Now the rest of the acts of Jeho'ahaz and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

9: So Jeho'ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Sama'ria; and Jo'ash his son reigned in his stead.

10: In the thirty-seventh year of Jo'ash king of Judah Jeho'ash the son of Jeho'ahaz began to reign over Israel in Sama'ria, and he reigned sixteen years.

11: He also did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from all the sins of Jerobo'am the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin, but he walked in them.

12: Now the rest of the acts of Jo'ash, and all that he did, and the might with which he fought against Amazi'ah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

13: So Jo'ash slept with his fathers, and Jerobo'am sat upon his throne; and Jo'ash was buried in Sama'ria with the kings of Israel.

14: Now when Eli'sha had fallen sick with the illness of which he was to die, Jo'ash king of Israel went down to him, and wept before him, crying, "My father, my father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!"

15: And Eli'sha said to him, "Take a bow and arrows"; so he took a bow and arrows.

16: Then he said to the king of Israel, "Draw the bow"; and he drew it. And Eli'sha laid his hands upon the king's hands.

17: And he said, "Open the window eastward"; and he opened it. Then Eli'sha said, "Shoot"; and he shot. And he said, "The LORD's arrow of victory, the arrow of victory over Syria! For you shall fight the Syrians in Aphek until you have made an end of them."

18: And he said, "Take the arrows"; and he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, "Strike the ground with them"; and he struck three times, and stopped.

19: Then the man of God was angry with him, and said, "You should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck down Syria until you had made an end of it, but now you will strike down Syria only three times."

20: So Eli'sha died, and they buried him. Now bands of Moabites used to invade the land in the spring of the year.

21: And as a man was being buried, lo, a marauding band was seen and the man was cast into the grave of Eli'sha; and as soon as the man touched the bones of Eli'sha, he revived, and stood on his feet.

22: Now Haz'ael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jeho'ahaz.

v22: Now Haz'ael king of Syria had oppressed Israel all the days of Jeho'ahaz.

23: But the LORD was gracious to them and had compassion on them, and he turned toward them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them; nor has he cast them from his presence until now.

v23: But the LORD was gracious to them in the northern kingdom and had compassion on them, and he was caused to turn toward them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and he would not destroy them in the northern kingdom because of the pivot of mature believers; nor would he cast them from his presence until this time.

24: When Haz'ael king of Syria died, Ben-ha'dad his son became king in his stead.

25: Then Jeho'ash the son of Jeho'ahaz took again from Ben-ha'dad the son of Haz'ael the cities which he had taken from Jeho'ahaz his father in war. Three times Jo'ash defeated him and recovered the cities of Israel.

Chapter 14

Second Kings, chapter 14

1: In the second year of Jo'ash the son of Jeho'ahaz, king of Israel, Amazi'ah the son of Jo'ash, king of Judah, began to reign.

2: He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jeho-ad'din of Jerusalem.

3: And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, yet not like David his father; he did in all things as Jo'ash his father had done.

v3: And he, Amaziah manufactured from Metabolized Bible Doctrine the integrity in the eyes of the LORD, yet not like David his ancestor; he did in all things as Jo'ash his father had done.

4: But the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

5: And as soon as the royal power was firmly in his hand he killed his servants who had slain the king his father.

6: But he did not put to death the children of the murderers; according to what is written in the book of the law of Moses, where the LORD commanded, "The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, or the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin."

7: He killed ten thousand E'domites in the Valley of Salt and took Sela by storm, and called it Jok'the-el, which is its name to this day.

8: Then Amazi'ah sent messengers to Jeho'ash the son of Jeho'ahaz, son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us look one another in the face."

9: And Jeho'ash king of Israel sent word to Amazi'ah king of Judah, "A thistle on Lebanon sent to a cedar on Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son for a wife'; and a wild beast of Lebanon passed by and trampled down the thistle.

10: You have indeed smitten Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Be content with your glory, and stay at home; for why should you provoke trouble so that you fall, you and Judah with you?"

11: But Amazi'ah would not listen. So Jeho'ash king of Israel went up, and he and Amazi'ah king of Judah faced one another in battle at Beth-she'mesh, which belongs to Judah.

12: And Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his home.

13: And Jeho'ash king of Israel captured Amazi'ah king of Judah, the son of Jeho'ash, son of Ahazi'ah, at Beth-she'mesh, and came to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem for four hundred cubits, from the E'phraim Gate to the Corner Gate.

14: And he seized all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house, also hostages, and he returned to Sama'ria.

15: Now the rest of the acts of Jeho'ash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amazi'ah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

16: And Jeho'ash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Sama'ria with the kings of Israel; and Jerobo'am his son reigned in his stead.

17: Amazi'ah the son of Jo'ash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Jeho'ash son of Jeho'ahaz, king of Israel.

18: Now the rest of the deeds of Amazi'ah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

19: And they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. But they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there.

20: And they brought him upon horses; and he was buried in Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.

21: And all the people of Judah took Azari'ah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amazi'ah.

22: He built Elath and restored it to Judah, after the king slept with his fathers.

23: In the fifteenth year of Amazi'ah the son of Jo'ash, king of Judah, Jerobo'am the son of Jo'ash, king of Israel, began to reign in Sama'ria, and he reigned forty-one years.

24: And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from all the sins of Jerobo'am the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin.

25: He restored the border of Israel from the entrance of Hamath as far as the Sea of the Arabah, according to the word of the LORD, the God of Israel, which he spoke by his servant Jonah the son of Amit'tai, the prophet, who was from Gath-he'pher.

26: For the LORD saw that the affliction of Israel was very bitter, for there was none left, bond or free, and there was none to help Israel.

27: But the LORD had not said that he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven, so he saved them by the hand of Jerobo'am the son of Jo'ash.

28: Now the rest of the acts of Jerobo'am, and all that he did, and his might, how he fought, and how he recovered for Israel Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

29: And Jerobo'am slept with his fathers, the kings of Israel, and Zechari'ah his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 15

Second Kings, chapter 15

1: In the twenty-seventh year of Jerobo'am king of Israel Azari'ah the son of Amazi'ah, king of Judah, began to reign.

2: He was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoli'ah of Jerusalem.

3: And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Amazi'ah had done.

4: Nevertheless the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

5: And the LORD smote the king, so that he was a leper to the day of his death, and he dwelt in a separate house. And Jotham the king's son was over the household, governing the people of the land.

6: Now the rest of the acts of Azari'ah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

7: And Azari'ah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

8: In the thirty-eighth year of Azari'ah king of Judah Zechari'ah the son of Jerobo'am reigned over Israel in Sama'ria six months.

9: And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done. He did not depart from the sins of Jerobo'am the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin.

10: Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and struck him down at Ibleam, and killed him, and reigned in his stead.

11: Now the rest of the deeds of Zechari'ah, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

12: (This was the promise of the LORD which he gave to Jehu, "Your sons shall sit upon the throne of Israel to the fourth generation." And so it came to pass.)

13: Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the thirty-ninth year of Uzzi'ah king of Judah, and he reigned one month in Sama'ria.

14: Then Men'ahem the son of Gadi came up from Tirzah and came to Sama'ria, and he struck down Shallum the son of Jabesh in Sama'ria and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

15: Now the rest of the deeds of Shallum, and the conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

16: At that time Men'ahem sacked Tappuah and all who were in it and its territory from Tirzah on; because they did not open it to him, therefore he sacked it, and he ripped up all the women in it who were with child.

17: In the thirty-ninth year of Azari'ah king of Judah Men'ahem the son of Gadi began to reign over Israel, and he reigned ten years in Sama'ria.

18: And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart all his days from all the sins of Jerobo'am the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin.

19: Pul the king of Assyria came against the land; and Men'ahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that he might help him to confirm his hold of the royal power.

20: Men'ahem exacted the money from Israel, that is, from all the wealthy men, fifty shekels of silver from every man, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and did not stay there in the land.

21: Now the rest of the deeds of Men'ahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

22: And Men'ahem slept with his fathers, and Pekahi'ah his son reigned in his stead.

23: In the fiftieth year of Azari'ah king of Judah Pekahi'ah the son of Men'ahem began to reign over Israel in Sama'ria, and he reigned two years.

24: And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not turn away from the sins of Jerobo'am the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin.

25: And Pekah the son of Remali'ah, his captain, conspired against him with fifty men of the Gileadites, and slew him in Sama'ria, in the citadel of the king's house; he slew him, and reigned in his stead.

26: Now the rest of the deeds of Pekahi'ah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

27: In the fifty-second year of Azari'ah king of Judah Pekah the son of Remali'ah began to reign over Israel in Sama'ria, and reigned twenty years.

28: And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from the sins of Jerobo'am the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin.

29: In the days of Pekah king of Israel Tig'lath-pile'ser king of Assyria came and captured I'jon, A'bel-beth-ma'acah, Jan-o'ah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naph'tali; and he carried the people captive to Assyria.

30: Then Hoshe'a the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remali'ah, and struck him down, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzzi'ah.

31: Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

32: In the second year of Pekah the son of Remali'ah, king of Israel, Jotham the son of Uzzi'ah, king of Judah, began to reign.

33: He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jeru'sha the daughter of Zadok.

34: And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzzi'ah had done.

35: Nevertheless the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places. He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD.

36: Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

37: In those days the LORD began to send Rezin the king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remali'ah against Judah.

38: Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 16

Second Kings, chapter 16

1: In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remali'ah, Ahaz the son of Jotham, king of Judah, began to reign.

2: Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And he did not do what was right in the eyes of the LORD his God, as his father David had done, v2: Ahaz was twenty years old when he began king, and he ruled sixteen years in Jerusalem. And he did not do what was right in the eyes of the LORD his God, like his ancestor David had done,

3: but he walked in the way of the kings of Israel. He even burned his son as an offering, according to the abominable practices of the nations whom the LORD drove out before the people of Israel.

4: And he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5: Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remali'ah, king of Israel, came up to wage war on Jerusalem, and they besieged Ahaz but could not conquer him.

6: At that time the king of Edom recovered Elath for Edom, and drove the men of Judah from Elath; and the E'domites came to Elath, where they dwell to this day.

7: So Ahaz sent messengers to Tig'lath-pile'ser king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son. Come up, and rescue me from the hand of the king of Syria and from the hand of the king of Israel, who are attacking me."

8: Ahaz also took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent a present to the king of Assyria.

9: And the king of Assyria hearkened to him; the king of Assyria marched up against Damascus, and took it, carrying its people captive to Kir, and he killed Rezin.

10: When King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tig'lath-pile'ser king of Assyria, he saw the altar that was at Damascus. And King Ahaz sent to Uri'ah the priest a model of the altar, and its pattern, exact in all its details.

11: And Uri'ah the priest built the altar; in accordance with all that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so Uri'ah the priest made it, before King Ahaz arrived from Damascus.

12: And when the king came from Damascus, the king viewed the altar. Then the king drew near to the altar, and went up on it, 13: and burned his burnt offering and his cereal offering, and poured his drink offering, and threw the blood of his peace offerings upon the altar.

14: And the bronze altar which was before the LORD he removed from the front of the house, from the place between his altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of his altar.

15: And King Ahaz commanded Uri'ah the priest, saying, "Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening cereal offering, and the king's burnt offering, and his cereal offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their cereal offering, and their drink offering; and throw upon it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice; but the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by."

16: Uri'ah the priest did all this, as King Ahaz commanded.

17: And King Ahaz cut off the frames of the stands, and removed the laver from them, and he took down the sea from off the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it upon a pediment of stone.

18: And the covered way for the sabbath which had been built inside the palace, and the outer entrance for the king he removed from the house of the LORD, because of the king of Assyria.

19: Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

20: And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Hezeki'ah his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 17

Second Kings, chapter 17

to reign in Sama'ria over Israel, and he reigned nine years.

2: And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, yet not as the kings of Israel who were before him.

3: Against him came up Shalmane'ser king of Assyria; and Hoshe'a became his vassal, and paid him tribute.

4: But the king of Assyria found treachery in Hoshe'a; for he had sent messengers to So, king of Egypt, and offered no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year; therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

5: Then the king of Assyria invaded all the land and came to Sama'ria, and for three years he besieged it.

6: In the ninth year of Hoshe'a the king of Assyria captured Sama'ria, and he carried the Israelites away to Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

7: And this was so, because the people of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods

8: and walked in the customs of the nations whom the LORD drove out before the people of Israel, and in the customs which the kings of Israel had introduced.

9: And the people of Israel did secretly against the LORD their God things that were not right. They built for themselves high places at all their towns, from watchtower to fortified city;

10: they set up for themselves pillars and Ashe'rim on every high hill and under every green tree;

11: and there they burned incense on all the high places, as the nations did whom the LORD carried away before them. And they did wicked things, provoking the LORD to anger,

12: and they served idols, of which the LORD had said to them, "You shall not do this."

13: Yet the LORD warned Israel and Judah by every prophet and every seer, saying, "Turn from your evil ways and keep my commandments and my statutes, in accordance with all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets."

14: But they would not listen, but were stubborn, as their fathers had been, who did not believe in the LORD their God.

15: They despised his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and the warnings which he gave them. They went after false idols, and became false, and they followed the nations that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had commanded them that they should not do like them.

16: And they forsook all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made for themselves molten images of two calves; and they made an Ashe'rah, and worshiped all the host of heaven, and served Ba'al.

17: And they burned their sons and their daughters as offerings, and used divination and sorcery, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

18: Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight; none was left but the tribe of Judah only.

19: Judah also did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the customs which Israel had introduced.

20: And the LORD rejected all the descendants of Israel, and afflicted them, and gave them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.

21: When he had torn Israel from the house of David they made Jerobo'am the son of Nebat king. And Jerobo'am drove Israel from following the LORD and made them commit great sin.

22: The people of Israel walked in all the sins which Jerobo'am did; they did not depart from them, 23: until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, as he had spoken by all his servants the prophets. So Israel was exiled from their own land to Assyria until this day.

24: And the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath, and Sephar-va'im, and placed them in the cities of Sama'ria instead of the people of Israel; and they took possession of Sama'ria, and dwelt in its cities.

25: And at the beginning of their dwelling there, they did not fear the LORD; therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which killed some of them.

26: So the king of Assyria was told, "The nations which you have carried away and placed in the cities of Sama'ria do not know the law of the god of the land; therefore he has sent lions among them, and behold, they are killing them, because they do not know the law of the god of the land."

27: Then the king of Assyria commanded, "Send there one of the priests whom you carried away thence; and let him go and dwell there, and teach them the law of the god of the land."

28: So one of the priests whom they had carried away from Sama'ria came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

29: But every nation still made gods of its own, and put them in the shrines of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in the cities in which they dwelt;

30: the men of Babylon made Suc'coth-be'noth, the men of Cuth made Nergal, the men of Hamath made Ashi'ma, 31: and the Av'vites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sephar'vites burned their children in the fire to Adram'melech and Anam'melech, the gods of Sephar-va'im.

32: They also feared the LORD, and appointed from among themselves all sorts of people as priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the shrines of the high places.

33: So they feared the LORD but also served their own gods, after the manner of the nations from among whom they had been carried away.

34: To this day they do according to the former manner. They do not fear the LORD, and they do not follow the statutes or the ordinances or the law or the commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel.

35: The LORD made a covenant with them, and commanded them, "You shall not fear other gods or bow yourselves to them or serve them or sacrifice to them;

36: but you shall fear the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm; you shall bow yourselves to him, and to him you shall sacrifice.

37: And the statutes and the ordinances and the law and the commandment which he wrote for you, you shall always be careful to do. You shall not fear other gods,

38: and you shall not forget the covenant that I have made with you. You shall not fear other gods,

39: but you shall fear the LORD your God, and he will deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies."

40: However they would not listen, but they did according to their former manner.

41: So these nations feared the LORD, and also served their graven images; their children likewise, and their children's children -- as their fathers did, so they do to this day.

Chapter 18

Second Kings, chapter 18

1: In the third year of Hoshe'a son of Elah, king of Israel, Hezeki'ah the son of Ahaz, king of Judah, began to reign.

2Kings 18:1

v1: Now it came to pass in the 3rd year of Hoseah ben Allah King of Israel that Hezekiah ben Ahaz became King of Judah (his headquarters),

2: He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abi the daughter of Zechari'ah.

3: And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

v3: And he, Hezekiah, manufactured from maturity Adjustment to the Justice of God the integrity in the eyes of the Lord like all that his ancestor David had manufactured out of Doctrine,

4: He removed the high places, and broke the pillars, and cut down the Ashe'rah. And he broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made, for until those days the people of Israel had burned incense to it; it was called Nehush'tan.

2Kings 18:4

v4: He started out in the right way, he removed the high places (Phallic Cult in the mountains) and he broke down the sacred pillars of all the altars and cut down the Asherah and smashed in pieces the Bronze Serpent which Moses had made which the sons of Israel had burnt incense to (they were worshiping the Snake itself thus Satan), and it was called Nehush'tan

5: He trusted in the LORD the God of Israel; so that there was none like him among all the kings of Judah after him, nor among those who were before him.

2Kings 18:5

v5: He Hezekiah trusted in Adanai Jehovah, the Elohim of Israel so that after him there was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor among those who were before him.

6: For he held fast to the LORD; he did not depart from following him, but kept the commandments which the LORD commanded Moses.

2Kings 18:6

v6: For he clung to the lord and did not depart from following him, but he kept his commandments which the Lord had commanded Moses.

7: And the LORD was with him; wherever he went forth, he prospered. He rebelled against the king of Assyria, and would not serve him.

2Kings 18:7 (what actually occurred Hezekiah's Rebound recovery)

7: And the Lord was with him wherever he went and he Prospered (Grace) and he rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him.

8: He smote the Philistines as far as Gaza and its territory, from watchtower to fortified city.

9: In the fourth year of King Hezeki'ah, which was the seventh year of Hoshe'a son of Elah, king of Israel, Shalmane'ser king of Assyria came up against Sama'ria and besieged it

10: and at the end of three years he took it. In the sixth year of Hezeki'ah, which was the ninth year of Hoshe'a king of Israel, Sama'ria was taken.

11: The king of Assyria carried the Israelites away to Assyria, and put them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, 12: because they did not obey the voice of the LORD their God but transgressed his covenant, even all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded; they neither listened nor obeyed.

13: In the fourteenth year of King Hezeki'ah Sennach'erib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and took them.

2Kings 18:13

v13: IN the 14th year of the reign of King Hezekiah Sennach'erib the king of assyria assaulted all of the fortified cities of Jerusalem and Captured them.

14: And Hezeki'ah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria at Lachish, saying, "I have done wrong; withdraw from me; whatever you impose on me I will bear." And the king of Assyria required of Hezeki'ah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

2Kings 18:14

v14: Then Hezekiah the king of Judah sent to the King of assyria at Lechish and said "I have done you a wrong, withdraw from me again, whatever tribute you impose upon me I will pay you off". So the king of Assyria imposed on Hezekiah king of Judah, 300 talents of Silver and 30 talents of Gold (millions of Dollars of tribute).

15: And Hezeki'ah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasuries of the king's house.

2Kings 18:15

v15: Therefore Hezekiah gave him all the silver which was found in the house of the Lord and the treasury of the kings palace.

16: At that time Hezeki'ah stripped the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the doorposts which Hezeki'ah king of Judah had overlaid and gave it to the king of Assyria.

2Kings 18:16

v16: At that time Hezekiah mutilated the doors of the temple of the lord and the pillars which Hezekiah the king had plated with Gold, and gave all of these things to the king of Assyria.

17: And the king of Assyria sent the Tartan, the Rab'saris, and the Rab'sshakeh with a great army from Lachish to King Hezeki'ah at Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. When they arrived, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is on the highway to the Fuller's Field.

18: And when they called for the king, there came out to them Eli'akim the son of Hilki'ah, who was over the household, and Shebna the secretary, and Jo'ah the son of Asaph, the recorder.

19: And the Rab'sshakeh said to them, "Say to Hezeki'ah, `Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: On what do you rest this confidence of yours?

20: Do you think that mere words are strategy and power for war? On whom do you now rely, that you have rebelled against me?

21: Behold, you are relying now on Egypt, that broken reed of a staff, which will pierce the hand of any man who leans on it. Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who rely on him.

22: But if you say to me, "We rely on the LORD our God," is it not he whose high places and altars Hezeki'ah has removed, saying to Judah and to Jerusalem, "You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem"?

23: Come now, make a wager with my master the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders upon them.

24: How then can you repulse a single captain among the least of my master's servants, when you rely on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

25: Moreover, is it without the LORD that I have come up against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it."

26: Then Eli'akim the son of Hilki'ah, and Shebna, and Jo'ah, said to the Rab'sshakeh, "Pray, speak to your servants in the Aramaic language, for we understand it; do not speak to us in the language of Judah within the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

27: But the Rab'sshakeh said to them, "Has my master sent me to speak these words to your master and to you, and not to the men sitting on the wall, who are doomed with you to eat their own dung and to drink their own urine?"

28: Then the Rab'sshakeh stood and called out in a loud voice in the language of Judah: "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria!

29: Thus says the king: `Do not let Hezeki'ah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you out of my hand.

30: Do not let Hezeki'ah make you to rely on the LORD by saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'

31: Do not listen to Hezeki'ah; for thus says the king of Assyria: `Make your peace with me and come out to me; then every one of you will eat of his own vine, and every one of his own fig tree, and every one of you will drink the water of his own cistern;

32: until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and honey, that you may live, and not die. And do not listen to Hezeki'ah when he misleads you by saying, The LORD will deliver us.

33: Has any of the gods of the nations ever delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

34: Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharva'im, Hena, and Ivvah? Have they delivered Sama'ria out of my hand?

35: Who among all the gods of the countries have delivered their countries out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?"

36: But the people were silent and answered him not a word, for the king's command was, "Do not answer him."

37: Then Eli'akim the son of Hilki'ah, who was over the household, and Shebna the secretary, and Jo'ah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezeki'ah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of the Rab'sshakeh.

Chapter 19

Second Kings, chapter 19

1: When King Hezeki'ah heard it, he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

2: And he sent Eli'akim, who was over the household, and Shebna the secretary, and the senior priests, covered with sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz.

3: They said to him, "Thus says Hezeki'ah, This day is a day of distress, of rebuke, and of disgrace; children have come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring them forth.

4: It may be that the LORD your God heard all the words of the Rab'sshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to mock the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard; therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left."

5: When the servants of King Hezeki'ah came to Isaiah,

6: Isaiah said to them, "Say to your master, `Thus says the LORD: Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have reviled me.

7: Behold, I will put a spirit in him, so that he shall hear a rumor and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land."

8: The Rab'sshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah; for he heard that the king had left Lachish.

9: And when the king heard concerning Tirha'kah king of Ethiopia, "Behold, he has set out to fight against you," he sent messengers again to Hezeki'ah, saying,

10: "Thus shall you speak to Hezeki'ah king of Judah: `Do not let your God on whom you rely deceive you by promising that Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11: Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, destroying them utterly. And shall you be delivered?

12: Have the gods of the nations delivered them, the nations which my fathers destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Tel-assar?

13: Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharva'im, the king of Hena, or the king of Ivvah?"

14: Hezeki'ah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezeki'ah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15: And Hezeki'ah prayed before the LORD, and said: "O LORD the God of Israel, who art enthroned above the cherubim, thou art the God, thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth.

16: Incline thy ear, O LORD, and hear; open thy eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear the words of Sennach'erib, which he has sent to mock the living God.

17: Of a truth, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands, 18: and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they were destroyed.

19: So now, O LORD our God, save us, I beseech thee, from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou, O LORD, art God alone."

20: Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezeki'ah, saying, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Your prayer to me about Sennach'erib king of Assyria I have heard.

21: This is the word that the LORD has spoken concerning him: "She despises you, she scorns you -- the virgin daughter of Zion; she wags her head behind you -- the daughter of Jerusalem.

22: "Whom have you mocked and reviled? Against whom have you raised your voice and haughtily lifted your eyes? Against the Holy One of Israel!

23: By your messengers you have mocked the LORD, and you have said, `With my many chariots I have gone up the heights of the mountains, to the far recesses of Lebanon; I felled its tallest cedars, its choicest cypresses; I entered its farthest retreat, its densest forest.

24: I dug wells and drank foreign waters, and I dried up with the sole of my foot all the streams of Egypt.'

25: "Have you not heard that I determined it long ago? I planned from days of old what now I bring to pass, that you should turn fortified cities into heaps of ruins, 26: while their inhabitants, shorn of strength, are dismayed and confounded, and have become like plants of the field, and like tender grass, like grass on the housetops; blighted before it is grown?

27: "But I know your sitting down and your going out and coming in, and your raging against me.

28: Because you have raged against me and your arrogance has come into my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth, and I will turn you back on the way by which you came.

29: "And this shall be the sign for you: this year you shall eat what grows of itself, and in the second year what springs of the same; then in the third year sow, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.

30: And the surviving remnant of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward;

31: for out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and out of Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal of the LORD will do this.

32: "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city or shoot an arrow there, or come before it with a shield or cast up a siege mound against it.

2Kings 19:32

v32: Therefore thus says the Lord, concerning the king of Assyria; "He shall not come to t his city nor shoot an arrow there, neither shall he come before it with a shield (he will not be able to attack) nor throw up a mound against it.

33: By the way that he came, by the same he shall return, and he shall not come into this city, says the LORD.

34: For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake and for the sake of my servant David."

35: And that night the angel of the LORD went forth, and slew a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians; and when men arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies.

36: Then Sennach'erib king of Assyria departed, and went home, and dwelt at Nin'veveh.

37: And as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, Adram'melech and Share'zer, his sons, slew him with the sword, and escaped into the land of Ar'arat. And Esarhad'don his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 20

Second Kings, chapter 20

1: In those days Hezeki'ah became sick and was at the point of death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, `Set your house in order; for you shall die, you shall not recover."

2: Then Hezeki'ah turned his face to the wall, and prayed to the LORD, saying,

3: "Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in faithfulness and with a whole heart, and have done what is good in thy sight." And Hezeki'ah wept bitterly.

4: And before Isaiah had gone out of the middle court, the word of the LORD came to him:

5: "Turn back, and say to Hezeki'ah the prince of my people, Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; behold, I will heal you; on the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD.

6: And I will add fifteen years to your life. I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city for my own sake and for my servant David's sake."

7: And Isaiah said, "Bring a cake of figs. And let them take and lay it on the boil, that he may recover."

8: And Hezeki'ah said to Isaiah, "What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD on the third day?"

9: And Isaiah said, "This is the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he has promised: shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or go back ten steps?"

10: And Hezeki'ah answered, "It is an easy thing for the shadow to lengthen ten steps; rather let the shadow go back ten steps."

11: And Isaiah the prophet cried to the LORD; and he brought the shadow back ten steps, by which the sun had declined on the dial of Ahaz.

12: At that time Mero'dach-bal'adan the son of Bal'adan, king of Babylon, sent envoys with letters and a present to Hezeki'ah; for he heard that Hezeki'ah had been sick.

13: And Hezeki'ah welcomed them, and he showed them all his treasure house, the silver, the gold, the spices, the precious oil, his armory, all that was found in his storehouses; there was nothing in his house or in all his realm that Hezeki'ah did not show them.

14: Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezeki'ah, and said to him, "What did these men say? And whence did they come to you?" And Hezeki'ah said, "They have come from a far country, from Babylon."

15: He said, "What have they seen in your house?" And Hezeki'ah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing in my storehouses that I did not show them."

16: Then Isaiah said to Hezeki'ah, "Hear the word of the LORD:

17: Behold, the days are coming, when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have stored up till this day, shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left, says the LORD.

18: And some of your own sons, who are born to you, shall be taken away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."

19: Then said Hezeki'ah to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good." For he thought, "Why not, if there will be peace and security in my days?"

20: The rest of the deeds of Hezeki'ah, and all his might, and how he made the pool and the conduit and brought water into the city, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

21: And Hezeki'ah slept with his fathers; and Manas'sseh his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 21

Second Kings, chapter 21

1: Manas'sseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Heph'zibah.

2: And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominable practices of the nations whom the LORD drove out before the people of Israel.

3: For he rebuilt the high places which Hezeki'ah his father had destroyed; and he erected altars for Ba'al, and made an Ashe'rah, as Ahab king of Israel had done, and worshiped all the host of heaven, and served them.

4: And he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem will I put my name."

5: And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

6: And he burned his son as an offering, and practiced soothsaying and augury, and dealt with mediums and with wizards. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

7: And the graven image of Ashe'rah that he had made he set in the house of which the LORD said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name for ever;

8: and I will not cause the feet of Israel to wander any more out of the land which I gave to their fathers, if only they will be careful to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them."

9: But they did not listen, and Manas'sseh seduced them to do more evil than the nations had done whom the LORD destroyed before the people of Israel.

10: And the LORD said by his servants the prophets,

11: "Because Manas'sseh king of Judah has committed these abominations, and has done things more wicked than all that the Amorites did, who were before him, and has made Judah also to sin with his idols;

12: therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing upon Jerusalem and Judah such evil that the ears of every one who hears of it will tingle.

13: And I will stretch over Jerusalem the measuring line of Sama'ria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab; and I will wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down.

14: And I will cast off the remnant of my heritage, and give them into the hand of their enemies, and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies,

15: because they have done what is evil in my sight and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came out of Egypt, even to this day."

16: Moreover Manas'sseh shed very much innocent blood, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another, besides the sin which he made Judah to sin so that they did what was evil in the sight of the LORD.

17: Now the rest of the acts of Manas'sseh, and all that he did, and the sin that he committed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

18: And Manas'sseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his house, in the garden of Uzza; and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

19: Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Meshul'lemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

20: And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as Manas'sseh his father had done.

21: He walked in all the way in which his father walked, and served the idols that his father served, and worshiped them;

22: he forsook the LORD, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD.

23: And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and killed the king in his house.

24: But the people of the land slew all those who had conspired against King Amon, and the people of the land made Josi'ah his son king in his stead.

25: Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

26: And he was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza; and Josi'ah his son reigned in his stead.

Chapter 22

Second Kings, chapter 22

1: Josi'ah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedi'dah the daughter of Adai'ah of Bozkath.

2: And he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and he did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

v2: And he Josiah, did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, and walked in all the way of David his father, and he did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left being not influenced by evil.

3: In the eighteenth year of King Josi'ah, the king sent Shaphan the son of Azali'ah, son of Meshul'lam, the secretary, to the house of the LORD, saying,

4: "Go up to Hilki'ah the high priest, that he may reckon the amount of the money which has been brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the threshold have collected from the people;

5: and let it be given into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of the LORD; and let them give it to the workmen who are at the house of the LORD, repairing the house,

6: that is, to the carpenters, and to the builders, and to the masons, as well as for buying timber and quarried stone to repair the house.

7: But no accounting shall be asked from them for the money which is delivered into their hand, for they deal honestly."

8: And Hilki'ah the high priest said to Shaphan the secretary, "I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD." And Hilki'ah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

9: And Shaphan the secretary came to the king, and reported to the king, "Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of the LORD."

10: Then Shaphan the secretary told the king, "Hilki'ah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read it before the king.

11: And when the king heard the words of the book of the law, he rent his clothes.

12: And the king commanded Hilki'ah the priest, and Ahi'kam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Micai'ah, and Shaphan the secretary, and Asai'ah the king's servant, saying,

13: "Go, inquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that has been found; for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not obeyed the words of this book, to do according to all that is written concerning us."

14: So Hilki'ah the priest, and Ahi'kam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asai'ah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter); and they talked with her.

15: And she said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: `Tell the man who sent you to me, 16: Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place and upon its inhabitants, all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read.

17: Because they have forsaken me and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore my wrath will be kindled against this place, and it will not be quenched.

18: But as to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall you say to him, Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Regarding the words which you have heard, 19: because your heart was penitent, and you humbled yourself before the LORD, when you heard how I spoke against this place, and against its inhabitants, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and you have rent your clothes and wept before me, I also have heard you, says the LORD.

20: Therefore, behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, and your eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place.'" And they brought back word to the king.

Chapter 23

Second Kings, chapter 23

1: Then the king sent, and all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem were gathered to him.

2: And the king went up to the house of the LORD, and with him all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests and the prophets, all the people, both small and great; and he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant which had been found in the house of the LORD.

3: And the king stood by the pillar and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes, with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book; and all the people joined in the covenant.

4: And the king commanded Hilki'ah, the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the threshold, to bring out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels made for Ba'al, for Ashe'rah, and for all the host of heaven; he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel.

5: And he deposed the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places at the cities of Judah and round about Jerusalem; those also who burned incense to Ba'al, to the sun, and the moon, and the constellations, and all the host of the heavens.

6: And he brought out the Ashe'rah from the house of the LORD, outside Jerusalem, to the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and beat it to dust and cast the dust of it upon the graves of the common people.

7: And he broke down the houses of the male cult prostitutes which were in the house of the LORD, where the women wove hangings for the Ashe'rah.

8: And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beer-sheba; and he broke down the high places of the gates that were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on one's left at the gate of the city.

9: However, the priests of the high places did not come up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brethren.

10: And he defiled To'pheth, which is in the valley of the sons of Hinnom, that no one might burn his son or his daughter as an offering to Molech.

11: And he removed the horses that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun, at the entrance to the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the chamberlain, which was in the precincts; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

12: And the altars on the roof of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manas'seh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, he pulled down and broke in pieces, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron.

13: And the king defiled the high places that were east of Jerusalem, to the south of the mount of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ash'toreth the abomination of the Sido'nians, and for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

14: And he broke in pieces the pillars, and cut down the Ashe'rim, and filled their places with the bones of men.

15: Moreover the altar at Bethel, the high place erected by Jerobo'am the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, that altar with the high place he pulled down and he broke in pieces its stones, crushing them to dust; also he burned the Ashe'rah.

16: And as Josi'ah turned, he saw the tombs there on the mount; and he sent and took the bones out of the tombs, and burned them upon the altar, and defiled it, according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who had predicted these things.

17: Then he said, "What is yonder monument that I see?" And the men of the city told him, "It is the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and predicted these things which you have done against the altar at Bethel."

18: And he said, "Let him be; let no man move his bones." So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who came out of Sama'ria.

19: And all the shrines also of the high places that were in the cities of Sama'ria, which kings of Israel had made, provoking the LORD to anger, Josi'ah removed; he did to them according to all that he had done at Bethel.

20: And he slew all the priests of the high places who were there, upon the altars, and burned the bones of men upon them. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

21: And the king commanded all the people, "Keep the passover to the LORD your God, as it is written in this book of the covenant."

22: For no such passover had been kept since the days of the judges who judged Israel, or during all the days of the kings of Israel or of the kings of Judah;

23: but in the eighteenth year of King Josi'ah this passover was kept to the LORD in Jerusalem.

24: Moreover Josi'ah put away the mediums and the wizards and the teraphim and the idols and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he might establish the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilki'ah the priest found in the house of the LORD.

25: Before him there was no king like him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; nor did any like him arise after him.

26: Still the LORD did not turn from the fierceness of his great wrath, by which his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations with which Manas'seh had provoked him.

27: And the LORD said, "I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and I will cast off this city which I have chosen, Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there."

28: Now the rest of the acts of Josi'ah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

29: In his days Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt went up to the king of Assyria to the river Euphra'tes. King Josi'ah went to meet him; and Pharaoh Neco slew him at Megid'do, when he saw him.

30: And his servants carried him dead in a chariot from Megid'do, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. And the people of the land took Jeho'ahaz the son of Josi'ah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead.

31: Jeho'ahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamu'tal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

32: And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

33: And Pharaoh Neco put him in bonds at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem, and laid upon the land a tribute of a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

34: And Pharaoh Neco made Eli'akim the son of Josi'ah king in the place of Josi'ah his father, and changed his name to Jehoi'akim. But he took Jeho'ahaz away; and he came to Egypt, and died there.

35: And Jehoi'akim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh, but he taxed the land to give the money according to the command of Pharaoh. He exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, from every one according to his assessment, to give it to Pharaoh Neco.

36: Jehoi'akim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebi'dah the daughter of Pedai'ah of Rumah.

37: And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

Chapter 24

Second Kings, chapter 24

1: In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoi'akim became his servant three years; then he turned and rebelled against him.

2: And the LORD sent against him bands of the Chalde'ans, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the Ammonites, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD which he spoke by his servants the prophets.

3: Surely this came upon Judah at the command of the LORD, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manas'seh, according to all that he had done,

4: and also for the innocent blood that he had shed; for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the LORD would not pardon.

5: Now the rest of the deeds of Jehoi'akim, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

6: So Jehoi'akim slept with his fathers, and Jehoi'achin his son reigned in his stead.

7: And the king of Egypt did not come again out of his land, for the king of Babylon had taken all that belonged to the king of Egypt from the Brook of Egypt to the river Euphra'tes.

8: Jehoi'achin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Nehush'ta the daughter of Elna'than of Jerusalem.

9: And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.

10: At that time the servants of Nebuchadne'zar king of Babylon came up to Jerusalem, and the city was besieged.

11: And Nebuchadne'zar king of Babylon came to the city, while his servants were besieging it;

12: and Jehoi'achin the king of Judah gave himself up to the king of Babylon, himself, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his palace officials. The king of Babylon took him prisoner in the eighth year of his reign, 13: and carried off all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold in the temple of the LORD, which Solomon king of Israel had made, as the LORD had foretold.

14: He carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valor, ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths; none remained, except the poorest people of the land.

15: And he carried away Jehoi'achin to Babylon; the king's mother, the king's wives, his officials, and the chief men of the land, he took into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

16: And the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon all the men of valor, seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the smiths, one thousand, all of them strong and fit for war.

17: And the king of Babylon made Mattani'ah, Jehoi'achin's uncle, king in his stead, and changed his name to Zedeki'ah.

18: Zedeki'ah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamu'tal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

19: And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoi'akim had done.

20: For because of the anger of the LORD it came to the point in Jerusalem and Judah that he cast them out from his presence. And Zedeki'ah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

Chapter 25

Second Kings, chapter 25

1: And in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadne'zar king of Babylon came with all his army against Jerusalem, and laid siege to it; and they built siegeworks against it round about.

2: So the city was besieged till the eleventh year of King Zedeki'ah.

3: On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

4: Then a breach was made in the city; the king with all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, by the king's garden, though the Chalde'ans were around the city. And they went in the direction of the Arabah.

5: But the army of the Chalde'ans pursued the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

6: Then they captured the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, who passed sentence upon him.

7: They slew the sons of Zedeki'ah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedeki'ah, and bound him in fetters, and took him to Babylon.

8: In the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month -- which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadne'zar, king of Babylon -- Nebu'zarad'an, the captain of the bodyguard, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

9: And he burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house and all the houses of Jerusalem; every great house he burned down.

10: And all the army of the Chalde'ans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down the walls around Jerusalem.

11: And the rest of the people who were left in the city and the deserters who had deserted to the king of Babylon, together with the rest of the multitude, Nebu'zarad'an the captain of the guard carried into exile.

12: But the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and plowmen.

13: And the pillars of bronze that were in the house of the LORD, and the stands and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chalde'ans broke in pieces, and carried the bronze to Babylon.

14: And they took away the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the dishes for incense and all the vessels of bronze used in the temple service,

15: the firepans also, and the bowls. What was of gold the captain of the guard took away as gold, and what was of silver, as silver.

16: As for the two pillars, the one sea, and the stands, which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD, the bronze of all these vessels was beyond weight.

17: The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and upon it was a capital of bronze; the height of the capital was three cubits; a network and pomegranates, all of bronze, were upon the capital round about. And the second pillar had the like, with the network.

18: And the captain of the guard took Serai'ah the chief priest, and Zephani'ah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold;

19: and from the city he took an officer who had been in command of the men of war, and five men of the king's council who were found in the city; and the secretary of the commander of the army who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city.

20: And Nebu'zarad'an the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

21: And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was taken into exile out of its land.

22: And over the people who remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, he appointed Gedali'ah the son of Ahi'kam, son of Shaphan, governor.

23: Now when all the captains of the forces in the open country and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedali'ah governor, they came with their men to Gedali'ah at Mizpah, namely, Ish'mael the son of Nethani'ah, and Joha'nan the son of Kare'ah, and Serai'ah the son of Tanhu'meth the Netoph'athite, and Ja-azani'ah the son of the Ma-ac'athite.

24: And Gedali'ah swore to them and their men, saying, "Do not be afraid because of the Chalde'an officials; dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you."

25: But in the seventh month, Ish'mael the son of Nethani'ah, son of Eli'shama, of the royal family, came with ten men, and attacked and killed Gedali'ah and the Jews and the Chalde'ans who were with him at Mizpah.

26: Then all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the forces arose, and went to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chalde'ans.

27: And in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoi'achin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, Evil-mero'dach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, graciously freed Jehoi'achin king of Judah from prison;

28: and he spoke kindly to him, and gave him a seat above the seats of the kings who were with him in Babylon.

29: So Jehoi'achin put off his prison garments. And every day of his life he dined regularly at the king's table;

30: and for his allowance, a regular allowance was given him by the king, every day a portion, as long as he lived.

The Book of Lamentations

Chapter 1

Lamentations, chapter 1

1: How lonely sits the city that was full of people! How like a widow has she become, she that was great among the nations! She that was a princess among the cities has become a vassal.

2: She weeps bitterly in the night, tears on her cheeks; among all her lovers she has none to comfort her; all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they have become her enemies.

3: Judah has gone into exile because of affliction and hard servitude; she dwells now among the nations, but finds no resting place; her pursuers have all overtaken her in the midst of her distress.

4: The roads to Zion mourn, for none come to the appointed feasts; all her gates are desolate, her priests groan; her maidens have been dragged away, and she herself suffers bitterly.

5: Her foes have become the head, her enemies prosper, because the LORD has made her suffer for the multitude of her transgressions; her children have gone away, captives before the foe.

6: From the daughter of Zion has departed all her majesty. Her princes have become like harts that find no pasture; they fled without strength before the pursuer.

7: Jerusalem remembers in the days of her affliction and bitterness all the precious things that were hers from days of old. When her people fell into the hand of the foe, and there was none to help her, the foe gloated over her, mocking at her downfall.

8: Jerusalem sinned grievously, therefore she became filthy; all who honored her despise her, for they have seen her nakedness; yea, she herself groans, and turns her face away.

9: Her uncleanness was in her skirts; she took no thought of her doom; therefore her fall is terrible, she has no comforter. "O LORD, behold my affliction, for the enemy has triumphed!"

10: The enemy has stretched out his hands over all her precious things; yea, she has seen the nations invade her sanctuary, those whom thou didst forbid to enter thy congregation.

11: All her people groan as they search for bread; they trade their treasures for food to revive their strength. "Look, O LORD, and behold, for I am despised."

12: "Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by? Look and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow which was brought upon me, which the LORD inflicted on the day of his fierce anger.

13: "From on high he sent fire; into my bones he made it descend; he spread a net for my feet; he turned me back; he has left me stunned, faint all the day long.

14: "My transgressions were bound into a yoke; by his hand they were fastened together; they were set upon my neck; he caused my strength to fail; the Lord gave me into the hands of those whom I cannot withstand.

15: "The LORD flouted all my mighty men in the midst of me; he summoned an assembly against me to crush my young men; the Lord has trodden as in a wine press the virgin daughter of Judah.

16: "For these things I weep; my eyes flow with tears; for a comforter is far from me, one to revive my courage; my children are desolate, for the enemy has prevailed."

v16: "For these things I weep; my eyes run with tears; because the comforter is far from me, one who restores my soul; my children are desolate, because the enemy has prevailed."

17: Zion stretches out her hands, but there is none to comfort her; the LORD has commanded against Jacob that his neighbors should be his foes; Jerusalem has become a filthy thing among them.

18: "The LORD is in the right, for I have rebelled against his word; but hear, all you peoples, and behold my suffering; my maidens and my young men have gone into captivity.

19: "I called to my lovers but they deceived me; my priests and elders perished in the city, while they sought food to revive their strength.

v19: "I called to my allies but they betrayed me; my priests and elders perished in the city, while they searched for food to keep them alive."

20: "Behold, O LORD, for I am in distress, my soul is in tumult, my heart is wrung within me, because I have been very rebellious. In the street the sword bereaves; in the house it is like death.

v20: "Behold or look, O LORD, at how distressed I am, my soul is tormented within, and in my Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul I am disturbed, because I have been very rebellious. Outside in the street the sword bereaves; inside the house there is only death."

21: "Hear how I groan; there is none to comfort me. All my enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it. Bring thou the day thou hast announced, and let them be as I am.

22: "Let all their evil doing come before thee; and deal with them as thou hast dealt with me because of all my transgressions; for my groans are many and my heart is faint."

Chapter 2

Lamentations, chapter 2

1: How the Lord in his anger has set the daughter of Zion under a cloud! He has cast down from heaven to earth the splendor of Israel; he has not remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.

2: The Lord has destroyed without mercy all the habitations of Jacob; in his wrath he has broken down the strongholds of the daughter of Judah; he has brought down to the ground in dishonor the kingdom and its rulers.

3: He has cut down in fierce anger all the might of Israel; he has withdrawn from them his right hand in the face of the enemy; he has burned like a flaming fire in Jacob, consuming all around.

4: He has bent his bow like an enemy, with his right hand set like a foe; and he has slain all the pride of our eyes in the tent of the daughter of Zion; he has poured out his fury like fire.

5: The Lord has become like an enemy, he has destroyed Israel; he has destroyed all its palaces, laid in ruins its strongholds; and he has multiplied in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6: He has broken down his booth like that of a garden, laid in ruins the place of his appointed feasts; the LORD has brought to an end in Zion appointed feast and sabbath, and in his fierce indignation has spurned king and priest.

7: The Lord has scorned his altar, disowned his sanctuary; he has delivered into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; a clamor was raised in the house of the LORD as on the day of an appointed feast.

8: The LORD determined to lay in ruins the wall of the daughter of Zion; he marked it off by the line; he restrained not his hand from destroying; he caused rampart and wall to lament, they languish together.

9: Her gates have sunk into the ground; he has ruined and broken her bars; her king and princes are among the nations; the law is no more, and her prophets obtain no vision from the LORD.

10: The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground in silence; they have cast dust on their heads and put on sackcloth; the maidens of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground.

11: My eyes are spent with weeping; my soul is in tumult; my heart is poured out in grief because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, because infants and babes faint in the streets of the city.

12: They cry to their mothers, "Where is bread and wine?" as they faint like wounded men in the streets of the city, as their life is poured out on their mothers' bosom.

13: What can I say for you, to what compare you, O daughter of Jerusalem? What can I liken to you, that I may comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion? For vast as the sea is your ruin; who can restore you?

14: Your prophets have seen for you false and deceptive visions; they have not exposed your iniquity to restore your fortunes, but have seen for you oracles false and misleading.

15: All who pass along the way clap their hands at you; they hiss and wag their heads at the daughter of Jerusalem; "Is this the city which was called the perfection of beauty, the joy of all the earth?"

16: All your enemies rail against you; they hiss, they gnash their teeth, they cry: "We have destroyed her! Ah, this is the day we longed for; now we have it; we see it!"

17: The LORD has done what he purposed, has carried out his threat; as he ordained long ago, he has demolished without pity; he has made the enemy rejoice over you, and exalted the might of your foes.

18: Cry aloud to the Lord! O daughter of Zion! Let tears stream down like a torrent day and night! Give yourself no rest, your eyes no respite!

19: Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches! Pour out your heart like water before the presence of the Lord! Lift your hands to him for the lives of your children, who faint for hunger at the head of every street.

20: Look, O LORD, and see! With whom hast thou dealt thus? Should women eat their offspring, the children of their tender care? Should priest and prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?

21: In the dust of the streets lie the young and the old; my maidens and my young men have fallen by the sword; in the day of thy anger thou hast slain them, slaughtering without mercy.

22: Thou didst invite us to the day of an appointed feast my terrors on every side; and on the day of the anger of the LORD none escaped or survived; those whom I dandled and reared my enemy destroyed.

Chapter 3 Lamentations, chapter 3

This is the Suffering of the Jews especially Ezra's Father in the March to Babylon after the destruction of Jerusalem by the Assyrians.

1: I am the man who has seen affliction under the rod of his wrath;

2: he has driven and brought me into darkness without any light;

3: surely against me he turns his hand again and again the whole day long.

4: He has made my flesh and my skin waste away, and broken my bones;

5: he has besieged and enveloped me with bitterness and tribulation;

6: he has made me dwell in darkness like the dead of long ago.

7: He has walled me about so that I cannot escape; he has put heavy chains on me;

8: though I call and cry for help, he shuts out my prayer;

9: he has blocked my ways with hewn stones, he has made my paths crooked.

10: He is to me like a bear lying in wait, like a lion in hiding;

11: he led me off my way and tore me to pieces; he has made me desolate;

12: he bent his bow and set me as a mark for his arrow.

13: He drove into my heart the arrows of his quiver;

14: I have become the laughingstock of all peoples, the burden of their songs all day long.

15: He has filled me with bitterness, he has sated me with wormwood.

Lam 3:15

v15: He (God) filled me with bitterness (blaming God for it), he made me drunk with venom of the soul.

16: He has made my teeth grind on gravel, and made me cower in ashes;

v16: He, God, has broken my teeth with gravel, he has made me to cower in the dust; 17: my soul is bereft of peace, I have forgotten what happiness is;

Lam 3:17

v17: My soul has been rejected from prosperity, tranquility and happiness in reversionism, ie blessings from the Maturity Adjustment to the Justice of God , and I have forgotten happiness and The Good, the doctrine of the equation of hope as the Plan of God;

(Jeremiah then remembers to rebound)

18: so I say, "Gone is my glory, and my expectation from the LORD."

v18: so I say, "My strength has perished, and so has my Hope 3 or expectation of the 7th imputation is from the LORD."

19: Remember my affliction and my bitterness, the wormwood and the gall!

Lam 3:19

v19: Remember my afflictions from reversionism and restlessness, the bitterness and poison of absinth or wormwood as venom of my soul from incarceration, I will remember 20: My soul continually thinks of it and is bowed down within me.

Lam 3:20

v20: Surely My soul still has them in remembrance and it is bowed down or humbled within me:

21: But this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope:

Lam 3:21

v21: This DOCTRINE I recall to mind, therefore I, Ultra Super-Grace believer Jeremiah, have confident expectations or faith under pressure (HOPE) in time of disaster.

22: The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases, his mercies never come to an end;

Lam 3:22

v22: It is because the grace expression of the Lord, His gracious unfailing love or mercies which never ceases and are never exhausted, that we are not CUT OFF or Consumed, 23: they are new every morning; great is thy faithfulness.

Lam 3:23

v23: His Gracious Mercies or functions of temporal security from logistical support, never cease for His compassions never end or fail, they, Logistical Grace support functions, are renewed every morning, His faithfulness continues.
(logistical grace is received 1 day at a time and is intensified in Super-Grace B) (what GOD has promised HE will deliver)

24: "The LORD is my portion," says my soul, "therefore I will hope in him."

Lam 3:24

v24: The Lord is my portion says my soul in Occupation with the Person of Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ in Super-Grace, therefore I am caused to have absolute confidence in Him in the midst of pressure (part of virtue is personal love directed to GOD, impersonal love directed to man, confidence directed to GOD, courage directed to man)

25: The LORD is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him.

Lam 3:25

v25: The Lord is absolute good to those who endure patiently in absolute confidence of hope or trust in him, to the soul who constantly seeks Him with Positive Volition toward Bible Doctrine, great is his faithfulness.
(The faith rest drill used in adversity with integrity {spiritual strength} from constant +volition for perception, cognition, metabolization and application of Bible Doctrine)

26: It is good that one should wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.

Lam 3:26

v26: Divine Good it is for a man to wait and be silent for the physical deliverance of the Lord.

27: It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

Lam 3:27

v27: It is good for a man or person that he bears his yoke in his youth. (if he has Metabolized Bible Doctrine in his Stream of Consciousness of the Soul)

28: Let him sit alone in silence when he has laid it on him;

29: let him put his mouth in the dust -- there may yet be hope;

30: let him give his cheek to the smiter, and be filled with insults.

31: For the Lord will not cast off for ever,

32: but, though he cause grief, he will have compassion according to the abundance of his steadfast love;

v32: but, though he caused grief, he will have compassion according to the abundance of his steadfast love and mercies;

33: for he does not willingly afflict or grieve the sons of men.

34: To crush under foot all the prisoners of the earth,

35: to turn aside the right of a man in the presence of the Most High, 36: to subvert a man in his cause, the Lord does not approve.

37: Who has commanded and it came to pass, unless the Lord has ordained it?

38: Is it not from the mouth of the Most High that good and evil come?

39: Why should a living man complain, a man, about the punishment of his sins?

40: Let us test and examine our ways, and return to the LORD!

41: Let us lift up our hearts and hands to God in heaven:

42: "We have transgressed and rebelled, and thou hast not forgiven.

43: "Thou hast wrapped thyself with anger and pursued us, slaying without pity;

44: thou hast wrapped thyself with a cloud so that no prayer can pass through.

45: Thou hast made us offscouring and refuse among the peoples.

46: "All our enemies rail against us;

47: panic and pitfall have come upon us, devastation and destruction;

48: my eyes flow with rivers of tears because of the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49: "My eyes will flow without ceasing, without respite,

50: until the LORD from heaven looks down and sees;

51: my eyes cause me grief at the fate of all the maidens of my city.

52: "I have been hunted like a bird by those who were my enemies without cause;

53: they flung me alive into the pit and cast stones on me;

54: water closed over my head; I said, 'I am lost.'

55: "I called on thy name, O LORD, from the depths of the pit;

56: thou didst hear my plea, 'Do not close thine ear to my cry for help!'

57: Thou didst come near when I called on thee; thou didst say, 'Do not fear!'

58: "Thou hast taken up my cause, O Lord, thou hast redeemed my life.

59: Thou hast seen the wrong done to me, O LORD; judge thou my cause.

60: Thou hast seen all their vengeance, all their devices against me.

61: "Thou hast heard their taunts, O LORD, all their devices against me.
62: The lips and thoughts of my assailants are against me all the day long.
63: Behold their sitting and their rising; I am the burden of their songs.
64: "Thou wilt requite them, O LORD, according to the work of their hands.
65: Thou wilt give them dullness of heart; thy curse will be on them.
v65: You will give them hardness of heart; your curse will be on them Jews.
66: Thou wilt pursue them in anger and destroy them from under thy heavens, O LORD."

Chapter 4
Lamentations, chapter 4

1: How the gold has grown dim, how the pure gold is changed! The holy stones lie scattered at the head of every street.
2: The precious sons of Zion, worth their weight in fine gold, how they are reckoned as earthen pots, the work of a potter's hands!
3: Even the jackals give the breast and suckle their young, but the daughter of my people has become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.
4: The tongue of the nursling cleaves to the roof of its mouth for thirst; the children beg for food, but no one gives to them.
5: Those who feasted on dainties perish in the streets; those who were brought up in purple lie on ash heaps.

Lam 4:5-6

v5: Those who feasted on or ate delicacies are desolate or perish in the street; those who were reared in the purple of aristocracy embrace piles of Dung.

6: For the chastisement of the daughter of my people has been greater than the punishment of Sodom, which was overthrown in a moment, no hand being laid on it.

v6: For the punishment of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of Sodom, which was destroyed in a moment, and no hands were ever wrung over her.

7: Her princes were purer than snow, whiter than milk; their bodies were more ruddy than coral, the beauty of their form was like sapphire.
8: Now their visage is blacker than soot, they are not recognized in the streets; their skin has shriveled upon their bones, it has become as dry as wood.
9: Happier were the victims of the sword than the victims of hunger, who pined away, stricken by want of the fruits of the field.
10: The hands of compassionate women have boiled their own children; they became their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people.
11: The LORD gave full vent to his wrath, he poured out his hot anger; and he kindled a fire in Zion, which consumed its foundations.
12: The kings of the earth did not believe, or any of the inhabitants of the world, that foe or enemy could enter the gates of Jerusalem.
13: This was for the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, who shed in the midst of her the blood of the righteous.
14: They wandered, blind, through the streets, so defiled with blood that none could touch their garments.
15: "Away! Unclean!" men cried at them; "Away! Away! Touch not!" So they became fugitives and wanderers; men said among the nations, "They shall stay with us no longer."
16: The LORD himself has scattered them, he will regard them no more; no honor was shown to the priests, no favor to the elders.
17: Our eyes failed, ever watching vainly for help; in our watching we watched for a nation which could not save.
18: Men dogged our steps so that we could not walk in our streets; our end drew near; our days were numbered; for our end had come.
19: Our pursuers were swifter than the vultures in the heavens; they chased us on the mountains, they lay in wait for us in the wilderness.
20: The breath of our nostrils, the LORD's anointed, was taken in their pits, he of whom we said, "Under his shadow we shall live among the nations."
21: Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, dweller in the land of Uz; but to you also the cup shall pass; you shall become drunk and strip yourself bare.
22: The punishment of your iniquity, O daughter of Zion, is accomplished, he will keep you in exile no longer; but your iniquity, O daughter of Edom, he will punish, he will uncover your sins.

Chapter 5
Lamentations, chapter 5

1: Remember, O LORD, what has befallen us; behold, and see our disgrace!
2: Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers, our homes to aliens.
3: We have become orphans, fatherless; our mothers are like widows.
4: We must pay for the water we drink, the wood we get must be bought.
5: With a yoke on our necks we are hard driven; we are weary, we are given no rest.
6: We have given the hand to Egypt, and to Assyria, to get bread enough.
7: Our fathers sinned, and are no more; and we bear their iniquities.
8: Slaves rule over us; there is none to deliver us from their hand.
9: We get our bread at the peril of our lives, because of the sword in the wilderness.

10: Our skin is hot as an oven with the burning heat of famine.
11: Women are ravished in Zion, virgins in the towns of Judah.
12: Princes are hung up by their hands; no respect is shown to the elders.
13: Young men are compelled to grind at the mill; and boys stagger under loads of wood.
14: The old men have quit the city gate, the young men their music.
15: The joy of our hearts has ceased; our dancing has been turned to mourning.
16: The crown has fallen from our head; woe to us, for we have sinned!
17: For this our heart has become sick, for these things our eyes have grown dim, 18: for Mount Zion which lies desolate; jackals prowl over it.
19: But thou, O LORD, dost reign for ever; thy throne endures to all generations.
20: Why dost thou forget us for ever, why dost thou so long forsake us?
21: Restore us to thyself, O LORD, that we may be restored! Renew our days as of old!
22: Or hast thou utterly rejected us? Art thou exceedingly angry with us?

The Book of Leviticus

Chapter 1

Leviticus, chapter 1

- 1: The LORD called Moses, and spoke to him from the tent of meeting, saying,
- 2: "Speak to the people of Israel, and say to them, When any man of you brings an offering to the LORD, you shall bring your offering of cattle from the herd or from the flock.
- 3: "If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he shall offer a male without blemish; he shall offer it at the door of the tent of meeting, that he may be accepted before the LORD;
- 4: he shall lay his hand upon the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him.
- 5: Then he shall kill the bull before the LORD; and Aaron's sons the priests shall present the blood, and throw the blood round about against the altar that is at the door of the tent of meeting.
- 6: And he shall flay the burnt offering and cut it into pieces;
- 7: and the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar, and lay wood in order upon the fire;
- 8: and Aaron's sons the priests shall lay the pieces, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that is on the fire upon the altar;
- 9: but its entrails and its legs he shall wash with water. And the priest shall burn the whole on the altar, as a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.
- 10: "If his gift for a burnt offering is from the flock, from the sheep or goats, he shall offer a male without blemish;
- 11: and he shall kill it on the north side of the altar before the LORD, and Aaron's sons the priests shall throw its blood against the altar round about.
- 12: And he shall cut it into pieces, with its head and its fat, and the priest shall lay them in order upon the wood that is on the fire upon the altar;
- 13: but the entrails and the legs he shall wash with water. And the priest shall offer the whole, and burn it on the altar; it is a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.
- 14: "If his offering to the LORD is a burnt offering of birds, then he shall bring his offering of turtledoves or of young pigeons.
- 15: And the priest shall bring it to the altar and wring off its head, and burn it on the altar; and its blood shall be drained out on the side of the altar;
- 16: and he shall take away its crop with the feathers, and cast it beside the altar on the east side, in the place for ashes;
- 17: he shall tear it by its wings, but shall not divide it asunder. And the priest shall burn it on the altar, upon the wood that is on the fire; it is a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

Chapter 2

Leviticus, chapter 2

- 1: "When any one brings a cereal offering as an offering to the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour; he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense on it,
- v1: "When any one brings a grain offering as an offering to the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour; he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense on it,
- 2: and bring it to Aaron's sons the priests. And he shall take from it a handful of the fine flour and oil, with all of its frankincense; and the priest shall burn this as its memorial portion upon the altar, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.
- v2: and bring it to Aaron's sons the Levitical priests. And he shall take from it a handful of the fine flour and oil, with all of its frankincense; and the priest shall offer it up in smoke by burning this as its memorial portion upon the altar, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.
- 3: And what is left of the cereal offering shall be for Aaron and his sons; it is a most holy part of the offerings by fire to the LORD.
- 4: "When you bring a cereal offering baked in the oven as an offering, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers spread with oil.
- 5: And if your offering is a cereal offering baked on a griddle, it shall be of fine flour unleavened, mixed with oil;
- 6: you shall break it in pieces, and pour oil on it; it is a cereal offering.
- 7: And if your offering is a cereal offering cooked in a pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.
- 8: And you shall bring the cereal offering that is made of these things to the LORD; and when it is presented to the priest, he shall bring it to the altar.
- 9: And the priest shall take from the cereal offering its memorial portion and burn this on the altar, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.
- 10: And what is left of the cereal offering shall be for Aaron and his sons; it is a most holy part of the offerings by fire to the LORD.
- 11: "No cereal offering which you bring to the LORD shall be made with leaven; for you shall burn no leaven nor any honey as an offering by fire to the LORD.
- 12: As an offering of first fruits you may bring them to the LORD, but they shall not be offered on the altar for a pleasing odor.
- 13: You shall season all your cereal offerings with salt; you shall not let the salt of the covenant with your God be lacking from your cereal offering; with all your offerings you shall offer salt.
- 14: "If you offer a cereal offering of first fruits to the LORD, you shall offer for the cereal offering of your first fruits crushed new grain from fresh ears, parched with fire.

15: And you shall put oil upon it, and lay frankincense on it; it is a cereal offering.

16: And the priest shall burn as its memorial portion part of the crushed grain and of the oil with all of its frankincense; it is an offering by fire to the LORD.

Chapter 3

Leviticus, chapter 3

1: "If a man's offering is a sacrifice of peace offering, if he offers an animal from the herd, male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD.

2: And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering and kill it at the door of the tent of meeting; and Aaron's sons the priests shall throw the blood against the altar round about.

3: And from the sacrifice of the peace offering, as an offering by fire to the LORD, he shall offer the fat covering the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails,

4: and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver which he shall take away with the kidneys.

5: Then Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt offering, which is upon the wood on the fire; it is an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

6: "If his offering for a sacrifice of peace offering to the LORD is an animal from the flock, male or female, he shall offer it without blemish.

7: If he offers a lamb for his offering, then he shall offer it before the LORD,

8: laying his hand upon the head of his offering and killing it before the tent of meeting; and Aaron's sons shall throw its blood against the altar round about.

9: Then from the sacrifice of the peace offering as an offering by fire to the LORD he shall offer its fat, the fat tail entire, taking it away close by the backbone, and the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat that is on the entrails,

10: and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver which he shall take away with the kidneys.

11: And the priest shall burn it on the altar as food offered by fire to the LORD.

12: "If his offering is a goat, then he shall offer it before the LORD, 13: and lay his hand upon its head, and kill it before the tent of meeting; and the sons of Aaron shall throw its blood against the altar round about.

14: Then he shall offer from it, as his offering for an offering by fire to the LORD, the fat covering the entrails, and all the fat that is on the entrails,

15: and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver which he shall take away with the kidneys.

16: And the priest shall burn them on the altar as food offered by fire for a pleasing odor. All fat is the LORD's.

17: It shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations, in all your dwelling places, that you eat neither fat nor blood."

Chapter 4

Leviticus, chapter 4

1: And the LORD said to Moses,

2: "Say to the people of Israel, If any one sins unwittingly in any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, and does any one of them,

3: if it is the anointed priest who sins, thus bringing guilt on the people, then let him offer for the sin which he has committed a young bull without blemish to the LORD for a sin offering.

4: He shall bring the bull to the door of the tent of meeting before the LORD, and lay his hand on the head of the bull, and kill the bull before the LORD.

5: And the anointed priest shall take some of the blood of the bull and bring it to the tent of meeting;

6: and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle part of the blood seven times before the LORD in front of the veil of the sanctuary.

7: And the priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense before the LORD which is in the tent of meeting, and the rest of the blood of the bull he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering which is at the door of the tent of meeting.

8: And all the fat of the bull of the sin offering he shall take from it, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails,

9: and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver which he shall take away with the kidneys

10: (just as these are taken from the ox of the sacrifice of the peace offerings), and the priest shall burn them upon the altar of burnt offering.

11: But the skin of the bull and all its flesh, with its head, its legs, its entrails, and its dung,

12: the whole bull he shall carry forth outside the camp to a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and shall burn it on a fire of wood; where the ashes are poured out it shall be burned.

13: "If the whole congregation of Israel commits a sin unwittingly and the thing is hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and they do any one of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done and are guilty;

14: when the sin which they have committed becomes known, the assembly shall offer a young bull for a sin offering and bring it before the tent of meeting;

15: and the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands upon the head of the bull before the LORD, and the bull shall be killed before the LORD.

16: Then the anointed priest shall bring some of the blood of the bull to the tent of meeting, 17: and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD in front of the veil.

18: And he shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar which is in the tent of meeting before the LORD; and the rest of the blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering which is at the door of the tent of meeting.

19: And all its fat he shall take from it and burn upon the altar.

20: Thus shall he do with the bull; as he did with the bull of the sin offering, so shall he do with this; and the priest shall make atonement for them, and they shall be forgiven.

21: And he shall carry forth the bull outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bull; it is the sin offering for the assembly.

22: "When a ruler sins, doing unwittingly any one of all the things which the LORD his God has commanded not to be done, and is guilty,

23: if the sin which he has committed is made known to him, he shall bring as his offering a goat, a male without blemish,

24: and shall lay his hand upon the head of the goat, and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD; it is a sin offering.

25: Then the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering.

26: And all its fat he shall burn on the altar, like the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings; so the priest shall make atonement for him for his sin, and he shall be forgiven.

27: "If any one of the common people sins unwittingly in doing any one of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, and is guilty, 28: when the sin which he has committed is made known to him he shall bring for his offering a goat, a female without blemish, for his sin which he has committed.

29: And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill the sin offering in the place of burnt offering.

30: And the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar.

31: And all its fat he shall remove, as the fat is removed from the peace offerings, and the priest shall burn it upon the altar for a pleasing odor to the LORD; and the priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be forgiven.

32: "If he brings a lamb as his offering for a sin offering, he shall bring a female without blemish, 33: and lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and kill it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering.

34: Then the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar.

35: And all its fat he shall remove as the fat of the lamb is removed from the sacrifice of peace offerings, and the priest shall burn it on the altar, upon the offerings by fire to the LORD; and the priest shall make atonement for him for the sin which he has committed, and he shall be forgiven.

Chapter 5

Leviticus, chapter 5

1: "If any one sins in that he hears a public adjuration to testify and though he is a witness, whether he has seen or come to know the matter, yet does not speak, he shall bear his iniquity.

2: Or if any one touches an unclean thing, whether the carcass of an unclean beast or a carcass of unclean cattle or a carcass of unclean swarming things, and it is hidden from him, and he has become unclean, he shall be guilty.

3: Or if he touches human uncleanness, of whatever sort the uncleanness may be with which one becomes unclean, and it is hidden from him, when he comes to know it he shall be guilty.

4: Or if any one utters with his lips a rash oath to do evil or to do good, any sort of rash oath that men swear, and it is hidden from him, when he comes to know it he shall in any of these be guilty.

5: When a man is guilty in any of these, he shall confess the sin he has committed,

6: and he shall bring his guilt offering to the LORD for the sin which he has committed, a female from the flock, a lamb or a goat, for a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him for his sin.

7: "But if he cannot afford a lamb, then he shall bring, as his guilt offering to the LORD for the sin which he has committed, two turtledoves or two young pigeons, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.

8: He shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer first the one for the sin offering; he shall wring its head from its neck, but shall not sever it,

9: and he shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, while the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar; it is a sin offering.

10: Then he shall offer the second for a burnt offering according to the ordinance; and the priest shall make atonement for him for the sin which he has committed, and he shall be forgiven.

11: "But if he cannot afford two turtledoves or two young pigeons, then he shall bring, as his offering for the sin which he has committed, a tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall put no oil upon it, and shall put no frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering.

12: And he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take a handful of it as its memorial portion and burn this on the altar, upon the offerings by fire to the LORD; it is a sin offering.

13: Thus the priest shall make atonement for him for the sin which he has committed in any one of these things, and he shall be forgiven. And the remainder shall be for the priest, as in the cereal offering."

14: The LORD said to Moses,

15: "If any one commits a breach of faith and sins unwittingly in any of the holy things of the LORD, he shall bring, as his guilt offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, valued by you in shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; it is a guilt offering.

16: He shall also make restitution for what he has done amiss in the holy thing, and shall add a fifth to it and give it to the priest; and the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering, and he shall be forgiven.

17: "If any one sins, doing any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, though he does not know it, yet he is guilty and shall bear his iniquity.

18: He shall bring to the priest a ram without blemish out of the flock, valued by you at the price for a guilt offering, and the priest shall make atonement for him for the error which he committed unwittingly, and he shall be forgiven.

19: It is a guilt offering; he is guilty before the LORD."

Chapter 6 Leviticus, chapter 6

1: The LORD said to Moses,

2: "If any one sins and commits a breach of faith against the LORD by deceiving his neighbor in a matter of deposit or security, or through robbery, or if he has oppressed his neighbor

3: or has found what was lost and lied about it, swearing falsely -- in any of all the things which men do and sin therein,

4: when one has sinned and become guilty, he shall restore what he took by robbery, or what he got by oppression, or the deposit which was committed to him, or the lost thing which he found,

5: or anything about which he has sworn falsely; he shall restore it in full, and shall add a fifth to it, and give it to him to whom it belongs, on the day of his guilt offering.

6: And he shall bring to the priest his guilt offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, valued by you at the price for a guilt offering;

7: and the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD, and he shall be forgiven for any of the things which one may do and thereby become guilty."

8: The LORD said to Moses,

9: "Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering. The burnt offering shall be on the hearth upon the altar all night until the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be kept burning on it.

10: And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and put his linen breeches upon his body, and he shall take up the ashes to which the fire has consumed the burnt offering on the altar, and put them beside the altar.

11: Then he shall put off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry forth the ashes outside the camp to a clean place.

12: The fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it, it shall not go out; the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and he shall lay the burnt offering in order upon it, and shall burn on it the fat of the peace offerings.

13: Fire shall be kept burning upon the altar continually; it shall not go out.

14: "And this is the law of the cereal offering. The sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD, in front of the altar.

15: And one shall take from it a handful of the fine flour of the cereal offering with its oil and all the frankincense which is on the cereal offering, and burn this as its memorial portion on the altar, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

16: And the rest of it Aaron and his sons shall eat; it shall be eaten unleavened in a holy place; in the court of the tent of meeting they shall eat it.

17: It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it as their portion of my offerings by fire; it is a thing most holy, like the sin offering and the guilt offering.

18: Every male among the children of Aaron may eat of it, as decreed for ever throughout your generations, from the LORD's offerings by fire; whoever touches them shall become holy."

19: The LORD said to Moses,

20: "This is the offering which Aaron and his sons shall offer to the LORD on the day when he is anointed: a tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a regular cereal offering, half of it in the morning and half in the evening.

21: It shall be made with oil on a griddle; you shall bring it well mixed, in baked pieces like a cereal offering, and offer it for a pleasing odor to the LORD.

22: The priest from among Aaron's sons, who is anointed to succeed him, shall offer it to the LORD as decreed for ever; the whole of it shall be burned.
23: Every cereal offering of a priest shall be wholly burned; it shall not be eaten."
24: The LORD said to Moses,
25: "Say to Aaron and his sons, This is the law of the sin offering. In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin offering be killed before the LORD; it is most holy.
26: The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it; in a holy place it shall be eaten, in the court of the tent of meeting.
27: Whatever touches its flesh shall be holy; and when any of its blood is sprinkled on a garment, you shall wash that on which it was sprinkled in a holy place.
28: And the earthen vessel in which it is boiled shall be broken; but if it is boiled in a bronze vessel, that shall be scoured, and rinsed in water.
29: Every male among the priests may eat of it; it is most holy.
30: But no sin offering shall be eaten from which any blood is brought into the tent of meeting to make atonement in the holy place; it shall be burned with fire.

Chapter 7 Leviticus, chapter 7

1: "This is the law of the guilt offering. It is most holy;
2: in the place where they kill the burnt offering they shall kill the guilt offering, and its blood shall be thrown on the altar round about.
3: And all its fat shall be offered, the fat tail, the fat that covers the entrails,
4: the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver which he shall take away with the kidneys;
5: the priest shall burn them on the altar as an offering by fire to the LORD; it is a guilt offering.
6: Every male among the priests may eat of it; it shall be eaten in a holy place; it is most holy.
7: The guilt offering is like the sin offering, there is one law for them; the priest who makes atonement with it shall have it.
8: And the priest who offers any man's burnt offering shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering which he has offered.
9: And every cereal offering baked in the oven and all that is prepared on a pan or a griddle shall belong to the priest who offers it.
10: And every cereal offering, mixed with oil or dry, shall be for all the sons of Aaron, one as well as another.
11: "And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings which one may offer to the LORD.
12: If he offers it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the thank offering unleavened cakes mixed with oil, unleavened wafers spread with oil, and cakes of fine flour well mixed with oil.
13: With the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving he shall bring his offering with cakes of leavened bread.
14: And of such he shall offer one cake from each offering, as an offering to the LORD; it shall belong to the priest who throws the blood of the peace offerings.
15: And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten on the day of his offering; he shall not leave any of it until the morning.
16: But if the sacrifice of his offering is a votive offering or a freewill offering, it shall be eaten on the day that he offers his sacrifice, and on the morrow what remains of it shall be eaten,
17: but what remains of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burned with fire.
18: If any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offering is eaten on the third day, he who offers it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be credited to him; it shall be an abomination, and he who eats of it shall bear his iniquity.
19: "Flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burned with fire. All who are clean may eat flesh, 20: but the person who eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of the LORD's peace offerings while an uncleanness is on him, that person shall be cut off from his people.
21: And if any one touches an unclean thing, whether the uncleanness of man or an unclean beast or any unclean abomination, and then eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of the LORD's peace offerings, that person shall be cut off from his people."
22: The LORD said to Moses,
23: "Say to the people of Israel, You shall eat no fat, of ox, or sheep, or goat.
24: The fat of an animal that dies of itself, and the fat of one that is torn by beasts, may be put to any other use, but on no account shall you eat it.
25: For every person who eats of the fat of an animal of which an offering by fire is made to the LORD shall be cut off from his people.
26: Moreover you shall eat no blood whatever, whether of fowl or of animal, in any of your dwellings.
27: Whoever eats any blood, that person shall be cut off from his people."
28: The LORD said to Moses,
29: "Say to the people of Israel, He that offers the sacrifice of his peace offerings to the LORD shall bring his offering to the LORD; from the sacrifice of his peace offerings
30: he shall bring with his own hands the offerings by fire to the LORD; he shall bring the fat with the breast, that the breast may be waved as a wave offering before the LORD.

31: The priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast shall be for Aaron and his sons.
32: And the right thigh you shall give to the priest as an offering from the sacrifice of your peace offerings;
33: he among the sons of Aaron who offers the blood of the peace offerings and the fat shall have the right thigh for a portion.
34: For the breast that is waved and the thigh that is offered I have taken from the people of Israel, out of the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons, as a perpetual due from the people of Israel.
35: This is the portion of Aaron and of his sons from the offerings made by fire to the LORD, consecrated to them on the day they were presented to serve as priests of the LORD;
36: the LORD commanded this to be given them by the people of Israel, on the day that they were anointed; it is a perpetual due throughout their generations."
37: This is the law of the burnt offering, of the cereal offering, of the sin offering, of the guilt offering, of the consecration, and of the peace offerings,
38: which the LORD commanded Moses on Mount Sinai, on the day that he commanded the people of Israel to bring their offerings to the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

Chapter 8 Leviticus, chapter 8

1: The LORD said to Moses,
2: "Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and the bull of the sin offering, and the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread;
3: and assemble all the congregation at the door of the tent of meeting."
4: And Moses did as the LORD commanded him; and the congregation was assembled at the door of the tent of meeting.
5: And Moses said to the congregation, "This is the thing which the LORD has commanded to be done."
6: And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water.
7: And he put on him the coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and girded him with the skilfully woven band of the ephod, binding it to him therewith.
8: And he placed the breastpiece on him, and in the breastpiece he put the Urim and the Thummim.
9: And he set the turban upon his head, and on the turban, in front, he set the golden plate, the holy crown, as the LORD commanded Moses.
10: Then Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and consecrated them.
11: And he sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its utensils, and the laver and its base, to consecrate them.
12: And he poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head, and anointed him, to consecrate him.
13: And Moses brought Aaron's sons, and clothed them with coats, and girded them with girdles, and bound caps on them, as the LORD commanded Moses.
14: Then he brought the bull of the sin offering; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the bull of the sin offering.
15: And Moses killed it, and took the blood, and with his finger put it on the horns of the altar round about, and purified the altar, and poured out the blood at the base of the altar, and consecrated it, to make atonement for it.
16: And he took all the fat that was on the entrails, and the appendage of the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, and Moses burned them on the altar.
17: But the bull, and its skin, and its flesh, and its dung, he burned with fire outside the camp, as the LORD commanded Moses.
18: Then he presented the ram of the burnt offering; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.
19: And Moses killed it, and threw the blood upon the altar round about.
20: And when the ram was cut into pieces, Moses burned the head and the pieces and the fat.
21: And when the entrails and the legs were washed with water, Moses burned the whole ram on the altar, as a burnt offering, a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.
22: Then he presented the other ram, the ram of ordination; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.
23: And Moses killed it, and took some of its blood and put it on the tip of Aaron's right ear and on the thumb of his right hand and on the great toe of his right foot.
24: And Aaron's sons were brought, and Moses put some of the blood on the tips of their right ears and on the thumbs of their right hands and on the great toes of their right feet; and Moses threw the blood upon the altar round about.
25: Then he took the fat, and the fat tail, and all the fat that was on the entrails, and the appendage of the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, and the right thigh;
26: and out of the basket of unleavened bread which was before the LORD he took one unleavened cake, and one cake of bread with oil, and one wafer, and placed them on the fat and on the right thigh;
27: and he put all these in the hands of Aaron and in the hands of his sons, and waved them as a wave offering before the LORD.
28: Then Moses took them from their hands, and burned them on the altar with the burnt offering, as an ordination offering, a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.
29: And Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering before the LORD; it was Moses' portion of the ram of ordination, as the LORD commanded Moses.

30: Then Moses took some of the anointing oil and of the blood which was on the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron and his garments, and also upon his sons and his sons' garments; so he consecrated Aaron and his garments, and his sons and his sons' garments with him.

31: And Moses said to Aaron and his sons, "Boil the flesh at the door of the tent of meeting, and there eat it and the bread that is in the basket of ordination offerings, as I commanded, saying, `Aaron and his sons shall eat it';

32: and what remains of the flesh and the bread you shall burn with fire.

33: And you shall not go out from the door of the tent of meeting for seven days, until the days of your ordination are completed, for it will take seven days to ordain you.

34: As has been done today, the LORD has commanded to be done to make atonement for you.

35: At the door of the tent of meeting you shall remain day and night for seven days, performing what the LORD has charged, lest you die; for so I am commanded."

36: And Aaron and his sons did all the things which the LORD commanded by Moses.

Chapter 9 Leviticus, chapter 9

1: On the eighth day Moses called Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel;

2: and he said to Aaron, "Take a bull calf for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, both without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.

3: And say to the people of Israel, `Take a male goat for a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb, both a year old without blemish, for a burnt offering,

4: and an ox and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD, and a cereal offering mixed with oil; for today the LORD will appear to you."

5: And they brought what Moses commanded before the tent of meeting; and all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD.

6: And Moses said, "This is the thing which the LORD commanded you to do; and the glory of the LORD will appear to you."

7: Then Moses said to Aaron, "Draw near to the altar, and offer your sin offering and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself and for the people; and bring the offering of the people, and make atonement for them; as the LORD has commanded."

8: So Aaron drew near to the altar, and killed the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.

9: And the sons of Aaron presented the blood to him, and he dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the base of the altar;

10: but the fat and the kidneys and the appendage of the liver from the sin offering he burned upon the altar, as the LORD commanded Moses.

11: The flesh and the skin he burned with fire outside the camp.

12: And he killed the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons delivered to him the blood, and he threw it on the altar round about.

13: And they delivered the burnt offering to him, piece by piece, and the head; and he burned them upon the altar.

14: And he washed the entrails and the legs, and burned them with the burnt offering on the altar.

15: Then he presented the people's offering, and took the goat of the sin offering which was for the people, and killed it, and offered it for sin, like the first sin offering.

16: And he presented the burnt offering, and offered it according to the ordinance.

17: And he presented the cereal offering, and filled his hand from it, and burned it upon the altar, besides the burnt offering of the morning.

18: He killed the ox also and the ram, the sacrifice of peace offerings for the people; and Aaron's sons delivered to him the blood, which he threw upon the altar round about,

19: and the fat of the ox and of the ram, the fat tail, and that which covers the entrails, and the kidneys, and the appendage of the liver; and they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burned the fat upon the altar,

20: but the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved for a wave offering before the LORD; as Moses commanded.

22: Then Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them; and he came down from offering the sin offering and the burnt offering and the peace offerings.

23: And Moses and Aaron went into the tent of meeting; and when they came out they blessed the people, and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people.

24: And fire came forth from before the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the fat upon the altar; and when all the people saw it, they shouted, and fell on their faces.

Chapter 10 Leviticus, chapter 10

1: Now Nadab and Abi'hu, the sons of Aaron, each took his censer, and put fire in it, and laid incense on it, and offered unholy fire before the LORD, such as he had not commanded them.

2: And fire came forth from the presence of the LORD and devoured them, and they died before the LORD.

3: Then Moses said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD has said, `I will show myself holy among those who are near me, and before all the people I will be glorified." And Aaron held his peace.

4: And Moses called Mish'a-el and Elza'phan, the sons of Uz'ziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, "Draw near, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp."

5: So they drew near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp, as Moses had said.

6: And Moses said to Aaron and to Elea'zar and Ith'amar, his sons, "Do not let the hair of your heads hang loose, and do not rend your clothes, lest you die, and lest wrath come upon all the congregation; but your brethren, the whole house of Israel, may bewail the burning which the LORD has kindled.

7: And do not go out from the door of the tent of meeting, lest you die; for the anointing oil of the LORD is upon you." And they did according to the word of Moses.

8: And the LORD spoke to Aaron, saying,

9: "Drink no wine nor strong drink, you nor your sons with you, when you go into the tent of meeting, lest you die; it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations.

10: You are to distinguish between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean;

11: and you are to teach the people of Israel all the statutes which the LORD has spoken to them by Moses."

12: And Moses said to Aaron and to Elea'zar and Ith'amar, his sons who were left, "Take the cereal offering that remains of the offerings by fire to the LORD, and eat it unleavened beside the altar, for it is most holy;

13: you shall eat it in a holy place, because it is your due and your sons' due, from the offerings by fire to the LORD; for so I am commanded.

14: But the breast that is waved and the thigh that is offered you shall eat in any clean place, you and your sons and your daughters with you; for they are given as your due and your sons' due, from the sacrifices of the peace offerings of the people of Israel.

15: The thigh that is offered and the breast that is waved they shall bring with the offerings by fire of the fat, to wave for a wave offering before the LORD, and it shall be yours, and your sons' with you, as a due for ever; as the LORD has commanded."

16: Now Moses diligently inquired about the goat of the sin offering, and behold, it was burned! And he was angry with Elea'zar and Ith'amar, the sons of Aaron who were left, saying,

17: "Why have you not eaten the sin offering in the place of the sanctuary, since it is a thing most holy and has been given to you that you may bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD?"

18: Behold, its blood was not brought into the inner part of the sanctuary. You certainly ought to have eaten it in the sanctuary, as I commanded."

19: And Aaron said to Moses, "Behold, today they have offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and yet such things as these have befallen me! If I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been acceptable in the sight of the LORD?"

20: And when Moses heard that, he was content.

Chapter 11

Leviticus, chapter 11

1: And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

2: "Say to the people of Israel, These are the living things which you may eat among all the beasts that are on the earth.

3: Whatever parts the hoof and is cloven-footed and chews the cud, among the animals, you may eat.

4: Nevertheless among those that chew the cud or part the hoof, you shall not eat these: The camel, because it chews the cud but does not part the hoof, is unclean to you.

5: And the rock badger, because it chews the cud but does not part the hoof, is unclean to you.

6: And the hare, because it chews the cud but does not part the hoof, is unclean to you.

7: And the swine, because it parts the hoof and is cloven-footed but does not chew the cud, is unclean to you.

8: Of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch; they are unclean to you.

9: "These you may eat, of all that are in the waters. Everything in the waters that has fins and scales, whether in the seas or in the rivers, you may eat.

10: But anything in the seas or the rivers that has not fins and scales, of the swarming creatures in the waters and of the living creatures that are in the waters, is an abomination to you.

11: They shall remain an abomination to you; of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall have in abomination.

12: Everything in the waters that has not fins and scales is an abomination to you.

13: "And these you shall have in abomination among the birds, they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, the vulture, the osprey,

14: the kite, the falcon according to its kind,

15: every raven according to its kind,

16: the ostrich, the nighthawk, the sea gull, the hawk according to its kind,

17: the owl, the cormorant, the ibis,

18: the water hen, the pelican, the carrion vulture,

19: the stork, the heron according to its kind, the hoopoe, and the bat.

20: "All winged insects that go upon all fours are an abomination to you.

21: Yet among the winged insects that go on all fours you may eat those which have legs above their feet, with which to leap on the earth.

22: Of them you may eat: the locust according to its kind, the bald locust according to its kind, the cricket according to its kind, and the grasshopper according to its kind.

23: But all other winged insects which have four feet are an abomination to you.

24: "And by these you shall become unclean; whoever touches their carcass shall be unclean until the evening, 25: and whoever carries any part of their carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening.

26: Every animal which parts the hoof but is not cloven-footed or does not chew the cud is unclean to you; every one who touches them shall be unclean.

27: And all that go on their paws, among the animals that go on all fours, are unclean to you; whoever touches their carcass shall be unclean until the evening,

28: and he who carries their carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening; they are unclean to you.

29: "And these are unclean to you among the swarming things that swarm upon the earth: the weasel, the mouse, the great lizard according to its kind,

30: the gecko, the land crocodile, the lizard, the sand lizard, and the chameleon.

31: These are unclean to you among all that swarm; whoever touches them when they are dead shall be unclean until the evening.

32: And anything upon which any of them falls when they are dead shall be unclean, whether it is an article of wood or a garment or a skin or a sack, any vessel that is used for any purpose; it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the evening; then it shall be clean.

33: And if any of them falls into any earthen vessel, all that is in it shall be unclean, and you shall break it.

34: Any food in it which may be eaten, upon which water may come, shall be unclean; and all drink which may be drunk from every such vessel shall be unclean.

35: And everything upon which any part of their carcass falls shall be unclean; whether oven or stove, it shall be broken in pieces; they are unclean, and shall be unclean to you.

36: Nevertheless a spring or a cistern holding water shall be clean; but whatever touches their carcass shall be unclean.

37: And if any part of their carcass falls upon any seed for sowing that is to be sown, it is clean;

38: but if water is put on the seed and any part of their carcass falls on it, it is unclean to you.

39: "And if any animal of which you may eat dies, he who touches its carcass shall be unclean until the evening, 40: and he who eats of its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening; he also who carries the carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening.

41: "Every swarming thing that swarms upon the earth is an abomination; it shall not be eaten.

42: Whatever goes on its belly, and whatever goes on all fours, or whatever has many feet, all the swarming things that swarm upon the earth, you shall not eat; for they are an abomination.

43: You shall not make yourselves abominable with any swarming thing that swarms; and you shall not defile yourselves with them, lest you become unclean.

44: For I am the LORD your God; consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am holy. You shall not defile yourselves with any swarming thing that crawls upon the earth.

45: For I am the LORD who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God; you shall therefore be holy, for I am holy."

46: This is the law pertaining to beast and bird and every living creature that moves through the waters and every creature that swarms upon the earth, 47: to make a distinction between the unclean and the clean and between the living creature that may be eaten and the living creature that may not be eaten.

Chapter 12 Leviticus, chapter 12

1: The LORD said to Moses,

2: "Say to the people of Israel, If a woman conceives, and bears a male child, then she shall be unclean seven days; as at the time of her menstruation, she shall be unclean.

3: And on the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.

4: Then she shall continue for thirty-three days in the blood of her purifying; she shall not touch any hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying are completed.

5: But if she bears a female child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her menstruation; and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying for sixty-six days.

6: "And when the days of her purifying are completed, whether for a son or for a daughter, she shall bring to the priest at the door of the tent of meeting a lamb a year old for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtledove for a sin offering,

7: and he shall offer it before the LORD, and make atonement for her; then she shall be clean from the flow of her blood. This is the law for her who bears a child, either male or female.

8: And if she cannot afford a lamb, then she shall take two turtledoves or two young pigeons, one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her, and she shall be clean."

Chapter 13
Leviticus, chapter 13

- 1: The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,
2: "When a man has on the skin of his body a swelling or an eruption or a spot, and it turns into a leprous disease on the skin of his body, then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons the priests,
3: and the priest shall examine the diseased spot on the skin of his body; and if the hair in the diseased spot has turned white and the disease appears to be deeper than the skin of his body, it is a leprous disease; when the priest has examined him he shall pronounce him unclean.
4: But if the spot is white in the skin of his body, and appears no deeper than the skin, and the hair in it has not turned white, the priest shall shut up the diseased person for seven days;
5: and the priest shall examine him on the seventh day, and if in his eyes the disease is checked and the disease has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall shut him up seven days more;
6: and the priest shall examine him again on the seventh day, and if the diseased spot is dim and the disease has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only an eruption; and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.
7: But if the eruption spreads in the skin, after he has shown himself to the priest for his cleansing, he shall appear again before the priest;
8: and the priest shall make an examination, and if the eruption has spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is leprosy.
9: "When a man is afflicted with leprosy, he shall be brought to the priest;
10: and the priest shall make an examination, and if there is a white swelling in the skin, which has turned the hair white, and there is quick raw flesh in the swelling,
11: it is a chronic leprosy in the skin of his body, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean; he shall not shut him up, for he is unclean.
12: And if the leprosy breaks out in the skin, so that the leprosy covers all the skin of the diseased person from head to foot, so far as the priest can see,
13: then the priest shall make an examination, and if the leprosy has covered all his body, he shall pronounce him clean of the disease; it has all turned white, and he is clean.
14: But when raw flesh appears on him, he shall be unclean.
15: And the priest shall examine the raw flesh, and pronounce him unclean; raw flesh is unclean, for it is leprosy.
16: But if the raw flesh turns again and is changed to white, then he shall come to the priest, 17: and the priest shall examine him, and if the disease has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce the diseased person clean; he is clean.
18: "And when there is in the skin of one's body a boil that has healed,
19: and in the place of the boil there comes a white swelling or a reddish-white spot, then it shall be shown to the priest;
20: and the priest shall make an examination, and if it appears deeper than the skin and its hair has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the disease of leprosy, it has broken out in the boil.
21: But if the priest examines it, and the hair on it is not white and it is not deeper than the skin, but is dim, then the priest shall shut him up seven days;
22: and if it spreads in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is diseased.
23: But if the spot remains in one place and does not spread, it is the scar of the boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.
24: "Or, when the body has a burn on its skin and the raw flesh of the burn becomes a spot, reddish-white or white,
25: the priest shall examine it, and if the hair in the spot has turned white and it appears deeper than the skin, then it is leprosy; it has broken out in the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a leprous disease.
26: But if the priest examines it, and the hair in the spot is not white and it is no deeper than the skin, but is dim, the priest shall shut him up seven days,
27: and the priest shall examine him the seventh day; if it is spreading in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a leprous disease.
28: But if the spot remains in one place and does not spread in the skin, but is dim, it is a swelling from the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him clean; for it is the scar of the burn.
29: "When a man or woman has a disease on the head or the beard,
30: the priest shall examine the disease; and if it appears deeper than the skin, and the hair in it is yellow and thin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an itch, a leprosy of the head or the beard.
31: And if the priest examines the itching disease, and it appears no deeper than the skin and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall shut up the person with the itching disease for seven days,
32: and on the seventh day the priest shall examine the disease; and if the itch has not spread, and there is in it no yellow hair, and the itch appears to be no deeper than the skin,
33: then he shall shave himself, but the itch he shall not shave; and the priest shall shut up the person with the itching disease for seven days more;
34: and on the seventh day the priest shall examine the itch, and if the itch has not spread in the skin and it appears to be no deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

35: But if the itch spreads in the skin after his cleansing, 36: then the priest shall examine him, and if the itch has spread in the skin, the priest need not seek for the yellow hair; he is unclean.

37: But if in his eyes the itch is checked, and black hair has grown in it, the itch is healed, he is clean; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

38: "When a man or a woman has spots on the skin of the body, white spots, 39: the priest shall make an examination, and if the spots on the skin of the body are of a dull white, it is tetter that has broken out in the skin; he is clean.

40: "If a man's hair has fallen from his head, he is bald but he is clean.

41: And if a man's hair has fallen from his forehead and temples, he has baldness of the forehead but he is clean.

42: But if there is on the bald head or the bald forehead a reddish-white diseased spot, it is leprosy breaking out on his bald head or his bald forehead.

43: Then the priest shall examine him, and if the diseased swelling is reddish-white on his bald head or on his bald forehead, like the appearance of leprosy in the skin of the body, 44: he is a leprous man, he is unclean; the priest must pronounce him unclean; his disease is on his head.

45: "The leper who has the disease shall wear torn clothes and let the hair of his head hang loose, and he shall cover his upper lip and cry, 'Unclean, unclean.'

46: He shall remain unclean as long as he has the disease; he is unclean; he shall dwell alone in a habitation outside the camp.

47: "When there is a leprous disease in a garment, whether a woolen or a linen garment,

48: in warp or woof of linen or wool, or in a skin or in anything made of skin, 49: if the disease shows greenish or reddish in the garment, whether in warp or woof or in skin or in anything made of skin, it is a leprous disease and shall be shown to the priest.

50: And the priest shall examine the disease, and shut up that which has the disease for seven days;

51: then he shall examine the disease on the seventh day. If the disease has spread in the garment, in warp or woof, or in the skin, whatever be the use of the skin, the disease is a malignant leprosy; it is unclean.

52: And he shall burn the garment, whether diseased in warp or woof, woolen or linen, or anything of skin, for it is a malignant leprosy; it shall be burned in the fire.

53: "And if the priest examines, and the disease has not spread in the garment in warp or woof or in anything of skin,

54: then the priest shall command that they wash the thing in which is the disease, and he shall shut it up seven days more;

55: and the priest shall examine the diseased thing after it has been washed. And if the diseased spot has not changed color, though the disease has not spread, it is unclean; you shall burn it in the fire, whether the leprous spot is on the back or on the front.

56: "But if the priest examines, and the disease is dim after it is washed, he shall tear the spot out of the garment or the skin or the warp or woof;

57: then if it appears again in the garment, in warp or woof, or in anything of skin, it is spreading; you shall burn with fire that in which is the disease.

58: But the garment, warp or woof, or anything of skin from which the disease departs when you have washed it, shall then be washed a second time, and be clean."

59: This is the law for a leprous disease in a garment of wool or linen, either in warp or woof, or in anything of skin, to decide whether it is clean or unclean.

Chapter 14 Leviticus, chapter 14

1: The LORD said to Moses,

2: "This shall be the law of the leper for the day of his cleansing. He shall be brought to the priest;

3: and the priest shall go out of the camp, and the priest shall make an examination. Then, if the leprous disease is healed in the leper,

4: the priest shall command them to take for him who is to be cleansed two living clean birds and cedarwood and scarlet stuff and hyssop;

5: and the priest shall command them to kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water.

6: He shall take the living bird with the cedarwood and the scarlet stuff and the hyssop, and dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water;

7: and he shall sprinkle it seven times upon him who is to be cleansed of leprosy; then he shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird go into the open field.

8: And he who is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and bathe himself in water, and he shall be clean; and after that he shall come into the camp, but shall dwell outside his tent seven days.

9: And on the seventh day he shall shave all his hair off his head; he shall shave off his beard and his eyebrows, all his hair. Then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe his body in water, and he shall be clean.

10: "And on the eighth day he shall take two male lambs without blemish, and one ewe lamb a year old without blemish, and a cereal offering of three tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil, and one log of oil.

11: And the priest who cleanses him shall set the man who is to be cleansed and these things before the LORD, at the door of the tent of meeting.

12: And the priest shall take one of the male lambs, and offer it for a guilt offering, along with the log of oil, and wave them for a wave offering before the LORD;

13: and he shall kill the lamb in the place where they kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the holy place; for the guilt offering, like the sin offering, belongs to the priest; it is most holy.

14: The priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering, and the priest shall put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot.

15: Then the priest shall take some of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand, 16: and dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and sprinkle some oil with his finger seven times before the LORD.

17: And some of the oil that remains in his hand the priest shall put on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the guilt offering;

18: and the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed. Then the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD.

19: The priest shall offer the sin offering, to make atonement for him who is to be cleansed from his uncleanness. And afterward he shall kill the burnt offering;

20: and the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the cereal offering on the altar. Thus the priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

21: "But if he is poor and cannot afford so much, then he shall take one male lamb for a guilt offering to be waved, to make atonement for him, and a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal offering, and a log of oil;

22: also two turtledoves or two young pigeons, such as he can afford; the one shall be a sin offering and the other a burnt offering.

23: And on the eighth day he shall bring them for his cleansing to the priest, to the door of the tent of meeting, before the LORD;

24: and the priest shall take the lamb of the guilt offering, and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD.

25: And he shall kill the lamb of the guilt offering; and the priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering, and put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot.

26: And the priest shall pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand;

27: and shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD;

28: and the priest shall put some of the oil that is in his hand on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and the great toe of his right foot, in the place where the blood of the guilt offering was put;

29: and the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before the LORD.

30: And he shall offer, of the turtledoves or young pigeons such as he can afford,

31: one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, along with a cereal offering; and the priest shall make atonement before the LORD for him who is being cleansed.

32: This is the law for him in whom is a leprous disease, who cannot afford the offerings for his cleansing."

33: The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

34: "When you come into the land of Canaan, which I give you for a possession, and I put a leprous disease in a house in the land of your possession,

35: then he who owns the house shall come and tell the priest, 'There seems to me to be some sort of disease in my house.'

36: Then the priest shall command that they empty the house before the priest goes to examine the disease, lest all that is in the house be declared unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house.

37: And he shall examine the disease; and if the disease is in the walls of the house with greenish or reddish spots, and if it appears to be deeper than the surface, 38: then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days.

39: And the priest shall come again on the seventh day, and look; and if the disease has spread in the walls of the house,

40: then the priest shall command that they take out the stones in which is the disease and throw them into an unclean place outside the city;

41: and he shall cause the inside of the house to be scraped round about, and the plaster that they scrape off they shall pour into an unclean place outside the city;

42: then they shall take other stones and put them in the place of those stones, and he shall take other plaster and plaster the house.

43: "If the disease breaks out again in the house, after he has taken out the stones and scraped the house and plastered it, 44: then the priest shall go and look; and if the disease has spread in the house, it is a malignant leprosy in the house; it is unclean.

45: And he shall break down the house, its stones and timber and all the plaster of the house; and he shall carry them forth out of the city to an unclean place.

46: Moreover he who enters the house while it is shut up shall be unclean until the evening;

47: and he who lies down in the house shall wash his clothes; and he who eats in the house shall wash his clothes.

48: "But if the priest comes and makes an examination, and the disease has not spread in the house after the house was plastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, for the disease is healed.

49: And for the cleansing of the house he shall take two small birds, with cedarwood and scarlet stuff and hyssop,

50: and shall kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water,
51: and shall take the cedarwood and the hyssop and the scarlet stuff, along with the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the bird that was killed and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times.
52: Thus he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedarwood and hyssop and scarlet stuff;
53: and he shall let the living bird go out of the city into the open field; so he shall make atonement for the house, and it shall be clean."
54: This is the law for any leprous disease: for an itch,
55: for leprosy in a garment or in a house,
56: and for a swelling or an eruption or a spot,
57: to show when it is unclean and when it is clean. This is the law for leprosy.

Chapter 15
Leviticus, chapter 15

1: The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,
2: "Say to the people of Israel, When any man has a discharge from his body, his discharge is unclean.
3: And this is the law of his uncleanness for a discharge: whether his body runs with his discharge, or his body is stopped from discharge, it is uncleanness in him.
4: Every bed on which he who has the discharge lies shall be unclean; and everything on which he sits shall be unclean.
5: And any one who touches his bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.
6: And whoever sits on anything on which he who has the discharge has sat shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.
7: And whoever touches the body of him who has the discharge shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.
8: And if he who has the discharge spits on one who is clean, then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.
9: And any saddle on which he who has the discharge rides shall be unclean.
10: And whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until the evening; and he who carries such a thing shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.
11: Any one whom he that has the discharge touches without having rinsed his hands in water shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.
12: And the earthen vessel which he who has the discharge touches shall be broken; and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.
13: "And when he who has a discharge is cleansed of his discharge, then he shall count for himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes; and he shall bathe his body in running water, and shall be clean.
14: And on the eighth day he shall take two turtledoves or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD to the door of the tent of meeting, and give them to the priest;
15: and the priest shall offer them, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD for his discharge.
16: "And if a man has an emission of semen, he shall bathe his whole body in water, and be unclean until the evening.
17: And every garment and every skin on which the semen comes shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the evening.
18: If a man lies with a woman and has an emission of semen, both of them shall bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the evening.
v18: If a man has illicit intercourse or copulates with a woman so that there is seminal emission, they shall both bathe in water and be unclean until the evening.
19: "When a woman has a discharge of blood which is her regular discharge from her body, she shall be in her impurity for seven days, and whoever touches her shall be unclean until the evening.
20: And everything upon which she lies during her impurity shall be unclean; everything also upon which she sits shall be unclean.
21: And whoever touches her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.
22: And whoever touches anything upon which she sits shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening;
23: whether it is the bed or anything upon which she sits, when he touches it he shall be unclean until the evening.
24: And if any man lies with her, and her impurity is on him, he shall be unclean seven days; and every bed on which he lies shall be unclean.
25: "If a woman has a discharge of blood for many days, not at the time of her impurity, or if she has a discharge beyond the time of her impurity, all the days of the discharge she shall continue in uncleanness; as in the days of her impurity, she shall be unclean.
26: Every bed on which she lies, all the days of her discharge, shall be to her as the bed of her impurity; and everything on which she sits shall be unclean, as in the uncleanness of her impurity.
27: And whoever touches these things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

28: But if she is cleansed of her discharge, she shall count for herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean.
29: And on the eighth day she shall take two turtledoves or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priest, to the door of the tent of meeting.
30: And the priest shall offer one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her before the LORD for her unclean discharge.
31: "Thus you shall keep the people of Israel separate from their uncleanness, lest they die in their uncleanness by defiling my tabernacle that is in their midst."
32: This is the law for him who has a discharge and for him who has an emission of semen, becoming unclean thereby;
33: also for her who is sick with her impurity; that is, for any one, male or female, who has a discharge, and for the man who lies with a woman who is unclean.

Chapter 16 Leviticus, chapter 16

1: The LORD spoke to Moses, after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they drew near before the LORD and died;
2: and the LORD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron your brother not to come at all times into the holy place within the veil, before the mercy seat which is upon the ark, lest he die; for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat.
3: But thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a young bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.
4: He shall put on the holy linen coat, and shall have the linen breeches on his body, be girded with the linen girdle, and wear the linen turban; these are the holy garments. He shall bathe his body in water, and then put them on.
5: And he shall take from the congregation of the people of Israel two male goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.
6: "And Aaron shall offer the bull as a sin offering for himself, and shall make atonement for himself and for his house.
7: Then he shall take the two goats, and set them before the LORD at the door of the tent of meeting;
8: and Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats, one lot for the LORD and the other lot for Aza'zel.
9: And Aaron shall present the goat on which the lot fell for the LORD, and offer it as a sin offering;
10: but the goat on which the lot fell for Aza'zel shall be presented alive before the LORD to make atonement over it, that it may be sent away into the wilderness to Aza'zel.
11: "Aaron shall present the bull as a sin offering for himself, and shall make atonement for himself and for his house; he shall kill the bull as a sin offering for himself.
12: And he shall take a censer full of coals of fire from the altar before the LORD, and two handfuls of sweet incense beaten small; and he shall bring it within the veil 13: and put the incense on the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy seat which is upon the testimony, lest he die;
14: and he shall take some of the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it with his finger on the front of the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat he shall sprinkle the blood with his finger seven times.
15: "Then he shall kill the goat of the sin offering which is for the people, and bring its blood within the veil, and do with its blood as he did with the blood of the bull, sprinkling it upon the mercy seat and before the mercy seat;
16: thus he shall make atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleannesses of the people of Israel, and because of their transgressions, all their sins; and so he shall do for the tent of meeting, which abides with them in the midst of their uncleannesses.
17: There shall be no man in the tent of meeting when he enters to make atonement in the holy place until he comes out and has made atonement for himself and for his house and for all the assembly of Israel.
18: Then he shall go out to the altar which is before the LORD and make atonement for it, and shall take some of the blood of the bull and of the blood of the goat, and put it on the horns of the altar round about.
19: And he shall sprinkle some of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it and hallow it from the uncleannesses of the people of Israel.
20: "And when he has made an end of atoning for the holy place and the tent of meeting and the altar, he shall present the live goat;
21: and Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the people of Israel, and all their transgressions, all their sins; and he shall put them upon the head of the goat, and send him away into the wilderness by the hand of a man who is in readiness.
22: The goat shall bear all their iniquities upon him to a solitary land; and he shall let the goat go in the wilderness.
23: "Then Aaron shall come into the tent of meeting, and shall put off the linen garments which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there;
24: and he shall bathe his body in water in a holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, and make atonement for himself and for the people.
25: And the fat of the sin offering he shall burn upon the altar.
26: And he who lets the goat go to Aza'zel shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward he may come into the camp.
27: And the bull for the sin offering and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall be carried forth outside the camp; their skin and their flesh and their dung shall be burned with fire.
28: And he who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward he may come into the camp.

29: "And it shall be a statute to you for ever that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall afflict yourselves, and shall do no work, either the native or the stranger who sojourns among you;
30: for on this day shall atonement be made for you, to cleanse you; from all your sins you shall be clean before the LORD.
31: It is a sabbath of solemn rest to you, and you shall afflict yourselves; it is a statute for ever.
32: And the priest who is anointed and consecrated as priest in his father's place shall make atonement, wearing the holy linen garments;
33: he shall make atonement for the sanctuary, and he shall make atonement for the tent of meeting and for the altar, and he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly.
34: And this shall be an everlasting statute for you, that atonement may be made for the people of Israel once in the year because of all their sins." And Moses did as the LORD commanded him.

Chapter 17 Leviticus, chapter 17

1: And the LORD said to Moses,
2: "Say to Aaron and his sons, and to all the people of Israel, This is the thing which the LORD has commanded.
3: If any man of the house of Israel kills an ox or a lamb or a goat in the camp, or kills it outside the camp,
4: and does not bring it to the door of the tent of meeting, to offer it as a gift to the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD, bloodguilt shall be imputed to that man; he has shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people.
5: This is to the end that the people of Israel may bring their sacrifices which they slay in the open field, that they may bring them to the LORD, to the priest at the door of the tent of meeting, and slay them as sacrifices of peace offerings to the LORD;
6: and the priest shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of the LORD at the door of the tent of meeting, and burn the fat for a pleasing odor to the LORD.
7: So they shall no more slay their sacrifices for satyrs, after whom they play the harlot. This shall be a statute for ever to them throughout their generations.
8: "And you shall say to them, Any man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among them, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice,
9: and does not bring it to the door of the tent of meeting, to sacrifice it to the LORD; that man shall be cut off from his people.
10: "If any man of the house of Israel or of the strangers that sojourn among them eats any blood, I will set my face against that person who eats blood, and will cut him off from among his people.

Lev 17:10

v10: And any man from the House of Israel the Jewish Citizens and from the Aliens who live among them, who eat any blood, I will set my face against them or I will Judge from the Justice of God that person who eats blood and will cut him off from his people.

11: For the life of the flesh is in the blood; and I have given it for you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that makes atonement, by reason of the life.

Lev 17:11

v11: For the SOUL which gives life to the Flesh (Animals) is in the Blood of the animals and I have given it to you on the Alter, (represented the Cross) to make a propitiatory covering for your souls, for it is blood by virtue of the soul which makes a propitiatory covering or atonement.

12: Therefore I have said to the people of Israel, No person among you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger who sojourns among you eat blood.

Lev 17:12

v12: Therefore I communicate to the citizens of Israel, no person among you shall eat animal blood, even the alien who lives among you shall not eat blood.

13: Any man also of the people of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among them, who takes in hunting any beast or bird that may be eaten shall pour out its blood and cover it with dust.

Lev 17:13

v13: So when any man from the sons of Israel or from the aliens who live among them takes by hunting any wild animal or bird which may be eaten, he shall first drain it's blood and cover the blood with earth.

14: "For the life of every creature is the blood of it; therefore I have said to the people of Israel, You shall not eat the blood of any creature, for the life of every creature is its blood; whoever eats it shall be cut off.

15: And every person that eats what dies of itself or what is torn by beasts, whether he is a native or a sojourner, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening; then he shall be clean.

Lev 17:15

v15: And every person that eats what dies of itself or what is torn by beasts, whether he is a native or a sojourner, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening; then he shall be clean.

16: But if he does not wash them or bathe his flesh, he shall bear his iniquity."

Chapter 18

1: And the LORD said to Moses,

Lev 18:1

v1: Then Jehovah, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ the God of Israel spoke to Moses saying

2: "Say to the people of Israel, I am the LORD your God.

Lev 18:2

v2: 'Speak to the sons or people of Israel and say to them, I am the Lord your God,

3: You shall not do as they do in the land of Egypt, where you dwelt, and you shall not do as they do in the land of Canaan, to which I am bringing you. You shall not walk in their statutes.

Lev 18:3

v3: You shall not do what was done in the land of Egypt where you lived in practicing idolatry nor are you to do what is done in the land of Canaan where I am bringing you practicing idolatry, You shall not walk in their statutes or laws,

4: You shall do my ordinances and keep my statutes and walk in them. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 18:4

v4: you are to perform my judgments in Codex III the Laws of Divine Establishment and keep my statutes to walk in them I am Adanai Eloheanu Your God.

5: You shall therefore keep my statutes and my ordinances, by doing which a man shall live: I am the LORD.

v5: So You shall therefore keep my statutes and my judgments, which the man who shall do them also shall live by them: I am Jehovah.

6: "None of you shall approach any one near of kin to him to uncover nakedness. I am the LORD.

Lev 18:6

v6: None of you shall approach any blood relative of his near to uncover his nakedness committing incest I am the Lord (Canaanites habitually practiced Incest)

7: You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father, which is the nakedness of your mother; she is your mother, you shall not uncover her nakedness.

Lev 18:7

v7: The Nakedness of your father or mother shall you not uncover in the practice of Incest, she is your mother, and you will not uncover her nakedness (rejection of Privacy and Authority)

8: You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's wife; it is your father's nakedness.

Lev 18:8

v8: The Nakedness of your fathers wife shall you not uncover, it is your fathers nakedness,

9: You shall not uncover the nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your father or the daughter of your mother, whether born at home or born abroad.

Lev 18:9

v9: The nakedness of your sisters, and the daughter of your father or mother whether she is born at home or abroad their nakedness you shall not uncover (incest and privacy rejection)

10: You shall not uncover the nakedness of your son's daughter or of your daughter's daughter, for their nakedness is your own nakedness.

Lev 18:10

v10: The nakedness of your sons daughter

11: You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's wife's daughter, begotten by your father, since she is your sister.

Lev 18:11

v11: The Nakedness of your fathers wifes daughter begotten by your father she is your sister and you shall not uncover her nakedness (Incest)

12: You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's sister; she is your father's near kinswoman.

Lev 18:12

v12: You shall not uncover the nakedness of your fathers sister (aunt incest) she is your fathers near kinswoman.

13: You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister, for she is your mother's near kinswoman.

Lev 18:13

v13: You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mothers sister (Aunt incest)

14: You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's brother, that is, you shall not approach his wife; she is your aunt.

Lev 18:14

v14: You shall not uncover the nakedness of your fathers brother (Uncle Incest)

15: You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law; she is your son's wife, you shall not uncover her nakedness.

Lev 18:15

v15: You shall not uncover the nakedness of your sons wife (daughter in Law Incest)

16: You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother's wife; she is your brother's nakedness.

17: You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and of her daughter, and you shall not take her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter to uncover her nakedness; they are your near kinswomen; it is wickedness.

Lev 18:17

v17: you shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, nor of her sons daughter or her daughters daughter, to uncover their nakedness, for they are her near kinswomen, it is Rape (Zema)

18: And you shall not take a woman as a rival wife to her sister, uncovering her nakedness while her sister is yet alive.

19: "You shall not approach a woman to uncover her nakedness while she is in her menstrual uncleanness.

20: And you shall not lie carnally with your neighbor's wife, and defile yourself with her.

Lev 18:20

v20: Moreover you shall not lie carnal with your neighbors wife and defile yourself with her,

21: You shall not give any of your children to devote them by fire to Molech, and so profane the name of your God: I am the LORD.

Lev 18:21

v21: and you shall not let any of your seed pass through the fire of moab (Human Sacrifice)

22: You shall not lie with a male as with a woman; it is an abomination.

Lev 18:22

v22: You shall not lie with mankind as with woman kind (Homosexuality), neither shall you lie with any beast to defile yourself therewith (Bestiality) Neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down there to, this is confusion, defile not yourselves in any of these for in all of these the Canaanites are defiled which I have cast out before you.

23: And you shall not lie with any beast and defile yourself with it, neither shall any woman give herself to a beast to lie with it: it is perversion.

Lev 18:23

v23: You will not have sexual intercourse with any animal nor be defiled with it, nor shall any woman stand before an animal to have sex with it, it is a perversion.

24: "Do not defile yourselves by any of these things, for by all these the nations I am casting out before you defiled themselves;

v24: "Do not defile yourselves by any of these things, for by all these the 7 nations I am casting out before you defiled themselves;

25: and the land became defiled, so that I punished its iniquity, and the land vomited out its inhabitants.

26: But you shall keep my statutes and my ordinances and do none of these abominations, either the native or the stranger who sojourns among you

v26: But you shall keep my statutes and my ordinances and do none of these abominations, either the Jew nor the gentile who travels among you

27: (for all of these abominations the men of the land did, who were before you, so that the land became defiled);

28: lest the land vomit you out, when you defile it, as it vomited out the nation that was before you.

29: For whoever shall do any of these abominations, the persons that do them shall be cut off from among their people.

30: So keep my charge never to practice any of these abominable customs which were practiced before you, and never to defile yourselves by them: I am the LORD your God."

Chapter 19

Leviticus, chapter 19

1: And the LORD said to Moses,

2: "Say to all the congregation of the people of Israel, You shall be holy; for I the LORD your God am holy.

3: Every one of you shall revere his mother and his father, and you shall keep my sabbaths: I am the LORD your God.

4: Do not turn to idols or make for yourselves molten gods: I am the LORD your God.

5: "When you offer a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, you shall offer it so that you may be accepted.

6: It shall be eaten the same day you offer it, or on the morrow; and anything left over until the third day shall be burned with fire.

7: If it is eaten at all on the third day, it is an abomination; it will not be accepted,

8: and every one who eats it shall bear his iniquity, because he has profaned a holy thing of the LORD; and that person shall be cut off from his people.

9: "When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap your field to its very border, neither shall you gather the gleanings after your harvest.

10: And you shall not strip your vineyard bare, neither shall you gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and for the sojourner: I am the LORD your God.

11: "You shall not steal, nor deal falsely, nor lie to one another.

12: And you shall not swear by my name falsely, and so profane the name of your God: I am the LORD.

13: "You shall not oppress your neighbor or rob him. The wages of a hired servant shall not remain with you all night until the morning.

14: You shall not curse the deaf or put a stumbling block before the blind, but you shall fear your God: I am the LORD.

15: "You shall do no injustice in judgment; you shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great, but in righteousness shall you judge your neighbor.

16: You shall not go up and down as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not stand forth against the life of your neighbor: I am the LORD.

17: "You shall not hate your brother in your heart, but you shall reason with your neighbor, lest you bear sin because of him.

v17: "You shall not hate your fellow countryman in the Stream of Consciousness of your Soul, but you shall surely reprove your neighbor, but you must not sin because of him.

18: You shall not take vengeance or bear any grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD.

v18: You shall not take revenge nor bear any grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the Jehovah.

19: "You shall keep my statutes. You shall not let your cattle breed with a different kind; you shall not sow your field with two kinds of seed; nor shall there come upon you a garment of cloth made of two kinds of stuff.

v19: "Keep my decrees says the lord. Do not mate different kinds of animals; you shall not sow your field with two kinds of seed; nor shall there come upon you a garment of cloth made of two kinds of stuff.

20: "If a man lies carnally with a woman who is a slave, betrothed to another man and not yet ransomed or given her freedom, an inquiry shall be held. They shall not be put to death, because she was not free;

21: but he shall bring a guilt offering for himself to the LORD, to the door of the tent of meeting, a ram for a guilt offering.

22: And the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering before the LORD for his sin which he has committed; and the sin which he has committed shall be forgiven him.

23: "When you come into the land and plant all kinds of trees for food, then you shall count their fruit as forbidden; three years it shall be forbidden to you, it must not be eaten.

24: And in the fourth year all their fruit shall be holy, an offering of praise to the LORD.

25: But in the fifth year you may eat of their fruit, that they may yield more richly for you: I am the LORD your God.

26: "You shall not eat any flesh with the blood in it. You shall not practice augury or witchcraft.

27: You shall not round off the hair on your temples or mar the edges of your beard.

28: You shall not make any cuttings in your flesh on account of the dead or tattoo any marks upon you: I am the LORD.

29: "Do not profane your daughter by making her a harlot, lest the land fall into harlotry and the land become full of wickedness.

30: You shall keep my sabbaths and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

31: "Do not turn to mediums or wizards; do not seek them out, to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your God.

32: "You shall rise up before the hoary head, and honor the face of an old man, and you shall fear your God: I am the LORD.

33: "When a stranger sojourns with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong.

34: The stranger who sojourns with you shall be to you as the native among you, and you shall love him as yourself; for you were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

35: "You shall do no wrong in judgment, in measures of length or weight or quantity.

36: You shall have just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin: I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.

37: And you shall observe all my statutes and all my ordinances, and do them: I am the LORD."

Chapter 20

Leviticus, chapter 20

1: The LORD said to Moses,

2: "Say to the people of Israel, Any man of the people of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, who gives any of his children to Molech shall be put to death; the people of the land shall stone him with stones.

3: I myself will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people, because he has given one of his children to Molech, defiling my sanctuary and profaning my holy name.

4: And if the people of the land do at all hide their eyes from that man, when he gives one of his children to Molech, and do not put him to death,

5: then I will set my face against that man and against his family, and will cut them off from among their people, him and all who follow him in playing the harlot after Molech.

6: "If a person turns to mediums and wizards, playing the harlot after them, I will set my face against that person, and will cut him off from among his people.

7: Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy; for I am the LORD your God.

8: Keep my statutes, and do them; I am the LORD who sanctify you.

9: For every one who curses his father or his mother shall be put to death; he has cursed his father or his mother, his blood is upon him.

10: "If a man commits adultery with the wife of his neighbor, both the adulterer and the adulteress shall be put to death.

v10: "If a man commits adultery with the wife of his friend, both the adulterer and the adulteress shall be put to death.

11: The man who lies with his father's wife has uncovered his father's nakedness; both of them shall be put to death, their blood is upon them.

12: If a man lies with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall be put to death; they have committed incest, their blood is upon them.

13: If a man lies with a male as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination; they shall be put to death, their blood is upon them.

Lev 20:13

v13: If there is a male who has sex with a male as those who have sex with a woman they have committed a detestable act, They shall be PUT TO DEATH.

14: If a man takes a wife and her mother also, it is wickedness; they shall be burned with fire, both he and they, that there may be no wickedness among you.

15: If a man lies with a beast, he shall be put to death; and you shall kill the beast.

Lev 20:15

v15: If a man has sex with an animal he shall be put to death and you shall also kill the animal.

16: If a woman approaches any beast and lies with it, you shall kill the woman and the beast; they shall be put to death, their blood is upon them.

17: "If a man takes his sister, a daughter of his father or a daughter of his mother, and sees her nakedness, and she sees his nakedness, it is a shameful thing, and they shall be cut off in the sight of the children of their people; he has uncovered his sister's nakedness, he shall bear his iniquity.

v17: If a man overpowers his sister, the daughter of either his father or mother, and he copulates with her, they must be cut off from before the eyes of the people or Executed, he has dishonored his sister and he will be held responsible.

18: If a man lies with a woman having her sickness, and uncovers her nakedness, he has made naked her fountain, and she has uncovered the fountain of her blood; both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

19: You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister or of your father's sister, for that is to make naked one's near kin; they shall bear their iniquity.

20: If a man lies with his uncle's wife, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness; they shall bear their sin, they shall die childless.

21: If a man takes his brother's wife, it is impurity; he has uncovered his brother's nakedness, they shall be childless.

22: "You shall therefore keep all my statutes and all my ordinances, and do them; that the land where I am bringing you to dwell may not vomit you out.

23: And you shall not walk in the customs of the nation which I am casting out before you; for they did all these things, and therefore I abhorred them.

24: But I have said to you, 'You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess, a land flowing with milk and honey.' I am the LORD your God, who have separated you from the peoples.

25: You shall therefore make a distinction between the clean beast and the unclean, and between the unclean bird and the clean; you shall not make yourselves abominable by beast or by bird or by anything with which the ground teems, which I have set apart for you to hold unclean.

26: You shall be holy to me; for I the LORD am holy, and have separated you from the peoples, that you should be mine.

27: "A man or a woman who is a medium or a wizard shall be put to death; they shall be stoned with stones, their blood shall be upon them."

Chapter 21

Leviticus, chapter 21

1: And the LORD said to Moses, "Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them that none of them shall defile himself for the dead among his people,

2: except for his nearest of kin, his mother, his father, his son, his daughter, his brother,

3: or his virgin sister (who is near to him because she has had no husband; for her he may defile himself).

4: He shall not defile himself as a husband among his people and so profane himself.

5: They shall not make tonsures upon their heads, nor shave off the edges of their beards, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

6: They shall be holy to their God, and not profane the name of their God; for they offer the offerings by fire to the LORD, the bread of their God; therefore they shall be holy.

7: They shall not marry a harlot or a woman who has been defiled; neither shall they marry a woman divorced from her husband; for the priest is holy to his God.

8: You shall consecrate him, for he offers the bread of your God; he shall be holy to you; for I the LORD, who sanctify you, am holy.

9: And the daughter of any priest, if she profanes herself by playing the harlot, profanes her father; she shall be burned with fire.

10: "The priest who is chief among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil is poured, and who has been consecrated to wear the garments, shall not let the hair of his head hang loose, nor rend his clothes;

11: he shall not go in to any dead body, nor defile himself, even for his father or for his mother;

12: neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the LORD.

13: And he shall take a wife in her virginity.

14: A widow, or one divorced, or a woman who has been defiled, or a harlot, these he shall not marry; but he shall take to wife a virgin of his own people,

15: that he may not profane his children among his people; for I am the LORD who sanctify him."

16: And the LORD said to Moses,

17: "Say to Aaron, None of your descendants throughout their generations who has a blemish may approach to offer the bread of his God.

18: For no one who has a blemish shall draw near, a man blind or lame, or one who has a mutilated face or a limb too long,
19: or a man who has an injured foot or an injured hand,
20: or a hunchback, or a dwarf, or a man with a defect in his sight or an itching disease or scabs or crushed testicles;
21: no man of the descendants of Aaron the priest who has a blemish shall come near to offer the LORD's offerings by fire; since he has a blemish, he shall not come near to offer the bread of his God.
22: He may eat the bread of his God, both of the most holy and of the holy things,
23: but he shall not come near the veil or approach the altar, because he has a blemish, that he may not profane my sanctuaries; for I am the LORD who sanctify them."
24: So Moses spoke to Aaron and to his sons and to all the people of Israel.

Chapter 22
Leviticus, chapter 22

1: And the LORD said to Moses,
2: "Tell Aaron and his sons to keep away from the holy things of the people of Israel, which they dedicate to me, so that they may not profane my holy name; I am the LORD.
3: Say to them, 'If any one of all your descendants throughout your generations approaches the holy things, which the people of Israel dedicate to the LORD, while he has an uncleanness, that person shall be cut off from my presence: I am the LORD.
4: None of the line of Aaron who is a leper or suffers a discharge may eat of the holy things until he is clean. Whoever touches anything that is unclean through contact with the dead or a man who has had an emission of semen,
5: and whoever touches a creeping thing by which he may be made unclean or a man from whom he may take uncleanness, whatever his uncleanness may be --
6: the person who touches any such shall be unclean until the evening and shall not eat of the holy things unless he has bathed his body in water.
7: When the sun is down he shall be clean; and afterward he may eat of the holy things, because such are his food.
8: That which dies of itself or is torn by beasts he shall not eat, defiling himself by it: I am the LORD.'
9: They shall therefore keep my charge, lest they bear sin for it and die thereby when they profane it: I am the LORD who sanctify them.
10: "An outsider shall not eat of a holy thing. A sojourner of the priest's or a hired servant shall not eat of a holy thing;
11: but if a priest buys a slave as his property for money, the slave may eat of it; and those that are born in his house may eat of his food.
12: If a priest's daughter is married to an outsider she shall not eat of the offering of the holy things.
13: But if a priest's daughter is a widow or divorced, and has no child, and returns to her father's house, as in her youth, she may eat of her father's food; yet no outsider shall eat of it.
14: And if a man eats of a holy thing unwittingly, he shall add the fifth of its value to it, and give the holy thing to the priest.
15: The priests shall not profane the holy things of the people of Israel, which they offer to the LORD,
16: and so cause them to bear iniquity and guilt, by eating their holy things: for I am the LORD who sanctify them."
17: And the LORD said to Moses,
18: "Say to Aaron and his sons and all the people of Israel, When any one of the house of Israel or of the sojourners in Israel presents his offering, whether in payment of a vow or as a freewill offering which is offered to the LORD as a burnt offering,
19: to be accepted you shall offer a male without blemish, of the bulls or the sheep or the goats.
20: You shall not offer anything that has a blemish, for it will not be acceptable for you.
21: And when any one offers a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, to fulfil a vow or as a freewill offering, from the herd or from the flock, to be accepted it must be perfect; there shall be no blemish in it.
22: Animals blind or disabled or mutilated or having a discharge or an itch or scabs, you shall not offer to the LORD or make of them an offering by fire upon the altar to the LORD.
23: A bull or a lamb which has a part too long or too short you may present for a freewill offering; but for a votive offering it cannot be accepted.
24: Any animal which has its testicles bruised or crushed or torn or cut, you shall not offer to the LORD or sacrifice within your land;
25: neither shall you offer as the bread of your God any such animals gotten from a foreigner. Since there is a blemish in them, because of their mutilation, they will not be accepted for you."
26: And the LORD said to Moses,
27: "When a bull or sheep or goat is born, it shall remain seven days with its mother; and from the eighth day on it shall be acceptable as an offering by fire to the LORD.
28: And whether the mother is a cow or a ewe, you shall not kill both her and her young in one day.
29: And when you sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the LORD, you shall sacrifice it so that you may be accepted.
30: It shall be eaten on the same day, you shall leave none of it until morning: I am the LORD.
31: "So you shall keep my commandments and do them: I am the LORD.
32: And you shall not profane my holy name, but I will be hallowed among the people of Israel; I am the LORD who sanctify you,

33: who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God: I am the LORD."

Chapter 23
Leviticus, chapter 23

1: The LORD said to Moses,

2: "Say to the people of Israel, The appointed feasts of the LORD which you shall proclaim as holy convocations, my appointed feasts, are these.

3: Six days shall work be done; but on the seventh day is a sabbath of solemn rest, a holy convocation; you shall do no work; it is a sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings.

4: "These are the appointed feasts of the LORD, the holy convocations, which you shall proclaim at the time appointed for them.

5: In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month in the evening, is the LORD's passover.

6: And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread to the LORD; seven days you shall eat unleavened bread.

7: On the first day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work.

8: But you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD seven days; on the seventh day is a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work."

9: And the LORD said to Moses,

10: "Say to the people of Israel, When you come into the land which I give you and reap its harvest, you shall bring the sheaf of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest;

11: and he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, that you may find acceptance; on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it.

12: And on the day when you wave the sheaf, you shall offer a male lamb a year old without blemish as a burnt offering to the LORD.

13: And the cereal offering with it shall be two tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil, to be offered by fire to the LORD, a pleasing odor; and the drink offering with it shall be of wine, a fourth of a hin.

14: And you shall eat neither bread nor grain parched or fresh until this same day, until you have brought the offering of your God: it is a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

15: "And you shall count from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven full weeks shall they be,

16: counting fifty days to the morrow after the seventh sabbath; then you shall present a cereal offering of new grain to the LORD.

17: You shall bring from your dwellings two loaves of bread to be waved, made of two tenths of an ephah; they shall be of fine flour, they shall be baked with leaven, as first fruits to the LORD.

18: And you shall present with the bread seven lambs a year old without blemish, and one young bull, and two rams; they shall be a burnt offering to the LORD, with their cereal offering and their drink offerings, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

19: And you shall offer one male goat for a sin offering, and two male lambs a year old as a sacrifice of peace offerings.

20: And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the first fruits as a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs; they shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.

21: And you shall make proclamation on the same day; you shall hold a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work: it is a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

22: "And when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap your field to its very border, nor shall you gather the gleanings after your harvest; you shall leave them for the poor and for the stranger: I am the LORD your God."

23: And the LORD said to Moses,

24: "Say to the people of Israel, In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall observe a day of solemn rest, a memorial proclaimed with blast of trumpets, a holy convocation.

25: You shall do no laborious work; and you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD."

26: And the LORD said to Moses,

27: "On the tenth day of this seventh month is the day of atonement; it shall be for you a time of holy convocation, and you shall afflict yourselves and present an offering by fire to the LORD.

28: And you shall do no work on this same day; for it is a day of atonement, to make atonement for you before the LORD your God.

29: For whoever is not afflicted on this same day shall be cut off from his people.

30: And whoever does any work on this same day, that person I will destroy from among his people.

31: You shall do no work: it is a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

32: It shall be to you a sabbath of solemn rest, and you shall afflict yourselves; on the ninth day of the month beginning at evening, from evening to evening shall you keep your sabbath."

33: And the LORD said to Moses,

34: "Say to the people of Israel, On the fifteenth day of this seventh month and for seven days is the feast of booths to the LORD.

35: On the first day shall be a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work.

36: Seven days you shall present offerings by fire to the LORD; on the eighth day you shall hold a holy convocation and present an offering by fire to the LORD; it is a solemn assembly; you shall do no laborious work.

37: "These are the appointed feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim as times of holy convocation, for presenting to the LORD offerings by fire, burnt offerings and cereal offerings, sacrifices and drink offerings, each on its proper day;

38: besides the sabbaths of the LORD, and besides your gifts, and besides all your votive offerings, and besides all your freewill offerings, which you give to the LORD.
39: "On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the produce of the land, you shall keep the feast of the LORD seven days; on the first day shall be a solemn rest, and on the eighth day shall be a solemn rest.
40: And you shall take on the first day the fruit of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and boughs of leafy trees, and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days.
41: You shall keep it as a feast to the LORD seven days in the year; it is a statute for ever throughout your generations; you shall keep it in the seventh month.
42: You shall dwell in booths for seven days; all that are native in Israel shall dwell in booths, 43: that your generations may know that I made the people of Israel dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God."
44: Thus Moses declared to the people of Israel the appointed feasts of the LORD.

Chapter 24 Leviticus, chapter 24

1: The LORD said to Moses,
2: "Command the people of Israel to bring you pure oil from beaten olives for the lamp, that a light may be kept burning continually.
3: Outside the veil of the testimony, in the tent of meeting, Aaron shall keep it in order from evening to morning before the LORD continually; it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations.
4: He shall keep the lamps in order upon the lampstand of pure gold before the LORD continually.
5: "And you shall take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes of it; two tenths of an ephah shall be in each cake.
6: And you shall set them in two rows, six in a row, upon the table of pure gold.
7: And you shall put pure frankincense with each row, that it may go with the bread as a memorial portion to be offered by fire to the LORD.
8: Every sabbath day Aaron shall set it in order before the LORD continually on behalf of the people of Israel as a covenant for ever.
9: And it shall be for Aaron and his sons, and they shall eat it in a holy place, since it is for him a most holy portion out of the offerings by fire to the LORD, a perpetual due."
10: Now an Israelite woman's son, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the people of Israel; and the Israelite woman's son and a man of Israel quarreled in the camp, 11: and the Israelite woman's son blasphemed the Name, and cursed. And they brought him to Moses. His mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.
12: And they put him in custody, till the will of the LORD should be declared to them.
13: And the LORD said to Moses,
14: "Bring out of the camp him who cursed; and let all who heard him lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him.
15: And say to the people of Israel, Whoever curses his God shall bear his sin.
16: He who blasphemes the name of the LORD shall be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him; the sojourner as well as the native, when he blasphemes the Name, shall be put to death.
17: He who kills a man shall be put to death.

Lev 24:17

v17: If a man takes the life of another human being he shall surely be put to death.

18: He who kills a beast shall make it good, life for life.
19: When a man causes a disfigurement in his neighbor, as he has done it shall be done to him,
20: fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; as he has disfigured a man, he shall be disfigured.
21: He who kills a beast shall make it good; and he who kills a man shall be put to death.
22: You shall have one law for the sojourner and for the native; for I am the LORD your God."
23: So Moses spoke to the people of Israel; and they brought him who had cursed out of the camp, and stoned him with stones. Thus the people of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Chapter 25 Leviticus, chapter 25

1: The LORD said to Moses on Mount Sinai,
2: "Say to the people of Israel, When you come into the land which I give you, the land shall keep a sabbath to the LORD.
3: Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard, and gather in its fruits;
4: but in the seventh year there shall be a sabbath of solemn rest for the land, a sabbath to the LORD; you shall not sow your field or prune your vineyard.
5: What grows of itself in your harvest you shall not reap, and the grapes of your undressed vine you shall not gather; it shall be a year of solemn rest for the land.

6: The sabbath of the land shall provide food for you, for yourself and for your male and female slaves and for your hired servant and the sojourner who lives with you;

7: for your cattle also and for the beasts that are in your land all its yield shall be for food.

8: "And you shall count seven weeks of years, seven times seven years, so that the time of the seven weeks of years shall be to you forty-nine years.

9: Then you shall send abroad the loud trumpet on the tenth day of the seventh month; on the day of atonement you shall send abroad the trumpet throughout all your land.

10: And you shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants; it shall be a jubilee for you, when each of you shall return to his property and each of you shall return to his family.

11: A jubilee shall that fiftieth year be to you; in it you shall neither sow, nor reap what grows of itself, nor gather the grapes from the undressed vines.

12: For it is a jubilee; it shall be holy to you; you shall eat what it yields out of the field.

13: "In this year of jubilee each of you shall return to his property.

14: And if you sell to your neighbor or buy from your neighbor, you shall not wrong one another.

15: According to the number of years after the jubilee, you shall buy from your neighbor, and according to the number of years for crops he shall sell to you.

16: If the years are many you shall increase the price, and if the years are few you shall diminish the price, for it is the number of the crops that he is selling to you.

17: You shall not wrong one another, but you shall fear your God; for I am the LORD your God.

18: "Therefore you shall do my statutes, and keep my ordinances and perform them; so you will dwell in the land securely.

19: The land will yield its fruit, and you will eat your fill, and dwell in it securely.

20: And if you say, `What shall we eat in the seventh year, if we may not sow or gather in our crop?'

21: I will command my blessing upon you in the sixth year, so that it will bring forth fruit for three years.

22: When you sow in the eighth year, you will be eating old produce; until the ninth year, when its produce comes in, you shall eat the old.

23: The land shall not be sold in perpetuity, for the land is mine; for you are strangers and sojourners with me.

24: And in all the country you possess, you shall grant a redemption of the land.

25: "If your brother becomes poor, and sells part of his property, then his next of kin shall come and redeem what his brother has sold.

26: If a man has no one to redeem it, and then himself becomes prosperous and finds sufficient means to redeem it, 27: let him reckon the years since he sold it and pay back the overpayment to the man to whom he sold it; and he shall return to his property.

28: But if he has not sufficient means to get it back for himself, then what he sold shall remain in the hand of him who bought it until the year of jubilee; in the jubilee it shall be released, and he shall return to his property.

29: "If a man sells a dwelling house in a walled city, he may redeem it within a whole year after its sale; for a full year he shall have the right of redemption.

30: If it is not redeemed within a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be made sure in perpetuity to him who bought it, throughout his generations; it shall not be released in the jubilee.

31: But the houses of the villages which have no wall around them shall be reckoned with the fields of the country; they may be redeemed, and they shall be released in the jubilee.

32: Nevertheless the cities of the Levites, the houses in the cities of their possession, the Levites may redeem at any time.

33: And if one of the Levites does not exercise his right of redemption, then the house that was sold in a city of their possession shall be released in the jubilee; for the houses in the cities of the Levites are their possession among the people of Israel.

34: But the fields of common land belonging to their cities may not be sold; for that is their perpetual possession.

35: "And if your brother becomes poor, and cannot maintain himself with you, you shall maintain him; as a stranger and a sojourner he shall live with you.

36: Take no interest from him or increase, but fear your God; that your brother may live beside you.

37: You shall not lend him your money at interest, nor give him your food for profit.

38: I am the LORD your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

39: "And if your brother becomes poor beside you, and sells himself to you, you shall not make him serve as a slave:

40: he shall be with you as a hired servant and as a sojourner. He shall serve with you until the year of the jubilee;

41: then he shall go out from you, he and his children with him, and go back to his own family, and return to the possession of his fathers.

42: For they are my servants, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt; they shall not be sold as slaves.

43: You shall not rule over him with harshness, but shall fear your God.

44: As for your male and female slaves whom you may have: you may buy male and female slaves from among the nations that are round about you.

45: You may also buy from among the strangers who sojourn with you and their families that are with you, who have been born in your land; and they may be your property.

46: You may bequeath them to your sons after you, to inherit as a possession for ever; you may make slaves of them, but over your brethren the people of Israel you shall not rule, one over another, with harshness.

47: "If a stranger or sojourner with you becomes rich, and your brother beside him becomes poor and sells himself to the stranger or sojourner with you, or to a member of the stranger's family,

48: then after he is sold he may be redeemed; one of his brothers may redeem him,

49: or his uncle, or his cousin may redeem him, or a near kinsman belonging to his family may redeem him; or if he grows rich he may redeem himself.

50: He shall reckon with him who bought him from the year when he sold himself to him until the year of jubilee, and the price of his release shall be according to the number of years; the time he was with his owner shall be rated as the time of a hired servant.

51: If there are still many years, according to them he shall refund out of the price paid for him the price for his redemption.

52: If there remain but a few years until the year of jubilee, he shall make a reckoning with him; according to the years of service due from him he shall refund the money for his redemption.

53: As a servant hired year by year shall he be with him; he shall not rule with harshness over him in your sight.

54: And if he is not redeemed by these means, then he shall be released in the year of jubilee, he and his children with him.

55: For to me the people of Israel are servants, they are my servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Chapter 26

Leviticus, chapter 26

1: "You shall make for yourselves no idols and erect no graven image or pillar, and you shall not set up a figured stone in your land, to bow down to them; for I am the LORD your God.

2: You shall keep my sabbaths and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

3: "If you walk in my statutes and observe my commandments and do them,

4: then I will give you your rains in their season, and the land shall yield its increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.

5: And your threshing shall last to the time of vintage, and the vintage shall last to the time for sowing; and you shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land securely.

6: And I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid; and I will remove evil beasts from the land, and the sword shall not go through your land.

7: And you shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword.

8: Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall chase ten thousand; and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

9: And I will have regard for you and make you fruitful and multiply you, and will confirm my covenant with you.

10: And you shall eat old store long kept, and you shall clear out the old to make way for the new.

11: And I will make my abode among you, and my soul shall not abhor you.

12: And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and you shall be my people.

13: I am the LORD your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that you should not be their slaves; and I have broken the bars of your yoke and made you walk erect.

14: "But if you will not hearken to me, and will not do all these commandments,

Lev 26:14-18 (1st Cycle of Discipline)

v14: But if you do not obey me (Execute the SL) and do not carry out all these commandments (Decalogue - Freedom Code & Laws of Divine Establishment codex III)

15: if you spurn my statutes, and if your soul abhors my ordinances, so that you will not do all my commandments, but break my covenant, v15: If instead you reject my statutes in the Laws of Divine Establishment and your soul despises my ordinances spiritual and doctrinal heritage of the client nation, and you fail to carry out my commands pertaining to freedom so breaking my mosaic covenants

16: I will do this to you: I will appoint over you sudden terror, consumption, and fever that waste the eyes and cause life to pine away. And you shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it;

v16: Then I in turn will do this to you, I will bring down upon you sudden terror Violence, Unrestrained Criminality, Epidemic Diseases and Fever possibly from invasion, which destroys the sight or causes the eyes to fail and the soul to slip away to death and become depressed and drains the Life, you will sow your seed in vain for your enemies will devour it or a total collapse in the economy.

17: I will set my face against you, and you shall be smitten before your enemies; those who hate you shall rule over you, and you shall flee when none pursues you.

v17: I, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ who controls Human History, will set my face against you in antagonism, so you will be defeated or struck down by your enemies in military defeat, consequently those who hate you will rule over you and you will flee when no one is pursuing because of National Cowardice.

18: And if in spite of this you will not hearken to me, then I will chastise you again sevenfold for your sins,

19: and I will break the pride of your power, and I will make your heavens like iron and your earth like brass;

v19: Then I will also break down the arrogance of your abuse of power, I will make your sky like Iron resulting in Drought, causing Economic Disaster Inflation first and then total economic Depression, and your earth like Bronze.

20: and your strength shall be spent in vain, for your land shall not yield its increase, and the trees of the land shall not yield their fruit.

v20: Then your strength will be spent uselessly or in vain, for your land will not yield its produce nor will the trees of your land bear their fruit resulting in the gross national produce being destroyed.

21: "Then if you walk contrary to me, and will not hearken to me, I will bring more plagues upon you, sevenfold as many as your sins.

v23: And if by these things you will not be corrected by me (God the Father and Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ who controls Human History) but will go on or continue in opposition to toward me through Negative Volition to Bible Doctrine and Carnality and persistent involvement in the Interlocking System of Arrogance and its degeneracy

24: then I also will walk contrary to you, and I myself will smite you sevenfold for your sins.

v24: Then I will go into opposition or bring acts of hostility against you, and I will strike you seven more times for your sins . (Prov 3:34, James 4:6, 1Pet 5:5)

25: And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall execute vengeance for the covenant; and if you gather within your cities I will send pestilence among you, and you shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

v25: I also will bring upon you the sword which will execute vengeance for the breaking of my covenant under the Laws of Divine Establishment thus Military Disaster, and therefore when you retreat or gather together in your cities I will send a pestilence or an epidemic among you so that you will be delivered into the hands of the Enemy thus total Military Defeat and Slavery.

26: When I break your staff of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and shall deliver your bread again by weight; and you shall eat, and not be satisfied.

v26: When I break your staff of bread or cut off your food supply (Aug 70 AD) ten women will bake your bread in one oven resulting in starvation and they will dole out to you your bread by rationed weight so that you will eat and definitely not be satisfied.

27: "And if in spite of this you will not hearken to me, but walk contrary to me, v27: Yet if in spite of this you do not obey or listen to me from Negative Volition to Bible Doctrine, but continue to act with hostility to me

28: then I will walk contrary to you in fury, and chastise you myself sevenfold for your sins.

v28: Then in my anthropopathic anger, I will go into extremely wrathful opposition toward you and I will punish you seven times more for your sins.

29: You shall eat the flesh of your sons, and you shall eat the flesh of your daughters.

v29: Furthermore you will eat the flesh of your sons (BC 586 and 70 AD the siege of Jerusalem) and you will eat the flesh of your daughters (Cannibalism malfunction of Laws of Divine Establishment under siege conditions) (any application of the 5th cycle of Divine Discipline)

30: And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your incense altars, and cast your dead bodies upon the dead bodies of your idols; and my soul will abhor you.

v30: Then I will destroy your high places of Religious systems and demon worship and I will cut down your incense altars for false gods and I will stack your corpses on the corpses of your idols for my soul will despise you.

31: And I will lay your cities waste, and will make your sanctuaries desolate, and I will not smell your pleasing odors.

v31: I will give desolation to or turn your cities into ruins, I will lay waste to your sanctuaries or make your holy places dumb and no teaching of Bible Doctrine, and I will take no delight in or find no fragrance in your propitiatory prayer offerings or application of Bible Doctrine in worship.

32: And I will devastate the land, so that your enemies who settle in it shall be astonished at it.

v32: And I will make the land desolate so that your enemies who settle in it will be appalled by your suffering in it.

33: And I will scatter you among the nations, and I will unsheathe the sword after you; and your land shall be a desolation, and your cities shall be a waste.

v33: You however I will scatter among the nations, I will draw out my sword from the scabbard and pursue you, as your land becomes desolate and your cities become waste or lie in ruin (Historically the Jews)

34: "Then the land shall enjoy its sabbaths as long as it lies desolate, while you are in your enemies' land; then the land shall rest, and enjoy its sabbaths.

v34: Then shall the Land be paid for its Sabbatical year requirements (Jews ignored the sabbatical years) all the days of desolation while you are in the land of your enemies, consequently the land will rest and be paid it's sabbath years.

35: As long as it lies desolate it shall have rest, the rest which it had not in your sabbaths when you dwelt upon it.

v35: All the days of its desolation it will observe the rest which it did not observe during your Sabbatical years while you were living in the land

36: And as for those of you that are left, I will send faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; the sound of a driven leaf shall put them to flight, and they shall flee as one flees from the sword, and they shall fall when none pursues.

v36: As for those who are left or survive the 5th Cycle I will also bring weakness or fear into their right lobes in the land of their enemies that the sound of a wind blown leaf will put them in flight, in fact when no one is pursuing they will run as though fleeing from a sword and they will fall when there is no one pursuing them.

37: They shall stumble over one another, as if to escape a sword, though none pursues; and you shall have no power to stand before your enemies.

v37: Therefore they will stumble over each other as though fleeing from a Sword, although no one is pursuing them, consequently you (Israel) will not have the means through strength, military power, or patriotic motivation of any kind to stand up against your enemies, (USA in 1980 and now again today 2013)

38: And you shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.

v38: But you will perish among the nations and the land of your enemies (Assyria, Chaldea, Rome) will devour you and completely take you over.

39: And those of you that are left shall pine away in your enemies' lands because of their iniquity; and also because of the iniquities of their fathers they shall pine away like them.

40: "But if they confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers in their treachery which they committed against me, and also in walking contrary to me,

41: so that I walked contrary to them and brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised heart is humbled and they make amends for their iniquity;

42: then I will remember my covenant with Jacob, and I will remember my covenant with Isaac and my covenant with Abraham, and I will remember the land.

43: But the land shall be left by them, and enjoy its sabbaths while it lies desolate without them; and they shall make amends for their iniquity, because they spurned my ordinances, and their soul abhorred my statutes.

44: Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not spurn them, neither will I abhor them so as to destroy them utterly and break my covenant with them; for I am the LORD their God;

45: but I will for their sake remember the covenant with their forefathers, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God: I am the LORD."

46: These are the statutes and ordinances and laws which the LORD made between him and the people of Israel on Mount Sinai by Moses.

Chapter 27 Leviticus, chapter 27

1: The LORD said to Moses,

2: "Say to the people of Israel, When a man makes a special vow of persons to the LORD at your valuation,

3: then your valuation of a male from twenty years old up to sixty years old shall be fifty shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary.

4: If the person is a female, your valuation shall be thirty shekels.

5: If the person is from five years old up to twenty years old, your valuation shall be for a male twenty shekels, and for a female ten shekels.

6: If the person is from a month old up to five years old, your valuation shall be for a male five shekels of silver, and for a female your valuation shall be three shekels of silver.

7: And if the person is sixty years old and upward, then your valuation for a male shall be fifteen shekels, and for a female ten shekels.

8: And if a man is too poor to pay your valuation, then he shall bring the person before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to the ability of him who vowed the priest shall value him.

9: "If it is an animal such as men offer as an offering to the LORD, all of such that any man gives to the LORD is holy.

10: He shall not substitute anything for it or exchange it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good; and if he makes any exchange of beast for beast, then both it and that for which it is exchanged shall be holy.

11: And if it is an unclean animal such as is not offered as an offering to the LORD, then the man shall bring the animal before the priest, 12: and the priest shall value it as either good or bad; as you, the priest, value it, so it shall be.

13: But if he wishes to redeem it, he shall add a fifth to the valuation.

14: "When a man dedicates his house to be holy to the LORD, the priest shall value it as either good or bad; as the priest values it, so it shall stand.

15: And if he who dedicates it wishes to redeem his house, he shall add a fifth of the valuation in money to it, and it shall be his.

16: "If a man dedicates to the LORD part of the land which is his by inheritance, then your valuation shall be according to the seed for it; a sowing of a homer of barley shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.

17: If he dedicates his field from the year of jubilee, it shall stand at your full valuation;

18: but if he dedicates his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall compute the money-value for it according to the years that remain until the year of jubilee, and a deduction shall be made from your valuation.

19: And if he who dedicates the field wishes to redeem it, then he shall add a fifth of the valuation in money to it, and it shall remain his.

20: But if he does not wish to redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more;

21: but the field, when it is released in the jubilee, shall be holy to the LORD, as a field that has been devoted; the priest shall be in possession of it.

22: If he dedicates to the LORD a field which he has bought, which is not a part of his possession by inheritance, 23: then the priest shall compute the valuation for it up to the year of jubilee, and the man shall give the amount of the valuation on that day as a holy thing to the LORD.

24: In the year of jubilee the field shall return to him from whom it was bought, to whom the land belongs as a possession by inheritance.

25: Every valuation shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs shall make a shekel.

26: "But a firstling of animals, which as a firstling belongs to the LORD, no man may dedicate; whether ox or sheep, it is the LORD's.

27: And if it is an unclean animal, then he shall buy it back at your valuation, and add a fifth to it; or, if it is not redeemed, it shall be sold at your valuation.

28: "But no devoted thing that a man devotes to the LORD, of anything that he has, whether of man or beast, or of his inherited field, shall be sold or redeemed; every devoted thing is most holy to the LORD.

29: No one devoted, who is to be utterly destroyed from among men, shall be ransomed; he shall be put to death.

30: "All the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the trees, is the LORD's; it is holy to the LORD.

31: If a man wishes to redeem any of his tithe, he shall add a fifth to it.

32: And all the tithe of herds and flocks, every tenth animal of all that pass under the herdsman's staff, shall be holy to the LORD.

33: A man shall not inquire whether it is good or bad, neither shall he exchange it; and if he exchanges it, then both it and that for which it is exchanged shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed."

34: These are the commandments which the LORD commanded Moses for the people of Israel on Mount Sinai.

The Book of Malachi

Chapter 1

Malachi, chapter 1

1: The oracle of the word of the LORD to Israel by Mal'achi.

2: "I have loved you," says the LORD. But you say, "How hast thou loved us?" "Is not Esau Jacob's brother?" says the LORD. "Yet I have loved Jacob

Mal 1:2

v2: Now the Lord says, "I have loved you", but you (people getting impudent with the Lord) say, "how have you love us?", "Was not Esau Jacob's Brother?", declares the Lord, "Yet I loved Jacob,

3: but I have hated Esau; I have laid waste his hill country and left his heritage to jackals of the desert."

Mal 1:3

v3: But I have hated Esau (anthropopathism); I have made his mountains a desolation (Punishment of Esau and his progeny), and appointed his inheritance for the Jackals of the Wilderness"

4: If Edom says, "We are shattered but we will rebuild the ruins," the LORD of hosts says, "They may build, but I will tear down, till they are called the wicked country, the people with whom the LORD is angry for ever."

5: Your own eyes shall see this, and you shall say, "Great is the LORD, beyond the border of Israel!"

6: "A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If then I am a father, where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is my fear? says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests, who despise my name. You say, 'How have we despised thy name?'

7: By offering polluted food upon my altar. And you say, 'How have we polluted it?' By thinking that the LORD's table may be despised.

8: When you offer blind animals in sacrifice, is that no evil? And when you offer those that are lame or sick, is that no evil? Present that to your governor; will he be pleased with you or show you favor? says the LORD of hosts.

9: And now entreat the favor of God, that he may be gracious to us. With such a gift from your hand, will he show favor to any of you? says the LORD of hosts.

10: Oh, that there were one among you who would shut the doors, that you might not kindle fire upon my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you, says the LORD of hosts, and I will not accept an offering from your hand.

11: For from the rising of the sun to its setting my name is great among the nations, and in every place incense is offered to my name, and a pure offering; for my name is great among the nations, says the LORD of hosts.

12: But you profane it when you say that the LORD's table is polluted, and the food for it may be despised.

13: 'What a weariness this is,' you say, and you sniff at me, says the LORD of hosts. You bring what has been taken by violence or is lame or sick, and this you bring as your offering! Shall I accept that from your hand? says the LORD.

14: Cursed be the cheat who has a male in his flock, and vows it, and yet sacrifices to the Lord what is blemished; for I am a great King, says the LORD of hosts, and my name is feared among the nations.

Chapter 2

Malachi, chapter 2

2: If you will not listen, if you will not lay it to heart to give glory to my name, says the LORD of hosts, then I will send the curse upon you and I will curse your blessings; indeed I have already cursed them, because you do not lay it to heart.

3: Behold, I will rebuke your offspring, and spread dung upon your faces, the dung of your offerings, and I will put you out of my presence.

4: So shall you know that I have sent this command to you, that my covenant with Levi may hold, says the LORD of hosts.

5: My covenant with him was a covenant of life and peace, and I gave them to him, that he might fear; and he feared me, he stood in awe of my name.

6: True instruction was in his mouth, and no wrong was found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and he turned many from iniquity.

7: For the lips of a priest should guard knowledge, and men should seek instruction from his mouth, for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8: But you have turned aside from the way; you have caused many to stumble by your instruction; you have corrupted the covenant of Levi, says the LORD of hosts,

9: and so I make you despised and abased before all the people, inasmuch as you have not kept my ways but have shown partiality in your instruction."

10: Have we not all one father? Has not one God created us? Why then are we faithless to one another, profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11: Judah has been faithless, and abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the sanctuary of the LORD, which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god.

12: May the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob, for the man who does this, any to witness or answer, or to bring an offering to the LORD of hosts!

13: And this again you do. You cover the LORD's altar with tears, with weeping and groaning because he no longer regards the offering or accepts it with favor at your hand.

14: You ask, "Why does he not?" Because the LORD was witness to the covenant between you and the wife of your youth, to whom you have been faithless, though she is your companion and your wife by covenant.

15: Has not the one God made and sustained for us the spirit of life? And what does he desire? Godly offspring. So take heed to yourselves, and let none be faithless to the wife of his youth.

16: "For I hate divorce, says the LORD the God of Israel, and covering one's garment with violence, says the LORD of hosts. So take heed to yourselves and do not be faithless."

17: You have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet you say, "How have we wearied him?" By saying, "Every one who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delights in them." Or by asking, "Where is the God of justice?"

Chapter 3

Malachi, chapter 3

1: "Behold, I send my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant in whom you delight, behold, he is coming, says the LORD of hosts.

2: But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears? "For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap;

3: he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, till they present right offerings to the LORD.

4: Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the days of old and as in former years.

5: "Then I will draw near to you for judgment; I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, against the adulterers, against those who swear falsely, against those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow and the orphan, against those who thrust aside the sojourner, and do not fear me, says the LORD of hosts.

6: "For I the LORD do not change; therefore you, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed.

7: From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from my statutes and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you, says the LORD of hosts. But you say, 'How shall we return?'

8: Will man rob God? Yet you are robbing me. But you say, 'How are we robbing thee?' In your tithes and offerings.

Mal 3:8-10

v8: Will man defraud God? Yet, God Says, you are robbing me. But you say, 'How are we defrauding or robbing you Oh God?' But he, God, Says, In your 10% taxes and offerings.

9: You are cursed with a curse, for you are robbing me; the whole nation of you.

v9: You are cursed with a curse, for you are defrauding or robbing me; the entire nation in reversionism defrauds me.

10: Bring the full tithes into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house; and thereby put me to the test, says the LORD of hosts, if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and pour down for you an overflowing blessing.

v10: Bring the entire tax of 10% into the treasury of the nation (NOT THE Local Church), so that there may be food in my house; and prove me now in this thing, says the LORD of the Armies, See if I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out blessings for you until there is not room enough to contain it.

11: I will rebuke the devourer for you, so that it will not destroy the fruits of your soil; and your vine in the field shall not fail to bear, says the LORD of hosts.

12: Then all nations will call you blessed, for you will be a land of delight, says the LORD of hosts.

13: "Your words have been stout against me, says the LORD. Yet you say, 'How have we spoken against thee?'

14: You have said, 'It is vain to serve God. What is the good of our keeping his charge or of walking as in mourning before the LORD of hosts?'

15: Henceforth we deem the arrogant blessed; evildoers not only prosper but when they put God to the test they escape."

16: Then those who feared the LORD spoke with one another; the LORD heeded and heard them, and a book of remembrance was written before him of those who feared the LORD and thought on his name.

Mal 3:16

v16: Then those who were under fear, reverence, awe and occupied with the LORD spoke one to another; and the LORD gave attention to it and heard it, therefore, a book of remembrance was written before him for those who were under fear, reverence and awe in Occupation with the Person of Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ, the LORD and kept thinking about his person.

17: "They shall be mine, says the LORD of hosts, my special possession on the day when I act, and I will spare them as a man spares his son who serves him.

18: Then once more you shall distinguish between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve him.

Chapter 4

Malachi, chapter 4

1: and all evildoers will be stubble; the day that comes shall burn them up, says the LORD of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch.

2: But for you who fear my name the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its wings. You shall go forth leaping like calves from the stall.

3: And you shall tread down the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet, on the day when I act, says the LORD of hosts.

4: "Remember the law of my servant Moses, the statutes and ordinances that I commanded him at Horeb for all Israel.

v4: "Remember the law of my servant Moses, the statutes in Codex II the spiritual code, and the judgments in Codex III the Laws of Divine Establishment, which I commanded him in Mt Horeb or Mt Sinai for all

5: "Behold, I will send you Eli'jah the prophet before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes.

Israel as the client nation.

v5: "Behold, I am going to send Eli'jah the prophet before the coming of the great and terrible day of the LORD the historical catastrophe of the last ½ of the tribulation.

6: And he will turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the hearts of children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the land with a curse."

v6: And he will turn the hearts of the fathers to children and in childlike faith respond to Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ and the hearts of children to their fathers who will follow the lead of the parents in Salvation Adjustment to the Justice of God through faith in Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, lest I come and smite the land with a curse."

The Book of Micah

Chapter 1

Micah, chapter 1

1: The word of the LORD that came to Micah of Mo'resheth in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezeki'ah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Sama'ria and Jerusalem.

2: Hear, you peoples, all of you; hearken, O earth, and all that is in it; and let the Lord GOD be a witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

3: For behold, the LORD is coming forth out of his place, and will come down and tread upon the high places of the earth.

4: And the mountains will melt under him and the valleys will be cleft, like wax before the fire, like waters poured down a steep place.

5: All this is for the transgression of Jacob and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? Is it not Sama'ria? And what is the sin of the house of Judah? Is it not Jerusalem?

6: Therefore I will make Sama'ria a heap in the open country, a place for planting vineyards; and I will pour down her stones into the valley, and uncover her foundations.

7: All her images shall be beaten to pieces, all her hires shall be burned with fire, and all her idols I will lay waste; for from the hire of a harlot she gathered them, and to the hire of a harlot they shall return.

8: For this I will lament and wail; I will go stripped and naked; I will make lamentation like the jackals, and mourning like the ostriches.

9: For her wound is incurable; and it has come to Judah, it has reached to the gate of my people, to Jerusalem.

10: Tell it not in Gath, weep not at all; in Beth-le-aph'rah roll yourselves in the dust.

11: Pass on your way, inhabitants of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame; the inhabitants of Za'anani do not come forth; the wailing of Beth-e'zel shall take away from you its standing place.

12: For the inhabitants of Maroth wait anxiously for good, because evil has come down from the LORD to the gate of Jerusalem.

Micah 1;12

v12: For the people the citizens of Maroth, the suburb of Sumeria, became weak in the mind and soul waiting anxiously for good, but evil came down from the LORD all the way to the gate of Jerusalem as administration of the 5th cycle of Divine Discipline by the assyrian invasion.

13: Harness the steeds to the chariots, inhabitants of Lachish; you were the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion, for in you were found the transgressions of Israel.

14: Therefore you shall give parting gifts to Mo'resheth-gath; the houses of Achzib shall be a deceitful thing to the kings of Israel.

15: I will again bring a conqueror upon you, inhabitants of Mare'shah; the glory of Israel shall come to Adullam.

16: Make yourselves bald and cut off your hair, for the children of your delight; make yourselves as bald as the eagle, for they shall go from you into exile.

Chapter 2

Micah, chapter 2

1: Woe to those who devise wickedness and work evil upon their beds! When the morning dawns, they perform it, because it is in the power of their hand.

2: They covet fields, and seize them; and houses, and take them away; they oppress a man and his house, a man and his inheritance.

3: Therefore thus says the LORD: Behold, against this family I am devising evil, from which you cannot remove your necks; and you shall not walk haughtily, for it will be an evil time.

4: In that day they shall take up a taunt song against you, and wail with bitter lamentation, and say, "We are utterly ruined; he changes the portion of my people; how he removes it from me! Among our captors he divides our fields."

5: Therefore you will have none to cast the line by lot in the assembly of the LORD.
 6: "Do not preach" -- thus they preach -- "one should not preach of such things; disgrace will not overtake us."
 7: Should this be said, O house of Jacob? Is the Spirit of the LORD impatient? Are these his doings? Do not my words do good to him who walks uprightly?
 8: But you rise against my people as an enemy; you strip the robe from the peaceful, from those who pass by trustingly with no thought of war.
 9: The women of my people you drive out from their pleasant houses; from their young children you take away my glory for ever.
 10: Arise and go, for this is no place to rest; because of uncleanness that destroys with a grievous destruction.
 11: If a man should go about and utter wind and lies, saying, "I will preach to you of wine and strong drink," he would be the preacher for this people!
 12: I will surely gather all of you, O Jacob, I will gather the remnant of Israel; I will set them together like sheep in a fold, like a flock in its pasture, a noisy multitude of men.
 13: He who opens the breach will go up before them; they will break through and pass the gate, going out by it. Their king will pass on before them, the LORD at their head.

Chapter 3 Micah, chapter 3

1: And I said: Hear, you heads of Jacob and rulers of the house of Israel! Is it not for you to know justice? --
 2: you who hate the good and love the evil, who tear the skin from off my people, and their flesh from off their bones;
 3: who eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them, and break their bones in pieces, and chop them up like meat in a kettle, like flesh in a caldron.
 4: Then they will cry to the LORD, but he will not answer them; he will hide his face from them at that time, because they have made their deeds evil.
 5: Thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who lead my people astray, who cry "Peace" when they have something to eat, but declare war against him who puts nothing into their mouths.
 6: Therefore it shall be night to you, without vision, and darkness to you, without divination. The sun shall go down upon the prophets, and the day shall be black over them;
 7: the seers shall be disgraced, and the diviners put to shame; they shall all cover their lips, for there is no answer from God.
 8: But as for me, I am filled with power, with the Spirit of the LORD, and with justice and might, to declare to Jacob his transgression and to Israel his sin.
 9: Hear this, you heads of the house of Jacob and rulers of the house of Israel, who abhor justice and pervert all equity,
 10: who build Zion with blood and Jerusalem with wrong.
 11: Its heads give judgment for a bribe, its priests teach for hire, its prophets divine for money; yet they lean upon the LORD and say, "Is not the LORD in the midst of us? No evil shall come upon us."

Micah 3:11

v11: Her leaders or judges pronounce judgment for a bribe distorting justice, Her priests instruct for a price charging for doctrine, Her prophets divine for money charging for new doctrine; yet they lean upon the LORD and say, "Is not the LORD in our midst? No evil can come upon us."

12: Therefore because of you Zion shall be plowed as a field; Jerusalem shall become a heap of ruins, and the mountain of the house a wooded height.

v12: Therefore because of you evil types Zion shall be plowed as a field; Jerusalem shall become a heap of ruins, and the mountain of the house a wooded height.

Chapter 4 Micah, chapter 4

1: It shall come to pass in the latter days that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised up above the hills; and peoples shall flow to it,
 2: and many nations shall come, and say: "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; that he may teach us his ways and we may walk in his paths." For out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
 3: He shall judge between many peoples, and shall decide for strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more;

Mic 4:3

v3: He, Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ, shall judge between many peoples, and render judicial decisions for mighty distant nations, then they will hammer their swords into plowshares, their spears into pruning hooks and nation will not lift up sword against nation and never again shall they train for or learn war. (millennium)

4: but they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree, and none shall make them afraid; for the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken.

Mic 4:4

v4: In his (God's) days the righteous will flourish and abundance of peace until the moon is no more.

5: For all the peoples walk each in the name of its god, but we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6: In that day, says the LORD, I will assemble the lame and gather those who have been driven away, and those whom I have afflicted;

7: and the lame I will make the remnant; and those who were cast off, a strong nation; and the LORD will reign over them in Mount Zion from this time forth and for evermore.

8: And you, O tower of the flock, hill of the daughter of Zion, to you shall it come, the former dominion shall come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.

9: Now why do you cry aloud? Is there no king in you? Has your counselor perished, that pangs have seized you like a woman in travail?

10: Writhe and groan, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail; for now you shall go forth from the city and dwell in the open country; you shall go to Babylon. There you shall be rescued, there the LORD will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

11: Now many nations are assembled against you, saying, "Let her be profaned, and let our eyes gaze upon Zion."

12: But they do not know the thoughts of the LORD, they do not understand his plan, that he has gathered them as sheaves to the threshing floor.

13: Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion, for I will make your horn iron and your hoofs bronze; you shall beat in pieces many peoples, and shall devote their gain to the LORD, their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth.

Chapter 5

Micah, chapter 5

1: Now you are walled about with a wall; siege is laid against us; with a rod they strike upon the cheek the ruler of Israel.

2: But you, O Bethlehem Ephrathah, who are little to be among the clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to be ruler in Israel, whose origin is from of old, from ancient days.

Micah 5:2

v2: But as for you bethlehem, REBOUND, too little to be among the tribes (clans) of Israel, from you one will go forth for me to be ruler in Israel (prophecy of Jesus of Nazareth) his going forth is from long ago (eternal God), from the days of Eternity Past.

3: Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in travail has brought forth; then the rest of his brethren shall return to the people of Israel.

4: And he shall stand and feed his flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God. And they shall dwell secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth.

5: And this shall be peace, when the Assyrian comes into our land and treads upon our soil, that we will raise against him seven shepherds and eight princes of men;

6: they shall rule the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod with the drawn sword; and they shall deliver us from the Assyrian when he comes into our land and treads within our border.

7: Then the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many peoples like dew from the LORD, like showers upon the grass, which tarry not for men nor wait for the sons of men.

8: And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, like a lion among the beasts of the forest, like a young lion among the flocks of sheep, which, when it goes through, treads down and tears in pieces, and there is none to deliver.

9: Your hand shall be lifted up over your adversaries, and all your enemies shall be cut off.

10: And in that day, says the LORD, I will cut off your horses from among you and will destroy your chariots;

11: and I will cut off the cities of your land and throw down all your strongholds;

12: and I will cut off sorceries from your hand, and you shall have no more soothsayers;

13: and I will cut off your images and your pillars from among you, and you shall bow down no more to the work of your hands;

14: and I will root out your Ashe'rim from among you and destroy your cities.

15: And in anger and wrath I will execute vengeance upon the nations that did not obey.

Chapter 6

Micah, chapter 6

1: Hear what the LORD says: Arise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice.

2: Hear, you mountains, the controversy of the LORD, and you enduring foundations of the earth; for the LORD has a controversy with his people, and he will contend with Israel.

3: "O my people, what have I done to you? In what have I wearied you? Answer me!

4: For I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and redeemed you from the house of bondage; and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5: O my people, remember what Balak king of Moab devised, and what Balaam the son of Be'or answered him, and what happened from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the saving acts of the LORD."

6: "With what shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before God on high? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?

7: Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?"

8: He has showed you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

9: The voice of the LORD cries to the city -- and it is sound wisdom to fear thy name: "Hear, O tribe and assembly of the city!

10: Can I forget the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is accursed?

11: Shall I acquit the man with wicked scales and with a bag of deceitful weights?

12: Your rich men are full of violence; your inhabitants speak lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

13: Therefore I have begun to smite you, making you desolate because of your sins.

14: You shall eat, but not be satisfied, and there shall be hunger in your inward parts; you shall put away, but not save, and what you save I will give to the sword.

15: You shall sow, but not reap; you shall tread olives, but not anoint yourselves with oil; you shall tread grapes, but not drink wine.

16: For you have kept the statutes of Omri, and all the works of the house of Ahab; and you have walked in their counsels; that I may make you a desolation, and your inhabitants a hissing; so you shall bear the scorn of the peoples."

Chapter 7

Micah, chapter 7

1: Woe is me! For I have become as when the summer fruit has been gathered, as when the vintage has been gleaned: there is no cluster to eat, no first-ripe fig which my soul desires.

2: The godly man has perished from the earth, and there is none upright among men; they all lie in wait for blood, and each hunts his brother with a net.

3: Their hands are upon what is evil, to do it diligently; the prince and the judge ask for a bribe, and the great man utters the evil desire of his soul; thus they weave it together.

4: The best of them is like a brier, the most upright of them a thorn hedge. The day of their watchmen, of their punishment, has come; now their confusion is at hand.

5: Put no trust in a neighbor, have no confidence in a friend; guard the doors of your mouth from her who lies in your bosom;

6: for the son treats the father with contempt, the daughter rises up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7: But as for me, I will look to the LORD, I will wait for the God of my salvation; my God will hear me.

8: Rejoice not over me, O my enemy; when I fall, I shall rise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD will be a light to me.

9: I will bear the indignation of the LORD because I have sinned against him, until he pleads my cause and executes judgment for me. He will bring me forth to the light; I shall behold his deliverance.

10: Then my enemy will see, and shame will cover her who said to me, "Where is the LORD your God?" My eyes will gloat over her; now she will be trodden down like the mire of the streets.

11: A day for the building of your walls! In that day the boundary shall be far extended.

12: In that day they will come to you, from Assyria to Egypt, and from Egypt to the River, from sea to sea and from mountain to mountain.

13: But the earth will be desolate because of its inhabitants, for the fruit of their doings.

14: Shepherd thy people with thy staff, the flock of thy inheritance, who dwell alone in a forest in the midst of a garden land; let them feed in Bashan and Gilead as in the days of old.

15: As in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt I will show them marvelous things.

16: The nations shall see and be ashamed of all their might; they shall lay their hands on their mouths; their ears shall be deaf;

17: they shall lick the dust like a serpent, like the crawling things of the earth; they shall come trembling out of their strongholds, they shall turn in dread to the LORD our God, and they shall fear because of thee.

18: Who is a God like thee, pardoning iniquity and passing over transgression for the remnant of his inheritance? He does not retain his anger for ever because he delights in steadfast love.

19: He will again have compassion upon us, he will tread our iniquities under foot. Thou wilt cast all our sins into the depths of the sea.

20: Thou wilt show faithfulness to Jacob and steadfast love to Abraham, as thou hast sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

The Book of Nahum

Chapter 1

Nahum, chapter 1

1: An oracle concerning Nin'veh. The book of the vision of Nahum of Elkosh.

2: The LORD is a jealous God and avenging, the LORD is avenging and wrathful; the LORD takes vengeance on his adversaries and keeps wrath for his enemies.

3: The LORD is slow to anger and of great might, and the LORD will by no means clear the guilty. His way is in whirlwind and storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

Nah 1:3

v3: Jehovah is slow to anger and great in power, and Jehovah will by no means leave the guilty unpunished. His way is in whirlwind and storm, and the clouds of dust are beneath his feet.

4: He rebukes the sea and makes it dry, he dries up all the rivers; Bashan and Carmel wither, the bloom of Lebanon fades.

5: The mountains quake before him, the hills melt; the earth is laid waste before him, the world and all that dwell therein.

6: Who can stand before his indignation? Who can endure the heat of his anger? His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken asunder by him.

7: The LORD is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; he knows those who take refuge in him.

8: But with an overflowing flood he will make a full end of his adversaries, and will pursue his enemies into darkness.

9: What do you plot against the LORD? He will make a full end; he will not take vengeance twice on his foes.

10: Like entangled thorns they are consumed, like dry stubble.

11: Did one not come out from you, who plotted evil against the LORD, and counseled villainy?

Nahum 1:11

v11: From you has advanced one who plots evil against the Lord, a counselor or policy maker of maximum evil?

12: Thus says the LORD, "Though they be strong and many, they will be cut off and pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more.

13: And now I will break his yoke from off you and will burst your bonds asunder."

14: The LORD has given commandment about you: "No more shall your name be perpetuated; from the house of your gods I will cut off the graven image and the molten image. I will make your grave, for you are vile."

15: Behold, on the mountains the feet of him who brings good tidings, who proclaims peace! Keep your feasts, O Judah, fulfil your vows, for never again shall the wicked come against you, he is utterly cut off.

Chapter 2

Nahum, chapter 2

1: The shatterer has come up against you. Man the ramparts; watch the road; gird your loins; collect all your strength.

2: (For the LORD is restoring the majesty of Jacob as the majesty of Israel, for plunderers have stripped them and ruined their branches.)

3: The shield of his mighty men is red, his soldiers are clothed in scarlet. The chariots flash like flame when mustered in array; the chargers prance.

4: The chariots rage in the streets, they rush to and fro through the squares; they gleam like torches, they dart like lightning.

5: The officers are summoned, they stumble as they go, they hasten to the wall, the mantelet is set up.

6: The river gates are opened, the palace is in dismay;

7: its mistress is stripped, she is carried off, her maidens lamenting, moaning like doves, and beating their breasts.

8: Nin'veh is like a pool whose waters run away. "Halt! Halt!" they cry; but none turns back.

9: Plunder the silver, plunder the gold! There is no end of treasure, or wealth of every precious thing.

10: Desolate! Desolation and ruin! Hearts faint and knees tremble, anguish is on all loins, all faces grow pale!

11: Where is the lions' den, the cave of the young lions, where the lion brought his prey, where his cubs were, with none to disturb?

12: The lion tore enough for his whelps and strangled prey for his lionesses; he filled his caves with prey and his dens with torn flesh.

13: Behold, I am against you, says the LORD of hosts, and I will burn your chariots in smoke, and the sword shall devour your young lions; I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers shall no more be heard.

Chapter 3

Nahum, chapter 3

1: Woe to the bloody city, all full of lies and booty -- no end to the plunder!

2: The crack of whip, and rumble of wheel, galloping horse and bounding chariot!

3: Horsemen charging, flashing sword and glittering spear, hosts of slain, heaps of corpses, dead bodies without end -- they stumble over the bodies!

4: And all for the countless harlotries of the harlot, graceful and of deadly charms, who betrays nations with her harlotries, and peoples with her charms.

5: Behold, I am against you, says the LORD of hosts, and will lift up your skirts over your face; and I will let nations look on your nakedness and kingdoms on your shame.

6: I will throw filth at you and treat you with contempt, and make you a gazingstock.

7: And all who look on you will shrink from you and say, Wasted is Nin'veh; who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for her?

8: Are you better than Thebes that sat by the Nile, with water around her, her rampart a sea, and water her wall?

9: Ethiopia was her strength, Egypt too, and that without limit; Put and the Libyans were her helpers.

10: Yet she was carried away, she went into captivity; her little ones were dashed in pieces at the head of every street; for her honored men lots were cast, and all her great men were bound in chains.

11: You also will be drunken, you will be dazed; you will seek a refuge from the enemy.

12: All your fortresses are like fig trees with first-ripe figs -- if shaken they fall into the mouth of the eater.

13: Behold, your troops are women in your midst. The gates of your land are wide open to your foes; fire has devoured your bars.
14: Draw water for the siege, strengthen your forts; go into the clay, tread the mortar, take hold of the brick mold!
15: There will the fire devour you, the sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the locust. Multiply yourselves like the locust, multiply like the grasshopper!
16: You increased your merchants more than the stars of the heavens. The locust spreads its wings and flies away.
17: Your princes are like grasshoppers, your scribes like clouds of locusts settling on the fences in a day of cold -- when the sun rises, they fly away; no one knows where they are.
18: Your shepherds are asleep, O king of Assyria; your nobles slumber. Your people are scattered on the mountains with none to gather them.
19: There is no assuaging your hurt, your wound is grievous. All who hear the news of you clap their hands over you. For upon whom has not come your unceasing evil?

The Book of Nehemiah

Chapter 1

Nehemiah, chapter 1

1: The words of Nehemi'ah the son of Hacali'ah. Now it happened in the month of Chislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in Susa the capital,
2: that Hana'ni, one of my brethren, came with certain men out of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that survived, who had escaped exile, and concerning Jerusalem.
3: And they said to me, "The survivors there in the province who escaped exile are in great trouble and shame; the wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates are destroyed by fire."
4: When I heard these words I sat down and wept, and mourned for days; and I continued fasting and praying before the God of heaven.
5: And I said, "O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments;
6: let thy ear be attentive, and thy eyes open, to hear the prayer of thy servant which I now pray before thee day and night for the people of Israel thy servants, confessing the sins of the people of Israel, which we have sinned against thee. Yea, I and my father's house have sinned.
7: We have acted very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, the statutes, and the ordinances which thou didst command thy servant Moses.
8: Remember the word which thou didst command thy servant Moses, saying, 'If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the peoples;
9: but if you return to me and keep my commandments and do them, though your dispersed be under the farthest skies, I will gather them thence and bring them to the place which I have chosen, to make my name dwell there.'
10: They are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power and by thy strong hand.
11: O Lord, let thy ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants who delight to fear thy name; and give success to thy servant today, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man." Now I was cupbearer to the king.

Chapter 2

Nehemiah, chapter 2

1: In the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Ar-ta-xerxes, when wine was before him, I took up the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had not been sad in his presence.
2: And the king said to me, "Why is your face sad, seeing you are not sick? This is nothing else but sadness of the heart." Then I was very much afraid.
3: I said to the king, "Let the king live for ever! Why should not my face be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lies waste, and its gates have been destroyed by fire?"
4: Then the king said to me, "For what do you make request?" So I prayed to the God of heaven.
5: And I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, that you send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may rebuild it."
6: And the king said to me (the queen sitting beside him), "How long will you be gone, and when will you return?" So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time.
7: And I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, let letters be given me to the governors of the province Beyond the River, that they may let me pass through until I come to Judah;
8: and a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the fortress of the temple, and for the wall of the city, and for the house which I shall occupy." And the king granted me what I asked, for the good hand of my God was upon me.
9: Then I came to the governors of the province Beyond the River, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent with me officers of the army and horsemen.

10: But when Sanbal'lat the Hor'onite and Tobi'ah the servant, the Ammonite, heard this, it displeased them greatly that some one had come to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

11: So I came to Jerusalem and was there three days.

12: Then I arose in the night, I and a few men with me; and I told no one what my God had put into my heart to do for Jerusalem. There was no beast with me but the beast on which I rode.

13: I went out by night by the Valley Gate to the Jackal's Well and to the Dung Gate, and I inspected the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down and its gates which had been destroyed by fire.

14: Then I went on to the Fountain Gate and to the King's Pool; but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15: Then I went up in the night by the valley and inspected the wall; and I turned back and entered by the Valley Gate, and so returned.

16: And the officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing; and I had not yet told the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials, and the rest that were to do the work.

17: Then I said to them, "You see the trouble we are in, how Jerusalem lies in ruins with its gates burned. Come, let us build the wall of Jerusalem, that we may no longer suffer disgrace."

18: And I told them of the hand of my God which had been upon me for good, and also of the words which the king had spoken to me. And they said, "Let us rise up and build." So they strengthened their hands for the good work.

19: But when Sanbal'lat the Hor'onite and Tobi'ah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arab heard of it, they derided us and despised us and said, "What is this thing that you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?"

20: Then I replied to them, "The God of heaven will make us prosper, and we his servants will arise and build; but you have no portion or right or memorial in Jerusalem."

Chapter 3 Nehemiah, chapter 3

1: Then Eli'ashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests and they built the Sheep Gate. They consecrated it and set its doors; they consecrated it as far as the Tower of the Hundred, as far as the Tower of Hanan'el.

2: And next to him the men of Jericho built. And next to them Zaccur the son of Imri built.

3: And the sons of Hassena'ah built the Fish Gate; they laid its beams and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

4: And next to them Mer'emoth the son of Uri'ah, son of Hakkoz repaired. And next to them Meshul'lam the son of Berechiah, son of Meshez'abel repaired. And next to them Zadok the son of Ba'ana repaired.

5: And next to them the Teko'ites repaired; but their nobles did not put their necks to the work of their Lord.

6: And Joi'ada the son of Pase'ah and Meshul'lam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate; they laid its beams and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

7: And next to them repaired Melati'ah the Gib'eonite and Jadon the Mero'nothite, the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, who were under the jurisdiction of the governor of the province Beyond the River.

8: Next to them Uz'ziel the son of Harhai'ah, goldsmiths, repaired. Next to him Hanani'ah, one of the perfumers, repaired; and they restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

9: Next to them Rephai'ah the son of Hur, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, repaired.

10: Next to them Jedai'ah the son of Harumaph repaired opposite his house; and next to him Hattush the son of Hashabnei'ah repaired.

11: Malchi'jah the son of Harim and Hasshub the son of Pa'hath-mo'ab repaired another section and the Tower of the Ovens.

12: Next to him Shallum the son of Hallo'hesh, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, repaired, he and his daughters.

13: Hanun and the inhabitants of Zano'ah repaired the Valley Gate; they rebuilt it and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and repaired a thousand cubits of the wall, as far as the Dung Gate.

14: Malchi'jah the son of Rechab, ruler of the district of Beth-hacche'rem, repaired the Dung Gate; he rebuilt it and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

15: And Shallum the son of Colho'zeh, ruler of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate; he rebuilt it and covered it and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars; and he built the wall of the Pool of Shelah of the king's garden, as far as the stairs that go down from the City of David.

16: After him Nehemi'ah the son of Azbuk, ruler of half the district of Beth-zur, repaired to a point opposite the sepulchres of David, to the artificial pool, and to the house of the mighty men.

17: After him the Levites repaired: Rehum the son of Bani; next to him Hashabi'ah, ruler of half the district of Kei'lah, repaired for his district.

18: After him their brethren repaired: Bav'vai the son of Hen'adad, ruler of half the district of Kei'lah;

19: next to him Ezer the son of Jeshua, ruler of Mizpah, repaired another section opposite the ascent to the armory at the Angle.

20: After him Baruch the son of Zab'bai repaired another section from the Angle to the door of the house of Eli'ashib the high priest.

21: After him Mer'emoth the son of Uri'ah, son of Hakkoz repaired another section from the door of the house of Eli'ashib to the end of the house of Eli'ashib.

22: After him the priests, the men of the Plain, repaired.

23: After them Benjamin and Hasshub repaired opposite their house. After them Azari'ah the son of Ma-asei'ah, son of Anani'ah repaired beside his own house.

24: After him Bin'nui the son of Hen'adad repaired another section, from the house of Azari'ah to the Angle

25: and to the corner. Palal the son of Uzai repaired opposite the Angle and the tower projecting from the upper house of the king at the court of the guard. After him Pedai'ah the son of Parosh
26: and the temple servants living on Ophel repaired to a point opposite the Water Gate on the east and the projecting tower.
27: After him the Teko'ites repaired another section opposite the great projecting tower as far as the wall of Ophel.
28: Above the Horse Gate the priests repaired, each one opposite his own house.
29: After them Zadok the son of Immer repaired opposite his own house. After him Shemai'ah the son of Shecani'ah, the keeper of the East Gate, repaired.
30: After him Hanani'ah the son of Shelemi'ah and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph repaired another section. After him Meshul'lam the son of Berechi'ah repaired opposite his chamber.
31: After him Malchi'jah, one of the goldsmiths, repaired as far as the house of the temple servants and of the merchants, opposite the Muster Gate, and to the upper chamber of the corner.
32: And between the upper chamber of the corner and the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and the merchants repaired.

Chapter 4 Nehemiah, chapter 4

1: Now when Sanbal'lat heard that we were building the wall, he was angry and greatly enraged, and he ridiculed the Jews.
2: And he said in the presence of his brethren and of the army of Sama'ria, "What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they restore things? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish up in a day? Will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubbish, and burned ones at that?"
3: Tobi'ah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, "Yes, what they are building -- if a fox goes up on it he will break down their stone wall!
4: Hear, O our God, for we are despised; turn back their taunt upon their own heads, and give them up to be plundered in a land where they are captives.
5: Do not cover their guilt, and let not their sin be blotted out from thy sight; for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.
6: So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together to half its height. For the people had a mind to work.
7: But when Sanbal'lat and Tobi'ah and the Arabs and the Ammonites and the Ash'dodites heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem was going forward and that the breaches were beginning to be closed, they were very angry;
8: and they all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and to cause confusion in it.
v8: And all of the enemies of Israel together organized a conspiracy to invade the land, Sumaria, Amonites, etc; and to fight against Jerusalem and to manufacture out of evil harm against it.
9: And we prayed to our God, and set a guard as a protection against them day and night.
v9: And we, in the military, made intercession to our God, and established a military security system against these enemies day and night.
10: But Judah said, "The strength of the burden-bearers is failing, and there is much rubbish; we are not able to work on the wall."
11: And our enemies said, "They will not know or see till we come into the midst of them and kill them and stop the work."
12: When the Jews who lived by them came they said to us ten times, "From all the places where they live they will come up against us."
13: So in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, in open places, I stationed the people according to their families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows.
v13: Therefore I garrisoned troops as a mobile reserve on the lowest parts of the wall On the higher places I stationed the troops according to the tribes according to their tribes, with their swords, their spears, and their bows.
14: And I looked, and arose, and said to the nobles and to the officials and to the rest of the people, "Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your homes."
v14: I inspected the defenses and stabilized the perimeter then I spoke to the general officers, commissioned officers and men in ranks and this is what I said to them, "Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, hero warrior respected one, therefore fight in battle for your brethren your fellow citizens, fight for your sons, your daughters, your families, your wives, and your property."
15: When our enemies heard that it was known to us and that God had frustrated their plan, we all returned to the wall, each to his work.
v15: And it came to pass when our enemies heard that it was known to us they they were about to attack Elohim, God frustrated their plan and they departed and all of us each man returned to his service and his own home
16: From that day on, half of my servants worked on construction, and half held the spears, shields, bows, and coats of mail; and the leaders stood behind all the house of Judah,
17: who were building on the wall. Those who carried burdens were laden in such a way that each with one hand labored on the work and with the other held his weapon.
18: And each of the builders had his sword girded at his side while he built. The man who sounded the trumpet was beside me.
19: And I said to the nobles and to the officials and to the rest of the people, "The work is great and widely spread, and we are separated on the wall, far from one another.
20: In the place where you hear the sound of the trumpet, rally to us there. Our God will fight for us."

21: So we labored at the work, and half of them held the spears from the break of dawn till the stars came out.

22: I also said to the people at that time, "Let every man and his servant pass the night within Jerusalem, that they may be a guard for us by night and may labor by day."

23: So neither I nor my brethren nor my servants nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us took off our clothes; each kept his weapon in his hand.

Chapter 5

Nehemiah, chapter 5

1: Now there arose a great outcry of the people and of their wives against their Jewish brethren.

2: For there were those who said, "With our sons and our daughters, we are many; let us get grain, that we may eat and keep alive."

3: There were also those who said, "We are mortgaging our fields, our vineyards, and our houses to get grain because of the famine."

4: And there were those who said, "We have borrowed money for the king's tax upon our fields and our vineyards."

5: Now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children are as their children; yet we are forcing our sons and our daughters to be slaves, and some of our daughters have already been enslaved; but it is not in our power to help it, for other men have our fields and our vineyards."

6: I was very angry when I heard their outcry and these words.

7: I took counsel with myself, and I brought charges against the nobles and the officials. I said to them, "You are exacting interest, each from his brother." And I held a great assembly against them,

8: and said to them, "We, as far as we are able, have bought back our Jewish brethren who have been sold to the nations; but you even sell your brethren that they may be sold to us!" They were silent, and could not find a word to say.

9: So I said, "The thing that you are doing is not good. Ought you not to walk in the fear of our God to prevent the taunts of the nations our enemies?"

v9: God said, "The thing that you are doing is not good. Should you not to walk in the fear of our God to prevent the taunts of the nations our enemies?"

10: Moreover I and my brethren and my servants are lending them money and grain. Let us leave off this interest.

11: Return to them this very day their fields, their vineyards, their olive orchards, and their houses, and the hundredth of money, grain, wine, and oil which you have been exacting of them."

12: Then they said, "We will restore these and require nothing from them. We will do as you say." And I called the priests, and took an oath of them to do as they had promised.

13: I also shook out my lap and said, "So may God shake out every man from his house and from his labor who does not perform this promise. So may he be shaken out and emptied." And all the assembly said "Amen" and praised the LORD. And the people did as they had promised.

14: Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year to the thirty-second year of Ar-ta-xerx'es the king, twelve years, neither I nor my brethren ate the food allowance of the governor.

15: The former governors who were before me laid heavy burdens upon the people, and took from them food and wine, besides forty shekels of silver. Even their servants lorded it over the people. But I did not do so, because of the fear of God.

16: I also held to the work on this wall, and acquired no land; and all my servants were gathered there for the work.

17: Moreover there were at my table a hundred and fifty men, Jews and officials, besides those who came to us from the nations which were about us.

18: Now that which was prepared for one day was one ox and six choice sheep; fowls likewise were prepared for me, and every ten days skins of wine in abundance; yet with all this I did not demand the food allowance of the governor, because the servitude was heavy upon this people.

19: Remember for my good, O my God, all that I have done for this people.

Chapter 6

Nehemiah, chapter 6

1: Now when it was reported to Sanbal'lat and Tobi'ah and to Geshem the Arab and to the rest of our enemies that I had built the wall and that there was no breach left in it (although up to that time I had not set up the doors in the gates),

2: Sanbal'lat and Geshem sent to me, saying, "Come and let us meet together in one of the villages in the plain of Ono." But they intended to do me harm.

3: And I sent messengers to them, saying, "I am doing a great work and I cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and come down to you?"

4: And they sent to me four times in this way and I answered them in the same manner.

5: In the same way Sanbal'lat for the fifth time sent his servant to me with an open letter in his hand.

6: In it was written, "It is reported among the nations, and Geshem also says it, that you and the Jews intend to rebel; that is why you are building the wall; and you wish to become their king, according to this report.

7: And you have also set up prophets to proclaim concerning you in Jerusalem, 'There is a king in Judah.' And now it will be reported to the king according to these words. So now come, and let us take counsel together."

8: Then I sent to him, saying, "No such things as you say have been done, for you are inventing them out of your own mind."

9: For they all wanted to frighten us, thinking, "Their hands will drop from the work, and it will not be done." But now, O God, strengthen thou my hands.

10: Now when I went into the house of Shemai'ah the son of Delai'ah, son of Mehet'abel, who was shut up, he said, "Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us close the doors of the temple; for they are coming to kill you, at night they are coming to kill you."

11: But I said, "Should such a man as I flee? And what man such as I could go into the temple and live? I will not go in."

12: And I understood, and saw that God had not sent him, but he had pronounced the prophecy against me because Tobi'ah and Sanbal'lat had hired him.

13: For this purpose he was hired, that I should be afraid and act in this way and sin, and so they could give me an evil name, in order to taunt me.

14: Remember Tobi'ah and Sanbal'lat, O my God, according to these things that they did, and also the prophetess No-adi'ah and the rest of the prophets who wanted to make me afraid.

15: So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty-two days.

16: And when all our enemies heard of it, all the nations round about us were afraid and fell greatly in their own esteem; for they perceived that this work had been accomplished with the help of our God.

17: Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobi'ah, and Tobi'ah's letters came to them.

18: For many in Judah were bound by oath to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecani'ah the son of Arah: and his son Jehoha'nan had taken the daughter of Meshul'lam the son of Berechi'ah as his wife.

19: Also they spoke of his good deeds in my presence, and reported my words to him. And Tobi'ah sent letters to make me afraid.

Chapter 7 Nehemiah, chapter 7

1: Now when the wall had been built and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers, the singers, and the Levites had been appointed,

2: I gave my brother Hana'ni and Hanani'ah the governor of the castle charge over Jerusalem, for he was a more faithful and God-fearing man than many.

3: And I said to them, "Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot; and while they are still standing guard let them shut and bar the doors. Appoint guards from among the inhabitants of Jerusalem, each to his station and each opposite his own house."

4: The city was wide and large, but the people within it were few and no houses had been built.

5: Then God put it into my mind to assemble the nobles and the officials and the people to be enrolled by genealogy. And I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up at the first, and I found written in it:

6: These were the people of the province who came up out of the captivity of those exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried into exile; they returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his town.

7: They came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemi'ah, Azari'ah, Raami'ah, Naham'ani, Mor'decai, Bilshan, Mis'pereth, Bigva'i, Nehum, Ba'anah. The number of the men of the people of Israel:

8: the sons of Parosh, two thousand a hundred and seventy-two.

9: The sons of Shephati'ah, three hundred and seventy-two.

10: The sons of Arah, six hundred and fifty-two.

11: The sons of Pa'hath-mo'ab, namely the sons of Jeshua and Jo'ab, two thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

12: The sons of Elam, a thousand two hundred and fifty-four.

13: The sons of Zattu, eight hundred and forty-five.

14: The sons of Zac'cai, seven hundred and sixty.

15: The sons of Bin'nui, six hundred and forty-eight.

16: The sons of Be'bai, six hundred and twenty-eight.

17: The sons of Azgad, two thousand three hundred and twenty-two.

18: The sons of Adoni'kam, six hundred and sixty-seven.

19: The sons of Bigva'i, two thousand and sixty-seven.

20: The sons of Adin, six hundred and fifty-five.

21: The sons of Ater, namely of Hezeki'ah, ninety-eight.

22: The sons of Hashum, three hundred and twenty-eight.

23: The sons of Be'zai, three hundred and twenty-four.

24: The sons of Hariph, a hundred and twelve.

25: The sons of Gibeon, ninety-five.

26: The men of Bethlehem and Neto'phah, a hundred and eighty-eight.

27: The men of An'athoth, a hundred and twenty-eight.

28: The men of Beth-az'maveth, forty-two.

29: The men of Kir'iath-je'arim, Chephi'rah, and Be-er'oth, seven hundred and forty-three.

30: The men of Ramah and Geba, six hundred and twenty-one.

31: The men of Michmas, a hundred and twenty-two.

32: The men of Bethel and Ai, a hundred and twenty-three.

33: The men of the other Nebo, fifty-two.
34: The sons of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred and fifty-four.
35: The sons of Harim, three hundred and twenty.
36: The sons of Jericho, three hundred and forty-five.
37: The sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-one.
38: The sons of Sena'ah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty.
39: The priests: the sons of Jedai'ah, namely the house of Jeshua, nine hundred and seventy-three.
40: The sons of Immer, a thousand and fifty-two.
41: The sons of Pashhur, a thousand two hundred and forty-seven.
42: The sons of Harim, a thousand and seventeen.
43: The Levites: the sons of Jeshua, namely of Kad'mi-el of the sons of Ho'devah, seventy-four.
44: The singers: the sons of Asaph, a hundred and forty-eight.
45: The gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hati'ta, the sons of Sho'bai, a hundred and thirty-eight.
46: The temple servants: the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasu'pha, the sons of Tabba'oth, 47: the sons of Keros, the sons of Si'a, the sons of Padon, 48: the sons of Leba'na, the sons of Hag'aba, the sons of Shalmal, 49: the sons of Hanan, the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar,
50: the sons of Re-ai'ah, the sons of Rezin, the sons of Neko'da,
51: the sons of Gazzam, the sons of Uzza, the sons of Pase'ah, 52: the sons of Besai, the sons of Me-u'nim, the sons of Nephush'esim, 53: the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Haku'pha, the sons of Harhur, 54: the sons of Bazlith, the sons of Mehi'da, the sons of Harsha, 55: the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sis'era, the sons of Temah, 56: the sons of Nezi'ah, the sons of Hati'pha.
57: The sons of Solomon's servants: the sons of So'tai, the sons of So'phereth, the sons of Peri'da, 58: the sons of Ja'ala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, 59: the sons of Shephati'ah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Po'chereth-hazzeba'im, the sons of Amon.
60: All the temple servants and the sons of Solomon's servants were three hundred and ninety-two.
61: The following were those who came up from Tel-me'lah, Tel-har'sha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer, but they could not prove their fathers' houses nor their descent, whether they belonged to Israel:
62: the sons of Delai'ah, the sons of Tobi'ah, the sons of Neko'da, six hundred and forty-two.
63: Also, of the priests: the sons of Hobai'ah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of Barzil'lai (who had taken a wife of the daughters of Barzil'lai the Gileadite and was called by their name).
64: These sought their registration among those enrolled in the genealogies, but it was not found there, so they were excluded from the priesthood as unclean;
65: the governor told them that they were not to partake of the most holy food, until a priest with Urim and Thummim should arise.
66: The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,
67: besides their menservants and maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred and forty-five singers, male and female.
68: Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five, 69: their camels four hundred and thirty-five, and their asses six thousand seven hundred and twenty.
70: Now some of the heads of fathers' houses gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury a thousand darics of gold, fifty basins, five hundred and thirty priests' garments.
71: And some of the heads of fathers' houses gave into the treasury of the work twenty thousand darics of gold and two thousand two hundred minas of silver.
72: And what the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand darics of gold, two thousand minas of silver, and sixty-seven priests' garments.
73: So the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the temple servants, and all Israel, lived in their towns. And when the seventh month had come, the children of Israel were in their towns.

Chapter 8 Nehemiah, chapter 8

1: And all the people gathered as one man into the square before the Water Gate; and they told Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses which the LORD had given to Israel.
2: And Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month.
3: And he read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law.

4: And Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden pulpit which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithi'ah, Shema, Anai'ah, Uri'ah, Hilki'ah, and Ma-asei'ah on his right hand; and Pedai'ah, Mish'a-el, Malchi'jah, Hashum, Hash-bad'danah, Zechari'ah, and Meshul'lam on his left hand.

5: And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was above all the people; and when he opened it all the people stood.

6: And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God; and all the people answered, "Amen, Amen," lifting up their hands; and they bowed their heads and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

7: Also Jesh'ua, Bani, Sherebi'ah, Jamin, Akkub, Shab'bethai, Hodi'ah, Ma-asei'ah, Keli'ta, Azari'ah, Jo'zabad, Hanan, Pelai'ah, the Levites, helped the people to understand the law, while the people remained in their places.

8: And they read from the book, from the law of God, clearly; and they gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.

9: And Nehemi'ah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn or weep." For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law.

10: Then he said to them, "Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is your strength."

11: So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, "Be quiet, for this day is holy; do not be grieved."

12: And all the people went their way to eat and drink and to send portions and to make great rejoicing, because they had understood the words that were declared to them.

13: On the second day the heads of fathers' houses of all the people, with the priests and the Levites, came together to Ezra the scribe in order to study the words of the law.

14: And they found it written in the law that the LORD had commanded by Moses that the people of Israel should dwell in booths during the feast of the seventh month,

15: and that they should publish and proclaim in all their towns and in Jerusalem, "Go out to the hills and bring branches of olive, wild olive, myrtle, palm, and other leafy trees to make booths, as it is written."

16: So the people went out and brought them and made booths for themselves, each on his roof, and in their courts and in the courts of the house of God, and in the square at the Water Gate and in the square at the Gate of E'phraim.

17: And all the assembly of those who had returned from the captivity made booths and dwelt in the booths; for from the days of Jeshua the son of Nun to that day the people of Israel had not done so. And there was very great rejoicing.

18: And day by day, from the first day to the last day, he read from the book of the law of God. They kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day there was a solemn assembly, according to the ordinance.

Chapter 9 Nehemiah, chapter 9

1: Now on the twenty-fourth day of this month the people of Israel were assembled with fasting and in sackcloth, and with earth upon their heads.

2: And the Israelites separated themselves from all foreigners, and stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers.

3: And they stood up in their place and read from the book of the law of the LORD their God for a fourth of the day; for another fourth of it they made confession and worshiped the LORD their God.

4: Upon the stairs of the Levites stood Jeshua, Bani, Kad'mi-el, Shebani'ah, Bunni, Sherebi'ah, Bani, and Chena'ni; and they cried with a loud voice to the LORD their God.

5: Then the Levites, Jeshua, Kad'mi-el, Bani, Hashabnei'ah, Sherebi'ah, Hodi'ah, Shebani'ah, and Pethahi'ah, said, "Stand up and bless the LORD your God from everlasting to everlasting. Blessed be thy glorious name which is exalted above all blessing and praise."

6: And Ezra said: "Thou art the LORD, thou alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them; and thou preservest all of them; and the host of heaven worships thee.

7: Thou art the LORD, the God who didst choose Abram and bring him forth out of Ur of the Chalde'ans and give him the name Abraham;

Neh 9:7

v7: You are Jehovah Elohim, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ who chose Abram and brought him out of Ur of the Chalde'ans and gave him the name Abraham;

8: and thou didst find his heart faithful before thee, and didst make with him the covenant to give to his descendants the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Per'izzite, the Jeb'usite, and the Gir'gashite; and thou hast fulfilled thy promise, for thou art righteous.

9: "And thou didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt and hear their cry at the Red Sea,

10: and didst perform signs and wonders against Pharaoh and all his servants and all the people of his land, for thou knewest that they acted insolently against our fathers; and thou didst get thee a name, as it is to this day.

11: And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on dry land; and thou didst cast their pursuers into the depths, as a stone into mighty waters.

12: By a pillar of cloud thou didst lead them in the day, and by a pillar of fire in the night to light for them the way in which they should go.

13: Thou didst come down upon Mount Sinai, and speak with them from heaven and give them right ordinances and true laws, good statutes and commandments, 14: and thou didst make known to them thy holy sabbath and command them commandments and statutes and a law by Moses thy servant.

15: Thou didst give them bread from heaven for their hunger and bring forth water for them from the rock for their thirst, and thou didst tell them to go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them.

16: "But they and our fathers acted presumptuously and stiffened their neck and did not obey thy commandments;

17: they refused to obey, and were not mindful of the wonders which thou didst perform among them; but they stiffened their neck and appointed a leader to return to their bondage in Egypt. But thou art a God ready to forgive, gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love, and didst not forsake them.

18: Even when they had made for themselves a molten calf and said, `This is your God who brought you up out of Egypt,' and had committed great blasphemies, 19: thou in thy great mercies didst not forsake them in the wilderness; the pillar of cloud which led them in the way did not depart from them by day, nor the pillar of fire by night which lighted for them the way by which they should go.

20: Thou gavest thy good Spirit to instruct them, and didst not withhold thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

21: Forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, and they lacked nothing; their clothes did not wear out and their feet did not swell.

22: And thou didst give them kingdoms and peoples, and didst allot to them every corner; so they took possession of the land of Sihon king of Heshbon and the land of Og king of Bashan.

23: Thou didst multiply their descendants as the stars of heaven, and thou didst bring them into the land which thou hadst told their fathers to enter and possess.

24: So the descendants went in and possessed the land, and thou didst subdue before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and didst give them into their hands, with their kings and the peoples of the land, that they might do with them as they would.

25: And they captured fortified cities and a rich land, and took possession of houses full of all good things, cisterns hewn out, vineyards, olive orchards and fruit trees in abundance; so they ate, and were filled and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

26: "Nevertheless they were disobedient and rebelled against thee and cast thy law behind their back and killed thy prophets, who had warned them in order to turn them back to thee, and they committed great blasphemies.

27: Therefore thou didst give them into the hand of their enemies, who made them suffer; and in the time of their suffering they cried to thee and thou didst hear them from heaven; and according to thy great mercies thou didst give them saviors who saved them from the hand of their enemies.

28: But after they had rest they did evil again before thee, and thou didst abandon them to the hand of their enemies, so that they had dominion over them; yet when they turned and cried to thee thou didst hear from heaven, and many times thou didst deliver them according to thy mercies.

29: And thou didst warn them in order to turn them back to thy law. Yet they acted presumptuously and did not obey thy commandments, but sinned against thy ordinances, by the observance of which a man shall live, and turned a stubborn shoulder and stiffened their neck and would not obey.

30: Many years thou didst bear with them, and didst warn them by thy Spirit through thy prophets; yet they would not give ear. Therefore thou didst give them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.

31: Nevertheless in thy great mercies thou didst not make an end of them or forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.

32: "Now therefore, our God, the great and mighty and terrible God, who keepest covenant and steadfast love, let not all the hardship seem little to thee that has come upon us, upon our kings, our princes, our priests, our prophets, our fathers, and all thy people, since the time of the kings of Assyria until this day.

33: Yet thou hast been just in all that has come upon us, for thou hast dealt faithfully and we have acted wickedly;

34: our kings, our princes, our priests, and our fathers have not kept thy law or heeded thy commandments and thy warnings which thou didst give them.

35: They did not serve thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodness which thou gavest them, and in the large and rich land which thou didst set before them; and they did not turn from their wicked works.

36: Behold, we are slaves this day; in the land that thou gavest to our fathers to enjoy its fruit and its good gifts, behold, we are slaves.

37: And its rich yield goes to the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins; they have power also over our bodies and over our cattle at their pleasure, and we are in great distress."

38: Because of all this we make a firm covenant and write it, and our princes, our Levites, and our priests set their seal to it.

Chapter 10

Nehemiah, chapter 10

1: Those who set their seal are Nehemi'ah the governor, the son of Hacali'ah, Zedeki'ah,
 2: Serai'ah, Azari'ah, Jeremiah,
 3: Pashhur, Amari'ah, Malchi'jah,
 4: Hattush, Shebani'ah, Malluch,
 5: Harim, Mer'emoth, Obadi'ah,

6: Daniel, Gin'nethon, Baruch,
7: Meshul'lam, Abi'jah, Mi'jamin,
8: Ma-azi'ah, Bil'gai, Shemai'ah; these are the priests.
9: And the Levites: Jeshua the son of Azani'ah, Bin'nui of the sons of Hen'adad, Kad'mi-el;
10: and their brethren, Shebani'ah, Hodi'ah, Keli'ta, Pelai'ah, Hanan, 11: Mica, Rehob, Hashabi'ah,
12: Zaccur, Sherebi'ah, Shebani'ah,
13: Hodi'ah, Bani, Beni'nu.
14: The chiefs of the people: Parosh, Pa'hath-mo'ab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, 15: Bunni, Azgad, Be'bai,
16: Adoni'jah, Bigva'i, Adin,
17: Ater, Hezeki'ah, Azzur,
18: Hodi'ah, Hashum, Be'zai,
19: Hariph, An'athoth, Ne'bai,
20: Mag'piash, Meshul'lam, Hezir,
21: Meshez'abel, Zadok, Jad'du-a,
22: Pelati'ah, Hanan, Anai'ah,
23: Hoshe'a, Hanani'ah, Hasshub,
24: Hallo'hesh, Pi'lha, Shobek,
25: Rehum, Hashab'nah, Ma-asei'ah,
26: Ahi'ah, Hanan, Anan,
27: Malluch, Harim, Ba'anah.
28: The rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple servants, and all who have separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons, their daughters, all who have knowledge and understanding,
29: join with their brethren, their nobles, and enter into a curse and an oath to walk in God's law which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord and his ordinances and his statutes.
30: We will not give our daughters to the peoples of the land or take their daughters for our sons;
31: and if the peoples of the land bring in wares or any grain on the sabbath day to sell, we will not buy from them on the sabbath or on a holy day; and we will forego the crops of the seventh year and the exaction of every debt.
32: We also lay upon ourselves the obligation to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God:
33: for the showbread, the continual cereal offering, the continual burnt offering, the sabbaths, the new moons, the appointed feasts, the holy things, and the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.
34: We have likewise cast lots, the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at times appointed, year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law.
35: We obligate ourselves to bring the first fruits of our ground and the first fruits of all fruit of every tree, year by year, to the house of the LORD;
36: also to bring to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God, the first-born of our sons and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks;
37: and to bring the first of our coarse meal, and our contributions, the fruit of every tree, the wine and the oil, to the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and to bring to the Levites the tithes from our ground, for it is the Levites who collect the tithes in all our rural towns.
38: And the priest, the son of Aaron, shall be with the Levites when the Levites receive the tithes; and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes to the house of our God, to the chambers, to the storehouse.
39: For the people of Israel and the sons of Levi shall bring the contribution of grain, wine, and oil to the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the gatekeepers and the singers. We will not neglect the house of our God.

Chapter 11
Nehemiah, chapter 11

1: Now the leaders of the people lived in Jerusalem; and the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to live in Jerusalem the holy city, while nine tenths remained in the other towns.
2: And the people blessed all the men who willingly offered to live in Jerusalem.
3: These are the chiefs of the province who lived in Jerusalem; but in the towns of Judah every one lived on his property in their towns: Israel, the priests, the Levites, the temple servants, and the descendants of Solomon's servants.
4: And in Jerusalem lived certain of the sons of Judah and of the sons of Benjamin. Of the sons of Judah: Athai'ah the son of Uzzi'ah, son of Zechari'ah, son of Amari'ah, son of Shephati'ah, son of Mahal'alel, of the sons of Perez;
5: and Ma-asei'ah the son of Baruch, son of Col-ho'zeh, son of Hazai'ah, son of Adai'ah, son of Joi'arib, son of Zechari'ah, son of the Shi'lonite.

6: All the sons of Perez who lived in Jerusalem were four hundred and sixty-eight valiant men.

7: And these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshul'lam, son of Jo'ed, son of Pedai'ah, son of Kolai'ah, son of Ma-asei'ah, son of I'thi-el, son of Jeshai'ah.

8: And after him Gabba'i, Salla'i, nine hundred and twenty-eight.

9: Jo'el the son of Zichri was their overseer; and Judah the son of Hassen'u-ah was second over the city.

10: Of the priests: Jedai'ah the son of Joi'arib, Jachin,

11: Serai'ah the son of Hilki'ah, son of Meshul'lam, son of Zadok, son of Merai'oth, son of Ahi'tub, ruler of the house of God,

12: and their brethren who did the work of the house, eight hundred and twenty-two; and Adai'ah the son of Jero'ham, son of Pelali'ah, son of Amzi, son of Zechari'ah, son of Pashhur, son of Malchi'jah,

13: and his brethren, heads of fathers' houses, two hundred and forty-two; and Amash'sai, the son of Az'arel, son of Ah'zai, son of Meshil'lemoth, son of Immer,

14: and their brethren, mighty men of valor, a hundred and twenty-eight; their overseer was Zab'diel the son of Haggedo'lim.

15: And of the Levites: Shemai'ah the son of Hasshub, son of Azri'kam, son of Hashabi'ah, son of Bunni;

16: and Shab'bethai and Jo'zabad, of the chiefs of the Levites, who were over the outside work of the house of God;

17: and Mattani'ah the son of Mica, son of Zabdi, son of Asaph, who was the leader to begin the thanksgiving in prayer, and Bakbuki'ah, the second among his brethren; and Abda the son of Sham'mua, son of Galal, son of Jedu'thun.

18: All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred and eighty-four.

19: The gatekeepers, Akkub, Talmon and their brethren, who kept watch at the gates, were a hundred and seventy-two.

20: And the rest of Israel, and of the priests and the Levites, were in all the towns of Judah, every one in his inheritance.

21: But the temple servants lived on Ophel; and Ziha and Gishpa were over the temple servants.

22: The overseer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, son of Hashabi'ah, son of Mattani'ah, son of Mica, of the sons of Asaph, the singers, over the work of the house of God.

23: For there was a command from the king concerning them, and a settled provision for the singers, as every day required.

24: And Pethahi'ah the son of Meshez'abel, of the sons of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

25: And as for the villages, with their fields, some of the people of Judah lived in Kir'iath-ar'ba and its villages, and in Dibon and its villages, and in Jekab'zeel and its villages,

26: and in Jeshua and in Mola'dah and Beth-pelet,

27: in Ha'zar-shu'al, in Beer-sheba and its villages,

28: in Ziklag, in Meco'nah and its villages,

29: in En-rim'mon, in Zorah, in Jarmuth,

30: Zano'ah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish and its fields, and Aze'kah and its villages. So they encamped from Beer-sheba to the valley of Hinnom.

31: The people of Benjamin also lived from Geba onward, at Michmash, Ai'ja, Bethel and its villages,

32: An'athoth, Nob, Anani'ah,

33: Hazor, Ramah, Git'taim,

34: Hadid, Zebo'im, Nebal'lat,

35: Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftsmen.

36: And certain divisions of the Levites in Judah were joined to Benjamin.

Chapter 12

Nehemiah, chapter 12

1: These are the priests and the Levites who came up with Zerub'babel the son of She-al'ti-el, and Jeshua: Serai'ah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

2: Amari'ah, Malluch, Hattush,

3: Shecani'ah, Rehum, Mer'emoth,

4: Iddo, Gin'nethoi, Abi'jah,

5: Mi'jamin, Ma-adi'ah, Bilgah,

6: Shemai'ah, Joi'arib, Jedai'ah,

7: Sallu, Amok, Hilki'ah, Jedai'ah. These were the chiefs of the priests and of their brethren in the days of Jeshua.

8: And the Levites: Jeshua, Bin'nui, Kad'mi-el, Sherebi'ah, Judah, and Mattani'ah, who with his brethren was in charge of the songs of thanksgiving.

9: And Bakbuki'ah and Unno their brethren stood opposite them in the service.

10: And Jeshua was the father of Joi'akim, Joi'akim the father of Eli'ashib, Eli'ashib the father of Joi'ada, 11: Joi'ada the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan the father of Jad'du-a.

12: And in the days of Joi'akim were priests, heads of fathers' houses: of Serai'ah, Merai'ah; of Jeremiah, Hanani'ah;

13: of Ezra, Meshul'lam; of Amari'ah, Jehoha'nan;

14: of Mal'luchi, Jonathan; of Shebani'ah, Joseph;

15: of Harim, Adna; of Merai'oth, Hel'kai;

16: of Iddo, Zechari'ah; of Gin'nethon, Meshul'lam;
17: of Abi'jah, Zichri; of Mini'amin, of Moadi'ah, Pil'tai;
18: of Bilgah, Sham'mu-a; of Shemai'ah, Jehon'athan;
19: of Joi'arib, Matte'nai; of Jedai'ah, Uzzi;
20: of Sal'lai, Kal'lai; of Amok, Eber;
21: of Hilki'ah, Hashabi'ah; of Jedai'ah, Nethan'el.
22: As for the Levites, in the days of Eli'ashib, Joi'ada, Joha'nan, and Jad'du-a, there were recorded the heads of fathers' houses; also the priests until the reign of Darius the Persian.
23: The sons of Levi, heads of fathers' houses, were written in the Book of the Chronicles until the days of Joha'nan the son of Eli'ashib.
24: And the chiefs of the Levites: Hashabi'ah, Sherebi'ah, and Jeshua the son of Kad'mi-el, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, watch corresponding to watch.
25: Mattani'ah, Bakbuki'ah, Obadi'ah, Meshul'lam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers standing guard at the storehouses of the gates.
26: These were in the days of Joi'akim the son of Jeshua son of Jo'zadak, and in the days of Nehemi'ah the governor and of Ezra the priest the scribe.
27: And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites in all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication with gladness, with thanksgivings and with singing, with cymbals, harps, and lyres.
28: And the sons of the singers gathered together from the circuit round Jerusalem and from the villages of the Netoph'athites;
29: also from Beth-gilgal and from the region of Geba and Az'maveth; for the singers had built for themselves villages around Jerusalem.
30: And the priests and the Levites purified themselves; and they purified the people and the gates and the wall.
31: Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies which gave thanks and went in procession. One went to the right upon the wall to the Dung Gate;
32: and after them went Hoshai'ah and half of the princes of Judah, 33: and Azari'ah, Ezra, Meshul'lam,
34: Judah, Benjamin, Shemai'ah, and Jeremiah,
35: and certain of the priests' sons with trumpets: Zechari'ah the son of Jonathan, son of Shemai'ah, son of Mattani'ah, son of Micai'ah, son of Zaccur, son of Asaph;
36: and his kinsmen, Shemai'ah, Az'arel, Mil'alai, Gil'alai, Ma'ai, Nethan'el, Judah, and Hana'ni, with the musical instruments of David the man of God; and Ezra the scribe went before them.
37: At the Fountain Gate they went up straight before them by the stairs of the city of David, at the ascent of the wall, above the house of David, to the Water Gate on the east.
38: The other company of those who gave thanks went to the left, and I followed them with half of the people, upon the wall, above the Tower of the Ovens, to the Broad Wall, 39: and above the Gate of E'phraim, and by the Old Gate, and by the Fish Gate and the Tower of Hanan'el and the Tower of the Hundred, to the Sheep Gate; and they came to a halt at the Gate of the Guard.
40: So both companies of those who gave thanks stood in the house of God, and I and half of the officials with me;
41: and the priests Eli'akim, Ma-asei'ah, Mini'amin, Micai'ah, Eli-o-e'nai, Zechari'ah, and Hanani'ah, with trumpets;
42: and Ma-asei'ah, Shemai'ah, Elea'zar, Uzzi, Jehoha'nan, Malchi'jah, Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang with Jezrahi'ah as their leader.
43: And they offered great sacrifices that day and rejoiced, for God had made them rejoice with great joy; the women and children also rejoiced. And the joy of Jerusalem was heard afar off.
v43: On that day they offered great sacrifices and had great happiness because God had given them great happiness even the women and children had great happiness so that the happiness of Jerusalem was heard far away.
44: On that day men were appointed over the chambers for the stores, the contributions, the first fruits, and the tithes, to gather into them the portions required by the law for the priests and for the Levites according to the fields of the towns; for Judah rejoiced over the priests and the Levites who ministered.
45: And they performed the service of their God and the service of purification, as did the singers and the gatekeepers, according to the command of David and his son Solomon.
46: For in the days of David and Asaph of old there was a chief of the singers, and there were songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.
47: And all Israel in the days of Zerub'babel and in the days of Nehemi'ah gave the daily portions for the singers and the gatekeepers; and they set apart that which was for the Levites; and the Levites set apart that which was for the sons of Aaron.

Chapter 13

Nehemiah, chapter 13

1: On that day they read from the book of Moses in the hearing of the people; and in it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever enter the assembly of God;
2: for they did not meet the children of Israel with bread and water, but hired Balaam against them to curse them -- yet our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3: When the people heard the law, they separated from Israel all those of foreign descent.

4: Now before this, Eli'ashib the priest, who was appointed over the chambers of the house of our God, and who was connected with Tobi'ah,

5: prepared for Tobi'ah a large chamber where they had previously put the cereal offering, the frankincense, the vessels, and the tithes of grain, wine, and oil, which were given by commandment to the Levites, singers, and gatekeepers, and the contributions for the priests.

6: While this was taking place I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Ar-ta-xerx'es king of Babylon I went to the king. And after some time I asked leave of the king

7: and came to Jerusalem, and I then discovered the evil that Eli'ashib had done for Tobi'ah, preparing for him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

8: And I was very angry, and I threw all the household furniture of Tobi'ah out of the chamber.

9: Then I gave orders and they cleansed the chambers; and I brought back thither the vessels of the house of God, with the cereal offering and the frankincense.

10: I also found out that the portions of the Levites had not been given to them; so that the Levites and the singers, who did the work, had fled each to his field.

11: So I remonstrated with the officials and said, "Why is the house of God forsaken?" And I gathered them together and set them in their stations.

12: Then all Judah brought the tithes of the grain, wine, and oil into the storehouses.

13: And I appointed as treasurers over the storehouses Shelemi'ah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedai'ah of the Levites, and as their assistant Hanan the son of Zaccur, son of Mattani'ah, for they were counted faithful; and their duty was to distribute to their brethren.

14: Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God and for his service.

15: In those days I saw in Judah men treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in heaps of grain and loading them on asses; and also wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day; and I warned them on the day when they sold food.

16: Men of Tyre also, who lived in the city, brought in fish and all kinds of wares and sold them on the sabbath to the people of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

17: Then I remonstrated with the nobles of Judah and said to them, "What is this evil thing which you are doing, profaning the sabbath day?"

18: Did not your fathers act in this way, and did not our God bring all this evil on us and on this city? Yet you bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath."

19: When it began to be dark at the gates of Jerusalem before the sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut and gave orders that they should not be opened until after the sabbath. And I set some of my servants over the gates, that no burden might be brought in on the sabbath day.

20: Then the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares lodged outside Jerusalem once or twice.

21: But I warned them and said to them, "Why do you lodge before the wall? If you do so again I will lay hands on you." From that time on they did not come on the sabbath.

22: And I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves and come and guard the gates, to keep the sabbath day holy. Remember this also in my favor, O my God, and spare me according to the greatness of thy steadfast love.

23: In those days also I saw the Jews who had married women of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab;

24: and half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod, and they could not speak the language of Judah, but the language of each people.

25: And I contended with them and cursed them and beat some of them and pulled out their hair; and I made them take oath in the name of God, saying, "You shall not give your daughters to their sons, or take their daughters for your sons or for yourselves.

26: Did not Solomon king of Israel sin on account of such women? Among the many nations there was no king like him, and he was beloved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel; nevertheless foreign women made even him to sin.

27: Shall we then listen to you and do all this great evil and act treacherously against our God by marrying foreign women?"

28: And one of the sons of Jehoi'ada, the son of Eli'ashib the high priest, was the son-in-law of Sanbal'lat the Hor'onite; therefore I chased him from me.

29: Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

30: Thus I cleansed them from everything foreign, and I established the duties of the priests and Levites, each in his work;

31: and I provided for the wood offering, at appointed times, and for the first fruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

The Book of Numbers or Mobilization

Numbers, chapter 1

1: The LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tent of meeting, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2: "Take a census of all the congregation of the people of Israel, by families, by fathers' houses, according to the number of names, every male, head by head;

v2: Take a census of all the congregation of all the sons of Israel

3: from twenty years old and upward, all in Israel who are able to go forth to war, you and Aaron shall number them, company by company.

v3: 20 years old and upward, whoever is able to go to war in Israel you and Aaron shall muster them by their armies.

4: And there shall be with you a man from each tribe, each man being the head of the house of his fathers.

5: And these are the names of the men who shall attend you. From Reuben, Eli'zur the son of Shed'eur;

6: from Simeon, Shelu'mi-el the son of Zurishad'dai;

7: from Judah, Nahshon the son of Ammin'adab;

8: from Is'sachar, Nethan'el the son of Zu'ar;

9: from Zeb'ulun, Eli'ab the son of Helon;

10: from the sons of Joseph, from E'phraim, Eli'shama the son of Ammi'hud, and from Manas'seh, Gama'liel the son of Pedah'zur;

11: from Benjamin, Abi'dan the son of Gideo'ni;

12: from Dan, Ahi-e'zer the son of Ammishad'dai;

13: from Asher, Pa'giel the son of Ochran;

14: from Gad, Eli'asaph the son of Deu'el;

15: from Naph'tali, Ahi'ra the son of Enan."

16: These were the ones chosen from the congregation, the leaders of their ancestral tribes, the heads of the clans of Israel.

17: Moses and Aaron took these men who have been named,

18: and on the first day of the second month, they assembled the whole congregation together, who registered themselves by families, by fathers' houses, according to the number of names from twenty years old and upward, head by head,

19: as the LORD commanded Moses. So he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

20: The people of Reuben, Israel's first-born, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, head by head, every male from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war:

21: the number of the tribe of Reuben was forty-six thousand five hundred.

22: Of the people of Simeon, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, those of them that were numbered, according to the number of names, head by head, every male from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war:

23: the number of the tribe of Simeon was fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

24: Of the people of Gad, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth to war:

25: the number of the tribe of Gad was forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty.

26: Of the people of Judah, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war:

27: the number of the tribe of Judah was seventy-four thousand six hundred.

28: Of the people of Is'sachar, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war:

29: the number of the tribe of Is'sachar was fifty-four thousand four hundred.

30: Of the people of Zeb'ulun, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war:

31: the number of the tribe of Zeb'ulun was fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

32: Of the people of Joseph, namely, of the people of E'phraim, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war:

33: the number of the tribe of E'phraim was forty thousand five hundred.

34: Of the people of Manas'seh, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war:

35: the number of the tribe of Manas'seh was thirty-two thousand two hundred.

36: Of the people of Benjamin, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war:

37: the number of the tribe of Benjamin was thirty-five thousand four hundred.

38: Of the people of Dan, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war:

39: the number of the tribe of Dan was sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

40: Of the people of Asher, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war:

41: the number of the tribe of Asher was forty-one thousand five hundred.

42: Of the people of Naph'tali, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war:

43: the number of the tribe of Naph'tali was fifty-three thousand four hundred.
44: These are those who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered with the help of the leaders of Israel, twelve men, each representing his fathers' house.
45: So the whole number of the people of Israel, by their fathers' houses, from twenty years old and upward, every man able to go forth to war in Israel -- 46: their whole number was six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.
47: But the Levites were not numbered by their ancestral tribe along with them.
48: For the LORD said to Moses,
49: "Only the tribe of Levi you shall not number, and you shall not take a census of them among the people of Israel;
50: but appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the testimony, and over all its furnishings, and over all that belongs to it; they are to carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings, and they shall tend it, and shall encamp around the tabernacle.
51: When the tabernacle is to set out, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up. And if any one else comes near, he shall be put to death.
52: The people of Israel shall pitch their tents by their companies, every man by his own camp and every man by his own standard;
53: but the Levites shall encamp around the tabernacle of the testimony, that there may be no wrath upon the congregation of the people of Israel; and the Levites shall keep charge of the tabernacle of the testimony."
54: Thus did the people of Israel; they did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses.

Chapter 2 Numbers, chapter 2

1: The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,
2: "The people of Israel shall encamp each by his own standard, with the ensigns of their fathers' houses; they shall encamp facing the tent of meeting on every side.
3: Those to encamp on the east side toward the sunrise shall be of the standard of the camp of Judah by their companies, the leader of the people of Judah being Nahshon the son of Ammin'adab,
4: his host as numbered being seventy-four thousand six hundred.
5: Those to encamp next to him shall be the tribe of Is'sachar, the leader of the people of Is'sachar being Nethan'el the son of Zu'ar, 6: his host as numbered being fifty-four thousand four hundred.
7: Then the tribe of Zeb'ulun, the leader of the people of Zeb'ulun being Eli'ab the son of Helon, 8: his host as numbered being fifty-seven thousand four hundred.
9: The whole number of the camp of Judah, by their companies, is a hundred and eighty-six thousand four hundred. They shall set out first on the march.
10: "On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben by their companies, the leader of the people of Reuben being Eli'zur the son of Shed'eur, 11: his host as numbered being forty-six thousand five hundred.
12: And those to encamp next to him shall be the tribe of Simeon, the leader of the people of Simeon being Shelu'mi-el the son of Zurishad'dai, 13: his host as numbered being fifty-nine thousand three hundred.
14: Then the tribe of Gad, the leader of the people of Gad being Eli'asaph the son of Reu'el, 15: his host as numbered being forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty.
16: The whole number of the camp of Reuben, by their companies, is a hundred and fifty-one thousand four hundred and fifty. They shall set out second.
17: "Then the tent of meeting shall set out, with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camps; as they encamp, so shall they set out, each in position, standard by standard.
18: "On the west side shall be the standard of the camp of E'phraim by their companies, the leader of the people of E'phraim being Eli'shama the son of Ammi'hud, 19: his host as numbered being forty thousand five hundred.
20: And next to him shall be the tribe of Manas'seh, the leader of the people of Manas'seh being Gama'liel the son of Pedah'zur, 21: his host as numbered being thirty-two thousand two hundred.
22: Then the tribe of Benjamin, the leader of the people of Benjamin being Abi'dan the son of Gideo'ni, 23: his host as numbered being thirty-five thousand four hundred.
24: The whole number of the camp of E'phraim, by their companies, is a hundred and eight thousand one hundred. They shall set out third on the march.
25: "On the north side shall be the standard of the camp of Dan by their companies, the leader of the people of Dan being Ahi-e'zer the son of Ammishad'dai, 26: his host as numbered being sixty-two thousand seven hundred.
27: And those to encamp next to him shall be the tribe of Asher, the leader of the people of Asher being Pa'giel the son of Ochrán, 28: his host as numbered being forty-one thousand five hundred.
29: Then the tribe of Naph'tali, the leader of the people of Naph'tali being Ahi'ra the son of Enan, 30: his host as numbered being fifty-three thousand four hundred.

31: The whole number of the camp of Dan is a hundred and fifty-seven thousand six hundred. They shall set out last, standard by standard."

32: These are the people of Israel as numbered by their fathers' houses; all in the camps who were numbered by their companies were six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.

33: But the Levites were not numbered among the people of Israel, as the LORD commanded Moses.

34: Thus did the people of Israel. According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so they encamped by their standards, and so they set out, every one in his family, according to his fathers' house.

Chapter 3

Numbers, chapter 3

1: These are the generations of Aaron and Moses at the time when the LORD spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai.

2: These are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the first-born, and Abi'hu, Elea'zar, and Ith'amar;

3: these are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests, whom he ordained to minister in the priest's office.

4: But Nadab and Abi'hu died before the LORD when they offered unholy fire before the LORD in the wilderness of Sinai; and they had no children. So Elea'zar and Ith'amar served as priests in the lifetime of Aaron their father.

5: And the LORD said to Moses,

6: "Bring the tribe of Levi near, and set them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister to him.

7: They shall perform duties for him and for the whole congregation before the tent of meeting, as they minister at the tabernacle;

8: they shall have charge of all the furnishings of the tent of meeting, and attend to the duties for the people of Israel as they minister at the tabernacle.

9: And you shall give the Levites to Aaron and his sons; they are wholly given to him from among the people of Israel.

10: And you shall appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall attend to their priesthood; but if any one else comes near, he shall be put to death."

11: And the LORD said to Moses,

12: "Behold, I have taken the Levites from among the people of Israel instead of every first-born that opens the womb among the people of Israel. The Levites shall be mine, 13: for all the first-born are mine; on the day that I slew all the first-born in the land of Egypt, I consecrated for my own all the first-born in Israel, both of man and of beast; they shall be mine: I am the LORD."

14: And the LORD said to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai,

15: "Number the sons of Levi, by fathers' houses and by families; every male from a month old and upward you shall number."

16: So Moses numbered them according to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded.

17: And these were the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon and Kohath and Merar'i.

18: And these are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shim'e-i.

19: And the sons of Kohath by their families: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uz'ziel.

20: And the sons of Merar'i by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites, by their fathers' houses.

21: Of Gershon were the family of the Libnites and the family of the Shim'e-ites; these were the families of the Gershonites.

22: Their number according to the number of all the males from a month old and upward was seven thousand five hundred.

23: The families of the Gershonites were to encamp behind the tabernacle on the west, 24: with Eli'asaph, the son of La'el as head of the fathers' house of the Gershonites.

25: And the charge of the sons of Gershon in the tent of meeting was to be the tabernacle, the tent with its covering, the screen for the door of the tent of meeting, 26: the hangings of the court, the screen for the door of the court which is around the tabernacle and the altar, and its cords; all the service pertaining to these.

27: Of Kohath were the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izhar'ites, and the family of the He'bronites, and the family of the Uzzie'lites; these are the families of the Ko'hathites.

28: According to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, there were eight thousand six hundred, attending to the duties of the sanctuary.

29: The families of the sons of Kohath were to encamp on the south side of the tabernacle, 30: with Eli-za'phan the son of Uz'ziel as head of the fathers' house of the families of the Ko'hathites.

31: And their charge was to be the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the vessels of the sanctuary with which the priests minister, and the screen; all the service pertaining to these.

32: And Elea'zar the son of Aaron the priest was to be chief over the leaders of the Levites, and to have oversight of those who had charge of the sanctuary.

33: Of Merar'i were the family of the Mahlites and the family of the Mushites: these are the families of Merar'i.

34: Their number according to the number of all the males from a month old and upward was six thousand two hundred.

35: And the head of the fathers' house of the families of Merar'i was Zu'ri'el the son of Ab'ihail; they were to encamp on the north side of the tabernacle.

36: And the appointed charge of the sons of Merar'i was to be the frames of the tabernacle, the bars, the pillars, the bases, and all their accessories; all the service pertaining to these;

37: also the pillars of the court round about, with their bases and pegs and cords.
38: And those to encamp before the tabernacle on the east, before the tent of meeting toward the sunrise, were Moses and Aaron and his sons, having charge of the rites within the sanctuary, whatever had to be done for the people of Israel; and any one else who came near was to be put to death.
39: All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, by families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twenty-two thousand.
40: And the LORD said to Moses, "Number all the first-born males of the people of Israel, from a month old and upward, taking their number by names.
41: And you shall take the Levites for me -- I am the LORD -- instead of all the first-born among the people of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the people of Israel."
42: So Moses numbered all the first-born among the people of Israel, as the LORD commanded him.
43: And all the first-born males, according to the number of names, from a month old and upward as numbered were twenty-two thousand two hundred and seventy-three.
44: And the LORD said to Moses,
45: "Take the Levites instead of all the first-born among the people of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle; and the Levites shall be mine: I am the LORD.
46: And for the redemption of the two hundred and seventy-three of the first-born of the people of Israel, over and above the number of the male Levites,
47: you shall take five shekels apiece; reckoning by the shekel of the sanctuary, the shekel of twenty gerahs, you shall take them,
48: and give the money by which the excess number of them is redeemed to Aaron and his sons."
49: So Moses took the redemption money from those who were over and above those redeemed by the Levites;
50: from the first-born of the people of Israel he took the money, one thousand three hundred and sixty-five shekels, reckoned by the shekel of the sanctuary;
51: and Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Chapter 4 Numbers, chapter 4

1: The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,
2: "Take a census of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, by their families and their fathers' houses,
3: from thirty years old up to fifty years old, all who can enter the service, to do the work in the tent of meeting.
4: This is the service of the sons of Kohath in the tent of meeting: the most holy things.
5: When the camp is to set out, Aaron and his sons shall go in and take down the veil of the screen, and cover the ark of the testimony with it;
6: then they shall put on it a covering of goatskin, and spread over that a cloth all of blue, and shall put in its poles.
7: And over the table of the bread of the Presence they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put upon it the plates, the dishes for incense, the bowls, and the flagons for the drink offering; the continual bread also shall be on it;
8: then they shall spread over them a cloth of scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of goatskin, and shall put in its poles.
9: And they shall take a cloth of blue, and cover the lampstand for the light, with its lamps, its snuffers, its trays, and all the vessels for oil with which it is supplied:
10: and they shall put it with all its utensils in a covering of goatskin and put it upon the carrying frame.
11: And over the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of goatskin, and shall put in its poles;
12: and they shall take all the vessels of the service which are used in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of goatskin, and put them on the carrying frame.
13: And they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth over it;
14: and they shall put on it all the utensils of the altar, which are used for the service there, the firepans, the forks, the shovels, and the basins, all the utensils of the altar; and they shall spread upon it a covering of goatskin, and shall put in its poles.
15: And when Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary and all the furnishings of the sanctuary, as the camp sets out, after that the sons of Kohath shall come to carry these, but they must not touch the holy things, lest they die. These are the things of the tent of meeting which the sons of Kohath are to carry.
16: "And Elea'zar the son of Aaron the priest shall have charge of the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the continual cereal offering, and the anointing oil, with the oversight of all the tabernacle and all that is in it, of the sanctuary and its vessels."
17: The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,
18: "Let not the tribe of the families of the Ko'hathites be destroyed from among the Levites;
19: but deal thus with them, that they may live and not die when they come near to the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in and appoint them each to his task and to his burden, 20: but they shall not go in to look upon the holy things even for a moment, lest they die."
21: The LORD said to Moses,

22: "Take a census of the sons of Gershon also, by their families and their fathers' houses;
23: from thirty years old up to fifty years old, you shall number them, all who can enter for service, to do the work in the tent of meeting.
24: This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, in serving and bearing burdens:
25: they shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tent of meeting with its covering, and the covering of goatskin that is on top of it, and the screen for the door of the tent of meeting,
26: and the hangings of the court, and the screen for the entrance of the gate of the court which is around the tabernacle and the altar, and their cords, and all the equipment for their service; and they shall do all that needs to be done with regard to them.
27: All the service of the sons of the Gershonites shall be at the command of Aaron and his sons, in all that they are to carry, and in all that they have to do; and you shall assign to their charge all that they are to carry.
28: This is the service of the families of the sons of the Gershonites in the tent of meeting, and their work is to be under the oversight of Ith'amar the son of Aaron the priest.
29: "As for the sons of Merar'i, you shall number them by their families and their fathers' houses;
30: from thirty years old up to fifty years old, you shall number them, every one that can enter the service, to do the work of the tent of meeting.
31: And this is what they are charged to carry, as the whole of their service in the tent of meeting: the frames of the tabernacle, with its bars, pillars, and bases,
32: and the pillars of the court round about with their bases, pegs, and cords, with all their equipment and all their accessories; and you shall assign by name the objects which they are required to carry.
33: This is the service of the families of the sons of Merar'i, the whole of their service in the tent of meeting, under the hand of Ith'amar the son of Aaron the priest."
34: And Moses and Aaron and the leaders of the congregation numbered the sons of the Ko'hathites, by their families and their fathers' houses,
35: from thirty years old up to fifty years old, every one that could enter the service, for work in the tent of meeting;
36: and their number by families was two thousand seven hundred and fifty.
37: This was the number of the families of the Ko'hathites, all who served in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD by Moses.
38: The number of the sons of Gershon, by their families and their fathers' houses,
39: from thirty years old up to fifty years old, every one that could enter the service for work in the tent of meeting --
40: their number by their families and their fathers' houses was two thousand six hundred and thirty.
41: This was the number of the families of the sons of Gershon, all who served in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD.
42: The number of the families of the sons of Merar'i, by their families and their fathers' houses,
43: from thirty years old up to fifty years old, every one that could enter the service, for work in the tent of meeting --
44: their number by families was three thousand two hundred.
45: These are those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merar'i, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD by Moses.
46: All those who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the leaders of Israel numbered, by their families and their fathers' houses,
47: from thirty years old up to fifty years old, every one that could enter to do the work of service and the work of bearing burdens in the tent of meeting,
48: those who were numbered of them were eight thousand five hundred and eighty.
49: According to the commandment of the LORD through Moses they were appointed, each to his task of serving or carrying; thus they were numbered by him, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Chapter 5 Numbers, chapter 5

1: The LORD said to Moses,
2: "Command the people of Israel that they put out of the camp every leper, and every one having a discharge, and every one that is unclean through contact with the dead;
3: you shall put out both male and female, putting them outside the camp, that they may not defile their camp, in the midst of which I dwell."
4: And the people of Israel did so, and drove them outside the camp; as the LORD said to Moses, so the people of Israel did.
5: And the LORD said to Moses,
6: "Say to the people of Israel, When a man or woman commits any of the sins that men commit by breaking faith with the LORD, and that person is guilty,
7: he shall confess his sin which he has committed; and he shall make full restitution for his wrong, adding a fifth to it, and giving it to him to whom he did the wrong.
8: But if the man has no kinsman to whom restitution may be made for the wrong, the restitution for wrong shall go to the LORD for the priest, in addition to the ram of atonement with which atonement is made for him.

9: And every offering, all the holy things of the people of Israel, which they bring to the priest, shall be his;

10: and every man's holy things shall be his; whatever any man gives to the priest shall be his."

11: And the LORD said to Moses,

12: "Say to the people of Israel, If any man's wife goes astray and acts unfaithfully against him,

13: if a man lies with her carnally, and it is hidden from the eyes of her husband, and she is undetected though she has defiled herself, and there is no witness against her, since she was not taken in the act;

14: and if the spirit of jealousy comes upon him, and he is jealous of his wife who has defiled herself; or if the spirit of jealousy comes upon him, and he is jealous of his wife, though she has not defiled herself;

15: then the man shall bring his wife to the priest, and bring the offering required of her, a tenth of an ephah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil upon it and put no frankincense on it, for it is a cereal offering of jealousy, a cereal offering of remembrance, bringing iniquity to remembrance.

16: "And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD;

17: and the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel, and take some of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle and put it into the water.

18: And the priest shall set the woman before the LORD, and unbind the hair of the woman's head, and place in her hands the cereal offering of remembrance, which is the cereal offering of jealousy. And in his hand the priest shall have the water of bitterness that brings the curse.

19: Then the priest shall make her take an oath, saying, `If no man has lain with you, and if you have not turned aside to uncleanness, while you were under your husband's authority, be free from this water of bitterness that brings the curse.

20: But if you have gone astray, though you are under your husband's authority, and if you have defiled yourself, and some man other than your husband has lain with you,

21: then' (let the priest make the woman take the oath of the curse, and say to the woman) `the LORD make you an execration and an oath among your people, when the LORD makes your thigh fall away and your body swell;

22: may this water that brings the curse pass into your bowels and make your body swell and your thigh fall away.' And the woman shall say, `Amen, Amen.'

23: "Then the priest shall write these curses in a book, and wash them off into the water of bitterness;

24: and he shall make the woman drink the water of bitterness that brings the curse, and the water that brings the curse shall enter into her and cause bitter pain.

25: And the priest shall take the cereal offering of jealousy out of the woman's hand, and shall wave the cereal offering before the LORD and bring it to the altar;

26: and the priest shall take a handful of the cereal offering, as its memorial portion, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward shall make the woman drink the water.

27: And when he has made her drink the water, then, if she has defiled herself and has acted unfaithfully against her husband, the water that brings the curse shall enter into her and cause bitter pain, and her body shall swell, and her thigh shall fall away, and the woman shall become an execration among her people.

28: But if the woman has not defiled herself and is clean, then she shall be free and shall conceive children.

29: "This is the law in cases of jealousy, when a wife, though under her husband's authority, goes astray and defiles herself, 30: or when the spirit of jealousy comes upon a man and he is jealous of his wife; then he shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law.

31: The man shall be free from iniquity, but the woman shall bear her iniquity."

Chapter 6 Numbers, chapter 6

1: And the LORD said to Moses,

2: "Say to the people of Israel, When either a man or a woman makes a special vow, the vow of a Nazirite, to separate himself to the LORD,

3: he shall separate himself from wine and strong drink; he shall drink no vinegar made from wine or strong drink, and shall not drink any juice of grapes or eat grapes, fresh or dried.

4: All the days of his separation he shall eat nothing that is produced by the grapevine, not even the seeds or the skins.

5: "All the days of his vow of separation no razor shall come upon his head; until the time is completed for which he separates himself to the LORD, he shall be holy; he shall let the locks of hair of his head grow long.

6: "All the days that he separates himself to the LORD he shall not go near a dead body.

7: Neither for his father nor for his mother, nor for brother or sister, if they die, shall he make himself unclean; because his separation to God is upon his head.

8: All the days of his separation he is holy to the LORD.

9: "And if any man dies very suddenly beside him, and he defiles his consecrated head, then he shall shave his head on the day of his cleansing; on the seventh day he shall shave it.

10: On the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest to the door of the tent of meeting,

11: and the priest shall offer one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, and make atonement for him, because he sinned by reason of the dead body. And he shall consecrate his head that same day,
12: and separate himself to the LORD for the days of his separation, and bring a male lamb a year old for a guilt offering; but the former time shall be void, because his separation was defiled.
13: "And this is the law for the Nazirite, when the time of his separation has been completed: he shall be brought to the door of the tent of meeting,
14: and he shall offer his gift to the LORD, one male lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb a year old without blemish as a sin offering, and one ram without blemish as a peace offering,
15: and a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread with oil, and their cereal offering and their drink offerings.
16: And the priest shall present them before the LORD and offer his sin offering and his burnt offering,
17: and he shall offer the ram as a sacrifice of peace offering to the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread; the priest shall offer also its cereal offering and its drink offering.
18: And the Nazirite shall shave his consecrated head at the door of the tent of meeting, and shall take the hair from his consecrated head and put it on the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offering.
19: And the priest shall take the shoulder of the ram, when it is boiled, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them upon the hands of the Nazirite, after he has shaven the hair of his consecration,
20: and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD; they are a holy portion for the priest, together with the breast that is waved and the thigh that is offered; and after that the Nazirite may drink wine.
21: "This is the law for the Nazirite who takes a vow. His offering to the LORD shall be according to his vow as a Nazirite, apart from what else he can afford; in accordance with the vow which he takes, so shall he do according to the law for his separation as a Nazirite."
22: The LORD said to Moses,
23: "Say to Aaron and his sons, Thus you shall bless the people of Israel: you shall say to them,
24: The LORD bless you and keep you:
25: The LORD make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you:
26: The LORD lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace.
27: "So shall they put my name upon the people of Israel, and I will bless them."

Chapter 7 Numbers, chapter 7

1: On the day when Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle, and had anointed and consecrated it with all its furnishings, and had anointed and consecrated the altar with all its utensils,
2: the leaders of Israel, heads of their fathers' houses, the leaders of the tribes, who were over those who were numbered,
3: offered and brought their offerings before the LORD, six covered wagons and twelve oxen, a wagon for every two of the leaders, and for each one an ox; they offered them before the tabernacle.
4: Then the LORD said to Moses,
5: "Accept these from them, that they may be used in doing the service of the tent of meeting, and give them to the Levites, to each man according to his service."
6: So Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites.
7: Two wagons and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to their service;
8: and four wagons and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merar'i, according to their service, under the direction of Ith'amar the son of Aaron the priest.
9: But to the sons of Kohath he gave none, because they were charged with the care of the holy things which had to be carried on the shoulder.
10: And the leaders offered offerings for the dedication of the altar on the day it was anointed; and the leaders offered their offering before the altar.
11: And the LORD said to Moses, "They shall offer their offerings, one leader each day, for the dedication of the altar."
12: He who offered his offering the first day was Nahshon the son of Ammin'adab, of the tribe of Judah;
13: and his offering was one silver plate whose weight was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal offering;
14: one golden dish of ten shekels, full of incense;
15: one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;
16: one male goat for a sin offering;
17: and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Nahshon the son of Ammin'adab.
18: On the second day Nethan'el the son of Zu'ar, the leader of Is'sachar, made an offering;
19: he offered for his offering one silver plate, whose weight was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal offering;

20: one golden dish of ten shekels, full of incense;
21: one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;
22: one male goat for a sin offering;
23: and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Nethan'el the son of Zu'ar.
24: On the third day Eli'ab the son of Helon, the leader of the men of Zeb'ulun:
25: his offering was one silver plate, whose weight was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal offering;
26: one golden dish of ten shekels, full of incense;
27: one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;
28: one male goat for a sin offering;
29: and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eli'ab the son of Helon.
30: On the fourth day Eli'zur the son of Shed'eur, the leader of the men of Reuben:
31: his offering was one silver plate whose weight was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal offering;
32: one golden dish of ten shekels, full of incense;
33: one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;
34: one male goat for a sin offering;
35: and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eli'zur the son of Shed'eur.
36: On the fifth day Shelu'mi-el the son of Zurishad'dai, the leader of the men of Simeon:
37: his offering was one silver plate, whose weight was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal offering;
38: one golden dish of ten shekels, full of incense;
39: one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;
40: one male goat for a sin offering;
41: and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Shelu'mi-el the son of Zurishad'dai.
42: On the sixth day Eli'asaph the son of Deu'el, the leader of the men of Gad:
43: his offering was one silver plate, whose weight was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal offering;
44: one golden dish of ten shekels, full of incense;
45: one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;
46: one male goat for a sin offering;
47: and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eli'asaph the son of Deu'el.
48: On the seventh day Eli'shama the son of Ammi'hud, the leader of the men of E'phraim:
49: his offering was one silver plate, whose weight was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal offering;
50: one golden dish of ten shekels, full of incense;
51: one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;
52: one male goat for a sin offering;
53: and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eli'shama the son of Ammi'hud.
54: On the eighth day Gama'liel the son of Pedah'zur, the leader of the men of Manas'seh:
55: his offering was one silver plate, whose weight was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal offering;
56: one golden dish of ten shekels, full of incense;
57: one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;
58: one male goat for a sin offering;
59: and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Gama'liel the son of Pedah'zur.
60: On the ninth day Abi'dan the son of Gideo'ni, the leader of the men of Benjamin:
61: his offering was one silver plate, whose weight was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal offering;
62: one golden dish of ten shekels, full of incense;
63: one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;
64: one male goat for a sin offering;

75: and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Abi'dan the son of Gideo'ni.

76: On the tenth day Ahie'zer the son of Ammishad'dai, the leader of the men of Dan:

77: his offering was one silver plate, whose weight was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal offering;

78: one golden dish of ten shekels, full of incense;

79: one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

70: one male goat for a sin offering;

71: and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Ahie'zer the son of Ammishad'dai.

72: On the eleventh day Pa'giel the son of Ochrán, the leader of the men of Asher:

73: his offering was one silver plate, whose weight was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal offering;

74: one golden dish of ten shekels, full of incense;

75: one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

76: one male goat for a sin offering;

77: and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Pa'giel the son of Ochrán.

78: On the twelfth day Ahi'ra the son of Enán, the leader of the men of Naph'tali:

79: his offering was one silver plate, whose weight was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver basin of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a cereal offering;

80: one golden dish of ten shekels, full of incense;

81: one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

82: one male goat for a sin offering;

83: and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Ahi'ra the son of Enán.

84: This was the dedication offering for the altar, on the day when it was anointed, from the leaders of Israel: twelve silver plates, twelve silver basins, twelve golden dishes,

85: each silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels and each basin seventy, all the silver of the vessels two thousand four hundred shekels according to the shekel of the sanctuary,

86: the twelve golden dishes, full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece according to the shekel of the sanctuary, all the gold of the dishes being a hundred and twenty shekels;

87: all the cattle for the burnt offering twelve bulls, twelve rams, twelve male lambs a year old, with their cereal offering; and twelve male goats for a sin offering;

88: and all the cattle for the sacrifice of peace offerings twenty-four bulls, the rams sixty, the male goats sixty, the male lambs a year old sixty. This was the dedication offering for the altar, after it was anointed.

89: And when Moses went into the tent of meeting to speak with the LORD, he heard the voice speaking to him from above the mercy seat that was upon the ark of the testimony, from between the two cherubim; and it spoke to him.

v89: And when Moses entered into the tabernacle of meeting to speak with the LORD, he heard the voice speaking to him, face to face with him, from above the throne of propitiation, the mercy seat that was upon the ark of the testimony, so from between the two cherubim; He, God, spoke to him, Moses.

Chapter 8 Numbers, chapter 8

1: Now the LORD said to Moses,

2: "Say to Aaron, When you set up the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light in front of the lampstand."

3: And Aaron did so; he set up its lamps to give light in front of the lampstand, as the LORD commanded Moses.

4: And this was the workmanship of the lampstand, hammered work of gold; from its base to its flowers, it was hammered work; according to the pattern which the LORD had shown Moses, so he made the lampstand.

5: And the LORD said to Moses,

6: "Take the Levites from among the people of Israel, and cleanse them.

7: And thus you shall do to them, to cleanse them: sprinkle the water of expiation upon them, and let them go with a razor over all their body, and wash their clothes and cleanse themselves.

8: Then let them take a young bull and its cereal offering of fine flour mixed with oil, and you shall take another young bull for a sin offering.

9: And you shall present the Levites before the tent of meeting, and assemble the whole congregation of the people of Israel.

10: When you present the Levites before the LORD, the people of Israel shall lay their hands upon the Levites,

11: and Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD as a wave offering from the people of Israel, that it may be theirs to do the service of the LORD.

12: Then the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bulls; and you shall offer the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering to the LORD, to make atonement for the Levites.

13: And you shall cause the Levites to attend Aaron and his sons, and shall offer them as a wave offering to the LORD.

14: "Thus you shall separate the Levites from among the people of Israel, and the Levites shall be mine.

15: And after that the Levites shall go in to do service at the tent of meeting, when you have cleansed them and offered them as a wave offering.

16: For they are wholly given to me from among the people of Israel; instead of all that open the womb, the first-born of all the people of Israel, I have taken them for myself.

17: For all the first-born among the people of Israel are mine, both of man and of beast; on the day that I slew all the first-born in the land of Egypt I consecrated them for myself, 18: and I have taken the Levites instead of all the first-born among the people of Israel.

19: And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and his sons from among the people of Israel, to do the service for the people of Israel at the tent of meeting, and to make atonement for the people of Israel, that there may be no plague among the people of Israel in case the people of Israel should come near the sanctuary."

20: Thus did Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the people of Israel to the Levites; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, the people of Israel did to them.

21: And the Levites purified themselves from sin, and washed their clothes; and Aaron offered them as a wave offering before the LORD, and Aaron made atonement for them to cleanse them.

22: And after that the Levites went in to do their service in the tent of meeting in attendance upon Aaron and his sons; as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.

23: And the LORD said to Moses,

24: "This is what pertains to the Levites: from twenty-five years old and upward they shall go in to perform the work in the service of the tent of meeting;

25: and from the age of fifty years they shall withdraw from the work of the service and serve no more,

26: but minister to their brethren in the tent of meeting, to keep the charge, and they shall do no service. Thus shall you do to the Levites in assigning their duties."

Chapter 9

Numbers, chapter 9

1: And the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2: "Let the people of Israel keep the passover at its appointed time.

3: On the fourteenth day of this month, in the evening, you shall keep it at its appointed time; according to all its statutes and all its ordinances you shall keep it."

4: So Moses told the people of Israel that they should keep the passover.

5: And they kept the passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, in the evening, in the wilderness of Sinai; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the people of Israel did.

6: And there were certain men who were unclean through touching the dead body of a man, so that they could not keep the passover on that day; and they came before Moses and Aaron on that day;

7: and those men said to him, "We are unclean through touching the dead body of a man; why are we kept from offering the LORD's offering at its appointed time among the people of Israel?"

8: And Moses said to them, "Wait, that I may hear what the LORD will command concerning you."

9: The LORD said to Moses,

10: "Say to the people of Israel, If any man of you or of your descendants is unclean through touching a dead body, or is afar off on a journey, he shall still keep the passover to the LORD.

11: In the second month on the fourteenth day in the evening they shall keep it; they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

12: They shall leave none of it until the morning, nor break a bone of it; according to all the statute for the passover they shall keep it.

13: But the man who is clean and is not on a journey, yet refrains from keeping the passover, that person shall be cut off from his people, because he did not offer the LORD's offering at its appointed time; that man shall bear his sin.

14: And if a stranger sojourns among you, and will keep the passover to the LORD, according to the statute of the passover and according to its ordinance, so shall he do; you shall have one statute, both for the sojourner and for the native."

15: On the day that the tabernacle was set up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the testimony; and at evening it was over the tabernacle like the appearance of fire until morning.

16: So it was continually; the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17: And whenever the cloud was taken up from over the tent, after that the people of Israel set out; and in the place where the cloud settled down, there the people of Israel encamped.

18: At the command of the LORD the people of Israel set out, and at the command of the LORD they encamped; as long as the cloud rested over the tabernacle, they remained in camp.

19: Even when the cloud continued over the tabernacle many days, the people of Israel kept the charge of the LORD, and did not set out.

20: Sometimes the cloud was a few days over the tabernacle, and according to the command of the LORD they remained in camp; then according to the command of the LORD they set out.

21: And sometimes the cloud remained from evening until morning; and when the cloud was taken up in the morning, they set out, or if it continued for a day and a night, when the cloud was taken up they set out.

22: Whether it was two days, or a month, or a longer time, that the cloud continued over the tabernacle, abiding there, the people of Israel remained in camp and did not set out; but when it was taken up they set out.

23: At the command of the LORD they encamped, and at the command of the LORD they set out; they kept the charge of the LORD, at the command of the LORD by Moses.

Chapter 10 Numbers, chapter 10

1: The LORD said to Moses,

2: "Make two silver trumpets; of hammered work you shall make them; and you shall use them for summoning the congregation, and for breaking camp.

3: And when both are blown, all the congregation shall gather themselves to you at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

4: But if they blow only one, then the leaders, the heads of the tribes of Israel, shall gather themselves to you.

5: When you blow an alarm, the camps that are on the east side shall set out.

6: And when you blow an alarm the second time, the camps that are on the south side shall set out. An alarm is to be blown whenever they are to set out.

7: But when the assembly is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm.

8: And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets. The trumpets shall be to you for a perpetual statute throughout your generations.

9: And when you go to war in your land against the adversary who oppresses you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets, that you may be remembered before the LORD your God, and you shall be saved from your enemies.

10: On the day of your gladness also, and at your appointed feasts, and at the beginnings of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; they shall serve you for remembrance before your God: I am the LORD your God."

11: In the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth day of the month, the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle of the testimony, 12: and the people of Israel set out by stages from the wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud settled down in the wilderness of Paran.

13: They set out for the first time at the command of the LORD by Moses.

14: The standard of the camp of the men of Judah set out first by their companies; and over their host was Nahshon the son of Ammin'adab.

15: And over the host of the tribe of the men of Is'sachar was Nethan'el the son of Zu'ar.

16: And over the host of the tribe of the men of Zeb'ulun was Eli'ab the son of Helon.

17: And when the tabernacle was taken down, the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merar'i, who carried the tabernacle, set out.

18: And the standard of the camp of Reuben set out by their companies; and over their host was Eli'zur the son of Shed'eur.

19: And over the host of the tribe of the men of Simeon was Shelu'mi-el the son of Zurishad'dai.

20: And over the host of the tribe of the men of Gad was Eli'asaph the son of Deu'el.

21: Then the Ko'hathites set out, carrying the holy things, and the tabernacle was set up before their arrival.

22: And the standard of the camp of the men of E'phraim set out by their companies; and over their host was Eli'shama the son of Ammi'hud.

23: And over the host of the tribe of the men of Manas'seh was Gama'liel the son of Pedah'zur.

24: And over the host of the tribe of the men of Benjamin was Abi'dan the son of Gideo'ni.

25: Then the standard of the camp of the men of Dan, acting as the rear guard of all the camps, set out by their companies; and over their host was Ahie'zer the son of Ammishad'dai.

26: And over the host of the tribe of the men of Asher was Pa'giel the son of Ochran.

27: And over the host of the tribe of the men of Naph'tali was Ahi'ra the son of Enan.

28: This was the order of march of the people of Israel according to their hosts, when they set out.

29: And Moses said to Hobab the son of Reu'el the Mid'ianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out for the place of which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you'; come with us, and we will do you good; for the LORD has promised good to Israel."

30: But he said to him, "I will not go; I will depart to my own land and to my kindred."

31: And he said, "Do not leave us, I pray you, for you know how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and you will serve as eyes for us.

32: And if you go with us, whatever good the LORD will do to us, the same will we do to you."

33: So they set out from the mount of the LORD three days' journey; and the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them three days' journey, to seek out a resting place for them.

34: And the cloud of the LORD was over them by day, whenever they set out from the camp.

35: And whenever the ark set out, Moses said, "Arise, O LORD, and let thy enemies be scattered; and let them that hate thee flee before thee."

36: And when it rested, he said, "Return, O LORD, to the ten thousand thousands of Israel."

Chapter 11

Numbers, chapter 11

1: And the people complained in the hearing of the LORD about their misfortunes; and when the LORD heard it, his anger was kindled, and the fire of the LORD burned among them, and consumed some outlying parts of the camp.

2: Then the people cried to Moses; and Moses prayed to the LORD, and the fire abated.

3: So the name of that place was called Tab'erah, because the fire of the LORD burned among them.

4: Now the rabble that was among them had a strong craving; and the people of Israel also wept again, and said, "O that we had meat to eat!

v4: Now the rabble the scum who were among them had a greedy desires; and the people of Israel also wept again, and said, "Who will give us meat to eat!"

5: We remember the fish we ate in Egypt for nothing, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic;

v5: We remember the fish (slave food) we ate free in Egypt, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic (To make it palatable);

6: but now our strength is dried up, and there is nothing at all but this manna to look at."

v6: but now our appetite is gone, and there is nothing at all to look at except this miserable manna."

7: Now the manna was like coriander seed, and its appearance like that of bdellium.

8: The people went about and gathered it, and ground it in mills or beat it in mortars, and boiled it in pots, and made cakes of it; and the taste of it was like the taste of cakes baked with oil.

9: When the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell with it.

10: Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, every man at the door of his tent; and the anger of the LORD blazed hotly, and Moses was displeased.

11: Moses said to the LORD, "Why hast thou dealt ill with thy servant? And why have I not found favor in thy sight, that thou dost lay the burden of all this people upon me?"

12: Did I conceive all this people? Did I bring them forth, that thou shouldst say to me, 'Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse carries the sucking child, to the land which thou didst swear to give their fathers?'

13: Where am I to get meat to give to all this people? For they weep before me and say, 'Give us meat, that we may eat.'

14: I am not able to carry all this people alone, the burden is too heavy for me.

15: If thou wilt deal thus with me, kill me at once, if I find favor in thy sight, that I may not see my wretchedness."

16: And the LORD said to Moses, "Gather for me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them; and bring them to the tent of meeting, and let them take their stand there with you.

17: And I will come down and talk with you there; and I will take some of the spirit which is upon you and put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, that you may not bear it yourself alone.

18: And say to the people, 'Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat; for you have wept in the hearing of the LORD, saying, "Who will give us meat to eat? For it was well with us in Egypt." Therefore the LORD will give you meat, and you shall eat.

19: You shall not eat one day, or two days, or five days, or ten days, or twenty days,

20: but a whole month, until it comes out at your nostrils and becomes loathsome to you, because you have rejected the LORD who is among you, and have wept before him, saying, "Why did we come forth out of Egypt?'"

v20: but a whole month, until it comes out at your ears (nostrils) and becomes loathsome to you, because you have rejected the LORD who is among you, and have wept before him, saying, "Why did we come forth out of Egypt?'"

21: But Moses said, "The people among whom I am number six hundred thousand on foot; and thou hast said, 'I will give them meat, that they may eat a whole month!'

v21: But Moses said, "The infantry whom I am among alone number six hundred thousand on foot; and thou hast said, 'I will give them meat, that they may eat a whole month!'

22: Shall flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to suffice them? Or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them?"

v22: Shall flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to suffice them? Or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them?" (where is it going to come from)

23: And the LORD said to Moses, "Is the LORD's hand shortened? Now you shall see whether my word will come true for you or not."

24: So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD; and he gathered seventy men of the elders of the people, and placed them round about the tent.

25: Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took some of the spirit that was upon him and put it upon the seventy elders; and when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they did so no more.

v25: Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took some of the spirit that was upon him and put it upon the seventy elders; and when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied or preached and they did not cease

26: Now two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad, and the other named Medad, and the spirit rested upon them; they were among those registered, but they had not gone out to the tent, and so they prophesied in the camp.

v26: but two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad, and the other named Medad, and the spirit rested upon them; they were among those chosen by Moses, but they had not gone out to the tent, and so they preached in the camp.

27: And a young man ran and told Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp."

28: And Joshua the son of Nun, the minister of Moses, one of his chosen men, said, "My lord Moses, forbid them."

29: But Moses said to him, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the LORD's people were prophets, that the LORD would put his spirit upon them!"

v29: But Moses said to him, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the LORD's people were prophets, that the LORD would put his spirit upon them (fulfilled in the Church Age – Moses was looking down into the future with desire)!"

30: And Moses and the elders of Israel returned to the camp.

31: And there went forth a wind from the LORD, and it brought quails from the sea, and let them fall beside the camp, about a day's journey on this side and a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and about two cubits above the face of the earth.

v31: And there went forth a South East wind from the LORD, and it brought quails from the direction of the sea, and let them fall beside the camp (10 miles across), about a day's journey on this side and a day's journey (20 to 30 Miles) on the other side, round about the camp, and about two cubits (36 inches) above the face of the earth. (50 miles in diameter)

32: And the people rose all that day, and all night, and all the next day, and gathered the quails; he who gathered least gathered ten homers; and they spread them out for themselves all around the camp.

v32: And the people stayed out all that day, and all night, and all the next day, and gathered the quails; he who gathered least gathered ten homers (640 quarts); and they spread them out for themselves all around the camp.

33: While the meat was yet between their teeth, before it was consumed, the anger of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD smote the people with a very great plague.

v33: While the raw meat was yet between their teeth being chewed, before it was consumed, the anger of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD smote the people with a very great plague.

34: Therefore the name of that place was called Kib'roth-hatta'avah, because there they buried the people who had the craving.

35: From Kib'roth-hatta'avah the people journeyed to Haze'roth; and they remained at Haze'roth.

Chapter 12

Numbers, chapter 12

1: Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married, for he had married a Cushite woman;

v1: Then Miriam and Aaron maligned Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married, for he had married a White Cushite woman;

2: and they said, "Has the LORD indeed spoken only through Moses? Has he not spoken through us also?" And the LORD heard it.

v2: and they said, "Has the LORD indeed spoken only through Moses? Is he the only teacher among us? Has he not spoken through us as well?" (all the people agreed and this started the revolution) And the LORD heard it.

3: Now the man Moses was very meek, more than all men that were on the face of the earth.

Num 12:3

v3: Now the man Moses was very humble more than anyone or any person on the face of the earth

4: And suddenly the LORD said to Moses and to Aaron and Miriam, "Come out, you three, to the tent of meeting." And the three of them came out.

5: And the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud, and stood at the door of the tent, and called Aaron and Miriam; and they both came forward.

6: And he said, "Hear my words: If there is a prophet among you, I the LORD make myself known to him in a vision, I speak with him in a dream.

7: Not so with my servant Moses; he is entrusted with all my house.

8: With him I speak mouth to mouth, clearly, and not in dark speech; and he beholds the form of the LORD. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?"

9: And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them, and he departed;

10: and when the cloud removed from over the tent, behold, Miriam was leprous, as white as snow. And Aaron turned towards Miriam, and behold, she was leprous.

11: And Aaron said to Moses, "Oh, my lord, do not punish us because we have done foolishly and have sinned.

12: Let her not be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he comes out of his mother's womb."

13: And Moses cried to the LORD, "Heal her, O God, I beseech thee."

14: But the LORD said to Moses, "If her father had but spit in her face, should she not be shamed seven days? Let her be shut up outside the camp seven days, and after that she may be brought in again."

15: So Miriam was shut up outside the camp seven days; and the people did not set out on the march till Miriam was brought in again.

16: After that the people set out from Haze'roth, and encamped in the wilderness of Paran.

Numbers, chapter 13

1: The LORD said to Moses,

2: "Send men to spy out the land of Canaan, which I give to the people of Israel; from each tribe of their fathers shall you send a man, every one a leader among them."

v2: "Send men to search out the land of Canaan, which I give to the people of Israel; from each tribe of their fathers shall you send a man, every one a ruler among them."

3: So Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran, according to the command of the LORD, all of them men who were heads of the people of Israel.

4: And these were their names: From the tribe of Reuben, Sham'mu-a the son of Zaccur;

5: from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori;

6: from the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephun'neh;

7: from the tribe of Is'sachar, Igal the son of Joseph;

8: from the tribe of E'phraim, Hoshe'a the son of Nun;

9: from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu;

10: from the tribe of Zeb'ulun, Gad'diel the son of Sodi;

11: from the tribe of Joseph (that is from the tribe of Manas'seh), Gaddi the son of Susi;

12: from the tribe of Dan, Am'miel the son of Gemal'li;

13: from the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael;

14: from the tribe of Naph'tali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi;

15: from the tribe of Gad, Geu'el the son of Machi.

16: These were the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Hoshe'a the son of Nun Joshua.

17: Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, "Go up into the Negeb yonder, and go up into the hill country,

18: and see what the land is, and whether the people who dwell in it are strong or weak, whether they are few or many,

19: and whether the land that they dwell in is good or bad, and whether the cities that they dwell in are camps or strongholds,

20: and whether the land is rich or poor, and whether there is wood in it or not. Be of good courage, and bring some of the fruit of the land." Now the time was the season of the first ripe grapes.

21: So they went up and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob, near the entrance of Hamath.

22: They went up into the Negeb, and came to Hebron; and Ahi'man, She'shai, and Talmi, the descendants of Anak, were there.

(Hebron was built seven years before Zo'an in Egypt.)

23: And they came to the Valley of Eshcol, and cut down from there a branch with a single cluster of grapes, and they carried it on a pole between two of them; they brought also some pomegranates and figs.

24: That place was called the Valley of Eshcol, because of the cluster which the men of Israel cut down from there.

25: At the end of forty days they returned from spying out the land.

26: And they came to Moses and Aaron and to all the congregation of the people of Israel in the wilderness of Paran, at Kadesh; they brought back word to them and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land.

v27: And they told him, "We came to the land to which you sent us; it flows with milk and honey a very prosperous land, and this is its fruit.

28: Yet the people who dwell in the land are strong, and the cities are fortified and very large; and besides, we saw the descendants of Anak there.

Num 13:28

v28: Nevertheless the people are strong who dwell in the land and the cities are large and very fortified, There were Giants in the land called the children of Anak,

29: The Amal'ekites dwell in the land of the Negeb; the Hittites, the Jeb'usites, and the Amorites dwell in the hill country; and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and along the Jordan."

Num 13:29

v29: The Amalakites dwelt in the land of the south and the Hitites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwelt in the mountains.

30: But Caleb quieted the people before Moses, and said, "Let us go up at once, and occupy it; for we are well able to overcome it."

31: Then the men who had gone up with him said, "We are not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we."

32: So they brought to the people of Israel an evil report of the land which they had spied out, saying, "The land, through which we have gone, to spy it out, is a land that devours its inhabitants; and all the people that we saw in it are men of great stature.

33: And there we saw the Giants (the sons of Anak, who come from the Nephilim); and we seemed to ourselves like grasshoppers, and so we seemed to them."

Num 13:33

v33: There also we saw the Nephilim (giant people) the sons of Anak (Giants of Joshua and Moses) and we became like grasshoppers in our own sight, and so were we in their sight, and this report of the reconnaissance of the land the Nephilim were in the land and the Nephilim were Giants.

Chapter 14

v1: Then all the congregation raised a loud cry; and the people wept all that night.

v2: And all the people of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron; the whole congregation said to them, "Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! Or would God that we had died in this wilderness!

v3: Why does the LORD bring us into this land, to fall by the sword? Our wives and our children will become a prey; would it not be better for us to go back to Egypt?"

4: And they said to one another, "Let us choose a captain, and go back to Egypt."

5: Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the people of Israel.

6: And Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephun'neh, who were among those who had spied out the land, rent their clothes,

7: and said to all the congregation of the people of Israel, "The land, which we passed through to spy it out, is an exceedingly good land.

v8: If the LORD delights in us, he will bring us into this land and give it to us, a very prosperous land which flows with milk and honey.

9: Only, do not rebel against the LORD; and do not fear the people of the land, for they are bread for us; their protection is removed from them, and the LORD is with us; do not fear them."

10: But all the congregation said to stone them with stones. Then the glory of the LORD appeared at the tent of meeting to all the people of Israel.

11: And the LORD said to Moses, "How long will this people despise me? And how long will they not believe in me, in spite of all the signs which I have wrought among them?"

12: I will strike them with the pestilence and disinherit them, and I will make of you a nation greater and mightier than they."

13: But Moses said to the LORD, "Then the Egyptians will hear of it, for thou didst bring up this people in thy might from among them,

14: and they will tell the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that thou, O LORD, art in the midst of this people; for thou, O LORD, art seen face to face, and thy cloud stands over them and thou goest before them, in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night.

15: Now if thou dost kill this people as one man, then the nations who have heard thy fame will say,

16: 'Because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land which he swore to give to them, therefore he has slain them in the wilderness.'

17: And now, I pray thee, let the power of the LORD be great as thou hast promised, saying,

18: 'The LORD is slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, forgiving iniquity and transgression, but he will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of fathers upon children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation.'

19: Pardon the iniquity of this people, I pray thee, according to the greatness of thy steadfast love, and according as thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now."

20: Then the LORD said, "I have pardoned, according to your word;

21: but truly, as I live, and as all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD,

22: none of the men who have seen my glory and my signs which I wrought in Egypt and in the wilderness, and yet have put me to the proof these ten times and have not hearkened to my voice, 23: shall see the land which I swore to give to their fathers; and none of those who despised me shall see it.

24: But my servant Caleb, because he has a different spirit and has followed me fully, I will bring into the land into which he went, and his descendants shall possess it.

25: Now, since the Amal'ekites and the Canaanites dwell in the valleys, turn tomorrow and set out for the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea."

26: And the LORD said to Moses and to Aaron,

v26: And the LORD said to Moses and to Aaron, saying 27: "How long shall this wicked congregation murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the people of Israel, which they murmur against me.

v27: "How long shall I put up with this evil congregation who are complaining against me? I have heard the complaints of the sons or people of Israel, which they are complaining against me.

28: Say to them, 'As I live,' says the LORD, 'what you have said in my hearing I will do to you:

v28: Now Say to them, 'As I live,' says the LORD, 'Just as you have spoken in my hearing so I will surely do to you:

29: your dead bodies shall fall in this desert; and of all your number, numbered from twenty years old and upward, who have murmured against me,

v29: your corpses will fall in this desert (they would scatter over about 100 miles of desert and die the Sin Unto Death); even all of you registered for the draft, men according to your complete number from twenty years old and upward, those who have complained against me, 30: not one shall come into the land where I swore that I would make you dwell, except Caleb the son of Jephun'neh and Joshua the son of Nun.

v30: Definitely you will not come into this land in which I solemnly promised to settle you, except Caleb the son of Jephun'neh and Joshua the son of Nun.

31: But your little ones, who you said would become a prey, I will bring in, and they shall know the land which you have despised.

v31: But your children, whom you said would become a prey, I will bring them in, and they shall know the land which you have rejected.

32: But as for you, your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness.

v32: But as for you, the older generation, your corpses shall fall in this desert from the Sin Unto Death.

33: And your children shall be shepherds in the wilderness forty years, and shall suffer for your faithlessness, until the last of your dead bodies lies in the wilderness.

v33: And your sons shall be shepherds in the desert for forty years, and they will bear your unfaithfulness, until the last of your corpses lie in the desert.

34: According to the number of the days in which you spied out the land, forty days, for every day a year, you shall bear your iniquity, forty years, and you shall know my displeasure.'

v34: According to the number of the days in which you made reconnaissance in the land, forty days, for every day you shall bear punishment for your sins, a year for a day up to 40 years, therefore you shall know my opposition.'

35: I, the LORD, have spoken; surely this will I do to all this wicked congregation that are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall come to a full end, and there they shall die."

v35: I, the LORD, have spoken; surely this will I do to all this wicked congregation that are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall come to a full end, and there they shall die."

36: And the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land, and who returned and made all the congregation to murmur against him by bringing up an evil report against the land, 37: the men who brought up an evil report of the land, died by plague before the LORD.

38: But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephun'neh remained alive, of those men who went to spy out the land.

39: And Moses told these words to all the people of Israel, and the people mourned greatly.

40: And they rose early in the morning, and went up to the heights of the hill country, saying, "See, we are here, we will go up to the place which the LORD has promised; for we have sinned."

41: But Moses said, "Why now are you transgressing the command of the LORD, for that will not succeed?"

42: Do not go up lest you be struck down before your enemies, for the LORD is not among you.

43: For there the Amal'ekites and the Canaanites are before you, and you shall fall by the sword; because you have turned back from following the LORD, the LORD will not be with you."

44: But they presumed to go up to the heights of the hill country, although neither the ark of the covenant of the LORD, nor Moses, departed out of the camp.

45: Then the Amal'ekites and the Canaanites who dwelt in that hill country came down, and defeated them and pursued them, even to Hormah.

Chapter 15 Numbers, chapter 15

1: The LORD said to Moses,

2: "Say to the people of Israel, When you come into the land you are to inhabit, which I give you,

3: and you offer to the LORD from the herd or from the flock an offering by fire or a burnt offering or a sacrifice, to fulfil a vow or as a freewill offering or at your appointed feasts, to make a pleasing odor to the LORD,

4: then he who brings his offering shall offer to the LORD a cereal offering of a tenth of an ephah of fine flour, mixed with a fourth of a hin of oil;

5: and wine for the drink offering, a fourth of a hin, you shall prepare with the burnt offering, or for the sacrifice, for each lamb.

6: Or for a ram, you shall prepare for a cereal offering two tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with a third of a hin of oil;

7: and for the drink offering you shall offer a third of a hin of wine, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

8: And when you prepare a bull for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice, to fulfil a vow, or for peace offerings to the LORD,

9: then one shall offer with the bull a cereal offering of three tenths of an ephah of fine flour, mixed with half a hin of oil,

10: and you shall offer for the drink offering half a hin of wine, as an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

11: "Thus it shall be done for each bull or ram, or for each of the male lambs or the kids.

12: According to the number that you prepare, so shall you do with every one according to their number.

13: All who are native shall do these things in this way, in offering an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

14: And if a stranger is sojourning with you, or any one is among you throughout your generations, and he wishes to offer an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD, he shall do as you do.

15: For the assembly, there shall be one statute for you and for the stranger who sojourns with you, a perpetual statute throughout your generations; as you are, so shall the sojourner be before the LORD.

16: One law and one ordinance shall be for you and for the stranger who sojourns with you."

17: The LORD said to Moses,

18: "Say to the people of Israel, When you come into the land to which I bring you

Num 15:18-21

v18: "Speak to the people of Israel and Say to them, When you enter the land where I, God, bring you (not your talent or ability)

19: and when you eat of the food of the land, you shall present an offering to the LORD.

v19: and when you eat of the food of the land from your planting and reaping and harvesting, you shall present a heave offering to the LORD.

20: Of the first of your coarse meal you shall present a cake as an offering; as an offering from the threshing floor, so shall you present it.

v20: Of the first of your dough you shall lift up or heave as an offering; as a heave offering from the threshing floor, so you shall lift it up.

21: Of the first of your coarse meal you shall give to the LORD an offering throughout your generations.

v21: And from the first of your dough you shall give to the LORD a heave offering throughout every generation.

22: "But if you err, and do not observe all these commandments which the LORD has spoken to Moses,

23: all that the LORD has commanded you by Moses, from the day that the LORD gave commandment, and onward throughout your generations,

24: then if it was done unwittingly without the knowledge of the congregation, all the congregation shall offer one young bull for a burnt offering, a pleasing odor to the LORD, with its cereal offering and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and one male goat for a sin offering.

25: And the priest shall make atonement for all the congregation of the people of Israel, and they shall be forgiven; because it was an error, and they have brought their offering, an offering by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their error.

26: And all the congregation of the people of Israel shall be forgiven, and the stranger who sojourns among them, because the whole population was involved in the error.

27: "If one person sins unwittingly, he shall offer a female goat a year old for a sin offering.

28: And the priest shall make atonement before the LORD for the person who commits an error, when he sins unwittingly, to make atonement for him; and he shall be forgiven.

29: You shall have one law for him who does anything unwittingly, for him who is native among the people of Israel, and for the stranger who sojourns among them.

30: But the person who does anything with a high hand, whether he is native or a sojourner, reviles the LORD, and that person shall be cut off from among his people.

31: Because he has despised the word of the LORD, and has broken his commandment, that person shall be utterly cut off; his iniquity shall be upon him."

32: While the people of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the sabbath day.

33: And those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron, and to all the congregation.

34: They put him in custody, because it had not been made plain what should be done to him.

35: And the LORD said to Moses, "The man shall be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him with stones outside the camp."

36: And all the congregation brought him outside the camp, and stoned him to death with stones, as the LORD commanded Moses.

37: The LORD said to Moses,

38: "Speak to the people of Israel, and bid them to make tassels on the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and to put upon the tassel of each corner a cord of blue;

39: and it shall be to you a tassel to look upon and remember all the commandments of the LORD, to do them, not to follow after your own heart and your own eyes, which you are inclined to go after wantonly.

40: So you shall remember and do all my commandments, and be holy to your God.

41: I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD your God."

Chapter 16

Numbers, chapter 16

1: Now Korah the son of Izhar, son of Kohath, son of Levi, and Dathan and Abi'ram the sons of Eli'ab, and On the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben,

2: took men; and they rose up before Moses, with a number of the people of Israel, two hundred and fifty leaders of the congregation, chosen from the assembly, well-known men;

3: and they assembled themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said to them, "You have gone too far! For all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the LORD is among them; why then do you exalt yourselves above the assembly of the LORD?"

4: When Moses heard it, he fell on his face;

V4: When Moses heard it, he went to the Lord in Prayer;

5: and he said to Korah and all his company, "In the morning the LORD will show who is his, and who is holy, and will cause him to come near to him; him whom he will choose he will cause to come near to him.

v5: and he said to Korah and all the people who came sympathizing with him, "Even In the morning the LORD will show who is his, and who is holy, and will cause him to come near to him; Even him whom he will choose he will cause to come near to him.

6: Do this: take censers, Korah and all his company;

v6: Do this: take brazen censers or shovels, Korah and the people who come with him;

7: put fire in them and put incense upon them before the LORD tomorrow, and the man whom the LORD chooses shall be the holy one. You have gone too far, sons of Levi!"

v7: Put hot coals in them and put incense upon them before the LORD tomorrow, and the man whom the LORD chooses shall be the holy one. You have gone too far, sons of Levi!"

8: And Moses said to Korah, "Hear now, you sons of Levi:

9: is it too small a thing for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself, to do service in the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them;

v9: It is a small a thing to you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself, to do service in the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to teach doctrine to them;

10: and that he has brought you near him, and all your brethren the sons of Levi with you? And would you seek the priesthood also?

11: Therefore it is against the LORD that you and all your company have gathered together; what is Aaron that you murmur against him?"

v11: Therefore it is against the LORD that you and all your company have gathered together; what is Aaron that you complain against him?"

12: And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abi'ram the sons of Eli'ab; and they said, "We will not come up.

13: Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, that you must also make yourself a prince over us?

v13: It is a terrible thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey (Egypt), to kill us in the desert, in order that you can also make yourself a prince over us?

14: Moreover you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up."

15: And Moses was very angry, and said to the LORD, "Do not respect their offering. I have not taken one ass from them, and I have not harmed one of them."

16: And Moses said to Korah, "Be present, you and all your company, before the LORD, you and they, and Aaron, tomorrow;

17: and let every one of you take his censer, and put incense upon it, and every one of you bring before the LORD his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; you also, and Aaron, each his censer."

18: So every man took his censer, and they put fire in them and laid incense upon them, and they stood at the entrance of the tent of meeting with Moses and Aaron.

19: Then Korah assembled all the congregation against them at the entrance of the tent of meeting. And the glory of the LORD appeared to all the congregation.

20: And the LORD said to Moses and to Aaron,

21: "Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment."

22: And they fell on their faces, and said, "O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be angry with all the congregation?"

23: And the LORD said to Moses,

24: "Say to the congregation, Get away from about the dwelling of Korah, Dathan, and Abi'ram."

25: Then Moses rose and went to Dathan and Abi'ram; and the elders of Israel followed him.

26: And he said to the congregation, "Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest you be swept away with all their sins."

27: So they got away from about the dwelling of Korah, Dathan, and Abi'ram; and Dathan and Abi'ram came out and stood at the door of their tents, together with their wives, their sons, and their little ones.

28: And Moses said, "Hereby you shall know that the LORD has sent me to do all these works, and that it has not been of my own accord.

29: If these men die the common death of all men, or if they are visited by the fate of all men, then the LORD has not sent me.

30: But if the LORD creates something new, and the ground opens its mouth, and swallows them up, with all that belongs to them, and they go down alive into Sheol, then you shall know that these men have despised the LORD."

31: And as he finished speaking all these words, the ground under them split asunder;

32: and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, with their households and all the men that belonged to Korah and all their goods.

33: So they and all that belonged to them went down alive into Sheol; and the earth closed over them, and they perished from the midst of the assembly.

34: And all Israel that were round about them fled at their cry; for they said, "Lest the earth swallow us up!"

35: And fire came forth from the LORD, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men offering the incense.

36: Then the LORD said to Moses,

37: "Tell Elea'zar the son of Aaron the priest to take up the censers out of the blaze; then scatter the fire far and wide. For they are holy,

38: the censers of these men who have sinned at the cost of their lives; so let them be made into hammered plates as a covering for the altar, for they offered them before the LORD; therefore they are holy. Thus they shall be a sign to the people of Israel."

39: So Elea'zar the priest took the bronze censers, which those who were burned had offered; and they were hammered out as a covering for the altar,

40: to be a reminder to the people of Israel, so that no one who is not a priest, who is not of the descendants of Aaron, should draw near to burn incense before the LORD, lest he become as Korah and as his company -- as the LORD said to Elea'zar through Moses.

41: But on the morrow all the congregation of the people of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, "You have killed the people of the LORD."

42: And when the congregation had assembled against Moses and against Aaron, they turned toward the tent of meeting; and behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared.

43: And Moses and Aaron came to the front of the tent of meeting,

44: and the LORD said to Moses,

45: "Get away from the midst of this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment." And they fell on their faces.

46: And Moses said to Aaron, "Take your censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and lay incense on it, and carry it quickly to the congregation, and make atonement for them; for wrath has gone forth from the LORD, the plague has begun."

47: So Aaron took it as Moses said, and ran into the midst of the assembly; and behold, the plague had already begun among the people; and he put on the incense, and made atonement for the people.

48: And he stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stopped.

49: Now those who died by the plague were fourteen thousand seven hundred, besides those who died in the affair of Korah.

50: And Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance of the tent of meeting, when the plague was stopped.

Chapter 17 Numbers, chapter 17

1: The LORD said to Moses,

2: "Speak to the people of Israel, and get from them rods, one for each fathers' house, from all their leaders according to their fathers' houses, twelve rods. Write each man's name upon his rod,

3: and write Aaron's name upon the rod of Levi. For there shall be one rod for the head of each fathers' house.

4: Then you shall deposit them in the tent of meeting before the testimony, where I meet with you.

5: And the rod of the man whom I choose shall sprout; thus I will make to cease from me the murmurings of the people of Israel, which they murmur against you."

6: Moses spoke to the people of Israel; and all their leaders gave him rods, one for each leader, according to their fathers' houses, twelve rods; and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7: And Moses deposited the rods before the LORD in the tent of the testimony.

8: And on the morrow Moses went into the tent of the testimony; and behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi had sprouted and put forth buds, and produced blossoms, and it bore ripe almonds.

9: Then Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD to all the people of Israel; and they looked, and each man took his rod.

10: And the LORD said to Moses, "Put back the rod of Aaron before the testimony, to be kept as a sign for the rebels, that you may make an end of their murmurings against me, lest they die."

Num 17:10

v10: But the LORD said to Moses, "Put back the rod of Aaron Because the testimony for preserving as a sign against the sons of revolution that you may put an end to their grumblings against me, so that they should not die the Sin Unto Death." 11:

Thus did Moses; as the LORD commanded him, so he did.

12: And the people of Israel said to Moses, "Behold, we perish, we are undone, we are all undone.

13: Every one who comes near, who comes near to the tabernacle of the LORD, shall die. Are we all to perish?"

Chapter 18 Numbers, chapter 18

1: So the LORD said to Aaron, "You and your sons and your fathers' house with you shall bear iniquity in connection with the sanctuary; and you and your sons with you shall bear iniquity in connection with your priesthood.

2: And with you bring your brethren also, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, that they may join you, and minister to you while you and your sons with you are before the tent of the testimony.

3: They shall attend you and attend to all duties of the tent; but shall not come near to the vessels of the sanctuary or to the altar, lest they, and you, die.

4: They shall join you, and attend to the tent of meeting, for all the service of the tent; and no one else shall come near you.

5: And you shall attend to the duties of the sanctuary and the duties of the altar, that there be wrath no more upon the people of Israel.

6: And behold, I have taken your brethren the Levites from among the people of Israel; they are a gift to you, given to the LORD, to do the service of the tent of meeting.

7: And you and your sons with you shall attend to your priesthood for all that concerns the altar and that is within the veil; and you shall serve. I give your priesthood as a gift, and any one else who comes near shall be put to death."

8: Then the LORD said to Aaron, "And behold, I have given you whatever is kept of the offerings made to me, all the consecrated things of the people of Israel; I have given them to you as a portion, and to your sons as a perpetual due.

9: This shall be yours of the most holy things, reserved from the fire; every offering of theirs, every cereal offering of theirs and every sin offering of theirs and every guilt offering of theirs, which they render to me, shall be most holy to you and to your sons.

10: In a most holy place shall you eat of it; every male may eat of it; it is holy to you.

11: This also is yours, the offering of their gift, all the wave offerings of the people of Israel; I have given them to you, and to your sons and daughters with you, as a perpetual due; every one who is clean in your house may eat of it.

12: All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine and of the grain, the first fruits of what they give to the LORD, I give to you.

13: The first ripe fruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to the LORD, shall be yours; every one who is clean in your house may eat of it.

14: Every devoted thing in Israel shall be yours.

15: Everything that opens the womb of all flesh, whether man or beast, which they offer to the LORD, shall be yours; nevertheless the first-born of man you shall redeem, and the firstling of unclean beasts you shall redeem.

16: And their redemption price (at a month old you shall redeem them) you shall fix at five shekels in silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.

17: But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, you shall not redeem; they are holy. You shall sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shall burn their fat as an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD;

18: but their flesh shall be yours, as the breast that is waved and as the right thigh are yours.

19: All the holy offerings which the people of Israel present to the LORD I give to you, and to your sons and daughters with you, as a perpetual due; it is a covenant of salt for ever before the LORD for you and for your offspring with you."

20: And the LORD said to Aaron, "You shall have no inheritance in their land, neither shall you have any portion among them; I am your portion and your inheritance among the people of Israel.

21: "To the Levites I have given every tithe in Israel for an inheritance, in return for their service which they serve, their service in the tent of meeting.

22: And henceforth the people of Israel shall not come near the tent of meeting, lest they bear sin and die.

23: But the Levites shall do the service of the tent of meeting, and they shall bear their iniquity; it shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations; and among the people of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

24: For the tithe of the people of Israel, which they present as an offering to the LORD, I have given to the Levites for an inheritance; therefore I have said of them that they shall have no inheritance among the people of Israel."

25: And the LORD said to Moses,

26: "Moreover you shall say to the Levites, `When you take from the people of Israel the tithe which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then you shall present an offering from it to the LORD, a tithe of the tithe.

27: And your offering shall be reckoned to you as though it were the grain of the threshing floor, and as the fulness of the wine press.

28: So shall you also present an offering to the LORD from all your tithes, which you receive from the people of Israel; and from it you shall give the LORD's offering to Aaron the priest.

29: Out of all the gifts to you, you shall present every offering due to the LORD, from all the best of them, giving the hallowed part from them.'

30: Therefore you shall say to them, `When you have offered from it the best of it, then the rest shall be reckoned to the Levites as produce of the threshing floor, and as produce of the wine press;

31: and you may eat it in any place, you and your households; for it is your reward in return for your service in the tent of meeting.

32: And you shall bear no sin by reason of it, when you have offered the best of it. And you shall not profane the holy things of the people of Israel, lest you die."

Chapter 19 Numbers, chapter 19

1: Now the LORD said to Moses and to Aaron,

2: "This is the statute of the law which the LORD has commanded: Tell the people of Israel to bring you a red heifer without defect, in which there is no blemish, and upon which a yoke has never come.

3: And you shall give her to Elea'zar the priest, and she shall be taken outside the camp and slaughtered before him;

4: and Elea'zar the priest shall take some of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle some of her blood toward the front of the tent of meeting seven times.

5: And the heifer shall be burned in his sight; her skin, her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall be burned;

6: and the priest shall take cedarwood and hyssop and scarlet stuff, and cast them into the midst of the burning of the heifer.

7: Then the priest shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterwards he shall come into the camp; and the priest shall be unclean until evening.

8: He who burns the heifer shall wash his clothes in water and bathe his body in water, and shall be unclean until evening.

9: And a man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and deposit them outside the camp in a clean place; and they shall be kept for the congregation of the people of Israel for the water for impurity, for the removal of sin.

10: And he who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until evening. And this shall be to the people of Israel, and to the stranger who sojourns among them, a perpetual statute.

11: "He who touches the dead body of any person shall be unclean seven days;

12: he shall cleanse himself with the water on the third day and on the seventh day, and so be clean; but if he does not cleanse himself on the third day and on the seventh day, he will not become clean.

13: Whoever touches a dead person, the body of any man who has died, and does not cleanse himself, defiles the tabernacle of the LORD, and that person shall be cut off from Israel; because the water for impurity was not thrown upon him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is still on him.

14: "This is the law when a man dies in a tent: every one who comes into the tent, and every one who is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.

15: And every open vessel, which has no cover fastened upon it, is unclean.

16: Whoever in the open field touches one who is slain with a sword, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

17: For the unclean they shall take some ashes of the burnt sin offering, and running water shall be added in a vessel;

18: then a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the furnishings, and upon the persons who were there, and upon him who touched the bone, or the slain, or the dead, or the grave;

19: and the clean person shall sprinkle upon the unclean on the third day and on the seventh day; thus on the seventh day he shall cleanse him, and he shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and at evening he shall be clean.

20: "But the man who is unclean and does not cleanse himself, that person shall be cut off from the midst of the assembly, since he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD; because the water for impurity has not been thrown upon him, he is unclean.

21: And it shall be a perpetual statute for them. He who sprinkles the water for impurity shall wash his clothes; and he who touches the water for impurity shall be unclean until evening.

22: And whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean; and any one who touches it shall be unclean until evening."

Numbers, chapter 20

1: And the people of Israel, the whole congregation, came into the wilderness of Zin in the first month, and the people stayed in Kadesh; and Miriam died there, and was buried there.

Num 20:1-

v1: Then the people of Israel, the entire congregation, came to the desert of Zin (hb TSIN) in the first month, April BC1401, the 40th year, and the people came together once again at Kadesh, having been scattered for 39 years, to make a decision; and Miriam in the process of dying there in fact died there at Kadesh, and was buried there (while the younger people were in training).

2: Now there was no water for the congregation; and they assembled themselves together against Moses and against Aaron.

Num 20:2

v2: There was no water for the congregation; and they assembled or gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron.

3: And the people contended with Moses, and said, "Would that we had died when our brethren died before the LORD!

Num 20:3

v3: And the people contended with and opposed Moses rejecting his authority, and thinking they spoke saying, "Oh that we had died under adverse conditions by the Sin Unto Death, when our contemporaries of the first generation of the exodus died before the LORD!"

4: Why have you brought the assembly of the LORD into this wilderness, that we should die here, both we and our cattle?

Num 20:4

v4: Why have you, Moses, caused to bring the congregation of the LORD into this desert, that we and our cattle might die here, losing both our life and property wealth?

5: And why have you made us come up out of Egypt, to bring us to this evil place? It is no place for grain, or figs, or vines, or pomegranates; and there is no water to drink."

Num 20:5

v5: And why have you made us (The 2nd generation of the exodus) come up out of Egypt, to cause us to come to this evil place? It is no place for trade or luxuries of life as grain, or figs the luxury of food, or vines the luxury of beverage, or pomegranate good medicines; and there is no water to drink."

6: Then Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the door of the tent of meeting, and fell on their faces. And the glory of the LORD appeared to them,

Num 20:6

v6: Then Moses and Aaron went from the face to face presence with the congregation to the door of the tabernacle of the assembly which has been there for 38 years, and fell on their faces in humility. And the glory of the LORD was seen by them and appeared to them,

7: and the LORD said to Moses,

Num 20:7

v7: and the LORD Jehovah, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ said to Moses,

8: "Take the rod, and assemble the congregation, you and Aaron your brother, and tell the rock before their eyes to yield its water; so you shall bring water out of the rock for them; so you shall give drink to the congregation and their cattle."

Num 20:8

v8: "Take your hand and reach into the ark and put your hand on the staff of Aaron and bring it OUT, and cause the people to assemble, you and Aaron your brother pass in review before them and both of you speak to the rock in their presence before their eyes and He, God, shall give His waters; Therefore, you, Moses by speaking, will cause water to flow out of the rock for them; and you, Moses, will cause the congregation and their animals to drink."

9: And Moses took the rod from before the LORD, as he commanded him.

Num 20:9

v9: And Moses took the rod from before the LORD, just as he, the Lord, commanded him.

10: And Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly together before the rock, and he said to them, "Hear now, you rebels; shall we bring forth water for you out of this rock?"

Num 20:10

v10: And Moses and Aaron caused the congregation to be assembled in lines of tribes together before the rock, and he said to them on his own apart from his instructions, "Concentrate now listen, you rebels; must we cause water to be brought to you from this rock?"

11: And Moses lifted up his hand and struck the rock with his rod twice; and water came forth abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their cattle.

v11: And Moses lifted up his hand and struck the rock with his rod twice; and water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their animals also.

12: And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you did not believe in me, to sanctify me in the eyes of the people of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them."

v12: Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you did not trust or have confidence in me through the Faith Rest Drill <sup>(4 categories)</sup>, to declare or present my integrity in the presence of the people of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this people into the land which I have already given or caused them to inherit."

13: These are the waters of Mer'ibah, where the people of Israel contended with the LORD, and he showed himself holy among them.

v13: These are the waters of Mer'ibah Kadesh in Zin, where the people of Israel contended with the LORD, and he demonstrated his integrity by them.

14: Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, "Thus says your brother Israel: You know all the adversity that has befallen us:

15: how our fathers went down to Egypt, and we dwelt in Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians dealt harshly with us and our fathers;

16: and when we cried to the LORD, he heard our voice, and sent an angel and brought us forth out of Egypt; and here we are in Kadesh, a city on the edge of your territory.

17: Now let us pass through your land. We will not pass through field or vineyard, neither will we drink water from a well; we will go along the King's Highway, we will not turn aside to the right hand or to the left, until we have passed through your territory."

18: But Edom said to him, "You shall not pass through, lest I come out with the sword against you."

19: And the people of Israel said to him, "We will go up by the highway; and if we drink of your water, I and my cattle, then I will pay for it; let me only pass through on foot, nothing more."

20: But he said, "You shall not pass through." And Edom came out against them with many men, and with a strong force.

21: Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his territory; so Israel turned away from him.

22: And they journeyed from Kadesh, and the people of Israel, the whole congregation, came to Mount Hor.

23: And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron at Mount Hor, on the border of the land of Edom, 24: "Aaron shall be gathered to his people; for he shall not enter the land which I have given to the people of Israel, because you rebelled against my command at the waters of Mer'ibah.

25: Take Aaron and Elea'zar his son, and bring them up to Mount Hor;

26: and strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Elea'zar his son; and Aaron shall be gathered to his people, and shall die there."

27: Moses did as the LORD commanded; and they went up Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.

28: And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Elea'zar his son; and Aaron died there on the top of the mountain. Then Moses and Elea'zar came down from the mountain.

29: And when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, all the house of Israel wept for Aaron thirty days.

Numbers, chapter 21

1: When the Canaanite, the king of Arad, who dwelt in the Negeb, heard that Israel was coming by the way of Atharim, he fought against Israel, and took some of them captive.

2: And Israel vowed a vow to the LORD, and said, "If thou wilt indeed give this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities."

3: And the LORD hearkened to the voice of Israel, and gave over the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities; so the name of the place was called Hormah.

4: From Mount Hor they set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; and the people became impatient on the way.

5: And the people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we loathe this worthless food."

6: Then the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many people of Israel died.

7: And the people came to Moses, and said, "We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD and against you; pray to the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people.

8: And the LORD said to Moses, "Make a fiery serpent, and set it on a pole; and every one who is bitten, when he sees it, shall live."

v8: And the LORD said to Moses, "Make a fiery serpent, and set it on a pole; and it will happen that every one who is bitten by a cobra, when he looks at it, he shall live."

9: So Moses made a bronze serpent, and set it on a pole; and if a serpent bit any man, he would look at the bronze serpent and live.

v9: So Moses made a bronze serpent, and set it on a pole; and it came about if a serpent bit any man, if he would look at the bronze serpent he would live.

10: And the people of Israel set out, and encamped in Oboth.

11: And they set out from Oboth, and encamped at I'ye-ab'arim, in the wilderness which is opposite Moab, toward the sunrise.

12: From there they set out, and encamped in the Valley of Zered.

13: From there they set out, and encamped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness, that extends from the boundary of the Amorites; for the Arnon is the boundary of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

14: Wherefore it is said in the Book of the Wars of the LORD, "Waheb in Suphah, and the valleys of the Arnon,

Num 21:14

v14: Therefore it was written in the Book of the Wars of the LORD, "Jehovah takes or captures in the storm, Waheb in Suphah, and the valleys of the Arnon,

15: and the slope of the valleys that extends to the seat of Ar, and leans to the border of Moab."

16: And from there they continued to Beer; that is the well of which the LORD said to Moses, "Gather the people together, and I will give them water."

17: Then Israel sang this song: "Spring up, O well! -- Sing to it! -- 18: the well which the princes dug, which the nobles of the people delved with the scepter and with their staves."

19: and from Mat'tanah to Nahal'iel, and from Nahal'iel to Bamoth, 20: and from Bamoth to the valley lying in the region of Moab by the top of Pisgah which looks down upon the desert.

21: Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying,

22: "Let me pass through your land; we will not turn aside into field or vineyard; we will not drink the water of a well; we will go by the King's Highway, until we have passed through your territory."

23: But Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his territory. He gathered all his men together, and went out against Israel to the wilderness, and came to Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

24: And Israel slew him with the edge of the sword, and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, as far as to the Ammonites; for Jazer was the boundary of the Ammonites.

25: And Israel took all these cities, and Israel settled in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all its villages.

26: For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and taken all his land out of his hand, as far as the Arnon.

27: Therefore the ballad singers say, "Come to Heshbon, let it be built, let the city of Sihon be established.

28: For fire went forth from Heshbon, flame from the city of Sihon. It devoured Ar of Moab, the lords of the heights of the Arnon.

29: Woe to you, O Moab! You are undone, O people of Chemosh! He has made his sons fugitives, and his daughters captives, to an Amorite king, Sihon.

30: So their posterity perished from Heshbon, as far as Dibon, and we laid waste until fire spread to Med'eba."

31: Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

32: And Moses sent to spy out Jazer; and they took its villages, and dispossessed the Amorites that were there.

33: Then they turned and went up by the way to Bashan; and Og the king of Bashan came out against them, he and all his people, to battle at Ed're-i.

34: But the LORD said to Moses, "Do not fear him; for I have given him into your hand, and all his people, and his land; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon."

35: So they slew him, and his sons, and all his people, until there was not one survivor left to him; and they possessed his land.

Numbers, chapter 22

1: Then the people of Israel set out, and encamped in the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan at Jericho.

2: And Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

3: And Moab was in great dread of the people, because they were many; Moab was overcome with fear of the people of Israel.
4: And Moab said to the elders of Mid'ian, "This horde will now lick up all that is round about us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field." So Balak the son of Zippor, who was king of Moab at that time,
5: sent messengers to Balaam the son of Be'or at Pethor, which is near the River, in the land of Amaw to call him, saying, "Behold, a people has come out of Egypt; they cover the face of the earth, and they are dwelling opposite me.
6: Come now, curse this people for me, since they are too mighty for me; perhaps I shall be able to defeat them and drive them from the land; for I know that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed."
7: So the elders of Moab and the elders of Mid'ian departed with the fees for divination in their hand; and they came to Balaam, and gave him Balak's message.
8: And he said to them, "Lodge here this night, and I will bring back word to you, as the LORD speaks to me"; so the princes of Moab stayed with Balaam.
9: And God came to Balaam and said, "Who are these men with you?"
10: And Balaam said to God, "Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent to me, saying,
11: `Behold, a people has come out of Egypt, and it covers the face of the earth; now come, curse them for me; perhaps I shall be able to fight against them and drive them out.'"
12: God said to Balaam, "You shall not go with them; you shall not curse the people, for they are blessed."
13: So Balaam rose in the morning, and said to the princes of Balak, "Go to your own land; for the LORD has refused to let me go with you."
14: So the princes of Moab rose and went to Balak, and said, "Balaam refuses to come with us."
15: Once again Balak sent princes, more in number and more honorable than they.
16: And they came to Balaam and said to him, "Thus says Balak the son of Zippor: `Let nothing hinder you from coming to me;
17: for I will surely do you great honor, and whatever you say to me I will do; come, curse this people for me.'"
18: But Balaam answered and said to the servants of Balak, "Though Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the command of the LORD my God, to do less or more.
19: Pray, now, tarry here this night also, that I may know what more the LORD will say to me."
20: And God came to Balaam at night and said to him, "If the men have come to call you, rise, go with them; but only what I bid you, that shall you do."

Num 22:20

v20: And God came to Balaam at night and said to him, "If the men have come to call you, rise up and go with them; but only the word that I speak to you shall you do."

21: So Balaam rose in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.
22: But God's anger was kindled because he went; and the angel of the LORD took his stand in the way as his adversary. Now he was riding on the ass, and his two servants were with him.
23: And the ass saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road, with a drawn sword in his hand; and the ass turned aside out of the road, and went into the field; and Balaam struck the ass, to turn her into the road.
24: Then the angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, with a wall on either side.
25: And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she pushed against the wall, and pressed Balaam's foot against the wall; so he struck her again.
26: Then the angel of the LORD went ahead, and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn either to the right or to the left.
27: When the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam; and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he struck the ass with his staff.
28: Then the LORD opened the mouth of the ass, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?"
29: And Balaam said to the ass, "Because you have made sport of me. I wish I had a sword in my hand, for then I would kill you."
30: And the ass said to Balaam, "Am I not your ass, upon which you have ridden all your life long to this day? Was I ever accustomed to do so to you?" And he said, "No."
31: Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, with his drawn sword in his hand; and he bowed his head, and fell on his face.
32: And the angel of the LORD said to him, "Why have you struck your ass these three times? Behold, I have come forth to withstand you, because your way is perverse before me;
33: and the ass saw me, and turned aside before me these three times. If she had not turned aside from me, surely just now I would have slain you and let her live."
34: Then Balaam said to the angel of the LORD, "I have sinned, for I did not know that thou didst stand in the road against me. Now therefore, if it is evil in thy sight, I will go back again."
35: And the angel of the LORD said to Balaam, "Go with the men; but only the word which I bid you, that shall you speak." So Balaam went on with the princes of Balak.
36: When Balak heard that Balaam had come, he went out to meet him at the city of Moab, on the boundary formed by the Arnon, at the extremity of the boundary.

37: And Balak said to Balaam, "Did I not send to you to call you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not able to honor you?"
38: Balaam said to Balak, "Lo, I have come to you! Have I now any power at all to speak anything? The word that God puts in my mouth, that must I speak."
39: Then Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kir'iath-hu'zoth.
40: And Balak sacrificed oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam and to the princes who were with him.
41: And on the morrow Balak took Balaam and brought him up to Bamoth-ba'al; and from there he saw the nearest of the people.

Chapter 23

Numbers, chapter 23

1: And Balaam said to Balak, "Build for me here seven altars, and provide for me here seven bulls and seven rams."
2: Balak did as Balaam had said; and Balak and Balaam offered on each altar a bull and a ram.
3: And Balaam said to Balak, "Stand beside your burnt offering, and I will go; perhaps the LORD will come to meet me; and whatever he shows me I will tell you." And he went to a bare height.
4: And God met Balaam; and Balaam said to him, "I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered upon each altar a bull and a ram."
5: And the LORD put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, "Return to Balak, and thus you shall speak."
6: And he returned to him, and lo, he and all the princes of Moab were standing beside his burnt offering.
7: And Balaam took up his discourse, and said, "From Aram Balak has brought me, the king of Moab from the eastern mountains: `Come, curse Jacob for me, and come, denounce Israel!"
8: How can I curse whom God has not cursed? How can I denounce whom the LORD has not denounced?
9: For from the top of the mountains I see him, from the hills I behold him; lo, a people dwelling alone, and not reckoning itself among the nations!
10: Who can count the dust of Jacob, or number the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my end be like his!"
11: And Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, and behold, you have done nothing but bless them."
12: And he answered, "Must I not take heed to speak what the LORD puts in my mouth?"
13: And Balak said to him, "Come with me to another place, from which you may see them; you shall see only the nearest of them, and shall not see them all; then curse them for me from there."
14: And he took him to the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.
15: Balaam said to Balak, "Stand here beside your burnt offering, while I meet the LORD yonder."
16: And the LORD met Balaam, and put a word in his mouth, and said, "Return to Balak, and thus shall you speak."
17: And he came to him, and, lo, he was standing beside his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him. And Balak said to him, "What has the LORD spoken?"
18: And Balaam took up his discourse, and said, "Rise, Balak, and hear; hearken to me, O son of Zippor:
19: God is not man, that he should lie, or a son of man, that he should repent. Has he said, and will he not do it? Or has he spoken, and will he not fulfil it?
20: Behold, I received a command to bless: he has blessed, and I cannot revoke it.
21: He has not beheld misfortune in Jacob; nor has he seen trouble in Israel. The LORD their God is with them, and the shout of a king is among them.
22: God brings them out of Egypt; they have as it were the horns of the wild ox.
23: For there is no enchantment against Jacob, no divination against Israel; now it shall be said of Jacob and Israel, `What has God wrought!"
v23: There is no omen against Jacob, nor is there any divination against Israel; now at the proper time it shall be said of Jacob and Israel, `What God has done!
24: Behold, a people! As a lioness it rises up and as a lion it lifts itself; it does not lie down till it devours the prey, and drinks the blood of the slain."
25: And Balak said to Balaam, "Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all."
v25: And Balak said to Balaam, "Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all, I will pay you the same just stop talking."
26: But Balaam answered Balak, "Did I not tell you, `All that the LORD says, that I must do?"
v26: But Balaam answered and said to Balak, king of Moab, "Did I not tell you that whatever the Lord speaks that I must do?"
27: And Balak said to Balaam, "Come now, I will take you to another place; perhaps it will please God that you may curse them for me from there."
28: So Balak took Balaam to the top of Pe'or, that overlooks the desert.
29: And Balaam said to Balak, "Build for me here seven altars, and provide for me here seven bulls and seven rams."
30: And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Chapter 24

Numbers, chapter 24

- 1: When Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not go, as at other times, to look for omens, but set his face toward the wilderness.
- 2: And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and saw Israel encamping tribe by tribe. And the Spirit of God came upon him,
- 3: and he took up his discourse, and said, "The oracle of Balaam the son of Be'or, the oracle of the man whose eye is opened,
- 4: the oracle of him who hears the words of God, who sees the vision of the Almighty, falling down, but having his eyes uncovered:
- 5: how fair are your tents, O Jacob, your encampments, O Israel!
- 6: Like valleys that stretch afar, like gardens beside a river, like aloes that the LORD has planted, like cedar trees beside the waters.
- 7: Water shall flow from his buckets, and his seed shall be in many waters, his king shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted.
- 8: God brings him out of Egypt; he has as it were the horns of the wild ox, he shall eat up the nations his adversaries, and shall break their bones in pieces, and pierce them through with his arrows.
- 9: He couched, he lay down like a lion, and like a lioness; who will rouse him up? Blessed be every one who blesses you, and cursed be every one who curses you."
- 10: And Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he struck his hands together; and Balak said to Balaam, "I called you to curse my enemies, and behold, you have blessed them these three times.
- 11: Therefore now flee to your place; I said, 'I will certainly honor you,' but the LORD has held you back from honor."
- 12: And Balaam said to Balak, "Did I not tell your messengers whom you sent to me,
- 13: 'If Balak should give me his house full of silver and gold, I would not be able to go beyond the word of the LORD, to do either good or bad of my own will; what the LORD speaks, that will I speak'?
- 14: And now, behold, I am going to my people; come, I will let you know what this people will do to your people in the latter days."
- 15: And he took up his discourse, and said, "The oracle of Balaam the son of Be'or, the oracle of the man whose eye is opened,
- 16: the oracle of him who hears the words of God, and knows the knowledge of the Most High, who sees the vision of the Almighty, falling down, but having his eyes uncovered:
- 17: I see him, but not now; I behold him, but not nigh: a star shall come forth out of Jacob, and a scepter shall rise out of Israel; it shall crush the forehead of Moab, and break down all the sons of Sheth.
- 18: Edom shall be dispossessed, Se'ir also, his enemies, shall be dispossessed, while Israel does valiantly.
- 19: By Jacob shall dominion be exercised, and the survivors of cities be destroyed!"
- 20: Then he looked on Am'alek, and took up his discourse, and said, "Am'alek was the first of the nations, but in the end he shall come to destruction."
- 21: And he looked on the Ken'ite, and took up his discourse, and said, "Enduring is your dwelling place, and your nest is set in the rock;
- 22: nevertheless Kain shall be wasted. How long shall Asshur take you away captive?"
- 23: And he took up his discourse, and said, "Alas, who shall live when God does this?
- 24: But ships shall come from Kittim and shall afflict Asshur and Eber; and he also shall come to destruction."
- 25: Then Balaam rose, and went back to his place; and Balak also went his way.

Numbers, chapter 25

- 1: While Israel dwelt in Shittim the people began to play the harlot with the daughters of Moab.
- 2: These invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods, and the people ate, and bowed down to their gods.
- 3: So Israel yoked himself to Ba'al of Pe'or. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel;
- 4: and the LORD said to Moses, "Take all the chiefs of the people, and hang them in the sun before the LORD, that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from Israel."
- 5: And Moses said to the judges of Israel, "Every one of you slay his men who have yoked themselves to Ba'al of Pe'or."
- 6: And behold, one of the people of Israel came and brought a Mid'ianite woman to his family, in the sight of Moses and in the sight of the whole congregation of the people of Israel, while they were weeping at the door of the tent of meeting.
- 7: When Phin'ehas the son of Elea'zar, son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose and left the congregation, and took a spear in his hand
- 8: and went after the man of Israel into the inner room, and pierced both of them, the man of Israel and the woman, through her body. Thus the plague was stayed from the people of Israel.
- 9: Nevertheless those that died by the plague were twenty-four thousand.
- 10: And the LORD said to Moses,
- 11: "Phin'ehas the son of Elea'zar, son of Aaron the priest, has turned back my wrath from the people of Israel, in that he was jealous with my jealousy among them, so that I did not consume the people of Israel in my jealousy.
- 12: Therefore say, 'Behold, I give to him my covenant of peace;
- 13: and it shall be to him, and to his descendants after him, the covenant of a perpetual priesthood, because he was jealous for his God, and made atonement for the people of Israel.'"
- 14: The name of the slain man of Israel, who was slain with the Mid'ianite woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, head of a fathers' house belonging to the Simeonites.

15: And the name of the Mid'ianite woman who was slain was Cozbi the daughter of Zur, who was the head of the people of a fathers' house in Mid'ian.

16: And the LORD said to Moses,

17: "Harass the Mid'ianites, and smite them;

18: for they have harassed you with their wives, with which they beguiled you in the matter of Pe'or, and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of the prince of Mid'ian, their sister, who was slain on the day of the plague on account of Pe'or."

Chapter 26

Numbers, chapter 26

1: After the plague the LORD said to Moses and to Elea'zar the son of Aaron, the priest,

2: "Take a census of all the congregation of the people of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, by their fathers' houses, all in Israel who are able to go forth to war."

3: And Moses and Elea'zar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying,

4: "Take a census of the people, from twenty years old and upward," as the LORD commanded Moses. The people of Israel, who came forth out of the land of Egypt, were:

5: Reuben, the first-born of Israel; the sons of Reuben: of Hanoch, the family of the Ha'nochites; of Pallu, the family of the Pal'luites;

6: of Hezron, the family of the Hez'ronites; of Carmi, the family of the Carmites.

7: These are the families of the Reubenites; and their number was forty-three thousand seven hundred and thirty.

8: And the sons of Pallu: Eli'ab.

9: The sons of Eli'ab: Nem'uel, Dathan, and Abi'ram. These are the Dathan and Abi'ram, chosen from the congregation, who contended against Moses and Aaron in the company of Korah, when they contended against the LORD,

10: and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up together with Korah, when that company died, when the fire devoured two hundred and fifty men; and they became a warning.

11: Notwithstanding, the sons of Korah did not die.

12: The sons of Simeon according to their families: of Nem'uel, the family of the Nem'uelites; of Jamin, the family of the Ja'minites; of Jachin, the family of the Ja'chinites;

13: of Zerach, the family of the Zer'ahites; of Sha'ul, the family of the Sha'ulites.

14: These are the families of the Simeonites, twenty-two thousand two hundred.

15: The sons of Gad according to their families: of Zephon, the family of the Ze'phonites; of Haggi, the family of the Haggites; of Shuni, the family of the Shunites;

16: of Ozni, the family of the Oznites; of Eri, the family of the Erites;

17: of Ar'od, the family of the Ar'odites; of Are'li, the family of the Are'lites.

18: These are the families of the sons of Gad according to their number, forty thousand five hundred.

19: The sons of Judah were Er and Onan; and Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.

20: And the sons of Judah according to their families were: of Shelah, the family of the Shela'nites; of Perez, the family of the Per'ezites; of Zerach, the family of the Zer'ahites.

21: And the sons of Perez were: of Hezron, the family of the Hez'ronites; of Hamul, the family of the Hamu'lites.

22: These are the families of Judah according to their number, seventy-six thousand five hundred.

23: The sons of Is'sachar according to their families: of Tola, the family of the To'laites; of Puvah, the family of the Punites;

24: of Jashub, the family of the Jash'ubites; of Shimron, the family of the Shim'ronites.

25: These are the families of Is'sachar according to their number, sixty-four thousand three hundred.

26: The sons of Zeb'ulun, according to their families: of Sered, the family of the Ser'edites; of Elon, the family of the E'lonites; of Jahleel, the family of the Jah'leelites.

27: These are the families of the Zeb'ulunites according to their number, sixty thousand five hundred.

28: The sons of Joseph according to their families: Manas'seh and E'phraim.

29: The sons of Manas'seh: of Machir, the family of the Ma'chirites; and Machir was the father of Gilead; of Gilead, the family of the Gileadites.

30: These are the sons of Gilead: of Ie'zer, the family of the Ie'zerites; of Helek, the family of the He'lekites;

31: and of As'riel, the family of the As'rielites; and of Shechem, the family of the She'chemites;

32: and of Shemi'da, the family of the Shemi'daites; and of Hephher, the family of the He'pherites.

33: Now Zeloph'ehad the son of Hephher had no sons, but daughters: and the names of the daughters of Zeloph'ehad were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

34: These are the families of Manas'seh; and their number was fifty-two thousand seven hundred.

35: These are the sons of E'phraim according to their families: of Shuthe'lah, the family of the Shuthe'lahites; of Becher, the family of the Bech'erites; of Tahan, the family of the Ta'hanites.

36: And these are the sons of Shuthe'lah: of Eran, the family of the E'ranites.

37: These are the families of the sons of E'phraim according to their number, thirty-two thousand five hundred. These are the sons of Joseph according to their families.

38: The sons of Benjamin according to their families: of Bela, the family of the Be'la-ites; of Ashbel, the family of the Ash'belites; of Ahi'ram, the family of the Ahi'ramites;

 39: of Shephu'pham, the family of the Shu'phamites; of Hupham, the family of the Hu'phamites.
 40: And the sons of Bela were Ard and Na'aman: of Ard, the family of the Ard'ites; of Na'aman, the family of the Na'amites.
 41: These are the sons of Benjamin according to their families; and their number was forty-five thousand six hundred.
 42: These are the sons of Dan according to their families: of Shuham, the family of the Shu'hamites. These are the families of Dan according to their families.
 43: All the families of the Shu'hamites, according to their number, were sixty-four thousand four hundred.
 44: The sons of Asher according to their families: of Imnah, the family of the Imnites; of Ishvi, the family of the Ishvites; of Beri'ah, the family of the Beri'ites.
 45: Of the sons of Beri'ah: of Heber, the family of the He'berites; of Mal'chi-el, the family of the Mal'chi-elites.
 46: And the name of the daughter of Asher was Serah.
 47: These are the families of the sons of Asher according to their number, fifty-three thousand four hundred.
 48: The sons of Naph'tali according to their families: of Jahzeel, the family of the Jah'zeelites; of Guni, the family of the Gunites;
 49: of Jezer, the family of the Je'zerites; of Shillem, the family of the Shil'lemites.
 50: These are the families of Naph'tali according to their families; and their number was forty-five thousand four hundred.
 51: This was the number of the people of Israel, six hundred and one thousand seven hundred and thirty.
 52: The LORD said to Moses:
 53: "To these the land shall be divided for inheritance according to the number of names.
 54: To a large tribe you shall give a large inheritance, and to a small tribe you shall give a small inheritance; every tribe shall be given its inheritance according to its numbers.
 55: But the land shall be divided by lot; according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherit.
 56: Their inheritance shall be divided according to lot between the larger and the smaller."
 57: These are the Levites as numbered according to their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the family of the Ko'hathites; of Merar'i, the family of the Merar'ites.
 58: These are the families of Levi: the family of the Libnites, the family of the He'bronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Ko'rahites. And Kohath was the father of Amram.
 59: The name of Amram's wife was Joch'ebed the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt; and she bore to Amram Aaron and Moses and Miriam their sister.
 60: And to Aaron were born Nadab, Abi'hu, Elea'zar and Ith'amar.
 61: But Nadab and Abi'hu died when they offered unholy fire before the LORD.
 62: And those numbered of them were twenty-three thousand, every male from a month old and upward; for they were not numbered among the people of Israel, because there was no inheritance given to them among the people of Israel.
 63: These were those numbered by Moses and Elea'zar the priest, who numbered the people of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.
 64: But among these there was not a man of those numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest, who had numbered the people of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.
 65: For the LORD had said of them, "They shall die in the wilderness." There was not left a man of them, except Caleb the son of Jephun'neh and Joshua the son of Nun.

Chapter 27

Numbers, chapter 27

1: Then drew near the daughters of Zeloph'ehad the son of Hopher, son of Gilead, son of Machir, son of Manas'seh, from the families of Manas'seh the son of Joseph. The names of his daughters were: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.
 2: And they stood before Moses, and before Elea'zar the priest, and before the leaders and all the congregation, at the door of the tent of meeting, saying,
 3: "Our father died in the wilderness; he was not among the company of those who gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of Korah, but died for his own sin; and he had no sons.
 4: Why should the name of our father be taken away from his family, because he had no son? Give to us a possession among our father's brethren."
 5: Moses brought their case before the LORD.
 6: And the LORD said to Moses,
 7: "The daughters of Zeloph'ehad are right; you shall give them possession of an inheritance among their father's brethren and cause the inheritance of their father to pass to them.
 8: And you shall say to the people of Israel, 'If a man dies, and has no son, then you shall cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter.
 9: And if he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers.
 10: And if he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father's brothers.
 11: And if his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his kinsman that is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it. And it shall be to the people of Israel a statute and ordinance, as the LORD commanded Moses.'"
 12: The LORD said to Moses, "Go up into this mountain of Ab'arim, and see the land which I have given to the people of Israel.

13: And when you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people, as your brother Aaron was gathered,
14: because you rebelled against my word in the wilderness of Zin during the strife of the congregation, to sanctify me at the waters before their eyes." (These are the waters of Mer'ibah of Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.)

v14: For in the desert of Zin, during the strife of the congregation, You rebelled against my command and there was no excuse for this, to treat me as holy forgetting my integrity before their eyes at the water of meribah at Kadesh in the desert of Zin." (These are the waters of Mer'ibah of Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.)

15: Moses said to the LORD,

16: "Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the congregation, 17: who shall go out before them and come in before them, who shall lead them out and bring them in; that the congregation of the LORD may not be as sheep which have no shepherd."

18: And the LORD said to Moses, "Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and lay your hand upon him;

19: cause him to stand before Elea'zar the priest and all the congregation, and you shall commission him in their sight.

20: You shall invest him with some of your authority, that all the congregation of the people of Israel may obey.

21: And he shall stand before Elea'zar the priest, who shall inquire for him by the judgment of the Urim before the LORD; at his word they shall go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he and all the people of Israel with him, the whole congregation."

22: And Moses did as the LORD commanded him; he took Joshua and caused him to stand before Elea'zar the priest and the whole congregation, 23: and he laid his hands upon him, and commissioned him as the LORD directed through Moses.

Chapter 28

Numbers, chapter 28

1: The LORD said to Moses,

2: "Command the people of Israel, and say to them, 'My offering, my food for my offerings by fire, my pleasing odor, you shall take heed to offer to me in its due season.'

3: And you shall say to them, This is the offering by fire which you shall offer to the LORD: two male lambs a year old without blemish, day by day, as a continual offering.

4: The one lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer in the evening;

5: also a tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a cereal offering, mixed with a fourth of a hin of beaten oil.

6: It is a continual burnt offering, which was ordained at Mount Sinai for a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.

7: Its drink offering shall be a fourth of a hin for each lamb; in the holy place you shall pour out a drink offering of strong drink to the LORD.

8: The other lamb you shall offer in the evening; like the cereal offering of the morning, and like its drink offering, you shall offer it as an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

9: "On the sabbath day two male lambs a year old without blemish, and two tenths of an ephah of fine flour for a cereal offering, mixed with oil, and its drink offering:

10: this is the burnt offering of every sabbath, besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.

11: "At the beginnings of your months you shall offer a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish;

12: also three tenths of an ephah of fine flour for a cereal offering, mixed with oil, for each bull; and two tenths of fine flour for a cereal offering, mixed with oil, for the one ram;

13: and a tenth of fine flour mixed with oil as a cereal offering for every lamb; for a burnt offering of pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.

14: Their drink offerings shall be half a hin of wine for a bull, a third of a hin for a ram, and a fourth of a hin for a lamb; this is the burnt offering of each month throughout the months of the year.

15: Also one male goat for a sin offering to the LORD; it shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.

16: "On the fourteenth day of the first month is the LORD's passover.

17: And on the fifteenth day of this month is a feast; seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten.

18: On the first day there shall be a holy convocation: you shall do no laborious work,

19: but offer an offering by fire, a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old; see that they are without blemish;

20: also their cereal offering of fine flour mixed with oil; three tenths of an ephah shall you offer for a bull, and two tenths for a ram;

21: a tenth shall you offer for each of the seven lambs;

22: also one male goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you.

23: You shall offer these besides the burnt offering of the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering.

24: In the same way you shall offer daily, for seven days, the food of an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD; it shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.

25: And on the seventh day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work.

26: "On the day of the first fruits, when you offer a cereal offering of new grain to the LORD at your feast of weeks, you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work,

27: but offer a burnt offering, a pleasing odor to the LORD; two young bulls, one ram, seven male lambs a year old;
28: also their cereal offering of fine flour mixed with oil, three tenths of an ephah for each bull, two tenths for one ram,
29: a tenth for each of the seven lambs;
30: with one male goat, to make atonement for you.
31: Besides the continual burnt offering and its cereal offering, you shall offer them and their drink offering. See that they are without blemish.

Chapter 29
Numbers, chapter 29

1: "On the first day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work. It is a day for you to blow the trumpets,
2: and you shall offer a burnt offering, a pleasing odor to the LORD: one young bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish;
3: also their cereal offering of fine flour mixed with oil, three tenths of an ephah for the bull, two tenths for the ram,
4: and one tenth for each of the seven lambs;
5: with one male goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you;
6: besides the burnt offering of the new moon, and its cereal offering, and the continual burnt offering and its cereal offering, and their drink offering, according to the ordinance for them, a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.
7: "On the tenth day of this seventh month you shall have a holy convocation, and afflict yourselves; you shall do no work,
8: but you shall offer a burnt offering to the LORD, a pleasing odor: one young bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old; they shall be to you without blemish;
9: and their cereal offering of fine flour mixed with oil, three tenths of an ephah for the bull, two tenths for the one ram,
10: a tenth for each of the seven lambs:
11: also one male goat for a sin offering, besides the sin offering of atonement, and the continual burnt offering and its cereal offering, and their drink offerings.
12: "On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work, and you shall keep a feast to the LORD seven days;
13: and you shall offer a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD, thirteen young bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old; they shall be without blemish;
14: and their cereal offering of fine flour mixed with oil, three tenths of an ephah for each of the thirteen bulls, two tenths for each of the two rams,
15: and a tenth for each of the fourteen lambs;
16: also one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its cereal offering and its drink offering.
17: "On the second day twelve young bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish,
18: with the cereal offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by number, according to the ordinance;
19: also one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its cereal offering, and their drink offerings.
20: "On the third day eleven bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish,
21: with the cereal offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by number, according to the ordinance;
22: also one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its cereal offering and its drink offering.
23: "On the fourth day ten bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish,
24: with the cereal offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by number, according to the ordinance;
25: also one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its cereal offering and its drink offering.
26: "On the fifth day nine bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish,
27: with the cereal offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by number, according to the ordinance;
28: also one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering and its cereal offering and its drink offering.
29: "On the sixth day eight bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish,
30: with the cereal offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by number, according to the ordinance;
31: also one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, its cereal offering, and its drink offerings.
32: "On the seventh day seven bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish,
33: with the cereal offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by number, according to the ordinance;
34: also one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, its cereal offering, and its drink offering.
35: "On the eighth day you shall have a solemn assembly: you shall do no laborious work, 36: but you shall offer a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD: one bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish,

37: and the cereal offering and the drink offerings for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs, by number, according to the ordinance;

38: also one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering and its cereal offering and its drink offering.

39: "These you shall offer to the LORD at your appointed feasts, in addition to your votive offerings and your freewill offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your cereal offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings."

40: And Moses told the people of Israel everything just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Chapter 30

Numbers, chapter 30

1: Moses said to the heads of the tribes of the people of Israel, "This is what the LORD has commanded.

2: When a man vows a vow to the LORD, or swears an oath to bind himself by a pledge, he shall not break his word; he shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth.

3: Or when a woman vows a vow to the LORD, and binds herself by a pledge, while within her father's house, in her youth,

4: and her father hears of her vow and of her pledge by which she has bound herself, and says nothing to her; then all her vows shall stand, and every pledge by which she has bound herself shall stand.

5: But if her father expresses disapproval to her on the day that he hears of it, no vow of hers, no pledge by which she has bound herself, shall stand; and the LORD will forgive her, because her father opposed her.

6: And if she is married to a husband, while under her vows or any thoughtless utterance of her lips by which she has bound herself,

7: and her husband hears of it, and says nothing to her on the day that he hears; then her vows shall stand, and her pledges by which she has bound herself shall stand.

8: But if, on the day that her husband comes to hear of it, he expresses disapproval, then he shall make void her vow which was on her, and the thoughtless utterance of her lips, by which she bound herself; and the LORD will forgive her.

9: But any vow of a widow or of a divorced woman, anything by which she has bound herself, shall stand against her.

10: And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound herself by a pledge with an oath, 11: and her husband heard of it, and said nothing to her, and did not oppose her; then all her vows shall stand, and every pledge by which she bound herself shall stand.

12: But if her husband makes them null and void on the day that he hears them, then whatever proceeds out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning her pledge of herself, shall not stand: her husband has made them void, and the LORD will forgive her.

13: Any vow and any binding oath to afflict herself, her husband may establish, or her husband may make void.

14: But if her husband says nothing to her from day to day, then he establishes all her vows, or all her pledges, that are upon her; he has established them, because he said nothing to her on the day that he heard of them.

15: But if he makes them null and void after he has heard of them, then he shall bear her iniquity."

16: These are the statutes which the LORD commanded Moses, as between a man and his wife, and between a father and his daughter, while in her youth, within her father's house.

Chapter 31

Numbers, chapter 31

1: The LORD said to Moses,

2: "Avenge the people of Israel on the Mid'ianites; afterward you shall be gathered to your people."

3: And Moses said to the people, "Arm men from among you for the war, that they may go against Mid'ian, to execute the LORD's vengeance on Mid'ian.

v3: And Moses spoke to the people saying Mobilize men for war among you in order that you may attack Midian to execute the lord's vengeance on Midian

4: You shall send a thousand from each of the tribes of Israel to the war."

v4: you shall send to war 1000 from each tribe from all the tribes of Israel

5: So there were provided, out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand from each tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.

v5: therefore there war mobilized from the thousands of Israel in training 1000 from each tribe trained men for war

6: And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand from each tribe, together with Phin'ehas the son of Elea'zar the priest, with the vessels of the sanctuary and the trumpets for the alarm in his hand.

7: They warred against Mid'ian, as the LORD commanded Moses, and slew every male.

8: They slew the kings of Mid'ian with the rest of their slain, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Mid'ian; and they also slew Balaam the son of Be'or with the sword.

9: And the people of Israel took captive the women of Mid'ian and their little ones; and they took as booty all their cattle, their flocks, and all their goods.

10: All their cities in the places where they dwelt, and all their encampments, they burned with fire, 11: and took all the spoil and all the booty, both of man and of beast.

12: Then they brought the captives and the booty and the spoil to Moses, and to Elea'zar the priest, and to the congregation of the people of Israel, at the camp on the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.

13: Moses, and Elea'zar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation, went forth to meet them outside the camp.

14: And Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, who had come from service in the war.

15: Moses said to them, "Have you let all the women live?"

16: Behold, these caused the people of Israel, by the counsel of Balaam, to act treacherously against the LORD in the matter of Pe'or, and so the plague came among the congregation of the LORD.

17: Now therefore, kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known man by lying with him.

18: But all the young girls who have not known man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.

19: Encamp outside the camp seven days; whoever of you has killed any person, and whoever has touched any slain, purify yourselves and your captives on the third day and on the seventh day.

20: You shall purify every garment, every article of skin, all work of goats' hair, and every article of wood."

21: And Elea'zar the priest said to the men of war who had gone to battle: "This is the statute of the law which the LORD has commanded Moses:

22: only the gold, the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead,

23: everything that can stand the fire, you shall pass through the fire, and it shall be clean. Nevertheless it shall also be purified with the water of impurity; and whatever cannot stand the fire, you shall pass through the water.

24: You must wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you shall be clean; and afterward you shall come into the camp."

25: The LORD said to Moses,

26: "Take the count of the booty that was taken, both of man and of beast, you and Elea'zar the priest and the heads of the fathers' houses of the congregation;

27: and divide the booty into two parts, between the warriors who went out to battle and all the congregation.

28: And levy for the LORD a tribute from the men of war who went out to battle, one out of five hundred, of the persons and of the oxen and of the asses and of the flocks;

29: take it from their half, and give it to Elea'zar the priest as an offering to the LORD.

30: And from the people of Israel's half you shall take one drawn out of every fifty, of the persons, of the oxen, of the asses, and of the flocks, of all the cattle, and give them to the Levites who have charge of the tabernacle of the LORD."

31: And Moses and Elea'zar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

32: Now the booty remaining of the spoil that the men of war took was: six hundred and seventy-five thousand sheep,

33: seventy-two thousand cattle,

34: sixty-one thousand asses,

35: and thirty-two thousand persons in all, women who had not known man by lying with him.

36: And the half, the portion of those who had gone out to war, was in number three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep, 37: and the LORD's tribute of sheep was six hundred and seventy-five.

38: The cattle were thirty-six thousand, of which the LORD's tribute was seventy-two.

39: The asses were thirty thousand five hundred, of which the LORD's tribute was sixty-one.

40: The persons were sixteen thousand, of which the LORD's tribute was thirty-two persons.

41: And Moses gave the tribute, which was the offering for the LORD, to Elea'zar the priest, as the LORD commanded Moses.

42: From the people of Israel's half, which Moses separated from that of the men who had gone to war --

43: now the congregation's half was three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep,

44: thirty-six thousand cattle,

45: and thirty thousand five hundred asses,

46: and sixteen thousand persons --

47: from the people of Israel's half Moses took one of every fifty, both of persons and of beasts, and gave them to the Levites who had charge of the tabernacle of the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

48: Then the officers who were over the thousands of the army, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, came near to Moses,

49: and said to Moses, "Your servants have counted the men of war who are under our command, and there is not a man missing from us.

50: And we have brought the LORD's offering, what each man found, articles of gold, armlets and bracelets, signet rings, earrings, and beads, to make atonement for ourselves before the LORD."

51: And Moses and Elea'zar the priest received from them the gold, all wrought articles.

52: And all the gold of the offering that they offered to the LORD, from the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels.

53: (The men of war had taken booty, every man for himself.)

54: And Moses and Elea'zar the priest received the gold from the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tent of meeting, as a memorial for the people of Israel before the LORD.

1: Now the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad had a very great multitude of cattle; and they saw the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead, and behold, the place was a place for cattle.

2: So the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben came and said to Moses and to Elea'zar the priest and to the leaders of the congregation,

3: "At'aroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elea'leh, Sebam, Nebo, and Be'on,

4: the land which the LORD smote before the congregation of Israel, is a land for cattle; and your servants have cattle."

5: And they said, "If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants for a possession; do not take us across the Jordan."

6: But Moses said to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben, "Shall your brethren go to the war while you sit here?"

v6: But Moses said to the Men of Gad and to the men of Reuben who were still on the other side of the Jordan, "Shall your brethren go to the war while you sit here?"

7: Why will you discourage the heart of the people of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD has given them?

v7: Now you are discouraging the sons of Israel from crossing over into the land which the LORD has given them?

8: Thus did your fathers, when I sent them from Ka'desh-bar'nea to see the land.

9: For when they went up to the Valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the people of Israel from going into the land which the LORD had given them.

10: And the LORD's anger was kindled on that day, and he swore, saying,

11: `Surely none of the men who came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, because they have not wholly followed me;

12: none except Caleb the son of Jephun'neh the Ken'izzite and Joshua the son of Nun, for they have wholly followed the LORD.'

13: And the LORD's anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the sight of the LORD was consumed.

14: And behold, you have risen in your fathers' stead, a brood of sinful men, to increase still more the fierce anger of the LORD against Israel!

v14: Now behold you have risen up in your fathers place a brood of sinful men to add still more to the burning anger of the Lord against Israel.

15: For if you turn away from following him, he will again abandon them in the wilderness; and you will destroy all this people."

16: Then they came near to him, and said, "We will build sheepfolds here for our flocks, and cities for our little ones, 17: but we will take up arms, ready to go before the people of Israel, until we have brought them to their place; and our little ones shall live in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land.

18: We will not return to our homes until the people of Israel have inherited each his inheritance.

19: For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond; because our inheritance has come to us on this side of the Jordan to the east."

20: So Moses said to them, "If you will do this, if you will take up arms to go before the LORD for the war, v20: So Moses said to them, "If you will do this thing, and if you will still arm yourselves to go before the LORD for the war,

21: and every armed man of you will pass over the Jordan before the LORD, until he has driven out his enemies from before him

22: and the land is subdued before the LORD; then after that you shall return and be free of obligation to the LORD and to Israel; and this land shall be your possession before the LORD.

23: But if you will not do so, behold, you have sinned against the LORD; and be sure your sin will find you out.

v23: But if you draft dodgers will not mobilize for war and refuse military training, behold, you have sinned against the LORD; and be sure your sin will find you out and you will lose freedom.

24: Build cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do what you have promised."

25: And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben said to Moses, "Your servants will do as my lord commands.

26: Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our cattle, shall remain there in the cities of Gilead;

27: but your servants will pass over, every man who is armed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord orders."

28: So Moses gave command concerning them to Elea'zar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the people of Israel.

29: And Moses said to them, "If the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben, every man who is armed to battle before the LORD, will pass with you over the Jordan and the land shall be subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession;

30: but if they will not pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan."

31: And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben answered, "As the LORD has said to your servants, so we will do.

32: We will pass over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, and the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us beyond the Jordan."

33: And Moses gave to them, to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben and to the half-tribe of Manas'seh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land and its cities with their territories, the cities of the land throughout the country.

34: And the sons of Gad built Dibon, At'aroth, Aro'er, 35: At'roth-sho'phan, Jazer, Jog'behah,

36: Beth-nim'rah and Beth-har'an, fortified cities, and folds for sheep.

- 37: And the sons of Reuben built Heshbon, Elea'leh, Kiriatha'im, 38: Nebo, and Ba'al-me'on (their names to be changed), and Sibmah; and they gave other names to the cities which they built.
 39: And the sons of Machir the son of Manas'seh went to Gilead and took it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were in it.
 40: And Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manas'seh, and he settled in it.
 41: And Ja'ir the son of Manas'seh went and took their villages, and called them Hav'voth-ja'ir.
 42: And Nobah went and took Kenath and its villages, and called it Nobah, after his own name.

Chapter 33

Numbers, chapter 33

- 1: These are the stages of the people of Israel, when they went forth out of the land of Egypt by their hosts under the leadership of Moses and Aaron.
 2: Moses wrote down their starting places, stage by stage, by command of the LORD; and these are their stages according to their starting places.
 3: They set out from Ram'eses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the day after the passover the people of Israel went out triumphantly in the sight of all the Egyptians,
 4: while the Egyptians were burying all their first-born, whom the LORD had struck down among them; upon their gods also the LORD executed judgments.

Num 33:4

v4: While the Egyptians were burying all their first-born, whom the LORD had struck down among them; The Lord had also executed judgment on their demons.

- 5: So the people of Israel set out from Ram'eses, and encamped at Succoth.
 6: And they set out from Succoth, and encamped at Etham, which is on the edge of the wilderness.
 7: And they set out from Etham, and turned back to Pi-hahi'roth, which is east of Ba'al-ze'phon; and they encamped before Migdol.
 8: And they set out from before Hahi'roth, and passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness, and they went a three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham, and encamped at Marah.
 9: And they set out from Marah, and came to Elim; at Elim there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees, and they encamped there.
 10: And they set out from Elim, and encamped by the Red Sea.
 11: And they set out from the Red Sea, and encamped in the wilderness of Sin.
 12: And they set out from the wilderness of Sin, and encamped at Dophkah.
 13: And they set out from Dophkah, and encamped at Alush.
 14: And they set out from Alush, and encamped at Reph'idim, where there was no water for the people to drink.
 15: And they set out from Reph'idim, and encamped in the wilderness of Sinai.
 16: And they set out from the wilderness of Sinai, and encamped at Kib'roth-hatta'avah.
 17: And they set out from Kib'roth-hatta'avah, and encamped at Haze'roth.
 18: And they set out from Haze'roth, and encamped at Rithmah.
 19: And they set out from Rithmah, and encamped at Rim'mon-per'ez.
 20: And they set out from Rim'mon-per'ez, and encamped at Libnah.
 21: And they set out from Libnah, and encamped at Rissah.
 22: And they set out from Rissah, and encamped at Kehela'thah.
 23: And they set out from Kehela'thah, and encamped at Mount Shepher.
 24: And they set out from Mount Shepher, and encamped at Hara'dah.
 25: And they set out from Hara'dah, and encamped at Makhe'loth.
 26: And they set out from Makhe'loth, and encamped at Tahath.
 27: And they set out from Tahath, and encamped at Terah.
 28: And they set out from Terah, and encamped at Mithkah.
 29: And they set out from Mithkah, and encamped at Hashmo'nah.
 30: And they set out from Hashmo'nah, and encamped at Mose'roth.
 31: And they set out from Mose'roth, and encamped at Bene-ja'akan.
 32: And they set out from Bene-ja'akan, and encamped at Hor-haggid'gad.
 33: And they set out from Hor-haggid'gad, and encamped at Jot'bathah.
 34: And they set out from Jot'bathah, and encamped at Abro'nah.
 35: And they set out from Abro'nah, and encamped at E'zion-ge'ber.
 36: And they set out from E'zion-ge'ber, and encamped in the wilderness of Zin (that is, Kadesh).
 37: And they set out from Kadesh, and encamped at Mount Hor, on the edge of the land of Edom.
 38: And Aaron the priest went up Mount Hor at the command of the LORD, and died there, in the fortieth year after the people of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, on the first day of the fifth month.
 39: And Aaron was a hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.
 40: And the Canaanite, the king of Arad, who dwelt in the Negeb in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the people of Israel.

41: And they set out from Mount Hor, and encamped at Zalmo'nah.
 42: And they set out from Zalmo'nah, and encamped at Punon.
 43: And they set out from Punon, and encamped at Oboth.
 44: And they set out from Oboth, and encamped at I'ye-ab'arim, in the territory of Moab.
 45: And they set out from I'yim, and encamped at Dibon-gad.
 46: And they set out from Dibon-gad, and encamped at Al'mon-diblatha'im.
 47: And they set out from Al'mon-diblatha'im, and encamped in the mountains of Ab'arim, before Nebo.
 48: And they set out from the mountains of Ab'arim, and encamped in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho;
 49: they encamped by the Jordan from Beth-jes'himoth as far as Abel-shittim in the plains of Moab.
 50: And the LORD said to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho,
 51: "Say to the people of Israel, When you pass over the Jordan into the land of Canaan,
 52: then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their figured stones, and destroy all their molten images, and demolish all their high places;
 53: and you shall take possession of the land and settle in it, for I have given the land to you to possess it.
 54: You shall inherit the land by lot according to your families; to a large tribe you shall give a large inheritance, and to a small tribe you shall give a small inheritance; wherever the lot falls to any man, that shall be his; according to the tribes of your fathers you shall inherit.
 55: But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then those of them whom you let remain shall be as pricks in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and they shall trouble you in the land where you dwell.
 56: And I will do to you as I thought to do to them."

Chapter 34 Numbers, chapter 34

1: The LORD said to Moses,
 2: "Command the people of Israel, and say to them, When you enter the land of Canaan (this is the land that shall fall to you for an inheritance, the land of Canaan in its full extent),
 3: your south side shall be from the wilderness of Zin along the side of Edom, and your southern boundary shall be from the end of the Salt Sea on the east;
 4: and your boundary shall turn south of the ascent of Akrab'bim, and cross to Zin, and its end shall be south of Ka'desh-bar'nea; then it shall go on to Ha'zar-ad'dar, and pass along to Azmon;
 5: and the boundary shall turn from Azmon to the Brook of Egypt, and its termination shall be at the sea.
 6: "For the western boundary, you shall have the Great Sea and its coast; this shall be your western boundary.
 7: "This shall be your northern boundary: from the Great Sea you shall mark out your line to Mount Hor;
 8: from Mount Hor you shall mark it out to the entrance of Hamath, and the end of the boundary shall be at Zeded;
 9: then the boundary shall extend to Ziphron, and its end shall be at Ha'zar-e'nan; this shall be your northern boundary.
 10: "You shall mark out your eastern boundary from Ha'zar-e'nan to Shepham;
 11: and the boundary shall go down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of A'in; and the boundary shall go down, and reach to the shoulder of the sea of Chin'nereth on the east;
 12: and the boundary shall go down to the Jordan, and its end shall be at the Salt Sea. This shall be your land with its boundaries all round."
 13: Moses commanded the people of Israel, saying, "This is the land which you shall inherit by lot, which the LORD has commanded to give to the nine tribes and to the half-tribe;
 14: for the tribe of the sons of Reuben by fathers' houses and the tribe of the sons of Gad by their fathers' houses have received their inheritance, and also the half-tribe of Manas'seh;
 15: the two tribes and the half-tribe have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, toward the sunrise."
 16: The LORD said to Moses,
 17: "These are the names of the men who shall divide the land to you for inheritance: Elea'zar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun.
 18: You shall take one leader of every tribe, to divide the land for inheritance.
 19: These are the names of the men: Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephun'neh.
 20: Of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, Shemu'el the son of Ammi'hud.
 21: Of the tribe of Benjamin, Eli'dad the son of Chislon.
 22: Of the tribe of the sons of Dan a leader, Bukki the son of Jogli.
 23: Of the sons of Joseph: of the tribe of the sons of Manas'seh a leader, Han'niel the son of Ephod.
 24: And of the tribe of the sons of E'phraim a leader, Kemu'el the son of Shiphtan.
 25: Of the tribe of the sons of Zeb'ulun a leader, Eli-za'phan the son of Parnach.
 26: Of the tribe of the sons of Is'sachar a leader, Pal'tiel the son of Azzan.
 27: And of the tribe of the sons of Asher a leader, Ahi'hud the son of Shelo'mi.
 28: Of the tribe of the sons of Naph'tali a leader, Pedah'el the son of Ammi'hud.
 29: These are the men whom the LORD commanded to divide the inheritance for the people of Israel in the land of Canaan."

Chapter 35
Numbers, chapter 35

- 1: The LORD said to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho,
2: "Command the people of Israel, that they give to the Levites, from the inheritance of their possession, cities to dwell in; and you shall give to the Levites pasture lands round about the cities.
3: The cities shall be theirs to dwell in, and their pasture lands shall be for their cattle and for their livestock and for all their beasts.
4: The pasture lands of the cities, which you shall give to the Levites, shall reach from the wall of the city outward a thousand cubits all round.
5: And you shall measure, outside the city, for the east side two thousand cubits, and for the south side two thousand cubits, and for the west side two thousand cubits, and for the north side two thousand cubits, the city being in the middle; this shall belong to them as pasture land for their cities.
6: The cities which you give to the Levites shall be the six cities of refuge, where you shall permit the manslayer to flee, and in addition to them you shall give forty-two cities.
7: All the cities which you give to the Levites shall be forty-eight, with their pasture lands.
8: And as for the cities which you shall give from the possession of the people of Israel, from the larger tribes you shall take many, and from the smaller tribes you shall take few; each, in proportion to the inheritance which it inherits, shall give of its cities to the Levites."
9: And the LORD said to Moses,
10: "Say to the people of Israel, When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan, 11: then you shall select cities to be cities of refuge for you, that the manslayer who kills any person without intent may flee there.
12: The cities shall be for you a refuge from the avenger, that the manslayer may not die until he stands before the congregation for judgment.
13: And the cities which you give shall be your six cities of refuge.
14: You shall give three cities beyond the Jordan, and three cities in the land of Canaan, to be cities of refuge.
15: These six cities shall be for refuge for the people of Israel, and for the stranger and for the sojourner among them, that any one who kills any person without intent may flee there.
16: "But if he struck him down with an instrument of iron, so that he died, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.
v16: "If a man strikes someone with an iron object or weapon such as an axe, sword, spear or hammer, so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.
17: And if he struck him down with a stone in the hand, by which a man may die, and he died, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.
v17: Or if anyone has a stone in his hand that could kill and he strikes someone so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.
18: Or if he struck him down with a weapon of wood in the hand, by which a man may die, and he died, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.
v18: Or if anyone has a wooden weapon in his hand such as a club, staff, spear, etc, that could kill and he strikes someone so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.
19: The avenger of blood shall himself put the murderer to death; when he meets him, he shall put him to death.
v19: The avenger of blood shall himself put the murderer to death; when he meets him, he, the avenger of blood, shall emphatically put him, the murderer, to death.
20: And if he stabbed him from hatred, or hurled at him, lying in wait, so that he died, 21: or in enmity struck him down with his hand, so that he died, then he who struck the blow shall be put to death; he is a murderer; the avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death, when he meets him.
22: "But if he stabbed him suddenly without enmity, or hurled anything on him without lying in wait,
23: or used a stone, by which a man may die, and without seeing him cast it upon him, so that he died, though he was not his enemy, and did not seek his harm;
24: then the congregation shall judge between the manslayer and the avenger of blood, in accordance with these ordinances;
25: and the congregation shall rescue the manslayer from the hand of the avenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to his city of refuge, to which he had fled, and he shall live in it until the death of the high priest who was anointed with the holy oil.
26: But if the manslayer shall at any time go beyond the bounds of his city of refuge to which he fled,
27: and the avenger of blood finds him outside the bounds of his city of refuge, and the avenger of blood slays the manslayer, he shall not be guilty of blood.
28: For the man must remain in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest; but after the death of the high priest the manslayer may return to the land of his possession.
29: "And these things shall be for a statute and ordinance to you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.
30: If any one kills a person, the murderer shall be put to death on the evidence of witnesses; but no person shall be put to death on the testimony of one witness.

Num 35:30

v30: If anyone kills a person the murderer shall be put to death on the evidence of witnesses, however no person shall be put to death on the evidence of one person.

31: Moreover you shall accept no ransom for the life of a murderer, who is guilty of death; but he shall be put to death.

Num 35:31

v31: furthermore you will not take a ransom payment or bribe for the life of a murderer who is guilty of death but he shall definitely be put to death.

32: And you shall accept no ransom for him who has fled to his city of refuge, that he may return to dwell in the land before the death of the high priest.

33: You shall not thus pollute the land in which you live; for blood pollutes the land, and no expiation can be made for the land, for the blood that is shed in it, except by the blood of him who shed it.

34: You shall not defile the land in which you live, in the midst of which I dwell; for I the LORD dwell in the midst of the people of Israel."

Chapter 36

Numbers, chapter 36

1: The heads of the fathers' houses of the families of the sons of Gilead the son of Machir, son of Manas'seh, of the fathers' houses of the sons of Joseph, came near and spoke before Moses and before the leaders, the heads of the fathers' houses of the people of Israel;

2: they said, "The LORD commanded my lord to give the land for inheritance by lot to the people of Israel; and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zeloph'ehad our brother to his daughters.

3: But if they are married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the people of Israel then their inheritance will be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they belong; so it will be taken away from the lot of our inheritance.

4: And when the jubilee of the people of Israel comes, then their inheritance will be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they belong; and their inheritance will be taken from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers."

5: And Moses commanded the people of Israel according to the word of the LORD, saying, "The tribe of the sons of Joseph is right.

6: This is what the LORD commands concerning the daughters of Zeloph'ehad, 'Let them marry whom they think best; only, they shall marry within the family of the tribe of their father.

7: The inheritance of the people of Israel shall not be transferred from one tribe to another; for every one of the people of Israel shall cleave to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8: And every daughter who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the people of Israel shall be wife to one of the family of the tribe of her father, so that every one of the people of Israel may possess the inheritance of his fathers.

9: So no inheritance shall be transferred from one tribe to another; for each of the tribes of the people of Israel shall cleave to its own inheritance."

10: The daughters of Zeloph'ehad did as the LORD commanded Moses;

11: for Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zeloph'ehad, were married to sons of their father's brothers.

12: They were married into the families of the sons of Manas'seh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

13: These are the commandments and the ordinances which the LORD commanded by Moses to the people of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.

The Book of Obadiah

Chapter 1

Obadiah, chapter 1

1: The vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning Edom; We have heard a rumour from the Lord, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

2: Behold, I will make you small among the nations, you shall be utterly despised.

3: The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rock, whose dwelling is high, who say in your heart, "Who will bring me down to the ground?"

4: Though you soar aloft like the eagle, though your nest is set among the stars, thence I will bring you down, says the LORD.

5: If thieves came to you, if plunderers by night -- how you have been destroyed! -- would they not steal only enough for themselves? If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave gleanings?

6: How Esau has been pillaged, his treasures sought out!

7: All your allies have deceived you, they have driven you to the border; your confederates have prevailed against you; your trusted friends have set a trap under you -- there is no understanding of it.

8: Will I not on that day, says the LORD, destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of Mount Esau?

9: And your mighty men shall be dismayed, O Teman, so that every man from Mount Esau will be cut off by slaughter.

10: For the violence done to your brother Jacob, shame shall cover you, and you shall be cut off for ever.

11: On the day that you stood aloof, on the day that strangers carried off his wealth, and foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem, you were like one of them.

12: But you should not have gloated over the day of your brother in the day of his misfortune; you should not have rejoiced over the people of Judah in the day of their ruin; you should not have boasted in the day of distress.

13: You should not have entered the gate of my people in the day of his calamity; you should not have gloated over his disaster in the day of his calamity; you should not have looted his goods in the day of his calamity.

14: You should not have stood at the parting of the ways to cut off his fugitives; you should not have delivered up his survivors in the day of distress.

15: For the day of the LORD is near upon all the nations. As you have done, it shall be done to you, your deeds shall return on your own head.

16: For as you have drunk upon my holy mountain, all the nations round about shall drink; they shall drink, and stagger, and shall be as though they had not been.

17: But in Mount Zion there shall be those that escape, and it shall be holy; and the house of Jacob shall possess their own possessions.

18: The house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau stubble; they shall burn them and consume them, and there shall be no survivor to the house of Esau; for the LORD has spoken.

19: Those of the Negeb shall possess Mount Esau, and those of the Shephe'lah the land of the Philistines; they shall possess the land of E'phraim and the land of Sama'ria and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.

20: The exiles in Halah who are of the people of Israel shall possess Phoenicia as far as Zar'ephath; and the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sephar'ad shall possess the cities of the Negeb.

21: Saviors shall go up to Mount Zion to rule Mount Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

Proverbs

Chapter 1

Proverbs, chapter 1

1: The proverbs of Solomon, son of David, king of Israel:

2: That men may know wisdom and instruction, understand words of insight,

3: receive instruction in wise dealing, righteousness, justice, and equity;

v3: To receive through the function of the Grace Apparatus for Perception doctrinal instruction of prosperity via mature Adjustment to the Justice of God, justice (blessing) or judgment (cursing) but always with integrity.

4: that prudence may be given to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the youth --

5: the wise man also may hear and increase in learning, and the man of understanding acquire skill,

6: to understand a proverb and a figure, the words of the wise and their riddles.

7: The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.

8: Hear, my son, your father's instruction, and reject not your mother's teaching;

9: for they are a fair garland for your head, and pendants for your neck.

10: My son, if sinners entice you, do not consent.

v10: My son, if sinners or criminals entice you, do not be willing tell them NO.

11: If they say, "Come with us, let us lie in wait for blood, let us wantonly ambush the innocent;

v11: If they say, "Come with us, let us lie in wait ambush for blood, let us ambush to rob or murder the innocent without a cause;

12: like Sheol let us swallow them alive and whole, like those who go down to the Pit;

v12: Let us swallow them alive like Sheol even the grave entirely, like those who go down to the Pit;

13: we shall find all precious goods, we shall fill our houses with spoil;

v13: we shall find all kinds of fabulous wealth and precious goods, we shall fill our houses with spoil;

14: throw in your lot among us, we will all have one purse" --

v14: throw in your lot with us, we will all have one purse

15: my son, do not walk in the way with them, hold back your foot from their paths;

v15: my son, do not walk in the way of them, keep your feet from their paths;

16: for their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed blood.

v16: for their feet shall run to evil of crime combined with sin, and they shall hasten to shed blood.

17: For in vain is a net spread in the sight of any bird;

v17: It is obviously to useless to spread a net in the sight of any bird so avoid them;

18: but these men lie in wait for their own blood, they set an ambush for their own lives.

v18: but these men lie in wait, they ambush their own blood, they set an ambush their own lives.

19: Such are the ways of all who get gain by violence; it takes away the life of its possessors.

v19: Such are the lot of those gain by violence; it takes away the life of its owners.

20: Wisdom cries aloud in the street; in the markets she raises her voice;

21: on the top of the walls she cries out; at the entrance of the city gates she speaks:

22: "How long, O simple ones, will you love being simple? How long will scoffers delight in their scoffing and fools hate knowledge?

23: Give heed to my reproof; behold, I will pour out my thoughts to you; I will make my words known to you.

24: Because I have called and you refused to listen, have stretched out my hand and no one has heeded,

Prov 1:24

v24: Because I, Bible Doctrine, have called and you refused to listen under Negative Volition, I have stretched out my hand and no one paid attention

25: and you have ignored all my counsel and would have none of my reproof,

Prov 1:25

v25: and you have neglected all my counsel and common sense and did not want my reproof,

26: I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when panic strikes you,

Prov 1:26

v26: therefore I also will even laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your dread, adversity, disaster, terrorism, Discipline comes in panic

27: when panic strikes you like a storm, and your calamity comes like a whirlwind, when distress and anguish come upon you.

Prov 1:27

v27: when your dread or discipline comes like a whirlwind or hurricane storm, and your calamity comes on like a whirlwind or hurricane, when distress and anguish come on you.

28: Then they will call upon me, but I will not answer; they will seek me diligently but will not find me.

Prov 1:28

v28: Then they will call on me (Bible Doctrine from GOD), but I will not answer them; they will seek me diligently but I shall not find them.

29: Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD,

Prov 1:29

v29: Because they hated knowledge of Bible Doctrine and did not choose the respect of the LORD Jehovah,

30: would have none of my counsel, and despised all my reproof, v30: They would not accept my common sense of Bible Doctrine and spurned all of my reproof, 31: therefore they shall eat the fruit of their way and be sated with their own devices.

v31: therefore they shall eat the fruit of their own way and be sated with their own devices.

32: For the simple are killed by their turning away, and the complacency of fools destroys them;

v32: For the reversion of the stupid will kill them in the Sin Unto Death and the complacency of fools shall destroy them;

33: but he who listens to me will dwell secure and will be at ease, without dread of evil."

Prov 1:33

v33: But he who listens to Bible Doctrine will live in security and be at ease from danger or dread of evil.

Chapter 2

Proverbs, chapter 2

1: My son, if you receive my words and treasure up my commandments with you,

2: making your ear attentive to wisdom and inclining your heart to understanding;

Prov 2:2

v2: Make your ear to concentrate on wisdom, apply your Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul to understanding

3: yes, if you cry out for insight and raise your voice for understanding,

4: if you seek it like silver and search for it as for hidden treasures;

5: then you will understand the fear of the LORD and find the knowledge of God.

6: For the LORD gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding;

7: he stores up sound wisdom for the upright; he is a shield to those who walk in integrity,

Prov 2:7

v7: He stores up sound wisdom for the upright, he is a shield to those who walk in integrity

8: guarding the paths of justice and preserving the way of his saints.

9: Then you will understand righteousness and justice and equity, every good path;

10: for wisdom will come into your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul;

Prov 2:10

v10: For wisdom or Bible Doctrine will enter your Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, and knowledge of Bible Doctrine will be pleasant in your soul ( Superabundance of Happiness )

11: discretion will watch over you; understanding will guard you;

Prov 2:11

v11: application of Bible Doctrine will guard you, Understanding of Bible Doctrine will watch or mount guard over you,

12: delivering you from the way of evil, from men of perverted speech,

Prov 2:12

v12: to deliver you from the way of evil, from the person who speaks distorted things,

13: who forsake the paths of uprightness to walk in the ways of darkness,

Prov 2:13

v13: from those who leave the path of the righteous in reversionism to walk in the way of darkness (Blackout of the Soul)

14: who rejoice in doing evil and delight in the perverseness of evil;

Prov 2:14

v14: who delight in doing evil and find happiness in distortion of evil

15: men whose paths are crooked, and who are devious in their ways.

16: You will be saved from the loose woman, from the adventuress with her smooth words,

17: who forsakes the companion of her youth and forgets the covenant of her God;

18: for her house sinks down to death, and her paths to the shades;

19: none who go to her come back nor do they regain the paths of life.

20: So you will walk in the way of good men and keep to the paths of the righteous.

21: For the upright will inhabit the land, and men of integrity will remain in it;

22: but the wicked will be cut off from the land, and the treacherous will be rooted out of it.

Chapter 3

Proverbs, chapter 3

1: My son, do not forget my teaching, but let your heart keep my commandments;

v1: My (David's) son Solomon, do not forget my teaching or doctrine, but let your Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul keep my commandments;

2: for length of days and years of life and abundant welfare will they give you.

v2: for length of days and long life and inner happiness or prosperity will they give you.

3: Let not loyalty and faithfulness forsake you; bind them about your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart.

v3: Let not mercy or grace in action and truth of doctrine leave you; bind them about your neck or carry it with you constantly, write them on the tablet of your Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul as Metabolized Bible Doctrine .

4: So you will find favor and good repute in the sight of God and man.

v4: So you will find grace and good understanding of the Will of God in the sight of God and man.

5: Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight.

v5: Trust in the LORD with all your Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, and do not rely on your own Human Viewpoint understanding.

6: In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.

v6: In all your ways acknowledge him through growing in grace and Metabolized Bible Doctrine, and therefore he will direct your paths.

7: Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD, and turn away from evil.

Prov 3:7

v7: Do not be wise in your own eyes be occupied with the lord and therefore turn away from Evil.

8: It will be healing to your flesh and refreshment to your bones.

9: Honor the LORD with your substance and with the first fruits of all your produce;

Prov 3:9

v9: Honor the LORD with your wealth and from the first of all your production;

10: then your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will be bursting with wine.

11: My son, do not despise the LORD's discipline or be weary of his reproof, 12: for the LORD reproves him whom he loves, as a father the son in whom he delights.

13: Happy is the man who finds wisdom, and the man who gets understanding, v13: How basically happy is the man or person who finds doctrine and wisdom from doctrine in the Right Lobe Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, and the man who gains understanding with Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Frame of Reference.

Prov 3:13

14: for the gain from it is better than gain from silver and its profit better than gold.

v14: for the profit from Bible Doctrine is better than the profit from silver and her gain is greater than the gain from gold.

15: She is more precious than jewels, and nothing you desire can compare with her.

v15: She, Bible Doctrine, is more precious than jewels, and nothing you desire can compare with her.

16: Long life is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honor.

v16: Long life or length of days is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honor.

17: Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

v17: Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are prosperity.

18: She is a tree of life to those who lay hold of her; those who hold her fast are called happy.

19: The LORD by wisdom founded the earth; by understanding he established the heavens;

20: by his knowledge the deeps broke forth, and the clouds drop down the dew.
 21: My son, keep sound wisdom and discretion; let them not escape from your sight, 22: and they will be life for your soul and adornment for your neck.
 23: Then you will walk on your way securely and your foot will not stumble.
 24: If you sit down, you will not be afraid; when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.
 25: Do not be afraid of sudden panic, or of the ruin of the wicked, when it comes;
 26: for the LORD will be your confidence and will keep your foot from being caught.
 27: Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to do it.
 28: Do not say to your neighbor, "Go, and come again, tomorrow I will give it" -- when you have it with you.
 29: Do not plan evil against your neighbor who dwells trustingly beside you.
 30: Do not contend with a man for no reason, when he has done you no harm.
 31: Do not envy a man of violence and do not choose any of his ways;
 32: for the perverse man is an abomination to the LORD, but the upright are in his confidence.
 33: The LORD's curse is on the house of the wicked, but he blesses the abode of the righteous.
v33: The curse of the LORD's is on the house of Evil (Sin + Arrogance or Human Good + Arrogance == Evil), but he blesses the dwelling with Logistical Grace and super-grace where there is the imputed Righteousness of God.
 34: Toward the scorners he is scornful, but to the humble he shows favor.
v34: He, the Lord, mocks or ridicules the arrogant scoffer, but he gives grace to the humble believer.
 35: The wise will inherit honor, but fools get disgrace.
v35: The wise who reaches Spiritual Maturity will inherit honor in super-grace blessings, but fools who are in Interlocking System of Arrogance and Negative Volition to Bible Doctrine carry away dishonor and shame bringing life to ruin and misery.

Chapter 4
 Proverbs, chapter 4

1: Hear, O sons, a father's instruction, and be attentive, that you may gain insight;
Prov 4:1-
v1: Hear, Oh students, the Bible Doctrine teaching of a father or teacher, and concentrate in order that you may know Bible Doctrine.
 2: for I give you good precepts: do not forsake my teaching.
v2: for I give you sound teaching therefore do not abandon my Bible Doctrine.
 3: When I was a son with my father, tender, the only one in the sight of my mother, v3: When I was a student to my father, tender and teachable, an only son in the sight of my mother, 4: he taught me, and said to me, "Let your heart hold fast my words; keep my commandments, and live;
v4: Then he taught me, and said to me, "Let your Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul hold onto my words; guard my categorical doctrines and live;
 5: do not forget, and do not turn away from the words of my mouth. Get wisdom; get insight.
v5: Acquire wisdom from Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, acquire understanding for application of Bible Doctrine do not forget, and do not turn away from the words of my mouth.
 6: Do not forsake her, and she will keep you; love her, and she will guard you.
v6: Do not forsake her, and she will keep you; love her, and she will guard you.
 7: The beginning of wisdom is this: Get wisdom, and whatever you get, get insight.
v7: The primary thing in life is wisdom from Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul. Acquire wisdom, and with all your acquiring get understanding for application of Bible Doctrine.
 8: Prize her highly, and she will exalt you; she will honor you if you embrace her.
v8: Prize and embrace her, Bible Doctrine, highly, and she will promote you; she will honor you if you embrace her.
 9: She will place on your head a fair garland; she will bestow on you a beautiful crown."
v9: She, Bible Doctrine, will place on your head a decoration or garland of grace; she will deliver to you or present to you The beautiful crown of Glory, the highest decoration for the believer in Maturity Adjustment to the Justice of God."
 10: Hear, my son, and accept my words, that the years of your life may be many.
 11: I have taught you the way of wisdom; I have led you in the paths of uprightness.
 12: When you walk, your step will not be hampered; and if you run, you will not stumble.
 13: Keep hold of instruction, do not let go; guard her, for she is your life.
 14: Do not enter the path of the wicked, and do not walk in the way of evil men.
 15: Avoid it; do not go on it; turn away from it and pass on.
 16: For they cannot sleep unless they have done wrong; they are robbed of sleep unless they have made some one stumble.
 17: For they eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.
 18: But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, which shines brighter and brighter until full day.
 19: The way of the wicked is like deep darkness; they do not know over what they stumble.
 20: My son, be attentive to my words; incline your ear to my sayings.

21: Let them not escape from your sight; keep them within your heart.
22: For they are life to him who finds them, and healing to all his flesh.
23: Keep your heart with all vigilance; for from it flow the springs of life.
24: Put away from you crooked speech, and put devious talk far from you.
25: Let your eyes look directly forward, and your gaze be straight before you.
26: Take heed to the path of your feet, then all your ways will be sure.
27: Do not swerve to the right or to the left; turn your foot away from evil.

Chapter 5
Proverbs, chapter 5

1: My son, be attentive to my wisdom, incline your ear to my understanding;

Prov 5:1

v1: My Son or Student, Solomon or any student, concentrate on my doctrine, extend your ear to concentrate on what is communicated, my understanding,

2: that you may keep discretion, and your lips may guard knowledge.

Prov 5:1

v2: that you may guard against feminine divisiveness or contrivance, as for knowledge of Bible Doctrine that your lips may guard it.

3: For the lips of a loose woman drip honey, and her speech is smoother than oil;

Prov 5:3

v3: For distilled honey or intoxicating sweetness drips from the lips of her who is reversionistic, and smoother or more flattering than scented oil or perfume on the body, is the inside of her mouth;

4: but in the end she is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword.

Prov 5:4

v4: but the entanglement with her becomes bitter like wormwood or alcoholic absent as sharp two edged sword.

5: Her feet go down to death; her steps follow the path to Sheol;

Prov 5:5

v5: Her seductive feet are going down to the sin unto death, her sexy mincing steps take hold on or embrace the Grave which is the last one she lies with. (her Future the Sin unto death)

6: she does not take heed to the path of life; her ways wander, and she does not know it.

v6: perhaps you should consider also her manner of Lives and instability and unfaithfulness in multiple dating; she has many lovers and is unstable and is unfaithful socially and sexually, her manner of life wavers back and forth, you do not really know or understand her.

7: And now, O sons, listen to me, and do not depart from the words of my mouth.

Prov 5:7

v7: Listen to me my sons or students and do not depart nor deviate from the words of my mouth (this is doctrine)

8: Keep your way far from her, and do not go near the door of her house;

Prov 5:8

v8: Remove your Sex life from her and do not come near the door of her house,

9: lest you give your honor to others and your years to the merciless;

Prov 5:9

v9: Lest you give your glory of God's provision of Cat 2 Love to the fakers and pseudo persons, and your years of sexual vigor to the vindictive.

10: lest strangers take their fill of your strength, and your labors go to the house of an alien;

Prov 5:10

v10 Lest promiscuous women become satiated with your vigor in sexual performance, your human male body is shattered in a whore house,

11: and at the end of your life you groan, when your flesh and body are consumed, v11: and in distress you groan at your end when your bodies general health and your sexual health and phallus are ruined from venereal disease or soul destruction from fornication.

12: and you say, "How I hated discipline, and my heart despised reproof!"

Prov 5:12

v12: And you say Eeek (an expression of disaster) "I have hated divine disciplinary warning from Bible Doctrine teaching and my right lobe has despised and ridiculing corrective punishment from warning divine discipline from God, 13: I did not listen to the voice of my teachers or incline my ear to my instructors.

(David as a SG believer was also Carnal and PS 38 is his discipline, but Solomon was a Reversionist under the influence of Evil, both suffered but Solomon's was much more intense Ps 38 vs Eccl + Song Sol.)

v13: Furthermore I have not listened, I have not obeyed the voice of my doctrinal teachers instructors (his father & Nathan), nor concentrated on their instructions, message of those who have faithfully taught me. (Negative Volition toward

Bible Doctrine)

14: I was at the point of utter ruin in the assembled congregation."

v14: then shortly I was almost immediately in every kinds of evil ignoring Bible Doctrine in the middle of the worshipping congregation not listening to Bible Doctrine in the function of the nation and Laws of Divine Establishment.

15: Drink water from your own cistern, flowing water from your own well.

Prov 5:15

v15: Drink waters of pleasure in many sexual encounters with or from your own isolated Right Woman, (covered cistern) and flowing waters of magnificent sexual response from your own well your Right Woman.

16: Should your springs be scattered abroad, streams of water in the streets?

Prov 5:16

v16: Let your fountains the satisfying Sex acts be for only your right woman, and not overflow to the reversionistic promiscuous women; Your fountains of satisfying sex ability with your Right Woman shall not overflow to the dividing of waters in the streets with many promiscuous women (Male is not designed for many women)]

17: Let them be for yourself alone, and not for strangers with you.

v17: Let them the sex acts be for your one and only Right Woman alone, and not for a reversionistic promiscuous woman.

18: Let your fountain be blessed, and rejoice in the wife of your youth,

Prov 5:18

v18: Your fountain or sex life will be permanently blessed as an extension of Cat II Love, therefore take pleasure in your Right Woman the woman of your vigor.

19: a lovely hind, a graceful doe. Let her affection fill you at all times with delight, be infatuated always with her love.

Prov 5:19 (description of the RW)

v19: Who is an amorous sexy symmetrical female conforming perfectly to you in the physical relationship of body with the existing coalescence of soul, a wild she goat or a vigorously sexual woman given you in grace, her breasts will intoxicate you at all times, you will always wander up and down her body in the area of her love.

20: Why should you be infatuated, my son, with a loose woman and embrace the bosom of an adventuress?

Prov 5:20

v20: So why my son or student should you wander up and down the body of a promiscuous woman or embrace the genitals of a nymphomaniac?

21: For a man's ways are before the eyes of the LORD, and he watches all his paths.

Prov 5:21

v21: Before the eyes of the lord are the ways of a promiscuous male rejecting Cat 2 Love, and he weighs in the scales (RW balances the scales) all his tracks of fornications, 22: The iniquities of the wicked ensnare him, and he is caught in the toils of his sin.

Prov 5:22

v22: His own perversities and reversionism in rejection of the Right Woman will trap him with the reversionistic females, furthermore he will be seized and bound with chains of his own feminine idols, 23: He dies for lack of discipline, and because of his great folly he is lost.

Prov 5:23

v23: he shall die without doctrine, and in the multitude of his follies he shall practice reverse process reversionism.

Chapter 6

Proverbs, chapter 6

1: My son, if you have become surety for your neighbor, have given your pledge for a stranger;

2: if you are snared in the utterance of your lips, caught in the words of your mouth;

3: then do this, my son, and save yourself, for you have come into your neighbor's power: go, hasten, and importune your neighbor.

4: Give your eyes no sleep and your eyelids no slumber;

v4: Do not Give sleep to your eyes npr slumber to your eyelids;

5: save yourself like a gazelle from the hunter, like a bird from the hand of the fowler.

v5: Deliver yourself like a gazelle from the hunters hand, like a bird from the hand of the fowler (Have energy in trying to escape certain death).

6: Go to the ant, O sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise.

v6: Go to the ant you sluggard; observe her ways, and be wise.

7: Without having any chief, officer or ruler,

v7: Which having no chief, officer or ruler,

8: she prepares her food in summer, and gathers her sustenance in harvest.

v8: she prepares her food in summer, and gathers her provision in harvest.

9: How long will you lie there, O sluggard? When will you arise from your sleep?

v9: How long will you lie down, O sluggard (public opinion)? When will you arise from your sleep?

10: A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest, v10: A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest, 11: and poverty will come upon you like a vagabond, and want like an armed man.

v11: and your poverty will come in like a criminal, and your need will be like for an armed soldier in battle or you will need weapons as violence will be the order of the day.
12: A worthless person, a wicked man, goes about with crooked speech, 13: winks with his eyes, scrapes with his feet, points with his finger, 14: with perverted heart devises evil, continually sowing discord;
v14: The one who by perversity in his Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul devises evil continually and spreads strife.
15: therefore calamity will come upon him suddenly; in a moment he will be broken beyond healing.
16: There are six things which the LORD hates, seven which are an abomination to him:
v16: There are 6 things which the Lord hates, yes 7 which are an abomination to his essence or attributes 17: haughty eyes, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, v17: Involvement in Interlocking System of Arrogance or pride (Mental Attitude sins), a Lying Tongue (Sins of the Tongue, Maligning, gossip, deceit), Murder or Hands which shed innocent blood (Overt Sins), 18: a heart that devises wicked plans, feet that make haste to run to evil, v18: Mutual Admiration Society forming Conspiracy or Revolt with the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul devising the thoughts of evil from the Interlocking System of Arrogance interacting with sin or human good, Feet that are quick to run to evil in reversionism forming conspiracy 19: a false witness who breathes out lies, and a man who sows discord among brothers.
v19: A false witness who utters lies or slanders (Sins of the Tongue) and a person who causes dissension and spreads strife among believers 20: My son, keep your father's commandment, and forsake not your mother's teaching.
v20: My son or student, guard and preserve the commands of your father's commandment, and do not abandon the law of your mother.
21: Bind them upon your heart always; tie them about your neck.
v21: Tie these doctrines to your Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul; Always fasten them in a phylactery around your neck.
22: When you walk, they will lead you; when you lie down, they will watch over you; and when you awake, they will talk with you.
v22: Wherever you go she, doctrine, will guide you and go with you; when you lie down to sleep she, doctrine, will guard you; and when you awake, she, doctrine, will talk with you from your doctrinal thoughts in Divine Viewpoint.
23: For the commandment is a lamp and the teaching a light, and the reproofs of discipline are the way of life, v23: For happiess is the doctrinal commandment and the law is prosperity and the way of life is the discipline from Bible Doctrine 24: to preserve you from the evil woman, from the smooth tongue of the adventuress.
v24: to guard you from the other woman a woman of evil, from the flattering tongue of the wrong woman.
25: Do not desire her beauty in your heart, and do not let her capture you with her eyelashes; v25: Do not lust after her beauty in your Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, and do not let her arouse your passion with her fluttering eyelashes;
26: for a harlot may be hired for a loaf of bread, but an adulteress stalks a man's very life.
v26: because for the sake of the fornicating woman the Right Man comes to the smallest piece of bread, poverty in the field of sex, and the Right Woman of the Right Man will hunt for her Right Man's precious soul and never find it.
27: Can a man carry fire in his bosom and his clothes not be burned?
v27: Can a man drop a hot coal in his pocket and his clothes not be burned?
28: Or can one walk upon hot coals and his feet not be scorched?
v28: Can a man walk upon hot coals and his feet not be burned?
29: So is he who goes in to his neighbor's wife; none who touches her will go unpunished.
v29: So the one going to seduce his neighbors wife; the one touching her will not remain unpunished.
30: Do not men despise a thief if he steals to satisfy his appetite when he is hungry?
v30: They do not dispise a thief when he steals to satisfy his appetite when he is starving?
31: And if he is caught, he will pay sevenfold; he will give all the goods of his house.
v31: If he is apprehended, he still has to restore sevenfold in the value of what he has stolen; he will give up the entire wealth of his estate if necessary.
32: He who commits adultery has no sense; he who does it destroys himself.
v32: But The one who keeps fornicating with the wrong woman is in a worse condition than having to restore financially because he is destitute of Right Lobe of the Soul, he that seduces her corrupts his own soul (Scar Tissue of the Soul, Reverse Process Reversionism) Eph 4:18-19 33: Wounds and dishonor will he get, and his disgrace will not be wiped away.
34: For jealousy makes a man furious, and he will not spare when he takes revenge.

35: He will accept no compensation, nor be appeased though you multiply gifts.

Chapter 7

Proverbs, chapter 7

- 1: My son, keep my words and treasure up my commandments with you;
- 2: keep my commandments and live, keep my teachings as the apple of your eye;
- 3: bind them on your fingers, write them on the tablet of your heart.
- 4: Say to wisdom, "You are my sister," and call insight your intimate friend;
- 5: to preserve you from the loose woman, from the adventuress with her smooth words.
- 6: For at the window of my house I have looked out through my lattice,
- 7: and I have seen among the simple, I have perceived among the youths, a young man without sense,
- 8: passing along the street near her corner, taking the road to her house
- 9: in the twilight, in the evening, at the time of night and darkness.
- 10: And lo, a woman meets him, dressed as a harlot, wily of heart.
- v10: Now behold a woman comes to meet him, dressed like a prostitute and cunning of heart or Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul.
- 11: She is loud and wayward, her feet do not stay at home;
- 12: now in the street, now in the market, and at every corner she lies in wait.
- 13: She seizes him and kisses him, and with impudent face she says to him:
- 14: "I had to offer sacrifices, and today I have paid my vows;
- 15: so now I have come out to meet you, to seek you eagerly, and I have found you.
- 16: I have decked my couch with coverings, colored spreads of Egyptian linen;
- 17: I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
- 18: Come, let us take our fill of love till morning; let us delight ourselves with love.
- 19: For my husband is not at home; he has gone on a long journey;
- 20: he took a bag of money with him; at full moon he will come home."
- 21: With much seductive speech she persuades him; with her smooth talk she compels him.
- 22: All at once he follows her, as an ox goes to the slaughter, or as a stag is caught fast
- 23: till an arrow pierces its entrails; as a bird rushes into a snare; he does not know that it will cost him his life.
- 24: And now, O sons, listen to me, and be attentive to the words of my mouth.
- 25: Let not your heart turn aside to her ways, do not stray into her paths;
- 26: for many a victim has she laid low; yea, all her slain are a mighty host.
- 27: Her house is the way to Sheol, going down to the chambers of death.

Chapter 9

Proverbs, chapter 9

1: Wisdom has built her house, she has set up her seven pillars.

2: She has slaughtered her beasts, she has mixed her wine, she has also set her table.

3: She has sent out her maids to call from the highest places in the town,

4: "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here!" To him who is without sense she says,

5: "Come, eat of my bread and drink of the wine I have mixed.

6: Leave simpleness, and live, and walk in the way of insight."

7: He who corrects a scoffer gets himself abuse, and he who reproves a wicked man incurs injury.

8: Do not reprove a scoffer, or he will hate you; reprove a wise man, and he will love you.

9: Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be still wiser; teach a righteous man and he will increase in learning.

10: The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight.

11: For by me your days will be multiplied, and years will be added to your life.

12: If you are wise, you are wise for yourself; if you scoff, you alone will bear it.

13: A foolish woman is noisy; she is wanton and knows no shame.

14: She sits at the door of her house, she takes a seat on the high places of the town,

15: calling to those who pass by, who are going straight on their way,

16: "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here!" And to him who is without sense she says,

17: "Stolen water is sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant."

18: But he does not know that the dead are there, that her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

Chapter 10

Proverbs, chapter 10

1: The proverbs of Solomon. A wise son makes a glad father, but a foolish son is a sorrow to his mother.

2: Treasures gained by wickedness do not profit, but righteousness delivers from death.

3: The LORD does not let the righteous go hungry, but he thwarts the craving of the wicked.

4: A slack hand causes poverty, but the hand of the diligent makes rich.

5: A son who gathers in summer is prudent, but a son who sleeps in harvest brings shame.

v5: He who gathers in summer is a son who acts wisely, but he who sleeps during harvest is a son who acts shamefully.

6: Blessings are on the head of the righteous, but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.

v18: The Reversionist earns deceptive wages, but he who sows Absolute Righteousness in super-grace has true reward.

19: He who is steadfast in righteousness will live, but he who pursues evil will die.

v19: He who is persistent or maintains super-grace maturity gains Life in eternity, but he who pursues Evil will end up with his own Sin unto Death as his portion.

20: Men of perverse mind are an abomination to the LORD, but those of blameless ways are his delight.

v20: Men of perverse mind are an abomination to the LORD, but those who are blameless are on the road to his delight.

21: Be assured, an evil man will not go unpunished, but those who are righteous will be delivered.

v21: Be assured, an evil man will not go unpunished, but those who are mature believers will be delivered.

22: Like a gold ring in a swine's snout is a beautiful woman without discretion.

23: The desire of the righteous ends only in good; the expectation of the wicked in wrath.

24: One man gives freely, yet grows all the richer; another withholds what he should give, and only suffers want.

Prov 11:24-25

v24: There is one, with the spiritual gift of giving, who gives generously yet he becomes more prosperous based on Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul; but there is also one who is stingy and does not give what he should give and it results in only poverty.

25: A liberal man will be enriched, and one who waters will himself be watered.

v25: The soul of the mature believer with Super-Grace blessing who is generous will be completely prosperous, but he who gives water will also himself be caused to have water. (water is wealth for agricultural economy)

26: The people curse him who holds back grain, but a blessing is on the head of him who sells it.

27: He who diligently seeks good seeks favor, but evil comes to him who searches for it.

28: He who trusts in his riches will wither, but the righteous will flourish like a green leaf.

29: He who troubles his household will inherit wind, and the fool will be servant to the wise.

30: The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, but lawlessness takes away lives.

v30: The production of the righteous is a tree of life, He that wins souls in wise, but lawlessness takes away lives.

31: If the righteous is requited on earth, how much more the wicked and the sinner!

34: Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people.

35: A servant who deals wisely has the king's favor, but his wrath falls on one who acts shamefully.

Chapter 15

Proverbs, chapter 15

1: A soft answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.

2: The tongue of the wise dispenses knowledge, but the mouths of fools pour out folly.

v2: The tongues of the wise dispense knowledge of Bible Doctrine rightly, but the mouths of fools pours forth foolishness.

3: The eyes of the LORD are in every place, keeping watch on the evil and the good.

v3: The Eyes or Omnipresence of the Lord are in every place he is the observer of the evil to provide Divine Discipline and the absolute Good to provide divine blessing.

4: A gentle tongue is a tree of life, but perverseness in it breaks the spirit.

5: A fool despises his father's instruction, but he who heeds admonition is prudent.

6: In the house of the righteous there is much treasure, but trouble befalls the income of the wicked.

7: The lips of the wise spread knowledge; not so the minds of fools.

8: The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD, but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

9: The way of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD, but he loves him who pursues righteousness.

10: There is severe discipline for him who forsakes the way; he who hates reproof will die.

11: Sheol and Abaddon lie open before the LORD, how much more the hearts of men!

12: A scoffer does not like to be reproved; he will not go to the wise.

13: A glad heart makes a cheerful countenance, but by sorrow of heart the spirit is broken.

14: The mind of him who has understanding seeks knowledge, but the mouths of fools feed on folly.

v14: The mind of the intelligent person seeks knowledge of God's Word, but the mouths of fools feed on folly and metabolize falsehood instead of Doctrine.

15: All the days of the afflicted are evil, but a cheerful heart has a continual feast.

16: Better is a little with the fear of the LORD than great treasure and trouble with it.

Prov 15:16

v16: Better is a little reverence for the Lord than great wealth and misery.

17: Better is a dinner of herbs where love is than a fatted ox and hatred with it.

Prov 15:17

v17: Better a dish of vegetables where category 2 LOVE is, than a fatted ox and Hatred with it.

18: A hot-tempered man stirs up strife, but he who is slow to anger quiets contention.

19: The way of a sluggard is overgrown with thorns, but the path of the upright is a level highway.

20: A wise son makes a glad father, but a foolish man despises his mother.

21: Folly is a joy to him who has no sense, but a man of understanding walks aright.

22: Without counsel plans go wrong, but with many advisers they succeed.

23: To make an apt answer is a joy to a man, and a word in season, how good it is!

24: The wise man's path leads upward to life, that he may avoid Sheol beneath.

25: The LORD tears down the house of the proud, but maintains the widow's boundaries.

26: The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD, the words of the pure are pleasing to him.

27: He who is greedy for unjust gain makes trouble for his household, but he who hates bribes will live.

28: The mind of the righteous ponders how to answer, but the mouth of the wicked pours out evil things.

29: The LORD is far from the wicked, but he hears the prayer of the righteous.

30: The light of the eyes rejoices the heart, and good news refreshes the bones.

31: He whose ear heeds wholesome admonition will abide among the wise.

32: He who ignores instruction despises himself, but he who heeds admonition gains understanding.

33: The fear of the LORD is instruction in wisdom, and humility goes before honor.

Prov 15:33

v33: The Respect for the Lord, is the instruction in wisdom, and before honor comes humility.

Chapter 16

Proverbs, chapter 16

1: The plans of the mind belong to man, but the answer of the tongue is from the LORD.

2: All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes, but the LORD weighs the spirit.

3: Commit your work to the LORD, and your plans will be established.

v3: Commit your work to the LORD, and your plans will be established.

4: The LORD has made everything for its purpose, even the wicked for the day of trouble.

v4: The LORD has made everything for his own purpose, He has even manufactured the wicked for the day of evil.

5: Every one who is arrogant is an abomination to the LORD; be assured, he will not go unpunished.

6: By loyalty and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of the LORD a man avoids evil.

Prov 16:6

v6: By Grace and Bible Doctrine one recovers from reversionism and by Occupation with the Lord one keeps away from evil.

7: When a man's ways please the LORD, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.

8: Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues with injustice.

9: A man's mind plans his way, but the LORD directs his steps.

10: Inspired decisions are on the lips of a king; his mouth does not sin in judgment.

11: A just balance and scales are the LORD's; all the weights in the bag are his work.

12: It is an abomination to kings to do evil, for the throne is established by righteousness.

13: Righteous lips are the delight of a king, and he loves him who speaks what is right.

14: A king's wrath is a messenger of death, and a wise man will appease it.

15: In the light of a king's face there is life, and his favor is like the clouds that bring the spring rain.

16: To get wisdom is better than gold; to get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver.

Prov 16:16

v16: How much better it is to get wisdom (BD in the SC) than gold, to choose understanding of BD over possession of Silver

17: The highway of the upright turns aside from evil; he who guards his way preserves his life.

18: Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.

Prov 16:18

v18: Arrogance precedes destruction and before a fall a lifestyle of arrogance in the Interlocking System of Arrogance the strongest of Satanic attacks

19: It is better to be of a lowly spirit with the poor than to divide the spoil with the proud.

Prov 16:19

v19: Better a little with Honor than a great income with dishonor and injustice.

20: He who gives heed to the word will prosper, and happy is he who trusts in the LORD.

Prov 16:20

v20: The one who gives heed to doctrine or focus' his attention on doctrine with application from the word of God will find prosperity or Divine Good , and happinesses to the wone who trusts in the LORD using the Faith Rest Drill (4 categories) in every situation.

- 21: The wise of heart is called a man of discernment, and pleasant speech increases persuasiveness.
 22: Wisdom is a fountain of life to him who has it, but folly is the chastisement of fools.
 23: The mind of the wise makes his speech judicious, and adds persuasiveness to his lips.
 24: Pleasant words are like a honeycomb, sweetness to the soul and health to the body.
 25: There is a way which seems right to a man, but its end is the way to death.
 26: A worker's appetite works for him; his mouth urges him on.
 27: A worthless man plots evil, and his speech is like a scorching fire.
 28: A perverse man spreads strife, and a whisperer separates close friends.
 29: A man of violence entices his neighbor and leads him in a way that is not good.
 30: He who winks his eyes plans perverse things, he who compresses his lips brings evil to pass.
 31: A hoary head is a crown of glory; it is gained in a righteous life.
 32: He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city.
 33: The lot is cast into the lap, but the decision is wholly from the LORD.

Chapter 17
 Proverbs, chapter 17

- 1: Better is a dry morsel with quiet than a house full of feasting with strife.

Prov 17:1

v1: Better a dry crust with peace and quiet than a house full of feasting and strife

- 2: A slave who deals wisely will rule over a son who acts shamefully, and will share the inheritance as one of the brothers.

- 3: The crucible is for silver, and the furnace is for gold, and the LORD tries hearts.

- 4: An evildoer listens to wicked lips; and a liar gives heed to a mischievous tongue.

v4: An evildoer or liar listens to wicked lips; and a liar pays attention or listens to other liars.

- 5: He who mocks the poor insults his Maker; he who is glad at calamity will not go unpunished.

- 6: Grandchildren are the crown of the aged, and the glory of sons is their fathers.

- 7: Fine speech is not becoming to a fool; still less is false speech to a prince.

v7: Excellent speech is not fitting for a senseless fool; much less is lying lips fitting to a national leader, ruler or prince with a code of honor.

- 8: A bribe is like a magic stone in the eyes of him who gives it; wherever he turns he prospers.

- 9: He who forgives an offense seeks love, but he who repeats a matter alienates a friend.

- 10: A rebuke goes deeper into a man of understanding than a hundred blows into a fool.

- 11: An evil man seeks only rebellion, and a cruel messenger will be sent against him.

Prov 17:11

v11: A rebellious man seeks only evil.

- 12: Let a man meet a she-bear robbed of her cubs, rather than a fool in his folly.

- 13: If a man returns evil for good, evil will not depart from his house.

- 14: The beginning of strife is like letting out water; so quit before the quarrel breaks out.

- 15: He who justifies the wicked and he who condemns the righteous are both alike an abomination to the LORD.

- 16: Why should a fool have a price in his hand to buy wisdom, when he has no mind?

- 17: A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

- 18: A man without sense gives a pledge, and becomes surety in the presence of his neighbor.

- 19: He who loves transgression loves strife; he who makes his door high seeks destruction.

- 20: A man of crooked mind does not prosper, and one with a perverse tongue falls into calamity.

- 21: A stupid son is a grief to a father; and the father of a fool has no joy.

- 22: A cheerful heart is a good medicine, but a downcast spirit dries up the bones.

- 23: A wicked man accepts a bribe from the bosom to pervert the ways of justice.

- 24: A man of understanding sets his face toward wisdom, but the eyes of a fool are on the ends of the earth.

- 25: A foolish son is a grief to his father and bitterness to her who bore him.

- 26: To impose a fine on a righteous man is not good; to flog noble men is wrong.

- 27: He who restrains his words has knowledge, and he who has a cool spirit is a man of understanding.

- 28: Even a fool who keeps silent is considered wise; when he closes his lips, he is deemed intelligent.

Chapter 18
 Proverbs, chapter 18

- 1: He who is estranged seeks pretexts to break out against all sound judgment.

- 2: A fool takes no pleasure in understanding, but only in expressing his opinion.

- 3: When wickedness comes, contempt comes also; and with dishonor comes disgrace.

- 4: The words of a man's mouth are deep waters; the fountain of wisdom is a gushing stream.

- 5: It is not good to be partial to a wicked man, or to deprive a righteous man of justice.

- 6: A fool's lips bring strife, and his mouth invites a flogging.
- 7: A fool's mouth is his ruin, and his lips are a snare to himself.
- 8: The words of a whisperer are like delicious morsels; they go down into the inner parts of the body.
- 9: He who is slack in his work is a brother to him who destroys.
- 10: The name of the LORD is a strong tower; the righteous man runs into it and is safe.
- 11: A rich man's wealth is his strong city, and like a high wall protecting him.
- 12: Before destruction a man's heart is haughty, but humility goes before honor.
- 13: If one gives answer before he hears, it is his folly and shame.
- 14: A man's spirit will endure sickness; but a broken spirit who can bear?
- 15: An intelligent mind acquires knowledge, and the ear of the wise seeks knowledge.

Prov 18:15

v15: The heart of the wise acquires knowledge, and the ear of the wise seeks knowledge ( Positive Volition ),

- 16: A man's gift makes room for him and brings him before great men.
- 17: He who states his case first seems right, until the other comes and examines him.
- 18: The lot puts an end to disputes and decides between powerful contenders.
- 19: A brother helped is like a strong city, but quarreling is like the bars of a castle.
- 20: From the fruit of his mouth a man is satisfied; he is satisfied by the yield of his lips.
- 21: Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruits.
- 22: He who finds a wife finds a good thing, and obtains favor from the LORD.

Prov 18:22

v22: Whosoever finds their right woman receives Grace from the Lord

- 23: The poor use entreaties, but the rich answer roughly.
- 24: There are friends who pretend to be friends, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

Chapter 19
Proverbs, chapter 19

- 1: Better is a poor man who walks in his integrity than a man who is perverse in speech, and is a fool.
- 2: It is not good for a man to be without knowledge, and he who makes haste with his feet misses his way.
- 3: When a man's folly brings his way to ruin, his heart rages against the LORD.
- 4: Wealth brings many new friends, but a poor man is deserted by his friend.
- 5: A false witness will not go unpunished, and he who utters lies will not escape.
- 6: Many seek the favor of a generous man, and every one is a friend to a man who gives gifts.
- 7: All a poor man's brothers hate him; how much more do his friends go far from him! He pursues them with words, but does not have them.
- 8: He who gets wisdom loves himself; he who keeps understanding will prosper.
- 9: A false witness will not go unpunished, and he who utters lies will perish.
- 10: It is not fitting for a fool to live in luxury, much less for a slave to rule over princes.
- 11: Good sense makes a man slow to anger, and it is his glory to overlook an offense.
- 12: A king's wrath is like the growling of a lion, but his favor is like dew upon the grass.
- 13: A foolish son is ruin to his father, and a wife's quarreling is a continual dripping of rain.
- 14: House and wealth are inherited from fathers, but a prudent wife is from the LORD.
- 15: Slothfulness casts into a deep sleep, and an idle person will suffer hunger.

v15: Laziness casts into a deep sleep, and an idle person will suffer from hunger.

- 16: He who keeps the commandment keeps his life; he who despises the word will die.
- 17: He who is kind to the poor lends to the LORD, and he will repay him for his deed.
- 18: Discipline your son while there is hope; do not set your heart on his destruction.
- 19: A man of great wrath will pay the penalty; for if you deliver him, you will only have to do it again.
- 20: Listen to advice and accept instruction, that you may gain wisdom for the future.
- 21: Many are the plans in the mind of a man, but it is the purpose of the LORD that will be established.
- 22: What is desired in a man is loyalty, and a poor man is better than a liar.
- 23: The fear of the LORD leads to life; and he who has it rests satisfied; he will not be visited by harm.

Prov 19:23

v23: Occupation with the Lord is Light (super-grace blessings) so that one may sleep satisfied not visited by Evil.

- 24: The sluggard buries his hand in the dish, and will not even bring it back to his mouth.
- 25: Strike a scoffer, and the simple will learn prudence; reprove a man of understanding, and he will gain knowledge.
- 26: He who does violence to his father and chases away his mother is a son who causes shame and brings reproach.
- 27: Cease, my son, to hear instruction only to stray from the words of knowledge.
- 28: A worthless witness mocks at justice, and the mouth of the wicked devours iniquity.
- 29: Condemnation is ready for scoffers, and flogging for the backs of fools.

Chapter 20
Proverbs, chapter 20

- 1: Wine is a mocker, strong drink a brawler; and whoever is led astray by it is not wise.
- 2: The dread wrath of a king is like the growling of a lion; he who provokes him to anger forfeits his life.
- 3: It is an honor for a man to keep aloof from strife; but every fool will be quarreling.
- 4: The sluggard does not plow in the autumn; he will seek at harvest and have nothing.
- 5: The purpose in a man's mind is like deep water, but a man of understanding will draw it out.
- 6: Many a man proclaims his own loyalty, but a faithful man who can find?
- 7: A righteous man who walks in his integrity -- blessed are his sons after him!
- 8: A king who sits on the throne of judgment winnows all evil with his eyes.
- 9: Who can say, "I have made my heart clean; I am pure from my sin"?
- 10: Diverse weights and diverse measures are both alike an abomination to the LORD.
- 11: Even a child makes himself known by his acts, whether what he does is pure and right.
- 12: The hearing ear and the seeing eye, the LORD has made them both.
- 13: Love not sleep, lest you come to poverty; open your eyes, and you will have plenty of bread.

Prov 20:13

v13: Do not Love sleep, lest you become poor; open your eyes and use your mentality as motivation for work, and you will have plenty of bread.

- 14: "It is bad, it is bad," says the buyer; but when he goes away, then he boasts.
- 15: There is gold, and abundance of costly stones; but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.
- 16: Take a man's garment when he has given surety for a stranger, and hold him in pledge when he gives surety for foreigners.
- 17: Bread gained by deceit is sweet to a man, but afterward his mouth will be full of gravel.
- 18: Plans are established by counsel; by wise guidance wage war.
- 19: He who goes about gossiping reveals secrets; therefore do not associate with one who speaks foolishly.
- 20: If one curses his father or his mother, his lamp will be put out in utter darkness.
- 21: An inheritance gotten hastily in the beginning will in the end not be blessed.
- 22: Do not say, "I will repay evil"; wait for the LORD, and he will help you.
- 23: Diverse weights are an abomination to the LORD, and false scales are not good.
- 24: A man's steps are ordered by the LORD; how then can man understand his way?
- 25: It is a snare for a man to say rashly, "It is holy," and to reflect only after making his vows.
- 26: A wise king winnows the wicked, and drives the wheel over them.

v26: A wise king weeds out the criminals in his kingdom therefore he drives the wheel over them in capital punishment judgment.

- 27: The spirit of man is the lamp of the LORD, searching all his innermost parts.
- 28: Loyalty and faithfulness preserve the king, and his throne is upheld by righteousness.
- 29: The glory of young men is their strength, but the beauty of old men is their gray hair.
- 30: Blows that wound cleanse away evil; strokes make clean the innermost parts.

Chapter 21
Proverbs, chapter 21

- 1: The king's heart is a stream of water in the hand of the LORD; he turns it wherever he will.
- 2: Every way of a man is right in his own eyes, but the LORD weighs the heart.
- 3: To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.
- 4: Haughty eyes and a proud heart, the lamp of the wicked, are sin.
- 5: The plans of the diligent lead surely to abundance, but every one who is hasty comes only to want.
- 6: The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapor and a snare of death.
- 7: The violence of the wicked will sweep them away, because they refuse to do what is just.
- 8: The way of the guilty is crooked, but the conduct of the pure is right.
- 9: It is better to live in a corner of the housetop than in a house shared with a contentious woman.

v9: It is better to sit alone as a bachelor on the battlements of the castle than with a contentious nagging woman in the house of marriage

- 10: The soul of the wicked desires evil; his neighbor finds no mercy in his eyes.
- 11: When a scoffer is punished, the simple becomes wise; when a wise man is instructed, he gains knowledge.
- v11: When a scoffer is punished, the simple becomes wise; when a wise man receives instruction, he gains wisdom.
- 12: The righteous observes the house of the wicked; the wicked are cast down to ruin.
- 13: He who closes his ear to the cry of the poor will himself cry out and not be heard.
- 14: A gift in secret averts anger; and a bribe in the bosom, strong wrath.
- 15: When justice is done, it is a joy to the righteous, but dismay to evildoers.
- 16: A man who wanders from the way of understanding will rest in the assembly of the dead.

17: He who loves pleasure will be a poor man; he who loves wine and oil will not be rich.

18: The wicked is a ransom for the righteous, and the faithless for the upright.

19: It is better to live in a desert land than with a contentious and fretful woman.

Prov 21:19

v19: Better to live alone in the desert or wasteland than with a quarrelsome and bad woman.

20: Precious treasure remains in a wise man's dwelling, but a foolish man devours it.

21: He who pursues righteousness and kindness will find life and honor.

22: A wise man scales the city of the mighty and brings down the stronghold in which they trust.

23: He who keeps his mouth and his tongue keeps himself out of trouble.

24: "Scoffer" is the name of the proud, haughty man who acts with arrogant pride.

25: The desire of the sluggard kills him for his hands refuse to labor.

26: All day long the wicked covets, but the righteous gives and does not hold back.

27: The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination; how much more when he brings it with evil intent.

28: A false witness will perish, but the word of a man who hears will endure.

29: A wicked man puts on a bold face, but an upright man considers his ways.

30: No wisdom, no understanding, no counsel, can avail against the LORD.

31: The horse is made ready for the day of battle, but the victory belongs to the LORD.

v31: The war horse is equipped for the day of battle, but the victory rests with the LORD.

Chapter 22

Proverbs, chapter 22

1: A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches, and favor is better than silver or gold.

2: The rich and the poor meet together; the LORD is the maker of them all.

3: A prudent man sees danger and hides himself; but the simple go on, and suffer for it.

Prov 22:3

v3: The Wise or super-grace believer sees evil and hides himself, but the Stupid or negative volition Believer goes on and is punished for it or destroys himself.

4: The reward for humility and fear of the LORD is riches and honor and life.

5: Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse; he who guards himself will keep far from them.

6: Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it.

Prov 22:6

v6: Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old or mature he will not depart from it.

7: The rich rules over the poor, and the borrower is the slave of the lender.

8: He who sows injustice will reap calamity, and the rod of his fury will fail.

9: He who has a bountiful eye will be blessed, for he shares his bread with the poor.

10: Drive out a scoffer, and strife will go out, and quarreling and abuse will cease.

11: He who loves purity of heart, and whose speech is gracious, will have the king as his friend.

12: The eyes of the LORD keep watch over knowledge, but he overthrows the words of the faithless.

13: The sluggard says, "There is a lion outside! I shall be slain in the streets!"

14: The mouth of a loose woman is a deep pit; he with whom the LORD is angry will fall into it.

15: Folly is bound up in the heart of a child, but the rod of discipline drives it far from him.

16: He who oppresses the poor to increase his own wealth, or gives to the rich, will only come to want.

17: Incline your ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply your mind to my knowledge;

18: for it will be pleasant if you keep them within you, if all of them are ready on your lips.

19: That your trust may be in the LORD, I have made them known to you today, even to you.

20: Have I not written for you thirty sayings of admonition and knowledge, 21: to show you what is right and true, that you may give a true answer to those who sent you?

22: Do not rob the poor, because he is poor, or crush the afflicted at the gate;

23: for the LORD will plead their cause and despoil of life those who despoil them.

24: Make no friendship with a man given to anger, nor go with a wrathful man, 25: lest you learn his ways and entangle yourself in a snare.

26: Be not one of those who give pledges, who become surety for debts.

27: If you have nothing with which to pay, why should your bed be taken from under you?

28: Remove not the ancient landmark which your fathers have set.

29: Do you see a man skilful in his work? he will stand before kings; he will not stand before obscure men.

Chapter 23

Proverbs, chapter 23

1: When you sit down to eat with a ruler, observe carefully what is before you;

- 2: and put a knife to your throat if you are a man given to appetite.
 3: Do not desire his delicacies, for they are deceptive food.
 4: Do not toil to acquire wealth; be wise enough to desist.
 5: When your eyes light upon it, it is gone; for suddenly it takes to itself wings, flying like an eagle toward heaven.
 6: Do not eat the bread of a man who is stingy; do not desire his delicacies;

Prov 23:6-7

v6: Do not eat the food of a selfish man who does not want to share his bounty with others; or desire his delicacies;

7: for he is like one who is inwardly reckoning. "Eat and drink!" he says to you; but his heart is not with you.

v7: for as he thinks in his soul so he is. He says to you "Eat and drink my food and beverage!"; but his Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul is not with you but in fact against you and despises you.

8: You will vomit up the morsels which you have eaten, and waste your pleasant words.

9: Do not speak in the hearing of a fool, for he will despise the wisdom of your words.

10: Do not remove an ancient landmark or enter the fields of the fatherless;

11: for their Redeemer is strong; he will plead their cause against you.

12: Apply your mind to instruction and your ear to words of knowledge.

13: Do not withhold discipline from a child; if you beat him with a rod, he will not die.

14: If you beat him with the rod you will save his life from Sheol.

15: My son, if your heart is wise, my heart too will be glad.

16: My soul will rejoice when your lips speak what is right.

17: Let not your heart envy sinners, but continue in the fear of the LORD all the day.

v17: Do not let your Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul envy sinners, but live in Occupation with the Person of Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ the LORD all day long 18: Surely there is a future, and your hope will not be cut off.

19: Hear, my son, and be wise, and direct your mind in the way.

20: Be not among winebibbers, or among gluttonous eaters of meat;

21: for the drunkard and the glutton will come to poverty, and drowsiness will clothe a man with rags.

22: Harken to your father who begot you, and do not despise your mother when she is old.

23: Buy truth, and do not sell it; buy wisdom, instruction, and understanding.

24: The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice; he who begets a wise son will be glad in him.

v24: The father of the righteous will very happy; he who sires a wise son will be happy in him.

25: Let your father and mother be glad, let her who bore you rejoice.

v25: Let your father and mother be happy, and let her who gave birth to you be happy

26: My son, give me your heart, and let your eyes observe my ways.

27: For a harlot is a deep pit; an adventuress is a narrow well.

28: She lies in wait like a robber and increases the faithless among men.

29: Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has strife? Who has complaining? Who has wounds without cause? Who has redness of eyes?

30: Those who tarry long over wine, those who go to try mixed wine.

31: Do not look at wine when it is red, when it sparkles in the cup and goes down smoothly.

32: At the last it bites like a serpent, and stings like an adder.

33: Your eyes will see strange things, and your mind utter perverse things.

34: You will be like one who lies down in the midst of the sea, like one who lies on the top of a mast.

35: "They struck me," you will say, "but I was not hurt; they beat me, but I did not feel it. When shall I awake? I will seek another drink."

Chapter 24

Proverbs, chapter 24

1: Be not envious of evil men, nor desire to be with them;

v1: Be not envious or jealous of evil persons who have the Human Viewpoint of life, nor desire to be with them;

2: for their minds devise violence, and their lips talk of mischief.

v2: for the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of their Soul studies reversionism and plots and devises violence and revenge and is obsessed with tyranny seeing all authority as tyranny, and their lips talk of mischief or speaking things to make people miserable, gossip, maligning, judging, etc.

3: By wisdom a house is built, and by understanding it is established;

v3: Through wisdom or Bible Doctrine applied a house or Edification Complex of the Soul is constructed, and by understanding of the truth of Bible Doctrine in the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, one prepares himself for life;

4: by knowledge the rooms are filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

v4: by means of knowledge from Perception, Cognition, Inculcation & Metabolization of Bible Doctrine through the function of the Grace Apparatus for Perception the rooms or chambers of categorical storage in the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, are filled with something of value and something stimulating from spiritual super-grace blessings in time and physical super-grace blessings in time.

5: A wise man is mightier than a strong man, and a man of knowledge than he who has strength;

v5: A hero of wisdom from Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul is strong, powerful and vigorous, and a man of knowledge a mature believer strengthens his professional ability with vigor and power;

6: for by wise guidance you can wage your war, and in abundance of counselors there is victory.

v6: for by the art of leadership through Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul you will execute warfare (or any profession) for your nation, therefore victory resides in the greatness of the general or the one who commands, planning strategy and tactics.

7: Wisdom is too high for a fool; in the gate he does not open his mouth.

8: He who plans to do evil will be called a mischief-maker.

9: The devising of folly is sin, and the scoffer is an abomination to men.

10: If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small.

11: Rescue those who are being taken away to death; hold back those who are stumbling to the slaughter.

12: If you say, "Behold, we did not know this," does not he who weighs the heart perceive it? Does not he who keeps watch over your soul know it, and will he not requite man according to his work?

13: My son, eat honey, for it is good, and the drippings of the honeycomb are sweet to your taste.

14: Know that wisdom is such to your soul; if you find it, there will be a future, and your hope will not be cut off.

15: Lie not in wait as a wicked man against the dwelling of the righteous; do not violence to his home;

16: for a righteous man falls seven times, and rises again; but the wicked are overthrown by calamity.

17: Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and let not your heart be glad when he stumbles;

18: lest the LORD see it, and be displeased, and turn away his anger from him.

19: Fret not yourself because of evildoers, and be not envious of the wicked;

Prov 24:19

v19: Do not fret yourself because of evil doers or be jealous of evil doers or be jealous of the reversionist

20: for the evil man has no future; the lamp of the wicked will be put out.

Prov 24:20

v20: for there will be no future for the evil one and the lamp of the evil will be put out

21: My son, fear the LORD and the king, and do not disobey either of them;

22: for disaster from them will rise suddenly, and who knows the ruin that will come from them both?

23: These also are sayings of the wise. Partiality in judging is not good.

24: He who says to the wicked, "You are innocent," will be cursed by peoples, abhorred by nations;

25: but those who rebuke the wicked will have delight, and a good blessing will be upon them.

26: He who gives a right answer kisses the lips.

27: Prepare your work outside, get everything ready for you in the field; and after that build your house.

28: Be not a witness against your neighbor without cause, and do not deceive with your lips.

29: Do not say, "I will do to him as he has done to me; I will pay the man back for what he has done."

30: I passed by the field of a sluggard, by the vineyard of a man without sense;

31: and lo, it was all overgrown with thorns; the ground was covered with nettles, and its stone wall was broken down.

32: Then I saw and considered it; I looked and received instruction.

33: A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest, 34: and poverty will come upon you like a robber, and want like an armed man.

Chapter 25

Proverbs, chapter 25

1: These also are proverbs of Solomon which the men of Hezeki'ah king of Judah copied.

2: It is the glory of God to conceal things, but the glory of kings is to search things out.

3: As the heavens for height, and the earth for depth, so the mind of kings is unsearchable.

4: Take away the dross from the silver, and the smith has material for a vessel;

5: take away the wicked from the presence of the king, and his throne will be established in righteousness.

6: Do not put yourself forward in the king's presence or stand in the place of the great;

7: for it is better to be told, "Come up here," than to be put lower in the presence of the prince. What your eyes have seen

8: do not hastily bring into court; for what will you do in the end, when your neighbor puts you to shame?

9: Argue your case with your neighbor himself, and do not disclose another's secret;

10: lest he who hears you bring shame upon you, and your ill repute have no end.

11: A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in a setting of silver.

12: Like a gold ring or an ornament of gold is a wise reprover to a listening ear.

13: Like the cold of snow in the time of harvest is a faithful messenger to those who send him, he refreshes the spirit of his masters.

Prov 25:13

v13: Like the ice cold water of melted snow brought to the workers by the water boy, in the HOT time of harvest is a faithful messenger servant or the Pastor Teacher, to those who send for him, the congregation he refreshes the souls of his masters.

14: Like clouds and wind without rain is a man who boasts of a gift he does not give.

15: With patience a ruler may be persuaded, and a soft tongue will break a bone.

16: If you have found honey, eat only enough for you, lest you be sated with it and vomit it.

Prov 25:16

v16: And if you find candy, eat just enough, too much of it and you will vomit.

17: Let your foot be seldom in your neighbor's house, lest he become weary of you and hate you.

18: A man who bears false witness against his neighbor is like a war club, or a sword, or a sharp arrow.

19: Trust in a faithless man in time of trouble is like a bad tooth or a foot that slips.

20: He who sings songs to a heavy heart is like one who takes off a garment on a cold day, and like vinegar on a wound.

21: If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink;

v21: If the one who hates you is hungry, give him food to eat; furthermore if he is thirsty, give him water to drink;

22: for you will heap coals of fire on his head, and the LORD will reward you.

v22: for you will heap burning coals as punishment from the Justice of God on his head, and the LORD will reward you in Maturity Adjustment to the Justice of God.

23: The north wind brings forth rain; and a backbiting tongue, angry looks.

24: It is better to live in a corner of the housetop than in a house shared with a contentious woman.

Prov 25:24

v24: Better to live on a corner of a roof than to share a house with a nagging wife

25: Like cold water to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.

26: Like a muddied spring or a polluted fountain is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked.

27: It is not good to eat much honey, so be sparing of complimentary words.

28: A man without self-control is like a city broken into and left without walls.

Chapter 26

Proverbs, chapter 26

1: Like snow in summer or rain in harvest, so honor is not fitting for a fool.

2: Like a sparrow in its flitting, like a swallow in its flying, a curse that is causeless does not alight.

3: A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the back of fools.

4: Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest you be like him yourself.

5: Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own eyes.

6: He who sends a message by the hand of a fool cuts off his own feet and drinks violence.

7: Like a lame man's legs, which hang useless, is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

8: Like one who binds the stone in the sling is he who gives honor to a fool.

9: Like a thorn that goes up into the hand of a drunkard is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

10: Like an archer who wounds everybody is he who hires a passing fool or drunkard.

11: Like a dog that returns to his vomit is a fool that repeats his folly.

12: Do you see a man who is wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

13: The sluggard says, "There is a lion in the road! There is a lion in the streets!"

14: As a door turns on its hinges, so does a sluggard on his bed.

15: The sluggard buries his hand in the dish; it wears him out to bring it back to his mouth.

16: The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who can answer discreetly.

17: He who meddles in a quarrel not his own is like one who takes a passing dog by the ears.

18: Like a madman who throws firebrands, arrows, and death,

19: is the man who deceives his neighbor and says, "I am only joking!"

20: For lack of wood the fire goes out; and where there is no whisperer, quarreling ceases.

21: As charcoal to hot embers and wood to fire, so is a quarrelsome man for kindling strife.

22: The words of a whisperer are like delicious morsels; they go down into the inner parts of the body.

23: Like the glaze covering an earthen vessel are smooth lips with an evil heart.

24: He who hates, dissembles with his lips and harbors deceit in his heart;

25: when he speaks graciously, believe him not, for there are seven abominations in his heart;

26: though his hatred be covered with guile, his wickedness will be exposed in the assembly.

27: He who digs a pit will fall into it, and a stone will come back upon him who starts it rolling.

28: A lying tongue hates its victims, and a flattering mouth works ruin.

Chapter 27
Proverbs, chapter 27

- 1: Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring forth.
- 2: Let another praise you, and not your own mouth; a stranger, and not your own lips.
- 3: A stone is heavy, and sand is weighty, but a fool's provocation is heavier than both.

Prov 27:3

v3: The heaviness of a stone, The weight of sand, but a fool's anger is heavier than both.

- 4: Wrath is cruel, anger is overwhelming; but who can stand before jealousy?

Prov 27:4

v4: While Wrath is fierce and anger is a flood who can stand up against jealousy.

- 5: Better is open rebuke than hidden love.
- 6: Faithful are the wounds of a friend; profuse are the kisses of an enemy.
- 7: He who is sated loathes honey, but to one who is hungry everything bitter is sweet.
- 8: Like a bird that strays from its nest, is a man who strays from his home.
- 9: Oil and perfume make the heart glad, but the soul is torn by trouble.
- 10: Your friend, and your father's friend, do not forsake; and do not go to your brother's house in the day of your calamity. Better is a neighbor who is near than a brother who is far away.
- 11: Be wise, my son, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him who reproaches me.
- 12: A prudent man sees danger and hides himself; but the simple go on, and suffer for it.
- 13: Take a man's garment when he has given surety for a stranger, and hold him in pledge when he gives surety for foreigners.
- 14: He who blesses his neighbor with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, will be counted as cursing.
- 15: A continual dripping on a rainy day and a contentious woman are alike;
- 16: to restrain her is to restrain the wind or to grasp oil in his right hand.
- 17: Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another.
- 18: He who tends a fig tree will eat its fruit, and he who guards his master will be honored.
- 19: As in water face answers to face, so the mind of man reflects the man.
- 20: Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied, and never satisfied are the eyes of man.
- 21: The crucible is for silver, and the furnace is for gold, and a man is judged by his praise.
- 22: Crush a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with crushed grain, yet his folly will not depart from him.
- 23: Know well the condition of your flocks, and give attention to your herds;
- 24: for riches do not last for ever; and does a crown endure to all generations?
- 25: When the grass is gone, and the new growth appears, and the herbage of the mountains is gathered,
- 26: the lambs will provide your clothing, and the goats the price of a field;
- 27: there will be enough goats' milk for your food, for the food of your household and maintenance for your maidens.

Chapter 28
Proverbs, chapter 28

- 1: The wicked flee when no one pursues, but the righteous are bold as a lion.
- 2: When a land transgresses it has many rulers; but with men of understanding and knowledge its stability will long continue.
- 3: A poor man who oppresses the poor is a beating rain that leaves no food.
- 4: Those who forsake the law praise the wicked, but those who keep the law strive against them.
- 5: Evil men do not understand justice, but those who seek the LORD understand it completely.
- 6: Better is a poor man who walks in his integrity than a rich man who is perverse in his ways.

Prov 28:6

v6: Better is the poor man who walks in his integrity than the rich man whose ways are perverse (petulant, obstinate in what is wrong, i.e. Carnality)

- 7: He who keeps the law is a wise son, but a companion of gluttons shames his father.

Prov 28:7

v7: He who keeps the Laws of Divine Establishment is a discerning son, but he who is the companion of gluttons who overindulge in anything is humiliates his father.

- 8: He who augments his wealth by interest and increase gathers it for him who is kind to the poor.
- 9: If one turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination.
- 10: He who misleads the upright into an evil way will fall into his own pit; but the blameless will have a goodly inheritance.
- 11: A rich man is wise in his own eyes, but a poor man who has understanding will find him out.
- 12: When the righteous triumph, there is great glory; but when the wicked rise, men hide themselves.
- 13: He who conceals his transgressions will not prosper, but he who confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy.

Prov 28:13

v13: He who conceals his transgressions will not prosper, but he who confesses and separates from them will obtain mercy or compassion.

14: Blessed is the man who fears the LORD always; but he who hardens his heart will fall into calamity.

Prov 28:14

v14: Happinesses to the one who keeps on being under Occupation with the Person of Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ in Ultra Super Grace; but the one who hardens his heart in reversionism will fall into EVIL.

15: Like a roaring lion or a charging bear is a wicked ruler over a poor people.

16: A ruler who lacks understanding is a cruel oppressor; but he who hates unjust gain will prolong his days.

17: If a man is burdened with the blood of another, let him be a fugitive until death; let no one help him.

18: He who walks in integrity will be delivered, but he who is perverse in his ways will fall into a pit.

19: He who tills his land will have plenty of bread, but he who follows worthless pursuits will have plenty of poverty.

20: A faithful man will abound with blessings, but he who hastens to be rich will not go unpunished.

21: To show partiality is not good; but for a piece of bread a man will do wrong.

22: A miserly man hastens after wealth, and does not know that want will come upon him.

23: He who rebukes a man will afterward find more favor than he who flatters with his tongue.

24: He who robs his father or his mother and says, "That is no transgression," is the companion of a man who destroys.

Prov 28:24

v24: He who robs his father or his mother and says, "it is not a sin, is the friend of a man who destroys.

25: A greedy man stirs up strife, but he who trusts in the LORD will be enriched.

26: He who trusts in his own mind is a fool; but he who walks in wisdom will be delivered.

27: He who gives to the poor will not want, but he who hides his eyes will get many a curse.

28: When the wicked rise, men hide themselves, but when they perish, the righteous increase.

Chapter 29

Proverbs, chapter 29

1: He who is often reprov'd, yet stiffens his neck will suddenly be broken beyond healing.

2: When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice; but when the wicked rule, the people groan.

3: He who loves wisdom makes his father glad, but one who keeps company with harlots squanders his substance.

Prov 29:3

v3: He who loves Bible Doctrine makes his father glad, but he who associates with prostitutes wastes his money.

4: By justice a king gives stability to the land, but one who exacts gifts ruins it.

5: A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.

6: An evil man is ensnared in his transgression, but a righteous man sings and rejoices.

7: A righteous man knows the rights of the poor; a wicked man does not understand such knowledge.

8: Scoffers set a city aflame, but wise men turn away wrath.

9: If a wise man has an argument with a fool, the fool only rages and laughs, and there is no quiet.

10: Bloodthirsty men hate one who is blameless, and the wicked seek his life.

11: A fool gives full vent to his anger, but a wise man quietly holds it back.

12: If a ruler listens to falsehood, all his officials will be wicked.

13: The poor man and the oppressor meet together; the LORD gives light to the eyes of both.

14: If a king judges the poor with equity his throne will be established for ever.

15: The rod and reproof give wisdom, but a child left to himself brings shame to his mother.

16: When the wicked are in authority, transgression increases; but the righteous will look upon their downfall.

17: Discipline your son, and he will give you rest; he will give delight to your heart.

18: Where there is no prophecy the people cast off restraint, but blessed is he who keeps the law.

Prov 29:18

v18: Where there is no revelation of Bible Doctrine the people are unrestrained, but happinesses to those who keeps the Laws of Divine Establishment.

19: By mere words a servant is not disciplined, for though he understands, he will not give heed.

20: Do you see a man who is hasty in his words? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

21: He who pampers his servant from childhood, will in the end find him his heir.

22: A man of wrath stirs up strife, and a man given to anger causes much transgression.

23: A man's pride will bring him low, but he who is lowly in spirit will obtain honor.

Prov 29:23

v23: A persons arrogance will bring him low but a spirit of humility will attain honor.

24: The partner of a thief hates his own life; he hears the curse, but discloses nothing.

25: The fear of man lays a snare, but he who trusts in the LORD is safe.

v25: The fear of man provides a snare, but he who puts his trust in the Lord will be promoted.

26: Many seek the favor of a ruler, but from the LORD a man gets justice.

27: An unjust man is an abomination to the righteous, but he whose way is straight is an abomination to the wicked.

Chapter 30
Proverbs, chapter 30

- 1: The words of Agur son of Jakeh of Massa. The man says to Ith'i-el, to Ith'i-el and Ucal:
- 2: Surely I am too stupid to be a man. I have not the understanding of a man.
- 3: I have not learned wisdom, nor have I knowledge of the Holy One.
- 4: Who has ascended to heaven and come down? Who has gathered the wind in his fists? Who has wrapped up the waters in a garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son's name? Surely you know!
- 5: Every word of God proves true; he is a shield to those who take refuge in him.
- 6: Do not add to his words, lest he rebuke you, and you be found a liar.
- 7: Two things I ask of thee; deny them not to me before I die:
- 8: Remove far from me falsehood and lying; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with the food that is needful for me,
- 9: lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, "Who is the LORD?" or lest I be poor, and steal, and profane the name of my God.
- 10: Do not slander a servant to his master, lest he curse you, and you be held guilty.
- 11: There are those who curse their fathers and do not bless their mothers.
- 12: There are those who are pure in their own eyes but are not cleansed of their filth.
- 13: There are those -- how lofty are their eyes, how high their eyelids lift!
- 14: There are those whose teeth are swords, whose teeth are knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, the needy from among men.
- 15: The leech has two daughters; "Give, give," they cry. Three things are never satisfied; four never say, "Enough":
- 16: Sheol, the barren womb, the earth ever thirsty for water, and the fire which never says, "Enough."
- 17: The eye that mocks a father and scorns to obey a mother will be picked out by the ravens of the valley and eaten by the vultures.
- 18: Three things are too wonderful for me; four I do not understand:
- 19: the way of an eagle in the sky, the way of a serpent on a rock, the way of a ship on the high seas, and the way of a man with a maiden.
- 20: This is the way of an adulteress: she eats, and wipes her mouth, and says, "I have done no wrong."
- 21: Under three things the earth trembles; under four it cannot bear up:
- 22: a slave when he becomes king, and a fool when he is filled with food;
- 23: an unloved woman when she gets a husband, and a maid when she succeeds her mistress.
- 24: Four things on earth are small, but they are exceedingly wise:
- 25: the ants are a people not strong, yet they provide their food in the summer;
- 26: the badgers are a people not mighty, yet they make their homes in the rocks;
- 27: the locusts have no king, yet all of them march in rank;
- 28: the lizard you can take in your hands, yet it is in kings' palaces.
- 29: Three things are stately in their tread; four are stately in their stride:
- 30: the lion, which is mightiest among beasts and does not turn back before any;
- 31: the strutting cock, the he-goat, and a king striding before his people.
- 32: If you have been foolish, exalting yourself, or if you have been devising evil, put your hand on your mouth.
- 33: For pressing milk produces curds, pressing the nose produces blood, and pressing anger produces strife.

Chapter 31
Proverbs, chapter 31

- 1: The words of Lemuel, king of Massa, which his mother taught him:
Prov 31:1 (Title of the Chapter)
v1: The Words of the King belonging to God (Solomon's Title), the Statement of Doctrine which his mother (Bathsheba the daughter of Helium) communicated to him and in his later years he recalled it and used or recorded it.
- 2: What, my son? What, son of my womb? What, son of my vows?
Prov 31:2
v2: What my Son (what kind of a man will you be), What the son of my womb, what the son of my vows (what kind of a King will you be),
- 3: Give not your strength to women, your ways to those who destroy kings.
Prov 31:3
v3: Do not give your sexual vigor to wrong women, nor your ways to the things which will destroy kings namely excess drinking,
- 4: It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine, or for rulers to desire strong drink;
- 5: lest they drink and forget what has been decreed, and pervert the rights of all the afflicted.
- 6: Give strong drink to him who is perishing, and wine to those in bitter distress;
- 7: let them drink and forget their poverty, and remember their misery no more.
- 8: Open your mouth for the dumb, for the rights of all who are left desolate.
- 9: Open your mouth, judge righteously, maintain the rights of the poor and needy.
- 10: A good wife who can find? She is far more precious than jewels.

Prov 31:10 (aleph file : RW is most valuable thing in life)

v10: A virtuous woman (of strength and capacity ie the RW) who can find for far beyond pearls (the most valuable thing in the ancient world) is her value

11: The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain.

Prov 31:11 (beth file : rw becomes a house for the RM)

v11: The Right Lobe of her lord has confidence in her, so that he shall not be with out profit

12: She does him good, and not harm, all the days of her life.

Prov 31:12 (gimmel file : Travel or commerce)

v12: She will do, show and cause him Good, and not evil all the days of her lives (every day of her relationships with her RM)

13: She seeks wool and flax, and works with willing hands.

Prov 31:13 (Doleph : refers to a Door indicating a Decision)

v13: She constantly seeks or searches for wool and flax (to make clothes to please her RM) she works in the house with pleasure.

14: She is like the ships of the merchant, she brings her food from afar.

Prov 31:14 (He : Window of perspective)

v14: She becomes like the merchant ship from afar, (She seeks out pleasing things for her RM) She causes her food to be brought pleasingly to her RM, 15: She rises while it is yet night and provides food for her household and tasks for her maidens.

Prov 31:15 (Wow : Hook of Peg of Mental Attitude)

v15: She rises while it is yet night and gives food to her family and assigns things to the maids

16: She considers a field and buys it; with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.

Prov 31:16 (Zayin : sword or Dagger = Agresiveness)

v16: She considers and puts together a business deal and procures a field and with capitol plants a vineyard.

17: She girds her loins with strength and makes her arms strong.

Prov 31:17 (Cheth : Enclosure or Fence, One RM for the RW)

v17: She gives her sex responses for power to only one, she encircles her loins with his strength and encourages him with her arms (Aggressive response in Sex)

18: She perceives that her merchandise is profitable. Her lamp does not go out at night.

Prov 31:18 (Teth : something rolled together relationship or association)

v18: She has tasted that her Gain or profit is Good (anything related to her RM is good for her) her prosperity shall not be extinguished at night.

19: She puts her hands to the distaff, and her hands hold the spindle.

Prov 31:19 (Yoth : human hand, the RW does not cause the RM any concern)

v19: Her hands work the weaving machine and her fingers manipulate the ball of yarn.

20: She opens her hand to the poor, and reaches out her hands to the needy.

Prov 31:20 (Kaph : Hollow of the Hand, representing the overflow of her grace to others)

v20: She holds out the palm of her hand to the oppressed and extends her hands to the miserable or wretched her happiness overflows to others and she is a source of strength and encouragement to others.

21: She is not afraid of snow for her household, for all her household are clothed in scarlet.

Prov 31:21 (Lamedh : Ox goad)

v21: She does not fear for her house from Disaster or Snow, her life is without fear, and all her household is clothed in double garments of crimson providing for her family in times of disaster.

22: She makes herself coverings; her clothing is fine linen and purple.

31: Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her in the gates.

Prov 31:31 (Taw : Signature file)

v31: Give to her love from the production of her hands and praise her occupation in the gates

The Book of Psalms

Psalm 1

1: Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers;

v1: Happinesses is the noble man or believer who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly or unbeliever, nor stands under control of the Old Sin Nature in legalism, nor sits in the seat of apostasy of the scornful ridiculing believers;

2: but his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night.

v2: but his desirous love is in the law or Bible Doctrine pointing to the Lord for Occupation with the Person of Christ, and on his law or Bible Doctrine he inculcates from constant repetition like breathing day and night.

3: He is like a tree planted by streams of water, that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers.

v3: He is stable like a tree with inner strength from deep roots of Metabolized Bible Doctrine planted by (Eph 5:26-7) doctrinal rivers of water, that results in production in all situations or pressures (1Pet 1:7-8), and its leaf is sustained by inner resources of Metabolized Bible Doctrine, and in time of pressure he will not succumb to hysteria. In whatever he does, he produces Divine Good from Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul and is caused to be greatly successful.

4: The wicked are not so, but are like chaff which the wind drives away.

v4: The unjustified or unbeliever are not like the tree, but are like chaff which the wind drives or scatters from place to place, constantly looking for circumstances for happiness.

5: Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous;

v5: Therefore the unjustified or unbeliever will not stand before God in the judgment of baptism of fire(John 3:18), nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous in the millennium;

6: for the LORD knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

v6: for the LORD recognizes the believer having Absolute Righteousness through Salvation Adjustment to the Justice of God through faith in Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ and regeneration, but the way of the unjustified or unbeliever with Relative Righteousness will live forever in torment in the Lake of Fire .

Psalm 2

1: Why do the nations conspire, and the peoples plot in vain?

v1: Why do the gentile nations rage in the tribulation, and the peoples plot or conspire in vain things?

2: The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD and his anointed, saying,

v2: The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers plot together, against the LORD God the Father and his anointed God the Son, saying,

3: "Let us burst their bonds asunder, and cast their cords from us."

v3: "Let us smash their bands of legitimate authority under the Laws of Divine Establishment and let us destroy their restraint over the Old Sin Natures and throw off their chains of the Laws of Divine Establishment

4: He who sits in the heavens laughs; the LORD has them in derision.

v4: And He God the Father who is enthroned in the heavens laughs; the LORD scoffs at them.

5: Then he will speak to them in his wrath, and terrify them in his fury, saying,

v5: Then he will speak to them in his wrath, and terrify them in his fury of the Vial Judgments (Rev 16, 17, 18, 19), saying,

6: "I have set my king on Zion, my holy hill."

v6: "But as for me God the Father I have installed my king on Zion, my holy mountain."

7: I will tell of the decree of the LORD: He said to me, "You are my son, today I have begotten you.

v7: I, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ will proclaim the decree or Plan of God the Father in history: He God the Father said to me God the Son, "You are my son, today at the virgin birth I have begotten you."

8: Ask of me, and I will make the nations your heritage, and the ends of the earth your possession.

v8: Ask from me, and I will give you the nations as your inheritance at the 2nd advent, and the very ends of the earth as your possession.

9: You shall break them with a rod of iron, and dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel."

v9: You shall rule them with an iron scepter, and shatter them to pieces like a pottery. (Capitol Punishment)"

10: Now therefore, O kings, be wise; be warned, O rulers of the earth.

v10: Therefore, you kings, be applying wisdom regarding the Grace of God during the tribulation; be warned, you rulers of the earth.

11: Serve the LORD with fear, with trembling

v11: Serve the LORD with respect by enforcing the Laws of Divine Establishment, and rejoice with anticipation 12: kiss his feet, lest he be angry, and you perish in the way; for his wrath is quickly kindled. Blessed are all who take refuge in him.

v12: Respect the authority of the son, lest he be angry, and you perish in the way; for his wrath is kindled for a little while. Blessed are all who take refuge in him.

Psalm 3

0: A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

v0: A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

1: O LORD, how many are my foes! Many are rising against me;

v1: Oh Lord, How my adversaries or enemies have increased, many are rising up against me

2: many are saying of me, there is no help for him in God. [Selah]

v2: Many are saying about my soul, God will not deliver him, [Selah]

3: But thou, O LORD, art a shield about me, my glory, and the lifter of my head.

v3: But you, oh Lord, are a shield encircling me, my glory and the one which causes me to lift my head

4: I cry aloud to the LORD, and he answers me from his holy hill. [Selah]

v4: I was crying to the LORD with my voice, and he answered me from his holy mountain in heaven. [Selah]

5: I lie down and sleep; I wake again, for the LORD sustains me.

v5: As for me I layed down and sleep; I wake again, because the LORD sustains me.

6: I am not afraid of ten thousands of people who have set themselves against me round about.

v6: I will not be afraid of tens of thousands of people who have set themselves against me on every side.

7: Arise, O LORD! Deliver me, O my God! For thou dost smite all my enemies on the cheek, thou dost break the teeth of the wicked.

v7: Arise, O Jehovah! Deliver me, O my Elohim! For you have punched all my enemies on the jaw, You have broken the teeth of the revolutionists.

8: Deliverance belongs to the LORD; thy blessing be upon thy people! [Selah] v8: Deliverance belongs to the LORD; Your blessing on your people! [Selah]

Psalm 4

0: To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

1: Answer me when I call, O God of my right! Thou hast given me room when I was in distress. Be gracious to me, and hear my prayer.

0: To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

v1: (command) Hear me or Answer me, over the weeping and crying, when I call, O God of my righteousness! You have caused me to grow up or mature or enlarge my capacities through Bible Doctrine with inner happiness when I was under greatest pressure. Have mercy on me and keep the grace coming (a demand), and hear my prayer.

2: O men, how long shall my honor suffer shame? How long will you love vain words, and seek after lies? [Selah] v2: Oh you sons of men in the army who follow Absalom or Saul, how long my glory of kingship into shame or reversionism? How long will you keep on loving emptiness of a personality, and seek after Saul's or Absalom's lies or excuses (1Sam 17; 2Sam 15:1-8)? [Selah, stop and relax and let God do it]

3: But know that the LORD has set apart the godly for himself; the LORD hears when I call to him.

v3: But know that the LORD has caused to be set apart him that is Godly or a super grace believer or belongs to God, for himself; the LORD will hear when I call to him.

4: Be angry, but sin not; commune with your own hearts on your beds, and be silent. [Selah] v4: Be angry or have righteous indignation, but sin not or do not seek vengeance and bitterness, pettiness, spitefulness implacability hatred, etc; think with the Metabolized Bible Doctrine in your own Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, and go to bed to rest without panic, and be still without hatred, spite, hostility when criticized by petty people. [Selah, Stop and let God do it]

5: Offer right sacrifices, and put your trust in the LORD.

v5: Offer the sacrifices of righteousness or rebound or function under the Grace Apparatus for Perception (Sin offering Lev 4, Trespass offering Lev 5-6), and keep on putting your trust in the Lord through the Faith Rest Drill 4 Stages.

6: There are many who say, "O that we might see some good! Lift up the light of thy countenance upon us, O LORD!"

v6: Many will say, "Who will cause us to see or let us experience some good as we flee from enemies! Lord Lift up the light of you countenance or blessing upon us miserable creatures and look at us!"

7: Thou hast put more joy in my heart than they have when their grain and wine abound.

v7: you have already given inner happiness or Sharing the Happiness of God into my Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul multiplied more than in the time of my greatest prosperity.

8: In peace I will both lie down and sleep; for thou alone, O LORD, makest me dwell in safety.

v8: AT ONCE, I will lay down in peace and prosperity and total inner happiness and relaxation from Bible Doctrine in the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul and immediately sleep; for YOU, Lord ONLY, makes me to dwell in safety and prosperity.

Psalm 5

0: To the choirmaster: for the flutes. A Psalm of David.

1: Give ear to my words, O LORD; give heed to my groaning.

2: Harken to the sound of my cry, my King and my God, for to thee do I pray.

3: O LORD, in the morning thou dost hear my voice; in the morning I prepare a sacrifice for thee, and watch.

4: For thou art not a God who delights in wickedness; evil may not sojourn with thee.

Ps 5:4

v4: For you are not a god who takes pleasure in evil no evil dwells in you.

5: The boastful may not stand before thy eyes; thou hatest all evildoers.

6: Thou destroyest those who speak lies; the LORD abhors bloodthirsty and deceitful men.

7: But I through the abundance of thy steadfast love will enter thy house, I will worship toward thy holy temple in the fear of thee.

8: Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness because of my enemies; make thy way straight before me.

v8: Lead me, O LORD, in your grace righteousness because of my enemies; make your way smooth before me.

9: For there is no truth in their mouth; their heart is destruction, their throat is an open sepulchre, they flatter with their tongue.

v9: There is nothing true in what they say; Their soul or inner part is destruction from mental attitude sins, their throat is an open grave which stinks of the rotting corpse of their mental attitude sins, they flatter with their tongue.

10: Make them bear their guilt, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; because of their many transgressions cast them out, for they have rebelled against thee.

11: But let all who take refuge in thee rejoice, let them ever sing for joy; and do thou defend them, that those who love thy name may exult in thee.

12: For thou dost bless the righteous, O LORD; thou dost cover him with favor as with a shield.

Psalm 6

0: To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments; according to The Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

1: O LORD, rebuke me not in thy anger, nor chasten me in thy wrath.

2: Be gracious to me, O LORD, for I am languishing; O LORD, heal me, for my bones are troubled.

3: My soul also is sorely troubled. But thou, O LORD -- how long?

4: Turn, O LORD, save my life; deliver me for the sake of thy steadfast love.

Ps 6:4-5

v4: Return, O LORD, rescue my life from reversionism; deliver me because of your grace or for the sake of your steadfast love. (believer coming out of reversionism)

5: For in death there is no remembrance of thee; in Sheol who can give thee praise?

v5: For there is no remembrance of you oh God in dying; in the grave who will give you thanks? (believer staying in reversionism dying the Sin Unto Death).

6: I am weary with my moaning; every night I flood my bed with tears; I drench my couch with my weeping.

7: My eye wastes away because of grief, it grows weak because of all my foes.

8: Depart from me, all you workers of evil; for the LORD has heard the sound of my weeping.

9: The LORD has heard my supplication; the LORD accepts my prayer.

10: All my enemies shall be ashamed and sorely troubled; they shall turn back, and be put to shame in a moment.

Psalm 7

0: A Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning Cush a Benjaminite.

v0: A Shiggaion or Dithiram of the wandering around or Going astray or madness or psychosis of King Saul by David, which he sang in celebration to the LORD concerning the false doctrines of the black heart of King Saul the reversionistic Benjamite.

1: O LORD my God, in thee do I take refuge; save me from all my pursuers, and deliver me, v1: O Jehovah my Elohim, I have taken my refuge in or put my trust in you; Cause me to be delivered from all my pursuers or persecutors, and cause me to be rescued or snatched from danger,

2: lest like a lion they rend me, dragging me away, with none to rescue.

v2: lest he tear into little pieces my soul like a lion attacking with great violence, dragging me away, with no one to snatch or rescue me from danger.

3: O LORD my God, if I have done this, if there is wrong in my hands, v3: O Jehovah my Elohim, if I have manufactured out of something or caused this persecution from Saul, if there is iniquity clinging to my hands or if I am guilty,

4: if I have requited my friend with evil or plundered my enemy without cause, v4: if I have repaid evil to him, Saul, the one being at peace with me or if I have plundered Saul without a cause the one who is always my enemy,

5: let the enemy pursue me and overtake me, and let him trample my life to the ground, and lay my soul in the dust. [Selah]

v5: let the one always hating me implacably to the point of vindictiveness pursue my soul and overtake it, and let him trample my life into the ground as though it were nothing, and cause my honor to dwell in the dust. [Stop and think about it

6: Arise, O LORD, in thy anger, lift thyself up against the fury of my enemies; awake, O my God; thou hast appointed a judgment.

v6: O Jehovah, Get up on the judgment Dias in your righteous indignation toward the guilty one Saul, be lifted up against the arrogance or pride of my enemies; Arouse yourself on my behalf and become active in my defense or arouse yourself for my benefit, O my God; you have ordained the principle of justice in the Laws of Divine Establishment.

7: Let the assembly of the peoples be gathered about thee; and over it take thy seat on high.

v7: When the entire nation or all the tribes of Israel have gathered around you; then you God the Father above them in heaven, return to or get on the judgment seat and give a decision.

8: The LORD judges the peoples; judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness and according to the integrity that is in me.

v8: The LORD will justly, try, truly decide, and then punish the case and through the case rule the peoples; Administer Justice to or vindicate me, Oh Jehovah, according to my super-grace righteousness and according to my integrity or prosperity of soul or completeness or fullness of Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of my Soul.

9: O let the evil of the wicked come to an end, but establish thou the righteous, thou who triest the minds and hearts, thou righteous God.

v9: Please, let the evil of soul or the reverse process reversionism of the wicked, guilty, ungodly reversionistic ones come to an end, but let the righteousness of the super grace believers be stabilized or vindicated, for the one testing the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul and emotions is Elohim of righteousness.

10: My shield is with God, who saves the upright in heart.

v10: My shield which is carried with me is Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul and the Trinity against reversionism, the ones causing deliverance of the integrity of the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of my Soul

11: God is a righteous judge, and a God who has indignation every day.

v11: Elohim is the one judging through absolute facts the righteous, and EL is the one who is indignant every day toward reversionism.

12: If a man does not repent, God will whet his sword; he has bent and strung his bow;

v12: If he, the reversionist, does not realize his condition and repent or change his mind and regain Positive Volition to Bible Doctrine, God will sharpen his sword to a keen edge for the Sin unto Death; he has bent his bow in Warning and intensive Divine Discipline and prepared it with proper arrows of Divine Discipline;

13: he has prepared his deadly weapons, making his arrows fiery shafts.

v13: He has also appointed for the reversionist the instruments of Death for the different applications of the Sin unto Death, He God shapes his arrows of Divine Discipline into fiery shafts. (Rom 14:4+10)

14: Behold, the wicked man conceives evil, and is pregnant with mischief, and brings forth lies.

v14: Behold or focus your attention here, he, the reversionist, shall have perpetual intensive agonizing labor pains of arrogance making his own misery, because he has become pregnant with Sin of all types and frantic search for happiness and frustrations therefore he has given birth to a life of nothingness or deceit or reversionistic evil. (Cosmic Dynasphere involvement)

15: He makes a pit, digging it out, and falls into the hole which he has made.

v15: He (Believer in Cosmic Dynasphere Reversionism) dug his own grave or pit, and then he explored it through Frantic Search for Happiness or Emotional Revolt of the Soul, therefore he has fallen into the pit or ditch which he himself has constructed.

16: His mischief returns upon his own head, and on his own pate his violence descends.

v16: His frustration or evil from Cosmic Dynasphere involvement will return on his own head as Self Induced Misery, His violence and that which is obtained by violence or deceit or evil descends on the crown of his own head.

17: I will give to the LORD the thanks due to his righteousness, and I will sing praise to the name of the LORD, the Most High.

v17: I will be caused to praise Jehovah according to his righteousness, and I will sing in celebration to the person of Jehovah, the Most High.

Psalm 8

0: To the choirmaster: according to The Gittith. A Psalm of David.

1: O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is thy name in all the earth! Thou whose glory above the heavens is chanted

2: by the mouth of babes and infants, thou hast founded a bulwark because of thy foes, to still the enemy and the avenger.

3: When I look at thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars which thou hast established;

4: what is man that thou art mindful of him, and the son of man that thou dost care for him?

5: Yet thou hast made him little less than God, and dost crown him with glory and honor.

6: Thou hast given him dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet,

7: all sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field,

8: the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, whatever passes along the paths of the sea.

9: O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is thy name in all the earth!

Psalm 9

0: To the choirmaster: according to Muth-labben. A Psalm of David.

1: I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart; I will tell of all thy wonderful deeds.

2: I will be glad and exult in thee, I will sing praise to thy name, O Most High.
 3: When my enemies turned back, they stumbled and perished before thee.
 4: For thou hast maintained my just cause; thou hast sat on the throne giving righteous judgment.
 5: Thou hast rebuked the nations, thou hast destroyed the wicked; thou hast blotted out their name for ever and ever.
 6: The enemy have vanished in everlasting ruins; their cities thou hast rooted out; the very memory of them has perished.
 7: But the LORD sits enthroned for ever, he has established his throne for judgment;
 8: and he judges the world with righteousness, he judges the peoples with equity.
 9: The LORD is a stronghold for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble.
v9: The LORD will be a fortification for the oppressed, a castle in times of trouble.
 10: And those who know thy name put their trust in thee, for thou, O LORD, hast not forsaken those who seek thee.
v10: And those who know thy name put their trust in thee, for thou, O LORD, hast not forsaken those super-grace believers who seek thee.
 11: Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion! Tell among the peoples his deeds!
v11: Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in castle Zion in heaven! Declare among the peoples his deeds!
 12: For he who avenges blood is mindful of them; he does not forget the cry of the afflicted.
 13: Be gracious to me, O LORD! Behold what I suffer from those who hate me, O thou who liftest me up from the gates of death, v13: Be gracious to me, O LORD! Behold my adversity from those who hate me, O thou who liftest me up from the gates of death, 14: that I may recount all thy praises, that in the gates of the daughter of Zion I may rejoice in thy deliverance.
Ps 9:14
v14: that I, a super-grace believer, may extol or tell all of your praises, total awareness and understanding of your essence, that in the castle gates of the daughters of Zion I may be happy in your deliverance.
 15: The nations have sunk in the pit which they made; in the net which they hid has their own foot been caught.
 16: The LORD has made himself known, he has executed judgment; the wicked are snared in the work of their own hands. [Higgaion. Selah]
 17: The wicked shall depart to Sheol, all the nations that forget God.
 18: For the needy shall not always be forgotten, and the hope of the poor shall not perish for ever.
 19: Arise, O LORD! Let not man prevail; let the nations be judged before thee!
 20: Put them in fear, O LORD! Let the nations know that they are but men! [Selah]

Psalm 10

1: Why dost thou stand afar off, O LORD? Why dost thou hide thyself in times of trouble?
 2: In arrogance the wicked hotly pursue the poor; let them be caught in the schemes which they have devised.
v2: In arrogance or pride the reversionist hotly pursues the afflicted; let them be trapped in the plots and conspiracies which they have devised.
 3: For the wicked boasts of the desires of his heart, and the man greedy for gain curses and renounces the LORD.
v3: For the wicked reversionists have boasted over the desires of his Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, and the criminal in arrogance has maligned the Laws of Divine Establishment and LORD.
 4: In the pride of his countenance the wicked does not seek him; all his thoughts are, "There is no God."
v4: The wicked reversionist in the pride of his face the reversionist does not seek him; in all his thoughts he says, "There is no thinking about God."
 5: His ways prosper at all times; thy judgments are on high, out of his sight; as for all his foes, he puffs at them.
 6: He thinks in his heart, "I shall not be moved; throughout all generations I shall not meet adversity."
 7: His mouth is filled with cursing and deceit and oppression; under his tongue are mischief and iniquity.
v7: His mouth is filled with cursing and deceit and oppression; under his tongue is evil and wickedness.
 8: He sits in ambush in the villages; in hiding places he murders the innocent. His eyes stealthily watch for the hapless, 9: he lurks in secret like a lion in his covert; he lurks that he may seize the poor, he seizes the poor when he draws him into his net.
 10: The hapless is crushed, sinks down, and falls by his might.
 11: He thinks in his heart, "God has forgotten, he has hidden his face, he will never see it."
 12: Arise, O LORD; O God, lift up thy hand; forget not the afflicted.
 13: Why does the wicked renounce God, and say in his heart, "Thou wilt not call to account"?
 14: Thou dost see; yea, thou dost note trouble and vexation, that thou mayest take it into thy hands; the hapless commits himself to thee; thou hast been the helper of the fatherless.
 15: Break thou the arm of the wicked and evildoer; seek out his wickedness till thou find none.
 16: The LORD is king for ever and ever; the nations shall perish from his land.
 17: O LORD, thou wilt hear the desire of the meek; thou wilt strengthen their heart, thou wilt incline thy ear
 18: to do justice to the fatherless and the oppressed, so that man who is of the earth may strike terror no more.

Psalm 11

0: To the choirmaster. Of David.

v0: To the one who excels; to David.

1: In the LORD I take refuge; how can you say to me, "Flee like a bird to the mountains;

v1: In the Jehovah my refuge, I have absolute confidence from Grace Orientation; how can you counselors say or make a comment like this to the intellect in my soul, "Retreat or Flee like a bird to your mountains;

2: for lo, the wicked bend the bow, they have fitted their arrow to the string, to shoot in the dark at the upright in heart;

v2: for behold, the wicked ones, the philistines, prepare and load the bow, they have fitted and aimed their arrow on the string, to shoot even in darkness or ambush at the true ones in the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul;

3: if the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do"?

v3: If the pillars of the Jewish government are in the process of being torn down because of the loss by Saul on the battlefield at Gilboa, what can the vindicated believer with Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul and Filling of God the Holy Spirit do to stand in the gap"?

4: The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORD's throne is in heaven; his eyes behold, his eyelids test, the children of men.

v4: The Lord Jehovah, God the Son, in the palace of his holy place or abode, the Lord Jehovah, God the Father, in the heavens his royal throne; his, God's, eyes see and understand what is going on in history, his eyelids almost closed in concentration keep testing the Human Race.

5: The LORD tests the righteous and the wicked, and his soul hates him that loves violence.

v5: The Lord Jehovah tests the vindicated super-grace or Laws of Divine Establishment believer for purity and reality by the fire of adversity, but the impious anti-God reversionist, even the one who keeps loving illegal violence, Saul, his, God's, essence or soul has righteous indignation or has rejected him that loves illegal violence to gain false objectives.

6: On the wicked he will rain coals of fire and brimstone; a scorching wind shall be the portion of their cup.

v6: On the reversionist he will rain a snare causing his own ruin or destruction, and the fires and brimstone of national disaster and chemical destruction of the body of the reversionist, Saul; a burning scorching wind from loss of military battles to invading armies shall be the punishment of the reversionistic people as well.

7: For the LORD is righteous, he loves righteous deeds; the upright shall behold his face.

v7: Because the Lord Jehovah is righteous, he loves vindicating deeds; the believer with Positive Volition in super-grace shall behold his face in Occupation with the Person of Christ.

Psalm 12

0: To the choirmaster: according to The Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

v0: To the one in authority directing the music on the Shimineth with the low pitched octave, a Psalm of David

1: Help, LORD; for there is no longer any that is godly; for the faithful have vanished from among the sons of men.

v1: Deliver Oh Jehovah because the mature super grace type has ceased to exist; because Doctrinal Types have vanished from among the Human Race in the national entity.

2: Every one utters lies to his neighbor; with flattering lips and a double heart they speak.

v2: They, the Mutual Admiration Society, speak what they think in the form of evil, as motivation then application and function from the motivation, each one the arrogant, gossip and judger, to his friend, the inadequate one, vindicating themselves; the arrogant and inadequate speaks rationalizing or vindicating themselves with a lip of braggings or flatteries in order to or as they slander or destroy one in authority, and with a doubled Stream of Consciousness of the Soul do they speak, the reversionist under evil influence vindicating self making Self Righteous Arrogance the self confidence of this evil person, motivating the functions of judging, slander, maligning and condemnation of others.

3: May the LORD cut off all flattering lips, the tongue that makes great boasts, v3: Jehovah shall destroy or root out all flattering lips, the tongue of the reversionistic believers that speaks arrogant things from the motivation of the mental attitude sins of pride and arrogance etc.,

4: those who say, "With our tongue we will prevail, our lips are with us; who is our master?"

v4: Who (the mutual admiration society) has said, "With our tongue expressing judgment, slander and gossip we will overcome, prevail or put down, our lips are our own, we have a right or it is our duty to use our mouth to do this; who is Lord or has authority over us?"

5: "Because the poor are despoiled, because the needy groan, I will now arise," says the LORD; "I will place him in the safety for which he longs."

v5: "Because of the violence toward the grace oriented humble believers, because of the groanings of the miserable ones under persecution from the Sins of the Tongue, NOW!, I will arise to judge or in judgment," says Jehovah, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ"; "I will place him in deliverance from the one who puffs with meaningless pride motivated talk of maligning, judging and gossiping about the Grace Orientation believer"

6: The promises of the LORD are promises that are pure, silver refined in a furnace on the ground, purified seven times.

v6: The judgments pronounced in the Supreme Court of Heaven by Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ the LORD are pure or unmingled with falsehoods, like silver refined in a crucible or furnace and poured out onto the ground, being purified or filtered seven times.

7: Do thou, O LORD, protect us, guard us ever from this generation.

v7: You and only you Jehovah, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, shall guard them the Grace Orientation humble believers and preserve them or deliver or defend them from this generation and forever being evaluated with great glory in eternity.

8: On every side the wicked prowled, as vileness is exalted among the sons of men.

v8: On every side the evil ones or reversionists strut in arrogance when vileness as the verbal expression of evil is exalted in the Human Race.

Psalm 13

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

1: How long, O LORD? Wilt thou forget me for ever? How long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

v1: Until when or How long, Oh Jehovah will you short circuit your memory to totally blot me out of your memory for the rest of my life? Until when or How long will you cause to hide your face from me in greatest divine displeasure and disapproval?

2: How long must I bear pain in my soul, and have sorrow in my heart all the day? How long shall my enemy be exalted over me?

v2: Until when or How long must I line up worries or anxieties in my soul, and having maximum misery in the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of my Soul all the day? Until when or How long shall my enemy Saul be exalted over me?

3: Consider and answer me, O LORD my God; lighten my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;

v3: (demand) Have regard or respect for me (since I recognize that your plan and GRACE is the only answer to my problems) and listen and answer me, Oh Jehovah my Elohim; cause to enlighten through Grace Apparatus for Perception or to understand all the doctrine I had learned my eyes, lest I sleep the Sin Unto Death;

4: lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed over him"; lest my foes rejoice because I am shaken.

v4: lest my enemy Saul keep saying, "I have overcome him"; lest those hostile to me exalt or dance in joy because I am tottering.

5: But I have trusted in thy steadfast love; my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.

v5: But I understand through faith rest that repentance is non-meritorious and trust in your gracious steadfast love; my Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul shall celebrate your deliverance

6: I will sing to the LORD, because he has dealt bountifully with me.

v6: I will sing in celebration to the LORD Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, because he has compensated me in grace

Psalm 14

0: To the choirmaster. Of David.

1: The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds, there is none that does good.

v1: Nabal (1Sam 25) has said in his Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, "There is not Elohim." They wealthy reversionist are spoiled and rotting and totally perverted in soul, the wealthy reversionists have done detestable deeds all the time, there is not one wealthy reversionist who is capable of doing good.

2: The LORD looks down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there are any that act wisely, that seek after God.

v2: The LORD looks down as in a reconnaissance from heaven upon the human race for someone to bless, to see from his reconnaissance if there is anyone who had been caused to be wised and use the Grace Apparatus for Perception to the point of super-grace and want to know God.

3: They have all gone astray, they are all alike corrupt; there is none that does good, no, not one.

v3: They have all degenerated and deviated into total apostasy, they are all morally corrupt and in phallic reversionism7; there is not one reversionist manufacturing good, there is not even one.

4: Have they no knowledge, all the evildoers who eat up my people as they eat bread, and do not call upon the LORD?

v4: All the reversionistic workers of emptiness have no knowledge of doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of their Soul, all the morally corrupt evildoers are destroying my people as if they are eating bread, furthermore they do not believe in Jehovah Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ?

5: There they shall be in great terror, for God is with the generation of the righteous.

v5: Right there in the generation of blessing under super-grace leadership, the super-grace believers have great acceptance and respect for authority and the Laws of Divine Establishment, for God is with the generation of or associated with the super leader

6: You would confound the plans of the poor, but the LORD is his refuge.

v6: You, Nabal, have caused shame to the contract with the afflicted, David & his people, but the LORD is his refuge.

7: O that deliverance for Israel would come out of Zion! When the LORD restores the fortunes of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, Israel shall be glad.

v7: David, who shall give from the captured fortress of Zion, the fort of Jebuse, deliverance for Israel! When Jehovah restores the adversities of his people, The Jewish unbelievers shall celebrate, Israel shall express their Shared Happiness of God .

Psalm 15

0: A Psalm of David.

1: O LORD, who shall sojourn in thy tent? Who shall dwell on thy holy hill?

v1: Oh Jehovah, God the Father, who will be a temporary guest in your tent or field headquarters? Who shall permanently dwell on your holy mountain, Zion the permanent headquarters?

2: He who walks blamelessly, and does what is right, and speaks truth from his heart;

v2: He who keeps walking in spiritual maturity as a super-grace believer, and practicing integrity, and speaking doctrinal or Divine Viewpoint from the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of his Soul;

3: who does not slander with his tongue, and does no evil to his friend, nor takes up a reproach against his neighbor;

v3: He who does not gossip with his tongue, he does not manufacture evil for his friends, nor lift up slander against those with whom he is intimate;

4: in whose eyes a reprobate is despised, but who honors those who fear the LORD; who swears to his own hurt and does not change;

v4: He in whose sight or viewpoint of life a reprobate or reversionist is rejected, but who intensely honors in a concentrated form those who are involved in Occupation with the Person of Christ; He himself who takes an oath making a solemn promise even to a despicable person and does not go back on his word;

5: who does not put out his money at interest, and does not take a bribe against the innocent. He who does these things shall never be moved.

v5: He who does not give or loan his money at exorbitant interest, and does not take a bribe against the innocent. He who manufactures these things from Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul shall not be shaken unto eternity.

Psalm 16

0: A Miktam of David.

v0: A message of values on the perspective of life in pressure of David.

1: Preserve me, O God, for in thee I take refuge.

v1: (A demand to fulfill his promises) Preserve, protect, stand guard over me, Oh God my father, for in you have I found refuge from my relationship as your child.

2: I say to the LORD, "Thou art my Lord; I have no good apart from thee."

v2: I have said to the Lord in pressure, "You are my Lord and have responsibility for me, God the Father; I have no Good but you, or My Human Good is not acceptable to you."

3: As for the saints in the land, they are the noble, in whom is all my delight.

v3: But to the super-grace believers in Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ in the land of Judah, and the glorious ones in whom is my delight in their doctrinal advancement and military advance.

4: Those who choose another god multiply their sorrows; their libations of blood I will not pour out or take their names upon my lips.

v4: Their (REVERSIONISTS) suffering and discipline will be multiplied who (Saul's Army and the next 6 years of his civil war) are hasty to go after another god or false doctrine or false system or to put something before the Lord; their drink offering or libations of blood offered to idols I David, will not accept, nor will I, David, even take their religious idol names upon my lips. Ex 2:13

5: The LORD is my chosen portion and my cup; thou holdest my lot.

v5: The LORD and only the Lord, the portion of my eternal inheritance and of my varying cup of life from grace and divine blessing; You maintain or constantly hold securely what belongs to me or my inheritance. John 10:28

6: The lines have fallen for me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage.

v6: The surveying lines have fallen for me in heavenly places and I will have great prosperity with capacity for life and love and happiness; yes, I have a beautiful possession.

7: I bless the LORD who gives me counsel; in the night also my heart instructs me.

v7: I will worship or adore the LORD with Occupation with the Person of Christ who has given me guidance or advice; my emotions respond to my positive volition to Bible Doctrine and Occupation with the Person of Christ and my emotions instruct me by means of correction immediately in the catastrophe of Divine Discipline during the march.

8: I keep the LORD always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

v8: I keep set or place the LORD Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ who is sufficient or more than enough for all things (Heb 12:2-) always first in my scale of values and is totally satisfying to me (Heb 13:5-6); because Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ my senior officer, at my right hand, I shall not receive panic nor hysteria nor tottering nor shaking.

9: Therefore my heart is glad, and my soul rejoices; my body also dwells secure.

v9: Therefore the Right Lobe of My Stream of Consciousness of the Soul is rejoicing with Sharing the Happiness of God, and my super-grace glory status rejoices; my body also dwells secure in confidence.

10: For thou dost not give me up to Sheol, or let thy godly one see the Pit.

v10: (parenthesis) For you God will not leave my soul in paradise or Sheol / Hades but I will receive in the future a resurrection body, nor let the soul of your chosen or Holy one Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ to see corruption permanently in the grave after the crucifixion (parenthesis closed).

11: Thou dost show me the path of life; in thy presence there is fulness of joy, in thy right hand are pleasures for evermore.

v11: You will make known to me or cause me to know (Bible Doctrine) the path of life or Plan of God, in your presence there is fullness of joy or superabundance of happiness, at your right hand in eternity are pleasures forevermore.

Psalm 17

0: A Prayer of David.

1: Hear a just cause, O LORD; attend to my cry! Give ear to my prayer from lips free of deceit!

2: From thee let my vindication come! Let thy eyes see the right!

3: If thou triest my heart, if thou visitest me by night, if thou testest me, thou wilt find no wickedness in me; my mouth does not transgress.

4: With regard to the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have avoided the ways of the violent.

5: My steps have held fast to thy paths, my feet have not slipped.

6: I call upon thee, for thou wilt answer me, O God; incline thy ear to me, hear my words.

7: Wondrously show thy steadfast love, O savior of those who seek refuge from their adversaries at thy right hand.

8: Keep me as the apple of the eye; hide me in the shadow of thy wings, 9: from the wicked who despoil me, my deadly enemies who surround me.

10: They close their hearts to pity; with their mouths they speak arrogantly.

11: They track me down; now they surround me; they set their eyes to cast me to the ground.

12: They are like a lion eager to tear, as a young lion lurking in ambush.

13: Arise, O LORD! confront them, overthrow them! Deliver my life from the wicked by thy sword, 14: from men by thy hand, O LORD, from men whose portion in life is of the world. May their belly be filled with what thou hast stored up for them; may their children have more than enough; may they leave something over to their babes.

15: As for me, I shall behold thy face in righteousness; when I awake, I shall be satisfied with beholding thy form.

Psalm 18

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD, who addressed the words of this song to the LORD on the day when the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said:

v0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD, who addressed the words of this song to the LORD on the day when the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said:

1: I love thee, O LORD, my strength.

v1: I love You, O LORD, my strength.

2: The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer, my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.

v2: The LORD is my rock or stability, and my fortress through military function, and my deliverer, my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield who promotes me, and the horn of my deliverance, my stronghold castle.

3: I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised, and I am saved from my enemies.

v3: I call upon the LORD, who is worYour to be praised, and I am delivered from my enemies.

4: The cords of death encompassed me, the torrents of perdition assailed me;

v4: The cords of death surrounded me, the torrents of persecution surrounded me;

5: the cords of Sheol entangled me, the snares of death confronted me.

v5: the cords of of the grave surrounded me, the snares of death confronted me.

6: In my distress I called upon the LORD; to my God I cried for help. From his temple he heard my voice, and my cry to him reached his ears.

v6: In my distress I called to the LORD; to my God I cried for help. From his temple he heard my voice, and my cry for help to him reached his ears in Eternity Past .

v10: He rode on a cherub, and flew; he came swiftly upon the wings of the wind.

11: He made darkness his covering around him, his canopy thick clouds dark with water.

v11: He made darkness his covering around him, his canopy thick clouds dark with water.

12: Out of the brightness before him there broke through his clouds hailstones and coals of fire.

v12: Out of the brightness before him there broke through his clouds hailstones and coals of fire.

13: The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Most High uttered his voice, hailstones and coals of fire.

v13: The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Most High uttered his voice, hailstones and coals of fire. Keeping the fallen angels from me

14: And he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; he flashed forth lightnings, and routed them.

v14: And he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; he flashed forth lightnings, and routed them.

15: Then the channels of the sea were seen, and the foundations of the world were laid bare, at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

v15: Then the channels of the sea were seen, and the foundations of the world were laid bare, at Your rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of Your nostrils, You held back the human enemy and angelic enemy as well.

16: He reached from on high, he took me, he drew me out of many waters.

v16: He sent from on high, he took me, he drew me out of many waters through deliverance.

17: He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from those who hated me; for they were too mighty for me.

v17: He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from those who hated me; for they were too mighty for me.

18: They came upon me in the day of my calamity; but the LORD was my stay.

v18: My own men confronted me in the day of my calamity at Ziklag; but the LORD was my stay.

19: He brought me forth into a broad place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

v19: He brought me forth into a broad place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

20: The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands he recompensed me.

v20: The LORD rewarded me according to my super-grace righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands he recompensed me.

21: For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

v21: For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God in reversionism.

22: For all his ordinances were before me, and his statutes I did not put away from me.

v22: For all his ordinances or categorical doctrines were before me, and his principles of doctrine I did not put away from me.

23: I was blameless before him, and I kept myself from guilt.

v23: I was blameless before him, and I kept myself from evil not killing Saul and seizing the kingdom.

24: Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his sight.

v24: Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my super-grace righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyes .

25: With the loyal thou dost show thyself loyal; with the blameless man thou dost show thyself blameless;

v25: With the loyal You do show Yourself loyal; with the blameless man You do show Yourself blameless;

26: with the pure thou dost show thyself pure; and with the crooked thou dost show thyself perverse.

v26: with the pure You do show Yourself pure; and with the crooked like Saul You do show Yourself astute.

27: For thou dost deliver a humble people; but the haughty eyes thou dost bring down.

v27: For You do deliver an afflicted people; but to the arrogant eyes You do despise .

28: Yea, thou dost light my lamp; the LORD my God lightens my darkness.

v28: Yes, You do light my lamp; the LORD my God lightens my darkness.

29: Yea, by thee I can crush a troop; and by my God I can leap over a wall.

v29: Yes, by You I can crush an army; and by my God I can leap over a wall.

30: This God -- his way is perfect; the promise of the LORD proves true; he is a shield for all those who take refuge in him.

v30: This God; his way is blameless; the promise of the LORD proves true; he is a shield for all those who take refuge in him.

31: For who is God, but the LORD? And who is a rock, except our God? -- v31: For who is God, but the LORD? And who is a rock, except our God?

32: the God who girded me with strength, and made my way safe.

v32: The God who girded me with strength, and made my way BLAMELESS .

33: He made my feet like hinds' feet, and set me secure on the heights.

v33: He made my feet like hinds' feet very fast, and set me up secure on the heights.

34: He trains my hands for war, so that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

v34: He trains my hands for war, so that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

Psalm 19

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

1: The heavens are telling the glory of God; and the firmament proclaims his handiwork.

v1: The heavens are telling the glory of God so that unbelievers can reach God Consciousness; and the firmament of the earth is declaring the work of his hands and you can study the earth in many ways through many sciences and before and conclude that the order herein must have someone who started it, namely God.

2: Day to day pours forth speech, and night to night declares knowledge.

v2: Day to day pours forth speech from words from thoughts from what you have learned that behind all that is around us is a God, and night to night reveals knowledge and by studying the universe and stars the same conclusion occurs.

3: There is no speech, nor are there words; their voice is not heard;

v3: There is no speech, nor are there words; their voice is not heard; the universe which teaches the reality that there is a creator God does not speak to you telling you there is a God but we come to that conclusion by our own reason.

4: yet their voice goes out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them he has set a tent for the sun, v4: But their sound has gone out through all the earth, and their utterances to the ends of the world meaning once a person reaches God Consciousness and has Positive Volition while he did not learn directly about God from his speaking from heaven but came to the conclusion of the existence of God through his own thoughts. In them he has set a tent for the sun,

5: which comes forth like a bridegroom leaving his chamber, and like a strong man runs its course with joy.

6: Its rising is from the end of the heavens, and its circuit to the end of them; and there is nothing hid from its heat.

7: The law of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul; the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple;

8: the precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes;

9: the fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever; the ordinances of the LORD are true, and righteous altogether.

v9: The fear of the LORD is clean in maximum Adjustment to the Justice of God, enduring for ever; the judgments of the LORD are true, they are righteous altogether.

10: More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and drippings of the honeycomb.

11: Moreover by them is thy servant warned; in keeping them there is great reward.

12: But who can discern his errors? Clear thou me from hidden faults.

13: Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me! Then I shall be blameless, and innocent of great transgression.

14: Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my rock and my redeemer.

Psalm 20

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

1: The LORD answer you in the day of trouble! The name of the God of Jacob protect you!

v1: The Lord WILL answer you or your battle prayer in the day of invasion pressure! The reputation or person of the God of Jacob WILL defend or protect you even though there are many unworthy people in the nation who don't deserve it!

2: May he send you help from the sanctuary, and give you support from Zion!

v2: He will send you help from the tabernacle and Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, therefore He will sustain, refresh, support you from Zion the command post of Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul !

3: May he remember all your offerings, and regard with favor your burnt sacrifices! [Selah]

v3: He will remember all your food offerings or Propitiation emphasizing the person of Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, and will accept your burnt offerings or propitiation emphasizing the substitutionary Spiritual death of Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ on the Cross, both showing propitiation! [Selah]

4: May he grant you your heart's desire, and fulfil all your plans!

v4: He will give to you according to the Bible Doctrine in your Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul and will fulfill what God has started in all your battle plans!

5: May we shout for joy over your victory, and in the name of our God set up our banners! May the LORD fulfil all your petitions!

v5: We in the Jewish army will shout in celebration with capacity for appreciation of the work of Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ controlling Human History in your battle victory and deliverance, and in the name or person of Elohim we will plant our colors in victory! The LORD shall fulfill all your (David's) battle petitions or questions and answers regarding the situation!

6: Now I know that the LORD will help his anointed; he will answer him from his holy heaven with mighty victories by his right hand.

v6: At this time after victories I have application of Bible Doctrine and know that the LORD has delivered his anointed (Here David); he (God) will answer him from his holy heaven or the Higher Headquarters by mighty deeds of the victory of his right hand the Lord Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ.

7: Some boast of chariots, and some of horses; but we boast of the name of the LORD our God.

v7: Some enemies boast by chariots and some by calvary, but we have been caused to remember by Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul and to trust or boast in the person of the Jehovah our Elohim, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ.

8: They will collapse and fall; but we shall rise and stand upright.

v8: They (Philistines and Syrians under Shobak) have been defeated and have fallen and killed but we are established or stabilized or victorious in battle and stand upright in perpetuated freedom therefore we have restored our nation through victory on the battlefield.

9: Give victory to the king, O LORD; answer us when we call.

v9: Jehovah has delivered the King, answer us on the day when we call.

Psalm 21

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

v0: To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

1: In thy strength the king rejoices, O LORD; and in thy help how greatly he exults!

v1: Oh Jehovah, in your omnipotent power the super-grace believer king (David) will express his Sharing of the Happiness of God; and in your victory or deliverance how greatly he will rejoice or express his happiness, by dancing around!

2: Thou hast given him his heart's desire, and hast not withheld the request of his lips. [Selah]

v2: You have given to him, David, the desire of the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of his Soul, and have not withheld the request of his lips in prayer for wisdom in his leadership. Now Stop and think about it. (Music continues)

3: For thou dost meet him with goodly blessings; thou dost set a crown of fine gold upon his head.

v3: For you have preceded him with blessings of Divine goodness in Super-grace; you placed on his head a crown of fine gold and which will remain on his head as king until he dies

4: He asked life of thee; thou gavest it to him, length of days for ever and ever.

v4: He asked refreshment, recreation, welfare, all types of prosperity and happiness of you; you gave it to him in grace, extension of days in super-grace-2 temporal blessing package for ever and ever in super-grace-3 in eternal blessings

5: His glory is great through thy help; splendor and majesty thou dost bestow upon him.

v5: Great His, God's, glory in your deliverance or battle victories; You, God, have bestowed on him Majesty of his, David's promotion as king over all Israel and the Honor of passing the prosperity testing,

6: Yea, thou dost make him most blessed for ever; thou dost make him glad with the joy of thy presence.

v6: For you will appoint him, David, blessings of super-grace-3 for ever in eternity; you make him happy with happiness added to happiness with the happiness of your presence.

7: For the king trusts in the LORD; and through the steadfast love of the Most High he shall not be moved.

v7: For the king, David, slams his problems onto the Lord by claiming any promise and doctrine and principle learned from scripture and retained in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, thus trusting in Jehovah; and because of the steadfast love or Grace of the Most High he shall not waiver or be shaken or totter or lose stability.

8: Your hand will find out all your enemies; your right hand will find out those who hate you.

v8: Your intelligence service system, king David, will discover all your outside enemy nations; your domestic intelligence will discover those who hate you internally.

9: You will make them as a blazing oven when you appear. The LORD will swallow them up in his wrath; and fire will consume them.

v9: You will appoint or place or make them, in the time of your presence, as in an incinerator of blazing fire. Jehovah, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, will destroy them completely in his anger; and the fire of Jehovah's judgment will devour them.

10: You will destroy their offspring from the earth, and their children from among the sons of men.

v10: You will scatter and destroy their offspring from the earth, and their children from among the human race.

11: If they plan evil against you, if they devise mischief, they will not succeed.

Ps 21:11 (Evil frustrated by Super Grace Status of David)

v11: For they stretched out evil upon you and devised or invented a conspiracy or revolution but they are not able to carry it out.

12: For you will put them to flight; you will aim at their faces with your bows.

v12: For you David will appoint the evil philistine men, the revolutionaries foreign and domestic a shoulder to prepare by loading the bow; on your bowstrings you will prepare by aiming at their faces with your bows.

13: Be exalted, O LORD, in thy strength! We will sing and praise thy power.

v13: Be exalted, Oh Jehovah, in your omnipotence! We will keep singing our war songs and pluck the strings of the stringed instruments and celebrate your powerful military victories.

0: To the choirmaster: according to The Hind of the Dawn. A Psalm of David.

v0: To the choirmaster: according to The Helpless Doe of the Dawn who is unmercifully hunted and persecuted and under maximum pressure. A Psalm of David referring to both David and Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ.

1: My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? Why art thou so far from helping me, from the words of my groaning?

v1: My God, My God why have you forsaken me?

2: O my God, I cry by day, but thou dost not answer; and by night, but find no rest.

v2: O my God the Father, I Call out or Scream in the daylight hours, but you do not answer; and in the night, but find no rest.

3: Yet thou art holy, enthroned on the praises of Israel.

v3: For you are holy (Justice of God & Righteousness of God), you who keep on being the recipient of the praises of Israel.

4: In thee our fathers trusted; they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

v4: Our fathers trusted in you and you delivered or rescued them out of the most impossible disasters.

5: To thee they cried, and were saved; in thee they trusted, and were not disappointed.

v5: They helplessly cried throughout history, and reaped what God sowed and were saved; They trusted, and were not put to shame.

6: But I am a worm, and no man; scorned by men, and despised by the people.

v6: But I am a totally helpless person or a worm to be crushed into crimson royal dye, and no longer human because of this suffering; under reproach by men, and despised with maximum hatred by the people.

7: All who see me mock at me, they make mouths at me, they wag their heads;

v7: All who see me mock and laugh me to scorn, they shoot out their lip or thumb their nose at me in derision, and they wag their heads or give me the finger in ridicule;

8: "He committed his cause to the LORD; let him deliver him, let him rescue him, for he delights in him!"

v8: "He rolled or cast his problems onto the Lord, Let the Lord deliver him, let him rescue him, for he keeps on having perfect delight in him!"

9: Yet thou art he who took me from the womb; thou didst keep me safe upon my mother's breasts.

v9: For you God the Father are he who brought me [me betin] out from, away from, outside of the Womb, you caused or motivated me to trust while on my mothers breast.

10: Upon thee was I cast from my birth, and since my mother bore me thou hast been my God.

v10: I was caused to be dependent upon you God the Father, [shalak] out from, separated from, removed from, the Womb, for you have been my God, separated from, removed from, outside of my mothers womb;

11: Be not far from me, for trouble is near and there is none to help.

v11: Do not stay away from me, for trouble - near and there is no one helping me.

12: Many bulls encompass me, strong bulls of Bashan surround me;

v12: Many wild bulls with horns have surrounded me, wild bulls or evil power of Bashan have surrounded me in a hostile sense;

13: they open wide their mouths at me, like a ravening and roaring lion.

v13: They tear me apart with their mouths, like a ravening and roaring lion.

14: I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint; my heart is like wax, it is melted within my breast;

v14: I am dehydrated and have lost strength or vitality, and all my bones are being pulled apart and separated; my Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul is in extreme pain, it is melted within my breast;

15: my strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue cleaves to my jaws; thou dost lay me in the dust of death.

v15: My strength is dried up like a broken pot or vessel, and my tongue is swollen in my mouth sticking against my jaws; you have laid me in the dust of death.

16: Yea, dogs are round about me; a company of evildoers encircle me; they have pierced my hands and feet --

v16: Yea, the roman gentiles have surrounded me; the assembly of the wicked religious Jews have encircled me; they the roman soldiers have pierced my hands and feet on the cross

17: I can count all my bones -- they stare and gloat over me;

v17: I can number or count all my bones, they look at me out of my body and keep on seeing me;

18: they divide my garments among them, and for my raiment they cast lots.

v18: The roman soldiers divide my garments among them, and the gamble for my clothes.

19: But thou, O LORD, be not far off! O thou my help, hasten to my aid!

20: Deliver my soul from the sword, my life from the power of the dog!

21: Save me from the mouth of the lion, my afflicted soul from the horns of the wild oxen!

v21: Deliver me from the lion's mouth of certain death, you have answered my agonized afflicted soul in the midst of my being impaled upon the horns of the wounded water buffalo or incredible pressure!

22: I will tell of thy name to my brethren; in the midst of the congregation I will praise thee:

v22: I will write concerning your person, God the Father, to my racial brethren; in the assembly of the congregation of destroyed Zicklag I will praise thee:

23: You who fear the LORD, praise him! all you sons of Jacob, glorify him, and stand in awe of him, all you sons of Israel!

v23: You in my battalion who respect Jehovah, join in and praise him! all you sons of Jacob born spiritually dead in need of grace, become his honor in supergrace, and respect or be occupied with him, all you sons of Israel!

24: For he has not despised or abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; and he has not hid his face from him, but has heard, when he cried to him.

v24: For HE God the Father, has not ignored or despised or abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; and He has not hid his face from him, but has concentrated on him, when he cried to HIM.

25: From thee comes my praise in the great congregation; my vows I will pay before those who fear him.

v25: From you comes my praise in the great congregation; I will tell or testify how my prosperity has come to meto those who respect Him, God the Father 26: The afflicted shall eat and be satisfied; those who seek him shall praise the LORD! May your hearts live for ever!

v26: The humble shall eat spiritual food and will be satisfied from Logistical Grace; those who use consistent Positive Volition to Bible Doctrine shall praise Jehovah! Let Your Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul be refreshed forever with Bible Doctrine.

27: All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the LORD; and all the families of the nations shall worship before him.

v27: All the ends of the earth at the 2nd advent shall remember and convert to the Lord Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ; and all the families of the nations shall worship as individuals because of Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of their Soul, before Him.

28: For dominion belongs to the LORD, and he rules over the nations.

v28: The Kingdom is the LORD'S, and he rules forever over the nations with the Laws of Divine Establishment applying in the millennium.

29: Yea, to him shall all the proud of the earth bow down; before him shall bow all who go down to the dust, and he who cannot keep himself alive.

v29: All the wealthy or successful ones of the earth have already used Positive Volition to take in Bible Doctrine and in super-grace keep on worshiping; all who go down to the dust such as David shall bow before him, and his own soul can he keep alive.

30: Posterity shall serve him; men shall tell of the Lord to the coming generation, v30: The Believers shall serve him; it shall be written about the Lord to the coming generation, 31: and proclaim his deliverance to a people yet unborn, that he has wrought it.

v31: They, super-grace believers shall come and assemble themselves and be motivated to declare or relate his righteousness to a people that shall be born, that IT HAS BEEN FINISHED IN THE PAST WITH THE RESULT IT IS FINISHED FOREVER.

Psalm 27

0: A Psalm of David.

v0: A Psalm of David and Rebound while fleeing Saul.

1: The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

v1: The Lord (JHWH) Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ in essence is my light and my salvation through Bible Doctrine in my Stream of Consciousness of the Soul; whom shall I fear mentally or direct my respect toward? The Lord (JHWH) Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ is the fortification of my life via Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul; of whom shall I be afraid and physically trembling?

2: When evildoers assail me, uttering slanders against me, my adversaries and foes, they shall stumble and fall.

v2: When those destroyers caused to do evil by the Old Sin Nature (unbelievers or carnal believers) assail me, uttering slanders against me, those constantly hostile to me from mental attitude sins (Nabal & Saul) came upon me to destroy me, they were wounded and caused to fall as did Nabal and fall or die as Saul did on his own sword

3: Though a host encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; though war arise against me, yet I will be confident.

v3: Though an organized military force besiege, trap or ambush me resulting in great battle pressure, the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of my Soul shall not fear; though war shall be declared against me from all sides, in spite of this I will be absolutely confident.

4: One thing have I asked of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to inquire in his temple.

v4: One thing, which is my first priority, have I desired or asked or petitioned of the LORD, and that will I constantly seek after; in order that I may dwell permanently in blessing and relaxation, in the permanent house of the teaching of Bible Doctrine of the Lord, all the days of my life, in order that I may perceive and permanently understand the Glory and Grace of the Lord.

5: For he will hide me in his shelter in the day of trouble; he will conceal me under the cover of his tent, he will set me high upon a rock.

v5: For in the day of trouble or pressure or disaster, HE, God, in grace, will hide or conceal me as a treasure in the temporary shelter of his promises; in the secret or prophetic nature of his categorical doctrines (especially christology & soteriology) he will hide or conceal me, he has stabilize me up high upon the rock of salvation with blessing and Eternal Security.

6: And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies round about me; and I will offer in his tent sacrifices with shouts of joy; I will sing and make melody to the LORD.

v6: And now (even as a fugitive) I will be promoted above my enemies who are all around me and try to destroy me; and I will offer in his tabernacle Levitical sacrifices of joy and I will spontaneously sing alone; I will also play the string instrument and sing and make music to the LORD.

7: Hear, O LORD, when I cry aloud, be gracious to me and answer me!

v7: Listen to me, O LORD, when I pray to you when I am ambushed, be gracious to me overruling my tactical mistakes and answer me!

8: Thou hast said, "Seek ye my face." My heart says to thee, "Thy face, LORD, do I seek."

v8: You have said, "Seek my face or come to me for help through Perception, Cognition, Inculcation, Metabolization & Application of Bible Doctrine Daily." The Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of my Soul says to you, "Your face or help, LORD, do I seek." Deut 4:29-31

9: Hide not thy face from me. Turn not thy servant away in anger, thou who hast been my help. Cast me not off, forsake me not, O God of my salvation!

v9: Do not hide or veil your face far from me (idiom) or deal with me in Grace. Do not repulse or stretch out your servant till I break, in anger, You who have been my help (Bear Lion, Goliath, escape from Saul). Do not abandon me ever, Do not leave me behind or desert me despite any failures on my part, O God of my salvation!

10: For my father and my mother have forsaken me, but the LORD will take me up.

v10: For my father and my mother have forsaken me and did not care for and deserted me, then the LORD always will take me up to himself and provide for me.

11: Teach me thy way, O LORD; and lead me on a level path because of my enemies.

v11: Instruct or cause me to learn Bible Doctrine for phase II of my life, O LORD; and lead or guide me in an even clear stabilized path because of the pressures from my enemies both human and angelic.

12: Give me not up to the will of my adversaries; for false witnesses have risen against me, and they breathe out violence.

v12: Do not deliver me to the will of my enemies or adversaries; for false witnesses are risen against me, and they breathe out violence and cruelty based on Mental Attitude Sins (Saul).

13: I believe that I shall see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living!

v13: I know that I have been caused by Metabolized Bible Doctrine to believe through the Faith Rest Drill 4 Stages to see the Divine Good and Grace of the LORD in the land of the living!

14: Wait for the LORD; be strong, and let your heart take courage; yea, wait for the LORD!

v14: Wait through the strongest Faith Rest Drill 4 Stages for the LORD; be strong and firm because of Metabolized Bible Doctrine, and he shall continue to pour out strength in your Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul; wait on the LORD!

Psalm 28

0: A Psalm of David.

1: To thee, O LORD, I call; my rock, be not deaf to me, lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like those who go down to the Pit.

2: Hear the voice of my supplication, as I cry to thee for help, as I lift up my hands toward thy most holy sanctuary.

3: Take me not off with the wicked, with those who are workers of evil, who speak peace with their neighbors, while mischief is in their hearts.
4: Requite them according to their work, and according to the evil of their deeds; requite them according to the work of their hands; render them their due reward.
5: Because they do not regard the works of the LORD, or the work of his hands, he will break them down and build them up no more.
6: Blessed be the LORD! for he has heard the voice of my supplications.
7: The LORD is my strength and my shield; in him my heart trusts; so I am helped, and my heart exults, and with my song I give thanks to him.

Ps 28:7

v7: The Lord is my strength, and my shield, and my heart or right lobe trusts in him and I have received help, therefore my Right Lobe exalts and with song I will thank him.

8: The LORD is the strength of his people, he is the saving refuge of his anointed.
9: O save thy people, and bless thy heritage; be thou their shepherd, and carry them for ever.

Psalm 29

0: A Psalm of David.

1: Ascribe to the LORD, O heavenly beings, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
2: Ascribe to the LORD the glory of his name; worship the LORD in holy array.
3: The voice of the LORD is upon the waters; the God of glory thunders, the LORD, upon many waters.
4: The voice of the LORD is powerful, the voice of the LORD is full of majesty.
5: The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars, the LORD breaks the cedars of Lebanon.
6: He makes Lebanon to skip like a calf, and Si'rion like a young wild ox.
7: The voice of the LORD flashes forth flames of fire.
8: The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness, the LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
9: The voice of the LORD makes the oaks to whirl, and strips the forests bare; and in his temple all cry, "Glory!"
10: The LORD sits enthroned over the flood; the LORD sits enthroned as king for ever.
11: May the LORD give strength to his people! May the LORD bless his people with peace!

Psalm 30

0: A Psalm of David. A Song at the dedication of the Temple.

v0: A Psalm and song of David of happiness at the consecration and turning point of the house for David.

1: I will extol thee, O LORD, for thou hast drawn me up, and hast not let my foes rejoice over me.

v1: I will raise up or build up in my soul you, Oh Jehovah, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, for thou have lifted or built me up, and you have not permitted my enemies rejoice over me.

2: O LORD my God, I cried to thee for help, and thou hast healed me.

v2: Oh Jehovah my God, I shouted to you for help, and you kept on in a process healing me.

3: O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul from Sheol, restored me to life from among those gone down to the Pit.

v3: Oh Jehovah, you have brought my soul back from the grave, you have restored me to life or kept me alive in order that I should not go down to the pit of reversionism.

4: Sing praises to the LORD, O you his saints, and give thanks to his holy name.

v4: Make music to the Lord, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, you men of Grace, and confess in rebound freely to God at the memory of his holiness.

5: For his anger is but for a moment, and his favor is for a lifetime. Weeping may tarry for the night, but joy comes with the morning.

Ps 30:5

v5: For his anger of Divine Discipline for the reversionist lasts only for a moment, but results in a lifetime of grace benefit. Weeping of reversionism may endure for a, or pass in, the night but the celebrating happiness of Super-Grace comes in the dawn or morning, the JOY or Sharing the Happiness of the lord is your strength.

6: As for me, I said in my prosperity, "I shall never be moved."

v6: And in my prosperity as a super-grace believer I have said, "I shall never be unstable."

7: By thy favor, O LORD, thou hadst established me as a strong mountain; thou didst hide thy face, I was dismayed.

v7: By your favor, Oh Lord, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, By your grace benefit you have made or caused my mountain Zion to stand up; You covered your face or disregarded me in grace benefits while in Gath in reversionism, I became neutralized with trouble and fear at Nob.

8: To thee, O LORD, I cried; and to the LORD I made supplication:

v8: To you, Oh Lord I shouted; and unto you Lord I personally sought your grace for myself:

9: "What profit is there in my death, if I go down to the Pit? Will the dust praise thee? Will it tell of thy faithfulness?"

v9: "What profit is there in my death or advantage is there in killing me, when I go down to the Pit of the Sin Unto Death? Shall the dust be caused to praise you? Will it declare the doctrine?"

10: Hear, O LORD, and be gracious to me! O LORD, be thou my helper!"

v10: Listen to me, Oh Lord, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, have mercy and be gracious to me! Oh Lord, be my helper!"

11: Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing; thou hast loosed my sackcloth and girded me with gladness, v11: You have converted my mourning of Divine Discipline from reversionistic into dancing for me; you have torn off my humble situation, my sackcloth or misery of living and clothed me with the Absolute Happiness of God.

Ps 30:11

12: that my soul may praise thee and not be silent. O LORD my God, I will give thanks to thee for ever.

v12: To the end or for the purpose that my honor of super-grace might make music to you and not be silent. Oh Jehovah my Elohim, I will be caused to praise you forever.

Psalm 31

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

1: In thee, O LORD, do I seek refuge; let me never be put to shame; in thy righteousness deliver me!

2: Incline thy ear to me, rescue me speedily! Be thou a rock of refuge for me, a strong fortress to save me!

3: Yea, thou art my rock and my fortress; for thy name's sake lead me and guide me,

4: take me out of the net which is hidden for me, for thou art my refuge.

5: Into thy hand I commit my spirit; thou hast redeemed me, O LORD, faithful God.

Ps 31:5

v5: Father Into your hand I am motivated and causing voluntarily to commit or deposit my Human Spirit, for you have delivered me, Oh Jehovah, God, supreme ruler, of Doctrine. (Adanai El Emeth)

6: Thou hatest those who pay regard to vain idols; but I trust in the LORD.

7: I will rejoice and be glad for thy steadfast love, because thou hast seen my affliction, thou hast taken heed of my adversities, v7: I will rejoice and be happy in your grace and steadfast love because you have seen my affliction and you have taken heed of the troubles of my soul, my adversities.

Ps 31:7

8: and hast not delivered me into the hand of the enemy; thou hast set my feet in a broad place.

9: Be gracious to me, O LORD, for I am in distress; my eye is wasted from grief, my soul and my body also.

10: For my life is spent with sorrow, and my years with sighing; my strength fails because of my misery, and my bones waste away.

11: I am the scorn of all my adversaries, a horror to my neighbors, an object of dread to my acquaintances; those who see me in the street flee from me.

12: I have passed out of mind like one who is dead; I have become like a broken vessel.

13: Yea, I hear the whispering of many -- terror on every side! -- as they scheme together against me, as they plot to take my life.

14: But I trust in thee, O LORD, I say, "Thou art my God."

15: My times are in thy hand; deliver me from the hand of my enemies and persecutors!

16: Let thy face shine on thy servant; save me in thy steadfast love!

17: Let me not be put to shame, O LORD, for I call on thee; let the wicked be put to shame, let them go dumbfounded to Sheol.

18: Let the lying lips be dumb, which speak insolently against the righteous in pride and contempt.

19: O how abundant is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for those who fear thee, and wrought for those who take refuge in thee, in the sight of the sons of men!

20: In the covert of thy presence thou hidest them from the plots of men; thou holdest them safe under thy shelter from the strife of tongues.

21: Blessed be the LORD, for he has wondrously shown his steadfast love to me when I was beset as in a besieged city.

22: I had said in my alarm, "I am driven far from thy sight." But thou didst hear my supplications, when I cried to thee for help.

23: Love the LORD, all you his saints! The LORD preserves the faithful, but abundantly requites him who acts haughtily.

v23: Oh, Love the LORD, all you his set apart believers! The LORD preserves the faithful, but abundantly pays in Divine Discipline off the arrogant.

24: Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for the LORD!

v24: Be of good courage and you shall be strengthened in the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of your Soul all you who have courage in the Lord.

Psalm 32

0: A Psalm of David. A Maschil.

v0: A Psalm of David. A Maskil poem to instruct or teach by poetry.

1: Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

v1: Happinesses to the person, the transgression, rebellion, trespass, all sin from Old Sin Nature lifted up and carried or borne away, sin is concealed or covered in Salvation Adjustment to the Justice of God through faith in the substitutionary spiritual death of Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ on the cross and sin through rebound. (1John 1:9)

2: Blessed is the man to whom the LORD imputes no iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit.

v2: Happinesses to the believer to whom the LORD does not imputes punishment from Divine Discipline, and in whose spirit no negligence or carelessness or apathy or indifference in the learning of Bible Doctrine (use of rebound and staying out of the Interlocking System of Arrogance).

3: When I declared not my sin, my body wasted away through my groaning all day long.

v3: When I kept silent about my sin neglecting rebound, my bodily functions wasted away, my mental health deteriorated or I was under incredible disciplinary pressures, causing my groaning or screaming all the day long.

4: For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me; my strength was dried up as by the heat of summer. [Selah]

v4: For Day and Night your Divine Discipline was heavy on me, my strength, vitality or nervous energy was sapped as in the heat of summer. Selah, NOW BREAK and THINK ABOUT IT

5: I acknowledged my sin to thee, and I did not hide my iniquity; I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD"; then thou didst forgive the guilt of my sin. [Selah]

v5: I will acknowledge or name or cite or cause to make know my sin to you God the Father and my guilt or sin I opened up to you OR I did not or WILL NOT cover up or hide my guilt or sin or depraved action, and I have decided or said to myself "I have been caused to acknowledge or cite or name my transgression to the Lord", and YOU completely forgave or lifted up and carried away the Guilt or Depravity of my sin in Interlocking System of Arrogance. Selah, NOW REST and THINK ABOUT IT while GOD acts in Logistical Grace.

6: Therefore let every one who is godly offer prayer to thee; at a time of distress, in the rush of great waters, they shall not reach him.

v6: Therefore or for this principle of Grace in rebound, let the Grace Oriented Mature Believer pray for themselves to you, God; at a time of attainment, when grace can be found when out of fellowship or during disaster or adversity, therefore, surely, a point of doctrine, in the time of great disaster or terrorism, the mature Believer ONLY with maximum Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul who rebounds and uses the Grace of God shall not be shaken nor disturbed nor fall apart.

7: Thou art a hiding place for me, thou preservest me from trouble; thou dost encompass me with deliverance. [Selah]

v7: You, oh God the Father, and your doctrine, are my veil of protection and orientation to grace and relaxed Mental Attitude and you Oh God will guard, preserve, and protect me from the pressures of disaster, you Oh God will surround me with shouts of victory and deliverance. Selah, NOW REST in Faith Rest Drill 4 Stages and THINK ABOUT IT while Logistical Grace takes over.

8: I will instruct you and teach you the way you should go; I will counsel you with my eye upon you.

v8: I (God) will teach you through Grace Apparatus for Perception and instruct you through intensification of pressure to the point of total inculcation so as you are not able to forget Bible Doctrine and thus gain wisdom for application of Bible Doctrine to life, and I will repeat your instruction over and over, again and again so you cannot forget it so that you can march under self discipline and concentration and fulfill the plan of God for your life, I will guide you with my Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of your Soul and Logistical Grace provision.

9: Be not like a horse or a mule, without understanding, which must be curbed with bit and bridle, else it will not keep with you.

v9: To not become like a horse or a mule, which have no understanding nor brains, whose mouth must be controlled with a bit and bridle, otherwise they will not come near you or you cannot teach, train or use them.

10: Many are the pangs of the wicked; but steadfast love surrounds him who trusts in the LORD.

v10: Many are the sufferings, woes and disciplines of the believer guilty of degeneration involved in arrogance or reversionism of persistent carnality or both thus guilty of evil, controlled by the Old Sin Nature who resists Bible Doctrine and are under intensive Divine Discipline; but steadfast love or GRACE surrounds him who trusts in or slams his problems onto the LORD.

11: Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, O righteous, and shout for joy, all you upright in heart!

v11: Rejoice and possess inner happiness in noncompetitive relaxation without arrogance in the LORD, and be caused to have overt happiness and celebrate, believers with integrity of the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, and shout for joy or celebrate, all you spiritually self sustaining believers with Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul!

Psalm 35

0: A Psalm of David.

1: Contend, O LORD, with those who contend with me; fight against those who fight against me!

Ps 35:1

v1: Fight or Contend for me, Oh Lord, with those who contend against me, fight against those who fight against me

2: Take hold of shield and buckler, and rise for my help!

Ps 35:2

v2: Take hold of my buckler and shield, and rise up for my help (Deliverance from the enemy in battle)

3: Draw the spear and javelin against my pursuers! Say to my soul, "I am your deliverance!"

4: Let them be put to shame and dishonor who seek after my life! Let them be turned back and confounded who devise evil against me!

5: Let them be like chaff before the wind, with the angel of the LORD driving them on!

6: Let their way be dark and slippery, with the angel of the LORD pursuing them!

7: For without cause they hid their net for me; without cause they dug a pit for my life.

8: Let ruin come upon them unawares! And let the net which they hid ensnare them; let them fall therein to ruin!

v8: Let destruction come upon him unawares; and let the net which he hid catch himself; into that very destruction let him fall.

9: Then my soul shall rejoice in the LORD, exulting in his deliverance.

10: All my bones shall say, "O LORD, who is like thee, thou who deliverest the weak from him who is too strong for him, the weak and needy from him who despoils him?"

11: Malicious witnesses rise up; they ask me of things that I know not.

12: They requite me evil for good; my soul is forlorn.

Ps 35:12

v12: They repay me evil for good to the bereavement of my soul

13: But I, when they were sick -- I wore sackcloth, I afflicted myself with fasting. I prayed with head bowed on my bosom, 14: as though I grieved for my friend or my brother; I went about as one who laments his mother, bowed down and in mourning.

15: But at my stumbling they gathered in glee, they gathered together against me; cripples whom I knew not slandered me without ceasing;

16: they impiously mocked more and more, gnashing at me with their teeth.

17: How long, O LORD, wilt thou look on? Rescue me from their ravages, my life from the lions!

18: Then I will thank thee in the great congregation; in the mighty throng I will praise thee.

19: Let not those rejoice over me who are wrongfully my foes, and let not those wink the eye who hate me without cause.

20: For they do not speak peace, but against those who are quiet in the land they conceive words of deceit.

21: They open wide their mouths against me; they say, "Aha, Aha! our eyes have seen it!"

22: Thou hast seen, O LORD; be not silent! O Lord, be not far from me!

23: Bestir thyself, and awake for my right, for my cause, my God and my Lord!

24: Vindicate me, O LORD, my God, according to thy righteousness; and let them not rejoice over me!

25: Let them not say to themselves, "Aha, we have our heart's desire!" Let them not say, "We have swallowed him up."

v25: Let them Ishbosheth, Abner, and the Harem, not say to themselves, "We have our heart's desire!" Let them not say, "We have destroyed him."

26: Let them be put to shame and confusion altogether who rejoice at my calamity! Let them be clothed with shame and dishonor who magnify themselves against me!

v26: They shall be put to shame (boshe) and caused to be brought to disgrace and shame Abner and Ishbosheth united, who gloat over my calamity! They shall be clothed with shame (bosheth) and dishonor who cause themselves to be magnified over me!

27: Let those who desire my vindication shout for joy and be glad, and say evermore, "Great is the LORD, who delights in the welfare of his servant!"

28: Then my tongue shall tell of thy righteousness and of thy praise all the day long.

Psalm 36

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD.

v0: To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD.

1: Transgression speaks to the wicked deep in his heart; there is no fear of God before his eyes.

v1: A divine word within the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of my soul concerning the rebellion or defection of the reversionist of Kelah, who have no respect of God before his, God's, eyes.

2: For he flatters himself in his own eyes that his iniquity cannot be found out and hated.

v2: For he, the reversionist of Kelah, flatters or complements himself in his own eyes, to find his own egotistical sins of pride or megalomania is to hate his sin,

3: The words of his mouth are mischief and deceit; he has ceased to act wisely and do good.

v3: The flattering words of his, the reversionist of kelah, mouth are emptiness or vanity and deceit, he has ceased to be wise or lost all their doctrine in reversionism, he has ceased to be pleasing to God,

4: He plots mischief while on his bed; he sets himself in a way that is not good; he spurns not evil.

v4: He, the reversionist of Kelah, plans or plots vanity, wickedness, nothingness, or evil to hurt someone in his bed before he sleeps, he takes a stand in a way that is not Good being treacherous, and praise a person to his face while cursing him behind his back, he does not reject evil and will do whatever he can get away with.

5: Thy steadfast love, O LORD, extends to the heavens, thy faithfulness to the clouds.

v5: Jehovah, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, in the heavens, your steadfast love or grace, your faithfulness as far as I can see into the sky.

6: Thy righteousness is like the mountains of God, thy judgments are like the great deep; man and beast thou savest, O LORD.

v6: Your righteousness like the mountains of God in perfect stability, your just decrees are as deep as the great oceans; You have caused to deliver man and beast Oh Jehovah.

7: How precious is thy steadfast love, O God! The children of men take refuge in the shadow of thy wings.

v7: How precious, rare, valuable is your grace or steadfast love, O Elohim! The sons of Adam in super-grace find refuge under the shadow of your wings by consistent Perception, Cognition, Inculcation, Metabolization & Application of Bible Doctrine resulting in perfect security.

8: They feast on the abundance of thy house, and thou givest them drink from the river of thy delights.

v8: They feast on and are totally satiated or satisfied with the abundance of maximum prosperity of your tabernacle or the whole of Bible Doctrine, and you shall cause them to drink of the river of your pleasures.

9: For with thee is the fountain of life; in thy light do we see light.

v9: For with you is the fountain or spring of living waters of blessing in the world of Satan; in the light of your doctrine we will see the light or reality of divine blessing.

10: O continue thy steadfast love to those who know thee, and thy salvation to the upright of heart!

v10: Oh scatter and prolong your steadfast love or Grace to those who know you from daily function of Grace Apparatus for Perception, and your Absolute Righteousness to the believers who are in super !

11: Let not the foot of arrogance come upon me, nor the hand of the wicked drive me away.

v11: Let not the foot of arrogant pursuit by Saul to overtake me, do not allow the hand of the wicked to disturb me.

12: There the evildoers lie prostrate, they are thrust down, unable to rise.

v12: There the workers of iniquity have fallen by trying to destroy me, they are thrust down by their treachery, they cannot rise above it.

Psalm 37

0: A Psalm of David.

1: Fret not yourself because of the wicked, be not envious of wrongdoers!

v1: Do not become resentful or react yourself because of the Unbeliever who habitually lives under the Old Sin Nature and is a "NICE GUY" but break out of this mental attitude sin process, NEVER BE intensively envious or jealous of reversionists practicing reverse process reversionism!

2: For they will soon fade like the grass, and wither like the green herb.

v2: For the apparently prosperous unbeliever or reversionist will soon (relative to eternity) be cut off like in circumcision like the grass and they will wither and be dead like the green herb (2nd death).

3: Trust in the LORD, and do good; so you will dwell in the land, and enjoy security.

v3: Slam your problems and troubles onto the Lord trusting him, under his plan, and do Divine Good from Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul manufacturing things which are worthwhile in your life; dwell happily and permanently with stability in a house of the Plan of God under conditions of great blessing in super-grace, and Feed on Bible Doctrine from the shepherd and you will be self sustaining.

4: Take delight in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your heart.

v4: Make coquettish love to the Lord being totally occupied with the Person of Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, and he will give you the deepest desires of the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of your Soul.

5: Commit your way to the LORD; trust in him, and he will act.

v5: Roll your whole pack of troubles onto the LORD; Slam your troubles onto him and leave it there, and he will do or bring to pass the work of Divine Good solutions and blessing.

6: He will bring forth your vindication as the light, and your right as the noonday.

v6 He will bring forth or caused to be manufactured from Metabolized Bible Doctrine in your Stream of Consciousness of the Soul your Absolute Divine Righteousness and Mental Attitude joy and love on the basis of the light of Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, and your wisdom and sense of justice as the double light.

7: Be still before the LORD, and wait patiently for him; fret not yourself over him who prospers in his way, over the man who carries out evil devices!

v7: Relax without mental attitude sins and concentrate on Bible Doctrine from the LORD, and whirl yourself around with rebound; Do not become resentful or react over one who displays prosperity in his way, over the man who makes a fortune from his divisive ways!

8: Refrain from anger, and forsake wrath! Fret not yourself; it tends only to evil.

v8: Cease and desist from anger and all mental attitude sins, and forsake wrath! (Have a Relaxed Mental Attitude), do not be upset or resentful; it only leads to doing evil and entering reversionism.

9: For the wicked shall be cut off; but those who wait for the LORD shall possess the land.

v9: For the evil doer or unbeliever shall be cut off; but those (believers) who wait in faith rest upon the LORD shall inherit the earth (be without any anxiety and being face to face with the Lord for eternity).

10: Yet a little while, and the wicked will be no more; though you look well at his place, he will not be there.

v10: Yet in a little while in the Angelic Conflict & Human History, and the unbeliever will be no more; though you envy his place, he will not be there.

11: But the meek shall possess the land, and delight themselves in abundant prosperity.

v11: But the believer oriented to the Grace of God through Bible Doctrine shall inherit great blessings in time and eternity, and delight themselves in perfect Mental Attitude of inner happiness.

12: The wicked plots against the righteous, and gnashes his teeth at him;

Ps 37:12-13

v12: The unbeliever or wicked reversionistic believer premeditates revenge and retaliation plotting against the justified or righteous one the believer in Maturity Adjustment to the Justice of God, and gnashes his teeth at him;

13: but the LORD laughs at the wicked, for he sees that his day is coming.

v13: but Jehovah laughs at the fallen angels' and unbeliever's attempts at evil plotting revenge against believers in Maturity Adjustment to the Justice of God, for he sees that his day is coming.

14: The wicked draw the sword and bend their bows, to bring down the poor and needy, to slay those who walk uprightly;

v14: The unbeliever has draw the sword and bend their bows, to bring down the hopeless helpless, to slay those who are believers and and totally protected;

15: their sword shall enter their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

v15: their sword shall enter their own right lobe, and their bows shall be broken.

16: Better is a little that the righteous has than the abundance of many wicked.

v16: Better is a little of the mature believer than the abundance of many Evil unbelievers.

17: For the arms of the wicked shall be broken; but the LORD upholds the righteous.

v17: So the evil unbeliever will loose all the details of life and develop a greater capacity for self induced misery to the point of the Sin unto Death but the Lord sustains through maximum divine blessings the Mature or super-grace believer.

18: The LORD knows the days of the blameless, and their heritage will abide for ever;

v18: The Lord knows the days of the mature believer in time and their inheritance will be forever.

19: they are not put to shame in evil times, in the days of famine they have abundance. Ps 37:19

v19: They will not be ashamed in times of evil, (historical reversionism success of evil) and in the days of economic depression they will have abundance and be filled and satisfied.

20: But the wicked perish; the enemies of the LORD are like the glory of the pastures, they vanish -- like smoke they vanish away.

v20: But the unbeliever shall perish; the enemies of the LORD are like the glory of the pastures, they vanish, like smoke they vanish away.

21: The wicked borrows, and cannot pay back, but the righteous is generous and gives;

v21: The unbeliever uses the lust pattern of his Old Sin Nature to borrow and cannot has no intention of paying back, but the mature believer is generous and shows mercy and gives of himself;

22: for those blessed by the LORD shall possess the land, but those cursed by him shall be cut off.

v22: for those believers blessed by the LORD shall possess the land, but those unbelievers cursed by him shall be cut off.

23: The steps of a man are from the LORD, and he establishes him in whose way he delights;

v23: The consistent marching steps of a hero or champion warrior are established by the LORD, and HE (the Lord) establishes him (Believer) in whose way he emphatically with strongest capacity LOVES or delights;

24: though he fall, he shall not be cast headlong, for the LORD is the stay of his hand.

v24: When or although he ( Super-grace Believer) falls (into the Cosmic Dynasphere), he shall not be completely or utterly cast down [he cannot lose salvation] because the Lord is the one who sustains him with his hands of gracious giving. (Temporal Security)

25: I have been young, and now am old; yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken or his children begging bread.

v25: I have been young but now I am growing old, yet I have never seen the one with imputed divine righteousness or the super-grace believer (Divine Righteousness) forsaken nor his seed begging bread.

26: He is ever giving liberally and lending, and his children become a blessing.

v26: The Lord is every merciful or always gracious and is caused because of the Cross to ever cling or hold onto us super-grace believers never letting go, and the super-grace believer's children are blessed.

27: Depart from evil, and do good; so shall you abide for ever.

v27: Depart from or turn or swerve aside from or separate from or avoid influence from the Devil as EVIL, the Old Sin Nature, and Human Viewpoint, and manufacture out of super-grace divine good; in order that you shall dwell in the whole Plan of God forever by faith in Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ.

28: For the LORD loves justice; he will not forsake his saints. The righteous shall be preserved for ever, but the children of the wicked shall be cut off.

v28: Because God the Father keeps on loving justice or judgment or Fairness from God; he will not forsake his saints or believers (Grace in phase 2 & Eternal Security). Those with imputed righteousness shall be preserved or protected for ever, but the children or Posterity of the reversionist believer or unbeliever shall be cut off.

29: The righteous shall possess the land, and dwell upon it for ever.

v29: The ones with imputed righteousness as super-grace believers shall inherit the land being blessed in time, and dwell permanently in blessing upon it for ever in eternity.

30: The mouth of the righteous utters wisdom, and his tongue speaks justice.

v30: The mouth of the ones with imputed righteousness who have learned Bible Doctrine categorically proclaims wisdom or applies Bible Doctrine to his experience, and his tongue speaks of fairness, equity, or justice.

31: The law of his God is in his heart; his steps do not slip.

v31: The law of his God is in the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of his Soul; None of his steps shall totter or stumble he is NOT unstable.

32: The wicked watches the righteous, and seeks to slay him.

v32: The unbeliever or carnal reversionist believer constantly watches looking for a chance to entrap or ambush the advancing super-grace believer, and seeks to destroy or discredit him. (1Sam 18:35)

33: The LORD will not abandon him to his power, or let him be condemned when he is brought to trial.

v33: The LORD will not abandon the advancing believer to the unbeliever's or carnal believer's power, nor will He condemn the advancing believer when the unbeliever or carnal believer maligns or despises in gossip him.

34: Wait for the LORD, and keep to his way, and he will exalt you to possess the land; you will look on the destruction of the wicked.

v34: Trust or perpetuate Faith Rest in the Grace of the LORD, and Guard understanding of the Character and Plan of God and Grace Orientation from Metabolized Bible Doctrine in your Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, and He in his power will Honor or give recognition to or promote you to inherit the land or have victory in time; when the unbelievers or carnal reversionistic believers are cut off you will see it.

35: I have seen a wicked man overbearing, and towering like a cedar of Lebanon.

v35: I have seen momentarily in passing the reversionist and unbeliever in great power or prosperity, and like a towering very prosperous indigenous green tree in its native fertile soil in time.

36: Again I passed by, and, lo, he was no more; though I sought him, he could not be found.

v36: But Again I momentarily passed by, and, lo, he passed off the scene and away to the sin unto death and was no more; though I was interested and remembered and sought him in his glamor, he could not ever be found again.

37: Mark the blameless man, and behold the upright, for there is posterity for the man of peace.

v37: (reversionist) Watch and observe the mature doctrinally oriented super-grace believer, and behold the stable or consistent believer who grows spiritually consistently, for there is a future of posterity, prosperity or peace for the man in time who grows in grace and knowledge of Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ.

38: But transgressors shall be altogether destroyed; the posterity of the wicked shall be cut off.

v38: But the reversionist believers and unbelievers shall receive a destructive life and will be desolate together with others of the same kind; the future or posterity of the unbeliever shall be totally cut off through warning, intensive and finally dying discipline.

39: The salvation of the righteous is from the LORD; he is their refuge in the time of trouble.

v39: But the deliverance in phase 1 of the Plan of God or salvation of the super-grace believer with imputed righteousness is from the LORD; their strength and stability in the time of trouble is supernatural.

40: The LORD helps them and delivers them; he delivers them from the wicked, and saves them, because they take refuge in him.

Psalm 38

0: A Psalm of David, for the memorial offering.

Ps 38:0

v0: A Psalm of David to cause him to remember.

1: O LORD, rebuke me not in thy anger, nor chasten me in thy wrath!

v1: Oh lord do not cause me to be punished in your anger, or discipline me in your wrath, (This was post Bathsheba Discipline),

2: For thy arrows have sunk into me, and thy hand has come down on me.

v2: for your arrows have sunk deep into me causing inner pain and your hand has come down on me hard causing surface pain,

3: There is no soundness in my flesh because of thy indignation; there is no health in my bones because of my sin.

v3: Because of your wrath there is no health in my body, there is no health in my bones because of my sin.

4: For my iniquities have gone over my head; they weigh like a burden too heavy for me.

v4: For my iniquities have passed through my head moving into psychosis, like a heavy burden of mental pressure of guilt and psychosis, they are too heavy for me.

5: My wounds grow foul and fester because of my foolishness, v5: My wounds have a bad odor and stink psychologically from complaining or moping, they have festered in my state of being smart but foolish from arrogance (He made the decisions which caused the trouble),

6: I am utterly bowed down and prostrate; all the day I go about mourning.

v6: I am bent (but not broken), I am bowed down very low, I am humbled or shriveled by discipline, all the day my manner of life is meaningless or constantly dark (worst part of Divine Discipline).

7: For my loins are filled with burning, and there is no soundness in my flesh.

v7: For my nerves are on a jagged edge and filled with inflammation, and because of this there is NO health in my body.

8: I am utterly spent and crushed; I groan because of the tumult of my heart.

v8: I am debilitated and terribly feeble having lost nervous energy and unable to think, I scream and scream because of the groaning or pressure in my Right Lobe (gate 9 psychopathic arrogance)

9: Lord, all my longing is known to thee, my sighing is not hidden from thee.

v9: Oh Lord, all my desire is manifest to you, and my expression of grief is not hidden from you,

10: My heart throbs, my strength fails me; and the light of my eyes -- it also has gone from me.

v10: my heart pounds, my strength has failed me, and the light has gone from my eyes (loss of capacity for life, love and happiness despite temporal success)

11: My friends and companions stand aloof from my plague, and my kinsmen stand afar off.

v11: My lovers and my friends avoid me because of my calamity and my loved ones stand aloof.

12: Those who seek my life lay their snares, those who seek my hurt speak of ruin, and meditate treachery all the day long.

v12: Those who seek my life conspire against me, those who would harm me plan my ruin, all day long the terrorists plot treachery. (David's paranoia)

13: But I am like a deaf man, I do not hear, like a dumb man who does not open his mouth.

v13: But I am like a deaf man and I cannot hear, I am like a deaf mute who does not open his mouth.

14: Yea, I am like a man who does not hear, and in whose mouth are no rebukes.

v14: Yes I have become like a man who cannot learn and in whose mouth there are no answers nor understanding, NO defense.

15: But for thee, O LORD, do I wait; it is thou, O LORD my God, who wilt answer.

v15: For in you Oh lord do I wait in intense pain for termination of this unbearable pain, Oh Lord my God you will answer me.

16: For I pray, "Only let them not rejoice over me, who boast against me when my foot slips!"

v16: (why God answered him), for I screamed in my prayer, "do not let them Gloat over me when my feet are tottering", 17: For I am ready to fall, and my pain is ever with me.

v17: for I am adjusting for a halt, because of my unbearable suffering and it is constantly with me.

18: I confess my iniquity, I am sorry for my sin.

v18: (his Halt) Therefore I will admit, cite, name, declare or acknowledge all my sin (not Human Good nor Evil), because of your grace, I am worried troubled, concerned, uneasy because of my sin against You (God)

19: Those who are my foes without cause are mighty, and many are those who hate me wrongfully.

v19: But my enemies are vigorous and numerous and many who hate me wrongfully, they repay evil for Good, they oppose me because I pursue the absolute Good.

20: Those who render me evil for good are my adversaries because I follow after good.

v20: Those who repay evil for good they oppose me because I pursue the good. 21: Do not forsake me, O LORD! O my God, be not far from me!

22: Make haste to help me, O Lord, my salvation!

Psalm 39

0: To the choirmaster: to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

v0: To the director of music: to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

1: I said, "I will guard my ways, that I may not sin with my tongue; I will bridle my mouth, so long as the wicked are in my presence."
v1: I said or thought to myself, "I will guard my ways, that I may not sin with my tongue thus my thinking and thus avoid Interlocking System of Arrogance; I will put a muzzle on my mouth, as long as the evil is in my presence and thus control the thinking of my soul."

2: I was dumb and silent, I held my peace to no avail; my distress grew worse, v2: I was dumb with silence from humility, I held my peace far from prosperity and my pressure increased

3: my heart became hot within me. As I mused, the fire burned; then I spoke with my tongue:
v3: my Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul was hot within me as I was meditating. A fire was kindled from thought and emotion rubbing together; then I spoke with my tongue in prayer:

4: "LORD, let me know my end, and what is the measure of my days; let me know how fleeting my life is!
v4: " Oh LORD, cause me know my end or time of death, and what is the extent of my days; for I would know how short lived I am so that I can plan for leadership in case of my death!

5: Behold, thou hast made my days a few handbreadths, and my lifetime is as nothing in thy sight. Surely every man stands as a mere breath! [Selah] v5: Behold, you have made my days as a hand breadth and as far as I can blow my breath that is my life, and the span of my years is as nothing before you. Each man's life is a mere breath! [Selah rest on the fact that we are still alive and breathing]

6: Surely man goes about as a shadow! Surely for nought are they in turmoil; man heaps up, and knows not who will gather!
v6: man is a mere shadow a phantom as he goes back and forth across the earth! He bustles about but only in vain. He accumulates wealth not knowing who will possess or dissipate or destroy it!

7: "And now, Lord, for what do I wait? My hope is in thee.
v7: "But now, Lord, for what shall I trust? My hope or confidence is in you.

8: Deliver me from all my transgressions. Make me not the scorn of the fool!
v8: Deliver me from all my transgressions or failures which led to the revolution. Do not make me the scorn of the fools!

9: I am dumb, I do not open my mouth; for it is thou who hast done it.
v9: I have become dumb, I do not open my mouth in humility from Divine Discipline; for you only have done this Divine Discipline.

10: Remove thy stroke from me; I am spent by the blows of thy hand.
v10: Remove your scourage from me; because of the opposition from your hand I am perishing.

11: When thou dost chasten man with rebukes for sin, thou dost consume like a moth what is dear to him; surely every man is a mere breath! [Selah]
v11: You rebuke and discipline men for their sin You make their prosperity melt away like the damage caused by a moth, truly men are only a breath, life is meaningless without thought and Bible Doctrine! [Selah]

12: "Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear to my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears! For I am thy passing guest, a sojourner, like all my fathers.
v12: "Hear my prayer, O LORD, and listen to my cry for help; do not be deaf from my weeping! For I dwell with you as an alien, a stranger as my fathers were.

13: Look away from me, that I may know gladness, before I depart and be no more!"
v13: Look away from me in Divine Discipline, that I may become cheerful before I depart and am no more.

Psalm 40

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

v0: To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

1: I waited patiently for the LORD; he inclined to me and heard my cry.

v1: I as a super-grace believer, being confident from Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul I have confidence in the LORD from Occupation with the Person of Christ; for He extended his hand to rescue me because He heard my cry for help. (V11-17)

2: He drew me up from the desolate pit, out of the miry bog, and set my feet upon a rock, making my steps secure.

v2: He caused me to be lifted out of the pit of destruction, out of the mire of the swamp or the uncertain footing of the trap, and made or caused my feet to stand firm upon a rock, therefore making my footsteps firm.

3: He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God. Many will see and fear, and put their trust in the LORD.

v3: Consequently he has given to my mouth a new song, praise to our Elohim because of deliverance by association. Many will see deliverance and respect Elohim, therefore they shall trust in Jehovah the Son.

4: Blessed is the man who makes the LORD his trust, who does not turn to the proud, to those who go astray after false gods!

v4: Happinesses to that warrior who appoints, considers, establishes by joining with David the LORD as his confidence, who does not turned or defected to the reversionistic leadership and those who ingratiate themselves to Reversionists, to those who turn aside after psychopathic lying of politicians!

5: Thou hast multiplied, O LORD my God, thy wondrous deeds and thy thoughts toward us; none can compare with thee! Were I to proclaim and tell of them, they would be more than can be numbered.

v5: Super-grace capacity results in response to the many things you have manufactured out of grace Oh Jehovah, my Elohim, your extraordinary things and plans toward us; nothing can be arrayed in battle against you; Or I would declare it and speak of it, they are too numerous to be written.

6: Sacrifice and offering thou dost not desire; but thou hast given me an open ear. Burnt offering and sin offering thou hast not required.

v6: Slaughtering of the Blood Sacrifices for propitiation, reconciliation, & rebound and food or meat offering you did not delight in; but you have pierced my ears allowing my free will choice as a super-grace believer to remain as a slave to you my master. Burnt offering for Rebound emphasizing unknown sins emphasizing the work of Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ on the cross and Sin Offering for rebound emphasizing the known sins you have not requested or asked for.

7: Then I said, "Lo, I come; in the roll of the book it is written of me;

v7: At that time of deliverance on the Mountain I have said, "Behold, I have come into the world to do your will; in the written scroll of the Old Testament Scripture as completed at David's time, being written concerning me, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ

8: I delight to do thy will, O my God; thy law is within my heart."

v8: I have delighted or take pleasure in doing or manufacturing out of super-grace provision your will or decrees, Oh My Elohim; Because the Bible Doctrine of the Torah which is written is within the midst of my emotion."

9: I have told the glad news of deliverance in the great congregation; lo, I have not restrained my lips, as thou knowest, O LORD.

v9: I have announced, communicated or proclaimed the good news of imputed righteousness to a large or great congregation; Behold my lips, I have not restrained them, Oh Jehovah, You know it from Eternity Past.

10: I have not hid thy saving help within my heart, I have spoken of thy faithfulness and thy salvation; I have not concealed thy steadfast love and thy faithfulness from the great congregation.

v10: I have not concealed your righteousness in the middle or my right lobe I have declared or communicated your doctrine to the believers and your salvation to the unbelievers; I have not kept back your steadfast love or graciousness and your faithfulness from this large congregation.

11: Do not thou, O LORD, withhold thy mercy from me, let thy steadfast love and thy faithfulness ever preserve me!

v11: You, Oh Jehovah will not hold back your compassion or mercies from me or you won't let this happen to me, Your grace and steadfast love and Bible Doctrine will continually guard me as leader and thus all of these people!

v12: For evils beyond number have encircled or enveloped or surrounded me with a closed trap; my sins and their guilt have taken hold upon or overtaken in pursuit me, with the result that I have not been able to see any hope of escape or solution; they, the army of Saul, are more than the hairs of my head; therefore the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of my Soul deserts me.

13: Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me! O LORD, make haste to help me!

v13: Oh Jehovah, God the Father, be gracious to rescue me! Oh Jehovah, God the Father, hurry up now to help me!

14: Let them be put to shame and confusion altogether who seek to snatch away my life; let them be turned back and brought to dishonor who desire my hurt!

v14: Let them be ashamed and humiliated together the ones searching to destroy my soul; let them be driven or turned back and brought to dishonor who delight in my disaster!

15: Let them be appalled because of their shame who say to me, "Aha, Aha!"

v15: Let them be shocked, astonished or appalled because of their reversionism, the ones who say, Nya nya nya expressing their gloating

16: But may all who seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee; may those who love thy salvation say continually, "Great is the LORD!"

v16: Let all Positive Volition believers who seek doctrine and you celebrate and Share the Happiness of God in you through Occupation with the Person of Christ; may those who keep on loving with super-grace capacity your deliverance say constantly, "Jehovah be Magnified!"

17: As for me, I am poor and needy; but the Lord takes thought for me. Thou art my help and my deliverer; do not tarry, O my God!

v17: As for me, I am afflicted in a hopeless situation and helpless; yet the Lord devises a plan for me. You are my help and my deliverance; do not delay, Oh my Elohim!

Psalm 41

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

v0: For the director of music. A Psalm of David.

1: Blessed is he who considers the poor! The LORD delivers him in the day of trouble;

v1: Blessed is he who regarded the helpless! The LORD delivers him in the day of disaster;

2: the LORD protects him and keeps him alive; he is called blessed in the land; thou dost not give him up to the will of his enemies.

v2: the LORD will protect him and keeps him alive; he will bless in the land and not surrender him to the desires of his enemies

3: The LORD sustains him on his sickbed; in his illness thou healest all his infirmities.

v3: The LORD will sustain him even when he is ill and restore him from the bed of sickness

4: As for me, I said, "O LORD, be gracious to me; heal me, for I have sinned against thee!"

v4: I have prayed, "O LORD, have mercy on me; heal my soul, for I have sinned against YOU!"

5: My enemies say of me in malice: "When will he die, and his name perish?"

v5: My enemies such as 'Ahithophel' malign me: "When will he die, and his name perish?"

6: And when one comes to see me, he utters empty words, while his heart gathers mischief; when he goes out, he tells it abroad.

v6: And if one comes to see me, he speaks deceit, meanwhile his Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul gathers false propaganda; and he goes out and spreads it abroad.

7: All who hate me whisper together about me; they imagine the worst for me.

v7: All who hate me whisper or conspire and intrigue together against me; they imagine the worst for me.

8: They say, "A deadly thing has fastened upon him; he will not rise again from where he lies."

v8: He has been afflicted with an incurable disease which is incurable evil, once he, Absalom, lies down in the Interlocking System of Arrogance he will not get up again.

9: Even my bosom friend in whom I trusted, who ate of my bread, has lifted his heel against me.

v9: Even my close friend whom I trusted, the one who shared my bread, has lifted up his heel against me.

10: But do thou, O LORD, be gracious to me, and raise me up, that I may requite them!

v10: But you, O LORD, have mercy on me, and raise me up, that I may repay them!

11: By this I know that thou art pleased with me, in that my enemy has not triumphed over me.

v11: By this I know that you are pleased with me, because my enemy does not triumph over me.

12: But thou hast upheld me because of my integrity, and set me in thy presence for ever.

v12: But as for me in my integrity you uphold me and you cause me to stand in your presence for ever.

13: Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting! Amen and Amen.

v13: Praise the LORD, the God of Israel, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ who controls Human History, from everlasting eternity past to everlasting eternity future! Amen and Amen.

Psalm 42

0: To the choirmaster. A Maskil of the Sons of Korah.

1: As a hart longs for flowing streams, so longs my soul for thee, O God.

2: My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and behold the face of God?

3: My tears have been my food day and night, while men say to me continually, "Where is your God?"

4: These things I remember, as I pour out my soul: how I went with the throng, and led them in procession to the house of God, with glad shouts and songs of thanksgiving, a multitude keeping festival.

5: Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help

6: and my God. My soul is cast down within me, therefore I remember thee from the land of Jordan and of Hermon, from Mount Mizar.

7: Deep calls to deep at the thunder of thy cataracts; all thy waves and thy billows have gone over me.

8: By day the LORD commands his steadfast love; and at night his song is with me, a prayer to the God of my life.

9: I say to God, my rock: "Why hast thou forgotten me? Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?"

10: As with a deadly wound in my body, my adversaries taunt me, while they say to me continually, "Where is your God?"

11: Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help and my God.

Psalm 43

1: Vindicate me, O God, and defend my cause against an ungodly people; from deceitful and unjust men deliver me!

Psalm 43

v1: Vindicate me, O God, and plead or defend my cause in court on my behalf, against an ungodly nation, Israel in Revolution; deliver me from the deceitful and dishonorable men!

2: For thou art the God in whom I take refuge; why hast thou cast me off? Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

v2: For you are my God my fortress of Metabolized Bible Doctrine in my Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, in whom I take refuge; why have you rejected me? Why must I go about mourning while the enemy oppresses me?

3: Oh send out thy light and thy truth; let them lead me, let them bring me to thy holy hill and to thy dwelling!

v3: Send forth your light and enlighten the people and your truth; let them, absolute truth, guide me, let them bring me to your holy mountain and to the place where you dwell in the tabernacle of Mt Zion.

4: Then I will go to the altar of God, to God my exceeding joy; and I will praise thee with the lyre, O God, my God.

Ps 43:4

v4: Then I will go to the altar of God, to God the source of my exceeding happiness who causes me to DANCE in disaster and prosperity; and I will give thanks to you with the Harp, O Elohim, my God.

5: Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help and my God.

v5: Why are you depressed, O my soul, and why are you disturbed within me? Trust or have Absolute Confidence in God under pressure with the Faith Rest Drill (4 categories); Then I shall yet give thanks to him, my deliverer, as the triumph of my presence and my God.

Psalm 44

0: To the choirmaster. A Maskil of the Sons of Korah.

1: We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what deeds thou didst perform in their days, in the days of old:

2: thou with thy own hand didst drive out the nations, but them thou didst plant; thou didst afflict the peoples, but them thou didst set free;

3: for not by their own sword did they win the land, nor did their own arm give them victory; but thy right hand, and thy arm, and the light of thy countenance; for thou didst delight in them.

4: Thou art my King and my God, who ordainest victories for Jacob.

5: Through thee we push down our foes; through thy name we tread down our assailants.

6: For not in my bow do I trust, nor can my sword save me.

7: But thou hast saved us from our foes, and hast put to confusion those who hate us.

8: In God we have boasted continually, and we will give thanks to thy name for ever. [Selah]

9: Yet thou hast cast us off and abased us, and hast not gone out with our armies.

10: Thou hast made us turn back from the foe; and our enemies have gotten spoil.

11: Thou hast made us like sheep for slaughter, and hast scattered us among the nations.

12: Thou hast sold thy people for a trifle, demanding no high price for them.

13: Thou hast made us the taunt of our neighbors, the derision and scorn of those about us.

14: Thou hast made us a byword among the nations, a laughingstock among the peoples.

15: All day long my disgrace is before me, and shame has covered my face, 16: at the words of the taunters and revilers, at the sight of the enemy and the avenger.

17: All this has come upon us, though we have not forgotten thee, or been false to thy covenant.

18: Our heart has not turned back, nor have our steps departed from thy way, 19: that thou shouldst have broken us in the place of jackals, and covered us with deep darkness.

20: If we had forgotten the name of our God, or spread forth our hands to a strange god, 21: would not God discover this? For he knows the secrets of the heart.

22: Nay, for thy sake we are slain all the day long, and accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

v22: No Indeed, For your sake we are slain continually, and counted as sheep for the slaughter.

23: Rouse thyself! Why sleepest thou, O Lord? Awake! Do not cast us off for ever!

Ps 44:23

v23: Arouse yourself! Why do you sleep, Oh Lord? Awake! Do not reject us for ever!

24: Why dost thou hide thy face? Why dost thou forget our affliction and oppression?

25: For our soul is bowed down to the dust; our body cleaves to the ground.

26: Rise up, come to our help! Deliver us for the sake of thy steadfast love!

Psalm 45

0: To the choirmaster: according to Lilies. A Maskil of the Sons of Korah a love song.

1: My heart overflows with a goodly theme; I address my verses to the king; my tongue is like the pen of a ready scribe.

2: You are the fairest of the sons of men; grace is poured upon your lips; therefore God has blessed you for ever.

3: Gird your sword upon your thigh, O mighty one, in your glory and majesty!

4: In your majesty ride forth victoriously for the cause of truth and to defend the right; let your right hand teach you dread deeds!

5: Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; the peoples fall under you.

6: Your divine throne endures for ever and ever. Your royal scepter is a scepter of equity;

7: you love righteousness and hate wickedness. Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows;

8: your robes are all fragrant with myrrh and aloes and cassia. From ivory palaces stringed instruments make you glad;

9: daughters of kings are among your ladies of honor; at your right hand stands the queen in gold of Ophir.

10: Hear, O daughter, consider, and incline your ear; forget your people and your father's house;

11: and the king will desire your beauty. Since he is your lord, bow to him;

12: the people of Tyre will sue your favor with gifts, the richest of the people

13: with all kinds of wealth. The princess is decked in her chamber with gold-woven robes;

14: in many-colored robes she is led to the king, with her virgin companions, her escort, in her train.

15: With joy and gladness they are led along as they enter the palace of the king.

16: Instead of your fathers shall be your sons; you will make them princes in all the earth.

17: I will cause your name to be celebrated in all generations; therefore the peoples will praise you for ever and ever.

Psalm 46

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of the Sons of Korah. According to Alamothe. A Song.

Ps 46:0 (Women of the Choir, singing to Jerusalem)

v0: To the Chief Musician & Choir Director for the sons of Korah (the Choir of the Temple) a song set to the Alamothe to sing, to be accompanied by the Young Ladies,

1: God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Ps 46:1

v1: Elohim or God (JC the visible member [maybe plural for trinity] the Lord of the armies), our fortification, our power or security, has been a help in times of adversity or distress, he has always been tested and proven to be faithful to us.

2: Therefore we will not fear though the earth should change, though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea;

v2: Therefore for this cause we will NOT fear, even when the land is destroyed around us, and though the mountains are carried into the heart of the seas (natural disasters or Assyrian breaching techniques) OR destruction of the nation itself.

3: though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains tremble with its tumult. [Selah]

v3: His armies (waters) (Sennacherib) therefore roar or bellow a war cry (to inspire fear of them) and are destructive or boil with anger (which they had done) Selah! (Think about it, give it serious thought and REST on Metabolized Bible Doctrine).

4: There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy habitation of the Most High.

Ps 46:4

v4: A River of Doctrine (taught by Isaiah) whose streams or channels (Metabolized Bible Doctrine applied to experiences) shall cause intensive inner happiness to the city of God (Jerusalem), the holy places of the Most High God (Temple with the true place of worship)

5: God is in the midst of her, she shall not be moved; God will help her right early.

Ps 46:5

v5: Elohim in the middle of her (Jerusalem and the Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul of the believers), the Lord will help her (said with absolute confidence), and she will not totter nor fall down under the 5th cycle of discipline, the Lord (elohim) will help her when the morning dawns

6: The nations rage, the kingdoms totter; he utters his voice, the earth melts.

Ps 46:6

v6: The gentiles or heathens (assyrian army) were enraged and utter their great battle cry, and the kingdoms have been moved and destroyed, but he, the Lord Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ will utter his battle cry and the earth will be dissolved.

7: The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. [Selah]

Ps 46:7

v7: The Lord of the Armies Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ is with us, an impregnable fort is the God of Jacob who gave him salvation and prosperity, selah (REST and think about it)

8: Come, behold the works of the LORD, how he has wrought desolations in the earth.

Ps 46:8

v8: Fall in and pass in review or march in review, to see the works of the Lord, how the Lord has caused desolations in the land of Judah, or who is responsible for this punishment,

9: He makes wars cease to the end of the earth; he breaks the bow, and shatters the spear, he burns the chariots with fire!

Ps 46:9

v9: JC who causes wars to cease to the end of the earth, he smashes the bow of the Assyrian infantry and cuts to peaces their spears, he destroys the war chariots, he burns them with fire,

10: "Be still, and know that I am God. I am exalted among the nations, I am exalted in the earth!"

Ps 46:10

v10: Be caused to be relaxed and know based on Bible Doctrine that I am the lord, I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the Land of the Jews

11: The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. [Selah]

Ps 46:11

v11: Therefore so decreed the lord concerning the King of Assyria Sennach'erib, he shall not come into the city of Jerusalem nor shoot an arrow there, nor assault it with a single shield, he will not build up an assault or mount an attack against Jerusalem, he will NOT be successful.

Psalm 47

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of the Sons of Korah.

1: Clap your hands, all peoples! Shout to God with loud songs of joy!

2: For the LORD, the Most High, is terrible, a great king over all the earth.

3: He subdued peoples under us, and nations under our feet.

4: He chose our heritage for us, the pride of Jacob whom he loves. [Selah]
5: God has gone up with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.
6: Sing praises to God, sing praises! Sing praises to our King, sing praises!
7: For God is the king of all the earth; sing praises with a Psalm!
8: God reigns over the nations; God sits on his holy throne.
9: The princes of the peoples gather as the people of the God of Abraham. For the shields of the earth belong to God; he is highly exalted!

Psalm 48

0: A Song. A Psalm of the Sons of Korah.
1: Great is the LORD and greatly to be praised in the city of our God! His holy mountain, v1: Great is the LORD and greatly to be praised in the city of our God! His holy mountain, 2: beautiful in elevation, is the joy of all the earth, Mount Zion, in the far north, the city of the great King.
v2: beautiful in elevation on the high ridge, is the happiness or +H of all the earth is Mount Zion, in the far north of Judah, the city of the great King David.
3: Within her citadels God has shown himself a sure defense.
v3: God Within her Palaces made himself known as a castle or sure fortification.
4: For lo, the kings assembled, they came on together.
5: As soon as they saw it, they were astounded, they were in panic, they took to flight;
6: trembling took hold of them there, anguish as of a woman in travail.
7: By the east wind thou didst shatter the ships of Tarshish.
8: As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God, which God establishes for ever. [Selah]
9: We have thought on thy steadfast love, O God, in the midst of thy temple.
v9: We have thought on thy steadfast love, O God, in the midst of thy temple.
10: As thy name, O God, so thy praise reaches to the ends of the earth. Thy right hand is filled with victory;
11: let Mount Zion be glad! Let the daughters of Judah rejoice because of thy judgments!
12: Walk about Zion, go round about her, number her towers, v12: Walk around Zion, examine or number her towers, 13: consider well her ramparts, go through her citadels; that you may tell the next generation 14: that this is God, our God for ever and ever. He will be our guide for ever.
v14: This God is our God forever and ever. He will be our guide even unto death.

Psalm 49

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of the Sons of Korah.
1: Hear this, all peoples! Give ear, all inhabitants of the world,
2: both low and high, rich and poor together!
3: My mouth shall speak wisdom; the meditation of my heart shall be understanding.
4: I will incline my ear to a proverb; I will solve my riddle to the music of the lyre.
5: Why should I fear in times of trouble, when the iniquity of my persecutors surrounds me,
6: men who trust in their wealth and boast of the abundance of their riches?
7: Truly no man can ransom himself, or give to God the price of his life,
8: for the ransom of his life is costly, and can never suffice,
9: that he should continue to live on for ever, and never see the Pit.
10: Yea, he shall see that even the wise die, the fool and the stupid alike must perish and leave their wealth to others.
11: Their graves are their homes for ever, their dwelling places to all generations, though they named lands their own.
12: Man cannot abide in his pomp, he is like the beasts that perish.
13: This is the fate of those who have foolish confidence, the end of those who are pleased with their portion. [Selah]
14: Like sheep they are appointed for Sheol; Death shall be their shepherd; straight to the grave they descend, and their form shall waste away; Sheol shall be their home.
15: But God will ransom my soul from the power of Sheol, for he will receive me. [Selah]
16: Be not afraid when one becomes rich, when the glory of his house increases.
17: For when he dies he will carry nothing away; his glory will not go down after him.
18: Though, while he lives, he counts himself happy, and though a man gets praise when he does well for himself, 19: he will go to the generation of his fathers, who will never more see the light.
20: Man cannot abide in his pomp, he is like the beasts that perish.

Psalm 50

0: A Psalm of Asaph.
1: The Mighty One, God the LORD, speaks and summons the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.

v1: The Mighty One, Elohim the Jehovah, speaks and summons the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.

2: Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God shines forth.

v2: Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, Elohim has shown forth.

3: Our God comes, he does not keep silence, before him is a devouring fire, round about him a mighty tempest.

4: He calls to the heavens above and to the earth, that he may judge his people:

5: "Gather to me my faithful ones, who made a covenant with me by sacrifice!"

6: The heavens declare his righteousness, for God himself is judge! [Selah]

7: "Hear, O my people, and I will speak, O Israel, I will testify against you. I am God, your God.

8: I do not reprove you for your sacrifices; your burnt offerings are continually before me.

9: I will accept no bull from your house, nor he-goat from your folds.

10: For every beast of the forest is mine, the cattle on a thousand hills.

11: I know all the birds of the air, and all that moves in the field is mine.

12: "If I were hungry, I would not tell you; for the world and all that is in it is mine.

13: Do I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

14: Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving, and pay your vows to the Most High;

15: and call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you shall glorify me."

16: But to the wicked God says: "What right have you to recite my statutes, or take my covenant on your lips?"

Ps 50:16-21

v16: But to the evil, God Says, "what right do you have to distort my Laws, and to take my covenant in your mouth distorting what God has provided and trying to interpret what is not there?"

17: For you hate discipline, and you cast my words behind you.

v17: For you hate discipline and Authority (evil rejects all authority) and you cast my words behind you with Negative Volition to Bible Doctrine, 18: If you see a thief, you are a friend of his; and you keep company with adulterers.

v18: when you see a thief you are pleased with him, and you socialize with those who are spiritually unfaithful, adulterers 19: "You give your mouth free rein for evil, and your tongue frames deceit.

v19: you propagandize in the field of Evil, and your tongue frames deceit, and you criticize what you do not understand.

20: You sit and speak against your brother; you slander your own mother's son.

v20: you sit and speak against your brother, and slander your own mothers son (communism and people courts)

21: These things you have done and I have been silent; you thought that I was one like yourself. But now I rebuke you, and lay the charge before you.

v21: these things You have done and I have kept silent says God, you thought I was just like you, I will show you I am not, I will reprove you and state the Case in order before your eyes (5 Cycles of Discipline).

22: "Mark this, then, you who forget God, lest I rend, and there be none to deliver!"

23: He who brings thanksgiving as his sacrifice honors me; to him who orders his way aright I will show the salvation of God!"

Psalm 51

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

v0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had committed adultery with Bathsheba.

1: Have mercy on me, O God, according to thy steadfast love; according to thy abundant mercy blot out my transgressions.

v1: Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love, mercy or grace policy; according to the greatness of your compassion blot out my transgressions.

2: Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin!

v2: Wash away all my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin!

3: For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.

v3: For I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is continually before me from what occurs in my installment discipline.

4: Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done that which is evil in thy sight, so that thou art justified in thy sentence and blameless in thy judgment.

v4: Against you and you only, Oh God, I have sinned, I have manufactured from Interlocking System of Arrogance what is evil in your sight, so that you are vindicated when you speak in judgment and justified when you pronounced judgment and perfect when you render a judicial decision.

5: Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me.

v5: Behold in iniquity from Adam's Original Sin I was born (OSN) and sinful from the time my mother conceived me

6: Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward being; therefore teach me wisdom in my secret heart.

v6: Behold you desire Bible Doctrine in my innermost being and in the hidden part of my soul where epignosis resides you will cause me to know wisdom from reverse concentration.

7: Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

v7: Cleanse me with hyssop as a leper, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.
 8: Fill me with joy and gladness; let the bones which thou hast broken rejoice.
 v8: Let me hear joy and happiness; let the bones which you have broken in discipline rejoice.
 9: Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities.
 v9: Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities.
 10: Create in me a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within me.
 v10: Oh God! Create in me a pure Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul from perception of Bible Doctrine, and renew within me the integrity of life.
 11: Cast me not away from thy presence, and take not thy holy Spirit from me.
 v11: Do not cast me from your presence, and do not take your holy Spirit from me.
 12: Restore to me the joy of thy salvation, and uphold me with a willing spirit.
 v12: Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and give me a willing spirit switching me from subjectivity to objectivity to sustain me.
 13: Then I will teach transgressors thy ways, and sinners will return to thee.
 v13: Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will turn back to you.
 14: Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation, and my tongue will sing aloud of thy deliverance.
 15: O Lord, open thou my lips, and my mouth shall show forth thy praise.
 16: For thou hast no delight in sacrifice; were I to give a burnt offering, thou wouldst not be pleased.
 17: The sacrifice acceptable to God is a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.
 18: Do good to Zion in thy good pleasure; rebuild the walls of Jerusalem, 19: then wilt thou delight in right sacrifices, in burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings; then bulls will be offered on thy altar.

Psalm 52

0: To the choirmaster. A Maskil of David, when Doeg, the Edomite, came and told Saul, "David has come to the house of Ahimelech."

v0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of instruction of David, when Doeg, the Edomite the Betrayer of Nob, came and told or lied and distorted to Saul, "David came to the house of Ahimelech the Tabernacle."

1: Why do you boast, O mighty man, of mischief done against the godly? All the day v1: Why do you boast in evil you mighty men or hero (sarcasm), while the Grace of God endures all the or continues every the day long.

2: you are plotting destruction. Your tongue is like a sharp razor, you worker of treachery.

v2: Your sins of the tongue devise or plot evil or destruction or catastrophes, like a sharpened razor, you manufacturer from reversionism of treachery or deceit or Fraud.

3: You love evil more than good, and lying more than speaking the truth. [Selah] v3: You in reversionism love evil more than good, and lying or falsehood or fabrication more than speaking the truth even when it is easier. [Selah, stop and think about it.]

4: You love all words that devour, O deceitful tongue.

v4: You love all words that devour or destroy, you tongue of deceit.

5: But God will break you down for ever; he will snatch and tear you from your tent; he will uproot you from the land of the living. [Selah]

v5: Therefore God will slowly break or tear you reversionists down one piece at a time with no return forever; he will seize you and pick you up and shake you and tear you to pieces from your dwelling tent; he will uproot you from the land of the living (Sin unto Death ). Selah, [Stop and think about it.]

6: The righteous shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him, saying, v6: The righteous ones the mature believers who have made Adjustment to the Justice of God, in the Cave with David shall see the reversionist's discipline, and have awe or respect for the mechanism of God in discipline, and they shall chuckle and laugh at him the reversionist and the means of his dying, saying,

7: "See the man who would not make God his refuge, but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and sought refuge in his wealth!"

v7: "Behold this is the mighty man or warrior (sarcasm) who would not appoint or establish Elohim or God as his fortification or refuge, but instead he trusted or depended on the abundance or multiplication of his riches or wealth given by Saul, and tried to make himself strong through the disaster or massacre he caused at Nob or was strong in the area of EVIL!"

8: But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God. I trust in the steadfast love of God for ever and ever.

v8: But I am like a green olive tree planted in the house of God having maximum prosperity. I trust in the steadfast love or grace in action of God Elohim for ever and ever.

9: I will thank thee for ever, because thou hast done it. I will proclaim thy name, for it is good, in the presence of the godly.

v9: I have been caused by Doctrine to praise you for ever in both time with Occupation with the Person of Christ and in eternity, because you have manufactured it in eternity past from super-grace. I will trust with the strongest faith your essence because it is perfect, in the presence of the super-grace believers

0: To the choirmaster: according to Mahalath. A Maskil of David.

1: The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, doing abominable iniquity; there is none that does good.

Ps 53:1

v1: Nabal (1Sam 25) has said in the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of his Soul there is no Elohim; They are corrupt, doing abominable iniquity; there is none that does good.

2: God looks down from heaven upon the sons of men to see if there are any that are wise, that seek after God.

Ps53:2

v2: God has looked down from Heaven upon mankind to see if there is anyone who things wisely for anyone who seeks God.

3: They have all fallen away; they are all alike depraved; there is none that does good, no, not one.

4: Have those who work evil no understanding, who eat up my people as they eat bread, and do not call upon God?

5: There they are, in great terror, in terror such as has not been! For God will scatter the bones of the ungodly; they will be put to shame, for God has rejected them.

6: O that deliverance for Israel would come from Zion! When God restores the fortunes of his people, Jacob will rejoice and Israel be glad.

Psalm 54

0: To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments. A Maskil of David, when the Ziphites went and told Saul, "David is in hiding among us."

v0: To the chief musician: with the meganoth stringed instruments and their harmony. A Psalm of instruction of David to make you wise, when the Ziphites came and said "does not David hid himself among us"

1: Save me, O God, by thy name, and vindicate me by thy might.

v1: Oh Elohim by your essence, character or name deliver me, and vindicate me acting as my defense attorney by your omnipotence..

2: Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth.

3: For insolent men have risen against me, ruthless men seek my life; they do not set God before them. [Selah]

4: Behold, God is my helper; the Lord is the upholder of my life.

5: He will requite my enemies with evil; in thy faithfulness put an end to them.

v5: The Evil will return to those who lie in wait for me, but put them to silence with your doctrine.

6: With a freewill offering I will sacrifice to thee; I will give thanks to thy name, O LORD, for it is good.

7: For thou hast delivered me from every trouble, and my eye has looked in triumph on my enemies.

Psalm 55

0: To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments. A Maskil of David.

v0: To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments. A Maskil of David.

1: Give ear to my prayer, O God; and hide not thyself from my supplication!

v1: Listen to my prayer, O God; and do not hide yourself from my supplication!

2: Attend to me, and answer me; I am overcome by my trouble. I am distraught

v2: Hear me and answer me; My thoughts trouble me and I am distracted

3: by the noise of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked. For they bring trouble upon me, and in anger they cherish enmity against me.

v3: At the voice of the enemy (Absalom reigns in Hebron), By the depression of the lawless one, For they bring down suffering on me, and in anger they would trap me or destroy me.

4: My heart is in anguish within me, the terrors of death have fallen upon me.

v4: My Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul is anguished within me, and the terrors of death have fallen on me.

5: Fear and trembling come upon me, and horror overwhelms me.

v5: Fear and trembling came upon me, and horror has overwhelmed me.

6: And I say, "O that I had wings like a dove! I would fly away and be at rest;

v6: I thought, "O that I had the wings like a dove! Then I would fly away and be at rest;

7: yea, I would wander afar, I would lodge in the wilderness, [Selah]

v7: I would flee far away and stay in the desert to avoid my responsibility, [Selah]

8: I would haste to find me a shelter from the raging wind and tempest."

v8: I would soar to my place of refuge far from the rushing wind and storm."

9: Destroy their plans, O Lord, confuse their tongues; for I see violence and strife in the city.

v9: Confuse the revolutionists, O Lord, divide their speech and get them to argue among themselves; for I see violence and strife in the city of Jerusalem.

10: Day and night they go around it on its walls; and mischief and trouble are within it, v10: Day and night the conspirators prowl around on her walls; trouble and misery are in her midst 11: ruin is in its midst; oppression and fraud do not depart from its market place.

v11: Destructive forces are at work in the city of Jerusalem, threats and lies never leave her streets in unrestrained crime.

12: It is not an enemy who taunts me -- then I could bear it; it is not an adversary who deals insolently with me -- then I could hide from him.

v12: If an enemy were insulting me or debating me in our assembly I could endure it; if someone who hated me magnified himself against me I could hide from him.

13: But it is you, my equal, my companion, my familiar friend.

v13: But it is you, a man who is my equal, my associate, my close friend (Ahithophel, Absalom, Ammasah.

14: We used to hold sweet converse together; within God's house we walked in fellowship.

v14: With whom I once enjoyed sweet fellowship as we walked to the house of God's with the festive crowd.

15: Let death come upon them; let them go down to Sheol alive; let them go away in terror into their graves.

v15: According to your will Oh God, Let death surprise them; let them go down alive in a slow painful death into the grave; for evil is at home within their souls

16: But I call upon God; and the LORD will save me.

v16: But I call to God; and the LORD delivers me.

17: Evening and morning and at noon I utter my complaint and moan, and he will hear my voice.

v17: At Evening and morning and at noon I cry under pressure and he hears my voice (confidence of humility under pressure).

18: He will deliver my soul in safety from the battle that I wage, for many are arrayed against me.

v18: He has preserved and set free or delivered my soul in peace and tranquility and prosperity from the attack of the revolution enemy approaching upon me, even though there are multitudes opposed against me.

19: God will give ear, and humble them, he who is enthroned from of old; because they keep no law, and do not fear God. [Selah]

v19: God who is sovereign from Eternity Past will hear me and answer my prayers, and humble or afflict my enemies, he who always dwelt in prosperity from Eternity Past; Even they who think nothing of others men who do not changes their ways such as in the reversionism of Saul or the revolutionists, because he has no respect for Elohim. [Selah = God works while we rest and did all of it in Eternity Past] 20: My companion stretched out his hand against his friends, he violated his covenant.

v20: He, Saul or Absalom, has aggressively put forth his hands against or attacks those who were at peace with him, He has violated his treaty or covenant. He Absalom has violated his pardon or covenant, he has used it to become leader of the revolution.

21: His speech was smoother than butter, yet war was in his heart; his words were softer than oil, yet they were drawn swords.

v21: His speech was smoother than butter but his Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul was war or revolution with hate and cruelty, his words were more soothing than anointing oil but they were drawn swords.

22: Cast your burden on the LORD, and he will sustain you; he will never permit the righteous to be moved.

v22: Cast or put your anxieties or cares on Jehovah, and he will sustain or uphold you in the greatest disaster, he will never permit the righteous to fall, or be shaken or destroyed when all else is falling apart.

23: But thou, O God, wilt cast them down into the lowest pit; men of blood and treachery shall not live out half their days. But I will trust in thee

v23: But you, Oh Elohim, will bring them the reversionist revolutionists down to the pit of destruction, blood thirsty deceitful men will not live out half their days, but I, David will trust in you.

0: To the choirmaster: according to The Dove on Far-off Terebinths. A Miktam of David, when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

v0: To the chief musician the director of music: Upon the silent persecuted Dove (David) who longs to escape among the strangers In Gath. A Psalm of great value written permanently of David, when the Philistines violently seized him in Gath.

1: Be gracious to me, O God, for men trample upon me; all day long foemen oppress me;

v1: Be gracious to me, O God, for a weak man completely destroys me; all day long men oppress me;

2: my enemies trample upon me all day long, for many fight against me proudly.

v2: My enemies seek to destroy and swallow me up all day long, for they are many which fight against me with great pride and arrogance.

3: When I am afraid, I put my trust in thee.

v3: The Day that I am constantly afraid I will trust in you and in your doctrine, slamming my troubles on you in faith to stabilize my thinking

4: In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust without a fear. What can flesh do to me?

v4: In God, I will praise or believe his doctrine, in God and his doctrine I have put my trust without any fear. What can man do to me?

5: All day long they seek to injure my cause; all their thoughts are against me for evil.

v5: Every day they distort my words everything I say; all their thoughts are against me for evil with hatred, jealousy implacability and every Mental Attitude Sin possible.

6: They band themselves together, they lurk, they watch my steps. As they have waited for my life, v6: They incite a mob against me, they stalk me and seek to ambush me, they stalk me while I am still free to walk the city. And they wait for a chance to kill me,

7: so recompense them for their crime; in wrath cast down the peoples, O God!

v7: Because of iniquity, nothingness, my reversionism there is no deliverance for them who attack the reversionist, they shall not escape; in anger cast down the philistine peoples, O Elohim!

8: Thou hast kept count of my tossings; put thou my tears in thy bottle! Are they not in thy book?

Ps 56:8

v8: You have taken account or kept track of or written my fugitive life in reversionism in Nob and Gath; my tears are being put in your bottle as your mourning! Are they not in your book as warnings that recovery is only from Perception, Cognition, Inculcation, Metabolization & Application of Bible Doctrine?

9: Then my enemies will be turned back in the day when I call. This I know, that God is for me.

v9: Then my enemies will be turned back or fall back in the day when I call in reversion recovery. In This I have confidence, that Elohim is for me.

10: In God, whose word I praise, in the LORD, whose word I praise, v10: In Elohim (the Trinity), I will praise doctrine, in the Jehovah Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ I will praise doctrine, 11: in God I trust without a fear. What can man do to me?

v11: in Elohim I have put my trust and take in doctrine and metabolize it. I have no fear of what man can do to me?

12: My vows to thee I must perform, O God; I will render thank offerings to thee.

v12: My pledge to consistent Perception, Cognition, Inculcation, Metabolization of Bible Doctrine are upon me Oh Elohim; I will perform confessions or rebounds constantly to you.

13: For thou hast delivered my soul from death, yea, my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of life.

v13: For you have snatched from danger or delivered my soul from the Sin Unto Death, Not just my feet from falling in simple carnality, in order that I, myself, and no one else, may walk before Elohim in the light or doctrine of the life, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ.

Psalm 57

0: To the choirmaster: according to Do Not Destroy. A Miktam of David, when he fled from Saul, in the cave.

v0: To the chief musician: according to Do Not Destroy doctrine. A Miktam of David, when he fled from Saul, in the cave of adullam and ingade.

1: Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me, for in thee my soul takes refuge; in the shadow of thy wings I will take refuge, till the storms of destruction pass by.

v1: Be gracious or Give Grace to me, O God, be gracious to me, for my soul finds refuge in you; yes in the shadow of your wings of protection and defense while offensively moving I will make my refuge, until these storms of destruction or catastrophes pass over.

2: I cry to God Most High, to God who fulfils his purpose for me.

v2: I call for help to Elohim the Most High, to El the one who brings total victory to me.

3: He will send from heaven and save me, he will put to shame those who trample upon me. [Selah] God will send forth his steadfast love and his faithfulness!

v3: He will send from heaven and cause to deliver me from Eternity Past, he will put to shame those who try to destroy me. [Selah] God will send forth to us his Grace or steadfast love and give his doctrine as provision!

4: I lie in the midst of lions that greedily devour the sons of men; their teeth are spears and arrows, their tongues sharp swords.

5: Be exalted, O God, above the heavens! Let thy glory be over all the earth!

6: They set a net for my steps; my soul was bowed down. They dug a pit in my way, but they have fallen into it themselves. [Selah]

7: My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast! I will sing and make melody!

v7: My Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul is Stabilized by Metabolized Bible Doctrine, Oh Elohim, I will sing praise and concentrate in playing music on the psaltry (a result of victory)!

8: Awake, my soul! Awake, O harp and lyre! I will awake the dawn!

v8: Awake, my soul! Awake, O harp and lyre! I will awaken the dawn!

9: I will give thanks to thee, O Lord, among the peoples; I will sing praises to thee among the nations.

v9: I will give thanks to You, Oh Jehovah, In the midst of the Army; I will sing praises to thee among the nations.

10: For thy steadfast love is great to the heavens, thy faithfulness to the clouds.

v10: For Great above the heavens is your steadfast love or GRACE Policy or Mercy, thy faithfulness to the clouds.

11: Be exalted, O God, above the heavens! Let thy glory be over all the earth!

v11: Be exalted above the heavens, Oh Elohim! Surrounding all around the earth is your glory or Bible Doctrine !

Psalm 58

0: To the choirmaster: according to Do Not Destroy. A Miktam of David.

1: Do you indeed decree what is right, you gods? Do you judge the sons of men uprightly?

v1: Do you, oh powerful ones, speak righteousness in silence; that is, when you judge in abuse of your power the righteous must be silent in your miscarriage of justice and failure to live by Justice Demands Justice.

2: Nay, in your hearts you devise wrongs; your hands deal out violence on earth.

v2: No, in the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of your Soul you work unrighteousness you weigh out violence from your hands on the earth.

3: The wicked go astray from the womb, they err from their birth, speaking lies.

v3: Evil are the ones estranged from the womb, evil starts in the soul of man from the time of birth, Those who speak lies have gone astray from the point of their birth.

4: They have venom like the venom of a serpent, like the deaf adder that stops its ear, v4: They have invisible poison like the venom of a snake, like a deaf king cobra which stops its ears.

5: so that it does not hear the voice of charmers or of the cunning enchanter.

v5: so that it may not hear the voice or flute of his charmers nor his constant thumping or of the skillful practicer of sorcery.

6: O God, break the teeth in their mouths; tear out the fangs of the young lions, O LORD!

v6: O Elohim, their teeth in their mouth; Oh Jehovah break out teeth of the vigorous lions!

7: Let them vanish like water that runs away; like grass let them be trodden down and wither.

v7: Let them flow away like water which runs off when he shoots his arrows let them be without arrowheads, like grass let them be trodden down and wither.

8: Let them be like the snail which dissolves into slime, like the untimely birth that never sees the sun.

v8: Let them be like the snail which secretes its slime as it goes along, like the abortions of a woman that never sees the son dying during the abortion.

9: Sooner than your pots can feel the heat of thorns, whether green or ablaze, may he sweep them away!

v9: Before your pots can feel the fire of heat of thorns, he will sweep them away with the whirlwind the Raw, the associates of reversionism, and the cooked, the reversionist

10: The righteous will rejoice when he sees the vengeance; he will bathe his feet in the blood of the wicked.

11: Men will say, "Surely there is a reward for the righteous; surely there is a God who judges on earth."

Psalm 59

0: To the choirmaster: according to Do Not Destroy. A Mikdam of David, when Saul sent men to watch his house in order to kill him.

1: Deliver me from my enemies, O my God, protect me from those who rise up against me,

2: deliver me from those who work evil, and save me from bloodthirsty men.

3: For, lo, they lie in wait for my life; fierce men band themselves against me. For no transgression or sin of mine, O LORD,

4: for no fault of mine, they run and make ready. Rouse thyself, come to my help, and see!

5: Thou, LORD God of hosts, art God of Israel. Awake to punish all the nations; spare none of those who treacherously plot evil.

[Selah]

6: Each evening they come back, howling like dogs and prowling about the city.

7: There they are, bellowing with their mouths, and snarling with their lips -- for "Who," they think, "will hear us?"

8: But thou, O LORD, dost laugh at them; thou dost hold all the nations in derision.

Ps 59:8

v8: But you oh, Jehovah laugh at them; you scoff at nations who are negative

9: O my Strength, I will sing praises to thee; for thou, O God, art my fortress.

10: My God in his steadfast love will meet me; my God will let me look in triumph on my enemies.

11: Slay them not, lest my people forget; make them totter by thy power, and bring them down, O Lord, our shield!

12: For the sin of their mouths, the words of their lips, let them be trapped in their pride. For the cursing and lies which they utter,

13: consume them in wrath, consume them till they are no more, that men may know that God rules over Jacob to the ends of the earth. [Selah]

14: Each evening they come back, howling like dogs and prowling about the city.

15: They roam about for food, and growl if they do not get their fill.

16: But I will sing of thy might; I will sing aloud of thy steadfast love in the morning. For thou hast been to me a fortress and a refuge in the day of my distress.

17: O my Strength, I will sing praises to thee, for thou, O God, art my fortress, the God who shows me steadfast love.

v4: I will praise you as long as I live; and in your name I will lift up my hands in prayer.

5: My soul is feasted as with marrow and fat, and my mouth praises thee with joyful lips, v5: My soul will be satisfied with your marrow and fatness or rich food in a banquet or the Metabolized Bible Doctrine in my Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, and my lips will praise you,

6: when I think of thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the watches of the night;

v6: On my bed I remember you in doctrinal application, I think of you during night watches ;

7: for thou hast been my help, and in the shadow of thy wings I sing for joy.

v7: because you are my help, I sing in the shadow of your wings.

8: My soul clings to thee; thy right hand upholds me.

v8: My soul clings to you in doctrinal rationales of reverse concentration; your right hand sustains and protects me.

9: But those who seek to destroy my life shall go down into the depths of the earth;

v9: The revolutionists who seek my life will be destroyed they will go down into the depths of the earth in their graves;

10: they shall be given over to the power of the sword, they shall be prey for jackals.

v10: They will be delivered to the sword, they will become food for the jackals.

11: But the king shall rejoice in God; all who swear by him shall glory; for the mouths of liars will be stopped.

v11: But the king will rejoice in God; everyone who swears by him the establishment force will praise God for deliverance but the mouths of those who speak lies the revolutionists will be stopped.

Psalm 64

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

v0: To the commanding general of the music division. A song of lyrics and musical instruments written by David.

1: Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint; preserve my life from dread of the enemy, v1: Hear my voice Oh God as I voice my complaint; preserve or guard my life from the terror of the enemy,

2: hide me from the secret plots of the wicked, from the scheming of evildoers, v2: Cause me to be hidden me from the conspiracy of the evil ones who have rejected David as king, from the revolt of the the mob who do iniquity.

3: who whet their tongues like swords, who aim bitter words like arrows, v3: Who, the leaders, have sharpened their tongues like swords, who aim their bitter words of verbal sins like deadly arrows,

4: shooting from ambush at the blameless, shooting at him suddenly and without fear.

v4: They that shoot in secret or from ambush at the one equipped with Metabolized Bible Doctrine the honorable, shooting at him suddenly and by sneaking and do not fear.

5: They hold fast to their evil purpose; they talk of laying snares secretly, thinking, "Who can see us?"

v5: They encourage each other to hold fast to their evil purpose or plans; they discuss laying snares secretly, thinking, "Who can see them?"

6: Who can search out our crimes? We have thought out a cunningly conceived plot." For the inward mind and heart of a man are deep!

v6: They plot injustice and hink who can spy out our personal iniquities invading privacy? They think to themselves that they have devised a cunningly conceived perfect systematic plot." For the inward mind and Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul of man are devious and enmeshed in evil!"

7: But God will shoot his arrow at them; they will be wounded suddenly.

v7: But God will shoot at them with his arrows of divine punishment against conspiracy and revolution, suddenly they shall be struck down.

8: Because of their tongue he will bring them to ruin; all who see them will wag their heads.

v8: He will turn their own tongues against them and will bring them to ruin; all who see them shake the head in astonishment.

9: Then all men will fear; they will tell what God has wrought, and ponder what he has done.

v9: Then all citizens will respect the Laws of Divine Establishment; and they will proclaim the deeds of God and meditate on what God has done, remembering Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ controls Human History.

10: Let the righteous rejoice in the LORD, and take refuge in him! Let all the upright in heart glory!

v10: Let the believer with imputed righteous rejoice or have inner happiness in the LORD, and take refuge in him by the Faith Rest Drill 4 Stages! And let all the honorable with integrity in the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul Glory or Praise the work of God!

Psalm 65

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David. A Song.

1: Praise is due to thee, O God, in Zion; and to thee shall vows be performed,

2: O thou who hearest prayer! To thee shall all flesh come

3: on account of sins. When our transgressions prevail over us, thou dost forgive them.
 4: Blessed is he whom thou dost choose and bring near, to dwell in thy courts! We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, thy holy temple!
 5: By dread deeds thou dost answer us with deliverance, O God of our salvation, who art the hope of all the ends of the earth, and of the farthest seas;
 6: who by thy strength hast established the mountains, being girded with might;
 7: who dost still the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, the tumult of the peoples;
 8: so that those who dwell at earth's farthest bounds are afraid at thy signs; thou makest the outgoings of the morning and the evening to shout for joy.
 9: Thou visitest the earth and waterest it, thou greatly enrichest it; the river of God is full of water; thou providest their grain, for so thou hast prepared it.
 10: Thou waterest its furrows abundantly, settling its ridges, softening it with showers, and blessing its growth.
 11: Thou crownest the year with thy bounty; the tracks of thy chariot drip with fatness.
 12: The pastures of the wilderness drip, the hills gird themselves with joy, 13: the meadows clothe themselves with flocks, the valleys deck themselves with grain, they shout and sing together for joy.

Psalm 66

0: To the choirmaster. A Song. A Psalm.
 1: Make a joyful noise to God, all the earth;
 2: sing the glory of his name; give to him glorious praise!
 3: Say to God, "How terrible are thy deeds! So great is thy power that thy enemies cringe before thee.
 4: All the earth worships thee; they sing praises to thee, sing praises to thy name." [Selah]
 5: Come and see what God has done: he is terrible in his deeds among men.
 6: He turned the sea into dry land; men passed through the river on foot. There did we rejoice in him,
 7: who rules by his might for ever, whose eyes keep watch on the nations -- let not the rebellious exalt themselves. [Selah]
 8: Bless our God, O peoples, let the sound of his praise be heard, 9: who has kept us among the living, and has not let our feet slip.
 10: For thou, O God, hast tested us; thou hast tried us as silver is tried.
 11: Thou didst bring us into the net; thou didst lay affliction on our loins;
 12: thou didst let men ride over our heads; we went through fire and through water; yet thou hast brought us forth to a spacious place.
 13: I will come into thy house with burnt offerings; I will pay thee my vows, 14: that which my lips uttered and my mouth promised when I was in trouble.
 15: I will offer to thee burnt offerings of fatlings, with the smoke of the sacrifice of rams; I will make an offering of bulls and goats. [Selah]
 16: Come and hear, all you who fear God, and I will tell what he has done for me.
 17: I cried aloud to him, and he was extolled with my tongue.
 18: If I had cherished iniquity in my heart, the Lord would not have listened.

Ps 66:18

v18: If I cherish sin or regard wickedness in the right lobe of the stream of consciousness of my soul, the Lord will not hear me nor listen to me, when I pray.

19: But truly God has listened; he has given heed to the voice of my prayer.

Ps 66:19

v19: But in fact, God has listened, furthermore he has paid close attention to the voice of my prayer

20: Blessed be God, because he has not rejected my prayer or removed his steadfast love from me!

Ps 66:20

v20: Salute (blessed) God, who has not rejected my prayer, nor his unfailing love for me

Psalm 67

0: To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments. A Psalm. A Song.
 1: May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face to shine upon us, [Selah]
 2: that thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving power among all nations.
 3: Let the peoples praise thee, O God; let all the peoples praise thee!
 4: Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for thou dost judge the peoples with equity and guide the nations upon earth. [Selah]
 5: Let the peoples praise thee, O God; let all the peoples praise thee!
 6: The earth has yielded its increase; God, our God, has blessed us.
 7: God has blessed us; let all the ends of the earth fear him!

Psalm 68

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David. A Song.

1: Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered; let those who hate him flee before him!

v1: Let the Integrity of God go into action, let the enemies of God be scattered by the Justice of God; let those who intensely hate him in reversionism flee before him!

2: As smoke is driven away, so drive them away; as wax melts before fire, let the wicked perish before God!

v2: As smoke is driven away by the wind, so let the Integrity of God drive them away; as wax melts before fire, so let the evil reversionist perish before God!

3: But let the righteous be joyful; let them exult before God; let them be jubilant with joy!

v3: But let the mature super-grace believers in the pivot have inner happiness; let them demonstrate Esprit De Corps before God; They rejoice in or have tangible happiness with capacity!

4: Sing to God, sing praises to his name; lift up a song to him who rides upon the clouds; his name is the LORD, exult before him!

v4: Sing to God, sing praises to his name; Pave the highway for him who rode through the deserts whose name is the Lord therefore demonstrate Esprit De Corps before him!

5: Father of the fatherless and protector of widows is God in his holy habitation.

v5: A Father of Orphans, and advocate of widows is God in his holy habitation helping the helpless.

6: God gives the desolate a home to dwell in; he leads out the prisoners to prosperity; but the rebellious dwell in a parched land.

v6: God causes the lonely ones to live in a house of blessing to take in doctrine; he causes to lead out the prisoners of war or captives or slaves from helplessness into prosperity; Only the perverse in evil, the reversionist lie down in a sun burnt land.

7: O God, when thou didst go forth before thy people, when thou didst march through the wilderness, [Selah]

8: the earth quaked, the heavens poured down rain, at the presence of God; yon Sinai quaked at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

9: Rain in abundance, O God, thou didst shed abroad; thou didst restore thy heritage as it languished;

10: thy flock found a dwelling in it; in thy goodness, O God, thou didst provide for the needy.

11: The Lord gives the command; great is the host of those who bore the tidings:

12: "The kings of the armies, they flee, they flee!" The women at home divide the spoil, 13: though they stay among the sheepfolds -- the wings of a dove covered with silver, its pinions with green gold.

14: When the Almighty scattered kings there, snow fell on Zalmon.

15: O mighty mountain, mountain of Bashan; O many-peaked mountain, mountain of Bashan!

16: Why look you with envy, O many-peaked mountain, at the mount which God desired for his abode, yea, where the LORD will dwell for ever?

17: With mighty chariotry, twice ten thousand, thousands upon thousands, the Lord came from Sinai into the holy place.

18: Thou didst ascend the high mount, leading captives in thy train, and receiving gifts among men, even among the rebellious, that the LORD God may dwell there.

19: Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears us up; God is our salvation. [Selah]

v19: Blessed be The Lord, who daily bears our burden; The God who is our salvation. [Selah]

20: Our God is a God of salvation; and to GOD, the Lord, belongs escape from death.

v20: Our God is to us a God of deliverance; From the sovereign Lord Lord, comes escapes from death.

21: But God will shatter the heads of his enemies, the hairy crown of him who walks in his guilty ways.

22: The Lord said, "I will bring them back from Bashan, I will bring them back from the depths of the sea, 23: that you may bathe your feet in blood, that the tongues of your dogs may have their portion from the foe."

24: Thy solemn processions are seen, O God, the processions of my God, my King, into the sanctuary --

25: the singers in front, the minstrels last, between them maidens playing timbrels:

26: "Bless God in the great congregation, the LORD, O you who are of Israel's fountain!"

27: There is Benjamin, the least of them, in the lead, the princes of Judah in their throng, the princes of Zeb'ulun, the princes of Naph'tali.

28: Summon thy might, O God; show thy strength, O God, thou who hast wrought for us.

29: Because of thy temple at Jerusalem kings bear gifts to thee.

30: Rebuke the beasts that dwell among the reeds, the herd of bulls with the calves of the peoples. Trample under foot those who lust after tribute; scatter the peoples who delight in war.

31: Let bronze be brought from Egypt; let Ethiopia hasten to stretch out her hands to God.

32: Sing to God, O kingdoms of the earth; sing praises to the Lord, [Selah]

33: to him who rides in the heavens, the ancient heavens; lo, he sends forth his voice, his mighty voice.

34: Ascribe power to God, whose majesty is over Israel, and his power is in the skies.

35: Terrible is God in his sanctuary, the God of Israel, he gives power and strength to his people. Blessed be God!

Psalm 69

1: Save me, O God! For the waters have come up to my neck.

2: I sink in deep mire, where there is no foothold; I have come into deep waters, and the flood sweeps over me.

3: I am weary with my crying; my throat is parched. My eyes grow dim with waiting for my God.

4: More in number than the hairs of my head are those who hate me without cause; mighty are those who would destroy me, those who attack me with lies. What I did not steal must I now restore?

5: O God, thou knowest my folly; the wrongs I have done are not hidden from thee.

6: Let not those who hope in thee be put to shame through me, O Lord GOD of hosts; let not those who seek thee be brought to dishonor through me, O God of Israel.

7: For it is for thy sake that I have borne reproach, that shame has covered my face.

8: I have become a stranger to my brethren, an alien to my mother's sons.

9: For zeal for thy house has consumed me, and the insults of those who insult thee have fallen on me.

v9: For zeal for Your house has consumed me, and the blasphemous insults, abuses and reproaches of those Jews insulting you, God the Father, have fallen on me, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ on the cross.

10: When I humbled my soul with fasting, it became my reproach.

11: When I made sackcloth my clothing, I became a byword to them.

12: I am the talk of those who sit in the gate, and the drunkards make songs about me.

13: But as for me, my prayer is to thee, O LORD. At an acceptable time, O God, in the abundance of thy steadfast love answer me. With thy faithful help 14: rescue me from sinking in the mire; let me be delivered from my enemies and from the deep waters.

15: Let not the flood sweep over me, or the deep swallow me up, or the pit close its mouth over me.

16: Answer me, O LORD, for thy steadfast love is good; according to thy abundant mercy, turn to me.

17: Hide not thy face from thy servant; for I am in distress, make haste to answer me.

18: Draw near to me, redeem me, set me free because of my enemies!

19: Thou knowest my reproach, and my shame and my dishonor; my foes are all known to thee.

20: Insults have broken my heart, so that I am in despair. I looked for pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.

21: They gave me poison for food, and for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

22: Let their own table before them become a snare; let their sacrificial feasts be a trap.

Ps 69:22

v22: Let their own table of their spiritual heritage or their Modus Operandi or Modus Vivendi before them become a snare; and with reference to their prosperity let it become a trap.

23: Let their eyes be darkened, so that they cannot see; and make their loins tremble continually.

Ps 69:23

v23: Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not; and make their loins tremble continually or Central Nervous System break down.

24: Pour out thy indignation upon them, and let thy burning anger overtake them.

25: May their camp be a desolation, let no one dwell in their tents.

v25: Let his habitation (potters field) be desolate, let no man dwell there

26: For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten, and him whom thou hast wounded, they afflict still more.

27: Add to them punishment upon punishment; may they have no acquittal from thee.

28: Let them be blotted out of the book of the living; let them not be enrolled among the righteous.

29: But I am afflicted and in pain; let thy salvation, O God, set me on high!

30: I will praise the name of God with a song; I will magnify him with thanksgiving.

31: This will please the LORD more than an ox or a bull with horns and hoofs.

32: Let the oppressed see it and be glad; you who seek God, let your hearts revive.

33: For the LORD hears the needy, and does not despise his own that are in bonds.

34: Let heaven and earth praise him, the seas and everything that moves therein.

35: For God will save Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah; and his servants shall dwell there and possess it;

v35: For God will deliver Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah; in order that his servants may dwell there and possess it;

36: the children of his servants shall inherit it, and those who love his name shall dwell in it.

v36: and the descendants of his servants shall inherit it, and those who love his name shall dwell in it.

Psalm 70

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David, for the memorial offering.

v0: To the chief musician. A Psalm of David, to cause you to remember or stimulate remembrance.

1: Be pleased, O God, to deliver me! O LORD, make haste to help me!

v1: Oh Elohim, to rescue Me! Oh Jehovah, to help me, make haste!

2: Let them be put to shame and confusion who seek my life! Let them be turned back and brought to dishonor who desire my hurt!

v2: Let them be ashamed and humiliated who seek after my soul! Let them be driven back and dishonored who delight in my disaster!

3: Let them be appalled because of their shame who say, "Aha, Aha!"

v3: Let them be turned back because of their shame who keep saying, "Nyaa, Nyaa!"

4: May all who seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee! May those who love thy salvation say evermore, "God is great!"

v4: May all who seek you and express Positive Volition to Bible Doctrine rejoice in the greatest of happiness and celebrate in you! May those who seek and continually love your deliverance and say constantly, "God is great!"

5: But I am poor and needy; hasten to me, O God! Thou art my help and my deliverer; O LORD, do not tarry!

v5: But I am afflicted and helpless; hasten to me, Oh Elohim! My help and my deliverer; Oh Jehovah do not delay!

Psalm 71

1: In thee, O LORD, do I take refuge; let me never be put to shame!

2: In thy righteousness deliver me and rescue me; incline thy ear to me, and save me!

3: Be thou to me a rock of refuge, a strong fortress, to save me, for thou art my rock and my fortress.

4: Rescue me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked, from the grasp of the unjust and cruel man.

5: For thou, O Lord, art my hope, my trust, O LORD, from my youth.

v5: For you are my hope, Oh Lord God, my trust or confidence, from my youth.

6: Upon thee I have leaned from my birth; thou art he who took me from my mother's womb. My praise is continually of thee.

7: I have been as a portent to many; but thou art my strong refuge.

8: My mouth is filled with thy praise, and with thy glory all the day.

9: Do not cast me off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength is spent.

10: For my enemies speak concerning me, those who watch for my life consult together,

11: and say, "God has forsaken him; pursue and seize him, for there is none to deliver him."

12: O God, be not far from me; O my God, make haste to help me!

13: May my accusers be put to shame and consumed; with scorn and disgrace may they be covered who seek my hurt.

14: But I will hope continually, and will praise thee yet more and more.

15: My mouth will tell of thy righteous acts, of thy deeds of salvation all the day, for their number is past my knowledge.

16: With the mighty deeds of the Lord GOD I will come, I will praise thy righteousness, thine alone.

17: O God, from my youth thou hast taught me, and I still proclaim thy wondrous deeds.

18: So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me, till I proclaim thy might to all the generations to come. Thy power 19: and thy righteousness, O God, reach the high heavens. Thou who hast done great things, O God, who is like thee?

20: Thou who hast made me see many sore troubles wilt revive me again; from the depths of the earth thou wilt bring me up again.

21: Thou wilt increase my honor, and comfort me again.

22: I will also praise thee with the harp for thy faithfulness, O my God; I will sing praises to thee with the lyre, O Holy One of Israel.

23: My lips will shout for joy, when I sing praises to thee; my soul also, which thou hast rescued.

24: And my tongue will talk of thy righteous help all the day long, for they have been put to shame and disgraced who sought to do me hurt.

Psalm 72

0: A Psalm of Solomon.

1: Give the king thy justice, O God, and thy righteousness to the royal son!

2: May he judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with justice!

3: Let the mountains bear prosperity for the people, and the hills, in righteousness!

4: May he defend the cause of the poor of the people, give deliverance to the needy, and crush the oppressor!

5: May he live while the sun endures, and as long as the moon, throughout all generations!

6: May he be like rain that falls on the mown grass, like showers that water the earth!

7: In his days may righteousness flourish, and peace abound, till the moon be no more!

8: May he have dominion from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth!

9: May his foes bow down before him, and his enemies lick the dust!

10: May the kings of Tarshish and of the isles render him tribute, may the kings of Sheba and Seba bring gifts!

11: May all kings fall down before him, all nations serve him!

12: For he delivers the needy when he calls, the poor and him who has no helper.

13: He has pity on the weak and the needy, and saves the lives of the needy.

14: From oppression and violence he redeems their life; and precious is their blood in his sight.

15: Long may he live, may gold of Sheba be given to him! May prayer be made for him continually, and blessings invoked for him all the day!

16: May there be abundance of grain in the land; on the tops of the mountains may it wave; may its fruit be like Lebanon; and may men blossom forth from the cities like the grass of the field!

Ps 72:16

v16: may there be an abundance of Grain in the earth on the tops of the mountains, it's fruit will wave like the cedars of Lebanon, and may those from the city flourish like vegetation on the earth.

17: May his name endure for ever, his fame continue as long as the sun! May men bless themselves by him, all nations call him blessed!

18: Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who alone does wondrous things.

19: Blessed be his glorious name for ever; may his glory fill the whole earth! Amen and Amen!

20: The prayers of David, the son of Jesse, are ended.

Psalm 73

0: APsalm of Asaph.

1: Truly God is good to the upright, to those who are pure in heart.

2: But as for me, my feet had almost stumbled, my steps had well nigh slipped.

3: For I was envious of the arrogant, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

4: For they have no pangs; their bodies are sound and sleek.

5: They are not in trouble as other men are; they are not stricken like other men.

6: Therefore pride is their necklace; violence covers them as a garment.

7: Their eyes swell out with fatness, their hearts overflow with follies.

8: They scoff and speak with malice; loftily they threaten oppression.

9: They set their mouths against the heavens, and their tongue struts through the earth.

10: Therefore the people turn and praise them; and find no fault in them.

v10: Therefore his people are caused to return to this place of recovery from the 5th cycle of discipline and the waters of abundance which overflow from Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul are drained by them.

11: And they say, "How can God know? Is there knowledge in the Most High?"

12: Behold, these are the wicked; always at ease, they increase in riches.

13: All in vain have I kept my heart clean and washed my hands in innocence.

14: For all the day long I have been stricken, and chastened every morning.

15: If I had said, "I will speak thus," I would have been untrue to the generation of thy children.

16: But when I thought how to understand this, it seemed to me a wearisome task, 17: until I went into the sanctuary of God; then I perceived their end.

18: Truly thou dost set them in slippery places; thou dost make them fall to ruin.

19: How they are destroyed in a moment, swept away utterly by terrors!

20: They are like a dream when one awakes, on awaking you despise their phantoms.

21: When my soul was embittered, when I was pricked in heart, 22: I was stupid and ignorant, I was like a beast toward thee.

23: Nevertheless I am continually with thee; thou dost hold my right hand.

24: Thou dost guide me with thy counsel, and afterward thou wilt receive me to glory.

25: Whom have I in heaven but thee? And there is nothing upon earth that I desire besides thee.

26: My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion for ever.

27: For lo, those who are far from thee shall perish; thou dost put an end to those who are false to thee.

28: But for me it is good to be near God; I have made the Lord GOD my refuge, that I may tell of all thy works.

Psalm 74

0: A Maskil of Asaph.

1: O God, why dost thou cast us off for ever? Why does thy anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?

2: Remember thy congregation, which thou hast gotten of old, which thou hast redeemed to be the tribe of thy heritage! Remember Mount Zion, where thou hast dwelt.

3: Direct thy steps to the perpetual ruins; the enemy has destroyed everything in the sanctuary!

4: Thy foes have roared in the midst of thy holy place; they set up their own signs for signs.

5: At the upper entrance they hacked the wooden trellis with axes.

6: And then all its carved wood they broke down with hatchets and hammers.

7: They set thy sanctuary on fire; to the ground they desecrated the dwelling place of thy name.

8: They said to themselves, "We will utterly subdue them"; they burned all the meeting places of God in the land.

9: We do not see our signs; there is no longer any prophet, and there is none among us who knows how long.

10: How long, O God, is the foe to scoff? Is the enemy to revile thy name for ever?

11: Why dost thou hold back thy hand, why dost thou keep thy right hand in thy bosom?

12: Yet God my King is from of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

13: Thou didst divide the sea by thy might; thou didst break the heads of the dragons on the waters.

14: Thou didst crush the heads of Leviathan, thou didst give him as food for the creatures of the wilderness.

15: Thou didst cleave open springs and brooks; thou didst dry up ever-flowing streams.

16: Thine is the day, thine also the night; thou hast established the luminaries and the sun.

17: Thou hast fixed all the bounds of the earth; thou hast made summer and winter.

18: Remember this, O LORD, how the enemy scoffs, and an impious people reviles thy name.

19: Do not deliver the soul of thy dove to the wild beasts; do not forget the life of thy poor for ever.

20: Have regard for thy covenant; for the dark places of the land are full of the habitations of violence.

21: Let not the downtrodden be put to shame; let the poor and needy praise thy name.

22: Arise, O God, plead thy cause; remember how the impious scoff at thee all the day!

23: Do not forget the clamor of thy foes, the uproar of thy adversaries which goes up continually!

Psalm 75

0: To the choirmaster: according to Do Not Destroy. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

1: We give thanks to thee, O God; we give thanks; we call on thy name and recount thy wondrous deeds.

2: At the set time which I appoint I will judge with equity.

3: When the earth totters, and all its inhabitants, it is I who keep steady its pillars. [Selah]

4: I say to the boastful, "Do not boast," and to the wicked, "Do not lift up your horn;

5: do not lift up your horn on high, or speak with insolent neck."

6: For not from the east or from the west and not from the wilderness comes lifting up;

7: but it is God who executes judgment, putting down one and lifting up another.

8: For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup, with foaming wine, well mixed; and he will pour a draught from it, and all the wicked of the earth shall drain it down to the dregs.

9: But I will rejoice for ever, I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

10: All the horns of the wicked he will cut off, but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

Psalm 76

0: To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

1: In Judah God is known, his name is great in Israel.

v1: Elohim is known in Judah, his name is great in Israel.

2: His abode has been established in Salem, his dwelling place in Zion.

v2: His abode has been established in Jerusalem, his dwelling place is also in Zion.

3: There he broke the flashing arrows, the shield, the sword, and the weapons of war. [Selah]

v3: There in Zion he broke the flaming arrows, the shield, the sword, and all the weapons of battle of the Jebusites. [Selah]

4: Glorious art thou, more majestic than the everlasting mountains.

5: The stouthearted were stripped of their spoil; they sank into sleep; all the men of war were unable to use their hands.

6: At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, both rider and horse lay stunned.

7: But thou, terrible art thou! Who can stand before thee when once thy anger is roused?

8: From the heavens thou didst utter judgment; the earth feared and was still,

9: when God arose to establish judgment to save all the oppressed of the earth. [Selah]

10: Surely the wrath of men shall praise thee; the residue of wrath thou wilt gird upon thee.

v10: For the Wrath of man shall praise you and the rest of the wrath you will restrain.

11: Make your vows to the LORD your God, and perform them; let all around him bring gifts to him who is to be feared, 12: who cuts off the spirit of princes, who is terrible to the kings of the earth.

Psalm 77

0: To the choirmaster: according to Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.

1: I cry aloud to God, aloud to God, that he may hear me.

v1: My voice rises to God and I will cry aloud My voice rises to God and he will hear me.

2: In the day of my trouble I seek the Lord; in the night my hand is stretched out without wearying; my soul refuses to be comforted.

v2: In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord in the night my hand is stretched out and did not grow numb or weary; my soul refuses to be comforted.

3: I think of God, and I moan; I meditate, and my spirit faints. [Selah]

v3: I remembered God when I was disturbed in reversionism, I moaned or sighed; my spirit grew faint. [Selah]

4: Thou dost hold my eyelids from closing; I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

v4: You have held open my eyelids from closing in insomnia; I am so troubled that I cannot speak. as Divine Discipline;

5: I consider the days of old, I remember the years long ago.

v5: I have considered the days of old, the years of old better and happier days under Bible Doctrine.

6: I commune with my heart in the night; I meditate and search my spirit:

v6: I will remember my song in the night as special good time of the past; I think with my Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul therefore my spirit searches.

7: "Will the Lord spurn for ever, and never again be favorable?

v7: "Will the Lord reject forever, and will he never again be gracious?

8: Has his steadfast love for ever ceased? Are his promises at an end for all time?

v8: Has his steadfast love or grace in action for ever ceased? Has his doctrine come to an end?

9: Has God forgotten to be gracious? Has he in anger shut up his compassion?" [Selah]

v9: Has God forgotten to be gracious? Has he in anger withdrawn his compassion?" [Selah]

10: And I say, "It is my grief that the right hand of the Most High has changed."

v10: Then I said, "It is my grief, the years of the right hand of the Most High in intensive Divine Discipline has changed."

11: I will call to mind the deeds of the LORD; yea, I will remember thy wonders of old.

12: I will meditate on all thy work, and muse on thy mighty deeds.

13: Thy way, O God, is holy. What god is great like our God?

14: Thou art the God who workest wonders, who hast manifested thy might among the peoples.

15: Thou didst with thy arm redeem thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. [Selah]

16: When the waters saw thee, O God, when the waters saw thee, they were afraid, yea, the deep trembled.

17: The clouds poured out water; the skies gave forth thunder; thy arrows flashed on every side.

18: The crash of thy thunder was in the whirlwind; thy lightnings lighted up the world; the earth trembled and shook.

19: Thy way was through the sea, thy path through the great waters; yet thy footprints were unseen.

20: Thou didst lead thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

0: A Maskil of Asaph.

1: Give ear, O my people, to my teaching; incline your ears to the words of my mouth!

2: I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings from of old,

3: things that we have heard and known, that our fathers have told us.

4: We will not hide them from their children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might, and the wonders which he has wrought.

5: He established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers to teach to their children;

6: that the next generation might know them, the children yet unborn, and arise and tell them to their children,

7: so that they should set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments;

8: and that they should not be like their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation whose heart was not steadfast, whose spirit was not faithful to God.

9: The E'phraimites, armed with the bow, turned back on the day of battle.

10: They did not keep God's covenant, but refused to walk according to his law.

11: They forgot what he had done, and the miracles that he had shown them.

12: In the sight of their fathers he wrought marvels in the land of Egypt, in the fields of Zo'an.

13: He divided the sea and let them pass through it, and made the waters stand like a heap.

14: In the daytime he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a fiery light.

15: He cleft rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as from the deep.

16: He made streams come out of the rock, and caused waters to flow down like rivers.

17: Yet they sinned still more against him, rebelling against the Most High in the desert.

18: They tested God in their heart by demanding the food they craved.

19: They spoke against God, saying, "Can God spread a table in the wilderness?"

20: He smote the rock so that water gushed out and streams overflowed. Can he also give bread, or provide meat for his people?"

Ps 78:20

v20: Behold He struck the rock so that water gushed out and streams overflowed. Can he also give bread, or provide meat for his people?"

21: Therefore, when the LORD heard, he was full of wrath; a fire was kindled against Jacob, his anger mounted against Israel;

22: because they had no faith in God, and did not trust his saving power.

23: Yet he commanded the skies above, and opened the doors of heaven;

24: and he rained down upon them manna to eat, and gave them the grain of heaven.

25: Man ate of the bread of the angels; he sent them food in abundance.

26: He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens, and by his power he led out the south wind;

27: he rained flesh upon them like dust, winged birds like the sand of the seas;

28: he let them fall in the midst of their camp, all around their habitations.

29: And they ate and were well filled, for he gave them what they craved.

30: But before they had sated their craving, while the food was still in their mouths, 31: the anger of God rose against them and he slew the strongest of them, and laid low the picked men of Israel.

32: In spite of all this they still sinned; despite his wonders they did not believe.

33: So he made their days vanish like a breath, and their years in terror.

34: When he slew them, they sought for him; they repented and sought God earnestly.

35: They remembered that God was their rock, the Most High God their redeemer.

36: But they flattered him with their mouths; they lied to him with their tongues.

37: Their heart was not steadfast toward him; they were not true to his covenant.

38: Yet he, being compassionate, forgave their iniquity, and did not destroy them; he restrained his anger often, and did not stir up all his wrath.

39: He remembered that they were but flesh, a wind that passes and comes not again.

40: How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness and grieved him in the desert!
41: They tested him again and again, and provoked the Holy One of Israel.
42: They did not keep in mind his power, or the day when he redeemed them from the foe;
43: when he wrought his signs in Egypt, and his miracles in the fields of Zo'an.
44: He turned their rivers to blood, so that they could not drink of their streams.
45: He sent among them swarms of flies, which devoured them, and frogs, which destroyed them.
46: He gave their crops to the caterpillar, and the fruit of their labor to the locust.
47: He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamores with frost.
48: He gave over their cattle to the hail, and their flocks to thunderbolts.
49: He let loose on them his fierce anger, wrath, indignation, and distress, a company of destroying angels.
50: He made a path for his anger; he did not spare them from death, but gave their lives over to the plague.
51: He smote all the first-born in Egypt, the first issue of their strength in the tents of Ham.
52: Then he led forth his people like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
53: He led them in safety, so that they were not afraid; but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
54: And he brought them to his holy land, to the mountain which his right hand had won.
55: He drove out nations before them; he apportioned them for a possession and settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.
56: Yet they tested and rebelled against the Most High God, and did not observe his testimonies, 57: but turned away and acted treacherously like their fathers; they twisted like a deceitful bow.
58: For they provoked him to anger with their high places; they moved him to jealousy with their graven images.
59: When God heard, he was full of wrath, and he utterly rejected Israel.
60: He forsook his dwelling at Shiloh, the tent where he dwelt among men, 61: and delivered his power to captivity, his glory to the hand of the foe.
62: He gave his people over to the sword, and vented his wrath on his heritage.
63: Fire devoured their young men, and their maidens had no marriage song.
64: Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows made no lamentation.
65: Then the Lord awoke as from sleep, like a strong man shouting because of wine.
v65: Then the Lord woke up as from a sleep, like a warrior sobered from wine.
66: And he put his adversaries to rout; he put them to everlasting shame.
v66: And he drove his enemies backward and he placed them on an everlasting reproach.
67: He rejected the tent of Joseph, he did not choose the tribe of E'phraim;
v67: He, God, also rejected the tabernacle of Joseph at Shiloh, he did not choose the tribe of E'phraim as ruler; 68: but he chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion, which he loves.
v68: but he chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion the legitimate tabernacle location, which he loves.
69: He built his sanctuary like the high heavens, like the earth, which he has founded for ever.
v69: He built his sanctuary of doctrine like the heights, like the earth, which he has founded for ever.
70: He chose David his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds;
v70: He also chose David his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds;
71: from tending the ewes that had young he brought him to be the shepherd of Jacob his people, of Israel his inheritance.
v71: he took him from tending the ewes and the baby lambs and brought him to shepherd of Jacob his people, of Israel his inheritance.
72: With upright heart he tended them, and guided them with skilful hand.
v72: So he shepherded them according to the integrity of Bible Doctrine in his Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, and guided them with skillful hands.

Psalm 79

0: A Psalm of Asaph.

1: O God, the heathen have come into thy inheritance; they have defiled thy holy temple; they have laid Jerusalem in ruins.

2: They have given the bodies of thy servants to the birds of the air for food, the flesh of thy saints to the beasts of the earth.

v2: They have given the dead bodies of thy servants to the birds of the air for food, the flesh of thy saints to the beasts of the earth.

3: They have poured out their blood like water round about Jerusalem, and there was none to bury them.

v3: They have poured out their blood like water courageously dying round about Jerusalem, and there was none to bury them in their total destruction.

4: We have become a taunt to our neighbors, mocked and derided by those round about us.

v4: We have become a taunt or reproach to our neighbors, mocked and derided by those round about us before the fall.

5: How long, O LORD? Wilt thou be angry for ever? Will thy jealous wrath burn like fire?

6: Pour out thy anger on the nations that do not know thee, and on the kingdoms that do not call on thy name!

7: For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his habitation.

8: Do not remember against us the iniquities of our forefathers; let thy compassion come speedily to meet us, for we are brought very low.

v8: Do not remember against us the iniquities of our forefathers; let your compassion or tender mercies come speedily to meet us that we may not get in the way of your grace, for we are brought very low.

9: Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name; deliver us, and forgive our sins, for thy name's sake!

10: Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?" Let the avenging of the outpoured blood of thy servants be known among the nations before our eyes!

v10: Why should the heathen nations say, "Where is their God?" Let him be known among them because of the out poured blood of your servants be known among the nations before our eyes!

11: Let the groans of the prisoners come before thee; according to thy great power preserve those doomed to die!

12: Return sevenfold into the bosom of our neighbors the taunts with which they have taunted thee, O Lord!

v12: Return sevenfold into the bosom of our neighbors the taunts or reproach with which they have taunted us or neutralize these other nations against us, O Lord!

13: Then we thy people, the flock of thy pasture, will give thanks to thee for ever; from generation to generation we will recount thy praise.

Psalm 80

0: To the choirmaster: according to Lilies. A Testimony of Asaph. A Psalm.

v0: To the chief musician: the testimony of the Lilies or those who will be back to Palestine after the 5th cycle of discipline. A Psalm of Asaph.

1: Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou who leadest Joseph like a flock! Thou who art enthroned upon the cherubim, shine forth v1: Be caused to Listen and answer based on Metabolized Bible Doctrine in our Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, O Shepherd of Israel Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ; you who led the northern kingdom of believers spiritual or carnal or the leading tribe of Joseph like a flock! You who art enthroned or dwell permanently upon mercy seat of the Ark of the Covenant between the cherubim, cause to shine forth in clarity doctrine which has not been seen in order that all will finally see you

2: before E'phraim and Benjamin and Manas'seh! Stir up thy might, and come to save us!

v2: Before E'phraim or the whole northern kingdom the economic strength of our land and Benjamin the military strength of our land, and Manas'seh the whole southern kingdom the doctrinal and grace oriented strength of our land on the western side of the Bivoac near the Mercy Seat! Stir up your strength, and come to deliver us!

3: Restore us, O God; let thy face shine, that we may be saved!

v3: Cause us to be Restored by the 2nd advent of Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, O God; cause your face to shine OR (idiom) cause us to be blessed with economic prosperity in the nation, that we might receive physical deliverance without earning or deserving it, from the 5th cycle by the 2nd advent!

4: O LORD God of hosts, how long wilt thou be angry with thy people's prayers?

v4: O LORD God of hosts, how long will you be angry against the prayers of your people?

5: Thou hast fed them with the bread of tears, and given them tears to drink in full measure.

v5: You have fed them with the bread of tears or sorrow, depression, oppression, suffering, disaster, and has caused them to drink in weeping or in sorrow, depression, oppression, suffering, disaster.

6: Thou dost make us the scorn of our neighbors; and our enemies laugh among themselves.

v6: you, God, make us the scorn or strive to our neighbors who are against us constantly; and our enemies laugh among themselves at us.

7: Restore us, O God of hosts; let thy face shine, that we may be saved!

v7: You God, cause us to be Restored again, O God of hosts; cause your face shine in blessing, that we might be delivered by YOU God!

8: Thou didst bring a vine out of Egypt; thou didst drive out the nations and plant it.

v8: You, God, did bring a vine or the children of Israel out of Egypt in exodus despite their failure; you didst drive out the nations by killing them and plant it or establish the Jews permanently in the land.

9: Thou didst clear the ground for it; it took deep root and filled the land.

v9: you didst clear the ground for the vine or the children of Israel; the Jews or the vine took deep root and filled the land.

10: The mountains were covered with its shade, the mighty cedars with its branches;

v10: The mountains were covered with its shade or the people in the land had prosperity, the mighty cedars with its branches had stability and prosperity based on orientation to the Plan of God and Grace of God based on Bible Doctrine;

11: it sent out its branches to the sea, and its shoots to the River.

v11: The vine or the Jews sent out its branches or occupied the land to the sea, and its shoots to the Jordan River.

12: Why then hast thou broken down its walls, so that all who pass along the way pluck its fruit?

v12: Why then hast you broken down its walls, so that all the armies who pass along the way or through pluck her fruit and destroy her?

13: The boar from the forest ravages it, and all that move in the field feed on it.

v13: The boar from the forest or Assyria ravages the vine or the Jews in the land, and the wild beast of the field or the Chaldeans feed on or devour or lay waste or destroy them.

14: Turn again, O God of hosts! Look down from heaven, and see; have regard for this vine, v14: Return again (command), O God of hosts at the 2nd advent of Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ after 2 occurrences of the 5th cycle of discipline! Look down from heaven, and see; have regard for this vine the people of Israel, 15: the stock which thy right hand planted.

v15: The vineyard or nation Israel which your right hand planted.

16: They have burned it with fire, they have cut it down; may they perish at the rebuke of thy countenance!

v16: They have burned it or destroyed the city of Jerusalem and the land with fire, they have cut it down with combat and war; they perish at the rebuke of your countenance as they suffer under the 5th cycle of discipline.

17: But let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, the son of man whom thou hast made strong for thyself!

v17: But let your hand God be upon the man of your right hand, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ or bring into operation the conclusion of the last 5th cycle of discipline, the son of man whom you have glorified under operation grace for yourself!

18: Then we will never turn back from thee; give us life, and we will call on thy name!

v18: Then we the regenerate Jews of the tribulation will never turn back from Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ at the 2nd advent; give us life or cause us to be delivered or survive, and we the Jews at the 2nd advent will call on your name! Zech 14

19: Restore us, O LORD God of hosts! let thy face shine, that we may be saved!

v19: Restore us, O LORD God of hosts! let your face shine or cause to shine forth in clarity doctrine which has not been seen in order that all will finally see you, that we may be delivered!

Psalm 81

0: To the choirmaster: according to The Gittith. A Psalm of Asaph.

1: Sing aloud to God our strength; shout for joy to the God of Jacob!

2: Raise a song, sound the timbrel, the sweet lyre with the harp.

3: Blow the trumpet at the new moon, at the full moon, on our feast day.

4: For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.

5: He made it a decree in Joseph, when he went out over the land of Egypt. I hear a voice I had not known:

6: "I relieved your shoulder of the burden; your hands were freed from the basket.

7: In distress you called, and I delivered you; I answered you in the secret place of thunder; I tested you at the waters of Mer'ibah.

[Selah]

Ps 81:7

v7: You called in trouble, I answered you in the hiding place of thunder, I proved you at the waters of Mer'ibah. [Selah]

8: Hear, O my people, while I admonish you! O Israel, if you would but listen to me!

9: There shall be no strange god among you; you shall not bow down to a foreign god.

10: I am the LORD your God, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.

11: "But my people did not listen to my voice; Israel would have none of me.

12: So I gave them over to their stubborn hearts, to follow their own counsels.

13: O that my people would listen to me, that Israel would walk in my ways!

14: I would soon subdue their enemies, and turn my hand against their foes.

15: Those who hate the LORD would cringe toward him, and their fate would last for ever.

16: I would feed you with the finest of the wheat, and with honey from the rock I would satisfy you."

Psalm 82

1: God has taken his place in the divine council; in the midst of the gods he holds judgment:

2: "How long will you judge unjustly and show partiality to the wicked? [Selah]

3: Give justice to the weak and the fatherless; maintain the right of the afflicted and the destitute.

4: Rescue the weak and the needy; deliver them from the hand of the wicked."

5: They have neither knowledge nor understanding, they walk about in darkness; all the foundations of the earth are shaken.

6: I say, "You are gods, sons of the Most High, all of you;

7: nevertheless, you shall die like men, and fall like any prince."

8: Arise, O God, judge the earth; for to thee belong all the nations!

Psalm 83

0: A Song. A Psalm of Asaph.

1: O God, do not keep silence; do not hold thy peace or be still, O God!

2: For lo, thy enemies are in tumult; those who hate thee have raised their heads.

3: They lay crafty plans against thy people; they consult together against thy protected ones.

4: They say, "Come, let us wipe them out as a nation; let the name of Israel be remembered no more!"

5: Yea, they conspire with one accord; against thee they make a covenant --

6: the tents of Edom and the Ish'maelites, Moab and the Hagrites,

7: Gebal and Ammon and Am'alek, Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre;

8: Assyria also has joined them; they are the strong arm of the children of Lot. [Selah]
9: Do to them as thou didst to Mid'ian, as to Sis'era and Jabin at the river Kishon, 10: who were destroyed at En-dor, who became dung for the ground.
11: Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb, all their princes like Zebah and Zalmun'na, 12: who said, "Let us take possession for ourselves of the pastures of God."
13: O my God, make them like whirling dust, like chaff before the wind.
14: As fire consumes the forest, as the flame sets the mountains ablaze, 15: so do thou pursue them with thy tempest and terrify them with thy hurricane!
16: Fill their faces with shame, that they may seek thy name, O LORD.
17: Let them be put to shame and dismayed for ever; let them perish in disgrace.
18: Let them know that thou alone, whose name is the LORD, art the Most High over all the earth.

Psalm 84

Psalm 85

1: LORD, thou wast favorable to thy land; thou didst restore the fortunes of Jacob.

2: Thou didst forgive the iniquity of thy people; thou didst pardon all their sin. [Selah]

3: Thou didst withdraw all thy wrath; thou didst turn from thy hot anger.

4: Restore us again, O God of our salvation, and put away thy indignation toward us!

5: Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? Wilt thou prolong thy anger to all generations?

6: Wilt thou not revive us again, that thy people may rejoice in thee?

7: Show us thy steadfast love, O LORD, and grant us thy salvation.

8: Let me hear what God the LORD will speak, for he will speak peace to his people, to his saints, to those who turn to him in their hearts.

v8: With Positive Volition I will concentrate on what the God Jehovah will communicate, for He will communicate prosperity to his people, Israel the client nation, to his, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ's, Mature Gracious believers in the Pivot, but let them not return to a status of foolish weakness of mind or reversionism.

9: Surely his salvation is at hand for those who fear him, that glory may dwell in our land.

v9: Emphatically, nothing but His, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ's, deliverance is near for those who are occupied with him, that glory may dwell permanently as an advantage in our client nation.

10: Steadfast love and faithfulness will meet; righteousness and peace will kiss each other.

v10: Steadfast love, GRACE or Mercy as the principle of God' plan and Doctrine as the enucleation of the principle of God's Plan, have met one another together in man's viewpoint; Justice as the Righteousness of God imputed at Salvation Adjustment to the Justice of God and Peace or reconciliation have joined or fused mouth to mouth or kissed each other and belong together from God's viewpoint

11: Faithfulness will spring up from the ground, and righteousness will look down from the sky.

v11: Absolute truth of Doctrine will sprout or shine forth from the land as missionaries, and the Absolute Righteousness of God will look down from or be offered from heaven.

12: Yea, the LORD will give what is good, and our land will yield its increase.

v12: The LORD also himself will give the good as the Plan of God and blessing for the nation, and our land shall give her increase, wealth in terms of agricultural economy.

13: Righteousness will go before him, and make his footsteps a way.

v13: Righteousness shall go before his, God's, face as motivation, that he, believers with Positive Volition, may put or place his steps as persistent and consistent concentration in learning Bible Doctrine, toward the way to Spiritual Maturity.

Psalm 86

0: A Prayer of David.

1: Incline thy ear, O LORD, and answer me, for I am poor and needy.

2: Preserve my life, for I am godly; save thy servant who trusts in thee. Thou art my God;

3: be gracious to me, O Lord, for to thee do I cry all the day.

4: Gladden the soul of thy servant, for to thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

5: For thou, O Lord, art good and forgiving, abounding in steadfast love to all who call on thee.

6: Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer; hearken to my cry of supplication.

7: In the day of my trouble I call on thee, for thou dost answer me.

8: There is none like thee among the gods, O Lord, nor are there any works like thine.

9: All the nations thou hast made shall come and bow down before thee, O Lord, and shall glorify thy name.

10: For thou art great and doest wondrous things, thou alone art God.

11: Teach me thy way, O LORD, that I may walk in thy truth; unite my heart to fear thy name.

12: I give thanks to thee, O Lord my God, with my whole heart, and I will glorify thy name for ever.

13: For great is thy steadfast love toward me; thou hast delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol.

14: O God, insolent men have risen up against me; a band of ruthless men seek my life, and they do not set thee before them.

15: But thou, O Lord, art a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness.

16: Turn to me and take pity on me; give thy strength to thy servant, and save the son of thy handmaid.

17: Show me a sign of thy favor, that those who hate me may see and be put to shame because thou, LORD, hast helped me and comforted me.

Psalm 87

0: A Psalm of the Sons of Korah. A Song.

1: On the holy mount stands the city he founded;

2: the LORD loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwelling places of Jacob.

3: Glorious things are spoken of you, O city of God. [Selah]

4: Among those who know me I mention Rahab and Babylon; behold, Philistia and Tyre, with Ethiopia -- "This one was born there," they say.

5: And of Zion it shall be said, "This one and that one were born in her"; for the Most High himself will establish her.

6: The LORD records as he registers the peoples, "This one was born there." [Selah]

7: Singers and dancers alike say, "All my springs are in you."

Psalm 88

0: A Song. A Psalm of the Sons of Korah. To the choirmaster: according to Mahalath Leannoth. A Maskil of Heman the Ezrahite.

1: O LORD, my God, I call for help by day; I cry out in the night before thee.

2: Let my prayer come before thee, incline thy ear to my cry!

3: For my soul is full of troubles, and my life draws near to Sheol.

4: I am reckoned among those who go down to the Pit; I am a man who has no strength,

5: like one forsaken among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, like those whom thou dost remember no more, for they are cut off from thy hand.

6: Thou hast put me in the depths of the Pit, in the regions dark and deep.

7: Thy wrath lies heavy upon me, and thou dost overwhelm me with all thy waves. [Selah]

8: Thou hast caused my companions to shun me; thou hast made me a thing of horror to them. I am shut in so that I cannot escape;

9: my eye grows dim through sorrow. Every day I call upon thee, O LORD; I spread out my hands to thee.

10: Dost thou work wonders for the dead? Do the shades rise up to praise thee? [Selah]

11: Is thy steadfast love declared in the grave, or thy faithfulness in Abaddon?

12: Are thy wonders known in the darkness, or thy saving help in the land of forgetfulness?

13: But I, O LORD, cry to thee; in the morning my prayer comes before thee.

14: O LORD, why dost thou cast me off? Why dost thou hide thy face from me?

15: Afflicted and close to death from my youth up, I suffer thy terrors; I am helpless.

16: Thy wrath has swept over me; thy dread assaults destroy me.

17: They surround me like a flood all day long; they close in upon me together.

18: Thou hast caused lover and friend to shun me; my companions are in darkness.

Psalm 89

0: A Maskil of Ethan the Ezrahite.

v0: A song or poem to teach one how to prosper through the intake of Bible Doctrine by Ethan the Ezrahite.

1: I will sing of thy steadfast love, O LORD, for ever; with my mouth I will proclaim thy faithfulness to all generations.

v1: As long as I live I will sing of thy steadfast love or many acts of Grace of Jehovah for ever; to generation after generation I will cause to make known or to teach your faithfulness with my mouth.

2: For thy steadfast love was established for ever, thy faithfulness is firm as the heavens.

v2: Because I, Ethan, have taught Bible Doctrine in the past, forever your grace or steadfast love shall be built up, the heavens the real holy of holies, in them, you, God the Father, shall prepare your faithfulness.

3: Thou hast said, "I have made a covenant with my chosen one, I have sworn to David my servant:

v3: You, God the Father, have said, "I have made a contract in favor of my chosen one, I myself have made a solemn promise to David my servant:

4: "I will establish your descendants for ever, and build your throne for all generations." [Selah]

v4: I, God the Father, will cause to establish or authorize your dynasty in Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, forever, and build up your throne to generation after generation." [Selah, stop and consider the implication of the Plan of God continuing despite our failure or success]

5: Let the heavens praise thy wonders, O LORD, thy faithfulness in the assembly of the holy ones!

v5: The universe and the realm of angelic creatures are motivated to praise your extraordinary essence, Oh Jehovah, Furthermore your faithfulness in the convocation of the holy ones!

6: For who in the skies can be compared to the LORD? Who among the heavenly beings is like the LORD, v6: For who in the sky of the earth the realm of the Prince of the power of the air and the fallen angels, can compared to Jehovah? Who resembles Jehovah among the sons of Elohim the angels?

7: a God feared in the council of the holy ones, great and terrible above all that are round about him?

v7: God, is to be respected to the maximum in the convocation or assembly of the holy ones the elect angels, and be receiving worship over all the angels surrounding him

8: O LORD God of hosts, who is mighty as thou art, O LORD, with thy faithfulness round about thee?

v8: Oh Jehovah, Elohim of the armies who is like you, A mighty God greater than any power in the universe, Oh Jehovah, Your faithfulness surrounds you?

9: Thou dost rule the raging of the sea; when its waves rise, thou stillest them.

v9: You keep on ruling the swelling of the sea; when its waves rise up and become huge you calm them.

10: Thou didst crush Rahab like a carcass, thou didst scatter thy enemies with thy mighty arm.

v10: You, God the Father, have crushed Egypt like one who is wounded, you have dispersed your enemies with a strong arm.

11: The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine; the world and all that is in it, thou hast founded them.

v11: The heavens are yours, the earth also is yours since Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ controls Human History; the world and all it contains, you ordained and decreed them.

12: The north and the south, thou hast created them; Tabor and Hermon joyously praise thy name.

v12: The north and the south as future boundaries of the land, You have created them out of nothing; Mt Tabor the mountain on the western Jordan and Mt Hermon on the eastern Jordan as part of the future Palestinian covenant joyously praise thy name demonstrating the future of Israel.

13: Thou hast a mighty arm; strong is thy hand, high thy right hand.

v13: You have an arm of integrity or valor (the cross), your hand is powerful (Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ) and has the ability to deliver you in time because of his resurrection, High is your right hand in ascension and session.

14: Righteousness and justice are the foundation of thy throne; steadfast love and faithfulness go before thee.

v14: Divine Righteousness and Divine Justice are the foundation of your throne, David's dynasty, God's Throne, Grace or Unfailing Steadfast Motivational Love for Reciprocity and truth of Bible Doctrine shall precede your face. (This is the 2 column advance to Jeshurun)

15: Blessed are the people who know the festal shout, who walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance, v15: Happinesses to the people or nation who keep knowing from one generation to the next, the sound or blast of the trumpet in universal military training, Oh Jehovah, they shall march and advance while concentrating and thinking in discipline in the light or doctrine of your face or countenance, 16: who exult in thy name all the day, and extol thy righteousness.

v16: They shall express happiness in your person all day long from Occupation with the Person of Christ, and in your righteousness of the Laws of Divine Establishment they shall be exalted.

17: For thou art the glory of their strength; by thy favor our horn is exalted.

v17: For you, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, are the object of glorying of their power of Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul; because by your Grace You will cause us to be promoted.

18: For our shield belongs to the LORD, our king to the Holy One of Israel.

v18: For our shield, that of the super-grace believer, belongs to Jehovah and our king, Rehoboam, a believer, belongs to the holy one of Israel, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ.

19: Of old thou didst speak in a vision to thy faithful one, and say: "I have set the crown upon one who is mighty, I have exalted one chosen from the people.

v19: Then in a vision you communicated to your super-grace believers Nathan and David and said, "I have bestowed help on a hero, David, with Metabolized Bible Doctrine in his Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, I have caused to promote one whom I have chosen from the people.

20: I have found David, my servant; with my holy oil I have anointed him;

v20: I discovered David, My Servant (out keeping the sheep), with my holy oil and I have anointed him.

21: so that my hand shall ever abide with him, my arm also shall strengthen him.

v21: David, with whom my hand will be firm in discipline with him, my arm will also make him strong.

22: The enemy shall not outwit him, the wicked shall not humble him.

v22: The enemy, Satan, and his policy of evil, will not lead astray or deceive him, and the son of wickedness the attractive reversionist will not control him..

23: I will crush his foes before him and strike down those who hate him.

v23: And I shall route and crush and shatter his enemies before his face and strike down those who hate him (terrorists)

24: My faithfulness and my steadfast love shall be with him, and in my name shall his horn be exalted.

v24: Consequently My faithfulness and my grace or unfailing love and superabundance of happiness shall be with him, and in my name his power or strength in authority shall be exalted 25: I will set his hand on the sea and his right hand on the rivers.

v25: I shall also establish his hand in the sea with the kingdom of the Phoenicians under Hiram King of Tyre; and his right hand in the rivers defeating Moab, Amon Egypt Damascus etc. (Jordan & Euphrates and Nile)

26: He shall cry to me, 'Thou art my Father, my God, and the Rock of my salvation.'

v26: And he will call to me, "You are my father, my God, and Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, the rock of my deliverance or salvation".

27: And I will make him the first-born, the highest of the kings of the earth.

v27: I, God the Father, will also give to David, my first born, the highest of the kings of the earth (Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ)

28: My steadfast love I will keep for him for ever, and my covenant will stand firm for him.

v28: In My unfailing love forever I, God the Father, will guard for him my grace therefore my covenant will be permanent for HIM, David.

29: I will establish his line for ever and his throne as the days of the heavens.

v29: Therefore I have appointed or establish his descendant, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, forever and his throne like the days of heaven.

30: If his children forsake my law and do not walk according to my ordinances, v30: (Prodasis) If his, David's, descendants forsake my law, the covenant or code of Moses, the doctrine needed for rulership, and do not walk in my judgments, Codes III of the Mosaic Law, the Laws of Divine Establishment, (Jews in carnality)

31: if they violate my statutes and do not keep my commandments, v31: If they violate or profane my statutes or ordinances in codex II the spiritual code, and do not keep my commandments in the decalogue the freedom code.

32: then I will punish their transgression with the rod and their iniquity with scourges;

v32: (Apodasis) Then I will punish their transgressions with the rod of Military Invasion (here Shishak) and their iniquity with disasters of the 5th cycle of discipline.

33: but I will not remove from him my steadfast love, or be false to my faithfulness.

v33: But with regard to my Grace and unfailing love I will not make null or void or abolish it from Him, David, And I will not violate my faithfulness.

34: I will not violate my covenant, or alter the word that went forth from my lips.

v34: My covenant I will not profane or violate, nor will I alter what proceeds from my lips.

35: Once for all I have sworn by my holiness; I will not lie to David.

v35: One thing I, myself, have sworn by my holiness or Righteousness of God and Justice of God, That I will not lie to David.

36: His line shall endure for ever, his throne as long as the sun before me.

v36: His descendant in Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, shall endure forever, and his throne as long as the sun before me.

37: Like the moon it shall be established for ever; it shall stand firm while the skies endure." [Selah] v37: He, himself, shall be established forever, like the moon and the witnesses in the sky is faithful. Selah stop and allow God to continue to work

38: But now thou hast cast off and rejected, thou art full of wrath against thy anointed.

v38 Yet You, Rehoboam, have rejected, spurned, and become enraged at Your anointed.

39: Thou hast renounced the covenant with thy servant; thou hast defiled his crown in the dust.

v39 You have repudiated the covenant with Your servant. You have dragged his dignity in the dust.

40: Thou hast breached all his walls; thou hast laid his strongholds in ruins.

v40 You have breached all his defenses shattered his strongholds.

41: All that pass by despoil him; he has become the scorn of his neighbors.

v41 All who pass by plunder him he has become the butt/reproach of his neighbors.

42: Thou hast exalted the right hand of his foes; thou hast made all his enemies rejoice.

v42 You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries and made all his enemies rejoice.

43: Yea, thou hast turned back the edge of his sword, and thou hast not made him stand in battle.

v43 You have turned back the blade of his sword and have not sustained him in battle.

44: Thou hast removed the scepter from his hand, and cast his throne to the ground.

v44 You have brought his splendor/glory to cease and have hurled his throne to the ground.

45: Thou hast cut short the days of his youth; thou hast covered him with shame. [Selah]

v45 You have cut short the days of his youth You have covered him with shame. Selah, (you rest while the Grace of God continues on)

46: How long, O LORD? Wilt thou hide thyself for ever? How long will thy wrath burn like fire?

{Verses 46-52: Repentance of Rehoboam}

v46 How long, Jehovah will You hide Yourself forever {how long} will Your wrath burn like fire?

47: Remember, O Lord, what the measure of life is, for what vanity thou hast created all the sons of men!

v47 Oh remember how short my life or time is why should You have created out of nothing every man in vain?

48: What man can live and never see death? Who can deliver his soul from the power of Sheol? [Selah] v48 What man can live and shall not see death or can save himself or his soul from the clutches of Sheol, Hades, the grave? Selah (you rest while the Grace of God continues on).

49: Lord, where is thy steadfast love of old, which by thy faithfulness thou didst swear to David?

v49 Lord, Adonai, where is your steadfast love of old which You swore to David in Your Doctrine or Truth?

50: Remember, O Lord, how thy servant is scorned; how I bear in my bosom the insults of the peoples, v50 Remember, Lord, Adonai, the abuse flung at or reproach of Your servants that I have born in my bosom from many people.

51: with which thy enemies taunt, O LORD, with which they mock the footsteps of thy anointed.

v51 How Your enemies have, Oh Jehovah, flung abuse abuse at Your anointed at every step.

52: Blessed be the LORD for ever! Amen and Amen.

v52 Blessed be Jehovah forever amen, amen or I strongly believe, I strongly believe

Psalm 90

0: A Prayer of Moses, the man of God.

1: LORD, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations.

v1: LORD, thou hast been our refuge and security in all generations.

2: Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting thou art God.

3: Thou turnest man back to the dust, and sayest, "Turn back, O children of men!"

4: For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, or as a watch in the night.

5: Thou dost sweep men away; they are like a dream, like grass which is renewed in the morning;

6: in the morning it flourishes and is renewed; in the evening it fades and withers.

7: For we are consumed by thy anger; by thy wrath we are overwhelmed.

8: Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9: For all our days pass away under thy wrath, our years come to an end like a sigh.

v9: All our days pass under your wrath, we finish our years with a moan.

10: The years of our life are threescore and ten, or even by reason of strength fourscore; yet their span is but toil and trouble; they are soon gone, and we fly away.

11: Who considers the power of thy anger, and thy wrath according to the fear of thee?

12: So teach us to number our days that we may get a heart of wisdom.

v12: Teach us to number our days correctly that we may gain a Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul full of doctrine.

13: Return, O LORD! How long? Have pity on thy servants!

14: Satisfy us in the morning with thy steadfast love, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

v14: Satisfy us in the morning with thy steadfast or unfailing love, that we may sing for joy and be happy all our days.

15: Make us glad as many days as thou hast afflicted us, and as many years as we have seen evil.

16: Let thy work be manifest to thy servants, and thy glorious power to their children.

17: Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish thou the work of our hands upon us, yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

Psalm 91

1: He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High, who abides in the shadow of the Almighty, v1: He, the believer in Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, who always dwells in the refuge and security of the Most High without regard to his status as carnal or spiritual, shall remain for a eternity under the unknown to new believers shadowy Plan of the Almighty,

2: will say to the LORD, "My refuge and my fortress; my God, in whom I trust."

v2: will say to the LORD, "My temporary shelter from the worst storms in life and my castle is the Lord Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ; my God, in him will I slam my problems onto using the Faith Rest Drill 4 Stages"

3: For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence;

v3: Surely he will deliver or rescue you from a desperate situation and from the desperate snare of the fowler as in the red sea situation for the Jews and from the deadly or destructive plagues or calamities specifically the 10 plagues before the exodus or generally national disasters;

4: he will cover you with his pinions, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness is a shield and buckler.

v4: He causes to weave a hedge around you with his promises, and under his wings with Positive Volition to his doctrines you use or apply in life you are safe or trust, his doctrinal truth is a shield of the totality of his doctrines and plan and a buckler of the doctrines and promises we apply daily.

5: You will not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day,

v5: You will not fear the terror of the night combat, nor the arrow or bullet that flies by day,

6: nor the pestilence that stalks in darkness, nor the destruction that wastes at noonday.

v6: nor the pestilence or disease that occurs in a pressure period of national disaster or misfortune of natural disaster, nor the insidious terminal disease that wastes us in middle life.

7: A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand; but it will not come near you.

v7: A thousand may fall in death at your side, ten thousand at your right hand; but death will not come near you.

8: You will only look with your eyes and see the recompense of the wicked.

v8: ONLY with your eyes with your eyes you will regard with respect and see or observe the last judgment recompense or reward or retribution of the Human Good of the unbeliever.

9: Because you have made the LORD your refuge, the Most High your habitation, v9: Because you oh Jehovah my suddenly discovered refuge or shelter of Doctrine in times of maximum disaster and catastrophe, I have designated or appointed or set up in the human spirit or decided the reality of doctrine at the time of learning that the Most High runs my life or is my permanent dwelling place,

10: no evil shall befall you, no scourge come near your tent.

v10: The range of pressures or misfortunes or adversities do not touch or harm or get to me though they are trying to destroy me, neither will any totally destructive disaster even though they approach me ever destroy my inner being.

11: For he will give his angels charge of you to guard you in all your ways.

v11: For he, God the Father will give his elect angels specific tactical commands to protect and guard you as a military installation, in all your ways whether spiritual or carnal, growing or reverting in grace and knowledge, failing or succeeding.

12: On their hands they will bear you up, lest you dash your foot against a stone.

v12: The elect guardian angels shall bear you up in hands, In order that you do not dash your foot against a stone or succumb to or be destroyed by hidden dangers in your path of life whether in or out of fellowship (not suicide).

13: You will tread on the lion and the adder, the young lion and the serpent you will trample under foot.

v13: You will stumble with heavy feet and bump into or step on the angry roaring lion ie Satan, and the adder or the false doctrine of demons, the young ambitious lion trying to show off and kill as the false doctrine of demon influence over believers souls and the constrictor serpent of false doctrine crushing truth out of us and we will trample under foot.

14: Because he cleaves to me in love, I will deliver him; I will protect him, because he knows my name.

v14: Because he, the believer burns with love for me Bible Doctrine and I have satisfied him the believer, Therefore, I, Bible Doctrine as a result will deliver him the believer; I God the Father will set him on high exalting him in eternity with the resurrection body, because he has believed in the person of Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ .

15: When he calls to me, I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble, I will rescue him and honor him.

v15: When he, the Believer calls to me God the Father, in prayer, I, God the Father will answer him; I, God the Father will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honor him.

16: With long life I will satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

v16: With a gratifying life of grace I will cause him to be satiated with a life of Grace, and I will show him my deliverance in dying grace and Eternal Life in a resurrection body

Psalm 92

0: A Psalm. A Song for the Sabbath.

1: It is good to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praises to thy name, O Most High;

2: to declare thy steadfast love in the morning, and thy faithfulness by night,

3: to the music of the lute and the harp, to the melody of the lyre.

4: For thou, O LORD, hast made me glad by thy work; at the works of thy hands I sing for joy.

5: How great are thy works, O LORD! Thy thoughts are very deep!

6: The dull man cannot know, the stupid cannot understand this:

7: that, though the wicked sprout like grass and all evildoers flourish, they are doomed to destruction for ever,

8: but thou, O LORD, art on high for ever.

9: For, lo, thy enemies, O LORD, for, lo, thy enemies shall perish; all evildoers shall be scattered.

10: But thou hast exalted my horn like that of the wild ox; thou hast poured over me fresh oil.

11: My eyes have seen the downfall of my enemies, my ears have heard the doom of my evil assailants.

12: The righteous flourish like the palm tree, and grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

13: They are planted in the house of the LORD, they flourish in the courts of our God.

14: They still bring forth fruit in old age, they are ever full of sap and green, 15: to show that the LORD is upright; he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Psalm 93

1: The LORD reigns; he is robed in majesty; the LORD is robed, he is girded with strength. Yea, the world is established; it shall never be moved;

2: thy throne is established from of old; thou art from everlasting.

3: The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice, the floods lift up their roaring.

4: Mightier than the thunders of many waters, mightier than the waves of the sea, the LORD on high is mighty!

5: Thy decrees are very sure; holiness befits thy house, O LORD, for evermore.

Psalm 94

1: O LORD, thou God of vengeance, thou God of vengeance, shine forth!

v1: O LORD, God of vengeance, the God of vengeance has shown forth!

2: Rise up, O judge of the earth; render to the proud their deserts!

v2: Rise up, Oh judge of the earth; render recompense to the arrogant!

3: O LORD, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked exult?

4: They pour out their arrogant words, they boast, all the evildoers.

5: They crush thy people, O LORD, and afflict thy heritage.

6: They slay the widow and the sojourner, and murder the fatherless;

7: and they say, "The LORD does not see; the God of Jacob does not perceive."

8: Understand, O dullest of the people! Fools, when will you be wise?

9: He who planted the ear, does he not hear? He who formed the eye, does he not see?

10: He who chastens the nations, does he not chastise? He who teaches men knowledge, 11: the LORD, knows the thoughts of man, that they are but a breath.

12: Blessed is the man whom thou dost chasten, O LORD, and whom thou dost teach out of thy law 13: to give him respite from days of trouble, until a pit is dug for the wicked.

14: For the LORD will not forsake his people; he will not abandon his heritage;

15: for justice will return to the righteous, and all the upright in heart will follow it.

16: Who rises up for me against the wicked? Who stands up for me against evildoers?

17: If the LORD had not been my help, my soul would soon have dwelt in the land of silence.

18: When I thought, "My foot slips," thy steadfast love, O LORD, held me up.

19: When the cares of my heart are many, thy consolations cheer my soul.

20: Can wicked rulers be allied with thee, who frame mischief by statute?

21: They band together against the life of the righteous, and condemn the innocent to death.

22: But the LORD has become my stronghold, and my God the rock of my refuge.

23: He will bring back on them their iniquity and wipe them out for their wickedness; the LORD our God will wipe them out.

Psalm 95

1: O come, let us sing to the LORD; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!

Ps 95:1

v1: Come, let us assemble and celebrate with boisterously loud raucous shouting and singing to the LORD; let us drink, recognizing Logistical Grace ,with motivation and be satisfied with the rock of our deliverance of the Meribah Zin (Ex 17) representing the cross of our salvation!

2: Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise!

v2: Let us come before his face and anticipate with motivation as we enter into his presence with thanksgiving and capacity for life with songs accompanied by musical instruments; let us sing vigorously being motivated by Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul.

3: For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

v3: For great in magnitude and extent is Jehovah, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, and a great human King above all heathen gods of idolatry and extra natural powers of demons.

4: In his hand are the depths of the earth; the heights of the mountains are his also.

v4: Because of his hand are the deep places of the earth; the peaks of the tops of the mountains are his also.

5: The sea is his, for he made it; for his hands formed the dry land.

v5: Because the sea belongs to him, for he manufactured it; furthermore his hands carved out dry land.

6: O come, let us worship and bow down, let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker!

v6: Come, let all of us believers worship from the Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul and bow down, let us bow down physically bending the knees or mentally salute in worship anticipating Logistical Grace blessing in the presence of the LORD, who manufactured us from the chemicals of the soil!

7: For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. O that today you would hearken to his voice!

Ps 95:7

v7: For he, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, is our, and all believers, Elohim our God providing our Logistical Grace support, and therefore we, believers, are the helpless people of his pasture under Logistical Grace, and the helpless sheep of his hand THE day which we have just been given by God under Logistical Grace if to his voice of Bible Doctrine the thinking of Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, (1Cor 2:16) you would listen and concentrate under the Grace Apparatus for Perception and accept his authority !

8: Harden not your hearts, as at Mer'ibah, as on the day at Massah in the wilderness, v8: Do NOT Harden your Right Lobes of the Stream of Consciousness of your Souls, as at Mer'ibah, like that day of Massah the revolution in the desert, 9: when your fathers tested me, and put me to the proof, though they had seen my work.

v9: When your Jewish ancestors of 1000 BC who came out of Egypt in the exodus, tempted me, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ to execute them under the Sin Unto Death, and they tested me playing games with me, having already seen my work of Logistical Grace.

10: For forty years I loathed that generation and said, "They are a people who err in heart, and they do not regard my ways."

v10: For forty years I loathed with the strongest hatred and disgust that exodus generation and said, "They are a people given individually, NeShemah, Life, who wander off track and deviate off of the Plan of God he provides, rejecting Bible Doctrine, in their Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of their Souls, because they have not known my ways."

11: Therefore I swore in my anger that they should not enter my rest.

v11: Therefore I made a solemn promise in my anger damn it, truly my name is not God if, they should enter into my rest or tranquility or happiness in the land after conquest and relying on the Faith Rest Drill (4 categories) function and capacity for it.

Psalm 96

1: O sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all the earth!

2: Sing to the LORD, bless his name; tell of his salvation from day to day.

3: Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples!

4: For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; he is to be feared above all gods.

5: For all the gods of the peoples are idols; but the LORD made the heavens.

6: Honor and majesty are before him; strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

7: Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength!

8: Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name; bring an offering, and come into his courts!

9: Worship the LORD in holy array; tremble before him, all the earth!

10: Say among the nations, "The LORD reigns! Yea, the world is established, it shall never be moved; he will judge the peoples with equity."

11: Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; let the sea roar, and all that fills it;

12: let the field exult, and everything in it! Then shall all the trees of the wood sing for joy

13: before the LORD, for he comes, for he comes to judge the earth. He will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with his truth.

0: A Psalm of David.

1: I will sing of loyalty and of justice; to thee, O LORD, I will sing.

v1: I will sing from happiness and blessing of Grace or steadfast love and super-grace blessing and of judgment discipline to the men of Kelah or to Saul; to you, O Jehovah, I will make the music and Praise.

2: I will give heed to the way that is blameless. Oh when wilt thou come to me? I will walk with integrity of heart within my house;

v2: I will behave myself wisely or become wise through application of Bible Doctrine in a perfect mature way or pattern or function of a completed, satisfactory, meaningful life. Oh when you have come to me with super-grace prosperity? I will have a way of life of integrity and prosperity in my castle home;

3: I will not set before my eyes anything that is base. I hate the work of those who fall away; it shall not cleave to me.

v3: I will not set or place the doctrines of Reversionism before my eyes or I will not adhere to the doctrines of reversionism and policies of evil. I despise the production of the ones who turn aside as reversionists; they and their production shall not adhere to me.

4: Perverseness of heart shall be far from me; I will know nothing of evil.

v4: A False or deceitful heart shall turn away from me; I will acknowledge nothing of the evil treacherous reversionist.

5: Him who slanders his neighbor secretly I will destroy. The man of haughty looks and arrogant heart I will not endure.

v5: He who flatters face to face and in secret slanders his lover or true friend I will cause to exterminate them violently. The man who has proud eyes of overt arrogance and the ambitious heart I will not endure.

6: I will look with favor on the faithful in the land, that they may dwell with me; he who walks in the way that is blameless shall minister to me.

v6: I will look with favor on those super-grace believers receiving doctrine in the land, the ones having social life with me; he who has a way of life that is fulfilling from super-grace shall minister to me.

7: No man who practices deceit shall dwell in my house; no man who utters lies shall continue in my presence.

v7: Any man who manufactures deceit from reversionism, doctrine of demons, Human Viewpoint, Emotional Revolt of the Soul, etc; shall not live in blessing and prosperity in my castle of zion; He who habitually lives by lies the deceiver shall not be established in my organization.

8: Morning by morning I will destroy all the wicked in the land, cutting off all the evildoers from the city of the LORD.

v8: Morning by morning I will search and root out and eliminate all the evil reversionists in the government, in order that I may cut off all the doers of emptiness and vanity of reversionism from the city of the LORD, Jerusalem.

Psalm 102

0: A prayer of one afflicted, when he is faint and pours out his complaint before the LORD.

1: Hear my prayer, O LORD; let my cry come to thee!

2: Do not hide thy face from me in the day of my distress! Incline thy ear to me; answer me speedily in the day when I call!

3: For my days pass away like smoke, and my bones burn like a furnace.

v3: For my days vanish like smoke, and my bones burn like glowing embers.

4: My heart is smitten like grass, and withered; I forget to eat my bread.

5: Because of my loud groaning my bones cleave to my flesh.

6: I am like a vulture of the wilderness, like an owl of the waste places;

7: I lie awake, I am like a lonely bird on the housetop.

8: All the day my enemies taunt me, those who deride me use my name for a curse.

9: For I eat ashes like bread, and mingle tears with my drink,

10: because of thy indignation and anger; for thou hast taken me up and thrown me away.

11: My days are like an evening shadow; I wither away like grass.

12: But thou, O LORD, art enthroned for ever; thy name endures to all generations.

13: Thou wilt arise and have pity on Zion; it is the time to favor her; the appointed time has come.

14: For thy servants hold her stones dear, and have pity on her dust.

15: The nations will fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

16: For the LORD will build up Zion, he will appear in his glory;

17: he will regard the prayer of the destitute, and will not despise their supplication.

v17: he has regarded the prayer of the destitute, and has not despised their prayer.

18: Let this be recorded for a generation to come, so that a people yet unborn may praise the LORD:

19: that he looked down from his holy height, from heaven the LORD looked at the earth,

20: to hear the groans of the prisoners, to set free those who were doomed to die;

21: that men may declare in Zion the name of the LORD, and in Jerusalem his praise, 22: when peoples gather together, and kingdoms, to worship the LORD.

23: He has broken my strength in mid-course; he has shortened my days.

v23: In the course of my life He has broken my strength he has cut short my days.

24: "O my God," I say, "take me not hence in the midst of my days, thou whose years endure throughout all generations!"

25: Of old thou didst lay the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26: They will perish, but thou dost endure; they will all wear out like a garment. Thou changest them like raiment, and they pass away;

27: but thou art the same, and thy years have no end.

28: The children of thy servants shall dwell secure; their posterity shall be established before thee.

Psalm 103

0: A Psalm of David.

1: Bless the LORD, O my soul; and all that is within me, bless his holy name!

3: who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases, v3: the Lord Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ who pardons all my wrongs, who heals all my soul kinks with Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul,

4: who redeems your life from the Pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy, v4: The Lord Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ redeems or delivers or purchases from the slave market of sin or destruction my life from the Pit or Lake of Fire, The Lord Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ crowns me with steadfast love and tender mercies or GRACE in action,

5: who satisfies you with good as long as you live so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

v5: The Lord Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ causes me to be permanently satisfied, never leading to bitterness or frustration, with Divine Good through Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, as long as you live so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's plumage providing new clothing for me.

6: The LORD works vindication and justice for all who are oppressed.

v6: The LORD keeps on manufacturing out of super-grace and a cursing situation of judging, gossiping, maligning me, righteousness or vindication of super-grace capacity and justices for all believers who are being oppressed.

7: He made known his ways to Moses, his acts to the people of Israel.

v7: He made known his doctrines to Moses who was alone for 40 years in the desert, his acts to the people of Israel.

8: The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

v8: The LORD is constantly filled with tender love and compassion and gracious benefits, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love or grace benefits

9: He will not always chide, nor will he keep his anger for ever.

v9: He will not always reproach or discipline for reversionism, nor will he retain his discipline for ever.

10: He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor requite us according to our iniquities.

v10: He has not dealt with us after our failure of Nob and Gath nor reward us in the sphere of our iniquities of reversionism.

11: For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him;

v11: For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is his steadfast love or Grace toward those super-grace believers who respect and are occupied with him;

12: as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us.

v12: As far as the east is from the west so far has he removed completely our reversionistic failures and transgressions from us.

13: As a father pities his children, so the LORD pities those who fear him.

v13: As a father tenderly loves with compassion and understanding his children, so the LORD God the Father has the same for his children but more so for those who in super-grace respect and are occupied with him.

14: For he knows our frame; he remembers that we are dust.

v14: For he from his omniscience knows our thoughts, imaginations and actions all together as a pattern for our life; he remembers and knows that we are helpless dust in ourselves.

15: As for man, his days are like grass; he flourishes like a flower of the field;

v15: Weak man, his days and human prosperity and success are like grass; he flourishes under human promotion and success like a flower of the field;

16: for the wind passes over it, and it is gone, and its place knows it no more.

v16: for the wind of history passes over it, and he is gone, and his place place no one knows it any more.

17: But the steadfast love of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon those who fear him, and his righteousness to children's children, v17: But the steadfast love or grace in action of the LORD is from eternity past to everlasting upon those super-grace believers who respect and are occupied with him, and his righteousness to his children and their children, 18: to those who keep his covenant and remember to do his commandments.

v18: To those who guard or keep his doctrine and the grace contract and to those who remember or call to mind his deposits of Bible Doctrine.

19: The LORD has established his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom rules over all.
Ps 103:19 (David's prophecy of the salute to JC in the feed trough at his birth)

v19: The Lord has established appointed or makes ready his throne in the heavens and his kingdom under Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ rules over all the universe (Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ and the line of David will be the last ruling dynasty in history and he controls history)

20: Bless the LORD, O you his angels, you mighty ones who do his word, hearkening to the voice of his word!

v20: Adore or Salute the Lord in all places you angelic order of battle, and those who keep on doing or obeying the voice of, his word 21: Bless the LORD, all his hosts, his ministers that do his will!

v21: Salute or adore the Lord, all of his armies, you who serve him doing his will 22: Bless the LORD, all his works, in all places of his dominion. Bless the LORD, O my soul!

v22: Adore the LORD, all his works, in all places of his dominion. Bless the LORD, O my soul and all that is within me!

Psalm 104

1: Bless the LORD, O my soul! O LORD my God, thou art very great! Thou art clothed with honor and majesty,
2: who coverest thyself with light as with a garment, who hast stretched out the heavens like a tent,
3: who hast laid the beams of thy chambers on the waters, who makest the clouds thy chariot, who ridest on the wings of the wind,
4: who makest the winds thy messengers, fire and flame thy ministers.
5: Thou didst set the earth on its foundations, so that it should never be shaken.
6: Thou didst cover it with the deep as with a garment; the waters stood above the mountains.
7: At thy rebuke they fled; at the sound of thy thunder they took to flight.
8: The mountains rose, the valleys sank down to the place which thou didst appoint for them.
9: Thou didst set a bound which they should not pass, so that they might not again cover the earth.
10: Thou makest springs gush forth in the valleys; they flow between the hills, 11: they give drink to every beast of the field; the wild asses quench their thirst.
12: By them the birds of the air have their habitation; they sing among the branches.
13: From thy lofty abode thou waterest the mountains; the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy work.
14: Thou dost cause the grass to grow for the cattle, and plants for man to cultivate, that he may bring forth food from the earth,
15: and wine to gladden the heart of man, oil to make his face shine, and bread to strengthen man's heart.
16: The trees of the LORD are watered abundantly, the cedars of Lebanon which he planted.
17: In them the birds build their nests; the stork has her home in the fir trees.
18: The high mountains are for the wild goats; the rocks are a refuge for the badgers.
19: Thou hast made the moon to mark the seasons; the sun knows its time for setting.
20: Thou makest darkness, and it is night, when all the beasts of the forest creep forth.
21: The young lions roar for their prey, seeking their food from God.
22: When the sun rises, they get them away and lie down in their dens.
23: Man goes forth to his work and to his labor until the evening.
24: O LORD, how manifold are thy works! In wisdom hast thou made them all; the earth is full of thy creatures.
25: Yonder is the sea, great and wide, which teems with things innumerable, living things both small and great.
26: There go the ships, and Leviathan which thou didst form to sport in it.
27: These all look to thee, to give them their food in due season.
28: When thou givest to them, they gather it up; when thou openest thy hand, they are filled with good things.
29: When thou hidest thy face, they are dismayed; when thou takest away their breath, they die and return to their dust.
30: When thou sendest forth thy Spirit, they are created; and thou renewest the face of the ground.
31: May the glory of the LORD endure for ever, may the LORD rejoice in his works, 32: who looks on the earth and it trembles, who touches the mountains and they smoke!
33: I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have being.
34: May my meditation be pleasing to him, for I rejoice in the LORD.
35: Let sinners be consumed from the earth, and let the wicked be no more! Bless the LORD, O my soul! Praise the LORD!

Psalm 105

1: O give thanks to the LORD, call on his name, make known his deeds among the peoples!
2: Sing to him, sing praises to him, tell of all his wonderful works!
3: Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice!
4: Seek the LORD and his strength, seek his presence continually!
5: Remember the wonderful works that he has done, his miracles, and the judgments he uttered,
6: O offspring of Abraham his servant, sons of Jacob, his chosen ones!
7: He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.
8: He is mindful of his covenant for ever, of the word that he commanded, for a thousand generations, 9: the covenant which he made with Abraham, his sworn promise to Isaac, v9: the covenant which he made with Abraham, and his oath to Isaac,
10: which he confirmed to Jacob as a statute, to Israel as an everlasting covenant, 11: saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan as your portion for an inheritance."
v11: saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan as your portion for an inheritance."

12: When they were few in number, of little account, and sojourners in it, v12: When they were only a few in number, very few, and strangers in it,

13: wandering from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people, v13: and they wandered about from nation (Haran) to nation (Egypt), from one kingdom to another,

14: he allowed no one to oppress them; he rebuked kings on their account, v14: he, God, permitted no man to oppress them; and he reproved kings for their sake,

15: saying, "Touch not my anointed ones, do my prophets no harm!"

v15: Here is the word which goes out from God, "Do not Touch not my anointed ones, do my prophets no harm!"

16: When he summoned a famine on the land, and broke every staff of bread, 17: he had sent a man ahead of them, Joseph, who was sold as a slave.

18: His feet were hurt with fetters, his neck was put in a collar of iron;

19: until what he had said came to pass the word of the LORD tested him.

20: The king sent and released him, the ruler of the peoples set him free;

21: he made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his possessions, 22: to instruct his princes at his pleasure, and to teach his elders wisdom.

23: Then Israel came to Egypt; Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.

24: And the LORD made his people very fruitful, and made them stronger than their foes.

25: He turned their hearts to hate his people, to deal craftily with his servants.

26: He sent Moses his servant, and Aaron whom he had chosen.

27: They wrought his signs among them, and miracles in the land of Ham.

28: He sent darkness, and made the land dark; they rebelled against his words.

29: He turned their waters into blood, and caused their fish to die.

30: Their land swarmed with frogs, even in the chambers of their kings.

31: He spoke, and there came swarms of flies, and gnats throughout their country.

32: He gave them hail for rain, and lightning that flashed through their land.

33: He smote their vines and fig trees, and shattered the trees of their country.

34: He spoke, and the locusts came, and young locusts without number;

35: which devoured all the vegetation in their land, and ate up the fruit of their ground.

36: He smote all the first-born in their land, the first issue of all their strength.

37: Then he led forth Israel with silver and gold, and there was none among his tribes who stumbled.

38: Egypt was glad when they departed, for dread of them had fallen upon it.

39: He spread a cloud for a covering, and fire to give light by night.

40: They asked, and he brought quails, and gave them bread from heaven in abundance.

41: He opened the rock, and water gushed forth; it flowed through the desert like a river.

Ps 105:4

v41: He opened the rock, and water gushed out; it ran in the dry places of the desert like a river.

42: For he remembered his holy promise, and Abraham his servant.

Ps 105:42-44

v42: For He, God, remembered his holy word assimilated by Abraham his servant.

43: So he led forth his people with joy, his chosen ones with singing.

v43: And he brought out his people with pleasure, and with exalting.

44: And he gave them the lands of the nations; and they took possession of the fruit of the peoples' toil, v44: And he gave them the lands of the many gentile peoples and nations; and they took possession of the fruit of the peoples' toil,

45: to the end that they should keep his statutes, and observe his laws. Praise the LORD!

Psalm 106

1: Praise the LORD! O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures for ever!

2: Who can utter the mighty doings of the LORD, or show forth all his praise?

3: Blessed are they who observe justice, who do righteousness at all times!

4: Remember me, O LORD, when thou showest favor to thy people; help me when thou deliverest them;

5: that I may see the prosperity of thy chosen ones, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thy heritage.

6: Both we and our fathers have sinned; we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7: Our fathers, when they were in Egypt, did not consider thy wonderful works; they did not remember the abundance of thy steadfast love, but rebelled against the Most High at the Red Sea.

8: Yet he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make known his mighty power.

9: He rebuked the Red Sea, and it became dry; and he led them through the deep as through a desert.

10: So he saved them from the hand of the foe, and delivered them from the power of the enemy.

11: And the waters covered their adversaries; not one of them was left.

12: Then they believed his words; they sang his praise.
13: But they soon forgot his works; they did not wait for his counsel.

Ps 106:13

v13: But they (Israel) soon forgot what He (God) had done, and they did not wait for his counsel

14: But they had a wanton craving in the wilderness, and put God to the test in the desert;

Ps 106:14

v14: In the desert God gave into the craving or lust of Israel and He (God) put them to the test.

15: he gave them what they asked, but sent a wasting disease among them.

Ps 106:15

v15: They lusted for meat so God gave them what they asked for in the form of luscious Quail and he sent a wasting disease among them.

16: When men in the camp were jealous of Moses and Aaron, the holy one of the LORD, 17: the earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abi'ram.

18: Fire also broke out in their company; the flame burned up the wicked.

19: They made a calf in Horeb and worshiped a molten image.

20: They exchanged the glory of God for the image of an ox that eats grass.

21: They forgot God, their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt, 22: wondrous works in the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red Sea.

23: Therefore he said he would destroy them -- had not Moses, his chosen one, stood in the breach before him, to turn away his wrath from destroying them.

24: Then they despised the pleasant land, having no faith in his promise.

25: They murmured in their tents, and did not obey the voice of the LORD.

26: Therefore he raised his hand and swore to them that he would make them fall in the wilderness, 27: and would disperse their descendants among the nations, scattering them over the lands.

28: Then they attached themselves to the Ba'al of Pe'or, and ate sacrifices offered to the dead;

29: they provoked the LORD to anger with their doings, and a plague broke out among them.

30: Then Phin'eas stood up and interposed, and the plague was stayed.

31: And that has been reckoned to him as righteousness from generation to generation for ever.

32: They angered him at the waters of Mer'ibah, and it went ill with Moses on their account; 33: for they made his spirit bitter, and he spoke words that were rash.

34: They did not destroy the peoples, as the LORD commanded them, 35: but they mingled with the nations and learned to do as they did.

36: They served their idols, which became a snare to them.

37: They sacrificed their sons and their daughters to the demons;

v37: They even sacrificed their sons and their daughters to the demons;

38: they poured out innocent blood, the blood of their sons and daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan; and the land was polluted with blood.

v38: they shed innocent blood, the blood of their sons and daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan; consequently the land was polluted with the blood of human sacrifice.

39: Thus they became unclean by their acts, and played the harlot in their doings.

v39: therefore they became unclean in their function of demon possession, and played the prostitute in the phallic cult by their deeds of human sacrifice.

40: Then the anger of the LORD was kindled against his people, and he abhorred his heritage;

41: he gave them into the hand of the nations, so that those who hated them ruled over them.

42: Their enemies oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their power.

43: Many times he delivered them, but they were rebellious in their purposes, and were brought low through their iniquity.

44: Nevertheless he regarded their distress, when he heard their cry.

45: He remembered for their sake his covenant, and relented according to the abundance of his steadfast love.

46: He caused them to be pitied by all those who held them captive.

47: Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the nations, that we may give thanks to thy holy name and glory in thy praise.

48: Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting! And let all the people say, "Amen!" Praise the LORD!

Psalm 107

1: O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures for ever!

2: Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he has redeemed from trouble

3: and gathered in from the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.

4: Some wandered in desert wastes, finding no way to a city to dwell in;

5: hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted within them.

6: Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress;
 7: he led them by a straight way, till they reached a city to dwell in.
8: Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wonderful works to the sons of men!
 9: For he satisfies him who is thirsty, and the hungry he fills with good things.
 10: Some sat in darkness and in gloom, prisoners in affliction and in irons, 11: for they had rebelled against the words of God, and spurned the counsel of the Most High.
 12: Their hearts were bowed down with hard labor; they fell down, with none to help.
 13: Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress;
 14: he brought them out of darkness and gloom, and broke their bonds asunder.
15: Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wonderful works to the sons of men!
 16: For he shatters the doors of bronze, and cuts in two the bars of iron.
 17: Some were sick through their sinful ways, and because of their iniquities suffered affliction;
 18: they loathed any kind of food, and they drew near to the gates of death.
 19: Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress;
 20: he sent forth his word, and healed them, and delivered them from destruction.
21: Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wonderful works to the sons of men!
 22: And let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving, and tell of his deeds in songs of joy!

Ps 107:22

v22: And let them also offer sacrifices of thanksgiving, and tell of his works with joyful singing!
 23: Some went down to the sea in ships, doing business on the great waters;
 24: they saw the deeds of the LORD, his wondrous works in the deep.
 25: For he commanded, and raised the stormy wind, which lifted up the waves of the sea.
 26: They mounted up to heaven, they went down to the depths; their courage melted away in their evil plight;
 27: they reeled and staggered like drunken men, and were at their wits' end.
 28: Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress;
 29: he made the storm be still, and the waves of the sea were hushed.
 30: Then they were glad because they had quiet, and he brought them to their desired haven.
31: Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wonderful works to the sons of men!
 32: Let them extol him in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.
 33: He turns rivers into a desert, springs of water into thirsty ground, 34: a fruitful land into a salty waste, because of the wickedness of its inhabitants.
 35: He turns a desert into pools of water, a parched land into springs of water.
 36: And there he lets the hungry dwell, and they establish a city to live in;
 37: they sow fields, and plant vineyards, and get a fruitful yield.
 38: By his blessing they multiply greatly; and he does not let their cattle decrease.
 39: When they are diminished and brought low through oppression, trouble, and sorrow, 40: he pours contempt upon princes and makes them wander in trackless wastes;
 41: but he raises up the needy out of affliction, and makes their families like flocks.
 42: The upright see it and are glad; and all wickedness stops its mouth.
43: Whoever is wise, let him give heed to these things; let men consider the steadfast love of the LORD.

Psalm 108

0: A Song. A Psalm of David.

1: My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast! I will sing and make melody! Awake, my soul!

v1: My Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul is stabilized, Oh Elohim! I will sing praise and concentrate in playing music on the psaltry (a result of victory)! In addition or also expressing my Honor!

2: Awake, O harp and lyre! I will awake the dawn!

v2: Awake! O harp and lyre! I myself will awaken the dawn with the singing of this great hymn!

3: I will give thanks to thee, O LORD, among the peoples, I will sing praises to thee among the nations.

v3: I will praise and celebrate giving thanks to you, Oh Jehovah, in the midst of the army who are still on the battlefield, I will sing praises to you among the nations because of the influence on the nations of this battle.

4: For thy steadfast love is great above the heavens, thy faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

v4: For Great above the heavens is your steadfast love or GRACE or Mercy, As far as the skies or beyond the horizon is the impact of your doctrine.

5: Be exalted, O God, above the heavens! Let thy glory be over all the earth!

v5: Be exalted above the heavens, Oh Elohim! Surrounding all around the earth is your glory or Bible Doctrine !

6: That thy beloved may be delivered, give help by thy right hand, and answer me!

v6: In order that your beloved ones the mature believers as citizens of the client nation may be delivered from War, Cause us the army to be delivered by your right hand the integrity of the Lord Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, therefore answer us!

7: God has promised in his sanctuary: "With exultation I will divide up Shechem, and portion out the Vale of Succoth.

v7: God has communicated or promised from or by means of his integrity: (David Said) "I will have Esprit De Corps or confidence, first I will draft soldiers from Shechem and I will survey the valley of Succoth for a second military base to operate on concentric interior lines.

8: Gilead is mine; Manas'seh is mine; E'phraim is my helmet; Judah my scepter.

v8: To me Gilead or Gilead is mine; to me Manas'seh or Manasseh is mine; while E'phraim is the fortification or helmet or security of my head; Judah in the form of my officer corps is my law giver or policy creator.

9: Moab is my washbasin; upon Edom I cast my shoe; over Philistia I shout in triumph."

v9: Moab is my field latrine having been buried and defeated in battle now respecting David and no longer having conspiracy against him; Over Edom I will cast my military boots (2Sam 8:13-14); over Philistia I shout a victory battle cry in triumph."

10: Who will bring me to the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom?

v10: Who (The Lord is responsible for victory) will carry me to a fortified city (Rabah)? Who will lead me to Edom when they sneak attack?

11: Hast thou not rejected us, O God? Thou dost not go forth, O God, with our armies.

v11: You have not rejected us, Oh Elohim, have you? Therefore Oh Elohim will you all three not advance in the attack with our armies.

12: O grant us help against the foe, for vain is the help of man!

v12: Therefore give us help or deliver us against the enemy, for EVIL is the welfare or deliverance of man!

13: With God we shall do valiantly; it is he who will tread down our foes.

v13: By means of the Integrity of Elohim (ALL 3) we shall manufacture from Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, battle courage; therefore he himself will trample down and destroy our enemies.

Psalm 109

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

1: Be not silent, O God of my praise!

2: For wicked and deceitful mouths are opened against me, speaking against me with lying tongues.

3: They beset me with words of hate, and attack me without cause.

4: In return for my love they accuse me, even as I make prayer for them.

5: So they reward me evil for good, and hatred for my love.

6: Appoint a wicked man against him; let an accuser bring him to trial.

7: When he is tried, let him come forth guilty; let his prayer be counted as sin!

8: May his days be few; may another seize his goods!

9: May his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow!

10: May his children wander about and beg; may they be driven out of the ruins they inhabit!

11: May the creditor seize all that he has; may strangers plunder the fruits of his toil!

12: Let there be none to extend kindness to him, nor any to pity his fatherless children!

13: May his posterity be cut off; may his name be blotted out in the second generation!

14: May the iniquity of his fathers be remembered before the LORD, and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out!

15: Let them be before the LORD continually; and may his memory be cut off from the earth!

16: For he did not remember to show kindness, but pursued the poor and needy and the brokenhearted to their death.

17: He loved to curse; let curses come on him! He did not like blessing; may it be far from him!

18: He clothed himself with cursing as his coat, may it soak into his body like water, like oil into his bones!

19: May it be like a garment which he wraps round him, like a belt with which he daily girds himself!

20: May this be the reward of my accusers from the LORD, of those who speak evil against my life!

21: But thou, O GOD my Lord, deal on my behalf for thy name's sake; because thy steadfast love is good, deliver me!

22: For I am poor and needy, and my heart is stricken within me.

23: I am gone, like a shadow at evening; I am shaken off like a locust.

24: My knees are weak through fasting; my body has become gaunt.

25: I am an object of scorn to my accusers; when they see me, they wag their heads.

26: Help me, O LORD my God! Save me according to thy steadfast love!

27: Let them know that this is thy hand; thou, O LORD, hast done it!

28: Let them curse, but do thou bless! Let my assailants be put to shame; may thy servant be glad!

29: May my accusers be clothed with dishonor; may they be wrapped in their own shame as in a mantle!

30: With my mouth I will give great thanks to the LORD; I will praise him in the midst of the throng.

31: For he stands at the right hand of the needy, to save him from those who condemn him to death.

Psalm 110

0: A Psalm of David.

1: The LORD says to my lord: "Sit at my right hand, till I make your enemies your footstool."

v1: The LORD says to my lord: "Sit at my right hand, till I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."

2: The LORD sends forth from Zion your mighty scepter. Rule in the midst of your foes!

v2: The LORD sends forth from Zion your mighty scepter proclaiming rule in the midst of your foes!

3: Your people will offer themselves freely on the day you lead your host upon the holy mountains. From the womb of the morning like dew your youth will come to you.

4: The LORD has sworn and will not change his mind, "You are a priest for ever after the order of Melchiz'edek."

v4: The Jehovah the Father has sworn and will not change his mind, "You are a priest for ever after the classification of Melchiz'edek."

5: The Lord is at your right hand; he will shatter kings on the day of his wrath.

6: He will execute judgment among the nations, filling them with corpses; he will shatter chiefs over the wide earth.

7: He will drink from the brook by the way; therefore he will lift up his head.

Psalm 111

1: Praise the LORD. I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

2: Great are the works of the LORD, studied by all who have pleasure in them.

3: Full of honor and majesty is his work, and his righteousness endures for ever.

4: He has caused his wonderful works to be remembered; the LORD is gracious and merciful.

5: He provides food for those who fear him; he is ever mindful of his covenant.

6: He has shown his people the power of his works, in giving them the heritage of the nations.

7: The works of his hands are faithful and just; all his precepts are trustworthy, 8: they are established for ever and ever, to be performed with faithfulness and uprightness.

9: He sent redemption to his people; he has commanded his covenant for ever. Holy and terrible is his name!

10: The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; a good understanding have all those who practice it. His praise endures for ever!

v9: He has distributed graciously and liberally without any expectations, he has given to those stragglers in distress who could not participate in the fighting; his righteousness keeps standing or endures for ever; his power, strength and ability shall be continually exalted in glory.

10: The wicked man sees it and is angry; he gnashes his teeth and melts away; the desire of the wicked man comes to nought.

v10 The reversionistic man shall see these poured blessings and is irritated, frustrated and angry; His teeth he gnashes or grinds in frustration and becomes discouraged; The lust from the frantic search for happiness of the reversionist causes him to perish.

Psalm 113

1: Praise the LORD! Praise, O servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD!

2: Blessed be the name of the LORD from this time forth and for evermore!

3: From the rising of the sun to its setting the name of the LORD is to be praised!

4: The LORD is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens!

5: Who is like the LORD our God, who is seated on high,

6: who looks far down upon the heavens and the earth?

7: He raises the poor from the dust, and lifts the needy from the ash heap,

8: to make them sit with princes, with the princes of his people.

9: He gives the barren woman a home, making her the joyous mother of children. Praise the LORD!

Psalm 114

1: When Israel went forth from Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange language,

2: Judah became his sanctuary, Israel his dominion.

3: The sea looked and fled, Jordan turned back.

4: The mountains skipped like rams, the hills like lambs.

5: What ails you, O sea, that you flee? O Jordan, that you turn back?

6: O mountains, that you skip like rams? O hills, like lambs?

7: Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the God of Jacob,

8: who turns the rock into a pool of water, the flint into a spring of water.

Psalm 115

1: Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to thy name give glory, for the sake of thy steadfast love and thy faithfulness!

v1: Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to your name give glory, because of your steadfast love and your faithfulness and doctrine!

2: Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?"

v2: Why should the gentiles the Jebusites say, "Where now is their God?"

v0: A Song of degrees on the sundial or the Time of the end of life of Jonathan.

1: In my distress I cry to the LORD, that he may answer me:

v1: In my pressure, distress, or adversity I cried out aloud to the LORD, and he answered me:

2: "Deliver me, O LORD, from lying lips, from a deceitful tongue."

v2: "Deliver or rescue my soul, O LORD, from lying lips, from a deceitful tongue."

3: What shall be given to you? And what more shall be done to you, you deceitful tongue?

v3: What shall be given to you Saul? And what more calamities of discipline shall be added to you, you false tongue?
4: A warrior's sharp arrows, with glowing coals of the broom tree!
v4: Sharp Arrows of a Mighty Hero warrior, Jonathan, who takes care of his weapons, with burning hot coals of the broom brush used for discipline and self induced misery!
5: Woe is me, that I sojourn in Meshech, that I dwell among the tents of Kedar!
v5: Woe is me when I left Jonathan in reversionism and self pity, that I dwell as a stranger in persecution in Meshech in the northern assyria living with undesirable gentiles , that I dwell among the tents of Kedar becoming as a nomadic arab!
6: Too long have I had my dwelling among those who hate peace.
v6 Too long has my soul had it's dwelling with those who hate peace, namely Saul, 7: I am for peace; but when I speak, they are for war!
v7: Even though I ran away I am for peace, and when I open my mouth to speak they are for war in implacability and reversionism.

Psalm 121

0: A Song of Ascents.
1: I lift up my eyes to the hills. From whence does my help come?
v1: I will lift up my eyes to the hills. Where does my help originate?
2: My help comes from the LORD, who made heaven and earth.
v2: My help comes from the LORD, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, who made the heavens and the earth. (John 1:1-3, Col 1:16-17, Heb 1:3, 10) 3: He will not let your foot be moved, he who keeps you will not slumber.
v3: Indeed He will not permit your foot to totter in warfare and battle, He who watches over you will not slumber.
4: Behold, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
Ps 121:4
v4: Indeed or behold, he who watches over guarding Israel like a sentinel will neither slumber nor sleep.
5: The LORD is your keeper; the LORD is your shade on your right hand.
v5: The LORD watches over you; the LORD is the shade on your right hand against the sun.
6: The sun shall not smite you by day, nor the moon by night.
v6: The sun shall not harm you by day, nor the moon by night for night attacks.
7: The LORD will keep you from all evil; he will keep your life.
v7: The Lord will guard you from all evil he will guard your soul with Metabolized Bible Doctrine from evil 8: The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth and for evermore.
v8: The LORD will guard your going out and your coming in from this time forth and for eternity.

Psalm 122

0: A Song of Ascents. Of David.
1: I was glad when they said to me, "Let us go to the house of the LORD!"
2: Our feet have been standing within your gates, O Jerusalem!
3: Jerusalem, built as a city which is bound firmly together,
4: to which the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD, as was decreed for Israel, to give thanks to the name of the LORD.
5: There thrones for judgment were set, the thrones of the house of David.
6: Pray for the peace of Jerusalem! "May they prosper who love you!"
Ps 122:6
v6: Pray for the peace of Jerusalem, may they prosper who love you,
7: Peace be within your walls, and security within your towers!"
8: For my brethren and companions' sake I will say, "Peace be within you!"
9: For the sake of the house of the LORD our God, I will seek your good.

Psalm 123

0: A Song of Ascents.
1: To thee I lift up my eyes, O thou who art enthroned in the heavens!
2: Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to the LORD our God, till he have mercy upon us.
3: Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us, for we have had more than enough of contempt.
4: Too long our soul has been sated with the scorn of those who are at ease, the contempt of the proud.

Psalm 124

0: A Song of Ascents. Of David.
1: If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, let Israel now say --

- 2: if it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when men rose up against us,
3: then they would have swallowed us up alive, when their anger was kindled against us;
4: then the flood would have swept us away, the torrent would have gone over us;
5: then over us would have gone the raging waters.
6: Blessed be the LORD, who has not given us as prey to their teeth!
7: We have escaped as a bird from the snare of the fowlers; the snare is broken, and we have escaped!
8: Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

- 0: A Song of Ascents.
1: Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but abides for ever.
2: As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the LORD is round about his people, from this time forth and for evermore.
v2: As the mountains or walls surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds his people, from this time forth and for evermore.
3: For the scepter of wickedness shall not rest upon the land allotted to the righteous, lest the righteous put forth their hands to do wrong.
4: Do good, O LORD, to those who are good, and to those who are upright in their hearts!
5: But those who turn aside upon their crooked ways the LORD will lead away with evildoers! Peace be in Israel!

Psalm 126

- 0: A Song of Ascents.
1: When the LORD restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dream.
Ps 126:1-3
v1: When the LORD Jehovah brought back the captive ones of Zion at the 2nd advent of Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, we were like those in a dream.
2: Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with shouts of joy; then they said among the nations, "The LORD has done great things for them."
v2: Then our mouth was filled with great laughter expressing happiness, and our tongue with shouts of joy; then they said among the nations, "The LORD has done great things for them."
3: The LORD has done great things for us; we are glad.
v3: Then we replied, "The LORD has manufactured out of his grace great things for us in super-grace; we have become full of Sharing the Happiness of God."
4: Restore our fortunes, O LORD, like the watercourses in the Negev!
v4: Cause us to recall the disasters when Grace picked us up as the streams beds of the negev in the south desert after a mountain rain!
5: May those who sow in tears reap with shouts of joy!
v5: They who sow in tears shall reap with great shouts of joy recovering from reversionism and entering super-grace!
6: He that goes forth weeping, bearing the seed for sowing, shall come home with shouts of joy, bringing his sheaves with him.
v6: He that goes forth weeping from the discipline of reversionism, bearing precious seed of Bible Doctrine, shall come again with great rejoicing, bringing the blessings given by the Lord when he brings nothing to the Lord in reversionism and the Lord gives him everything.

Psalm 127

- 0: A Song of Ascents. Of Solomon.
v0: Solomon's Song of Ascent up the steps going into the temple.
1: Unless the LORD builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the LORD watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain.
v1: Unless the LORD builds the temple the builders labor in vain. Unless the LORD guards the city, the police stands guard or functions in vain.
2: It is in vain that you rise up early and go late to rest, eating the bread of anxious toil; for he gives to his beloved sleep.
v2: In vain you get up early and stay up late, and work hard for a living; Because the Lord only can give blessing to his beloved in sleep.
3: Lo, sons are a heritage from the LORD, the fruit of the womb a reward.
4: Like arrows in the hand of a warrior are the sons of one's youth.
5: Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them! He shall not be put to shame when he speaks with his enemies in the gate.

Psalm 128

- 0: A Song of Ascents.
1: Blessed is every one who fears the LORD, who walks in his ways!

Ps 128:1

v1: How happy is everyone who respects the leadership of the Lord, who walk in his ways

2: You shall eat the fruit of the labor of your hands; you shall be happy, and it shall be well with you.

Ps 128:2

v2: When you shall eat of the labor of your hands you shall be happy if under Occupation with the Person of Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ and it will be well with you.

3: Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within your house; your children will be like olive shoots around your table.

Ps 128:3

v3: Your wife will be a fruitful vine with many assets which make you happy in the innermost parts of your home, your children like olive plants around the table their assets also providing happiness.

4: Lo, thus shall the man be blessed who fears the LORD.

Ps 128:4

v4: Behold for thus shall the man be happy who is occupied with the Lord.

5: The LORD bless you from Zion! May you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life!

v5: The Lord bless spiritually you from Zion that you may see the prosperity or temporal blessings of Jerusalem all the days of your life.

6: May you see your children's children! Peace be upon Israel!

Psalm 129

0: A Song of Ascents.

1: "Sorely have they afflicted me from my youth," let Israel now say --

2: "Sorely have they afflicted me from my youth, yet they have not prevailed against me.

3: The plowers plowed upon my back; they made long their furrows."

4: The LORD is righteous; he has cut the cords of the wicked.

5: May all who hate Zion be put to shame and turned backward!

6: Let them be like the grass on the housetops, which withers before it grows up,

7: with which the reaper does not fill his hand or the binder of sheaves his bosom,

8: while those who pass by do not say, "The blessing of the LORD be upon you! We bless you in the name of the LORD!"

Psalm 130

0: A Song of Ascents.

1: Out of the depths I cry to thee, O LORD!

2: Lord, hear my voice! Let thy ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications!

3: If thou, O LORD, shouldst mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand?

4: But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared.

5: I wait for the LORD, my soul waits, and in his word I hope;

6: my soul waits for the LORD more than watchmen for the morning, more than watchmen for the morning.

7: O Israel, hope in the LORD! For with the LORD there is steadfast love, and with him is plenteous redemption.

8: And he will redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

Psalm 131

0: A Song of Ascents. Of David.

1: O LORD, my heart is not lifted up, my eyes are not raised too high; I do not occupy myself with things too great and too marvelous for me.

2: But I have calmed and quieted my soul, like a child quieted at its mother's breast; like a child that is quieted is my soul.

3: O Israel, hope in the LORD from this time forth and for evermore.

Psalm 132

0: A Song of Ascents.

1: Remember, O LORD, in David's favor, all the hardships he endured;

2: how he swore to the LORD and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob,

3: "I will not enter my house or get into my bed;

4: I will not give sleep to my eyes or slumber to my eyelids,

5: until I find a place for the LORD, a dwelling place for the Mighty One of Jacob."

6: Lo, we heard of it in Eph'rathah, we found it in the fields of Ja'ar.

7: "Let us go to his dwelling place; let us worship at his footstool!"

8: Arise, O LORD, and go to thy resting place, thou and the ark of thy might.

v8: Rise up with your Integrity Oh LORD to the place of your habitation, Israel your priest nation, you and the ark of your power or integrity to overcome the variables in a nation in historical disaster.

9: Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness, and let thy saints shout for joy.

v9: Let your mature believers in the priest nation be clothed with your imputed righteousness, and let your grace oriented mature believers celebrate with shouting and singing because of deliverance in time of historical disaster.

10: For thy servant David's sake do not turn away the face of thy anointed one.

v10: For the sake of David your servant do not turn away the face of your anointed one, messiah, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ who controls history.

11: The LORD swore to David a sure oath from which he will not turn back: "One of the sons of your body I will set on your throne.

v11: The LORD has sworn from his integrity a solemn promise to David plus a doctrine, he will not turn back from the fruit or descendants of your body: "I will establish or place him on your throne".

12: If your sons keep my covenant and my testimonies which I shall teach them, their sons also for ever shall sit upon your throne."

12: If your sons keep my covenants and my testimonies which I shall teach them, their sons also for ever shall sit upon your throne."

13: For the LORD has chosen Zion; he has desired it for his habitation:

13: For the LORD has chosen Zion; he has desired it for his capitol forever:

14: "This is my resting place for ever; here I will dwell, for I have desired it.

15: I will abundantly bless her provisions; I will satisfy her poor with bread.

16: Her priests I will clothe with salvation, and her saints will shout for joy.

17: There I will make a horn to sprout for David; I have prepared a lamp for my anointed.

18: His enemies I will clothe with shame, but upon himself his crown will shed its luster."

Psalm 133

0: A Song of Ascents.

v0: Song of Memory of Jonathan.

1: Behold, how good and pleasant it is when brothers dwell in unity!

v1: Behold A fragrance of Memory, how good and how delightful for brothers to dwell together as one in unity in blessing, harmony and rapport!

2: It is like the precious oil upon the head, running down upon the beard, upon the beard of Aaron, running down on the collar of his robes!

v2: It is like the precious anointing oil (Ex 30:20-25) upon the head, running gently down upon the beard, upon the beard of Aaron, flowing gently down onto the collar of his robes with a sweet scent!

3: It is like the dew of Hermon, which falls on the mountains of Zion! For there the LORD has commanded the blessing, life for evermore.

v3: It is like the dew of prosperity of Mt Hermon, which is carried as rain onto the mountains of Zion keeping Israel combined! For there, in Zion, the LORD has decreed a command that there be national prosperity blessing, plus life for evermore.

Psalm 134

0: A Song of Ascents.

1: Come, bless the LORD, all you servants of the LORD, who stand by night in the house of the LORD!

2: Lift up your hands to the holy place, and bless the LORD!

3: May the LORD bless you from Zion, he who made heaven and earth!

Psalm 135

1: Praise the LORD. Praise the name of the LORD, give praise, O servants of the LORD,

2: you that stand in the house of the LORD, in the courts of the house of our God!

3: Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good; sing to his name, for he is gracious!

4: For the LORD has chosen Jacob for himself, Israel as his own possession.

5: For I know that the LORD is great, and that our Lord is above all gods.

6: Whatever the LORD pleases he does, in heaven and on earth, in the seas and all deeps.

7: He it is who makes the clouds rise at the end of the earth, who makes lightnings for the rain and brings forth the wind from his storehouses.

8: He it was who smote the first-born of Egypt, both of man and of beast;

9: who in thy midst, O Egypt, sent signs and wonders against Pharaoh and all his servants;

10: who smote many nations and slew mighty kings,

11: Sihon, king of the Amorites, and Og, king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan, 12: and gave their land as a heritage, a heritage to his people Israel.

13: Thy name, O LORD, endures for ever, thy renown, O LORD, throughout all ages.

14: For the LORD will vindicate his people, and have compassion on his servants.

v14: For the LORD will execute justice toward his people, and have compassion or repent concerning his servants.

15: The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

v15: The idols of the gentiles are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

16: They have mouths, but they speak not, they have eyes, but they see not,

v16: They have mouths, but they do not speak, they have eyes, but they do not see,

17: they have ears, but they hear not, nor is there any breath in their mouths.

Psalm 140

0: To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

1: Deliver me, O LORD, from evil men; preserve me from violent men,

Ps 140:1

v1: Rescue me Oh Lord, even from evil men, He preserved me from violent men,

2: who plan evil things in their heart, and stir up wars continually.

Ps 140:2

v2: Who devise evil things in their right lobes, who stir up wars.

3: They make their tongue sharp as a serpent's, and under their lips is the poison of vipers. [Selah]

4: Guard me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked; preserve me from violent men, who have planned to trip up my feet.

5: Arrogant men have hidden a trap for me, and with cords they have spread a net, by the wayside they have set snares for me. [Selah]

6: I say to the LORD, Thou art my God; give ear to the voice of my supplications, O LORD!

7: O LORD, my Lord, my strong deliverer, thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.

8: Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the wicked; do not further his evil plot! [Selah]

9: Those who surround me lift up their head, let the mischief of their lips overwhelm them!

10: Let burning coals fall upon them! Let them be cast into pits, no more to rise!

11: Let not the slanderer be established in the land; let evil hunt down the violent man speedily!

12: I know that the LORD maintains the cause of the afflicted, and executes justice for the needy.

13: Surely the righteous shall give thanks to thy name; the upright shall dwell in thy presence.

Psalm 141

0: A Psalm of David.

1: I call upon thee, O LORD; make haste to me! Give ear to my voice, when I call to thee!

v1: I wailed and complained and shouted unto you, Oh LORD; make haste accelerate to me in a hurry! Listen to my voice when I call to you!

2: Let my prayer be counted as incense before thee, and the lifting up of my hands as an evening sacrifice!

v2: Let my prayer be established as incense before you so that you will hear it and answer it, and the lifting up of my hands in prayer for these people as an evening sacrifice of propitiation since I am a super-grace believer in Christ!

3: Set a guard over my mouth, O LORD, keep watch over the door of my lips!

v3: Post a sentry over my mouth so I do not re-enter reversionism with verbal sins to hurt others, Oh LORD, post a whole guard detail over the door of my lips!

4: Incline not my heart to any evil, to busy myself with wicked deeds in company with men who work iniquity; and let me not eat of their dainties!

v4: Do not let my Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul be turned to the doctrine of Evil, to practice deeds of wickedness of reversionism in company with people working disaster to others; and do not let me eat the delicacies of being in their service!

5: Let a good man strike or rebuke me in kindness, but let the oil of the wicked never anoint my head; for my prayer is continually against their wicked deeds.

v5: Let the righteous one, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, strike or rebuke me through Divine Discipline with Grace and reprove and correct me, and let the oil of honor of having these people join me anoint my head which shall not refuse this blessing and I take responsibility for them; for still my prayer is continually against the wicked deeds of reversionism.

6: When they are given over to those who shall condemn them, then they shall learn that the word of the LORD is true.

v6: The ones ruling shall be thrown down into jagged rocky places and smashed to pieces below the cliff, then they the survivors of the nation shall hear my policies they will produce prosperity.

7: As a rock which one cleaves and shatters on the land, so shall their bones be strewn at the mouth of Sheol.

v7: As when one plows and breaks open the hard ground, so our bones are scattered at the mouth of the Grave or so some will die to restore freedom.

8: But my eyes are toward thee, O LORD God; in thee I seek refuge; leave me not defenseless!

v8: Therefore my eyes are toward you, Jehovah my God, In you I take refuge; do not uncover the nakedness of my soul or pour out my soul in death!

9: Keep me from the trap which they have laid for me, and from the snares of evildoers!

v9: Keep me from the jaws of the trap which they have set for me at Kelah, and from the snares of the workers of iniquity of the Ziphites

10: Let the wicked together fall into their own nets, while I escape.

v10: Let the reversionists hang themselves, while I at the same time walk on by.

Psalm 142

0: A Maskil of David, when he was in the cave. A Prayer.

1: I cry with my voice to the LORD, with my voice I make supplication to the LORD,

2: I pour out my complaint before him, I tell my trouble before him.

3: When my spirit is faint, thou knowest my way! In the path where I walk they have hidden a trap for me.

4: I look to the right and watch, but there is none who takes notice of me; no refuge remains to me, no man cares for me.

5: I cry to thee, O LORD; I say, Thou art my refuge, my portion in the land of the living.

6: Give heed to my cry; for I am brought very low! Deliver me from my persecutors; for they are too strong for me!

7: Bring me out of prison, that I may give thanks to thy name! The righteous will surround me; for thou wilt deal bountifully with me.

Psalm 143

0: A Psalm of David.

1: Hear my prayer, O LORD; give ear to my supplications! In thy faithfulness answer me, in thy righteousness!

2: Enter not into judgment with thy servant; for no man living is righteous before thee.

3: For the enemy has pursued me; he has crushed my life to the ground; he has made me sit in darkness like those long dead.

4: Therefore my spirit faints within me; my heart within me is appalled.

5: I remember the days of old, I meditate on all that thou hast done; I muse on what thy hands have wrought.

6: I stretch out my hands to thee; my soul thirsts for thee like a parched land. [Selah]

7: Make haste to answer me, O LORD! My spirit fails! Hide not thy face from me, lest I be like those who go down to the Pit.

8: Let me hear in the morning of thy steadfast love, for in thee I put my trust. Teach me the way I should go, for to thee I lift up my soul.

9: Deliver me, O LORD, from my enemies! I have fled to thee for refuge!

10: Teach me to do thy will, for thou art my God! Let thy good spirit lead me on a level path!

11: For thy name's sake, O LORD, preserve my life! In thy righteousness bring me out of trouble!

12: And in thy steadfast love cut off my enemies, and destroy all my adversaries, for I am thy servant.

Psalm 144

0: A Psalm of David.

1: Blessed be the LORD, my rock, who trains my hands for war, and my fingers for battle;

v1: Being adored in Category I love is the Jehovah, my rock, strength, who trains through discipline and constant repetition my hands for hand to hand combat, and my fingers for weapons of war;

2: my rock and my fortress, my stronghold and my deliverer, my shield and he in whom I take refuge, who subdues the peoples under him.

v2: My grace giving one, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, and my defense perimeter, my stronghold or fortification for training and my deliverer, my shield and the one in whom I take refuge, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ who subdues or disciplines my people under him.

3: O LORD, what is man that thou dost regard him, or the son of man that thou dost think of him?

v3: Oh LORD, what is man that you keep knowing him or what have you given me for an army, or the son of man that make plans for him?

4: Man is like a breath, his days are like a passing shadow.

v4: Man is like a vapor, his days are like a shadow passing by.

5: Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and come down! Touch the mountains that they smoke!

v5: Oh Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ Lord of the Armies LOWER your heavens and come down! Touch the mountains or nations and be our artillery that they smoke and are destroyed!

6: Flash forth the lightning and scatter them, send out thy arrows and rout them!

v6: Flash forth the lightning bolts and scatter or send them forth in panic, shout forth your arrows to them and rout them!

7: Stretch forth thy hand from on high, rescue me and deliver me from the many waters, from the hand of aliens, v7: Stretch forth your hand from above, rescue me and deliver me from the great waters of overwhelming odds, from the hand of strange children reversionists who are my enemies.

8: whose mouths speak lies, and whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

v8: whose mouths speak destruction or nothingness, and whose right hand is a hand of deceit .

9: I will sing a new song to thee, O God; upon a ten-stringed harp I will play to thee, v9: I have sung a new song of super-grace blessing and the importance of Bible Doctrine to you, O God; upon a ten- stringed harp I will make music to you.

10: who givest victory to kings, who rescuest David thy servant.

v10: The one giving victory or deliverance to kings, who rescued David your servant.

11: Rescue me from the cruel sword, and deliver me from the hand of aliens, whose mouths speak lies, and whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

v11: The one who delivered me from the sword of evil, and deliver me and snatch away and rescued from the danger of strange children reversionism in any form, whose mouths speak nothingness and whose right hand is a right hand of deceit.

12: May our sons in their youth be like plants full grown, our daughters like corner pillars cut for the structure of a palace;

v12: That our sons in their youth be like plants full grown or handsome gentlemen with great strength and minds and bodies, our daughters like corner pillars or foundation carved after the pattern of palace construction running the household;

13: may our garners be full, providing all manner of store; may our sheep bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields;

v13: That our grain storage be full, overflowing from one vat to another; may our sheep bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields;

14: may our cattle be heavy with young, suffering no mischance or failure in bearing; may there be no cry of distress in our streets!

v14: may our oxen being well laden with prosperity, suffering no break-in no stealing and not going out to surrender and no lamentation in the streets!

15: Happy the people to whom such blessings fall! Happy are the people whose God is the LORD!

v15: Happinesses of super-grace to the people who are in such status of super-grace! Happinesses to the people whose God is the Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ!

Psalm 145

0: A Song of Praise. Of David.

1: I will extol thee, my God and King, and bless thy name for ever and ever.

2: Every day I will bless thee, and praise thy name for ever and ever.

3: Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised, and his greatness is unsearchable.

4: One generation shall laud thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.

5: On the glorious splendor of thy majesty, and on thy wondrous works, I will meditate.

6: Men shall proclaim the might of thy terrible acts, and I will declare thy greatness.

7: They shall pour forth the fame of thy abundant goodness, and shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

v7: They will bubble over with memory of your, Lord, abundant goodness of Logistical Grace provisions, which produces stimulation, and they shall shout joyfully because of your integrity of character.

8: The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

v8: The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and great or abounding in steadfast love of graciousness.

9: The LORD is good to all, and his compassion is over all that he has made.

v9: The LORD is good to all believers in Maturity Adjustment to the Justice of God, and his compassions or mercies are over all his works that he has made.

10: All thy works shall give thanks to thee, O LORD, and all thy saints shall bless thee!

v10: All your works shall give thanks to you, O LORD, and all your mature believers shall bless you!

11: They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and tell of thy power, 12: to make known to the sons of men thy mighty deeds, and the glorious splendor of thy kingdom.

13: Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endures throughout all generations. The LORD is faithful in all his words, and gracious in all his deeds.

14: The LORD upholds all who are falling, and raises up all who are bowed down.

15: The eyes of all look to thee, and thou givest them their food in due season.

16: Thou openest thy hand, thou satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

17: The LORD is just in all his ways, and kind in all his doings.

18: The LORD is near to all who call upon him, to all who call upon him in truth.

19: He fulfils the desire of all who fear him, he also hears their cry, and saves them.

20: The LORD preserves all who love him; but all the wicked he will destroy.

21: My mouth will speak the praise of the LORD, and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

Psalm 146

1: Praise the LORD! Praise the LORD, O my soul!

2: I will praise the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praises to my God while I have being.

3: Put not your trust in princes, in a son of man, in whom there is no help.

4: When his breath departs he returns to his earth; on that very day his plans perish.

5: Happy is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the LORD his God,

Ps 146:5

v5: Happinesses to the one whose assistance is the God of Jacob in reversion recovery, Whose absolute Confidence is in the Lord his God in Maturity Adjustment to the Justice of God Super Grace after recovery.

- 6: who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them; who keeps faith for ever;
- 7: who executes justice for the oppressed; who gives food to the hungry. The LORD sets the prisoners free;
- 8: the LORD opens the eyes of the blind. The LORD lifts up those who are bowed down; the LORD loves the righteous.
- 9: The LORD watches over the sojourners, he upholds the widow and the fatherless; but the way of the wicked he brings to ruin.
- 10: The LORD will reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, to all generations. Praise the LORD!

Psalm 147

- 1: Praise the LORD! For it is good to sing praises to our God; for he is gracious, and a song of praise is seemly.
- 2: The LORD builds up Jerusalem; he gathers the outcasts of Israel.
- 3: He heals the brokenhearted, and binds up their wounds.
- 4: He determines the number of the stars, he gives to all of them their names.
- 5: Great is our LORD, and abundant in power; his understanding is beyond measure.
- 6: The LORD lifts up the downtrodden, he casts the wicked to the ground.
- 7: Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving; make melody to our God upon the lyre!
- 8: He covers the heavens with clouds, he prepares rain for the earth, he makes grass grow upon the hills.
- 9: He gives to the beasts their food, and to the young ravens which cry.
- 10: His delight is not in the strength of the horse, nor his pleasure in the legs of a man;
- 11: but the LORD takes pleasure in those who fear him, in those who hope in his steadfast love.
- 12: Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem! Praise your God, O Zion!
- 13: For he strengthens the bars of your gates; he blesses your sons within you.
- 14: He makes peace in your borders; he fills you with the finest of the wheat.
- 15: He sends forth his command to the earth; his word runs swiftly.
- 16: He gives snow like wool; he scatters hoarfrost like ashes.
- 17: He casts forth his ice like morsels; who can stand before his cold?
- 18: He sends forth his word, and melts them; he makes his wind blow, and the waters flow.
- 19: He declares his word to Jacob, his statutes and ordinances to Israel.
- 20: He has not dealt thus with any other nation; they do not know his ordinances. Praise the LORD!

Psalm 148

- 1: Praise the LORD! Praise the LORD from the heavens, praise him in the heights!
- 2: Praise him, all his angels, praise him, all his host!
- 3: Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!
- 4: Praise him, you highest heavens, and you waters above the heavens!
- 5: Let them praise the name of the LORD! For he commanded and they were created.
- 6: And he established them for ever and ever; he fixed their bounds which cannot be passed.
- 7: Praise the LORD from the earth, you sea monsters and all deeps,
- 8: fire and hail, snow and frost, stormy wind fulfilling his command!
- 9: Mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars!
- 10: Beasts and all cattle, creeping things and flying birds!
- 11: Kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all rulers of the earth!
- 12: Young men and maidens together, old men and children!
- 13: Let them praise the name of the LORD, for his name alone is exalted; his glory is above earth and heaven.
- 14: He has raised up a horn for his people, praise for all his saints, for the people of Israel who are near to him. Praise the LORD!

Psalm 149

- 1: Praise the LORD! Sing to the LORD a new song, his praise in the assembly of the faithful!
- 2: Let Israel be glad in his Maker, let the sons of Zion rejoice in their King!
- 3: Let them praise his name with dancing, making melody to him with timbrel and lyre!
- 4: For the LORD takes pleasure in his people; he adorns the humble with victory.
- 5: Let the faithful exult in glory; let them sing for joy on their couches.
- 6: Let the high praises of God be in their throats and two-edged swords in their hands,
- 7: to wreak vengeance on the nations and chastisement on the peoples,
- 8: to bind their kings with chains and their nobles with fetters of iron,
- 9: to execute on them the judgment written! This is glory for all his faithful ones. Praise the LORD!

Psalm 150

- 1: Praise the LORD! Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him in his mighty firmament!
- 2: Praise him for his mighty deeds; praise him according to his exceeding greatness!

- 3: Praise him with trumpet sound; praise him with lute and harp!
- 4: Praise him with timbrel and dance; praise him with strings and pipe!
- 5: Praise him with sounding cymbals; praise him with loud clashing cymbals!
- 6: Let everything that breathes praise the LORD! Praise the LORD!

The Book of Ruth

Chapter 1

Ruth, chapter 1

- 1: In the days when the judges ruled there was a famine in the land, and a certain man of Bethlehem in Judah went to sojourn in the country of Moab, he and his wife and his two sons.
- 2: The name of the man was Elim'elech and the name of his wife Na'omi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chil'ion; they were Eph'rathites from Bethlehem in Judah. They went into the country of Moab and remained there.
- 3: But Elim'elech, the husband of Na'omi, died, and she was left with her two sons.
- 4: These took Moabite wives; the name of the one was Orpah and the name of the other Ruth. They lived there about ten years;
- 5: and both Mahlon and Chil'ion died, so that the woman was bereft of her two sons and her husband.
- 6: Then she started with her daughters-in-law to return from the country of Moab, for she had heard in the country of Moab that the LORD had visited his people and given them food.
- 7: So she set out from the place where she was, with her two daughters-in-law, and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah.
- 8: But Na'omi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return each of you to her mother's house. May the LORD deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with me.
- 9: The LORD grant that you may find a home, each of you in the house of her husband!" Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and wept.
- 10: And they said to her, "No, we will return with you to your people."
- 11: But Na'omi said, "Turn back, my daughters, why will you go with me? Have I yet sons in my womb that they may become your husbands?"
- 12: Turn back, my daughters, go your way, for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say I have hope, even if I should have a husband this night and should bear sons,
- 13: would you therefore wait till they were grown? Would you therefore refrain from marrying? No, my daughters, for it is exceedingly bitter to me for your sake that the hand of the LORD has gone forth against me."
- 14: Then they lifted up their voices and wept again; and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.
- 15: And she said, "See, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; return after your sister-in-law."
- 16: But Ruth said, "Entreat me not to leave you or to return from following you; for where you go I will go, and where you lodge I will lodge; your people shall be my people, and your God my God;
- 17: where you die I will die, and there will I be buried. May the LORD do so to me and more also if even death parts me from you."
- 18: And when Na'omi saw that she was determined to go with her, she said no more.
- 19: So the two of them went on until they came to Bethlehem. And when they came to Bethlehem, the whole town was stirred because of them; and the women said, "Is this Na'omi?"
- 20: She said to them, "Do not call me Na'omi, call me Mara, for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me.
- 21: I went away full, and the LORD has brought me back empty. Why call me Na'omi, when the LORD has afflicted me and the Almighty has brought calamity upon me?"
- 22: So Na'omi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess her daughter-in-law with her, who returned from the country of Moab. And they came to Bethlehem at the beginning of barley harvest.

Chapter 2

Ruth, chapter 2

- 1: Now Na'omi had a kinsman of her husband's, a man of wealth, of the family of Elim'elech, whose name was Bo'az.
- 2: And Ruth the Moabitess said to Na'omi, "Let me go to the field, and glean among the ears of grain after him in whose sight I shall find favor." And she said to her, "Go, my daughter."
- 3: So she set forth and went and gleaned in the field after the reapers; and she happened to come to the part of the field belonging to Bo'az, who was of the family of Elim'elech.
- 4: And behold, Bo'az came from Bethlehem; and he said to the reapers, "The LORD be with you!" And they answered, "The LORD bless you."
- 5: Then Bo'az said to his servant who was in charge of the reapers, "Whose maiden is this?"
- 6: And the servant who was in charge of the reapers answered, "It is the Moabite maiden, who came back with Na'omi from the country of Moab.
- 7: She said, 'Pray, let me glean and gather among the sheaves after the reapers.' So she came, and she has continued from early morning until now, without resting even for a moment."
- 8: Then Bo'az said to Ruth, "Now, listen, my daughter, do not go to glean in another field or leave this one, but keep close to my maidens.

9: Let your eyes be upon the field which they are reaping, and go after them. Have I not charged the young men not to molest you? And when you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink what the young men have drawn."

10: Then she fell on her face, bowing to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favor in your eyes, that you should take notice of me, when I am a foreigner?"

11: But Bo'az answered her, "All that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband has been fully told me, and how you left your father and mother and your native land and came to a people that you did not know before.

12: The LORD recompense you for what you have done, and a full reward be given you by the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge!"

13: Then she said, "You are most gracious to me, my lord, for you have comforted me and spoken kindly to your maidservant, though I am not one of your maidservants."

14: And at mealtime Bo'az said to her, "Come here, and eat some bread, and dip your morsel in the wine." So she sat beside the reapers, and he passed to her parched grain; and she ate until she was satisfied, and she had some left over.

15: When she rose to glean, Bo'az instructed his young men, saying, "Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not reproach her.

16: And also pull out some from the bundles for her, and leave it for her to glean, and do not rebuke her."

17: So she gleaned in the field until evening; then she beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley.

18: And she took it up and went into the city; she showed her mother-in-law what she had gleaned, and she also brought out and gave her what food she had left over after being satisfied.

19: And her mother-in-law said to her, "Where did you glean today? And where have you worked? Blessed be the man who took notice of you." So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, "The man's name with whom I worked today is Bo'az."

20: And Na'omi said to her daughter-in-law, "Blessed be he by the LORD, whose kindness has not forsaken the living or the dead!" Na'omi also said to her, "The man is a relative of ours, one of our nearest kin."

21: And Ruth the Moabitess said, "Besides, he said to me, 'You shall keep close by my servants, till they have finished all my harvest.'"

22: And Na'omi said to Ruth, her daughter-in-law, "It is well, my daughter, that you go out with his maidens, lest in another field you be molested."

23: So she kept close to the maidens of Bo'az, gleaning until the end of the barley and wheat harvests; and she lived with her mother-in-law.

Chapter 3

Ruth, chapter 3

1: Then Na'omi her mother-in-law said to her, "My daughter, should I not seek a home for you, that it may be well with you?

2: Now is not Bo'az our kinsman, with whose maidens you were? See, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor.

3: Wash therefore and anoint yourself, and put on your best clothes and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.

4: But when he lies down, observe the place where he lies; then, go and uncover his feet and lie down; and he will tell you what to do."

5: And she replied, "All that you say I will do."

6: So she went down to the threshing floor and did just as her mother-in-law had told her.

7: And when Bo'az had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain. Then she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and lay down.

8: At midnight the man was startled, and turned over, and behold, a woman lay at his feet!

9: He said, "Who are you?" And she answered, "I am Ruth, your maidservant; spread your skirt over your maidservant, for you are next of kin."

10: And he said, "May you be blessed by the LORD, my daughter; you have made this last kindness greater than the first, in that you have not gone after young men, whether poor or rich.

11: And now, my daughter, do not fear, I will do for you all that you ask, for all my fellow townsmen know that you are a woman of worth.

12: And now it is true that I am a near kinsman, yet there is a kinsman nearer than I.

13: Remain this night, and in the morning, if he will do the part of the next of kin for you, well; let him do it; but if he is not willing to do the part of the next of kin for you, then, as the LORD lives, I will do the part of the next of kin for you. Lie down until the morning."

14: So she lay at his feet until the morning, but arose before one could recognize another; and he said, "Let it not be known that the woman came to the threshing floor."

15: And he said, "Bring the mantle you are wearing and hold it out." So she held it, and he measured out six measures of barley, and laid it upon her; then she went into the city.

16: And when she came to her mother-in-law, she said, "How did you fare, my daughter?" Then she told her all that the man had done for her,

17: saying, "These six measures of barley he gave to me, for he said, 'You must not go back empty-handed to your mother-in-law.'"
18: She replied, "Wait, my daughter, until you learn how the matter turns out, for the man will not rest, but will settle the matter today."

Chapter 4

Ruth, chapter 4

1: And Bo'az went up to the gate and sat down there; and behold, the next of kin, of whom Bo'az had spoken, came by. So Bo'az said, "Turn aside, friend; sit down here"; and he turned aside and sat down.
2: And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, "Sit down here"; so they sat down.
3: Then he said to the next of kin, "Na'omi, who has come back from the country of Moab, is selling the parcel of land which belonged to our kinsman Elim'elech.
4: So I thought I would tell you of it, and say, Buy it in the presence of those sitting here, and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if you will not, tell me, that I may know, for there is no one besides you to redeem it, and I come after you." And he said, "I will redeem it."
5: Then Bo'az said, "The day you buy the field from the hand of Na'omi, you are also buying Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of the dead, in order to restore the name of the dead to his inheritance."
6: Then the next of kin said, "I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I impair my own inheritance. Take my right of redemption yourself, for I cannot redeem it."
7: Now this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning redeeming and exchanging; to confirm a transaction, the one drew off his sandal and gave it to the other, and this was the manner of attesting in Israel.
8: So when the next of kin said to Bo'az, "Buy it for yourself," he drew off his sandal.
9: Then Bo'az said to the elders and all the people, "You are witnesses this day that I have bought from the hand of Na'omi all that belonged to Elim'elech and all that belonged to Chil'ion and to Mahlon.
v9: Then Bo'az said to the elders and all the people, "You are witnesses this day that I have bought from the hand of Na'omi all the land that belonged to Elim'elech and all that belonged to Chil'ion and to Mahlon.
10: Also Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of Mahlon, I have bought to be my wife, to perpetuate the name of the dead in his inheritance, that the name of the dead may not be cut off from among his brethren and from the gate of his native place; you are witnesses this day."
v10: And I have acquired Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of Mahlon, to be my wife, to perpetuate the name of the dead in his inheritance, that the name of the dead may not be cut off from among his family and from the town records; you are witnesses this day."
11: Then all the people who were at the gate, and the elders, said, "We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman, who is coming into your house, like Rachel and Leah, who together built up the house of Israel. May you prosper in Eph'rathah and be renowned in Bethlehem;
12: and may your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, because of the children that the LORD will give you by this young woman."
13: So Bo'az took Ruth and she became his wife; and he went in to her, and the LORD gave her conception, and she bore a son.
14: Then the women said to Na'omi, "Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without next of kin; and may his name be renowned in Israel!
15: He shall be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age; for your daughter-in-law who loves you, who is more to you than seven sons, has borne him."
16: Then Na'omi took the child and laid him in her bosom, and became his nurse.
17: And the women of the neighborhood gave him a name, saying, "A son has been born to Na'omi." They named him Obed; he was the father of Jesse, the father of David.
18: Now these are the descendants of Perez: Perez was the father of Hezron, 19: Hezron of Ram, Ram of Ammin'adab,
20: Ammin'adab of Nahshon, Nahshon of Salmon,
21: Salmon of Bo'az, Bo'az of Obed,
22: Obed of Jesse, and Jesse of David.

The First Book of Samuel

Chapter 1

First Samuel, chapter 1

1: There was a certain man of Ramatha'im-zo'phim of the hill country of E'phraim, whose name was Elka'nah the son of Jero'ham, son of Eli'hu, son of Tohu, son of Zuph, an E'phraimite.
2: He had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Penin'nah. And Penin'nah had children, but Hannah had no children.
3: Now this man used to go up year by year from his city to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of hosts at Shiloh, where the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phin'ehas, were priests of the LORD.

4: On the day when Elka'nah sacrificed, he would give portions to Penin'nah his wife and to all her sons and daughters;

v4: On the day when Elka'nah sacrificed, he gave year after year a years allowance to Penin'nah his beautiful elder troublesome wife and to all her many sons and daughters;

5: and, although he loved Hannah, he would give Hannah only one portion, because the LORD had closed her womb.

v5: and, although he loved Hannah, he would give Hannah only one double yearly portion or allowance gift, because the LORD had closed her womb and she was unresponsive both physically and soulishly to her Right Man.

6: And her rival used to provoke her sorely, to irritate her, because the LORD had closed her womb.

v6: And her adversary Peninnah irritated and provoked her and operated on Emotional Revolt of the Soul constantly to cause her to be involved in Emotional Revolt of the Soul, to irritate and make her fret and cause a reaction in her soul to the point of a Rage, because the LORD had caused her sterility.

7: So it went on year by year; as often as she went up to the house of the LORD, she used to provoke her. Therefore Hannah wept and would not eat.

v7: Because He (Elkanah) went to shiloh year by year; as often as she went up to the house of the Lord and she received her double portion, So did she, Peninnah o provoked her Hannah to the point that Hannah wept and would and was so upset she could not eat.

8: And Elka'nah, her husband, said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? And why do you not eat? And why is your heart sad? Am I not more to you than ten sons?"

v8: And Elka'nah, her husband, said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep in such fits and starts with strong lamentation? And why do you not eat? And why is the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of your Soul broken into pieces or tied up in knots with Emotional Revolt of the Soul? Am I not dearer or more important to you than ten children?"

9: After they had eaten and drunk in Shiloh, Hannah rose. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat beside the doorpost of the temple of the LORD.

v9: After they had eaten and drunk in Shiloh at the sacrifice, Hannah rose. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat beside the door post of the temple of the LORD.

10: She was deeply distressed and prayed to the LORD, and wept bitterly.

v10: She and only she, Hannah was deeply distressed with bitterness of the soul from mental attitude sins and she offered a false imprecatory prayer of intercession to the Lord to get even with Peninnah, and weeping she kept on weeping bitterly from frustrated anger toward Peninnah.

11: And she vowed a vow and said, "O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thy maidservant, and remember me, and not forget thy maidservant, but wilt give to thy maidservant a son, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and no razor shall touch his head."

v11: And she vowed a vow which was out of line and said, "O Jehovah Lord of the armies, if looking you will look on the distress of your hand maid or female servant, and remember me, and don't forget your hand maid, and if you will give to your hand maid the seed of many men, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and no razor shall touch his head to cut his hair."

12: As she continued praying before the LORD, Eli observed her mouth.

v12: and it came to pass she continued this useless praying although not heard by the LORD, Eli observed her mouth.

13: Hannah was speaking in her heart; only her lips moved, and her voice was not heard; therefore Eli took her to be a drunken woman.

v13: Hannah was speaking in her heart; only her lips moved, and her voice was not heard; therefore Eli took her to be a drunken woman.

14: And Eli said to her, "How long will you be drunken? Put away your wine from you."

v14: And Eli said to her, "How long will you be drunk? Put away wine from you, you lush."

15: But Hannah answered, "No, my lord, I am a woman sorely troubled; I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have been pouring out my soul before the LORD.

v15: But Hannah answered, "No, my lord, I am a woman of greatly troubled life; I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have been pouring out my soul before the LORD.

16: Do not regard your maidservant as a base woman, for all along I have been speaking out of my great anxiety and vexation."

v16: Do not regard your maidservant as a daughter of Beliel or a lush woman, for all along I have been speaking out of my great anxiety and vexation."

17: Then Eli answered, "Go in peace, and the God of Israel grant your petition which you have made to him."

v17: Then Eli answered after a long conversation, "Go in peace, and the God of Israel not the God of hosts give your petition which you have asked of him. (Samuerl)"

18: And she said, "Let your maidservant find favor in your eyes." Then the woman went her way and ate, and her countenance was no longer sad.

v18: And she said after listening to Eli's long advice, "Let your hand maiden find feminine grace in masculine grace according to your advice." Then the woman went her way relaxed and ate, and her countenance was no longer distorted.

19: They rose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD; then they went back to their house at Ramah. And Elka'nah knew Hannah his wife, and the LORD remembered her;

v19: They rose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD; and returned to their home at Ramah. And Elka'nah kept on having sexual intercourse with Hannah his wife since for the first time her soul was right thus her body responded to him fantastically, and the LORD remembered her providing for her pregnancy;

20: and in due time Hannah conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Samuel, for she said, "I have asked him of the LORD."

v20: and it came to pass when the time was come after Hannah had conceived she bore a son, and she called his name Shemuel (Heard of God) or Samuel, for she said, "I was in a dunghill and prayed in that state of carnality and asked him of the Lord and even though it was a useless prayer and did not go through, God provided what I asked for anyway.

21: And the man Elka'nah and all his house went up to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and to pay his vow.

22: But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, "As soon as the child is weaned, I will bring him, that he may appear in the presence of the LORD, and abide there for ever."

23: Elka'nah her husband said to her, "Do what seems best to you, wait until you have weaned him; only, may the LORD establish his word." So the woman remained and nursed her son, until she weaned him.

24: And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, along with a three-year-old bull, an ephah of flour, and a skin of wine; and she brought him to the house of the LORD at Shiloh; and the child was young.

25: Then they slew the bull, and they brought the child to Eli.

26: And she said, "Oh, my lord! As you live, my lord, I am the woman who was standing here in your presence, praying to the LORD.

27: For this child I prayed; and the LORD has granted me my petition which I made to him.

v27: For this child I prayed while carnal; and despite this the LORD has granted me my petition which I made to him.

28: Therefore I have lent him to the LORD; as long as he lives, he is lent to the LORD." And they worshiped the LORD there.

v28: Therefore I have caused him to be asked of the Lord with Eli after rebound; all of the days in which he lives he will be asked of the Lord." And they worshiped the LORD there.

Chapter 2

First Samuel, chapter 2

1: Hannah also prayed and said, "My heart exults in the LORD; my strength is exalted in the LORD. My mouth derides my enemies, because I rejoice in thy salvation.

v1: Hannah or Grace prayed and said, "The Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of my Soul ecstatically exults and expresses overflowing happiness in the Lord through the process of consistent function of the Grace Apparatus for Perception; my glory, strength, maximum response in sex to my Right Man is lifted up by the LORD. My mouth proclaims happiness expressing glory, I am full of happiness in your deliverance.

2: "There is none holy like the LORD, there is none besides thee; there is no rock like our God.

v2: "None uniquely holy like the LORD, there is no one uniquely like You; neither any rock of security like our God.

3: Talk no more so very proudly, let not arrogance come from your mouth; for the LORD is a God of knowledge, and by his actions are weighed.

v3: Do not multiply conversation with gossip and maligning or judging from mental attitude sins of great arrogant pride, Nor let Insolent arrogance proceed out from your mouth; for the Lord Jehovah is a God of omniscience, for by him works and deeds are examined.

4: The bows of the mighty are broken, but the feeble gird on strength.

5: Those who were full have hired themselves out for bread, but those who were hungry have ceased to hunger. The barren has borne seven, but she who has many children is forlorn.

6: The LORD kills and brings to life; he brings down to Sheol and raises up.

7: The LORD makes poor and makes rich; he brings low, he also exalts.

8: He raises up the poor from the dust; he lifts the needy from the ash heap, to make them sit with princes and inherit a seat of honor. For the pillars of the earth are the LORD'S, and on them he has set the world.

9: "He will guard the feet of his faithful ones; but the wicked shall be cut off in darkness; for not by might shall a man prevail.

10: The adversaries of the LORD shall be broken to pieces; against them he will thunder in heaven. The LORD will judge the ends of the earth; he will give strength to his king, and exalt the power of his anointed."

11: Then Elka'nah went home to Ramah. And the boy ministered to the LORD, in the presence of Eli the priest.

12: Now the sons of Eli were worthless men; they had no regard for the LORD.

13: The custom of the priests with the people was that when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant would come, while the meat was boiling, with a three-pronged fork in his hand,

14: and he would thrust it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the fork brought up the priest would take for himself. So they did at Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there.

15: Moreover, before the fat was burned, the priest's servant would come and say to the man who was sacrificing, "Give meat for the priest to roast; for he will not accept boiled meat from you, but raw."

16: And if the man said to him, "Let them burn the fat first, and then take as much as you wish," he would say, "No, you must give it now; and if not, I will take it by force."

17: Thus the sin of the young men was very great in the sight of the LORD; for the men treated the offering of the LORD with contempt.

18: Samuel was ministering before the LORD, a boy girded with a linen ephod.

19: And his mother used to make for him a little robe and take it to him each year, when she went up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

20: Then Eli would bless Elka'nah and his wife, and say, "The LORD give you children by this woman for the loan which she lent to the LORD"; so then they would return to their home.

21: And the LORD visited Hannah, and she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew in the presence of the LORD.

22: Now Eli was very old, and he heard all that his sons were doing to all Israel, and how they lay with the women who served at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

23: And he said to them, "Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil dealings from all the people.

24: No, my sons; it is no good report that I hear the people of the LORD spreading abroad.

25: If a man sins against a man, God will mediate for him; but if a man sins against the LORD, who can intercede for him?" But they would not listen to the voice of their father; for it was the will of the LORD to slay them.

26: Now the boy Samuel continued to grow both in stature and in favor with the LORD and with men.

27: And there came a man of God to Eli, and said to him, "Thus the LORD has said, 'I revealed myself to the house of your father when they were in Egypt subject to the house of Pharaoh.

28: And I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me; and I gave to the house of your father all my offerings by fire from the people of Israel.

29: Why then look with greedy eye at my sacrifices and my offerings which I commanded, and honor your sons above me by fattening yourselves upon the choicest parts of every offering of my people Israel?"

30: Therefore the LORD the God of Israel declares: 'I promised that your house and the house of your father should go in and out before me for ever'; but now the LORD declares: 'Far be it from me; for those who honor me I will honor, and those who despise me shall be lightly esteemed.

31: Behold, the days are coming, when I will cut off your strength and the strength of your father's house, so that there will not be an old man in your house.

32: Then in distress you will look with envious eye on all the prosperity which shall be bestowed upon Israel; and there shall not be an old man in your house for ever.

33: The man of you whom I shall not cut off from my altar shall be spared to weep out his eyes and grieve his heart; and all the increase of your house shall die by the sword of men.

34: And this which shall befall your two sons, Hophni and Phin'ehas, shall be the sign to you: both of them shall die on the same day.

35: And I will raise up for myself a faithful priest, who shall do according to what is in my heart and in my mind; and I will build him a sure house, and he shall go in and out before my anointed for ever.

36: And every one who is left in your house shall come to implore him for a piece of silver or a loaf of bread, and shall say, "Put me, I pray you, in one of the priest's places, that I may eat a morsel of bread."""

Chapter 3

First Samuel, chapter 3

1: Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the LORD under Eli. And the word of the LORD was rare in those days; there was no frequent vision.

2: At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim, so that he could not see, was lying down in his own place;

3: the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down within the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was.

4: Then the LORD called, "Samuel! Samuel!" and he said, "Here I am!"

5: and ran to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call; lie down again." So he went and lay down.

6: And the LORD called again, "Samuel!" And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call, my son; lie down again."

7: Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, and the word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him.

8: And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli perceived that the LORD was calling the boy.

9: Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, 'Speak, LORD, for thy servant hears.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10: And the LORD came and stood forth, calling as at other times, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel said, "Speak, for thy servant hears."

11: Then the LORD said to Samuel, "Behold, I am about to do a thing in Israel, at which the two ears of every one that hears it will tingle.

12: On that day I will fulfil against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end.

13: And I tell him that I am about to punish his house for ever, for the iniquity which he knew, because his sons were blaspheming God, and he did not restrain them.

14: Therefore I swear to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be expiated by sacrifice or offering for ever."

15: Samuel lay until morning; then he opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli.
16: But Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son." And he said, "Here I am."
17: And Eli said, "What was it that he told you? Do not hide it from me. May God do so to you and more also, if you hide anything from me of all that he told you."
18: So Samuel told him everything and hid nothing from him. And he said, "It is the LORD; let him do what seems good to him."
19: And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground.
20: And all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was established as a prophet of the LORD.
21: And the LORD appeared again at Shiloh, for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel at Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

Chapter 4 First Samuel, chapter 4

1: And the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out to battle against the Philistines; they encamped at Ebene'zer, and the Philistines encamped at Aphek.
2: The Philistines drew up in line against Israel, and when the battle spread, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who slew about four thousand men on the field of battle.
3: And when the troops came to the camp, the elders of Israel said, "Why has the LORD put us to rout today before the Philistines? Let us bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD here from Shiloh, that he may come among us and save us from the power of our enemies."
4: So the people sent to Shiloh, and brought from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, who is enthroned on the cherubim; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phin'ehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.
5: When the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel gave a mighty shout, so that the earth resounded.
6: And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shouting, they said, "What does this great shouting in the camp of the Hebrews mean?" And when they learned that the ark of the LORD had come to the camp,
7: the Philistines were afraid; for they said, "A god has come into the camp." And they said, "Woe to us! For nothing like this has happened before."
8: Woe to us! Who can deliver us from the power of these mighty gods? These are the gods who smote the Egyptians with every sort of plague in the wilderness.
9: Take courage, and acquit yourselves like men, O Philistines, lest you become slaves to the Hebrews as they have been to you; acquit yourselves like men and fight."
10: So the Philistines fought, and Israel was defeated, and they fled, every man to his home; and there was a very great slaughter, for there fell of Israel thirty thousand foot soldiers.
11: And the ark of God was captured; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phin'ehas, were slain.
12: A man of Benjamin ran from the battle line, and came to Shiloh the same day, with his clothes rent and with earth upon his head.
13: When he arrived, Eli was sitting upon his seat by the road watching, for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city and told the news, all the city cried out.
14: When Eli heard the sound of the outcry, he said, "What is this uproar?" Then the man hastened and came and told Eli.
15: Now Eli was ninety-eight years old and his eyes were set, so that he could not see.
16: And the man said to Eli, "I am he who has come from the battle; I fled from the battle today." And he said, "How did it go, my son?"
17: He who brought the tidings answered and said, "Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has also been a great slaughter among the people; your two sons also, Hophni and Phin'ehas, are dead, and the ark of God has been captured."
18: When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell over backward from his seat by the side of the gate; and his neck was broken and he died, for he was an old man, and heavy. He had judged Israel forty years.
19: Now his daughter-in-law, the wife of Phin'ehas, was with child, about to give birth. And when she heard the tidings that the ark of God was captured, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed and gave birth; for her pains came upon her.
20: And about the time of her death the women attending her said to her, "Fear not, for you have borne a son." But she did not answer or give heed.
21: And she named the child Ich'abod, saying, "The glory has departed from Israel!" because the ark of God had been captured and because of her father-in-law and her husband.
22: And she said, "The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been captured."

Chapter 5 First Samuel, chapter 5

1: When the Philistines captured the ark of God, they carried it from Ebene'zer to Ashdod;
2: then the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it into the house of Dagon and set it up beside Dagon.
3: And when the people of Ashdod rose early the next day, behold, Dagon had fallen face downward on the ground before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and put him back in his place.
4: But when they rose early on the next morning, behold, Dagon had fallen face downward on the ground before the ark of the LORD, and the head of Dagon and both his hands were lying cut off upon the threshold; only the trunk of Dagon was left to him.

5: This is why the priests of Dagon and all who enter the house of Dagon do not tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day.
6: The hand of the LORD was heavy upon the people of Ashdod, and he terrified and afflicted them with tumors, both Ashdod and its territory.
7: And when the men of Ashdod saw how things were, they said, "The ark of the God of Israel must not remain with us; for his hand is heavy upon us and upon Dagon our god."
8: So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?" They answered, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be brought around to Gath." So they brought the ark of the God of Israel there.
9: But after they had brought it around, the hand of the LORD was against the city, causing a very great panic, and he afflicted the men of the city, both young and old, so that tumors broke out upon them.
10: So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. But when the ark of God came to Ekron, the people of Ekron cried out, "They have brought around to us the ark of the God of Israel to slay us and our people."
11: They sent therefore and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, "Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it return to its own place, that it may not slay us and our people." For there was a deathly panic throughout the whole city. The hand of God was very heavy there;
12: the men who did not die were stricken with tumors, and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

Chapter 6

First Samuel, chapter 6

1: The ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months.
2: And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us with what we shall send it to its place."
3: They said, "If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it empty, but by all means return him a guilt offering. Then you will be healed, and it will be known to you why his hand does not turn away from you."
4: And they said, "What is the guilt offering that we shall return to him?" They answered, "Five golden tumors and five golden mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines; for the same plague was upon all of you and upon your lords.
5: So you must make images of your tumors and images of your mice that ravage the land, and give glory to the God of Israel; perhaps he will lighten his hand from off you and your gods and your land.
6: Why should you harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? After he had made sport of them, did not they let the people go, and they departed?
7: Now then, take and prepare a new cart and two milch cows upon which there has never come a yoke, and yoke the cows to the cart, but take their calves home, away from them.
8: And take the ark of the LORD and place it on the cart, and put in a box at its side the figures of gold, which you are returning to him as a guilt offering. Then send it off, and let it go its way.
9: And watch; if it goes up on the way to its own land, to Beth-she'mesh, then it is he who has done us this great harm; but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that struck us, it happened to us by chance."
10: The men did so, and took two milch cows and yoked them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home.
11: And they put the ark of the LORD on the cart, and the box with the golden mice and the images of their tumors.
12: And the cows went straight in the direction of Beth-she'mesh along one highway, lowing as they went; they turned neither to the right nor to the left, and the lords of the Philistines went after them as far as the border of Beth-she'mesh.
13: Now the people of Beth-she'mesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley; and when they lifted up their eyes and saw the ark, they rejoiced to see it.
14: The cart came into the field of Joshua of Beth-she'mesh, and stopped there. A great stone was there; and they split up the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD.
15: And the Levites took down the ark of the LORD and the box that was beside it, in which were the golden figures, and set them upon the great stone; and the men of Beth-she'mesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices on that day to the LORD.
16: And when the five lords of the Philistines saw it, they returned that day to Ekron.
17: These are the golden tumors, which the Philistines returned as a guilt offering to the LORD: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron;
18: also the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both fortified cities and unwallled villages. The great stone, beside which they set down the ark of the LORD, is a witness to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth-she'mesh.
19: And he slew some of the men of Beth-she'mesh, because they looked into the ark of the LORD; he slew seventy men of them, and the people mourned because the LORD had made a great slaughter among the people.
20: Then the men of Beth-she'mesh said, "Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? And to whom shall he go up away from us?"
21: So they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kir'iath-je'arim, saying, "The Philistines have returned the ark of the LORD. Come down and take it up to you."

Chapter 7

First Samuel, chapter 7

- 1: And the men of Kir'iath-je'arim came and took up the ark of the LORD, and brought it to the house of Abin'adab on the hill; and they consecrated his son, Elea'zar, to have charge of the ark of the LORD.
- 2: From the day that the ark was lodged at Kir'iath-je'arim, a long time passed, some twenty years, and all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD.
- 3: Then Samuel said to all the house of Israel, "If you are returning to the LORD with all your heart, then put away the foreign gods and the Ash'taroth from among you, and direct your heart to the LORD, and serve him only, and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines."
- 4: So Israel put away the Ba'als and the Ash'taroth, and they served the LORD only.
- 5: Then Samuel said, "Gather all Israel at Mizpah, and I will pray to the LORD for you."
- 6: So they gathered at Mizpah, and drew water and poured it out before the LORD, and fasted on that day, and said there, "We have sinned against the LORD." And Samuel judged the people of Israel at Mizpah.
- 7: Now when the Philistines heard that the people of Israel had gathered at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the people of Israel heard of it they were afraid of the Philistines.
- 8: And the people of Israel said to Samuel, "Do not cease to cry to the LORD our God for us, that he may save us from the hand of the Philistines."
- 9: So Samuel took a sucking lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to the LORD; and Samuel cried to the LORD for Israel, and the LORD answered him.
- 10: As Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to attack Israel; but the LORD thundered with a mighty voice that day against the Philistines and threw them into confusion; and they were routed before Israel.
- 11: And the men of Israel went out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, as far as below Beth-car.
- 12: Then Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Jesha'nah, and called its name Ebene'zer; for he said, "Hitherto the LORD has helped us."
- 13: So the Philistines were subdued and did not again enter the territory of Israel. And the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.
- 14: The cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron to Gath; and Israel rescued their territory from the hand of the Philistines. There was peace also between Israel and the Amorites.
- 15: Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.
- 16: And he went on a circuit year by year to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah; and he judged Israel in all these places.
- 17: Then he would come back to Ramah, for his home was there, and there also he administered justice to Israel. And he built there an altar to the LORD.

Chapter 8

First Samuel, chapter 8

- 1: When Samuel became old, he made his sons judges over Israel.
- 2: The name of his first-born son was Jo'el, and the name of his second, Abi'jah; they were judges in Beer-sheba.
- 3: Yet his sons did not walk in his ways, but turned aside after gain; they took bribes and perverted justice.
- 4: Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah,
- 5: and said to him, "Behold, you are old and your sons do not walk in your ways; now appoint for us a king to govern us like all the nations."
- 1Sam 8:5
v5: And there they (The people of Israel) said to him, "You are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways, Now appoint a king to lead us such as other nations have"
- 6: But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, "Give us a king to govern us." And Samuel prayed to the LORD.
- 1Sam 8:6
v6: And when they had said it, "Give us a king to lead us", this displeased Samuel, and he prayed to the Lord.
- 7: And the LORD said to Samuel, "Hearken to the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me from being king over them.
- 1Sam 8:7
v7: And the Lord told him (Samuel), "listen to all that the people are saying to you, it is NOT you that they have rejected, they have rejected me as their king".
- 8: According to all the deeds which they have done to me, from the day I brought them up out of Egypt even to this day, forsaking me and serving other gods, so they are also doing to you.
- 1Sam 8:8
v8: "as they have done since the day I have brought them out of Egypt (Slavery) to this day, forsaking me, the lord, and serving other Gods, now they are doing it to you"
- 9: Now then, hearken to their voice; only, you shall solemnly warn them, and show them the ways of the king who shall reign over them."
- 1Sam 8:9

v9: Now listen to them, but every time they say something which is false, warn them solemnly, and let them know what the king who will reign over them will do,

10: So Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who were asking a king from him.

11: He said, "These will be the ways of the king who will reign over you: he will take your sons and appoint them to his chariots and to be his horsemen, and to run before his chariots;

12: and he will appoint for himself commanders of thousands and commanders of fifties, and some to plow his ground and to reap his harvest, and to make his implements of war and the equipment of his chariots.

13: He will take your daughters to be perfumers and cooks and bakers.

14: He will take the best of your fields and vineyards and olive orchards and give them to his servants.

15: He will take the tenth of your grain and of your vineyards and give it to his officers and to his servants.

16: He will take your menservants and maidservants, and the best of your cattle and your asses, and put them to his work.

17: He will take the tenth of your flocks, and you shall be his slaves.

18: And in that day you will cry out because of your king, whom you have chosen for yourselves; but the LORD will not answer you in that day."

19: But the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel; and they said, "No! but we will have a king over us,

1Sam 8:19

v19: So the people refused to listen to Samuel, No they said, we want a king over us,

20: that we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may govern us and go out before us and fight our battles."

1Sam 8:20

v20: then we will be like other nations, so give us a king to lead us and go out before us and fight our battles.

21: And when Samuel had heard all the words of the people, he repeated them in the ears of the LORD.

22: And the LORD said to Samuel, "Hearken to their voice, and make them a king." Samuel then said to the men of Israel, "Go every man to his city."

Chapter 9

First Samuel, chapter 9

1: There was a man of Benjamin whose name was Kish, the son of Abi'el, son of Zeror, son of Beco'rath, son of Aphi'ah, a Benjaminite, a man of wealth;

2: and he had a son whose name was Saul, a handsome young man. There was not a man among the people of Israel more handsome than he; from his shoulders upward he was taller than any of the people.

3: Now the asses of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. So Kish said to Saul his son, "Take one of the servants with you, and arise, go and look for the asses."

4: And they passed through the hill country of E'phraim and passed through the land of Shal'ishah, but they did not find them. And they passed through the land of Sha'alim, but they were not there. Then they passed through the land of Benjamin, but did not find them.

5: When they came to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, let us go back, lest my father cease to care about the asses and become anxious about us."

6: But he said to him, "Behold, there is a man of God in this city, and he is a man that is held in honor; all that he says comes true. Let us go there; perhaps he can tell us about the journey on which we have set out."

7: Then Saul said to his servant, "But if we go, what can we bring the man? For the bread in our sacks is gone, and there is no present to bring to the man of God. What have we?"

8: The servant answered Saul again, "Here, I have with me the fourth part of a shekel of silver, and I will give it to the man of God, to tell us our way."

9: (Formerly in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he said, "Come, let us go to the seer"; for he who is now called a prophet was formerly called a seer.)

10: And Saul said to his servant, "Well said; come, let us go." So they went to the city where the man of God was.

11: As they went up the hill to the city, they met young maidens coming out to draw water, and said to them, "Is the seer here?"

12: They answered, "He is; behold, he is just ahead of you. Make haste; he has come just now to the city, because the people have a sacrifice today on the high place.

13: As soon as you enter the city, you will find him, before he goes up to the high place to eat; for the people will not eat till he comes, since he must bless the sacrifice; afterward those eat who are invited. Now go up, for you will meet him immediately."

14: So they went up to the city. As they were entering the city, they saw Samuel coming out toward them on his way up to the high place.

15: Now the day before Saul came, the LORD had revealed to Samuel:

16: "Tomorrow about this time I will send to you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him to be prince over my people Israel. He shall save my people from the hand of the Philistines; for I have seen the affliction of my people, because their cry has come to me."

17: When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD told him, "Here is the man of whom I spoke to you! He it is who shall rule over my people."

18: Then Saul approached Samuel in the gate, and said, "Tell me where is the house of the seer?"

19: Samuel answered Saul, "I am the seer; go up before me to the high place, for today you shall eat with me, and in the morning I will let you go and will tell you all that is on your mind.

20: As for your asses that were lost three days ago, do not set your mind on them, for they have been found. And for whom is all that is desirable in Israel? Is it not for you and for all your father's house?"

21: Saul answered, "Am I not a Benjaminite, from the least of the tribes of Israel? And is not my family the humblest of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Why then have you spoken to me in this way?"

22: Then Samuel took Saul and his servant and brought them into the hall and gave them a place at the head of those who had been invited, who were about thirty persons.

23: And Samuel said to the cook, "Bring the portion I gave you, of which I said to you, 'Put it aside.'"

24: So the cook took up the leg and the upper portion and set them before Saul; and Samuel said, "See, what was kept is set before you. Eat; because it was kept for you until the hour appointed, that you might eat with the guests." So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

25: And when they came down from the high place into the city, a bed was spread for Saul upon the roof, and he lay down to sleep.

26: Then at the break of dawn Samuel called to Saul upon the roof, "Up, that I may send you on your way." So Saul arose, and both he and Samuel went out into the street.

27: As they were going down to the outskirts of the city, Samuel said to Saul, "Tell the servant to pass on before us, and when he has passed on stop here yourself for a while, that I may make known to you the word of God."

v27: As they were going down to the outskirts of the city, Samuel said to Saul, "Tell your servant to go on before us, and when he has passed on stop here yourself for a while, that I may teach you the doctrines of the word of God."

Chapter 10

First Samuel, chapter 10

1: Then Samuel took a vial of oil and poured it on his head, and kissed him and said, "Has not the LORD anointed you to be prince over his people Israel? And you shall reign over the people of the LORD and you will save them from the hand of their enemies round about. And this shall be the sign to you that the LORD has anointed you to be prince over his heritage.

2: When you depart from me today you will meet two men by Rachel's tomb in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah, and they will say to you, 'The asses which you went to seek are found, and now your father has ceased to care about the asses and is anxious about you, saying, "What shall I do about my son?"'

1Sam 10:2

v2: When you depart from me today you will meet two men by Rachel's tomb in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah, and they will say to you, 'The donkeys which you went to find have already been found, now behold your father has abandoned his worry about the donkeys and is anxious in a state of worry about you, saying, "What shall I do about my son?"'

3: Then you shall go on from there further and come to the oak of Tabor; three men going up to God at Bethel will meet you there, one carrying three kids, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a skin of wine.

4: And they will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall accept from their hand.

5: After that you shall come to Gib'e-ath-elo'him, where there is a garrison of the Philistines; and there, as you come to the city, you will meet a band of prophets coming down from the high place with harp, tambourine, flute, and lyre before them, prophesying.

6: Then the spirit of the LORD will come mightily upon you, and you shall prophesy with them and be turned into another man.

v6: Then the spirit of the LORD will come mightily upon you, and you shall prophesy with them and be turned into another man.

7: Now when these signs meet you, do whatever your hand finds to do, for God is with you.

8: And you shall go down before me to Gilgal; and behold, I am coming to you to offer burnt offerings and to sacrifice peace offerings. Seven days you shall wait, until I come to you and show you what you shall do."

9: When he turned his back to leave Samuel, God gave him another heart; and all these signs came to pass that day.

10: When they came to Gib'e-ah, behold, a band of prophets met him; and the spirit of God came mightily upon him, and he prophesied among them.

v10: When they came to Gib'e-ah, behold, a band of prophets met him; and the spirit of God came mightily upon him, and he prophesied among them.

11: And when all who knew him before saw how he prophesied with the prophets, the people said to one another, "What has come over the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?"

12: And a man of the place answered, "And who is their father?" Therefore it became a proverb, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

13: When he had finished prophesying, he came to the high place.

14: Saul's uncle said to him and to his servant, "Where did you go?" And he said, "To seek the asses; and when we saw they were not to be found, we went to Samuel."

15: And Saul's uncle said, "Pray, tell me what Samuel said to you."

16: And Saul said to his uncle, "He told us plainly that the asses had been found." But about the matter of the kingdom, of which Samuel had spoken, he did not tell him anything.

17: Now Samuel called the people together to the LORD at Mizpah;

18: and he said to the people of Israel, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and I delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of all the kingdoms that were oppressing you.'

19: But you have this day rejected your God, who saves you from all your calamities and your distresses; and you have said, 'No! but set a king over us.' Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your thousands."

20: Then Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken by lot.

21: He brought the tribe of Benjamin near by its families, and the family of the Matrites was taken by lot; finally he brought the family of the Matrites near man by man, and Saul the son of Kish was taken by lot. But when they sought him, he could not be found.

22: So they inquired again of the LORD, "Did the man come hither?" and the LORD said, "Behold, he has hidden himself among the baggage."

v22: So they inquired again of the LORD, "Did the man come hither?" and the LORD said, "Behold, he has hidden himself among the stacks of wheat."

23: Then they ran and fetched him from there; and when he stood among the people, he was taller than any of the people from his shoulders upward.

24: And Samuel said to all the people, "Do you see him whom the LORD has chosen? There is none like him among all the people." And all the people shouted, "Long live the king!"

25: Then Samuel told the people the rights and duties of the kingship; and he wrote them in a book and laid it up before the LORD. Then Samuel sent all the people away, each one to his home.

26: Saul also went to his home at Gib'e-ah, and with him went men of valor whose hearts God had touched.

v26: Saul also went to his home at Gib'e-ah, and with him went super-grace men whose hearts God had touched.

27: But some worthless fellows said, "How can this man save us?" And they despised him, and brought him no present. But he held his peace.

v27: But some reversionistic men said, "How can this man save us?" And they despised him, and brought him no present. But he Saul, kept doing what he normally did plowing and planting .

Chapter 11

First Samuel, chapter 11

1: Then Nahash the Ammonite went up and besieged Ja'bish-gil'ead; and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Make a treaty with us, and we will serve you."

v1: Now Nachash the King of the Ammonites invaded and besieged Ja'bish-gil'ead; and all the men of Jabesh parleyed with Nachash, "Make or engrave a treaty of favorable terms with us, and we will be your slaves."

2: But Nahash the Ammonite said to them, "On this condition I will make a treaty with you, that I gouge out all your right eyes, and thus put disgrace upon all Israel."

v2: But Nachash the Ammonite said to them, "On this condition I will negotiate a treaty with you, by gouging out all your right eyes, and by this action I will make a disgrace or reproach upon all Israel."

3: The elders of Jabesh said to him, "Give us seven days respite that we may send messengers through all the territory of Israel. Then, if there is no one to save us, we will give ourselves up to you."

v3: The leaders of Jabesh said to him, "Give us seven days of armistice suspending hostilities with a cease fire in order that we may send out messengers through all the territory of Israel. Then, if there is no one to deliver us, we will surrender to you."

4: When the messengers came to Gib'e-ah of Saul, they reported the matter in the ears of the people; and all the people wept aloud.

v4: When the messengers came to Gib'e-ah the home town of Saul, they reported in great sadness the matter in the hearing of the people; and all the people lifted up their voices and kept on weeping aloud.

5: Now Saul was coming from the field behind the oxen; and Saul said, "What ails the people, that they are weeping?" So they told him the tidings of the men of Jabesh.

v5: Now behold, Saul came in from plowing in the field behind the oxen; and Saul said, "What wrong with these people, that they are all weeping?" So they recounted to him again the story of the men of Jabesh.

6: And the spirit of God came mightily upon Saul when he heard these words, and his anger was greatly kindled.

v6: And God the Holy Spirit advanced upon and flourished in and controlled Saul when he heard these words, and he burned with extremely intense indignation or anger.

7: He took a yoke of oxen, and cut them in pieces and sent them throughout all the territory of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, "Whoever does not come out after Saul and Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen!" Then the dread of the LORD fell upon the people, and they came out as one man.

v7: Then He took a yoke of oxen, and with great vigor cut them into pieces and immediately sent the pieces throughout all the territory of Israel by the hand of the crying messengers, with instructions to tell the people, "Whoever does not join with Saul and Samuel, so shall this be done wherever necessary to you and to your oxen as to these oxen!" Then respect for the LORD fell upon the people, and so they enlisted as one man.

8: When he mustered them at Bezek, the men of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.

v8: When he mustered and organized them at Bezek, the children or sons of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the Men of Judah thirty thousand.

9: And they said to the messengers who had come, "Thus shall you say to the men of Ja'bish-gil'ead: 'Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you shall have deliverance.'" When the messengers came and told the men of Jabesh, they were glad.

v9: Now they said to the messengers who had come, "Meanwhile shall you say to the men of Ja'bish-gil'ead: `Tomorrow, You shall have deliverance in the heat of the sun or by afternoon.'" Then the messengers went about 6 miles and told the men of Jabesh, they kept celebrating.

10: Therefore the men of Jabesh said, "Tomorrow we will give ourselves up to you, and you may do to us whatever seems good to you."

v10: Therefore the men of Jabesh stalled and mislead Nachash saying, "Tomorrow we will surrender ourselves to you, and you may do to us according to all that seems good in your EYES."

11: And on the morrow Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and cut down the Ammonites until the heat of the day; and those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

v11: Now it came to pass on the next day that Saul organized the army who had already crossed the Jordan into three corps; and they attacked using tactical envelopment the first corp into the center of the Ammonite camp in the morning watch, and the other corps executing the envelopment slaughtered the Ammonites until the heat of the day about 2:00 pm; and it came to pass that the ones who survived were scattered in all directions in panic, with the result that any two of them did not remain together.

12: Then the people said to Samuel, "Who is it that said, `Shall Saul reign over us?' Bring the men, that we may put them to death."

v12: Now the people wanting to ingratiate themselves to Saul jumped on the bandwagon and kept saying to Samuel, "Who is he that was saying, `Shall Saul reign over us?' Give us a battalion of men, that we may cause them to be put to death."

13: But Saul said, "Not a man shall be put to death this day, for today the LORD has wrought deliverance in Israel."

v13: Now Saul replied, "Not a man shall be caused to be put to death this day by vindictive petty people, for today the LORD has accomplished deliverance in Israel."

14: Then Samuel said to the people, "Come, let us go to Gilgal and there renew the kingdom."

v14: Now Samuel said to the people, "Let's get out of here and let these people rebuild, let us go to Gilgal and renew the kingdom."

15: So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal. There they sacrificed peace offerings before the LORD, and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

v15: So all the people in unity went to Gilgal, and there they caused Saul to become king before the Lord's permissive will in Gilgal. There they offered sacrifices in celebration of peace offerings recognizing the principle of reconciliation before the LORD, and there Saul and all the men of Israel celebrated with extreme exuberance.

Chapter 12

First Samuel, chapter 12

1: And Samuel said to all Israel, "Behold, I have hearkened to your voice in all that you have said to me, and have made a king over you.

2: And now, behold, the king walks before you; and I am old and gray, and behold, my sons are with you; and I have walked before you from my youth until this day.

3: Here I am; testify against me before the LORD and before his anointed. Whose ox have I taken? Or whose ass have I taken? Or whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed? Or from whose hand have I taken a bribe to blind my eyes with it? Testify against me and I will restore it to you."

4: They said, "You have not defrauded us or oppressed us or taken anything from any man's hand."

5: And he said to them, "The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand." And they said, "He is witness."

6: And Samuel said to the people, "The LORD is witness, who appointed Moses and Aaron and brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.

7: Now therefore stand still, that I may plead with you before the LORD concerning all the saving deeds of the LORD which he performed for you and for your fathers.

8: When Jacob went into Egypt and the Egyptians oppressed them, then your fathers cried to the LORD and the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, who brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place.

9: But they forgot the LORD their God; and he sold them into the hand of Sis'era, commander of the army of Jabin king of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab; and they fought against them.

10: And they cried to the LORD, and said, `We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, and have served the Ba'als and the Ash'taroth; but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve thee.'

11: And the LORD sent Jerubba'al and Barak, and Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side; and you dwelt in safety.

12: And when you saw that Nahash the king of the Ammonites came against you, you said to me, `No, but a king shall reign over us,' when the LORD your God was your king.

v12: And when you saw that Nahash the king of the Ammonites invaded against you, you kept saying to me, `No, No, No, for a king shall keep ruling over us,' but the Jehovah Elohim became and was your king.

13: And now behold the king whom you have chosen, for whom you have asked; behold, the LORD has set a king over you.

v13: And now behold the king whom you have chosen (Saul), the one for whom you have constantly begged; behold, the

Jehovah has given as king over you (the permissive will of God).

- 14: If you will fear the LORD and serve him and hearken to his voice and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, and if both you and the king who reigns over you will follow the LORD your God, it will be well;
- 15: but if you will not hearken to the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then the hand of the LORD will be against you and your king.
- 16: Now therefore stand still and see this great thing, which the LORD will do before your eyes.
- 17: Is it not wheat harvest today? I will call upon the LORD, that he may send thunder and rain; and you shall know and see that your wickedness is great, which you have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking for yourselves a king."
- 18: So Samuel called upon the LORD, and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day; and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.
- 19: And all the people said to Samuel, "Pray for your servants to the LORD your God, that we may not die; for we have added to all our sins this evil, to ask for ourselves a king."
- 20: And Samuel said to the people, "Fear not; you have done all this evil, yet do not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart;
- 21: and do not turn aside after vain things which cannot profit or save, for they are vain.
- 22: For the LORD will not cast away his people, for his great name's sake, because it has pleased the LORD to make you a people for himself.
- 23: Moreover as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you; and I will instruct you in the good and the right way.
- 24: Only fear the LORD, and serve him faithfully with all your heart; for consider what great things he has done for you.
- 25: But if you still do wickedly, you shall be swept away, both you and your king."

Chapter 13

First Samuel, chapter 13

- 1: Saul was . . . years old when he began to reign; and he reigned . . . and two years over Israel.
- 2: Saul chose three thousand men of Israel; two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and the hill country of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gib'e-ah of Benjamin; the rest of the people he sent home, every man to his tent.
- 3: Jonathan defeated the garrison of the Philistines which was at Geba; and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear."
- 4: And all Israel heard it said that Saul had defeated the garrison of the Philistines, and also that Israel had become odious to the Philistines. And the people were called out to join Saul at Gilgal.
- 5: And the Philistines mustered to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and troops like the sand on the seashore in multitude; they came up and encamped in Michmash, to the east of Beth-a'ven.
- 6: When the men of Israel saw that they were in straits (for the people were hard pressed), the people hid themselves in caves and in holes and in rocks and in tombs and in cisterns,
- 7: or crossed the fords of the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. Saul was still at Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.
- 8: He waited seven days, the time appointed by Samuel; but Samuel did not come to Gilgal, and the people were scattering from him.
- 9: So Saul said, "Bring the burnt offering here to me, and the peace offerings." And he offered the burnt offering.
- 10: As soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him and salute him.
- 11: Samuel said, "What have you done?" And Saul said, "When I saw that the people were scattering from me, and that you did not come within the days appointed, and that the Philistines had mustered at Michmash,
- 12: I said, 'Now the Philistines will come down upon me at Gilgal, and I have not entreated the favor of the LORD'; so I forced myself, and offered the burnt offering."
- 13: And Samuel said to Saul, "You have done foolishly; you have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God, which he commanded you; for now the LORD would have established your kingdom over Israel for ever.
- 14: But now your kingdom shall not continue; the LORD has sought out a man after his own heart; and the LORD has appointed him to be prince over his people, because you have not kept what the LORD commanded you."
- 15: And Samuel arose, and went up from Gilgal to Gib'e-ah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people who were present with him, about six hundred men.
- 16: And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people who were present with them, stayed in Geba of Benjamin; but the Philistines encamped in Michmash.
- 17: And raiders came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies; one company turned toward Ophrah, to the land of Shu'al,
- 18: another company turned toward Beth-hor'on, and another company turned toward the border that looks down upon the valley of Zebo'im toward the wilderness.
- 19: Now there was no smith to be found throughout all the land of Israel; for the Philistines said, "Lest the Hebrews make themselves swords or spears";
- 20: but every one of the Israelites went down to the Philistines to sharpen his plowshare, his mattock, his axe, or his sickle;
- 21: and the charge was a pim for the plowshares and for the mattocks, and a third of a shekel for sharpening the axes and for setting the goads.

22: So on the day of the battle there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people with Saul and Jonathan; but Saul and Jonathan his son had them.

23: And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

Chapter 14

First Samuel, chapter 14

1: One day Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man who bore his armor, "Come, let us go over to the Philistine garrison on yonder side." But he did not tell his father.

2: Saul was staying in the outskirts of Gib'e-ah under the pomegranate tree which is at Migron; the people who were with him were about six hundred men,

3: and Ahi'jah the son of Ahi'tub, Ich'abod's brother, son of Phin'ehas, son of Eli, the priest of the LORD in Shiloh, wearing an ephod. And the people did not know that Jonathan had gone.

4: In the pass, by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistine garrison, there was a rocky crag on the one side and a rocky crag on the other side; the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

5: The one crag rose on the north in front of Michmash, and the other on the south in front of Geba.

6: And Jonathan said to the young man who bore his armor, "Come, let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised; it may be that the LORD will work for us; for nothing can hinder the LORD from saving by many or by few."

7: And his armor-bearer said to him, "Do all that your mind inclines to; behold, I am with you, as is your mind so is mine."

8: Then said Jonathan, "Behold, we will cross over to the men, and we will show ourselves to them.

9: If they say to us, `Wait until we come to you,' then we will stand still in our place, and we will not go up to them.

10: But if they say, `Come up to us,' then we will go up; for the LORD has given them into our hand. And this shall be the sign to us."

11: So both of them showed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines; and the Philistines said, "Look, Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have hid themselves."

12: And the men of the garrison hailed Jonathan and his armor-bearer, and said, "Come up to us, and we will show you a thing." And Jonathan said to his armor-bearer, "Come up after me; for the LORD has given them into the hand of Israel."

13: Then Jonathan climbed up on his hands and feet, and his armor-bearer after him. And they fell before Jonathan, and his armor-bearer killed them after him;

14: and that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armor-bearer made, was of about twenty men within as it were half a furrow's length in an acre of land.

15: And there was a panic in the camp, in the field, and among all the people; the garrison and even the raiders trembled; the earth quaked; and it became a very great panic.

16: And the watchmen of Saul in Gib'e-ah of Benjamin looked; and behold, the multitude was surging hither and thither.

17: Then Saul said to the people who were with him, "Number and see who has gone from us." And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armor-bearer were not there.

18: And Saul said to Ahi'jah, "Bring hither the ark of God." For the ark of God went at that time with the people of Israel.

19: And while Saul was talking to the priest, the tumult in the camp of the Philistines increased more and more; and Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand."

20: Then Saul and all the people who were with him rallied and went into the battle; and behold, every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was very great confusion.

21: Now the Hebrews who had been with the Philistines before that time and who had gone up with them into the camp, even they also turned to be with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.

22: Likewise, when all the men of Israel who had hid themselves in the hill country of E'phraim heard that the Philistines were fleeing, they too followed hard after them in the battle.

23: So the LORD delivered Israel that day; and the battle passed beyond Beth-a'ven.

24: And the men of Israel were distressed that day; for Saul laid an oath on the people, saying, "Cursed be the man who eats food until it is evening and I am avenged on my enemies." So none of the people tasted food.

25: And all the people came into the forest; and there was honey on the ground.

26: And when the people entered the forest, behold, the honey was dropping, but no man put his hand to his mouth; for the people feared the oath.

27: But Jonathan had not heard his father charge the people with the oath; so he put forth the tip of the staff that was in his hand, and dipped it in the honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes became bright.

28: Then one of the people said, "Your father strictly charged the people with an oath, saying, `Cursed be the man who eats food this day.'" And the people were faint.

29: Then Jonathan said, "My father has troubled the land; see how my eyes have become bright, because I tasted a little of this honey.

30: How much better if the people had eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies which they found; for now the slaughter among the Philistines has not been great."

31: They struck down the Philistines that day from Michmash to Ai'jalon. And the people were very faint;

32: the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep and oxen and calves, and slew them on the ground; and the people ate them with the blood.

33: Then they told Saul, "Behold, the people are sinning against the LORD, by eating with the blood." And he said, "You have dealt treacherously; roll a great stone to me here."

34: And Saul said, "Disperse yourselves among the people, and say to them, 'Let every man bring his ox or his sheep, and slay them here, and eat; and do not sin against the LORD by eating with the blood.'" So every one of the people brought his ox with him that night, and slew them there.

35: And Saul built an altar to the LORD; it was the first altar that he built to the LORD.

36: Then Saul said, "Let us go down after the Philistines by night and despoil them until the morning light; let us not leave a man of them." And they said, "Do whatever seems good to you." But the priest said, "Let us draw near hither to God."

37: And Saul inquired of God, "Shall I go down after the Philistines? Wilt thou give them into the hand of Israel?" But he did not answer him that day.

38: And Saul said, "Come hither, all you leaders of the people; and know and see how this sin has arisen today.

39: For as the LORD lives who saves Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die." But there was not a man among all the people that answered him.

40: Then he said to all Israel, "You shall be on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side." And the people said to Saul, "Do what seems good to you."

41: Therefore Saul said, "O LORD God of Israel, why hast thou not answered thy servant this day? If this guilt is in me or in Jonathan my son, O LORD, God of Israel, give Urim; but if this guilt is in thy people Israel, give Thummim." And Jonathan and Saul were taken, but the people escaped.

42: Then Saul said, "Cast the lot between me and my son Jonathan." And Jonathan was taken.

43: Then Saul said to Jonathan, "Tell me what you have done." And Jonathan told him, "I tasted a little honey with the tip of the staff that was in my hand; here I am, I will die."

44: And Saul said, "God do so to me and more also; you shall surely die, Jonathan."

45: Then the people said to Saul, "Shall Jonathan die, who has wrought this great victory in Israel? Far from it! As the LORD lives, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he has wrought with God this day." So the people ransomed Jonathan, that he did not die.

46: Then Saul went up from pursuing the Philistines; and the Philistines went to their own place.

47: When Saul had taken the kingship over Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, against the Ammonites, against Edom, against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines; wherever he turned he put them to the worse.

48: And he did valiantly, and smote the Amal'ekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of those who plundered them.

49: Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Mal'chishu'a; and the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the first-born was Merab, and the name of the younger Michal;

v49: Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Mal'chishu'a; and the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the first-born was Merab, and the name of the younger Mikael (Like God);

50: and the name of Saul's wife was Ahin'o-am the daughter of Ahim'a-az. And the name of the commander of his army was Abner the son of Ner, Saul's uncle;

51: Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abi'el.

52: There was hard fighting against the Philistines all the days of Saul; and when Saul saw any strong man, or any valiant man, he attached him to himself.

Chapter 15 First Samuel, chapter 15

1: And Samuel said to Saul, "The LORD sent me to anoint you king over his people Israel; now therefore hearken to the words of the LORD.

2: Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'I will punish what Am'alek did to Israel in opposing them on the way, when they came up out of Egypt.

v2: Thus says the LORD of the armies, 'I remember when the Am'alekites did to Israel in opposing them on the way, when they came up out of Egypt.

3: Now go and smite Am'alek, and utterly destroy all that they have; do not spare them, but kill both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass."

v3: Now go and smite Am'alek, and utterly destroy all that they have; do not spare them, but kill both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass (representing their wealth)."

4: So Saul summoned the people, and numbered them in Tela'im, two hundred thousand men on foot, and ten thousand men of Judah.

v4: So Saul summoned the people, and numbered them in Tela'im, two hundred thousand Infantry, and ten thousand infantry of Judah.

5: And Saul came to the city of Am'alek, and lay in wait in the valley.

v5: And Saul came to the city of Am'alek, and set up an ambush in the valley.

6: And Saul said to the Ken'ites, "Go, depart, go down from among the Amal'ekites, lest I destroy you with them; for you showed kindness to all the people of Israel when they came up out of Egypt." So the Ken'ites departed from among the Amal'ekites.

v6: And Saul said to the Ken'ites, "Go, depart, separate from among the Amal'ekites, lest I destroy you with them; for you showed kindness to all the people of Israel when they came up out of Egypt." So the Ken'ites separated from among the Amal'ekites.

7: And Saul defeated the Amal'ekites, from Hav'ilah as far as Shur, which is east of Egypt.

8: And he took Agag the king of the Amal'ekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

9: But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep and of the oxen and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them; all that was despised and worthless they utterly destroyed.

v9: But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep and of the oxen and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was valuable, and would not utterly destroy them; but everything that was vile and worthless they utterly destroyed.

10: The word of the LORD came to Samuel:

11: "I repent that I have made Saul king; for he has turned back from following me, and has not performed my commandments." And Samuel was angry; and he cried to the LORD all night.

v11: "I have changed my mind that I have established Saul to be king; for he has turned back from following me, and has not performed my commandments." And Samuel was upset; and he cried to the LORD all night.

12: And Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning; and it was told Samuel, "Saul came to Carmel, and behold, he set up a monument for himself and turned, and passed on, and went down to Gilgal."

v12: And Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning; and it was told Samuel, "Saul came to Carmel, and behold, he set up a place for himself and hid all the wealth and turned, and passed on, and went down to Gilgal."

13: And Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said to him, "Blessed be you to the LORD; I have performed the commandment of the LORD."

v13: And Samuel came to Saul, and Saul piously lied to him, "Blessed be you of the LORD; I have performed the commandment of the LORD."

14: And Samuel said, "What then is this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?"

v14: And Samuel said, "I hear the sound of bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?"

15: Saul said, "They have brought them from the Amal'ekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice to the LORD your God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed."

16: Then Samuel said to Saul, "Stop! I will tell you what the LORD said to me this night." And he said to him, "Say on."

v16: Then Samuel said to Saul, "Stop where you are don't move! I will tell you what the LORD said to me this night." And Saul said to him, "Say on."

17: And Samuel said, "Though you are little in your own eyes, are you not the head of the tribes of Israel? The LORD anointed you king over Israel.

v17: And Samuel said, "Though you are little in your own eyes and grace oriented and truly humble, were you not made the head of the tribes of Israel? The LORD anointed you king over Israel.

18: And the LORD sent you on a mission, and said, 'Go, utterly destroy the sinners, the Amal'ekites, and fight against them until they are consumed.'

v18: And the LORD sent you on a mission, and said, 'Go, utterly destroy the degenerate, the Amal'ekites, and fight against them until they are utterly destroyed.'

19: Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD? Why did you swoop on the spoil, and do what was evil in the sight of the LORD?"

v19: Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD your God but did you swoop down on the spoil, and do what was evil in the sight of the LORD?"

20: And Saul said to Samuel, "I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, I have gone on the mission on which the LORD sent me, I have brought Agag the king of Am'alek, and I have utterly destroyed the Amal'ekites.

v20: And Saul said to Samuel, "I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, I have gone on the mission on which the LORD sent me, I have captured Agag the king of Am'alek, and I have utterly destroyed the Amal'ekites.

21: But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the best of the things devoted to destruction, to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal."

v21: But the people overruled me and took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the best of the things devoted to destruction, but with a good purpose in order to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal."

22: And Samuel said, "Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.

v22: And Samuel replied in summary to the hypocrisy of the reversionism of Saul, "Is it a pleasure to Jehovah burnt offerings and sacrifices which he has said must be executed along with the people OR in hearing and concentrating and obeying the voice of the LORD (Grace Apparatus for Perception)? Behold a principle of doctrine, to hear and concentrate using Grace Apparatus for Perception daily and consistently is better than sacrifice or ritual, and concentrating on the doctrine of the Lord is better than the fat of rams.

23: For rebellion is as the sin of divination, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has also rejected you from being king."

v23: For reversionism or rebellion from Negative Volition to Bible Doctrine is like the sin of all forms of divination, and rejection of authority of the communicator of Bible Doctrine is like the worship of idols and terephim or household ancestral gods. Because you have totally rejected or despised the word of the LORD for a long time, he will in the future also reject you from being king."

24: And Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned; for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD and your words, because I feared the people and obeyed their voice.

v24: And Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned; for I have passed over or ignored the commandment or message of the mouth of Jehovah and your doctrines, because I have feared the people and listened to their voice.

25: Now therefore, I pray, pardon my sin, and return with me, that I may worship the LORD."

v25: Now therefore, please, lift or offer up on the altar my sin offering for an unknown sin, and return with me, that I myself may worship the LORD."

26: And Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with you; for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel."

v26: And Samuel replied to Saul, "I will not return with you; because you have rejected the word of the LORD, consequently the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel."

27: As Samuel turned to go away, Saul laid hold upon the skirt of his robe, and it tore.

v27: As Samuel spun around in disgust to go away, Saul vigorously grabbed the edge of his woolen prophets robe, and it was ripped.

28: And Samuel said to him, "The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you this day, and has given it to a neighbor of yours, who is better than you.

v28: Therefore Samuel turned and said to him, "The LORD has torn away the kingdom of Israel from you this day, and has given it to a true friend of yours, who is exceedingly better than you will ever be.

29: And also the Glory of Israel will not lie or repent; for he is not a man, that he should repent."

v29: And also the mighty or strong or perfect one of Israel, God himself, will not lie nor change his mind; for he is not a man, that he should repent."

30: Then he said, "I have sinned; yet honor me now before the elders of my people and before Israel, and return with me, that I may worship the LORD your God."

31: So Samuel turned back after Saul; and Saul worshiped the LORD.

32: Then Samuel said, "Bring here to me Agag the king of the Amal'ekites." And Agag came to him cheerfully. Agag said, "Surely the bitterness of death is past."

33: And Samuel said, "As your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women." And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

34: Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house in Gib'e-ah of Saul.

35: And Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death, but Samuel grieved over Saul. And the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

Chapter 16

First Samuel, chapter 16

1: The LORD said to Samuel, "How long will you grieve over Saul, seeing I have rejected him from being king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil, and go; I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have provided for myself a king among his sons."

v1: The LORD decreed to Samuel, "How long will you feel sorry for yourself and for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from ruling as king over Israel but will give him every opportunity to recover from his reversionism? Fill your horn with oil, and go; I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have seen for myself a king among his sons."

2: And Samuel said, "How can I go? If Saul hears it, he will kill me." And the LORD said, "Take a heifer with you, and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.'

v2: And Samuel said, "How can I go? If Saul hears it, he will kill me slowly and violently with great torture." And the LORD said, "Take a heifer with you, and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.'

3: And invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do; and you shall anoint for me him whom I name to you."

4: Samuel did what the LORD commanded, and came to Bethlehem. The elders of the city came to meet him trembling, and said, "Do you come peaceably?"

5: And he said, "Peaceably; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD; consecrate yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice." And he consecrated Jesse and his sons, and invited them to the sacrifice.

6: When they came, he looked on Eli'ab and thought, "Surely the LORD'S anointed is before him."

v6: And it came to pass when they came, he kept looking at the very handsome Eli'ab and thought, "Surely the LORD'S anointed is facing him."

(warned Israel about this kind of thing before)

7: But the LORD said to Samuel, "Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him; for the LORD sees not as man sees; man looks on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart."

v7: But the Lord decreed to Samuel, "Do not look or on regard with respect Eli'ab's appearance or his outward stature, because I have permanently rejected or refused him, because God does not see as man sees, for Man looks on the outward appearance but God looks on the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul.

8: Then Jesse called Abin'adab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one."

9: Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one."

10: And Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. And Samuel said to Jesse, "The LORD has not chosen these."

11: And Samuel said to Jesse, "Are all your sons here?" And he said, "There remains yet the youngest, but behold, he is keeping the sheep." And Samuel said to Jesse, "Send and fetch him; for we will not sit down till he comes here."

12: And he sent, and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, and had beautiful eyes, and was handsome. And the LORD said, "Arise, anoint him; for this is he."

v12: And he sent, and brought him in. Now he had red hair, and had beautiful eyes, and was handsome. And the LORD said, "Arise, anoint him; for this is he."

13: Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brothers; and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon David from that day forward. And Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

v13: Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him with the commission from the Lord in the midst of his seven brothers; and the Spirit of Elohim descended upon David to produce prosperity from that day forward. And Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

14: Now the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD tormented him.

v14: Now the Spirit of Jehovah, God the Holy Spirit departed or was removed from Saul as discipline for reversionism, and a spirit of evil discipline from inward depression from reversionism permitted by the LORD totally terrified him (because of his mental attitude sins).

15: And Saul's servants said to him, "Behold now, an evil spirit from God is tormenting you."

v15: And Saul's high ranking governmental officials said to him, "Behold now, you have trouble in the soul or mental illness permitted by God to terrify you."

16: Let our lord now command your servants, who are before you, to seek out a man who is skilful in playing the lyre; and when the evil spirit from God is upon you, he will play it, and you will be well."

v16: Let our lord now command your officials, who are before you, to seek out a man who is skillful in playing the lyre or harp; and it will come to pass when the mental illness permitted by God is causing you to have mental aberrations he will play it, and you will be well."

17: So Saul said to his servants, "Provide for me a man who can play well, and bring him to me."

v17: So Saul said to his servants, "Look for someone for me a man who can play well, and bring him to me."

18: One of the young men answered, "Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skilful in playing, a man of valor, a man of war, prudent in speech, and a man of good presence; and the LORD is with him."

v18: Then answered One of the officers in the government, "Behold, I have observed a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skilful in playing a musical instrument, a man who is well prepared and, a successful well trained military man, constantly learning Bible Doctrine, and a man handsome in appearance; and the LORD is with him."

19: Therefore Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, "Send me David your son, who is with the sheep."

20: And Jesse took an ass laden with bread, and a skin of wine and a kid, and sent them by David his son to Saul.

v20: And Jesse took an ass laden with bread, and a skin of wine and a dressed young goat, and sent them by David his son to Saul (as a bribe).

21: And David came to Saul, and entered his service. And Saul loved him greatly, and he became his armor-bearer.

22: And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, "Let David remain in my service, for he has found favor in my sight."

23: And whenever the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, David took the lyre and played it with his hand; so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

1Sam 16:23

v23: And it came to pass when the evil spirit permitted by God came to Saul to pressure him from the outside, David would take up his lyre and play it with his hand; so Saul was refreshed or tranquilized from the music, and would become well, and the evil spirit would depart from him.

Chapter 17

First Samuel, chapter 17

1: Now the Philistines gathered their armies for battle; and they were gathered at Socoh, which belongs to Judah, and encamped between Socoh and Aze'kah, in E'phes-dam'mim.

v1: Now the Philistines the Greek Sea People, gathered and mobilized their armies for battle; and were assembled and began to maneuver to Socoh in 1010 BC, which belongs to Judah, and encamped between Socoh and Aze'kah, in E'phes-dam'mim the valley of Blood.

2: And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered, and encamped in the valley of Elah, and drew up in line of battle against the Philistines.

3: And the Philistines stood on the mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on the mountain on the other side, with a valley between them.

4: And there came out from the camp of the Philistines a champion named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.

v4: And there went out from the camp of the Philistines an individual fighter as middle man to stand in an arena area for challenge named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span or 117 inches or 9'9".

5: He had a helmet of bronze on his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail, and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of bronze.

v5: He had a helmet of bronze on his head, and he was armed with a coat of iron scale mail, and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of bronze or 125 pounds.

6: And he had greaves of bronze upon his legs, and a javelin of bronze slung between his shoulders.

v6: And he had greaves or shin guards of bronze upon his legs, and a javelin of bronze slung between his shoulders.

7: And the shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron; and his shield-bearer went before him.

v7: And the shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron or 17 lbs; and his shield-bearer went before him.

8: He stood and shouted to the ranks of Israel, "Why have you come out to draw up for battle? Am I not a Philistine, and are you not servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me.

v8: He stood alone in the neutral area between the 2 armies and and shouted a challenge to the ranks of the army of Israel, and said to them, "Why have you advanced or come out to form ranks for battle? Am I not a Philistine from a great Greek warrior race, while you are the degenerated slaves of Saul? Choose a man from among you for yourselves, and let him come down or descend to me in the valley.

9: If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will be your servants; but if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall be our servants and serve us."

v9: If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will be your servants; but if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall be our servants and serve us."

10: And the Philistine said, "I defy the ranks of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together."

v10: And the Philistine said, "I totally scorn and reproach the ranks of the army of Israel this day; give me a man (I know you don't have one), that we may fight each other."

11: When Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and greatly afraid.

v11: When Saul and all the army of Israel, who have been successful in battle before, heard this challenge of the Philistine, they were totally terrified for 40 days.

12: Now David was the son of an Eph'rathite of Bethlehem in Judah, named Jesse, who had eight sons. In the days of Saul the man was already old and advanced in years.

v12: Now David was the son of an Eph'rathite of Bethlehem in Judah, named Jesse, who had eight sons. In the days of Saul the man was already old and advanced in years already known and a small important person in his town.

13: The three eldest sons of Jesse had followed Saul to the battle; and the names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eli'ab the first-born, and next to him Abin'adab, and the third Shammah.

14: David was the youngest; the three eldest followed Saul, v14: David was the youngest; the three eldest were commissioned officers who followed Saul, 15: but David went back and forth from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem.

v15: but David had gone to Saul as Aide de Camp and chief armor bearer and then returned to shepherd his father's sheep at Bethlehem.

16: For forty days the Philistine came forward and took his stand, morning and evening.

v16: For forty days the Philistine came forward and took his stand challenging, morning and evening.

17: And Jesse said to David his son, "Take for your brothers an ephah of this parched grain, and these ten loaves, and carry them quickly to the camp to your brothers;

v17: And Jesse said to David his son, "Take for your brothers an ephah of this parched grain, and these ten loaves, and run them quickly to the camp to your brothers;

18: also take these ten cheeses to the commander of their thousand. See how your brothers fare, and bring some token from them."

v18: also carry these ten cheeses to the battalion commander. Get assurances as to how your brothers are doing, and bring some message from them."

19: Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

v19: Now Saul, and the brothers, and all the ranks of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, maneuvering around for 40 days from the Philistines.

20: And David rose early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took the provisions, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the encampment as the host was going forth to the battle line, shouting the war cry.

v20: And David rose early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took the provisions, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the first perimeter encampment as the army was going forth maneuver and form up for battle line, shouting the orders.

21: And Israel and the Philistines drew up for battle, army against army.

v21: And Israel and the Philistines drew up for battle, army against army.

22: And David left the things in charge of the keeper of the baggage, and ran to the ranks, and went and greeted his brothers.

v22: And David left the provisions in charge of the keeper of the provisions, and ran to the ranks, and went and greeted his brothers.

23: As he talked with them, behold, the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, came up out of the ranks of the Philistines, and spoke the same words as before. And David heard him.

v23: As he talked with them, and behold, the middle man who decides the battle by individual combat, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, came up the hill of the valley out of the ranks of the Philistines very close to the ranks of Israel, and kept speaking the same words as before. And David was listening to him.

24: All the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were much afraid.

v24: When All the men of Israel saw the man Goliath, they fled from him, and were terribly afraid.

25: And the men of Israel said, "Have you seen this man who has come up? Surely he has come up to defy Israel; and the man who kills him, the king will enrich with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel."

26: And David said to the men who stood by him, "What shall be done for the man who kills this Philistine, and takes away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?"

v26: Then David kept speaking to the soldiers who stood around him, "What shall be provided for the man who violently kills this Philistine in combat, and causes to depart the dishonor from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should degrade or bring dishonor to the armies of the living Gods, God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit?"

27: And the people answered him in the same way, "So shall it be done to the man who kills him."

v27: And the people answered him after this manner saying, "So shall greater and greater rewards be manufactured for the man who kills him in battle."

28: Now Eli'ab his eldest brother heard when he spoke to the men; and Eli'ab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, "Why have you come down? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your presumption, and the evil of your heart; for you have come down to see the battle."

v28: And Eli'ab his handsome eldest brother kept listening to the whole conversation of David when he spoke intensively to the men and realized that his little brother was about to accept the challenge; and Eli'ab's anger was inflamed by his jealousy against David, and he said, "For what reason have you come down from the mountains of Bethlehem? And with whom have you abandoned those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your arrogance, and the deformity of the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of your Soul; for you a child have come down to watch us fight."

29: And David said, "What have I done now? Was it not but a word?"

v29: And David said, "What have I manufactured now? Is this not a doctrinal issue?"

30: And he turned away from him toward another, and spoke in the same way; and the people answered him again as before.

31: When the words which David spoke were heard, they repeated them before Saul; and he sent for him.

v31: When the words which David spoke were overheard, they related or repeated or announced them in the presence of Saul; and he sent for David.

32: And David said to Saul, "Let no man's heart fail because of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine."

v32: And David said to Saul, "Let no man's Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul fall into reversionism because of him (Goliath); I myself will Advance and fight with this Philistine."

33: And Saul said to David, "You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are but a youth, and he has been a man of war from his youth."

v33: And Saul said to David, "You never had the ability and never will be able to go and fight in individual combat against this Philistine; for you are without combat experience, and he has been a man of war from his youth."

34: But David said to Saul, "Your servant used to keep sheep for his father; and when there came a lion, or a bear, and took a lamb from the flock, v34: But David answered Saul back saying, "Your servant was shepherding his father's sheep; and there came a lion, or a bear, and took a lamb from the flock, 35: I went after him and smote him and delivered it out of his mouth; and if he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him and killed him.

v35: I went after him and struck him and delivered it out of his mouth; and if he arose against me, I caught him by his mane, and struck him in combat and caused him to die and the bear I lifted up and also killed him in combat.

36: Your servant has killed both lions and bears; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be like one of them, seeing he has defied the armies of the living God."

v36: Your servant has killed both the lion and on another occasion the bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall become like one of them, because he has defied the armies of the living God."

37: And David said, "The LORD who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine." And Saul said to David, "Go, and the LORD be with you!"

v37: And David said, "Moreover The LORD who caused me to be delivered from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, He will deliver me again from the hand of this Philistine." And Saul said to David, "Go, and the LORD be with you!"

38: Then Saul clothed David with his armor; he put a helmet of bronze on his head, and clothed him with a coat of mail.

v38: Then Saul caused David to be armed with his armor; he put a helmet of bronze on his head, and clothed him with a coat of mail.

39: And David girded his sword over his armor, and he tried in vain to go, for he was not used to them. Then David said to Saul, "I cannot go with these; for I am not used to them." And David put them off.

v39: And David girded Saul's sword over his armor, and he refused to go, for he had not battle tested this equipment. Then David said to Saul, "I cannot go with these; for I have not proved or tested them them." And David all of this armor off.

40: Then he took his staff in his hand, and chose five smooth stones from the brook, and put them in his shepherd's bag or wallet; his sling was in his hand, and he drew near to the Philistine.

v40: Then he seized his his staff in his hand, and carefully selected for himself five stones with good trajectory ability from the brook (1 for each of the giants in the philistine army), and put them in his shepherd's bag or wallet; his sling was in his hand, and he kept on moving in or closing in to the Philistine.

41: And the Philistine came on and drew near to David, with his shield-bearer in front of him.

v41: And the Philistine came on and drew near to David, with his shield-bearer in front of him.

42: And when the Philistine looked, and saw David, he disdained him; for he was but a youth, ruddy and comely in appearance.

v42: And when the Philistine Goliath was caused to look out in small segments from his heavy helmet, and saw David as his opponent, he ridiculed, scorned, despised and disdained him; for he was but a young man of 24 years, red headed and very handsome in appearance.

43: And the Philistine said to David, "Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?" And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.

v43: And the Philistine said to David, "Am I a filthy wild dog, that you come to me with sticks?" And the Philistine reviled, or vilified or put down or cursed David by David's Elohim.

44: The Philistine said to David, "Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and to the beasts of the field."

v44: The Philistine said to David, "Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the vultures of the air and to the hyenas of the field."

45: Then David said to the Philistine, "You come to me with a sword and with a spear and with a javelin; but I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied.

v45: Then David said to the Philistine, "You come to me with an iron sword and with a Javelin spear and with a spare bronze javelin with a leather slinging loop; but I close in to you in the name of the LORD of the Armies, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have degraded, dishonored, defamed, scorned and defied.

46: This day the LORD will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you down, and cut off your head; and I will give the dead bodies of the host of the Philistines this day to the birds of the air and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, v46: This day, which the Lord has given me again, the LORD will deliver you into the power of my hand, and I will cause you to die violently, and I will cause your head to be removed from your body; and I will give your body and the corpses of the armies of the Philistines this day as food for the vultures of the air and to the hyena's of the earth; that all the land of the earth may keep on knowing that there is a God in Israel,

47: and that all this assembly may know that the LORD saves not with sword and spear; for the battle is the LORD'S and he will give you into our hand."

v47: and that all this multitude or assembly of cowardly maneuvering men of the armies of Israel, may know that the LORD not with sword and not with the spear shall deliver; the battle is the LORD'S and he, God, will give you into our hand."

48: When the Philistine arose and came and drew near to meet David, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet the Philistine.

v48: And it came to pass or it happened that when the Philistine armed himself with hostile intent and kept advancing closing the gap to encounter David, David moved forward with great speed rushing as quickly as possible toward the battle line to meet the Philistine in battle.

49: And David put his hand in his bag and took out a stone, and slung it, and struck the Philistine on his forehead; the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the ground.

v49: And David vigorously and decisively thrust his hand into his ammunition bag with determination and quickly seized with purpose a stone and fired it from his sling, and with the result that it struck the Philistine on his forehead so hard with the result that the stone penetrated into his forehead and stunned him, and he, the Giant, fell on his face to the ground.

50: So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and struck the Philistine, and killed him; there was no sword in the hand of David.

v50: So David established his position of ascendancy for winning over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and struck the Philistine, and consequently he rendered the Philistine out of the Battle and he caused the Philistine to die; but there was no sword in the hand of David.

51: Then David ran and stood over the Philistine, and took his sword and drew it out of its sheath, and killed him, and cut off his head with it. When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.

v51: Therefore David ran swiftly ran and jumped up upon the Philistine, and seized his sword and rapidly drew it out of its sheath, and killed him by decapitating the Philistine with it. When the other Philistines saw that their hero had been caused to be killed, they started to run away.

52: And the men of Israel and Judah rose with a shout and pursued the Philistines as far as Gath and the gates of Ekron, so that the wounded Philistines fell on the way from Sha-ara'im as far as Gath and Ekron.

v52: And the men of Israel and Judah were caused to rise up when David killed Goliath, and were caused to shout and vigorously pursued the Philistines as far as Gath and the gates of Ekron, so that the mortally wounded and pierced Philistines fell down on the way from Sha-ara'im as far as Gath and Ekron.

53: And the Israelites came back from chasing the Philistines, and they plundered their camp.

v53: And the Israelites returned from the city gates after chasing the Philistines to their fortified cities, and they plundered their camp.

54: And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armor in his tent.

v54: And David seized violently the head of the Philistine and was caused to bring it to Jerusalem; but he put Goliath's armor in his, David's tent.

55: When Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the commander of the army, "Abner, whose son is this youth?" And Abner said, "As your soul lives, O king, I cannot tell."

v55: When Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the commanding general of the army, "Abner, whose son is this youth (Who is his father v25)?" And Abner said, "As your soul lives, O king, I cannot tell."

56: And the king said, "Inquire whose son the stripling is."

v56: And the king said, "Inquire whose son the young man is or check on his lineage."

57: And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

58: And Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, young man?" And David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

Chapter 18

First Samuel, chapter 18

1: When he had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.

v1: So it came to pass when he, David had finished a long conversation speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was chained to the soul of David, and Jonathan kept loving him in friendship as his own soul.

2: And Saul took him that day, and would not let him return to his father's house.

3: Then Jonathan made a covenant with David, because he loved him as his own soul.

v3: Then Jonathan and David made an agreement, because he, Jonathan loved him, David as his own soul.

4: And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his armor, and even his sword and his bow and his girdle.

v4: And Jonathan stripped himself of the crown princes robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his armor, and even his sword and his bow and his military belt.

5: And David went out and was successful wherever Saul sent him; so that Saul set him over the men of war. And this was good in the sight of all the people and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

v5: And David went out as a regular army officer wherever Saul sent him on military missions and applied Bible Doctrine to his experiences in battle and prospered and became very successful; so that Saul promoted him over the men of war. And did very well in the sight of all the people and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

6: As they were coming home, when David returned from slaying the Philistine, the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with timbrels, with songs of joy, and with instruments of music.

v6: And it came to pass as they were coming home, when David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with timbrels, with songs of joy, and with instruments of music because they are protected by their strong military.

7: And the women sang to one another as they made merry, "Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands."

v7: And the women sang in antipathy answering one another as they sang, "Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands."

8: And Saul was very angry, and this saying displeased him; he said, "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed thousands; and what more can he have but the kingdom?"

v8: And Saul was completely enraged, because the lyrics in the song displeased him or were evil in his eyes or thinking; he said, "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed thousands; and what more can he have but the kingdom?"

9: And Saul eyed David from that day on.

v9: And Saul became jealous of David from that day on.

10: And on the morrow an evil spirit from God rushed upon Saul, and he raved within his house, while David was playing the lyre, as he did day by day. Saul had his spear in his hand;

v10: And on the next day Demon Influence rushed upon reversionistic Saul and was permitted by God along with his reversionism discipline, and he raved within his house, while David was playing the lyre with his hands, as he did at other times. Saul had his spear in his hand;

11: and Saul cast the spear, for he thought, "I will pin David to the wall." But David evaded him twice.

v11: and Saul cast the spear, for he said, "I will smite David and pin David to the wall." But David evaded him on two other different occasions.

12: Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him but had departed from Saul.

v12: And Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him but had departed from Saul.

13: So Saul removed him from his presence, and made him a commander of a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people.

v13: So Saul found a position for him and caused him to depart from his presence, and promoted him to a battalion commander of a thousand; and he went out to war and came in safely and victorious before the people.

14: And David had success in all his undertakings; for the LORD was with him.

v14: And David prospered in all his undertakings; for the LORD was with him.

15: And when Saul saw that he had great success, he stood in awe of him.

v15: And when Saul saw that he had great success, he became antagonistic toward him .

16: But all Israel and Judah loved David; for he went out and came in before them.

v16: But all Israel and Judah had great respect for David; for he went out to battle and combat and was very successful because of his reliance on Metabolized Bible Doctrine in his Stream of Consciousnes

17: Then Saul said to David, "Here is my elder daughter Merab; I will give her to you for a wife; only be valiant for me and fight the LORD'S battles." For Saul thought, "Let not my hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him."

v17: Then Saul said to David, "Here is my elder daughter Merab (meaning Abundance or Stacked); I will give her to you for a wife; only be valiant for me and fight the LORD'S battles." For Saul schemed in his thinking, "Let not my hand be upon him to kill him, but let the hand of the Philistines be the ones who kill him."

18: And David said to Saul, "Who am I, and who are my kinsfolk, my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?"

v18: And David said to Saul, "Who am I, and what is my life or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?"

19: But at the time when Merab, Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, she was given to A'driel the Meho'lathite for a wife.

20: Now Saul's daughter Michal loved David; and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.

v20: Now Saul's daughter Mikael (brook or Like God) kept on loving David with only emotional attraction and infatuation; and the people were caused to tell Saul the matter, because she talked about David constantly, and the situation delighted or pleased or was agreeable to him.

21: Saul thought, "Let me give her to him, that she may be a snare for him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him." Therefore Saul said to David a second time, "You shall now be my son-in-law."

v21: Saul thought, "Let me give her to him, that she may be a snare or trap for him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be able to kill him because she will break his heart." Therefore Saul said to David a second time, "You shall now be my son-in-law but you will have 2 days to do this."

22: And Saul commanded his servants, "Speak to David in private and say, `Behold, the king has delight in you, and all his servants love you; now then become the king's son-in-law.'"

v22: And Saul commanded his soldiers, "Speak to David secretly saying, `Behold, the king has delight in you, and all his soldiers love you; now then become the king's son-in-law.'"

23: And Saul's servants spoke those words in the ears of David. And David said, "Does it seem to you a little thing to become the king's son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man and of no repute?"

v23: And Saul's servants spoke those words in the ears of David. And David said, "Does it seem to you insignificant or a little thing in your eyes to become the king's son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man and I could not afford a dowry for her and am of no importance or reputation and not worthy of this?"

24: And the servants of Saul told him, "Thus and so did David speak."

v24: And the soldiers of Saul reported to him, "This is what David said."

25: Then Saul said, "Thus shall you say to David, `The king desires no marriage present except a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, that he may be avenged of the king's enemies.'" Now Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

v25: Then Saul replied, "Thus shall you report to David, `The king desires no dowry except a hundred foreskins or genitals of the Philistines, that he may be avenged of the king's enemies.'" Now Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

26: And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son-in-law. Before the time had expired, v26: And when his soldiers told David these words, it was agreeable for David to be the king's son-in-law. And the time limit had not expired, 27: David arose and went, along with his men, and killed two hundred of the Philistines; and David brought their foreskins, which were given in full number to the king, that he might become the king's son-in-law. And Saul gave him his daughter Michal for a wife.

v27: Therefore David in a decisive decision arose and went, along with his men, and they killed in combat two hundred of the Philistines; and David was caused to bring their foreskins or genitals, which were presented in full number to the king who had to count them, that he might become the king's son-in-law. Therefore Saul gave him his daughter Mikael for a wife.

28: But when Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that all Israel loved him, v28: But when Saul saw and kept knowing that the LORD Jehovah was with David, and that Mikael and all Israel loved him, 29: Saul was still more afraid of David. So Saul was David's enemy continually.

v29: Saul was still more afraid of David. So Saul became David's enemy continually.

30: Then the princes of the Philistines came out to battle, and as often as they came out David had more success than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was highly esteemed.

v30: Then the princes of the Philistines came out to battle, and as often as they came out David had more success than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was highly esteemed.

Chapter 19

First Samuel, chapter 19

1: And Saul spoke to Jonathan his son and to all his servants, that they should kill David. But Jonathan, Saul's son, delighted much in David.

v1: And Saul in reversionism spoke to Jonathan his son and to all his general staff, that they should put out the order to kill David. But Jonathan, Saul's son, delighted much with category III Love in or had great rapport with David.

2: And Jonathan told David, "Saul my father seeks to kill you; therefore take heed to yourself in the morning, stay in a secret place and hide yourself;

v2: And Jonathan told David, "Saul, my father, has put out a general order to kill you; Now therefore be on the guard for yourself against the situation in the morning, stay in a secret place and hide yourself;

3: and I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak to my father about you; and if I learn anything I will tell you."

v3: and I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak to my father about you; and what I learn I will tell you."

4: And Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul his father, and said to him, "Let not the king sin against his servant David; because he has not sinned against you, and because his deeds have been of good service to you;

v4: And Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul his father, and said to him, "Let not the king do a great injustice against his servant David; because he has not done any injustice against you, and because his military conduct and performance have been of good service to you;

5: for he took his life in his hand and he slew the Philistine, and the LORD wrought a great victory for all Israel. You saw it, and rejoiced; why then will you sin against innocent blood by killing David without cause?"

v5: for he put his life in danger many times above and beyond the call of duty and he annihilated the Philistine, and the LORD manufactured a great victory for all Israel out of David's Super-grace. You saw it, and rejoiced for a long time afterward; why then will you sin against innocent blood by killing David without cause?"

6: And Saul hearkened to the voice of Jonathan; Saul swore, "As the LORD lives, he shall not be put to death."

v6: And Saul listened carefully to the voice of Jonathan; Saul made a most solemn oath, "As the LORD lives, he shall not be put to death."

7: And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan showed him all these things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as before.

v7: And Jonathan happily went after David, and Jonathan related to him step by step all these things that he was restored to his leadership position. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence back in favor as in times past.

8: And there was war again; and David went out and fought with the Philistines, and made a great slaughter among them, so that they fled before him.

v8: And the war intensified again; and David went out and kept fighting in battle with the Philistines, and caused them to be killed violently in a great slaughter, so that they fled in panic before him, David.

9: Then an evil spirit from the LORD came upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand; and David was playing the lyre.

v9: Then an evil spirit from demon influence permitted by LORD in intensified discipline for the Mental Attitude Sins resulting from reversionism, attacked Saul and influenced him causing him to enter the intensified stage of reversionism, as he was living in his castle playing with his javelin in his hand; and David was playing the harp.

10: And Saul sought to pin David to the wall with the spear; but he eluded Saul, so that he struck the spear into the wall. And David fled, and escaped.

v10: And Saul sought to kill David by pinning him to the wall with the javelin; but David having a sudden burst of energy dodged the javelin and eluded Saul, so that he struck the spear into the wall. And David fled, and escaped.

11: That night Saul sent messengers to David's house to watch him, that he might kill him in the morning. But Michal, David's wife, told him, "If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be killed."

v11: That night Saul also sent assassins to David's palace watch for him to ensure he would never leave without being killed and to cause him to die or Kill him in the morning. But Mikael, David's wife because of her emotional love for him, related to him the whole plot against him, "If your soul does not escape tonight, tomorrow you will be assassinated."

12: So Michal let David down through the window; and he fled away and escaped.

v12: So Michal caused him to be lowered down through a window; and he went and fled away undetected and escaped.

13: Michal took an image and laid it on the bed and put a pillow of goats' hair at its head, and covered it with the clothes.

v13: Michal took an image of the goddess of love and worshiped it and laid it on the bed and put a pillow of goats' hair at its head to make it look like David, and covered it with David's clothes.

14: And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, "He is sick."

v14: And when Saul sent assassins to take David, she said, "He is sick."

15: Then Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him."

v15: Then Saul sent the assassins to see David, saying, "Cause him to be lifted up to me in my palace in the bed, that I may cause him to die or kill him."

16: And when the messengers came in, behold, the image was in the bed, with the pillow of goats' hair at its head.

v16: And when the assassins came in, behold, the image was in the bed, with the pillow of goats' hair at its head.

17: Saul said to Michal, "Why have you deceived me thus, and let my enemy go, so that he has escaped?" And Michal answered Saul, "He said to me, 'Let me go; why should I kill you?'"

v17: Saul said to Mikael, "Why have you deceived me thus, and sent away my enemy, he has escaped?" And Michal gave a once and for all answer to Saul, "He, David, said to me, 'Let me go, Let me go; or I will kill you?'"

18: Now David fled and escaped, and he came to Samuel at Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt at Nai'oth.

v18: Now David ran away and thought he was leaving the greatest woman alive and received a deliverance from God which he did not even know about, and he kept going without stopping until he came to Samuel at Ramah, and was caused by the pressures and neglect of Bible Doctrine to relate to him all the evil that Saul had manufactured toward him. And he and Samuel went still advancing in the Spiritual Life and dwelt in happiness, prosperity and blessing at Nai'oth.

19: And it was told Saul, "Behold, David is at Nai'oth in Ramah."

20: Then Saul sent messengers to take David; and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as head over them, the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied.

v20: Then Saul sent soldiers to capture David; and when they saw the students of the theological school being taught, and Samuel standing with authority teaching them, the Spirit of God came upon the soldiers of Saul restraining them as they broke into the classroom, and they also listened extremely intensively under divine inspiration to the teaching of Samuel.

21: When it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also prophesied.

v21: When it was told Saul, he sent other soldiers with specific demanding orders, and they also listened extremely intensively to the teaching. And Saul sent a third company of soldiers, and they also listened to the teaching.

22: Then he himself went to Ramah, and came to the great well that is in Secu; and he asked, "Where are Samuel and David?" And one said, "Behold, they are at Nai'oth in Ramah."

v22: Then he himself went to Ramah, and came to the great well that is in Secu; and he asked, "Where are Samuel and David?" And one said, "Behold, they are at Nai'oth the seminary in Ramah."

23: And he went from there to Nai'oth in Ramah; and the Spirit of God came upon him also, and as he went he prophesied, until he came to Nai'oth in Ramah.

v23: And he went from there to Nai'oth in Ramah as fast as possible without thinking about himself; and the Spirit of God came upon him also, and as he went he began to listen before he got to Nai'oth becoming ecstatic and he himself received information, until he came to Nai'oth in Ramah.

24: And he too stripped off his clothes, and he too prophesied before Samuel, and lay naked all that day and all that night. Hence it is said, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

v24: And he stripped off all his clothes after he arrived, and he too received teaching from the face of Samuel, and fell down on the floor of the classroom being naked all that day and all that night. Therefore the people of Israel kept on remarking, "Is Saul also among the theological students?"

Chapter 20

First Samuel, chapter 20

1: Then David fled from Nai'oth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, "What have I done? What is my guilt? And what is my sin before your father, that he seeks my life?"

v1: Then David fled from Nai'oth in Ramah, and came and kept saying to Jonathan, "What have I done? What is my guilt? And what is my sin before your father, that he seeks my life?"

2: And he said to him, "Far from it! You shall not die. Behold, my father does nothing either great or small without disclosing it to me; and why should my father hide this from me? It is not so."

v2: And he Jonathan said to him, "Definitely Not you are blasphemous, You will not die. Behold, my father is helpless and can do nothing either great or small without disclosing it to me; and why should my father hide this from me? There is nothing in this (Jonathan believed his fathers promise to NOT kill David)."

3: But David replied, "Your father knows well that I have found favor in your eyes; and he thinks, 'Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved.' But truly, as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, there is but a step between me and death."

v3: But David replied taking a solemn oath, "Your father certainly knows well that I have found grace in your eyes; and he, Saul, thinks, 'Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved.' But truly, as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, there is no doubt that there is but a step between me and death."

4: Then said Jonathan to David, "Whatever you say, I will do for you."

v4: Then said Jonathan to David, "Whatever your soul says so, I will do for you."

5: David said to Jonathan, "Behold, tomorrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit at table with the king; but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field till the third day at evening.

v5: David said to Jonathan, "Behold, tomorrow is the National Holiday of the Feast of the new moon, and I should not fail to sit at table with the king; but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field till the third day at evening.

6: If your father misses me at all, then say, 'David earnestly asked leave of me to run to Bethlehem his city; for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.'

v6: If your father misses me at all, then make an excuse and lie for me saying, 'David earnestly asked leave of me to run to Bethlehem his city; for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.'

7: If he says, 'Good!' it will be well with your servant; but if he is angry, then know that evil is determined by him.

v7: If he says, 'Good!' it will be well with your servant; but if becoming angry he gets more and more angry, then know that evil is determined by him for me.

8: Therefore deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a sacred covenant with you. But if there is guilt in me, slay me yourself; for why should you bring me to your father?"

v8: Therefore you have manufactured Grace toward your servant, for you have caused your servant to be brought into a sacred covenant of friendship with you. But if there is guilt in me, cause me to be killed yourself; for why should you bring me to your father?"

9: And Jonathan said, "Far be it from you! If I knew that it was determined by my father that evil should come upon you, would I not tell you?"

v9: And Jonathan said, "This will not happen to you! If I knew that it was determined by my father that evil should come upon you, would I not have already told you?"

10: Then said David to Jonathan, "Who will tell me if your father answers you roughly?"

v10: Then said David to Jonathan, "Who will tell me if your father answers you stubbornly or obstinately?"

11: And Jonathan said to David, "Come, let us go out into the field." So they both went out into the field.

v11: And Jonathan said to David, "Come, let us go out into the field so no one to hear." So they both went out into the field.

12: And Jonathan said to David, "The LORD, the God of Israel, be witness! When I have sounded my father, about this time tomorrow, or the third day, behold, if he is well disposed toward David, shall I not then send and disclose it to you?"

v12: And Jonathan said to David, "I swear by The LORD, the God of Israel Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, be witness! When I have examined my father, about this time tomorrow, or the third day, behold, if he is well disposed toward David, shall I not then send and disclose it to you?"

13: But should it please my father to do you harm, the LORD do so to Jonathan, and more also, if I do not disclose it to you, and send you away, that you may go in safety. May the LORD be with you, as he has been with my father.

14: If I am still alive, show me the loyal love of the LORD, that I may not die;

v14: As long as I am still alive, And you manufacture out of Grace out of the LORD, that I do not die;

15: and do not cut off your loyalty from my house for ever. When the LORD cuts off every one of the enemies of David from the face of the earth, v15: Also do not be caused to cut off your Grace from my house forever. Not when the LORD cuts off every one of the enemies of David from the face of the earth, 16: let not the name of Jonathan be cut off from the house of David. And may the LORD take vengeance on David's enemies."

v16: Then Jonathan cut a covenant with David. And let the LORD seek vengeance on David's enemies."

17: And Jonathan made David swear again by his love for him; for he loved him as he loved his own soul.

v17: And Jonathan caused David to add another solemn oath again because of Jonathan's love to David; for he had loved him as he loved his own soul.

18: Then Jonathan said to him, "Tomorrow is the new moon; and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty.

v18: Then Jonathan said to him, "Tomorrow is the new moon; and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty.

19: And on the third day you will be greatly missed; then go to the place where you hid yourself when the matter was in hand, and remain beside yonder stone heap.

v19: And on the third day you will be greatly missed; then go to the place where you hid yourself when the matter was in hand, and remain beside yonder stone heap.

20: And I will shoot three arrows to the side of it, as though I shot at a mark.

v20: And I will shoot three arrows to the side of it, as though I shot at a mark.

21: And behold, I will send the lad, saying, 'Go, find the arrows.' If I say to the lad, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you, take them,' then you are to come, for, as the LORD lives, it is safe for you and there is no danger.

v21: And behold, I will send the lad, saying, 'Go, find the arrows.' If I say to the lad, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you, take them,' then you are to come, for, as the LORD lives, it is safe for you and there is no danger.

22: But if I say to the youth, 'Look, the arrows are beyond you,' then go; for the LORD has sent you away.

v22: But if I say to the youth, 'Look, the arrows are beyond you,' then go; for the LORD has sent you away.

23: And as for the matter of which you and I have spoken, behold, the LORD is between you and me for ever."

v23: And as for the matter of which you and I have spoken, behold, the LORD is between you and me for ever."

24: So David hid himself in the field; and when the new moon came, the king sat down to eat food.

25: The king sat upon his seat, as at other times, upon the seat by the wall; Jonathan sat opposite, and Abner sat by Saul's side, but David's place was empty.

26: Yet Saul did not say anything that day; for he thought, "Something has befallen him; he is not clean, surely he is not clean."

27: But on the second day, the morrow after the new moon, David's place was empty. And Saul said to Jonathan his son, "Why has not the son of Jesse come to the meal, either yesterday or today?"

28: Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Bethlehem;

29: he said, 'Let me go; for our family holds a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has commanded me to be there. So now, if I have found favor in your eyes, let me get away, and see my brothers.' For this reason he has not come to the king's table."

30: Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said to him, "You son of a perverse, rebellious woman, do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame, and to the shame of your mother's nakedness?"

v30: Then Saul's anger became intensified against Jonathan, and he said to him, "You son of a distorted, reversionistic, rebellious bitch, do I not know that you have chosen from love the son of Jesse to your own shame, and to the shame of your mother's nakedness?"

31: For as long as the son of Jesse lives upon the earth, neither you nor your kingdom shall be established. Therefore send and fetch him to me, for he shall surely die."

v31: For as long as the son of Jesse lives upon the ground, You will never receive the establishment nor your kingdom and you will never succeed me as King. Therefore seize him with great violence and drag him to me, for a son of death is He or I will make him die."

32: Then Jonathan answered Saul his father, "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?"

v32: Then Jonathan answered Saul his father, "For what reason should he be put to death? What has he done?"

33: But Saul cast his spear at him to smite him; so Jonathan knew that his father was determined to put David to death.

v33: But Saul cast his javelin at him with the intent of killing him violently; so Jonathan knew that his father was determined to put David to death.

34: And Jonathan rose from the table in fierce anger and ate no food the second day of the month, for he was grieved for David, because his father had disgraced him.

v34: And Jonathan got up quickly after dodging the javelin from the table in a glow of fierce anger and ate no food the second day of the month, for he was grieved for David, because his father had caused him to be disgraced.

35: In the morning Jonathan went out into the field to the appointment with David, and with him a little lad.

36: And he said to his lad, "Run and find the arrows which I shoot." As the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

37: And when the lad came to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan called after the lad and said, "Is not the arrow beyond you?"

38: And Jonathan called after the lad, "Hurry, make haste, stay not." So Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.

39: But the lad knew nothing; only Jonathan and David knew the matter.

40: And Jonathan gave his weapons to his lad, and said to him, "Go and carry them to the city."

41: And as soon as the lad had gone, David rose from beside the stone heap and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed three times; and they kissed one another, and wept with one another, until David recovered himself.

v41: And as soon as the lad had gone, David rose from beside the stone heap toward the south and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed three times giving highest honor to Jonathan; and they gave a kiss of honor to one another recognizing their greatness, and continued weeping with one another for some time, and David became the greater in the future.

42: Then Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace, forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of the LORD, saying, 'The LORD shall be between me and you, and between my descendants and your descendants, for ever.'" And he rose and departed; and Jonathan went into the city.

v42: Then Jonathan commanded David, "Go in prosperity, remembering what both of us have promised in the name of the LORD, saying, 'The LORD Jehovah Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ shall be coming between me and you from your seed, and between my descendants and your descendants, holding us together forever.'" And he, David arose and departed; and Jonathan went into the city.

Chapter 21

First Samuel, chapter 21

1: Then came David to Nob to Ahim'elech the priest; and Ahim'elech came to meet David trembling, and said to him, "Why are you alone, and no one with you?"

v1: Then came David to Nob (the city of the tabernacle) to Ahim'elech the priest; and Ahim'elech came to meet David trembling and afraid, and said to him, "Why are you alone, and no one with you?"

2: And David said to Ahim'elech the priest, "The king has charged me with a matter, and said to me, 'Let no one know anything of the matter about which I send you, and with which I have charged you.' I have made an appointment with the young men for such and such a place.

v2: And David said to Ahim'elech the priest (a lie), "The king has sent me with a secret mission, and said to me, 'Let no one know anything of the matter about which I send you, and with which I have charged you.' I have made an appointment with the young men for such and such a place.

3: Now then, what have you at hand? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever is here."

v3: Now then, what have you under your hand? Give me five loaves of showbread, or whatever else by way of food can be found here."

4: And the priest answered David, "I have no common bread at hand, but there is holy bread; if only the young men have kept themselves from women."

v4: And the priest naively answered David, "There is no profane or common bread here, but there is hallowed bread of holy existence representing Bible Doctrine and who and what Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ is; if only the young men of your patrol have kept themselves from women."

5: And David answered the priest, "Of a truth women have been kept from us as always when I go on an expedition; the vessels of the young men are holy, even when it is a common journey; how much more today will their vessels be holy?"

v5: And David answered the priest, "Of a truth we (the Lie) have been restrained from legitimate sex with our women these 3 days, Since we have come out on patrol; the genitals of the men in the patrol are holy not having had sex for the past 3 days, furthermore the bread is the common bread EVEN IF TODAY IT HAS BEEN JUST SANCTIFIED; It is now just out of the tabernacle ?"

6: So the priest gave him the holy bread; for there was no bread there but the bread of the Presence, which is removed from before the LORD, to be replaced by hot bread on the day it is taken away.

v6: So the priest gave him the bread which was sacred; for there was no bread there but the bread of the faces referring to doctrines of the trinity, which had been caused to be removed from before the LORD, to be replaced by fresh bread on the day it is to be used.

7: Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; his name was Do'eg the E'domite, the chief of Saul's herdsman.

v7: Now a certain man the servant of Saul was there that day, remaining before the LORD not willing to travel on the Sabbath ; his name was Do'eg the E'domite, in the cabinet of Saul in charge of all the national herds.

8: And David said to Ahim'elech, "And have you not here a spear or a sword at hand? For I have brought neither my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste."

v8: And David said to Ahim'elech, "And have you not here a Javelin or a sword at hand? For I have brought neither my sword nor my other weapons with me, because the king's business was very urgent."

9: And the priest said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the valley of Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod; if you will take that, take it, for there is none but that here." And David said, "There is none like that; give it to me."

v9: And the priest said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you violently killed in the valley of Elah, behold, it is here being carefully wrapped in the sleeveless Short Coat of the Priest being a reminder of super-grace and that Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ controls history; if you will take that, take it, for there is none but that here." And David said, "There is none like that; give it to me."

10: And David rose and fled that day from Saul, and went to A'chish the king of Gath.

v10: And David Grabbed the bread and sword and fled quickly that day in fear from Saul, and went to A'chish the Greek king of Gath.

11: And the servants of A'chish said to him, "Is not this David the king of the land? Did they not sing to one another of him in dances, 'Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?'"

v11: And the servants of A'chish said to him, "Is not this David the king of the land? Did they not sing to one another of him in dances, 'Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?'"

12: And David took these words to heart, and was much afraid of A'chish the king of Gath.

v12: And David took these words into his Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, and was very frightened of A'chish the king of Gath.

13: So he changed his behavior before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and made marks on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle run down his beard.

v13: So he changed his behavior before them, and feigned himself insane (The Greeks would never kill an insane man) in their hands, and made marks on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle run down his beard.

14: Then said A'chish to his servants, "Lo, you see the man is mad; why then have you brought him to me?"

15: Do I lack madmen, that you have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? Shall this fellow come into my house?"

v15: Do I need madmen, that you have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? Shall this fellow come into my house? Shall I give him a job in my state department or army? I have too many in my service now"

Chapter 22

First Samuel, chapter 22

1: David departed from there and escaped to the cave of Adullam; and when his brothers and all his father's house heard it, they went down there to him.

v1: David therefore departed from Gath and escaped reversionism via the preservation from Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, to the cave of Adullam; and when his brothers and all his father's house heard it several times and finally believed it, they went down from the mountains there to him.

2: And every one who was in distress, and every one who was in debt, and every one who was discontented, gathered to him; and he became captain over them. And there were with him about four hundred men.

v2: And every one who had Positive Volition to Bible Doctrine and oppressed by Saul, and every one who were maladjusted and having a creditor, and every one who were embittered of soul and could not get along with anyone, assembled themselves with him; and he became captain over them. And there were with him about four hundred men.

3: And David went from there to Mizpeh of Moab; and he said to the king of Moab, "Pray let my father and my mother stay with you, till I know what God will do for me."

v3: And David went from there to a great fort of Moab; and he said to the king of Moab, "Pray let my father and my mother stay with you, till I know day by day what Elohim will do for me through his grace."

4: And he left them with the king of Moab, and they stayed with him all the time that David was in the stronghold.

v4: And he caused them to be conducted there in great safety and left them with the king of Moab, and they dwelt in great happiness with him the whole six years in the castle the total time that David was in the stronghold.

5: Then the prophet Gad said to David, "Do not remain in the stronghold; depart, and go into the land of Judah." So David departed, and went into the forest of Hereth.

v5: Then the prophet Gad said to David, "Do not remain in the stronghold of the series of caves at adullam; Get out NOW and go into the land of Judah on the border immediately." So David departed as per the command and came into the forest of Hereth.

6: Now Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men who were with him. Saul was sitting at Gib'e-ah, under the tamarisk tree on the height, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him.

v6: Now Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men who were with him. Saul was sitting at Gib'e-ah, under the tamarisk tree on the height, at his command post for chasing David, and all his immediate staff from the tribe of Benjamin were standing with him.

7: And Saul said to his servants who stood about him, "Hear now, you Benjaminites; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, will he make you all commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds,

v7: And Saul said to his servants who stood about him trying to bribe them with false motivation, "Hear now, you Benjaminites; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, will he make you all commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds,

8: that all of you have conspired against me? No one discloses to me when my son makes a league with the son of Jesse, none of you is sorry for me or discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day."

v8: that all of you have conspired against me? No one discloses to me when my son makes a league with the son of Jesse, none of you is sorry for or pities me or discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day."

9: Then answered Do'eg the E'domite, who stood by the servants of Saul, "I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahim'elech the son of Ahi'tub,

10: and he inquired of the LORD for him, and gave him provisions, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

11: Then the king sent to summon Ahim'elech the priest, the son of Ahi'tub, and all his father's house, the priests who were at Nob; and all of them came to the king.

12: And Saul said, "Hear now, son of Ahi'tub." And he answered, "Here I am, my lord."

13: And Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread and a sword, and have inquired of God for him, so that he has risen against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?"

14: Then Ahim'elech answered the king, "And who among all your servants is so faithful as David, who is the king's son-in-law, and captain over your bodyguard, and honored in your house?"

15: Is today the first time that I have inquired of God for him? No! Let not the king impute anything to his servant or to all the house of my father; for your servant has known nothing of all this, much or little."

16: And the king said, "You shall surely die, Ahim'elech, you and all your father's house."

17: And the king said to the guard who stood about him, "Turn and kill the priests of the LORD; because their hand also is with David, and they knew that he fled, and did not disclose it to me." But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD.

18: Then the king said to Do'eg, "You turn and fall upon the priests." And Do'eg the E'domite turned and fell upon the priests, and he killed on that day eighty-five persons who wore the linen ephod.

19: And Nob, the city of the priests, he put to the sword; both men and women, children and sucklings, oxen, asses and sheep, he put to the sword.

20: But one of the sons of Ahim'elech the son of Ahi'tub, named Abi'athar, escaped and fled after David.

21: And Abi'athar told David that Saul had killed the priests of the LORD.

22: And David said to Abi'athar, "I knew on that day, when Do'eg the E'domite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I have occasioned the death of all the persons of your father's house.

23: Stay with me, fear not; for he that seeks my life seeks your life; with me you shall be in safekeeping."

Chapter 23

First Samuel, chapter 23

1: Now they told David, "Behold, the Philistines are fighting against Kei'lah, and are robbing the threshing floors."

v1: Now they reported to David through an intelligence report saying, "Behold, the Philistines are fighting against and besieging Kei'lah, and intend to plunder the grain storage at the threshing floors."

2: Therefore David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I go and attack these Philistines?" And the LORD said to David, "Go and attack the Philistines and save Kei'lah."

v2: Therefore being upset David unable to make a good decisive decision inquired of the LORD, "Shall I move my army from bivouac across country and attack to annihilate these Philistines?" And the LORD said to David, "Go and you have already slaughtered the Philistines and you have already delivered Kei'lah."

3: But David's men said to him, "Behold, we are afraid here in Judah; how much more then if we go to Kei'lah against the armies of the Philistines?"

v3: But David's men said to him, "Behold, we are afraid here in the Mountains of Judah and don't feel safe; how much greater then if we go to Kei'lah on the Plains against the outnumbering armies of the Philistines?"

4: Then David inquired of the LORD again. And the LORD answered him, "Arise, go down to Kei'lah; for I will give the Philistines into your hand."

v4: Then David was caused to inquire of the LORD yet again. And the LORD answered him, "Get up and Get going NOW, go down into the plains and go to Kei'lah; for I will deliver the Philistines into your hand as a gift."

5: And David and his men went to Kei'lah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and made a great slaughter among them. So David delivered the inhabitants of Kei'lah.

v5: And David and his men marched smoothly with very strict security and excellent formation to avoid ambush to Kei'lah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and made a great slaughter among them. So David delivered the inhabitants of Kei'lah.

6: When Abi'athar the son of Ahim'elech fled to David to Kei'lah, he came down with an ephod in his hand.

v6: When Abi'athar the son of Ahim'elech fled and escaped from the Massacre at Nob to David at Kei'lah, he brought with him an ephod in his hand.

7: Now it was told Saul that David had come to Kei'lah. And Saul said, "God has given him into my hand; for he has shut himself in by entering a town that has gates and bars."

v7: Now through his recon patrols and spies it was reported to Saul that David had come to Kei'lah. Then Saul kept saying, "God has forsaken him and delivered him into my hand; for he has shut himself in to stay by entering a town, which will be his tomb, that has double gates and double bars which cannot be opened till morning."

8: And Saul summoned all the people to war, to go down to Kei'lah, to besiege David and his men.

v8: And Saul mobilized the whole nation for war, to go down to Kei'lah, to besiege David and his men.

9: David knew that Saul was plotting evil against him; and he said to Abi'athar the priest, "Bring the ephod here."

v9: David received intelligence reports that Saul secretly was plotting as his whole objective the evil against him to totally destroy him; and he said to Abi'athar the priest, "Put on the ephod and report here."

10: Then said David, "O LORD, the God of Israel, thy servant has surely heard that Saul seeks to come to Kei'lah, to destroy the city on my account.

v10: Then said David, "Oh LORD, the God of Israel, your servant has heard over and over again that Saul plans to come to Kei'lah, to besiege and destroy the city on my account.

11: Will the men of Kei'lah surrender me into his hand? Will Saul come down, as thy servant has heard? O LORD, the God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant." And the LORD said, "He will come down."

v11: Will the leaders of Kei'lah betray and surrender me into his hand? Will Saul come down, as thy servant has heard? O LORD, the God of Israel, I beseech you, tell your servant." And the LORD said, "It is definitely his intention to come down."

12: Then said David, "Will the men of Kei'lah surrender me and my men into the hand of Saul?" And the LORD said, "They will surrender you."

v12: Then said David, "Will the leaders of Kei'lah betray and surrender me and my men into the hand of Saul?" And the LORD answered via the Ephod and said, "They will betray and surrender you."

13: Then David and his men, who were about six hundred, arose and departed from Kei'lah, and they went wherever they could go. When Saul was told that David had escaped from Kei'lah, he gave up the expedition.

v13: Then David and his men, who were about six hundred, arose and departed from Kei'lah separating from reversionism, and they went into the unknown here and there wherever they could find a place. When Saul was told that David had escaped from Kei'lah, he declined to pursue him.

14: And David remained in the strongholds in the wilderness, in the hill country of the Wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God did not give him into his hand.

v14: And David remained dwelling in the place of blessing and happiness in the high natural fortresses of the mountainous desert, in the mountainous desert of Ziph. And Saul had rapid moving patrols which sought him constantly every day, but Elohim, would not give him into Saul's hand.

15: And David was afraid because Saul had come out to seek his life. David was in the Wilderness of Ziph at Horesh.

v15: And David was informed through intelligence gathering that Saul had come out to try to violently destroy his life. David was in the forest of the mountainous desert of Ziph at Horesh.

16: And Jonathan, Saul's son, rose, and went to David at Horesh, and strengthened his hand in God.

v16: And Jonathan the crown prince, Saul's son and David's True Friend, with enthusiasm and vigor of soul went to find David into the desert at Horesh, and for several days encouraged him in elohim.

17: And he said to him, "Fear not; for the hand of Saul my father shall not find you; you shall be king over Israel, and I shall be next to you; Saul my father also knows this."

v17: And he, Jonathan, said to him, David, over a few days, "Do not be afraid, of the continual persecutions and pressure from Saul my father, He shall not be able to search out and destroy you; you will be king over Israel, and I shall occupy the second place to you; of this also my father, Saul, is aware of this."

18: And the two of them made a covenant before the LORD; David remained at Horesh, and Jonathan went home.

v18: And the two of them cut a covenant or made a contract before the LORD; David remained at the forest of Horesh, and Jonathan went to his castle.

19: Then the Ziphites went up to Saul at Gib'e-ah, saying, "Does not David hide among us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hachi'lah, which is south of Jeshi'mon?"

v19: Then the Ziphites went uphill to Saul at Gib'e-ah, saying, "Does not David himself hiding among us in the natural fortifications in the forest at Horesh, on the hill of Hachi'lah on the edge of the desert, which is south of Jeshi'mon?"

20: Now come down, O king, according to all your heart's desire to come down; and our part shall be to surrender him into the king's hand."

v20: Now therefore according to all the desire of your soul Oh King, to come down, come down and our part to surrender him into the king's hand."

21: And Saul said, "May you be blessed by the LORD; for you have had compassion on me.

v21: And Saul kept saying repeatedly, "Be blessed by the LORD; for you have had pity on me.

22: Go, make yet more sure; know and see the place where his haunt is, and who has seen him there; for it is told me that he is very cunning.

v22: Go now, confirm or make sure; make a military reconnaissance and send out a patrol to reconnoiter the place where his tracks are located, for whom has seen him there; for it is told me that he is extremely cunning.

23: See therefore, and take note of all the lurking places where he hides, and come back to me with sure information. Then I will go with you; and if he is in the land, I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah."

v23: Reconnoiter therefore, and make an intelligence report of all the hideouts where he conceals himself, and return to me being prepared. Then I will go with you; and it shall come to pass if he is in the land, I will search him out to destroy him from among all the thousands of Judah."

24: And they arose, and went to Ziph ahead of Saul. Now David and his men were in the wilderness of Ma'on, in the Arabah to the south of Jeshi'mon.

v24: And they left Saul as traitors and departed to Ziph ahead of Saul. But David and his men then moved into the desert of Ma'on, in the Arabah sand and brush country to the south of Jeshi'mon.

25: And Saul and his men went to seek him. And David was told; therefore he went down to the rock which is in the wilderness of Ma'on. And when Saul heard that, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Ma'on.

v25: And Saul and his men departed in a flying column and came to search and destroy him. And the Patrols from the foot of the Mountain told David excellent intelligence, therefore David with his men, women and children went down to the rock which is in the desert of Ma'on. And when Saul heard that, he kept pursuing after David's patrols in the desert of Ma'on.

26: Saul went on one side of the mountain, and David and his men on the other side of the mountain; and David was making haste to get away from Saul, as Saul and his men were closing in upon David and his men to capture them, v26: Saul started around the east side of the base of the mountain to cut David off in the south pass, and David and his men went around the west side of the high peak of the mountain; and David coming down the mountain was hurrying seeing Saul was ahead of him, as Saul and his men kept encircling upon the south pass and David and his men to destroy them, (This was when Ps 54 was written)

27: when a messenger came to Saul, saying, "Make haste and come; for the Philistines have made a raid upon the land."

v27: A courier came to Saul, saying, "Hurry up and come; for the Philistines have invaded the land."

28: So Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines; therefore that place was called the Rock of Escape.

v28: So Saul returned from pursuing David, and went against the Philistines; therefore that place was called the Smooth Mountain of Escape, where David slipped away.

29: And David went up from there, and dwelt in the strongholds of En-ge'di.

v29: And David went west from there across the desert, and dwelt in the natural fortifications of the high cliffs and Caves of En-ge'di around the dead sea.

1: When Saul returned from following the Philistines, he was told, "Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-ge'di."

v1: And it came to pass when Saul had returned victorious from pursuing the Philistines, he was told, "Behold, David is in the wilderness of the desert of En-ge'di, west of the Dead Sea."

2: Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men in front of the Wildgoats' Rocks.

v2: Then Saul took three thousand of the best warriors of all Israel, and moved out to seek and destroy David and his men in front of the rocks of the Wildgoats.

3: And he came to the sheepfolds by the way, where there was a cave; and Saul went in to relieve himself. Now David and his men were sitting in the innermost parts of the cave.

v3: And he, Saul, came to the natural rocky sheep pens on the way, where there was a cave; and Saul went in to defecate and relieve himself; While David and his men hiding, remained undetected in the deeper parts of the cave.

4: And the men of David said to him, "Here is the day of which the LORD said to you, 'Behold, I will give your enemy into your hand, and you shall do to him as it shall seem good to you.'" Then David arose and stealthily cut off the skirt of Saul's robe.

v4: And the men of David whispered to him, "this is the day of which Jehovah said to you, 'Behold, I am the one giving your enemy into your hand, and you shall do to him as it shall seem good to you.'" Then David sneaking crawled up and stealthily cut off the edge of Saul's robe.

5: And afterward David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt.

v5: And it came to pass afterward that David's conscience reproached him from his norms and standards and categorical accumulation of Bible Doctrine after a short time, because he had just cut off the edges of Saul's robe.

6: He said to his men, "The LORD forbid that I should do this thing to my lord, the LORD'S anointed, to put forth my hand against him, seeing he is the LORD'S anointed."

v6: He said to his men, "Far be it from me because of the Lord, that I should do this petty thing unto my Lord the authority of the land, the Lord's anointed, to put forth my hand against him destroying his clothing, seeing he is the LORD'S anointed."

7: So David persuaded his men with these words, and did not permit them to attack Saul. And Saul rose up and left the cave, and went upon his way.

v7: Consequently David restrained his men with these words, and did not permit them to attack Saul. And Saul rose up and left the cave, and went upon his way.

8: Afterward David also arose, and went out of the cave, and called after Saul, "My lord the king!" And when Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the earth, and did obeisance.

v8: Afterward David also arose, and went out of the cave, and yelled with a loud voice after Saul, "My lord the king!" And Saul leaving the cave looked around behind him, David saluted him by bowing his face to the earth, and prostrated himself.

9: And David said to Saul, "Why do you listen to the words of men who say, 'Behold, David seeks your hurt'?"

v9: And David stood up and said to Saul, "Why do you listen to the lies of men who say, 'Behold, David searches to destroy you'?"

10: Lo, this day your eyes have seen how the LORD gave you today into my hand in the cave; and some bade me kill you, but I spared you. I said, 'I will not put forth my hand against my lord; for he is the LORD'S anointed.'

v10: Behold, this day you have a chance to learn by observation how the LORD has given you today into my hand in the cave; and some have counseled or advised me to assassinate you with great violence, but I had pity on you and spared you. I said, 'I will not put forth my hand against my lord; for he is the LORD'S anointed.'

11: See, my father, see the skirt of your robe in my hand; for by the fact that I cut off the skirt of your robe, and did not kill you, you may know and see that there is no wrong or treason in my hands. I have not sinned against you, though you hunt my life to take it.

v11: learn by observation, my father in lay, see the hem of your robe in my hand; for by the fact that I cut off the hem of your robe, and did not kill you, you may know and see that there is no vindictiveness or treason in my hands. I have not sinned against you, though you hunt for me to take my life.

12: May the LORD judge between me and you, may the LORD avenge me upon you; but my hand shall not be against you.

v12: May the LORD judge between me and you, may the LORD execute judgment for me upon you; but my hand shall not be against you.

13: As the proverb of the ancients says, 'Out of the wicked comes forth wickedness'; but my hand shall not be against you.

14: After whom has the king of Israel come out? After whom do you pursue? After a dead dog! After a flea!

15: May the LORD therefore be judge, and give sentence between me and you, and see to it, and plead my cause, and deliver me from your hand."

16: When David had finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" And Saul lifted up his voice and wept.

v16: When David had finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul sincerely said, "Is this your voice, my son in law David?" And Saul lifted up his voice in superficial forgiveness and wept.

17: He said to David, "You are more righteous than I; for you have repaid me good, whereas I have repaid you evil.

v17: And He said to David, "You are more righteous than I am; for you have requited me the good, whereas I have requited you evil.

18: And you have declared this day how you have dealt well with me, in that you did not kill me when the LORD put me into your hands.

v18: And you have made it very clear to me this day how you have manufactured out of your super-grace soul good to me, in that when the LORD delivered me into your hands you have not assassinated me.

19: For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go away safe? So may the LORD reward you with good for what you have done to me this day.

v19: For if a man discovers and takes by surprise his enemy, will he let him get away safely, no he won't! So may the LORD prosper you with good for what you have manufactured to me this day.

20: And now, behold, I know that you shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand.

v20: And behold now, I know that some day being king, you shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be stabilized and blessed in your hand.

21: Swear to me therefore by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants after me, and that you will not destroy my name out of my father's house."

v21: Therefore Be making me a solemn promise by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants after me, and that you will not destroy my name out of my father's house."

22: And David swore this to Saul. Then Saul went home; but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

v22: And David made this promise to Saul. Then Saul went home; but David and his men ascended to the natural stronghold in the Mountains of Masuda.

Chapter 25

First Samuel, chapter 25

1: Now Samuel died; and all Israel assembled and mourned for him, and they buried him in his house at Ramah. Then David rose and went down to the wilderness of Paran.

v1: Now Samuel died; and all Israel assembled and mourned for him, and they buried him with great ceremony and recognition in his house at Ramah. Then David rose and went down to the desert of Paran.

2: And there was a man in Ma'on, whose business was in Carmel. The man was very rich; he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. He was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

v2: And there was a man in Ma'on, whose possessions were in Carmel south of Hebron. The man was very rich; he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. He was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

3: Now the name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Ab'igail. The woman was of good understanding and beautiful, but the man was churlish and ill-behaved; he was a Calebite.

v3: Now the name of the man was Nabal or Fool, and the name of his wife Ab'igail or source of happiness or exalting. THE woman had great intelligence, was brilliant, and truly extremely beautiful in face and body, but the man was harsh and evil; he was descended from Caleb.

4: David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep.

v4: David heard in the desert that Nabal was shearing his sheep and this was debt collection time for protection service.

5: So David sent ten young men; and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name.

v5: So David sent ten men from his battalion; and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name.

6: And thus you shall salute him: `Peace be to you, and peace be to your house, and peace be to all that you have.

v6: And thus you shall salute him with Shalom: `Prosperity to you, and Prosperity to your house, and Prosperity to all that you have.

7: I hear that you have shearers; now your shepherds have been with us, and we did them no harm, and they missed nothing, all the time they were in Carmel.

7: Now I have heard that you have shearers; now your shepherds have been with us, and we did them no harm, and they missed nothing, all the time they were in Carmel.

8: Ask your young men, and they will tell you. Therefore let my young men find favor in your eyes; for we come on a feast day. Pray, give whatever you have at hand to your servants and to your son David."

v8: Ask your shepherds, and they will give complete total account that we have done the Job of protection. Therefore let my battalion men discover grace in your eyes; for we have picked a day of your profit or prosperity. Please, give me whatever you have at hand from your profits to your servants my men and to your son David."

9: When David's young men came, they said all this to Nabal in the name of David; and then they waited.

v9: When David's young men came, they said all these things to Nabal in the name of David; and then they were forced to wait for hours by the pompous reversionistic Nabal.

10: And Nabal answered David's servants, "Who is David? Who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants nowadays who are breaking away from their masters.

v10: And Nabal finally answered David's servants, "Who is David? Who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants nowadays who are breaking away or revolting or turning against someone to whom they owe allegiance every dog from their animal masters (Inferring David breaking from Saul).

11: Shall I take my bread and my water and my meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men who come from I do not know where?"

v11: Shall I take my bread and my water and my animal flesh that I have killed for payment to my shearers, and give it to men who come from I do not know where?"

12: So David's young men turned away, and came back and told him all this.

v12: So David's young men turned away, and came back and told David all this.

13: And David said to his men, "Every man gird on his sword!" And every man of them girded on his sword; David also girded on his sword; and about four hundred men went up after David, while two hundred remained with the baggage.

v13: And David said to his men, "Every man pick up your weapons!" And every man of them picked up their weapons; David also picked up his weapon; and about four hundred men went up after David, while the thinking David ordered two hundred to remain with the bivouac.

14: But one of the young men told Ab'igail, Nabal's wife, "Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master; and he railed at them.

v14: But one of the men of Nabal gave a correct clear picture of the situation to Ab'igail, Nabal's wife, "Behold, David sent messengers out of the desert to greet pleasantly and courteously as a gentleman, our master; and he, Nabal, treated them with great contempt and rudeness as a pompous self inflated ass.

15: Yet the men were very good to us, and we suffered no harm, and we did not miss anything when we were in the fields, as long as we went with them;

v15: But the men of David were very good to us, and we were not hurt and were treated with courtesy and kindness and never insulted, and we personally did not have anything stolen when we were in the fields, as long as we were accompanied by them;

16: they were a wall to us both by night and by day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.

v16: They were a wall protecting us both by night and by day, all the while we were with them while we were keeping the sheep.

17: Now therefore know this and consider what you should do; for evil is determined against our master and against all his house, and he is so ill-natured that one cannot speak to him."

v17: Now therefore know this and consider or deliberate on what you should make of this; for danger is determined against our master and against all his house, and he, our master, is such a son of worthlessness or wickedness being a reversionist that no one cannot reason with him."

18: Then Ab'igail made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two skins of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched grain, and a hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses.

v18: Then Ab'igail greatly hurried, and took two hundred loaves, and two skins of wine, and five sheep already butchered, and five measures of parched grain, and a two hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and put this all on asses.

19: And she said to her young men, "Go on before me; behold, I come after you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

v19: And she said to her servants, "Go on before me; behold, I come after you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

20: And as she rode on the ass, and came down under cover of the mountain, behold, David and his men came down toward her; and she met them.

v20: And as she rode on the ass, and came down in a valley unseen under cover of the mountain, behold, David and his men came down toward her; and so she met them in a meeting of great importance.

21: Now David had said, "Surely in vain have I guarded all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belonged to him; and he has returned me evil for good.

v21: (Parenthesis) Now David had said back at the bivouac, "Surely in vain have I guarded all that this fellow has in the desert, so that nothing was missed of all that belonged to him; and he has returned or paid back to me evil for good.

22: God do so to David and more also, if by morning I leave so much as one male of all who belong to him."

v22: Let God do so to David's enemies and so may he add horrible misery, if before morning I leave behind any one male of all who belong to him."(Close Parenthesis)

23: When Ab'igail saw David, she made haste, and alighted from the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed to the ground.

v23: When Ab'igail saw David, she hurried and dismounted from the ass, and threw herself on the ground before David on her face, and prostrated herself on the ground.

24: She fell at his feet and said, "Upon me alone, my lord, be the guilt; pray let your handmaid speak in your ears, and hear the words of your handmaid.

v24: When David dismounted She fell at his feet and said, "Upon me, even on me, my lord, be the blame; but I pray let your female slave speak to you and you listen, and hear the words of your female slave.

25: Let not my lord regard this ill-natured fellow, Nabal; for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him; but I your handmaid did not see the young men of my lord, whom you sent.

v25: Please! do not let my lord pay attention to this reversionist, even Nabal; for male fool is his name is and so is he; and female fool is with him; but I your female slave did not see the young men of my lord, whom you sent.

26: Now then, my lord, as the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, seeing the LORD has restrained you from bloodguilt, and from taking vengeance with your own hand, now then let your enemies and those who seek to do evil to my lord be as Nabal.

v26: Now therefore my lord, as Jehovah lives, and as your soul lives, or by the life of Jehovah and by the life of your own soul, since Jehovah has restrained you from shedding blood, and from delivering yourself with your own hand without the Lord's delivery, now therefore let your enemies and those who seek to do destroy my lord become as Nabal, untouched by you.

27: And now let this present which your servant has brought to my lord be given to the young men who follow my lord.

v27: And now let this blessing of deliverance from petty violence and food which your female slave has caused to bring to my lord (David) be distributed to the warriors who are under the tactical command of my lord.

28: Pray forgive the trespass of your handmaid; for the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house, because my lord is fighting the battles of the LORD; and evil shall not be found in you so long as you live.

v28: Please forgive or lift off and remove the trespass of your female slave; for manufacturing out of grace Jehovah will certainly manufacture out of super-grace my lord David an enduring dynasty, because my lord is fighting the battles of Jehovah; and evil has not been discovered in you all of your days of leadership from Adullam.

29: If men rise up to pursue you and to seek your life, the life of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of the living in the care of the LORD your God; and the lives of your enemies he shall sling out as from the hollow of a sling.

v29: Though a man (Saul) shall rise up in reversionistic obsession with the purpose of seeking and destroying your life, Yet the soul of my Lord, David, has been bound up in the bundle of lives resulting in the super-grace blessings from super-grace status, from Jehovah your Elohim; and the female souls of your reversionistic enemies she shall he sling out as from the hollow of a sling and suffer the Sin Unto Death (Like fighting Goliath).

30: And when the LORD has done to my lord according to all the good that he has spoken concerning you, and has appointed you prince over Israel, v30: And it shall come to pass when the LORD shall have manufactured out of super-grace to my Lord, David, according to all the good or value of your soul which He, God, has promised concerning you from prophecy; and has already appointed you in the past, and as God He must fulfill it, absolute perfect king ruler over Israel,

31: my lord shall have no cause of grief, or pangs of conscience, for having shed blood without cause or for my lord taking vengeance himself. And when the LORD has dealt well with my lord, then remember your handmaid."

v31: In order that this murder of Nabal shall not become to you a stumbling block my Lord, David, nor motivation to abuse future power, or bring pangs of conscience; that you having shed blood without cause or for my Lord, David, taking vengeance himself. And when Jehovah shall have caused good to my Lord, David, then remember my advice with love your female slave."

32: And David said to Ab'igail, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me!

v32: And David said to Ab'igail, "And I am being blessed by your advice from your objective doctrinal discernment, from the LORD, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, the God of Israel, from your constant focus on Bible Doctrine, despite your own failure marrying Nabal, who sent on a mission you this day to meet me! (Rom 8:28)

33: Blessed be your discretion, and blessed be you, who have kept me this day from bloodguilt and from avenging myself with my own hand!

v33: My Being blessed by you, Abigail, who has prevented me this day from murdering Nabal and his men, and from avenging myself with my own hand!

34: For as surely as the LORD the God of Israel lives, who has restrained me from hurting you, unless you had made haste and come to meet me, truly by morning there had not been left to Nabal so much as one male."

v34: For in very deed as the LORD the God of Israel, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, who is alive, who has restrained me from causing sorrow or evil to you by killing Nabal and all the results, because you had hurried and come to meet me, otherwise by morning there would not have been left to Nabal so much as one male."

35: Then David received from her hand what she had brought him; and he said to her, "Go up in peace to your house; see, I have hearkened to your voice, and I have granted your petition."

v35: Then David received from her hand what she had brought him as payment for the debt; and he said to her, "Go up in peace and prosperity of your super-grace status to your house; Observe that I have taken your good advice, and I have lifted up your face or accepted you."

36: And Ab'igail came to Nabal; and, lo, he was holding a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. And Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk; so she told him nothing at all until the morning light.

v36: And Ab'igail reluctantly returned home to Nabal; and, behold, he was holding a drinking orgy in his castle, like the drinking orgies of a king. And the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul of Nabal's heart good to him and he was stimulated from great drinking, and he became very drunk; and consequently she, Abigail, told him nothing small or great at all until the light of the morning of the next day.

37: And in the morning, when the wine had gone out of Nabal, his wife told him these things, and his heart died within him, and he became as a stone.

v37: It came to pass in the morning, when the wine had been processed out of the system of Nabal and he was reasonably sober, and his wife, Abigail, began to tell him the facts about these things, and the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of his Soul died within him as her remembered his deceit of David's men and he went into neurogenic shock and passed out, and remained in shock totally immobilized

38: And about ten days later the LORD smote Nabal; and he died.

v38: And it came to pass about ten days afterward the LORD struck Nabal with a disease or calamity; and he died the Sin Unto Death.

39: When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Blessed be the LORD who has avenged the insult I received at the hand of Nabal, and has kept back his servant from evil; the LORD has returned the evil-doing of Nabal upon his own head." Then David sent and wooed Ab'igail, to make her his wife.

v39: After keeping surveillance on his house David heard that Nabal had died; he, David said, "I Being Blessed, The Lord is the one who has acted as my attorney under the judgment of God who has defended or pleaded the reproach inflicted on me at the hand of Nabal; therefore, He has restrained his servant from evil; the LORD has caused to return the evil of Nabal upon his own head." Then David sent from his strong feelings and proposed to Ab'igail, to passionately take her to himself to be his wife.

40: And when the servants of David came to Ab'igail at Carmel, they said to her, "David has sent us to you to take you to him as his wife."

v40: And when the servants of David came straight to Ab'igail at Carmel, they offered a proposal of marriage to her, "David has sent us to you to take you to him in order to take you passionately as his wife."

41: And she rose and bowed with her face to the ground, and said, "Behold, your handmaid is a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord."

v41: And she rose to standing up straight and bowed herself with her face to the ground, and said, "Behold, your female servant a completely willing female slave for the purpose of washing the feet of the servants of my lord."

42: And Ab'igail made haste and rose and mounted on an ass, and her five maidens attended her; she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife.

v42: And Ab'igail made haste or hurried and arose and mounted rode on an ass, and her five servants loved her and willingly followed and attended her; she followed David's messengers, and became his wife.

43: David also took Ahin'o-am of Jezreel; and both of them became his wives.

v43: David had already also passionately taken Ahin'o-am of Jezreel; and they both became his wives.

44: Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Palti the son of La'ish, who was of Gallim.

v44: But Saul had given Michele his daughter, David's wife, to Palti the son of La'ish, who was of Gallim.

Chapter 26

First Samuel, chapter 26

1: Then the Ziphites came to Saul at Gib'e-ah, saying, "Is not David hiding himself on the hill of Hachi'lah, which is on the east of Jeshi'mon?"

v1: And the Ziphites approached Saul at Gib'e-ah with a delegation, saying, "Is not the antagonistic David hiding himself on the hill of Hachi'lah, which is on the east of Jeshi'mon?"

2: So Saul arose and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, with three thousand chosen men of Israel, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.

v2: So Saul arose and rapidly moved down to the wilderness of Ziph, with three thousand regular army of Israel, to personally seek David in the wilderness of Ziph abusing his military.

3: And Saul encamped on the hill of Hachi'lah, which is beside the road on the east of Jeshi'mon. But David remained in the wilderness; and when he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness, v3: And Saul bivouaced on the hill of Hachi'lah setting up the normal sentry system, which is beside the road on the east of Jeshi'mon. But David remained in the desert; and he saw from his recon patrols that Saul came after him in the desert

4: David sent out spies, and learned of a certainty that Saul had come.

v4: David sent out small patrols, and accurately located and understood where Saul was encamped and confirmed location and his lack of patrols.

5: Then David rose and came to the place where Saul had encamped; and David saw the place where Saul lay, with Abner the son of Ner, the commander of his army; Saul was lying within the encampment, while the army was encamped around him.

v5: Then David boldly rose from a decision based on his interpretation of his intelligence and came to the place where Saul had bivouaced; and David made another recon and discovered no sentries at the command post of Saul, and Abner the son of Ner, the commander of his army; Saul was encampment within the wagon rampart, while the army was sleeping and encamped around him without sentries or guards.

6: Then David said to Ahim'elech the Hittite, and to Jo'ab's brother Abi'shai the son of Zeru'iah, "Who will go down with me into the camp to Saul?" And Abi'shai said, "I will go down with you."

v6: Then David said to Ahim'elech the Hittite / Jew an outstanding officer, and to Jo'ab's brother Abi'shai the son of magnificent Zeru'iah David's step sister, "Who will go down with me into the camp to Saul?" (pause) And Abi'shai said, "I will go down with you."

7: So David and Abi'shai went to the army by night; and there lay Saul sleeping within the encampment, with his spear stuck in the ground at his head; and Abner and the army lay around him.

v7: So David and Abi'shai infiltrated the army by night where Saul lay sleeping behind the circle of wagons within the encampment, and his spear was pressed down into the ground at his head indicating the command post; while Abner and the troops were lying around him.

8: Then said Abi'shai to David, "God has given your enemy into your hand this day; now therefore let me pin him to the earth with one stroke of the spear, and I will not strike him twice."

v8: Then said Abi'shai to David, "God has delivered your helpless enemy into your hand this day; therefore give me the privilege to pin him to the earth with one stroke of the spear, and I will not have to strike him twice."

9: But David said to Abi'shai, "Do not destroy him; for who can put forth his hand against the LORD'S anointed, and be guiltless?"

v9: But David expressed super-grace Divine Viewpoint to Abi'shai and he immediately obeyed, "Do not destroy him; for who can put forth a weapon in assassination against the LORD'S anointed one in authority, and go unpunished?"

10: And David said, "As the LORD lives, the LORD will smite him; or his day shall come to die; or he shall go down into battle and perish.

v10: And David said furthermore, "As the LORD lives, the LORD will administer the Sin Unto Death to him; or his last day shall come to die a normal death with dying grace; or he shall descend into battle and become a casualty to glorify God either honorably or dishonorably.

11: The LORD forbid that I should put forth my hand against the LORD'S anointed; but take now the spear that is at his head, and the jar of water, and let us go."

v11: Far be it or this has never crossed my mind and the Lord does not condone this suggestion from Abashai, that I should put forth my hand to assassinate the LORD'S anointed; but now you take the spear that is at his head, and the canteen of water, and let us get out of here."

12: So David took the spear and the jar of water from Saul's head; and they went away. No man saw it, or knew it, nor did any awake; for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the LORD had fallen upon them.

v12: So David took the spear to be safe and Abashai the canteen of water from Saul's head; and they stealthily left. No man saw it, nor knew it, neither were any men of the army caused to awake; for they were all asleep, because a sound sleep from the LORD had fallen upon them.

13: Then David went over to the other side, and stood afar off on the top of the mountain, with a great space between them;

v13: Then David painstakingly passed across the pass going down the hill and then up another hill putting the pass between himself and the bivouac, and took a stand on the top of the another hill where he could still speak and be heard, with a great difficult space between them;

14: and David called to the army, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Will you not answer, Abner?" Then Abner answered, "Who are you that calls to the king?"

v14: and David shouted over and over to the troops in Saul's army, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Don't you want to answer me, Abner?" Then Abner finally answered, "Who are you boy, you shouting at the king this way?"

15: And David said to Abner, "Are you not a man? Who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not kept watch over your lord the king? For one of the people came in to destroy the king your lord.

v15: And David sarcastically said to Abner, "Who are you, aren't you a man? Who is like you in Israel? Why have you not guarded your lord the king with proper sentry postings? For there came by stealth and slow infiltration one to destroy the king your lord.

16: This thing that you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, you deserve to die, because you have not kept watch over your lord, the LORD'S anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the jar of water that was at his head."

v16: This thing that you have done, failing in your duty to post sentries, is not good. By the life of the Lord you are the son of death, or the penalty from the court martial is Death, because you have not guarded over your lord, the LORD'S anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the canteen of water that was at his head."

17: Saul recognized David's voice, and said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" And David said, "It is my voice, my lord, O king."

v17: Saul recognized David's voice and his objectivity, and said, "Is this your voice, my son in law David?" And David said, "It is my voice, my lord, O king."

18: And he said, "Why does my lord pursue after his servant? For what have I done? What guilt is on my hands?"

v18: And the highlights of what David objectively said, "Why does my lord constantly pursue and persecute his servant? For what have I done? What guilt is on my hands?"

19: Now therefore let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If it is the LORD who has stirred you up against me, may he accept an offering; but if it is men, may they be cursed before the LORD, for they have driven me out this day that I should have no share in the heritage of the LORD, saying, 'Go, serve other gods.'

v19: Now therefore please let my lord the king concentrate on and give a hearing to the words of his servant. If it is the LORD who has persuaded you, Saul, to pursue against me, David, let Him, God, accept the sweet smell of the food offering for propitiation for unknown sins or I will also offer the rebound offering if needed; but if the sons of the human race or people, they are being cursed always before the LORD with extra discipline, because they have forced me to decide to leave or driven me out of the land this day that I am being forced to have no no share in the heritage of the LORD, saying, 'Get out of this land and Go, be a slave to other gods.'

20: Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth away from the presence of the LORD; for the king of Israel has come out to seek my life, like one who hunts a partridge in the mountains."

v20: Now therefore, do not let my blood fall to the ground away from the presence of the LORD or do not force me to die a fugitive in another land having driven out of my own country; because the king of Israel has come out to search and destroy my life as a single flea. like one who hunts a partridge or quail in the mountains with runners and stalkers."

21: Then Saul said, "I have done wrong; return, my son David, for I will no more do you harm, because my life was precious in your eyes this day; behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly."

v21: Then the gist of the dialogue that Saul said, "I have missed the mark or sinned; return, my son in law David, for I will not cause you any more evil, because my life was respected in your eyes this day by not killing me when you could have; behold, I have played the fool and acted foolishly, and have exceedingly sinned through ignorance to the maximum."

22: And David made answer, "Here is the spear, O king! Let one of the young men come over and fetch it.

v22: And David answered, "Here is the spear, O king! Let one of the young men follow the passage through the valley and come over and take it.

23: The LORD rewards every man for his righteousness and his faithfulness; for the LORD gave you into my hand today, and I would not put forth my hand against the LORD'S anointed.

v23: Jehovah will repay each man for his righteousness and his faithfulness and stability from Bible Doctrine; for the LORD gave me, you in a helpless condition today, and I refused to stretch forth my hand against the LORD'S anointed.

24: Behold, as your life was precious this day in my sight, so may my life be precious in the sight of the LORD, and may he deliver me out of all tribulation."

v24: Now Behold, as your soul was highly valued this day in my sight, so may my soul be highly valued in the sight of the LORD, and may he rescue me from all adversity."

25: Then Saul said to David, "Blessed be you, my son David! You will do many things and will succeed in them." So David went his way, and Saul returned to his place.

v25: Then Saul said to David, "Blessed be you, my son in law David! You will both manufacture many things and will be able to conquer." So David went his way, and Saul returned to his place in Gibeon .

Chapter 27

First Samuel, chapter 27

1: And David said in his heart, "I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul; there is nothing better for me than that I should escape to the land of the Philistines; then Saul will despair of seeking me any longer within the borders of Israel, and I shall escape out of his hand."

v1: And David said in his own Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of his Soul over and over again, "I shall be destroyed one day by the hand of Saul; there is not good in the way of God for this and I am tired of all this pressure, I will now try my own way and there is nothing better for me and delivering myself without God I shall deliver myself into the land of the Philistines; consequently Saul will desist in his effort of searching to destroying any longer within the land of Israel, and I shall be delivered and escape out of his hand."

2: So David arose and went over, he and the six hundred men who were with him, to Achish the son of Ma'och, king of Gath.

v2: So David made a decision based on Human Viewpoint and went into action and crossed over, he and the six hundred men who were with him, to Achish the son of Ma'och, king of Gath.

3: And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, and David with his two wives, Ahin'oham of Jezreel, and Abigail of Carmel, Nabal's widow.

v3: And David sat down with Achish at Gath and enjoyed himself to the greatest extent in the idol worshiping area going along with Achish, he and his men, every man with his household, and David with his two wives, Ahin'oham of Jezreel, and Abigail of Carmel, Nabal's widow.

4: And when it was told Saul that David had fled to Gath, he sought for him no more.

v4: And when it was reported to Saul through an intelligence report that David had fled to Gath, he no longer searched for him .

5: Then David said to Achish, "If I have found favor in your eyes, let a place be given me in one of the country towns, that I may dwell there; for why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?"

v5: Then David said to Achish, "If I have been discovered to have favor in your sight, let the entire philistine counsel give me a place some country town, that I may dwell there in peace; for why should your servant of no consequence live in such great pleasure in the royal city with you of such greatness?"

6: So that day Achish gave him Ziklag; therefore Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day.

v6: So that day Achish gave him the city of Ziklag; therefore Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day.

7: And the number of the days that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was a year and four months.

v7: And the number of the days that David dwelt in the territory of the land of the Philistines was a year and four months.

8: Now David and his men went up, and made raids upon the Geshurites, the Gittites, and the Amalekites; for these were the inhabitants of the land from of old, as far as Shur, to the land of Egypt.

v8: Now David and his men mounted a series of attacks and raids to steal property, raping and plundering all the valuable property from the Gesh'urie, the Gir'zites, and the Amal'ekites; for these three were the inhabitants of the land from ancient times, as you come to Shur, near the land of Egypt.

9: And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, but took away the sheep, the oxen, the asses, the camels, and the garments, and came back to A'chish.

v9: And David wiped out the people in the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, but he collected and drove away the sheep, the oxen, the asses, the camels, and the garments and artifacts and he returned and came back to A'chish.

10: When A'chish asked, "Against whom have you made a raid today?" David would say, "Against the Negeb of Judah," or "Against the Negeb of the Jerah'meelites," or, "Against the Negeb of the Ken'ites."

v10 When A'chish seeing all the booty which David brings in, asked, "Against whom have you made a raid today?" David would say, "Against the southern part of Judah," or "Against the south of the Jerah'meelites," or, "Against the south of the Ken'ites friends of the Jews."

11: And David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring tidings to Gath, thinking, "Lest they should tell about us, and say, 'So David has done.'" Such was his custom all the while he dwelt in the country of the Philistines.

v11: Consequently David did not preserve alive neither man nor woman to cause to bring information to Gath, thinking, "Lest they report us, and say, 'So David has done.'" Such is his lifestyle all the time he dwelt in the country of the Philistines.

12: And A'chish trusted David, thinking, "He has made himself utterly abhorred by his people Israel; therefore he shall be my servant always."

v12: And A'chish believed David, thinking to himself, "He has caused himself to stink to his own people Israel; therefore he has become a servant to me forever."

Chapter 28

First Samuel, chapter 28

1: In those days the Philistines gathered their forces for war, to fight against Israel. And A'chish said to David, "Understand that you and your men are to go out with me in the army."

v1: Now it came to pass in those days (1004 BC) when David was doing all these things that the Philistines totally mobilized their armies for war, for total destruction to fight against all of Israel. And A'chish sent a special message to David, "Be very definitely alert, you and your men are to go forth to or accompany me and the army to the bivouac."

2: David said to A'chish, "Very well, you shall know what your servant can do." And A'chish said to David, "Very well, I will make you my bodyguard for life."

v2: Now David replied to A'chish, "Therefore now you shall know what we can do." And consequently A'chish replied to David, "I will appoint or commission you my bodyguard for life to guard me against potential Coup De Tats."

3: Now Samuel had died, and all Israel had mourned for him and buried him in Ramah, his own city. And Saul had put the mediums and the wizards out of the land.

v3: Now Samuel had died 13 years prior, and all Israel had appreciated and overtly mourned for him and buried him remembering what he stood for, in Ramah, his own city headquarters for teaching Bible Doctrine at that time, Saul had caused to be removed the female demon possessed mediums who practiced necromancy and the male demon possessed mediums who practice future predictions from the land.

4: The Philistines assembled, and came and encamped at Shunem; and Saul gathered all Israel, and they encamped at Gilbo'a.

v4: The armies of the 5 city states of the Philistines gathered together to move against Saul and Israel, and moved to and bivouaced at Shunem on the little Herman mountains; and Saul concentrated the army of all Israel, and they bivouaced at Gilbo'a.

5: When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly.

v5: And When Saul observed the army of the Philistines, he became afraid, and the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of his Soul was in an extreme state of trepidation.

6: And when Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD did not answer him, either by dreams, or by Urim, or by prophets.

v6: And when Saul, sauled or asking, asked or inquired of the LORD, the LORD had not answered him right up to the current moment, neither by dreams, or by Urim and Thumin which was still with David, or by prophets.

7: Then Saul said to his servants, "Seek out for me a woman who is a medium, that I may go to her and inquire of her." And his servants said to him, "Behold, there is a medium at Endor."

v7: Then Saul spoke to his intelligence staff, "Make a non military reconnaissance for me and find a female a mistress of the eggostermuthos demon, a medium, in order that I may go to her and inquire from the medium witch." Later his intelligence staff reported to him, "Behold, a female, a mistress of an eggostermuthos demon at Endor."

8: So Saul disguised himself and put on other garments, and went, he and two men with him; and they came to the woman by night. And he said, "Divine for me by a spirit, and bring up for me whomever I shall name to you."

v8: Then Saul disguised himself and put on other civilian garments to hide his royal status, and kept on walking, crawling, and running cautiously, he went accompanied by two soldiers on patrol with him; and they arrived by night in darkness to the woman. And he, Saul said, "Please, or If you Please contact the dead for me by means of your necromantic demon, and cause to come up for me from Hades or Sheol the one I shall mention to you."

9: The woman said to him, "Surely you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off the mediums and the wizards from the land.

Why then are you laying a snare for my life to bring about my death?"

v9: Then the woman replied to him, "Certainly you have understood or know what Saul has accomplished or executed, how he has banished or destroyed those who are demon possessed necromancers or male mediums who practice divination from the land. Why then are you setting or laying a trap or snare for my soul to cause me to die?"

10: But Saul swore to her by the LORD, "As the LORD lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this thing."

v10: Consequently Saul made a solemn promise or vow to her by Jehovah, "By the life of Jehovah, punishment shall not happen to you for breaking the law for this business."

11: Then the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" He said, "Bring up Samuel for me."

v11: Then the woman replied with a long conversation, "Whom shall I cause to come up for you?" And He, Saul said repeatedly, "cause Samuel to appear before me."

12: When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice; and the woman said to Saul, "Why have you deceived me? You are Saul."

v12: And when the woman kept seeing Samuel coming closer and closer, she screamed repeatedly and loudly expressing extreme terror; and then the woman spoke to Saul, "Why have you caused me to be deceived? And You Saul."

13: The king said to her, "Have no fear; what do you see?" And the woman said to Saul, "I see a god coming up out of the earth."

v13: The king kept saying to her, "Stop being afraid; For what have you seen to frighten you?" And the woman replied to Saul, "God, or Elohim I have seen, coming up from the earth."

14: He said to her, "What is his appearance?" And she said, "An old man is coming up; and he is wrapped in a robe." And Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground, and did obeisance.

v14: And He calmly said to her, "What is his appearance?" And she said, "An old man is closing in or coming up; and he is wrapped in a prophets robe." And Saul perceived and concluded that it was Samuel, and he prostrated himself, bowing his head with his face to the ground.

15: Then Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?" Saul answered, "I am in great distress; for the Philistines are warring against me, and God has turned away from me and answers me no more, either by prophets or by dreams; therefore I have summoned you to tell me what I shall do."

v15: Then in summary Samuel said much to Saul including, "Why the hell have you caused me to be disturbed causing me to be brought up?" Saul answered, "Pressure to me exceedingly or I am under terribly great pressure or problems; because the Philistines make war against me, and Elohim has deserted me (Blaming God) and He has not answered me any longer, neither by prophets or by dreams; therefore logically in my thinking (false) consequently I have called upon you that you may teach me or cause me to learn what course of action I can manufacture that will get me out of this mess."

16: And Samuel said, "Why then do you ask me, since the LORD has turned from you and become your enemy?"

v16: Then in summary Samuel replied, "Why the hell therefore do you ask me (pun on Saul's name), since the LORD has departed from you therefore He has become your enemy?"

17: The LORD has done to you as he spoke by me; for the LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand, and given it to your neighbor, David.

v17: Now the LORD has kept on accomplishing for himself or has carried out his purpose as he has spoken repeatedly through me (15 years ago); because the LORD has gradually torn or ripped away little by little over a period of time the kingdom out of your hand, and has gradually given it little by little over a period of time to your true friend, David.

18: Because you did not obey the voice of the LORD, and did not carry out his fierce wrath against Am'alek, therefore the LORD has done this thing to you this day.

v18: Just as you did not listen in your life to the voice of Jehovah namely Bible Doctrine nor commandments taught by the prophet, and did not execute the heat of his anger against Am'alek, therefore the LORD has executed from his justice and righteousness this doctrine or word of the Sin Unto Death onto you this day.

19: Moreover the LORD will give Israel also with you into the hand of the Philistines; and tomorrow you and your sons shall be with me; the LORD will give the army of Israel also into the hand of the Philistines."

v19: Consequently the LORD also will deliver Israel with you into the hand of the Philistines; and tomorrow you and your sons shall be with me; also the LORD will deliver through a process of military function the army of Israel into the hand of the Philistines."

20: Then Saul fell at once full length upon the ground, filled with fear because of the words of Samuel; and there was no strength in him, for he had eaten nothing all day and all night.

v20: Then Saul hurried up or immediately or at once fell or fainted, full length taking a long time to hit the ground, being extremely frightened because by the doctrines of Samuel; also there was no strength in him, because he had eaten nothing all day and all night.

21: And the woman came to Saul, and when she saw that he was terrified, she said to him, "Behold, your handmaid has hearkened to you; I have taken my life in my hand, and have hearkened to what you have said to me.

v21: And the woman with increasing soulful compassion, tenderness and sensitivity, kept coming toward Saul, and she kept looking at him and noticed that he was extremely agitated and disturbed in his soul, therefore she said to him, "Behold, your completely obedient female slave has listened to your voice and obeyed you in the past; and I have risked my soul and life for you,

22: Now therefore, you also hearken to your handmaid; let me set a morsel of bread before you; and eat, that you may have strength when you go on your way."

23: He refused, and said, "I will not eat." But his servants, together with the woman, urged him; and he hearkened to their words. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed.

v23: He, Saul, kept on intensely refusing, and said, "I will not eat, I won't, No NO." However his soldiers, and also the woman, compelled and kept on urging him; and he finally listened to their voices. So he finally got up from the ground, and sat upon the wall bench.

24: Now the woman had a fatted calf in the house, and she quickly killed it, and she took flour, and kneaded it and baked unleavened bread of it,

v24: And to Ishah, the woman she had a fattened stall fed calf saved for a special occasion, and she quickly slaughtered it, and she seized flour, and kneaded it by hand and baked unleavened cakes of it,

25: and she put it before Saul and his servants; and they ate. Then they rose and went away that night.

v25: and she was gladly motivated to put it before Saul and his soldiers; and they ate. Then they, Saul and the soldiers got up from the meal and went away that night.

Chapter 29

First Samuel, chapter 29

1: Now the Philistines gathered all their forces at Aphek; and the Israelites were encamped by the fountain which is in Jezreel.

v1: Now the Philistines totally mobilized all their multiple armies and concentrated them at Aphek; and the Israelites were encamped by the fountain which is in Jezreel.

2: As the lords of the Philistines were passing on by hundreds and by thousands, and David and his men were passing on in the rear with A'chish, v2: As the lords or rulers of each of the 5 Philistine city states were advancing by hundreds in companies and by thousands in battalions, each having a division, and David and his battalion of men were advancing in the rear of the army with A'chish the overall ruler of all the city states,

3: the commanders of the Philistines said, "What are these Hebrews doing here?" And A'chish said to the commanders of the Philistines, "Is not this David, the servant of Saul, king of Israel, who has been with me now for days and years, and since he deserted to me I have found no fault in him to this day."

v3: Then said the commanders or generals of the Philistines said, "What are these Hebrews doing here in the weak area of the rear of the army?" And A'chish said to the commanding generals of the Philistines, "Is not this David, the servant of Saul, king of Israel, who has been with me now for these 16 months, and since he deserted to me I have found no fault in him to this day."

4: But the commanders of the Philistines were angry with him; and the commanders of the Philistines said to him, "Send the man back, that he may return to the place to which you have assigned him; he shall not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he become an adversary to us. For how could this fellow reconcile himself to his lord? Would it not be with the heads of the men here?"

v4: But the commanding generals of the Philistines kept on raging against him regarding David; and the commanding generals of the Philistines kept saying to him, "Cause the man to return so that he shall return to the place to which you have assigned him at Zicklag; so that he shall not descend with us to battle, lest in combat he become a traitor to us. For how could this man ingratiate himself to his Lord Saul? Would it not be with the heads of our men here attacking from the rear?"

5: Is not this David, of whom they sing to one another in dances, 'Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?'"

6: Then A'chish called David and said to him, "As the LORD lives, you have been honest, and to me it seems right that you should march out and in with me in the campaign; for I have found nothing wrong in you from the day of your coming to me to this day. Nevertheless the lords do not approve of you.

v6: Then A'chish was disturbed and called David and said to him, "Surely by the life of Jehovah or Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, you have been noble and good in my eyes during your maneuvering with me in this battle campaign with the army, for I have not found evil in you from the day of your coming to me to this day; Nevertheless in the eyes of the commanders of the Philistines you are not noble and they do not approve of you.

7: So go back now; and go peaceably, that you may not displease the lords of the Philistines."

v7: Return and go now in peace, that you may not manufacture evil in the eyes of the commanding generals of the Philistines."

8: And David said to A'chish, "But what have I done? What have you found in your servant from the day I entered your service until now, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"

v8: And David said to A'chish, "But what have I manufactured? What have you discovered in your servant from the this day I entered your service until now, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"

9: And A'chish made answer to David, "I know that you are as blameless in my sight as an angel of God; nevertheless the commanders of the Philistines have said, 'He shall not go up with us to the battle.'

v9: And A'chish made a final reply to David, "I know according to the image you have created in my soul regarding you, that you are as blameless in my sight as an elect angel of God; nevertheless the commanding generals of the Philistines have said, 'He shall not go up with us to the battle.'

10: Now then rise early in the morning with the servants of your lord who came with you; and start early in the morning, and depart as soon as you have light."

v10: Now therefore rise up early in the morning you and the army of your Lord, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ who has come with you; and as soon as you have predawn revelie in the morning, depart as soon as you have light."

11: So David set out with his men early in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. But the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

v11: So David departed with his men early in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. But the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

Chapter 30

First Samuel, chapter 30

1: Now when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day, the Amal'ekites had made a raid upon the Negeb and upon Ziklag. They had overcome Ziklag, and burned it with fire, v1: Then it happened when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day, the Amal'ekites had made a raid upon the south country and upon Ziklag and had hit Ziklag, and burned it with fire,

2: and taken captive the women and all who were in it, both small and great; they killed no one, but carried them off, and went their way.

v2: And taken or carried away captive all the females who became sick and troubled from their captivity, and all women who were in it, they were not motivated to kill any woman since all were beautiful both children and women, but carried them off very rapidly, and went their way.

3: And when David and his men came to the city, they found it burned with fire, and their wives and sons and daughters taken captive.

v3: And when David and his battalion began to arrive at the city and saw that something was wrong, Behold it was still burning with fire, furthermore their wives and sons and daughters were missing.

4: Then David and the people who were with him raised their voices and wept, until they had no more strength to weep.

v4: Then David and the troops who were with him raised their voices in loud hysterical panicked screaming and kept on weeping until they had no more strength to weep.

5: David's two wives also had been taken captive, Ahin'o-am of Jezreel, and Ab'igail the widow of Nabal of Carmel.

v5: And David's two wives also had been taken captive, Ahin'o-am of Jezreel, and Ab'igail the widow of Nabal of Carmel.

6: And David was greatly distressed; for the people spoke of stoning him, because all the people were bitter in soul, each for his sons and daughters. But David strengthened himself in the LORD his God.

v6: Moreover David was greatly distressed because of his great overworking imagination concerning the destruction of Ziklag and the fate of his wives who were taken; for the troops spoke over and over of stoning him, because the souls of all the troops were bitter about this poor leadership, each for his sons and daughters who were killed. But David encouraged himself and showed himself courageous through Metabolized Bible Doctrine in his Stream of Consciousness of the Soul regarding Jehovah his Elohim.

7: And David said to Abi'athar the priest, the son of Ahim'elech, "Bring me the ephod." So Abi'athar brought the ephod to David.

v7: And David called many times and said to Abi'athar the priest, the son of Ahim'elech and ordered him, "Bring the ephodh (garment of the High Priest)." So Abi'athar obeyed the command and brought the ephodh with the urum and thumun attached on the breastplate with the 12 stones of the tribes on the front, to David.

8: And David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I pursue after this band? Shall I overtake them?" He answered him, "Pursue; for you shall surely overtake and shall surely rescue."

v8: And David asked of Jehovah, "Shall I pursue this raiding party or detachment? Shall I overtake them if I do?" Jehovah answered commanding David, "Pursue; for in closing in you will overtake and in rescuing you will rescue everyone and everything."

9: So David set out, and the six hundred men who were with him, and they came to the brook Besor, where those stayed who were left behind.

v9: So David formed up the six hundred men who were with him and they moved out, and they came as far as the river Besor on a great forced march, where those stragglers who could not keep up were left behind.

10: But David went on with the pursuit, he and four hundred men; two hundred stayed behind, who were too exhausted to cross the brook Besor.

v10: But David went on with the pursuit, he and four hundred men; two hundred stayed behind, who were too exhausted to cross the river Besor.

11: They found an Egyptian in the open country, and brought him to David; and they gave him bread and he ate, they gave him water to drink, v11: And the point man discovered a man of Egypt in the open country of the desert, and roughly hauled him to David; and under the commands of David they gave him crumbs of bread and he kept eating a few crumbs at a time, they rationed him water to drink as they gave him food, 12: and they gave him a piece of a cake of figs and two clusters of raisins. And when he had eaten, his spirit revived; for he had not eaten bread or drunk water for three days and three nights.

v12: and later as the Egyptian recovered they gave him a few pieces of a cake of figs and two clusters of raisins their rations for forced marching. And after a few hours when the Egyptian had eaten, his life returned to him; for he had not eaten food or bread or drunk water for three days and three nights.

13: And David said to him, "To whom do you belong? And where are you from?" He said, "I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amal'ekite; and my master left me behind because I fell sick three days ago.

v13: And David began to interrogate him in a very low key questioning, "To whom do you belong? And where are you from?" And the Egyptian said, "I am a young man of Egypt, slave to an Amal'ekite; and my master abandoned me for dead because I became sick and exhausted three days ago when they were hurrying.

14: We had made a raid upon the Negeb of the Cher'ethites and upon that which belongs to Judah and upon the Negeb of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire."

v14: As for us we had made a completed raid upon the south near the mountains of the Cher'ethites or Cretians and upon the south which belongs to Judah and north upon the south of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire."

15: And David said to him, "Will you take me down to this band?" And he said, "Swear to me by God, that you will not kill me, or deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will take you down to this band."

v15: And David said to him, "Will you lead me down to pounce on this raiding party?" And the Egyptian said, "make a solemn promise Swear to me by Elohim, that you will neither kill me nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will lead you to this raiding party."

16: And when he had taken him down, behold, they were spread abroad over all the land, eating and drinking and dancing, because of all the great spoil they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah.

v16: And when he, the Egyptian, had guided or lead him, David, surreptitiously to the valley of the Amalekites, behold, the Amalekites were spread out over all the valley, eating and drinking and erotically dancing leading to fornication, because of all the great plunder they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah.

17: And David smote them from twilight until the evening of the next day; and not a man of them escaped, except four hundred young men, who mounted camels and fled.

v17: And David viciously slaughtered them from sundown until the evening of the next day, 26-28 hours; and not a man of them escaped, except four hundred young men, who mounted camels and fled.

18: David recovered all that the Amal'ekites had taken; and David rescued his two wives.

v18: Therefore David rescued all that the Amal'ekites had taken away; and David rescued his two wives and everything which belonged to him..

19: Nothing was missing, whether small or great, sons or daughters, spoil or anything that had been taken; David brought back all.

v19: Furthermore nothing was missing to them, whether small or great, sons or daughters, plunder or spoil or anything that had been taken; David was caused to recover everything.

20: David also captured all the flocks and herds; and the people drove those cattle before him, and said, "This is David's spoil."

v20: David also rounded up and captured all the flocks and herds; and the people drove those cattle ahead of all the other livestock and the men said, "This is David's spoil."

21: Then David came to the two hundred men, who had been too exhausted to follow David, and who had been left at the brook Besor; and they went out to meet David and to meet the people who were with him; and when David drew near to the people he saluted them.

v21: Then David was moving back to approach again the River Besor and to the two hundred straggler men, who being out of fighting condition having neglected their training, had been too totally exhausted to continue to follow David, and who had been left at the river Besor; and the stragglers went out to meet David and to meet the men who were with him; and when David approached near to the stragglers they inquired as to his success.

22: Then all the wicked and base fellows among the men who had gone with David said, "Because they did not go with us, we will not give them any of the spoil which we have recovered, except that each man may lead away his wife and children, and depart."

v22: Then all the reversionists and sons of Belial or wickedness among the men who had gone with David and said, "Because they did not go with me along with David, He will not give them any of the plunder which we have recovered, except that each man may lead away his wife and children, and depart."

23: But David said, "You shall not do so, my brothers, with what the LORD has given us; he has preserved us and given into our hand the band that came against us.

v23: Then David interrupted, "You will not do so, my brothers (who are reversionist believers), with what the LORD has given us; Jehovah, who has preserved and protected us and given into our hands the raiding party that came against us.

24: Who would listen to you in this matter? For as his share is who goes down into the battle, so shall his share be who stays by the baggage; they shall share alike."

v24: Who would listen to you in this false assertion? For as his share is who goes down into the battle, so shall his share be who stays with the supplies; they shall share equally."

25: And from that day forward he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day. And it became an army regulation for Israel from that day to this

26: When David came to Ziklag, he sent part of the spoil to his friends, the elders of Judah, saying, "Here is a present for you from the spoil of the enemies of the LORD";

v26: When David came to ziklag he sent some of the wealth to his friends who had helped him in his fugative life, and to the business men of Judah to stimulate the economy, saying, "Here is a gift for you from the plunder of the enemies because of the Lord.

27: it was for those in Bethel, in Ramoth of the Negeb, in Jattir, 28: in Aro'er, in Siphmoth, in Eshtemo'a,

29: in Racal, in the cities of the Jerah'meelites, in the cities of the Ken'ites, 30: in Hormah, in Borash'an, in A'thach,

31: in Hebron, for all the places where David and his men had roamed.

v31: To them in Hebron, to all the places where David and his men had roamed while fugatives.

Chapter 31

First Samuel, chapter 31

1: Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines, and fell slain on Mount Gilbo'a.

v1: Now the Philistines eagerly came and fought against Israel using an oblique order of battle; and the men of Israel section by section fled in full retreat before the Philistines, and fell wounded or killed along the area at the cliffs of Mount Gilbo'a Range between the Well of Jesreal and Beth Shean.

2: And the Philistines overtook Saul and his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan and Abin'adab and Mal'chishu'a, the sons of Saul.

v2: And the Philistines pursued vigorously Saul and his sons who engaged a rear guard action and tried to hold the philistines off; and the Philistines slaughtered Jonathan's group first and Abin'adab and Mal'chishu'a, the sons of Saul.

3: The battle pressed hard upon Saul, and the archers found him; and he was badly wounded by the archers.

v3: The battle when heavily against Saul causing a complete route of the men, and the philistine archer infantry discovered the range to Saul and fired on him; and he was very badly wounded in the abdomen writhing in extreme horrible pain caused by the archers.

4: Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and make sport of me." But his armor-bearer would not; for he feared greatly. Therefore Saul took his own sword, and fell upon it.

v4: Then Saul screamed repeatedly to his Adjutant or weapon bearer, "Draw your sword and stab me with it, for fear that these uncircumcised will come within range and slowly stab and tortuously kill me, and make sport of me." But his armor-bearer would not; for he was extremely frightened. Therefore Saul struggled and with great difficulty and excruciating pain seized and pulled out his own sword, and fell upon it.

5: And when his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell upon his sword, and died with him.

v5: Now when his adjutant stared dumbly and watched Saul get his sword with great difficulty and kill himself and was dead, he also kept falling upon his sword until he did it right in order that he might die with him.

6: Thus Saul died, and his three sons, and his armor-bearer, and all his men, on the same day together.

v6: So Saul has died, and his three sons, and his adjutant, and the greater part of his men were either wounded or dead, on the same day together.

7: And when the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley and those beyond the Jordan saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

v7: And when the civilian citizens of Israel who were on the other side of the Jordan valley west of Jezreel, and those beyond the Jordan received the news at various times that the army of Israel had retreated in disorder, and that Saul and his sons had died, they abandoned their cities and fled; and the Philistines slowly advanced and took over the cities and dwelt in prosperity in the cities.

8: On the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilbo'a.

v8: It came to pass on the next day, when the Philistines had rested from the battle, they came to plunder and desecrate the dead soldiers, they discovered Saul and in sequence later his three sons killed on the slopes of Mount Gilbo'a.

9: And they cut off his head, and stripped off his armor, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines, to carry the good news to their idols and to the people.

v9: And the Philistines slowly over time cut off Saul's head, and stripped off his armor and all of value, and sent the armor throughout the land of the Philistines with the head on a spear, to announce the good news in the temples of their idols and to the citizens of the nation.

10: They put his armor in the temple of Ash'taroth; and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth-shan.

v10 And they placed his armor in the temple of Ash'taroth; and they hung or fastened the skeleton of Saul and Jonathan and the other brothers to the wall of Beth-shan.

11: But when the inhabitants of Ja'besht-gil'ead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, v11 And when the inhabitants of Ja'besht-gil'ead learned in summary what the Philistines had done to Saul, 12: all the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan; and they came to Jabesh and burnt them there.

v12 all the super-grace men of virtue, valor, integrity, wealth, courage and strength got up and moved out and walked all night, and seized the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan; and so they returned to Jabesh and partially burnt the flesh of the bodies there.

13: And they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

v13 Then they took their bones and buried them under the strong gnarled Tamarisk in Jabesh, and fasted in reflective tribute for seven days.

The Second Book of Samuel

Chapter 1

Second Samuel, chapter 1

1: After the death of Saul, when David had returned from the slaughter of the Amal'ekites, David remained two days in Ziklag;

v1: Now it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David had returned from the annihilation or slaughter of the Amal'ekites, David relaxed in total happiness enjoying two days in Ziklag;

2: and on the third day, behold, a man came from Saul's camp, with his clothes rent and earth upon his head. And when he came to David, he fell to the ground and did obeisance.

v2: And it came to pass on the third day, behold, a man, an Amalekite serving with the Jewish army to gain citizenship, had come from the bivouac from Saul's camp, with his tunic in the process of being torn and dirt on his head. And it came to pass when he arrived at the command post of David, he deliberately fell to the earth on his knees and kept bowing up and down.

3: David said to him, "Where do you come from?" And he said to him, "I have escaped from the camp of Israel."

v3: David said to him, "Where do you come from?" And the Amalekite said to him, "I have escaped being delivered from the army of Israel."

4: And David said to him, "How did it go? Tell me." And he answered, "The people have fled from the battle, and many of the people also have fallen and are dead; and Saul and his son Jonathan are also dead."

v4: And David continued interrogating him saying much more to him including, "How was the word meaning how did things go or what happened? Please tell me." And the Amalekite replied to the effect, "That the army have run away in disgrace or deserted or fled from the battle, and many of the army are wounded and many are dead; and also Saul and his son Jonathan are also dead."

5: Then David said to the young man who told him, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?"

v5: Then David said to the Private, the one doing all the reporting and flattery to him, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan have died?"

6: And the young man who told him said, "By chance I happened to be on Mount Gilbo'a; and there was Saul leaning upon his spear; and lo, the chariots and the horsemen were close upon him.

v6: And the Amalekite private of the Jewish army who was reporting to him replied in length, "By chance I happened to be on Mount Gilbo'a (truth); and behold there was Saul resting upon his spear (false); and behold, the chariots and the calvary pursued him vigorously (false).

7: And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called to me. And I answered, 'Here I am.'

v7: And when he turned around, he saw ME, and called to ME. And I responded, 'Behold ME.'

8: And he said to me, 'Who are you?' I answered him, 'I am an Amal'ekite.'

v8: And he, Saul, said to ME, 'Who you?' I responded to him, 'Amal'ekite.'

9: And he said to me, 'Stand beside me and slay me; for anguish has seized me, and yet my life still lingers.'

v9: And then he, Saul, said to me, 'Please, stand beside me and intensively kill me; because cramps, nausea and vertigo have seized me, because all my soul still in me or I am still alive.'

10: So I stood beside him, and slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after he had fallen; and I took the crown which was on his head and the armlet which was on his arm, and I have brought them here to my lord."

v10: So I stood by him, and instantly killed him, because I knew that after his defeat in battle that he would not live; and I hastily seized the battle crown showing his rank which was on his head and the royal armband which was on his arm, and I was motivated to bring them to my Lord, here they are."

11: Then David took hold of his clothes, and rent them; and so did all the men who were with him;

v11: Then David being so over come with grief vigorously grabbed his own clothes and ripped them; and also all the men who were with him;

12: and they mourned and wept and fasted until evening for Saul and for Jonathan his son and for the people of the LORD and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

v12: And they deeply mourned and wept and being so disturbed in their souls went without food, until the evening for Saul and for Jonathan his son and for the army of the LORD and for the civilians of Israel, because they all had fallen in military defeat and disaster.

13: And David said to the young man who told him, "Where do you come from?" And he answered, "I am the son of a sojourner, an Amal'ekite."

v13: And David now resumed his extensive interrogation for court martial of the Amalekite Private who had reported to him, "From Where do you come?" And he answered, "I am the son of a man who is a stranger or foreigner, an Amal'ekite."

14: David said to him, "How is it you were not afraid to put forth your hand to destroy the LORD'S anointed?"

v14: And David in the course of the interrogation said to him, "How is it you were not afraid nor have the respect of the military to take your own sword in your hand to kill the appointed of the LORD?"

15: Then David called one of the young men and said, "Go, fall upon him." And he smote him so that he died.

v15: Then David summoned one of the officers in the Provo Marshals department and ordered, "Approach face to face, Attack and Kill him." So he, the executioner, was motivated to strike him so that he died.

16: And David said to him, "Your blood be upon your head; for your own mouth has testified against you, saying, 'I have slain the LORD'S anointed.'"

v16: And David had said prior to the execution to him the Amalekite, "Your blood guilt be upon your head or you must take responsibility for your own words and actions; for your own mouth has testified against you, saying, 'I have violently assassinated the appointed of the LORD.'"

17: And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and Jonathan his son, v17: Then David composed and chanted this elegy or lyrical poem or song of mourning about Saul and about Jonathan his son,

18: and he said it should be taught to the people of Judah; behold, it is written in the Book of Jashar. He said:

v18: and David ordered to teach the sons or people of Judah the elegy of Qesech or the Bow; behold, the whole of it is written in the Book of Ha Jashar or the boot of the Righteous or Great Ones

19: "Thy glory, O Israel, is slain upon thy high places! How are the mighty fallen!

v19: "The glory or leadership of Israel (Jonathan, Saul and all the brave men at Mt Gilboa), on your mountains have been mortally wounded and died fighting the enemy! How the mighty or brave soldiers have fallen!

20: Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Ash'kelon; lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised exult.

v20: Do not announce or publish this defeat in Gath so the enemy cannot exploit the victory, Do not spread the news in the streets of Ash'kelon of the Philistines; because the daughters of the Philistines celebrate, lest the daughters of the gentile enemies exult and have stimulating happiness.

21: "Ye mountains of Gilbo'a, let there be no dew or rain upon you, nor upsurging of the deep! For there the shield of the mighty was defiled, the shield of Saul, not anointed with oil.

v21: Oh Mountain range of Gilbo'a neither dew nor rain be upon you, nor fields of cultivation for the offerings of the feast of first fruits; let the fields be unproductive! Because the shield of the valiant brave heroes has been defiled with the shedding of their blood in death and defeat, and the shield of Saul was not polished with oil after the battle because of Saul's defeat and death.

22: "From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan turned not back, and the sword of Saul returned not empty.

v22: "From the blood of the slain philistine enemy casualties, from the flesh of the valiant philistine casualties the bow of Jonathan had not turned back from the enemy and the sword of Saul did not return empty.

23: "Saul and Jonathan, beloved and lovely! In life and in death they were not divided; they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions.

v23: "Saul and Jonathan, were loved and respected in their lives! And in their deaths they have not been separated; they were swifter than eagles displaying incredible agility, they were more courageous than lions.

24: "Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you daintily in scarlet, who put ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

v24: "You daughters of Israel, Jewish women in the land after the battle of Mt Gilboa, weep in your soul over Saul, who caused you to be clothed in scarlet and crimson with luxurious accessories from the plunder of past military success, who caused to bring you gold and jewelry for your clothing.

25: "How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! "Jonathan lies slain upon thy high places.

v25: "Oh How have fallen the brave soldiers or Heros in the midst of the battle of Gilboa! "Oh Jonathan slain or killed in action on your high places of Mt Gilboa."

26: I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan; very pleasant have you been to me; your love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.

v26: I am distressed or grieve for you, my brother Jonathan; You have been extremely kind to me; your soul love to me was extraordinary as a friend, beyond the love of any woman I have known.

27: "How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished!"

v27: "How the brave soldiers have fallen, the instruments of war or battle, the soldiers, ruined or wasted!"

Chapter 2

Second Samuel, chapter 2

1: After this David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah?" And the LORD said to him, "Go up." David said, "To which shall I go up?" And he said, "To Hebron."

v1: And it came to pass after all of the prior events David inquired of the LORD using the high priest with the ephod and urum and thumum, saying, "Shall I go up into one of the cities of Judah?" And the LORD indirectly answered him through Urum, "Go up." David said, "Where shall I go up?" And through Thumum the Lord answered, "To Hebron."

2: So David went up there, and his two wives also, Ahin'o-am of Jezreel, and Ab'igail the widow of Nabal of Carmel.

v2: Consequently David was caused to go up there to Hebron, and his two wives Namely, Ahin'o-am of Jezreel, and Ab'igail the widow of Nabal of Carmel.

3: And David brought up his men who were with him, every one with his household; and they dwelt in the towns of Hebron.

v3: Now David had brought up his men who were with him, every man with his household; and they were quartered and dwelt in the vicinity of Heron.

4: And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. When they told David, "It was the men of Ja'besh-gil'ead who buried Saul,"

v4: And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed, appointed or crowned (1004 – 998 BC) David king over the house of Judah. And the intelligence department reported to David saying, "It was the men of Ja'besh-gil'ead who buried Saul,"

5: David sent messengers to the men of Ja'besh-gil'ead, and said to them, "May you be blessed by the LORD, because you showed this loyalty to Saul your lord, and buried him!

v5: David sent an embassy group to the men of Ja'besh-gil'ead, and said to them, "You are Being blessed with reference to the LORD, because of this grace you have done to your Lord, this Saul having buried him

6: Now may the LORD show steadfast love and faithfulness to you! And I will do good to you because you have done this thing.

v6: Therefore at this time the LORD shall provide for you steadfast love in grace and doctrine! And also I will do this good for you in this alliance because you have courageously found and reclaimed and buried the corpses of Saul and his sons.

7: Now therefore let your hands be strong, and be valiant; for Saul your lord is dead, and the house of Judah has anointed me king over them."

v7: Therefore at this time your hands must be strong and alert, consequently be sons of the army, Soldiers and maintain a standing army; for Saul your lord has died, and also the house of Judah has appointed me king over them."

8: Now Abner the son of Ner, commander of Saul's army, had taken Ish-bo'sheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahana'im;

v8: Now Abner the son of Ner, Prince or Chief of staff of Saul's army, had taken away Ish-bo'sheth the son of Saul, and caused him to be brought over the Jordan river to Mahana'im;

9: and he made him king over Gilead and the Ash'urites and Jezreel and E'phraim and Benjamin and all Israel.

v9: and he, Abner caused him, Ishbosheth, to be made king over Gilead and the extreme northern tribe of the Ash'urites and Jezreel and E'phraim and Benjamin even over this much of Israel all of this.

10: Ish-bo'sheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David.

v10: A son of Saul Ish-bo'sheth was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he ruled two years. But the house of Judah remained loyal to David.

11: And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

12: Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bo'sheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahana'im to Gibeon.

v12: Abner the son of Ner, and the army organized by abner over 5 years, of Ish-bo'sheth the son of Saul, embarked on a military expedition south from Mahana'im to Gibeon.

13: And Jo'ab the son of Zeru'iah, and the servants of David, went out and met them at the pool of Gibeon; and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

v13: And Jo'ab one of 3 sons of Zeru'iah a sister of David and his chief of staff, and the soldiers of David, organized over the past 5 years, advanced and accidentally encountered the army of Abner by the pool of Gibeon; and they sat down, Joab's army on the one side of the pool, and Abner's army on the other side of the pool.

14: And Abner said to Jo'ab, "Let the young men arise and play before us." And Jo'ab said, "Let them arise."

v14: And Abner said to Jo'ab, "Why not let the young green recruits who have no combat experience be selected please and skirmish or fight with weapons before us in the arena of the pool ." And Jo'ab liking the idea of giving some men combat experience agreed , "Let them be appointed."

15: Then they arose and passed over by number, twelve for Benjamin and Ish-bo'sheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

v15: Therefore they were appointed and marched over by number, twelve from the tribe of Benjamin belonging to the army of Ish-bo'sheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the soldiers of David.

16: And each caught his opponent by the head, and thrust his sword in his opponent's side; so they fell down together. Therefore that place was called Hel'kath-hazzu'rim, which is at Gibeon.

v16: And each being very eager and ready to fight and grabbed vigorously and violently his opponent by the hair, ears, or helmet of their head, and thrust his sword in his opponent's side; with the result that they fell down together all dead. Therefore that place would be called Hel'kath-hazzu'rim meaning the arena of the swords, which is located in Gibeon.

17: And the battle was very fierce that day; and Abner and the men of Israel were beaten before the servants of David.

v17: Therefore the battle became very fierce and severe that day; and Abner and the soldiers of northern Israel were defeated and routed before the soldiers of David.

18: And the three sons of Zeru'iah were there, Jo'ab, Abi'shai, and As'ahel. Now As'ahel was as swift of foot as a wild gazelle;

v18: And the three sons of Zeru'iah the sister of David, great soldiers all, were there, Jo'ab, Abi'shai, and As'ahel. But As'ahel was as fast runner like a wild gazelle;

19: and As'ahel pursued Abner, and as he went he turned neither to the right hand nor to the left from following Abner.

v19: Now As'ahel pursued Abner, and he concentrated only on him during the pursuit nothing distracted him from his focus on catching Abner.

20: Then Abner looked behind him and said, "Is it you, As'ahel?" And he answered, "It is I."

v20: Then Abner turned around to take a look behind him and said, "Is it you, As'ahel?" And he replied, "I."

21: Abner said to him, "Turn aside to your right hand or to your left, and seize one of the young men, and take his spoil." But As'ahel would not turn aside from following him.

v21: Abner stopped and turned around and ordered Asahel, "Turn aside either right or left, and seize or grab for yourself one of the retreating easy green soldiers, and kill him and take his armor." But As'ahel was not willing to turn aside from following him.

22: And Abner said again to As'ahel, "Turn aside from following me; why should I smite you to the ground? How then could I lift up my face to your brother Jo'ab?"

v22: And Abner stopped again and repeated again to As'ahel, "Turn aside with reference to yourself from pursuing me; why should I kill you by pinning you to the ground? How then could I lift up my face to your brother Jo'ab?"

23: But he refused to turn aside; therefore Abner smote him in the belly with the butt of his spear, so that the spear came out at his back; and he fell there, and died where he was. And all who came to the place where As'ahel had fallen and died, stood still.

v23: However he Asahel intensified his intentions and refused to turn aside in his arrogance; therefore Abner slowed his running and allowed asahel to catch him and pushes the butt end of the spear into his bowels, so that the spear came out at his back; and he fell there, and slowly died writhing where he fell. And all who came to the place where As'ahel had fallen and died, stood still shocked.

24: But Jo'ab and Abi'shai pursued Abner; and as the sun was going down they came to the hill of Ammah, which lies before Gi'ah on the way to the wilderness of Gibeon.

v24: But Jo'ab and Abi'shai continued the pursuit of Abner; and as the sun was going down and when they had come to the hill of Ammah, which overlooks the town of Gi'ah on the way to the desert of Gibeon.

25: And the Benjaminites gathered themselves together behind Abner, and became one band, and took their stand on the top of a hill.

v25: Now the soldiers of Benjamin assembled themselves together behind Abner, and became one reorganized body of men, and made their defensive stand on the top of the hill.

26: Then Abner called to Jo'ab, "Shall the sword devour for ever? Do you not know that the end will be bitter? How long will it be before you bid your people turn from the pursuit of their brethren?"

v26: Then Abner called to Jo'ab and said, "Shall the sword devour for ever in never ending slaughter? Have you now always known that the end will be bitter? How long will it be before you sound recall for your people and turn them from the pursuit of their Jewish brethren?"

27: And Jo'ab said, "As God lives, if you had not spoken, surely the men would have given up the pursuit of their brethren in the morning."

v27: And Jo'ab profanely replied, "Dammit to hell, By the life of the Elohim or By God, if you had not spoken at the pool this would not have happened and there would have been no battle, the troops would have driven away each other from pursuit of their brethren in the morning."

28: So Jo'ab blew the trumpet; and all the men stopped, and pursued Israel no more, nor did they fight any more.

v28: So Jo'ab sounded recall with the trumpet; and the entire army then stood fast and stopped, and they did not again pursue after Israel and did not continue fighting any more.

29: And Abner and his men went all that night through the Arabah; they crossed the Jordan, and marching the whole forenoon they came to Mahana'im.

v29: Consequently Abner and his men marched all that night through the Arabah; they crossed the Jordan, and marching through the whole forenoon through a narrow gorge and came to Mahana'im.

30: Jo'ab returned from the pursuit of Abner; and when he had gathered all the people together, there were missing of David's servants nineteen men besides As'ahel.

v30: Jo'ab returned from the pursuit of Abner; and when he had gathered all the men together, there were missing of David's army nineteen men besides As'ahel.

31: But the servants of David had slain of Benjamin three hundred and sixty of Abner's men.

v31: But the army of David had slain many of Benjamin three hundred and sixty of Abner's men.

32: And they took up As'ahel, and buried him in the tomb of his father, which was at Bethlehem. And Jo'ab and his men marched all night, and the day broke upon them at Hebron.

v32: And they carried As'ahel's corpse, and buried him in the tomb of his father, which was at Bethlehem. And Jo'ab and his men marched all night, and the day broke upon them at Hebron.

Chapter 3

Second Samuel, chapter 3

1: There was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David; and David grew stronger and stronger, while the house of Saul became weaker and weaker.

2: And sons were born to David at Hebron: his first-born was Amnon, of Ahin'o-am of Jezreel;

3: and his second, Chil'e-ab, of Ab'igail the widow of Nabal of Carmel; and the third, Ab'salom the son of Ma'acah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur;

4: and the fourth, Adoni'jah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephati'ah the son of Abi'tal;

5: and the sixth, Ith're-am, of Eglah, David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

6: While there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner was making himself strong in the house of Saul.

v6: While there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner was making himself strong in the house of Saul.

7: Now Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Ai'ah; and Ish-bo'sheth said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?"

v7: Now Saul had a mistress, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Ai'ah; and Ish-bo'sheth remonstrated with Abner, "Why have you raped my father's mistress?"

8: Then Abner was very angry over the words of Ish-bo'sheth, and said, "Am I a dog's head of Judah? This day I keep showing loyalty to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not given you into the hand of David; and yet you charge me today with a fault concerning a woman.

v8: Then Abner was very angry over the reprimand of Ish-bo'sheth, and said, "Am I a dog's head which belongs to Judah or a low and despicable person, a traitor without integrity? Today I keep showing loyalty or kindness to the house of Saul fighting on the side of your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not given you into the hand of David; and yet you reprimand me today with this fault concerning a woman.

9: God do so to Abner, and more also, if I do not accomplish for David what the LORD has sworn to him,

10: to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul, and set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan to Beer-sheba."

11: And Ish-bo'sheth could not answer Abner another word, because he feared him.

12: And Abner sent messengers to David at Hebron, saying, "To whom does the land belong? Make your covenant with me, and behold, my hand shall be with you to bring over all Israel to you."

13: And he said, "Good; I will make a covenant with you; but one thing I require of you; that is, you shall not see my face, unless you first bring Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see my face."

14: Then David sent messengers to Ish-bo'sheth Saul's son, saying, "Give me my wife Michal, whom I betrothed at the price of a hundred foreskins of the Philistines."

15: And Ish-bo'sheth sent, and took her from her husband Pal'ti-el the son of La'ish.

16: But her husband went with her, weeping after her all the way to Bahu'rim. Then Abner said to him, "Go, return"; and he returned.

v16: But her husband kept on walking with her, and kept on weeping after her all the way to Bahu'rim. Then Abner said to him, "Go, return and keep going"; and he kept returning and did not look back.

17: And Abner conferred with the elders of Israel, saying, "For some time past you have been seeking David as king over you.

18: Now then bring it about; for the LORD has promised David, saying, `By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel from the hand of the Philistines, and from the hand of all their enemies.'"

19: Abner also spoke to Benjamin; and then Abner went to tell David at Hebron all that Israel and the whole house of Benjamin thought good to do.

20: When Abner came with twenty men to David at Hebron, David made a feast for Abner and the men who were with him.

21: And Abner said to David, "I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may reign over all that your heart desires." So David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

22: Just then the servants of David arrived with Jo'ab from a raid, bringing much spoil with them. But Abner was not with David at Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace.

23: When Jo'ab and all the army that was with him came, it was told Jo'ab, "Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he has let him go, and he has gone in peace."

24: Then Jo'ab went to the king and said, "What have you done? Behold, Abner came to you; why is it that you have sent him away, so that he is gone?"

25: You know that Abner the son of Ner came to deceive you, and to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you are doing."

26: When Jo'ab came out from David's presence, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the cistern of Sirah; but David did not know about it.

27: And when Abner returned to Hebron, Jo'ab took him aside into the midst of the gate to speak with him privately, and there he smote him in the belly, so that he died, for the blood of As'ahel his brother.

28: Afterward, when David heard of it, he said, "I and my kingdom are for ever guiltless before the LORD for the blood of Abner the son of Ner.

29: May it fall upon the head of Jo'ab, and upon all his father's house; and may the house of Jo'ab never be without one who has a discharge, or who is leprous, or who holds a spindle, or who is slain by the sword, or who lacks bread!"

30: So Jo'ab and Abi'shai his brother slew Abner, because he had killed their brother As'ahel in the battle at Gibeon.

31: Then David said to Jo'ab and to all the people who were with him, "Rend your clothes, and gird on sackcloth, and mourn before Abner." And King David followed the bier.

32: They buried Abner at Hebron; and the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.

33: And the king lamented for Abner, saying, "Should Abner die as a fool dies?"

34: Your hands were not bound, your feet were not fettered; as one falls before the wicked you have fallen." And all the people wept again over him.
35: Then all the people came to persuade David to eat bread while it was yet day; but David swore, saying, "God do so to me and more also, if I taste bread or anything else till the sun goes down!"
36: And all the people took notice of it, and it pleased them; as everything that the king did pleased all the people.
37: So all the people and all Israel understood that day that it had not been the king's will to slay Abner the son of Ner.
38: And the king said to his servants, "Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel?"
39: And I am this day weak, though anointed king; these men the sons of Zeru'iah are too hard for me. The LORD requite the evildoer according to his wickedness!"

Chapter 4 Second Samuel, chapter 4

1: When Ish-bo'sheth, Saul's son, heard that Abner had died at Hebron, his courage failed, and all Israel was dismayed.
2: Now Saul's son had two men who were captains of raiding bands; the name of the one was Ba'anah, and the name of the other Rechab, sons of Rimmon a man of Benjamin from Be-er'oth (for Be-er'oth also is reckoned to Benjamin;
3: the Be-er'othites fled to Gitta'im, and have been sojourners there to this day).
4: Jonathan, the son of Saul, had a son who was crippled in his feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel; and his nurse took him up, and fled; and, as she fled in her haste, he fell, and became lame. And his name was Mephib'osheth.
v4: Jonathan, the son of Saul, had a son who was crippled in his feet. He was five years old when the report of Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel; consequently his nurse took him up, and fled; and, as she fled in her haste, she fell, and he became lame. And his name was Mephib'osheth.
5: Now the sons of Rimmon the Be-er'othite, Rechab and Ba'anah, set out, and about the heat of the day they came to the house of Ish-bo'sheth, as he was taking his noonday rest.
6: And behold, the doorkeeper of the house had been cleaning wheat, but she grew drowsy and slept; so Rechab and Ba'anah his brother slipped in.
7: When they came into the house, as he lay on his bed in his bedchamber, they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him. They took his head, and went by the way of the Arabah all night,
8: and brought the head of Ish-bo'sheth to David at Hebron. And they said to the king, "Here is the head of Ish-bo'sheth, the son of Saul, your enemy, who sought your life; the LORD has avenged my lord the king this day on Saul and on his offspring."
9: But David answered Rechab and Ba'anah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Be-er'othite, "As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life out of every adversity,
10: when one told me, 'Behold, Saul is dead,' and thought he was bringing good news, I seized him and slew him at Ziklag, which was the reward I gave him for his news.
11: How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous man in his own house upon his bed, shall I not now require his blood at your hand, and destroy you from the earth?"
12: And David commanded his young men, and they killed them, and cut off their hands and feet, and hanged them beside the pool at Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bo'sheth, and buried it in the tomb of Abner at Hebron.

Chapter 5 Second Samuel, chapter 5

1: Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron, and said, "Behold, we are your bone and flesh."
v1: Therefore all the nation of Israel of their own free will sent representatives and they gathered together to David at his capitol in Hebron, saying, "Behold, we are your bone and flesh.
2: In times past, when Saul was king over us, it was you that led out and brought in Israel; and the LORD said to you, 'You shall be shepherd of my people Israel, and you shall be prince over Israel.'
v2: Even in times past, when Saul was king, you were the one as military commander exercising leadership command over the army of Israel leading them out and always bringing them back in; because of these things Jehovah your Elohim said to you, 'You and you alone will shepherd my people, Israel, and you and only you shall become what you were not before, a loved, admired, honored and respected prince over my people Israel.'"
3: So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron; and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed David king over Israel.
v3: Therefore all the elders of Israel came to David at Hebron; and David cut a contract or covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD, and they appointed by unction David king over Israel, according to the word of the Jehovah by the anointing hand of Samuel.
4: David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.
5: At Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months; and at Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah thirty-three years.
6: And the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jeb'usites, the inhabitants of the land, who said to David, "You will not come in here, but the blind and the lame will ward you off" -- thinking, "David cannot come in here."

v6: Now the king and his army advanced against Jerusalem and the Jeb'usites, the inhabitants of the land, who kept yelling at David, "You will never make it and cannot come here, unless you cause the blind and the lame whom we will use to defend our city, to retreat" thinking to themselves, "David cannot ever take this fortification."

7: Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion, that is, the city of David.

v7: Nevertheless David seized the castle of Zion by force, that is, the city of David.

8: And David said on that day, "Whoever would smite the Jeb'usites, let him get up the water shaft to attack the lame and the blind, who are hated by David's soul." Therefore it is said, "The blind and the lame shall not come into the house."

v8: And David said on that day, "Whoever slaughters the Jeb'usites as well as their blind and lame war gods, Also let him reach out for the lame and the blind, the war god idols, who are always hated by David's soul." Therefore a proverb comes from this and they say, "The blind and the lame shall not come into this house."

9: And David dwelt in the stronghold, and called it the city of David. And David built the city round about from the Millo inward.

10: And David became greater and greater, for the LORD, the God of hosts, was with him.

11: And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, also carpenters and masons who built David a house.

12: And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel.

13: And David took more concubines and wives from Jerusalem, after he came from Hebron; and more sons and daughters were born to David.

v13: Meanwhile David took more mistresses and wives from Jerusalem, after he came from Hebron; therefore more sons and daughters were born to David.

14: And these are the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem: Sham'mu-a, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

15: Ibhar, Eli'shu-a, Nepheg, Japhi'a,

16: Eli'shama, Eli'ada, and Eliph'elet.

17: When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, all the Philistines went up in search of David; but David heard of it and went down to the stronghold.

v17: Now when the Philistines received intelligence reports that David had been anointed and appointed king over Israel, all the Philistines in the 5 city states combined in a total mobilization and were motivated to invade in a search and destroy mission against David; but David received intelligence reports of it and went down to Metsudah the fortified headquarters at Mt Zion.

18: Now the Philistines had come and spread out in the valley of Reph'aim.

v18: Therefore the Philistines invaded and were concentrated in and fortified the valley of Reph'aim formerly home of the Giants.

19: And David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Wilt thou give them into my hand?" And the LORD said to David, "Go up; for I will certainly give the Philistines into your hand."

v19: Therefore David asked Jehovah in part saying, "Shall I Attack the Philistines? Will you give them over into my hand?" And the LORD Jehovah said to David, "Attack, Attack, Attack; for I will certainly emphatically give the Philistines into your hand."

20: And David came to Ba'al-pera'zim, and David defeated them there; and he said, "The LORD has broken through my enemies before me, like a bursting flood." Therefore the name of that place is called Ba'al-pera'zim.

v20: And David advanced to the bottom of the fortified ridge at Ba'al-pera'zim in a frontal assault with a tactical penetration, consequently David totally defeated them there; and he said, "Jehovah has broken through the lines of my enemies to my front, like waters bursting in a flood through a dam." Therefore he named that battlefield Ba'al-pera'zim.

21: And the Philistines left their idols there, and David and his men carried them away.

v21: And the Philistines abandoned their battle gods and their idols there, therefore David and his army picked them up and carried them away to later burn them 1Chron 14:12.

22: And the Philistines came up yet again, and spread out in the valley of Reph'aim.

V22: Now once again despite their decisive defeat, the Philistines advanced and invaded from their sea level country into the mountainous area of David, and concentrated their troops into a good tactical position and were concentrated in the valley of Reph'aim, just south of Jerusalem.

23: And when David inquired of the LORD, he said, "You shall not go up; go around to their rear, and come upon them opposite the balsam trees.

v23: Therefore when David inquired of the Lord with a battle prayer, the Lord said, "You shall not attack with a frontal assault; but execute a single envelopment from behind them, and attack them from the mulberry tree grove.

24: And when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then bestir yourself; for then the LORD has gone out before you to smite the army of the Philistines."

v24: And it shall be when you hear from your position, the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then move out and attack immediately; for then the LORD will advance before you to annihilate the army of the Philistines."

25: And David did as the LORD commanded him, and smote the Philistines from Geba to Gezer.

v25: Consequently David manufactured his plan from the divine instructions and executed as the LORD had commanded him, and drove the Philistines north to Gibeon then northwest over 18 miles to Gezer and annihilated the enemy driving them out of the country.

Chapter 6
Second Samuel, chapter 6

1: David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.

2: And David arose and went with all the people who were with him from Ba'ale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the LORD of hosts who sits enthroned on the cherubim.

3: And they carried the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abin'adab which was on the hill; and Uzzah and Ahi'o, the sons of Abin'adab, were driving the new cart

4: with the ark of God; and Ahi'o went before the ark.

5: And David and all the house of Israel were making merry before the LORD with all their might, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals.

6: And when they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah put out his hand to the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen stumbled.

7: And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and God smote him there because he put forth his hand to the ark; and he died there beside the ark of God.

8: And David was angry because the LORD had broken forth upon Uzzah; and that place is called Pe'rez-uz'zah, to this day.

9: And David was afraid of the LORD that day; and he said, "How can the ark of the LORD come to me?"

10: So David was not willing to take the ark of the LORD into the city of David; but David took it aside to the house of O'bed-e'dom the Gittite.

11: And the ark of the LORD remained in the house of O'bed-e'dom the Gittite three months; and the LORD blessed O'bed-e'dom and all his household.

12: And it was told King David, "The LORD has blessed the household of O'bed-e'dom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God." So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of O'bed-e'dom to the city of David with rejoicing;

13: and when those who bore the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling.

14: And David danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded with a linen ephod.

15: So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the horn.

16: As the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window, and saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

v16: As the ark of the LORD was returned into the city of David, Mikael Saul's daughter leaning way out of the window and kept staring down into the street, at the King David leaping agilely in ecstasy and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul.

17: And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in its place, inside the tent which David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

v17: And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in its place, inside the tent which David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

18: And when David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts,

18: And when David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts,

19: and distributed among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, to each a cake of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. Then all the people departed, each to his house.

v19: and distributed among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, to each a large disc of bread, a Large portion of meat, and a flagon of Wine. Then all the people departed, each to his house.

20: And David returned to bless his household. But Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, "How the king of Israel honored himself today, uncovering himself today before the eyes of his servants' maids, as one of the vulgar fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!"

v20: And David returned to bless his household. But Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, "How Glorious was the king of Israel today, uncovering himself today before the eyes of his servants' maids, as one of the vulgar fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!"

21: And David said to Michal, "It was before the LORD, who chose me above your father, and above all his house, to appoint me as prince over Israel, the people of the LORD -- and I will make merry before the LORD.

v21: And David seeing the real person said to Mikael, "It was before the LORD, who chose me above your father, and above all his house, to appoint me as prince over Israel, the people of the LORD, therefore I will dance before the LORD.

22: I will make myself yet more contemptible than this, and I will be abased in your eyes; but by the maids of whom you have spoken, by them I shall be held in honor."

v22: I will make myself yet more vile or contemptible than this, and I will be base in my own sight and abased in your eyes;

but by the maid servants of whom you have spoken, by them I shall be held highly in honor."

23: And Michal the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.

v23: Therefore Michal the reversionistic daughter of Saul there was not to her ever again love or sex with any man to the day of her sin unto death.

Chapter 7

Second Samuel, chapter 7

1: Now when the king dwelt in his house, and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies round about,

v1: Now it came to pass when the king was living prosperously in his castle, and the Jehovah had caused a rest and relaxation period or a peaceful interlude after the first 2 wars, from all his enemies the philistines and Mikael and domestic enemies,

2: the king said to Nathan the prophet, "See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwells in a tent."

v2: Consequently the king in part said to Nathan the prophet, "See now, I live in prosperity in a castle of cedar, but the ark of the Elohim keeps sitting in the midst of curtains of the holy of holies of the tabernacle."

3: And Nathan said to the king, "Go, do all that is in your heart; for the LORD is with you."

v3: And Nathan replied to the king, "All that is in your Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul thinking, Go and do or manufacture it; for Jehovah is with you."

4: But that same night the word of the LORD came to Nathan,

v4: However it came to pass or so happened on that same night the word of the Jehovah came to Nathan saying,

5: "Go and tell my servant David, `Thus says the LORD: Would you build me a house to dwell in?"

v5: "Go or March over to the castle and communicate to my servant David this order, `Thus says the LORD: Will you build me a house to sit or dwell in prosperity? No you will not do so!

6: I have not dwelt in a house since the day I brought up the people of Israel from Egypt to this day, but I have been moving about in a tent for my dwelling.

v6: For I have not sat in a permanent temple house since the time I caused the people of Israel to be brought out of Egypt (1441 bc) to this day (995 bc), but I have been wandering about in a tent as a tabernacle.

7: In all places where I have moved with all the people of Israel, did I speak a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, saying, "Why have you not built me a house of cedar?"

v7: Wherever I myself have wandered about from place to place with all the citizens of Israel, have I spoken a word with any of the tribes which had a chance to rule Israel concerning this thing, whom I commanded to shepherd my people, Israel, saying, "Why have you not constructed me a house of cedar?" (NO!)

8: Now therefore thus you shall say to my servant David, `Thus says the LORD of hosts, I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, that you should be prince over my people Israel;

v8: Now therefore so shall you say to my servant David, `Thus says Jehovah of the Armies, I, myself, and only I seized you from the pasture where the sheep eat and sleep and defecate, from following behind the sheep, that you should be noble honorable prince ruler over my people Israel;

9: and I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make for you a great name, like the name of the great ones of the earth.

v9: and I have been with you wherever you went or marched, and have destroyed or annihilated all your enemies from before you; and I will manufacture or build out of grace for you a great name of celebrityship, like the fame of the great ones of the earth.

10: And I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place, and be disturbed no more; and violent men shall afflict them no more, as formerly,

v10: Also I will appoint a geographic place (Palestinian covenant) for my people Israel, and will plant Israel at the 2nd advent of Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, in order that Israel may dwell or sit under it prosperity in a place of his own, and be disturbed no more by invasion or the 5th cycle of discipline; because the sons of perversion involved in and influenced by reversionism, legalism, antisemitism, liberalism, all evil satanic policies, and violent men shall never again oppress them, as formerly,

11: from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel; and I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover the LORD declares to you that the LORD will make you a house.

v11: Even from the day that I ordered or commanded the judges to be over my people Israel; even from the time I have caused a prosperous peaceful interlude under David to you from all your enemies. Therefore Jehovah has made a formal proclamation to you that a dynasty Jehovah will manufacture for you forever.

12: When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come forth from your body, and I will establish his kingdom.

v12: And it shall come to pass when your days are complete and you lie down with your fathers, I will cause to raise up your descendant (Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ) after you, who shall come forth from your genetic line, and I will establish his kingdom.

13: He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever.

v13: He, Solomon, the next king; shall build a house or temple for my person (Ex 40+ Millennial Temple), and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

14: I will be his father, and he shall be my son. When he commits iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, with the stripes of the sons of men;

v14: I will be like a father to him, and he will be like my son. When he becomes reversionistic, I will punish him with the rod of men the 4th cycle of discipline on the nation, and with the lashes of the sons of Adam the 5th cycle of discipline on the nation;

15: but I will not take my steadfast love from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away from before you.

v15: But my grace or steadfast love shall never go away from him, David, as caused it to go away from Saul, whom I removed from before you.

16: And your house and your kingdom shall be made sure for ever before me; your throne shall be established for ever."

v16: Both your dynasty or descendants and your kingdom of Israel, David, shall be established, durable, permanent or for ever before your face; your royal throne shall become established for ever."

17: In accordance with all these words, and in accordance with all this vision, Nathan spoke to David.

v17: In accordance with all these words, and in accordance with all this vision, thus Nathan communicated to David.

18: Then King David went in and sat before the LORD, and said, "Who am I, O Lord GOD, and what is my house, that thou hast brought me thus far?"

v18: As a result of this Davidic covenant, King David went or came into his headquarters and sat down before the LORD, and prayed, "Who am I, My Lord Jehovah, and what is my house or family, that you have caused me to come this far?"

19: And yet this was a small thing in thy eyes, O Lord GOD; thou hast spoken also of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast shown me future generations, O Lord GOD!

v19: However this blessing you have given me now was insignificant in your eyes, Oh my Lord Jehovah; but you also have spoken of the family or dynasty of your servant with reference to the distant future, therefore THIS (Davidic covenant) law of the Adam (is) my Lord Jehovah!

20: And what more can David say to thee? For thou knowest thy servant, O Lord GOD!

v20: Now what more shall David add to speak to you? Because my Lord Jehovah, you have known me in Eternity Past and present and into the future!

21: Because of thy promise, and according to thy own heart, thou hast wrought all this greatness, to make thy servant know it.

v21: Because of your word or doctrine, and according to your essence, you have manufactured all this greatness, having caused it to be made known to your servant.

22: Therefore thou art great, O LORD God; for there is none like thee, and there is no God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

v22: Because you have been and always are and never can not be great, Jehovah Elohim; Because there is not anyone to compare to you, and there is not an Elohim (God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit) beside you, according to all that we have heard or learned by concentration with our ears.

23: What other nation on earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be his people, making himself a name, and doing for them great and terrible things, by driving out before his people a nation and its gods?

v23: Therefore who is like your people, like Israel, a nation unique on the earth, whom Elohim (God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit) went to set free or liberate or preserve for himself a people, to establish himself a reputation or monument to the Grace of God, and to manufacture for you, God, the greatness and honorable things for your land of Israel before the faces of your people which you have delivered, redeemed, set free for yourself from Egypt other gentile nations and their false gods.

24: And thou didst establish for thyself thy people Israel to be thy people for ever; and thou, O LORD, didst become their God.

v24: Consequently you have established for yourself your people Israel, to be your own people forever; and you Jehovah have become their Elohim..

25: And now, O LORD God, confirm for ever the word which thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house, and do as thou hast spoken;

v25: Now therefore the word which you have spoken Oh Jehovah, Elohim, concerning your servant and concerning his dynasty has been confirmed forever therefore you will perform this covenant just as you have spoken.

26: and thy name will be magnified for ever, saying, 'The LORD of hosts is God over Israel,' and the house of thy servant David will be established before thee.

v26: Therefore your name shall be glorified or magnified for ever by saying, 'Jehovah of the armies is Elohim over Israel,' consequently the dynasty of your servant David will be permanently established before your face.

27: For thou, O LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, hast made this revelation to thy servant, saying, 'I will build you a house'; therefore thy servant has found courage to pray this prayer to thee.

v27: For you and only you oh Jehovah, Lord of the armies, Elohim of Israel, have uncovered the ear and privately informed or revealed to your servant, saying, 'I will build you a dynasty'; therefore your servant has discovered in his Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul the doctrine to pray to you this prayer.

28: And now, O Lord GOD, thou art God, and thy words are true, and thou hast promised this good thing to thy servant;

v28: Now therefore, oh Lord Jehovah, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, you are that Elohim, and your words have become doctrine, because you have spoken this promised to your servant David this absolute good.

29: now therefore may it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee; for thou, O Lord GOD, hast spoken, and with thy blessing shall the house of thy servant be blessed for ever."

v29: Now therefore undertake what you have willed and even bless the dynasty of your servant, that it may continue forever before your face; for you my Lord Jehovah have spoken this promise, therefore with your blessing the dynasty of your servant David will be blessed forever."

Chapter 8

Second Samuel, chapter 8

1: After this David defeated the Philistines and subdued them, and David took Meth'eg-am'mah out of the hand of the Philistines.

v1: And it came to pass after his spiritual prosperity and blessing, David caused to strike down and defeated the Philistines tactically and conquered or ground them into submission strategically winning the war, and David seized violently in victory Meth'eg-am'mah the bridle of the authority of the central government out of the mother or capitol city out from the hand of the Philistines.

2: And he defeated Moab, and measured them with a line, making them lie down on the ground; two lines he measured to be put to death, and one full line to be spared. And the Moabites became servants to David and brought tribute.

v2: Also he, David, tactically defeated Moab, and arranged them into 3 lines, making them lie down on the ground and inspects them; He then executed 2 full lines and and the remaining full line he set to be spared after seeing their fellows executed. Therefore the Moabites understanding this great slaughter and violence became servants to David and brought tribute.

3: David also defeated Hadade'zer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to restore his power at the river Euphra'tes.

v3: And David also defeated Hadade'zer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to restore his rule at the river Euphra'tes.

4: And David took from him a thousand and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers; and David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but left enough for a hundred chariots.

v4: And David captured from him one thousand chariots and seven thousand calvary, and twenty thousand infantry; and David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but left enough for a hundred chariots.

5: And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadade'zer king of Zobah, David slew twenty-two thousand men of the Syrians.

v5: And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadade'zer king of Zobah, David inflicted casualties in Aram, twenty-two thousand soldiers of the Syrians.

6: Then David put garrisons in Aram of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David and brought tribute. And the LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.

v6: Then David established garrisons in Aram of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David and brought tribute. Consequently the LORD Jehovah gave victory to David wherever he marched.

7: And David took the shields of gold which were carried by the servants of Hadade'zer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

v7: And David caused the shields of gold which were carried by the body guards of Hadade'zer, to be brought them to Jerusalem.

8: And from Betah and from Bero'thai, cities of Hadade'zer, King David took very much bronze.

v8: And from Betah and from Bero'thai, cities of Hadade'zer, King David took large amounts of bronze.

9: When To'i king of Hamath heard that David had defeated the whole army of Hadade'zer, v9: When To'i king of Hamath continually heard reports and consolidated the intelligence information that David had defeated the whole army of Hadade'zer,

10: To'i sent his son Joram to King David, to greet him, and to congratulate him because he had fought against Hadade'zer and defeated him; for Hadade'zer had often been at war with To'i. And Joram brought with him articles of silver, of gold, and of bronze;

v10: To'i sent his son Hadadoram to King David, to ask for peace him, to congratulate him and to bless him with gifts, because he had engaged in a preventative war against Hadade'zer and totally defeated him; for Hadade'zer had been perpetually hostile to and at war against To'i. And Hadadoram brought in his hands with him articles of silver, of gold, and of bronze;

11: these also King David dedicated to the LORD, together with the silver and gold which he dedicated from all the nations he subdued, v11: these articles of flattery of gold, silver and bronze also King David caused to set apart to the LORD, together with the silver and gold which he had set apart from all the nations which he conquered, 12: from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, Am'alek, and from the spoil of Hadade'zer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

v12: from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, Am'alek, and from the plunder of Hadade'zer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

13: And David won a name for himself. When he returned, he slew eighteen thousand E'domites in the Valley of Salt.

v13: Consequently David manufactured, out of maturity Adjustment to the Justice of God and maximum Metabolized

Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, a name for himself, when he returned from his victory over the Syrians; In the valley of the salt where Abashai annihilated eighteen thousand E'domites as casualties. 1Chron 18:12

14: And he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom he put garrisons, and all the E'domites became David's servants. And the LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.

v14: And he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom he put garrisons, and all the E'domites became David's servants. And the LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.

15: So David reigned over all Israel; and David administered justice and equity to all his people.

v15: So David kept on ruling over all Israel; Now it came to pass that David manufactured out of maximum Metabolized Bible Doctrine in his Stream of Consciousness of the Soul a government with Justice and honor and integrity in punishment of Crime and Justice, virtue and integrity in this judgment, to all his people.

16: And Jo'ab the son of Zeru'iah was over the army; and Jehosh'aphat the son of Ahi'lud was recorder;

17: and Zadok the son of Ahi'tub and Ahim'elech the son of Abi'athar were priests; and Serai'ah was secretary;

v17: and Zadok the son of Ahi'tub and Ahim'elech the son of Abi'athar were appointed high priests solving competition between the families; and Serai'ah was his personal executive secretary;

18: and Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada was over the Cher'ethites and the Pel'ethites; and David's sons were priests.

v18: And Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada hero of the war of Moab (1Chron 27:5), was commander of the Cher'ethites and the Pel'ethites David's personal philistine guard; and David's sons were priests.

Chapter 9

Second Samuel, chapter 9

1: And David said, "Is there still any one left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?"

v1: Then David said after all was calm and prosperous, "Is there still any one left of the dynasty of Saul, that I may manufacture out of the Bible Doctrine in my Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, GRACE for the sake of Jonathan's?"

2: Now there was a servant of the house of Saul whose name was Ziba, and they called him to David; and the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" And he said, "Your servant is he."

v2: Now there was a steward of the castle of Saul whose name was Ziba a scheming crafty person who always covered his own ass, and they called him to David; and the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" And he said, "Your servant is he."

3: And the king said, "Is there not still some one of the house of Saul, that I may show the kindness of God to him?" Ziba said to the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan; he is crippled in his feet."

v3: And the king said, "Is there yet not anyone in the house of Saul, that I might manufacture the Grace of God to him?" Ziba replied to the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan, who is lame in both his feet."

4: The king said to him, "Where is he?" And Ziba said to the king, "He is in the house of Machir the son of Am'miel, at Lo-debar."

v4: The king said to him, "Where is he?" And Ziba replied to the king, "Behold, He is in the house of Machir the son of Am'miel, at Lo-debar."

5: Then King David sent and brought him from the house of Machir the son of Am'miel, at Lo-debar.

v5: Then King David sent and brought him from the house of Machir the son of Am'miel, at Lo-debar.

6: And Mephib'osheth the son of Jonathan, son of Saul, came to David, and fell on his face and did obeisance. And David said, "Mephib'osheth!" And he answered, "Behold, your servant."

v6: And Mephib'osheth the son of Jonathan, son of Saul, came to David, and fell on his face and did obeisance, prostrated himself, physically humbled himself. And David said, "Mephib'osheth!" And he replied in protocol, "Behold, your servant."

7: And David said to him, "Do not fear; for I will show you kindness for the sake of your father Jonathan, and I will restore to you all the land of Saul your father; and you shall eat at my table always."

v7: And David said to him, "You will not fear me; for I will manufacture grace to you for the sake of your father Jonathan, therefore I will restore to you all the land of Saul your grandfather; and you will eat at my table always."

8: And he did obeisance, and said, "What is your servant, that you should look upon a dead dog such as I?"

v8: And he did obeisance prostrating himself again, and said, "What is your servant, that you should turn your face and look at or approach a dead dog such as I?"

9: Then the king called Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, "All that belonged to Saul and to all his house I have given to your master's son.

v9: Then the king called Ziba, Saul's former steward, and said to him, "All that (you have stolen which) belonged to Saul and to his castle, his estate, I have given or decreed to your master's grandson.

10: And you and your sons and your servants shall till the land for him, and shall bring in the produce, that your master's son may have bread to eat; but Mephib'osheth your master's son shall always eat at my table." Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

v10: Both you and your sons and your stewards shall cultivate the land for him, and you shall bring in the harvest, so that your master's grandson may have a livelihood; However Mephib'osheth your master's grandson shall always eat at my table. Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

11: Then Ziba said to the king, "According to all that my lord the king commands his servant, so will your servant do." So Mephib'osheth ate at David's table, like one of the king's sons.

v11: Then Ziba replied to the king, "According to all that my lord the king commands his servant, so will your servant do." So Mephib'osheth ate at David's table, like one of the king's sons.

12: And Mephib'osheth had a young son, whose name was Mica. And all who dwelt in Ziba's house became Mephib'osheth's servants.

v12: And Mephib'osheth had a young son, whose name was Mikha. Now all who lived in Ziba's house became Mephib'osheth's servants.

13: So Mephib'osheth dwelt in Jerusalem; for he ate always at the king's table. Now he was lame in both his feet.

v13: Consequently Mephib'osheth lived in Jerusalem (not in his fathers estates); he ate at the king's table continuously. ? Furthermore he was lame in both his feet.

Chapter 10

Second Samuel, chapter 10

1: After this the king of the Ammonites died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead.

v1: Now it came to pass after this period of the greatest prosperity, That the king of the citizens of Ammon died, so that Hanun his son reigned in his stead.

2: And David said, "I will deal loyally with Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father dealt loyally with me." So David sent by his servants to console him concerning his father. And David's servants came into the land of the Ammonites.

v2: Therefore or consequently as a result of hearing about the Ammonite kings death David said, "I will manufacture grace from Metabolized Bible Doctrine in my Stream of Consciousness of the Soul giving courtesy, respect, thoughtfulness and kindness toward Hanun the son of Nachash, as his father manufactured grace to me when Saul was pursuing me." So David sent forth to comfort him concerning his father by the hand of or through his ambassadors. And David's ambassadors came to the land of the people of Ammon.

3: But the princes of the Ammonites said to Hanun their lord, "Do you think, because David has sent comforters to you, that he is honoring your father? Has not David sent his servants to you to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?"

v3: Consequently the chief ministers or counselors of the people of Ammon offered counsel to Hanun their king, "From your type of thinking or from your viewpoint is David honoring your father, because David has sent on a mission comforters to you? Is it not for the purpose of making a reconnaissance to search for military purpose the city, both by scouting it and to overthrow it, that David sent his ambassadors to you?"

4: So Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off half the beard of each, and cut off their garments in the middle, at their hips, and sent them away.

v4: Therefore Hanun violently seized David's ambassadors, and shaved off half the beard of each, and cut off their upper garments and robes in the middle at their waist above their gluteus maximus, and violently sent them away.

5: When it was told David, he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, "Remain at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

v5: When they announced or reported to or brought it to light for David, then he, personally, went out to see the ambassadors face to face, because the ambassadors were extremely humiliated and embarrassed. So the king said, "Remain at Jericho until your beards have grown back, and then return."

6: When the Ammonites saw that they had become odious to David, the Ammonites sent and hired the Syrians of Beth-re'hob, and the Syrians of Zobah, twenty thousand foot soldiers, and the king of Ma'acah with a thousand men, and the men of Tob, twelve thousand men.

v6: When the citizens of Ammon realized that they had become malodorous to David, Therefore the citizens of Ammon hired the mercenaries of the north the Aramaians, the Syrians of Beth-re'hob, and the Syrians of Zobah, totaling twenty thousand infantry, also the king of Ma'acah with one thousand men, and the men of Tob, with twelve thousand men.

7: And when David heard of it, he sent Jo'ab and all the host of the mighty men.

v7: When David heard the intelligence summary that Ammonites had concentrated at Rabah, he dispatched Jo'ab and all the army of new recruits including the Elite Ranger Battalions.

8: And the Ammonites came out and drew up in battle array at the entrance of the gate; and the Syrians of Zobah and of Rehob, and the men of Tob and Ma'acah, were by themselves in the open country.

v8: And the Army of Ammon advanced out of Rabah and deployed in a defensive position beyond the entrance to the gate; and the Aramaian Syrians of Zobah and of Rehob with 20,000 infantry, including the men of Tob and Ma'acah with 13,000 calvary and chariots, maneuvered alone, not tactically linked with the Ammonite army operating independently to close the trap of the single envelopment, on the field.

9: When Jo'ab saw that the battle was set against him both in front and in the rear, he chose some of the picked men of Israel, and arrayed them against the Syrians;

v9: When Jo'ab making a reconnaissance was forced to see that the face of the battle was toward him from the front and toward him from the rear, he was surrounded, he selected from all the elite veteran troops of the army of Israel, and deployed them against the Syrians;

10: the rest of his men he put in the charge of Abi'shai his brother, and he arrayed them against the Ammonites.

v10: And the rest of his men he put under the command authority of Abi'shai his brother, and he, Abishai, arrayed them against the Ammonites.

11: And he said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will come and help you.

v11: Consequently he gave orders in part saying, "If the Aramains or Syrians overpower me, then you will come to my rescue as a mobile reserve; but if the Army of Ammon overpowers you, then I will march and help you and cause you to be delivered.

12: Be of good courage, and let us play the man for our people, and for the cities of our God; and may the LORD do what seems good to him."

v12: Be strong, stand fast mentally with stability of mind, be courageous, concentrate with Divine Viewpoint thinking, and let us establish, confirm, or guarantee freedom and integrity for our people, and for the cities of the client nation of our God; and Jehovah manufacture from Grace the Good of Intrinsic value or victory in battle, in his own eyes."

13: So Jo'ab and the people who were with him drew near to battle against the Syrians; and they fled before him.

v13: So Jo'ab and the elite veterans in the small army of Israel which were with him advanced to battle against the advancing Syrians who outnumbered him about 5 to 1; and they panicked and ran away before him.

14: And when the Ammonites saw that the Syrians fled, they likewise fled before Abi'shai, and entered the city. Then Jo'ab returned from fighting against the Ammonites, and came to Jerusalem.

v14: And when the army of Ammon saw that the Syrians retreated and fled in panic, they likewise fled in retreat before Abi'shai, and entered the city. Then Jo'ab returned from fighting against the Ammonites, and came to Jerusalem to celebrate victory.

15: But when the Syrians saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they gathered themselves together.

v15: And when the Syrians realized from their reconnaissance that they had been decisively defeated by the small army of Israel, they mobilized their entire Aramaian force.

16: And Hadade'zer sent, and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the Euphra'tes; and they came to Helam, with Shobach the commander of the army of Hadade'zer at their head.

v16: And Hadade'zer ordered the mobilization, and caused to assemble the Aramaian or Syrian mercenary armies, one north and one south beyond the Euphra'tes; and they concentrated at Helam, with Shobak the prince or commander of the combined army of Hadade'zer assumed command of them.

17: And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and crossed the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians arrayed themselves against David, and fought with him.

v17: And when his intelligence service staff had briefed David, he mobilized the entire military of all Israel, and crossed the Jordan moving to his northern concentric base, and he advanced to Helam. And the combined Aramaian armies chose their battlefield and deployed themselves to meet David, and engaged him in battle.

18: And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians the men of seven hundred chariots, and forty thousand horsemen, and wounded Shobach the commander of their army, so that he died there.

v18: And the Aramaian armies panicked and fled from the face of Israel; and David slaughtered from the Syrians seven thousand charioteers, plus forty thousand infantry, and mortally wounded Shobak the prince commander of their army, with the result that he died there.

19: And when all the kings who were servants of Hadade'zer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel, and became subject to them. So the Syrians feared to help the Ammonites any more.

Chapter 11

Second Samuel, chapter 11

1: In the spring of the year, the time when kings go forth to battle, David sent Jo'ab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they ravaged the Ammonites, and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem.

v1: And it came to pass in the spring of the year, the time when kings go forth to battle, David sent Jo'ab, his chief of staff, and his general staff with him, and the entire army; and they annihilated the Army of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem having no intention of personally going to war again.

2: It happened, late one afternoon, when David arose from his couch and was walking upon the roof of the king's house, that he saw from the roof a woman bathing; and the woman was very beautiful.

v2: Now when evening came, when David arose from his bed and walked around upon the roof of his castle, and he saw from the battlements of the castle roof a woman taking a bath; and the woman was incredibly beautiful of face and body more than anyone had ever seen.

3: And David sent and inquired about the woman. And one said, "Is not this Bathshe'ba, the daughter of Eli'am, the wife of Uri'ah the Hittite?"

v3: And David sent and inquired about the woman. And the investigator said, "Is not this one Bathshe'ba, the daughter of Eli'am, son of Ahipophel, the wife of Uri'ah the Hittite?"

4: So David sent messengers, and took her; and she came to him, and he lay with her. (Now she was purifying herself from her uncleanness.) Then she returned to her house.

v4: So David sent messengers the official castle pimps, and took her; and she came to him, and he lay with her. (Now she was purifying herself from her uncleanness.) Then she returned to her house.

5: And the woman conceived; and she sent and told David, "I am with child."

v5: And the woman conceived becoming pregnant; and she sent a message and advised David saying, "I have become pregnant."

6: So David sent word to Jo'ab, "Send me Uri'ah the Hittite." And Jo'ab sent Uri'ah to David.

v6: So David sent orders to Jo'ab, "Send to me Uri'ah the Hittite." consequently Jo'ab sent Uri'ah the Hittite to David.

7: When Uri'ah came to him, David asked how Jo'ab was doing, and how the people fared, and how the war prospered.

v7: When Uri'ah reported to him, David inquired concerning the prosperity of Jo'ab, and morale or welfare of the troops and the status quo of the campaign.

8: Then David said to Uri'ah, "Go down to your house, and wash your feet." And Uri'ah went out of the king's house, and there followed him a present from the king.

v8: Then David kindly ordered or commanded Uri'ah, "Go down to your quarters, and wash your feet or enter your home." So Uri'ah left the castle, and a present, a royal dinner for 2, from the king followed him.

9: But Uri'ah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house.

v9: But Uri'ah slept at the gatehouse barracks of the castle with all the king's brigade of Guards, therefore he did not go down to his quarters.

10: When they told David, "Uri'ah did not go down to his house," David said to Uri'ah, "Have you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?"

v10: When they brought an intelligence report to David, "Uri'ah did not go to his officers quarters," Then the next day David said when Uri'ah was called in for Reprimand, "Have you not returned from a March or campaign? Why therefore have you not gone down to your quarters?"

11: Uri'ah said to David, "The ark and Israel and Judah dwell in booths; and my lord Jo'ab and the servants of my lord are camping in the open field; shall I then go to my house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing."

v11: Consequently Uri'ah replied to David, "The ark of the covenant and Northern Army of Israel and Southern Army of Judah are bivouacked in tents; and my lord Jo'ab and the staff of my lord are bivouacked in the open fields; shall I therefore go to my quarters, to eat and to drink, and to make love and have sex with my wife? (idiom) By your life, and by the life of your soul OR As surely as you stand there, I will not manufacture this thing out of loss of integrity or I will not do this thing."

12: Then David said to Uri'ah, "Remain here today also, and tomorrow I will let you depart." So Uri'ah remained in Jerusalem that day, and the next.

v12: Then David said to Uri'ah, "Remain here today also, and tomorrow I will send you back to the campaign." So Uri'ah remained in Jerusalem that day, and the next.

13: And David invited him, and he ate in his presence and drank, so that he made him drunk; and in the evening he went out to lie on his couch with the servants of his lord, but he did not go down to his house.

v13: Now when David summoned Uri'ah, according to David's requirements Uri'ah ate and drank repeated toasts in his presence, so that he, David, made him, Uri'ah, drunk; so that in the evening he went out to lie on his bed with the brigade of Guards of his lord, with the result that he did not go down to his own quarters.

14: In the morning David wrote a letter to Jo'ab, and sent it by the hand of Uri'ah.

v14: And it came to pass in the morning that David wrote a letter to Jo'ab, and sent it by the hand of Uri'ah.

15: In the letter he wrote, "Set Uri'ah in the forefront of the hardest fighting, and then draw back from him, that he may be struck down, and die."

v15: And in summary he had written in the letter saying or ordering, "Assign Uri'ah opposite the face of the strongest part of the battle or in the front line of the most dangerous part of the assault, after he has been placed under fire and tactically committed, and then retreat or retire from behind him, so that he may be struck down in battle, and die."

16: And as Jo'ab was besieging the city, he assigned Uri'ah to the place where he knew there were valiant men.

v16: Now it came to pass when Jo'ab made a personal reconnaissance of the city of Rabah, while besieging the city, he assigned Uri'ah to the place where he knew that brave elite Ammonite soldiers were defending that spot.

17: And the men of the city came out and fought with Jo'ab; and some of the servants of David among the people fell. Uri'ah the Hittite was slain also.

v17: Consequently the brave elite soldiers of the city of Rabah counterattacked and fought against Jo'ab the overall commander; and there were casualties and there fell from the ranks and the officers of David's army. Consequently Uri'ah the Hittite was also caused to die or Murdered.

18: Then Jo'ab sent and told David all the news about the fighting;

v18: Then as he regularly and routinely did, Jo'ab sent and reported to David a written report of all the details of the events of the campaign;

19: and he instructed the messenger, "When you have finished telling all the news about the fighting to the king, v19: and in part he commanded in a briefing the staff officer saying, "When you have finished reporting all the events of the campaign to the king, 20: then, if the king's anger rises, and if he says to you, "Why did you go so near the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?

v20: then, if the king becomes angry, and he says to you, "Why did you assault so near the city walls to fight? Did you not know from the manual of tactics that they would shoot arrows, javelins and stones, at you from off the wall?

21: Who killed Abim'elech the son of Jerub'besheth? Did not a woman cast an upper millstone upon him from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?' then you shall say, `Your servant Uri'ah the Hittite is dead also.'"

v21: Who killed Abim'elech the son of Jerub'besheth, called 'contender with shame', son of Gideon? Did not a woman cast an heavy upper millstone upon him from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?' then and only then you reply to him and very calmly say, `Your commander Uri'ah the Hittite also died.'"

22: So the messenger went, and came and told David all that Jo'ab had sent him to tell.

v22: Consequently the Staff Officer departed from field headquarters at Rabah and came to the general headquarters of castle Zion and presented the written report and privately reported verbally to David all that Jo'ab had sent him to report.

23: The messenger said to David, "The men gained an advantage over us, and came out against us in the field; but we drove them back to the entrance of the gate.

v23: Then The staff officer said to David after a question, "At that time the Ammonite army made a successful sortie and launched a counter attack against us in the field; but we finally drove them back as far as the opening of the entrance of the gate."

24: Then the archers shot at your servants from the wall; some of the king's servants are dead; and your servant Uri'ah the Hittite is dead also."

v24: "Furthermore" the staff officer continued "then the archers shot at your soldiers from the wall; so that some of the king's troops are dead; and your battalion commander Uri'ah the Hittite has also died."

25: David said to the messenger, "Thus shall you say to Jo'ab, `Do not let this matter trouble you, for the sword devours now one and now another; strengthen your attack upon the city, and overthrow it.' And encourage him."

v25: Then David replied to the staff officer in total hypocrisy, "So you will reply my instructions to Jo'ab, `Do not let this tactical defeat be evil in your eyes or do not regard this situation as evil nor let it upset you, for the sword devours or destroys one as well as another; be confirmed and caused to be strong and press the attack upon the city, and totally destroy it and everything that lives.' therefore you will encourage him and the army."

26: When the wife of Uri'ah heard that Uri'ah her husband was dead, she made lamentation for her husband.

v26: Now when the wife of Uri'ah heard that Uri'ah her husband was dead, she mourned and lamented screaming guilt stricken over her respected and admired husband.

27: And when the mourning was over, David sent and brought her to his house, and she became his wife, and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

v27: And when the mourning period was completed after 7 days, David sent and brought her to his castle, and she became his wife, and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

Chapter 12

Second Samuel, chapter 12

1: And the LORD sent Nathan to David. He came to him, and said to him, "There were two men in a certain city, the one rich and the other poor.

v1: And the LORD sent Nathan to David. He came to him, and said to him, "There were two men in one city, the one rich and the other poor.

2: The rich man had very many flocks and herds;

v2: The rich man had very many flocks and herds;

3: but the poor man had nothing but one little ewe lamb, which he had bought. And he brought it up, and it grew up with him and with his children; it used to eat of his morsel, and drink from his cup, and lie in his bosom, and it was like a daughter to him.

v3: but the poor man had nothing except one little ewe lamb, which he had bought. And he raised so that it grew up with him and with his children; it shared his food of his own morsel it ate, and out of its own cup it used to drink, and even slept in his arms, and it was like a daughter to him.

4: Now there came a traveler to the rich man, and he was unwilling to take one of his own flock or herd to prepare for the wayfarer who had come to him, but he took the poor man's lamb, and prepared it for the man who had come to him."

v4: Now a traveler came to the rich man, and he, the rich man, thought it unacceptable to kill one of his own perfect flock and herd to slaughter as a meal for the traveler who had come to him, instead he took the ewe lamb which belonged to the poor man, and slaughtered it and prepared it as a meal for the traveler who had come to him."

5: Then David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, the man who has done this deserves to die;

v5: Then David's anger explosively burned intensely against the rich man; so that he shouted to Nathan interrupting him, "By the essence of the LORD, truly the man who has done this is the son of death or is definitely doomed to die;

6: and he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity."

v6: Furthermore he must make restitution for that ewe lamb four times over or four to one because he has done this thing and his guilt has unquestionably been established by Nathan as the most reliable witness, and furthermore because he did not have compassion."

7: Nathan said to David, "You are the man. Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, `I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul;

v7: Nathan forcefully said to David, "You are that man. Thus says the LORD, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ the God of Israel, I in grace appointed or anointed you king over Israel, and I rescued or delivered you from the hand of Saul through Logistical Grace wall of fire;

8: and I gave you your master's house, and your master's wives into your bosom, and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah; and if this were too little, I would add to you as much more.

v8: and I gave to you the castles and other properties and material things of your Lord king Saul, and the wives of your lord Saul into your care and responsibility, and have given to you the house of Israel and the house of Judah; and if all of this had been too little, I would have done even more for or added much more to you.

9: Why have you despised the word of the LORD, to do what is evil in his sight? You have smitten Uri'ah the Hittite with the sword, and have taken his wife to be your wife, and have slain him with the sword of the Ammonites.

v9: On what account or for what reason, why do you despise or think lightly or regard with contempt or as worthless, the doctrine of the LORD distorting doctrine into what is false, by doing or manufacturing out of distorted doctrine the Evil in his sight? You have murdered Uri'ah the Hittite with the sword, and have seized to yourself or stolen his wife to become your wife, and have slaughtered or sacrificed him like an animal by means the sword of the soldiers of the Ammon.

10: Now therefore the sword shall never depart from your house, because you have despised me, and have taken the wife of Uri'ah the Hittite to be your wife.'

v10: Now therefore the sword or non establishment violence in any form, shall not depart from your house for unlimited time or the duration of your posterity, because you have despised or regarded me with contempt or think of me as worthless, and have stolen the wife of Uri'ah the Hittite to be your wife.'

11: Thus says the LORD, 'Behold, I will raise up evil against you out of your own house; and I will take your wives before your eyes, and give them to your neighbor, and he shall lie with your wives in the sight of this sun.

v11: Thus communicates the LORD Jehovah, 'Behold, I will cause to exist or raise up in revolution evil against you from your own family or household; and publicly or openly I will take your wives, the whole harem, and give them to someone you love very dearly and he, Absalom, will ravish your wives in broad daylight.

12: For you did it secretly; but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun."

v12: Because you have manufactured from conspiratorial arrogance these things secretly; but I, (the Lord), will do this Divine Discipline before all Israel, and in broad daylight."

13: David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the LORD." And Nathan said to David, "The LORD also has put away your sin; you shall not die.

v13: David said in part to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Jehovah the Lord." And Nathan replied to David, "Jehovah, the LORD also has also caused your SIN to be removed and forgiven; and you will not die.

14: Nevertheless, because by this deed you have utterly scorned the LORD, the child that is born to you shall die."

v14: Nevertheless or however, because by doing this deed you have given occasion for the enemies of the Lord to demonstrate utter contempt and blaspheme for the LORD Jehovah, the son born to you that you love so dearly shall definitely die."

15: Then Nathan went to his house. And the LORD struck the child that Uri'ah's wife bore to David, and it became sick.

v15: After Nathan had returned to his home the LORD struck the child that Uri'ah's wife bore to David, so that he became critically ill, dying slowly.

16: David therefore besought God for the child; and David fasted, and went in and lay all night upon the ground.

v16: Consequently David made intercession and asked, pleaded or begged before God for the dying boy; then David fasted a fast concentrating intensely and exclusively on the Lord, and went in to his dying son and lay down upon the floor and spent the nights.

17: And the elders of his house stood beside him, to raise him from the ground; but he would not, nor did he eat food with them.

v17: And the older people on his castle staff, stood and remained by him, to raise him up from the ground; but he was not willing and refused to rise nor he eat food with them.

18: On the seventh day the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead; for they said, "Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spoke to him, and he did not listen to us; how then can we say to him the child is dead? He may do himself some harm."

v18: And it came to pass on the seventh day the child died. And the servants of David were concerned and respectful not being motivated or fearing to tell him that the child had died; because they reasoned, "Behold, while the child was still living, we spoke to him, and he did not listen to our advice; Alas! how then can we say to him the child is dead? He may manufacture evil or do himself harm or do something desperate such as suicide."

19: But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, David perceived that the child was dead; and David said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" They said, "He is dead."

v19: But when David observed that his staff were whispering among themselves, then David perceived or discerned that the child had died; consequently David asked his palace staff, "Has the child died?" and they said, "He has died."

20: Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his clothes; and he went into the house of the LORD, and worshiped; he then went to his own house; and when he asked, they set food before him, and he ate.

v20: Then David got up from the floor, and both washed, and put lotions on himself, before he changed his clothes after deciding what to wear; and he was organized to go to the house of the LORD the tabernacle and worshiped at the house of God; afterward he went to his castle; and when he demanded service, they put food before him, and he ate.

21: Then his servants said to him, "What is this thing that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child while it was alive; but when the child died, you arose and ate food."

v21: Afterward his staff said to him, "What is this thing that you have done or Why are you behaving in this way? While the child was still alive you fasted going without food while praying applying Bible Doctrine and in Occupation with the Person of Christ and mourned and lamented; but when the child had died, you got up and ate food."

22: He said, "While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, 'Who knows whether the LORD will be gracious to me, that the child may live?'

v22: Consequently He replied, "While the child was alive, I fasted and wept; for I thought to myself, 'Perhaps, maybe or possibly the LORD will be gracious to me, and let the child live.

23: But now he is dead; why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he will not return to me."

v23: But now he has died; why then should I fast and set aside time to concentrate on prayer on his behalf? Am I able to restore, resuscitate or return him again back to life? I will be going to him, but he will not return to me."

24: Then David comforted his wife, Bathshe'ba, and went in to her, and lay with her; and she bore a son, and he called his name Solomon. And the LORD loved him, v24: Then David, after his recovery, comforted his wife Bathsheba as an ardent lover and wonderful person, and afterward came to her, and initiated making love and copulating with her; and she gave birth to a son, and he called his name Shaleemoh (from Shalom) . And this anticipates the fact that Jehovah would love him,

25: and sent a message by Nathan the prophet; so he called his name Jedidi'ah, because of the LORD.

v25: Therefore the Lord sent a message by the hand of Nathan the prophet; so that he called his name Jedidi'ah, the friend or beloved or darling, loved by the lord, because of the LORD.

26: Now Jo'ab fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites, and took the royal city.

v26: Meanwhile Jo'ab besieged Rabbah belonging to the citizens of Ammon, with the result that he captured the royal city.

27: And Jo'ab sent messengers to David, and said, "I have fought against Rabbah; moreover, I have taken the city of waters.

v27: Consequently Jo'ab sent staff officers to David, who briefed him and reported, "I have Attacked Rabbah; also, I have now captured the city of waters.

28: Now, then, gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it; lest I take the city, and it be called by my name."

v28: Now, therefore, I strongly suggest that you mobilize the entire army, that you may besiege the city, and capture it; otherwise there be an unfavorable result for me that I will capture the city, and it will be named after me or I get the credit for it."

29: So David gathered all the people together and went to Rabbah, and fought against it and took it.

v29: Consequently David mobilized the entire army calling up all reserves from the 12 tribes and marched to Rabbah, so that he both besieged the Acropolis and captured the Acropolis bit by bit.

30: And he took the crown of their king from his head; the weight of it was a talent of gold, and in it was a precious stone; and it was placed on David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city, a very great amount.

v30: And he siezed the crown of their king of Rabaah, which was suspended by slaves over his head; the weight of it was a talent of gold 93lbs, and in it was a precious stone; and after the execution of the king, it was then held over David's head. Furthermore he took a great quantity of plunder from the city accumulated in about 500 years or more.

31: And he brought forth the people who were in it, and set them to labor with saws and iron picks and iron axes, and made them toil at the brickkilns; and thus he did to all the cities of the Ammonites. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

v31: And he caused the thousands of Males of the city of Rabaah to be marched and assembled outside the ruins of the city of Rabaah, and forced them against the saws cutting them in two and with other iron farming tools especially the harrow and others with the axes; and thus David did this to all the cities of the children of Ammon. and the priests of Molach he made them burn in the of Molach statue called the Malcom being burned to death; and this he did to all the cities of the ammonite population. Then David and all the soldiers returned to Jerusalem.

Chapter 13

Second Samuel, chapter 13

1: Now Ab'salom, David's son, had a beautiful sister, whose name was Tamar; and after a time Amnon, David's son, loved her.

v1: And it came to pass after this period of great prosperity Ab'salom, David's son, had a georgeously, breathtakingly, beautiful sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon, David's son, hated Tamar because of her aristocratic heritage and lusted for her body and wanted to possess her and dishonor her.

2: And Amnon was so tormented that he made himself ill because of his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin, and it seemed impossible to Amnon to do anything to her.

v2: And Amnon became so frustrated that he made himself or became ill with frustration because of his half sister Tamar;

for she was a virgin with great integrity not looking for a man, and it would be difficult in the eyes of Amnon considering it impossible to do anything to her, to possess, humble and rape her.

3: But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jon'adab, the son of Shim'e-ah, David's brother; and Jon'adab was a very crafty man.

v3: And Amnon had an intimate friend, his cousin whose name was Jon'adab, the son of Shim'e-ah or Shamah the third son of Jesse, David's brother; and Jon'adab was a genius with great skill in duplicity, very crafty in intrigue and deceit and evil.

4: And he said to him, "O son of the king, why are you so haggard morning after morning? Will you not tell me?" Amnon said to him, "I love Tamar, my brother Ab'salom's sister."

v4: And he, Jonadab, inquired of Amnon, to gain some advantage for himself, "Oh son of the king, the crown prince, why are you so depressed morning after morning? Will you not tell me?" Amnon replied to him, "I am in love with Tamar, my brother Ab'salom's sister."

5: Jon'adab said to him, "Lie down on your bed, and pretend to be ill; and when your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Let my sister Tamar come and give me bread to eat, and prepare the food in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it from her hand.'"

v5: Consequently Jon'adab said to Amnon, "Lie down on your bed, and pretend to be ill; and when your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Please sir, Let my sister Tamar come and give me something to eat, and let her prepare the food in my sight, that I may watch her to be sure it is not poisoned, and then eat it from her hand.'"

6: So Amnon lay down, and pretended to be ill; and when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Pray let my sister Tamar come and make a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat from her hand."

v6: So Amnon lay down, and pretended to be ill; and when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please sir, let my sister Tamar come and make a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat from her hand."

7: Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, "Go to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare food for him."

v7: Then David sent word to castle Zion to Tamar, saying, "Please, Go to your brother Amnon's palace, and prepare or cook food for him."

8: So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house, where he was lying down. And she took dough, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes.

v8: Consequently Tamar went to the palace of her brother Amnon's, where he was lying down pretending to be very ill. And she took dough, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes.

9: And she took the pan and emptied it out before him, but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, "Send out every one from me." So every one went out from him.

v9: And then she took the pan and served him the crapes, but he refused to eat them. Furthermore Amnon gave a command to the servants, "Get out of here." So every one went out from him.

10: Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the chamber, that I may eat from your hand." And Tamar took the cakes she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

v10: Then Amnon commanded to Tamar, "Bring the food into the bedroom, that I may eat from your hand." Then Tamar took the cakes she had made, and brought them to Amnon her brother, into the bedroom.

11: But when she brought them near him to eat, he took hold of her, and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister."

v11: But when she approached his bed with the food for him to eat, he violently seized her and overpowered her on the bed and said to her, "{very vulgarly} (fuck me) Copulate with me, my sister."

12: She answered him, "No, my brother, do not force me; for such a thing is not done in Israel; do not do this wanton folly.

v12: She answered him, "No, my brother, do not rape me; for such a thing should not be done in Israel (as a client nation it will motivate crime and evil destroying freedom); do not commit this criminal act.

13: As for me, where could I carry my shame? And as for you, you would be as one of the wanton fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray you, speak to the king; for he will not withhold me from you."

v13: And I, or What about me, where could I take or get rid of my reproach, shame or disgrace? And what about you, you would become something you are not and be disqualified for the throne, like one of the criminals of Israel. Now therefore, Please! Speak to the king; for he will not hinder or withhold me from being married to you."

14: But he would not listen to her; and being stronger than she, he forced her, and lay with her.

v14: But being totally unreasonable and emotional he, Amnon, was not willing or refused to listen to her; and because he was stronger than she he overpowered her and he violated and raped her, and had sexual intercourse with her.

15: Then Amnon hated her with very great hatred; so that the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, "Arise, be gone."

v15: Then Amnon hated her with an intense hatred; for greater was the hatred with which he hated than the love with which he loved her. And Amnon ordered her, "Get up, get out or Get the hell out of here."

16: But she said to him, "No, my brother; for this wrong in sending me away is greater than the other which you did to me." But he would not listen to her.

v16: But she replied to him, "No, sending me away, throwing me out would be a greater evil than what you have already done to me." But he was not willing, unwilling to or refused to listen to her.

17: He called the young man who served him and said, "Put this woman out of my presence, and bolt the door after her."

v17: He loudly summoned screaming at his servant who waited on him, his valet, and commanded, "Now, Violently throw this disagreeable whorish woman OUT, away from me, and bolt or lock the door behind her."

18: Now she was wearing a long robe with sleeves; for thus were the virgin daughters of the king clad of old. So his servant put her out, and bolted the door after her.

v18: Now upon her, all she was wearing, a chimeze or petty coat with long sleeves covering her arms; for so were the virgin daughters of the king dressed under their royal robes. Then his servant or valet seized her and threw her out or caused her to go outside, and locked the door behind her.

19: And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent the long robe which she wore; and she laid her hand on her head, and went away, crying aloud as she went.

v19: And Tamar scooped up dust and slopped it on her head covering her face with dust, and ripped to pieces her long sleeved virginal chimeze which she was wearing being totally naked saying in effect that she was taken by violent force in rape and not guilty of seduction nor incest; and she covered her face with her hands and arms, and ran on and on through many many streets going and going, crying aloud and sobbing as she went.

20: And her brother Ab'salom said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? Now hold your peace, my sister; he is your brother; do not take this to heart." So Tamar dwelt, a desolate woman, in her brother Ab'salom's house.

v20: Then her brother Ab'salom spoke to her, "Has your brother Amnon been with you? Now my sister, do not plot revenge, for he is your brother; do not worry or brood about this matter." Consequently Tamar remained but she was destroyed, ruined in the public eye, in her brother Ab'salom's castle.

21: When King David heard of all these things, he was very angry.

v21: Now when King David heard of all these things about this entire matter, he was extremely angry, but he did not trouble the life of Amnon because he was his son however because he loved him and he was his first-born and crown prince. (Septuagint, Josephus)

22: But Ab'salom spoke to Amnon neither good nor bad; for Ab'salom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

v22: But Ab'salom did not speak to Amnon regarding neither good nor evil; nevertheless Ab'salom with great poise continually hated Amnon, because he had raped his sister Tamar.

23: After two full years Ab'salom had sheepshearers at Ba'al-ha'zor, which is near E'phraim, and Ab'salom invited all the king's sons.

v23: Now it came to pass after two full years when Ab'salom's sheep shearers were at his sheep ranch at the former temple of Ba'al in Ha'zor, at the border of Ephraim, and Ab'salom invited to the party all the king's sons.

24: And Ab'salom came to the king, and said, "Behold, your servant has sheepshearers; pray let the king and his servants go with your servant."

v24: Then Ab'salom went to the king, and said, "Please note that your servant has sheep shearers; Please let the king and his courtiers go with your servant, Absalom."

25: But the king said to Ab'salom, "No, my son, let us not all go, lest we be burdensome to you." He pressed him, but he would not go but gave him his blessing.

v25: But in the reply the king said to Ab'salom, "No, my son, we wil not go so that we are not burdensome to you." Although He, Absalom, urged him, but he kept on refusing to go but he gave royal approval and best wishes for a great party.

26: Then Ab'salom said, "If not, pray let my brother Amnon go with us." And the king said to him, "Why should he go with you?"

v26: Consequently Ab'salom requested, "If not, please let Amnon my brother accompany and come with us." And the king replied to him, "Why should he go with you?"

27: But Ab'salom pressed him until he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

v27: But Ab'salom very calmly kept urging David until he allowed Amnon and all the king's sons to go with him.

28: Then Ab'salom commanded his servants, "Mark when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, 'Strike Amnon,' then kill him. Fear not; have I not commanded you? Be courageous and be valiant."

v28: Now, previously before the guests arrived, Ab'salom had commanded his body guard servants who were very friendly to him, saying, "Observe when Amnon gets high on wine and becomes loudly obnoxious, then I will say to you, 'Kill Amnon,' then you will cause him to die. Do not be afraid or squeemish; For I have commanded you? Be strong and become sons of valor or courageous and valiant."

29: So the servants of Ab'salom did to Amnon as Ab'salom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and each mounted his mule and fled.

v29: So the body guards of Ab'salom did to Amnon what Ab'salom had commanded. Then all the king's sons were caused or motivated to arise and run being moved in panic, so that each one mounted his mule and escaped fleeing for the 100 miles back to Jerusalem.

30: While they were on the way, tidings came to David, "Ab'salom has slain all the king's sons, and not one of them is left."

v30: Now it came to pass, while the fleeing kings sons were still on the road back to Jerusalem, that the news, a false rumor came to David saying, "Ab'salom has killed all the king's sons, so that not one of them is left."

31: Then the king arose, and rent his garments, and lay on the earth; and all his servants who were standing by rent their garments.

v31: Then the king got up in total shock, and ripped and tore the cloth of his clothing, and fell on the floor rolling and moaning and groaning; and all his servants who were stationed there were tearing their clothing.

32: But Jon'adab the son of Shim'e-ah, David's brother, said, "Let not my lord suppose that they have killed all the young men the king's sons, for Amnon alone is dead, for by the command of Ab'salom this has been determined from the day he forced his sister Tamar.

Between v31 and 32 David asked why Jonadab was not grieving with David violating the protocol of the court.

v32: But, Jon'adab the son of Shim'e-ah, David's brother, insincerely and deceitfully answered the question of why he was not grieving and tearing his clothing and said, "Do not let my lord assume or conclude that all the young men the sons of the king the royal princes have been killed, for Amnon alone has died, for by the command or order from the mouth of Ab'salom this was the determined purpose of Absalom, from the day Amnon raped Tamar his sister.

33: Now therefore let not my lord the king so take it to heart as to suppose that all the king's sons are dead; for Amnon alone is dead."

v33: Now therefore do not let my lord the king worry about this report or rumor, assuming that all the king's sons have died; it is simply not true for only Amnon has died; and Absalom fled."

34: But Ab'salom fled. And the young man who kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, many people were coming from the Horona'im road by the side of the mountain.

v34: And meanwhile the young guard officer on sentinel duty kept on searching alertly with his eyes ignoring the commotion and distraction in the palace, looked up and saw, and behold many people were coming down from the Horona'im mountain side road from the west, and the guard came and told the king, I see many men on the Horanaim mountain side road.

35: And Jon'adab said to the king, "Behold, the king's sons have come; as your servant said, so it has come about."

v35: Immediately Jon'adab mentioned to the king, "Behold, look there, the king's sons are coming, are here; according to the word of your servant it has come to pass, I told you so."

36: And as soon as he had finished speaking, behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voice and wept; and the king also and all his servants wept very bitterly.

v36: Then it came to pass, as soon as he, Jonadab, had finished speaking, and behold, the king's sons arrived and in hypocrisy they lifted up their voices and wept; furthermore the king also and all his courtiers wept with a very very great weeping.

37: But Ab'salom fled, and went to Talmai the son of Ammi'hud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son day after day.

v37: But Ab'salom had fled across the Jordan and went to his grandfather, Talmai, Hurrian king of Geshur, the son of Ammi'chur. Meanwhile David himself mourned for his son every day.

38: So Ab'salom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

v38: After Ab'salom, according to his plan, fled, with a loss of honor and integrity in the Interlocking System of Arrogance, he went to Geshur, and stayed there three years.

39: And the spirit of the king longed to go forth to Ab'salom; for he was comforted about Amnon, seeing he was dead.

v39: Meanwhile the soul of David the king longed to go to Ab'salom; for he, David, received comfort from Bible Doctrine concerning Amnon, since he Amnon was dead and face to face with the Lord.

Chapter 14

Second Samuel, chapter 14

1: Now Jo'ab the son of Zeru'iah perceived that the king's heart went out to Ab'salom.

v1: Now Jo'ab the son of Zeru'iah knew or perceived or understood that the king's Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul was AGAINST Ab'salom.

2: And Jo'ab sent to Teko'a, and fetched from there a wise woman, and said to her, "Pretend to be a mourner, and put on mourning garments; do not anoint yourself with oil, but behave like a woman who has been mourning many days for the dead;

v2: And Jo'ab sent someone to Teko'a, and brought from there a very skilled talented woman actress, and when she arrived said to her, "Please! Pretend you are in mourning, and dress in mourning garments; do not use any cosmetic oils or lotions on yourself, instead act like a woman who has these many days been mourning for the dead;

3: and go to the king, and speak thus to him." So Jo'ab put the words in her mouth.

v3: and when you have gone to the king and have an audience with him, then you will speak in this manner to him."Consequently Jo'ab put the words in her mouth and detailed the scenario for the presentation in a full rehearsal.

4: When the woman of Teko'a came to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, "Help, O king."

v4: And when the woman of Teko'a went and spoke to the king, she fell with her face to the ground, and prostrated herself in total helplessness and paid homage, while she said into the ground, "Help or Deliver, O king."

5: And the king said to her, "What is your trouble?" She answered, "Alas, I am a widow; my husband is dead.

v5: And the king said to her, "What is your problem or grievance?" The woman replied, "Truly, I am a widow and my husband has died.

6: And your handmaid had two sons, and they quarreled with one another in the field; there was no one to part them, and one struck the other and killed him.

v6: You Honor, your loyal helpless female subject had two sons, and the 2 of them were fighting each other in the field; and there was no one to separate or deliver them, consequently one struck the other and killed him.

v7: And now the whole family has risen against your handmaid, and they say, 'Give up the man who struck his brother, that we may kill him for the life of his brother whom he slew'; and so they would destroy the heir also. Thus they would quench my coal which is left, and leave to my husband neither name nor remnant upon the face of the earth."

v7: And now behold the entire family or clan has risen up against your female subject, and they said, 'Hand over or deliver for execution the one who struck down his brother, in order that we may execute him in substitute for the life of his brother whom he has murdered'; furthermore we will destroy the heir. Thus the family as executioners would extinguish my spark of posterity in the male line which is left, and cause my dead husband to be without a name or posterity on the face of the earth."

8: Then the king said to the woman, "Go to your house, and I will give orders concerning you."

v8: Then the king as supreme court judge said to the woman, "Go to your home, and I will issue a restraining order or decree on your behalf."

9: And the woman of Teko'a said to the king, "On me be the guilt, my lord the king, and on my father's house; let the king and his throne be guiltless."

v9: But the woman from Teko'a said to the king, "Oh my Lord the king the perversity, depravity or guilt is on me and on my fathers family or it's all my fault; but let the king and his government be innocent or free from guilt."

10: The king said, "If any one says anything to you, bring him to me, and he shall never touch you again."

v10: Then the king replied, "If any one threatens or tries to intimidate you, then you will cause him to be brought to me, and he will not bother, annoy, disturb or harass you any more."

11: Then she said, "Pray let the king invoke the LORD your God, that the avenger of blood slay no more, and my son be not destroyed." He said, "As the LORD lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the ground."

v11: Then she said, "Please! Let the king remember or bear in mind or confirm this decision by swearing an oath before the LORD your Elohim, to restrain the public executioner from adding to the destruction so that my son will not be destroyed." Consequently, He, David, replied, "By the life or essence of Jehovah, the LORD, not one hair from your son's head shall fall to the ground."

12: Then the woman said, "Pray let your handmaid speak a word to my lord the king." He said, "Speak."

v12: Then the woman said, "Please let your loyal female subject speak just one more word to my lord the king." And He replied, "Speak."

13: And the woman said, "Why then have you planned such a thing against the people of God? For in giving this decision the king convicts himself, inasmuch as the king does not bring his banished one home again.

v13: And then the woman expatiated, "Why have you devised such a scheme like this against the people of God? For since the king has rendered this judicial decision he has incriminated himself unless the king restores THE Fugitive Absalom.

14: We must all die, we are like water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; but God will not take away the life of him who devises means not to keep his banished one an outcast.

v14: And we are like water being poured out on the dirt of the ground, which cannot be gathered up or recovered again; so dying we shall surely or definitely die, However God does not take away or lift up and carry off life but he thinks thoughts meaning he provides doctrines so that he will not drive away, banish, or expel the one who is driven away or banished.

15: Now I have come to say this to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid; and your handmaid thought, 'I will speak to the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his servant.

v15: And Now that I have come to speak this word to my lord the king it is because I was afraid of the people; and your loyal female subject thought, 'I will now speak to the king; perhaps the king will grant the request of his Loyal female subject.

16: For the king will hear, and deliver his servant from the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together from the heritage of God.'

v16: Perhaps the king will hear or agree, and deliver his loyal female subject from the hand of the man, the public executioner, who would destroy both me and my son together from the inheritance of God.'

17: And your handmaid thought, 'The word of my lord the king will set me at rest'; for my lord the king is like the angel of God to discern good and evil. The LORD your God be with you!"

v17: Then your loyal female servant modestly and humbly concludes, 'Please sir, let the decision of my lord the king become tranquility for me'; for my lord the king is like a messenger of God judging between the good and evil. Therefore the LORD your God will be with you!"

18: The king answered the woman, "Do not hide from me anything I ask you." And the woman said, "Let my lord the king speak."

v18: Then the king answered and said to the woman, "Please Madam! Do not conceal from me anything I will be asking you." And the woman panicked and said, "Let my lord the king now speak."

19: The king said, "Is the hand of Jo'ab with you in all this?" The woman answered and said, "As surely as you live, my lord the king, one cannot turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my lord the king has said. It was your servant Jo'ab who bade me; it was he who put all these words in the mouth of your handmaid.

v19: Then the king said, "Is the hand of Jo'ab with you in all of this?" Then the woman answered and said, "By the life of your soul or your astute thinking, my lord the king, Truly there is nothing to the right hand or left hand or Yes sir you are 100% correct from all which my Lord the King has spoken all of your decisions. Yes, it was your servant Jo'ab, he commanded or ordered me to play this part, in order that I might repay a great debt to him; and he put all these words in the mouth of your poor helpless female servant.

20: In order to change the course of affairs your servant Jo'ab did this. But my lord has wisdom like the wisdom of the angel of God to know all things that are on the earth."

v20: For the purpose of turning around or changing the situation or the Absalom decision, your servant Jo'ab has done this thing. But my lord is wise according to the wisdom of an angel of God to know or see through everything which happens in the land."

21: Then the king said to Jo'ab, "Behold now, I grant this; go, bring back the young man Ab'salom."

v21: After court hearing the king in private audience, ordered Jo'ab, "Yes, now I have made a bad decision and done this thing which I cannot change; go, bring back or cause to return, the young man Ab'salom."

22: And Jo'ab fell on his face to the ground, and did obeisance, and blessed the king; and Jo'ab said, "Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord the king, in that the king has granted the request of his servant."

v22: And Jo'ab fell with his face to the ground, he both honored and saluted the king; and Jo'ab said, "Today your loyal subject perceives or understands that I have found grace in your eyes, my lord the king, Because the king has fulfilled or performed the request of his servant."

23: So Jo'ab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Ab'salom to Jerusalem.

v23: So Jo'ab got up arising and enthusiastically went to Geshur, and caused Ab'salom to be brought back to Jerusalem.

24: And the king said, "Let him dwell apart in his own house; he is not to come into my presence." So Ab'salom dwelt apart in his own house, and did not come into the king's presence.

v24: Then, after the pardon, the king commanded a policy, "He, Absalom, will go back to his palace and he will not see my face." Consequently Ab'salom obeyed the king and returned to his own palace, and did not see the face of the king.

25: Now in all Israel there was no one so much to be praised for his beauty as Ab'salom; from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.

v25: And like Absalom there was not a man so highly praised in all Israel as handsome or beautiful; from the sole of his foot to the top of his head there was not a blemish on him, no defect in him.

26: And when he cut the hair of his head (for at the end of every year he used to cut it; when it was heavy on him, he cut it), he weighed the hair of his head, two hundred shekels by the king's weight.

v26: And when the barber cut his hair (for at the end of every year he cut it because it was too heavy for him to hold it up, therefore he cut it), And the weight the hair of his head was about 5 pounds or two hundred shekels by the king's scales or about 1/2 pound of hair.

27: There were born to Ab'salom three sons, and one daughter whose name was Tamar; she was a beautiful woman.

v27: Incidentally to Ab'salom there were born three sons, and one daughter and her name was Tamar; she was a woman of beautiful appearance.

28: So Ab'salom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, without coming into the king's presence.

v28: So Ab'salom lived freely two full years in the land around and in Jerusalem, without seeing the king's face.

29: Then Ab'salom sent for Jo'ab, to send him to the king; but Jo'ab would not come to him. And he sent a second time, but Jo'ab would not come.

v29: Consequently Ab'salom sent for Jo'ab, in order that Joab would present him to the king; but Jo'ab refused to come to him. So he sent again a second time, but Jo'ab would not come.

30: Then he said to his servants, "See, Jo'ab's field is next to mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire." So Ab'salom's servants set the field on fire.

v30: Then he, Absalom, said to his servants, "Observe or Note, Jo'ab's property is adjacent to mine, and he has a crop of barley ready for harvest there; March or move out and cause to set it on fire." Therefore the servants of Ab'salom's set on fire or Burned Joab's crop of Barley.

31: Then Jo'ab arose and went to Ab'salom at his house, and said to him, "Why have your servants set my field on fire?"

v31: Then Jo'ab reacted and arose or went into action and immediately went to Ab'salom at his palace, and confronted him saying to him, "Why have your servants set my field or barley crop on fire?"

32: Ab'salom answered Jo'ab, "Behold, I sent word to you, `Come here, that I may send you to the king, to ask, "Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to be there still." Now therefore let me go into the presence of the king; and if there is guilt in me, let him kill me.'"

v32: Ab'salom answered or replied to Jo'ab, "Now look I sent for you saying, `Come here, that I may send you on an errand to the king, to inquire, "Why have I come from Geshur?" It would be better for me if I were still there. Now, therefore, let me go into the presence of the king or see the king's face; and if there is guilt in me, then let him put me to death.'"

33: Then Jo'ab went to the king, and told him; and he summoned Ab'salom. So he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king; and the king kissed Ab'salom.

v33: As a result Jo'ab went to the king, and told him about this matter, making a complete report of the conversation with Absalom; therefore he, David, summoned into his presence Ab'salom. And he, Absalom, came to the king, and bowed himself on his face into the ground in great humility before the king; and the king lifted him up and embraced and kissed Ab'salom.

Chapter 15

Second Samuel, chapter 15

1: After this Ab'salom got himself a chariot and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

v1: So it came to pass after David's public recognition of Absalom in court, that Ab'salom provided for himself a chariot of state and horses, and fifty men acting as couriers or administrators for him.

2: And Ab'salom used to rise early and stand beside the way of the gate; and when any man had a suit to come before the king for judgment, Ab'salom would call to him, and say, "From what city are you?" And when he said, "Your servant is of such and such a tribe in Israel," v2: And Ab'salom was strongly motivated to arise early in the morning and start the day, and to stand and be seen beside the castle gate road; and it came to pass that any man who had a controversy or legal complaint or grievance to bring before the king for justice, then Ab'salom would call out to him in greeting, and would say, "From what city are you personally?" And so he would reply, "YOUR loyal subject is from 'one of the tribes' of Israel,"

3: Ab'salom would say to him, "See, your claims are good and right; but there is no man deputed by the king to hear you."

v3: Furthermore, Ab'salom would say or reply to him, "Now look, your complaints or grievances are valid and legitimate; but to try or judge your case, there is no one authorized for you from the king."

4: Ab'salom said moreover, "Oh that I were judge in the land! Then every man with a suit or cause might come to me, and I would give him justice."

v4: Then Ab'salom would add, "Who would appoint ME a judge in the land! Then every man who had a legal complaint or grievance or cause would come to me, and I would see to it that he received justice."

5: And whenever a man came near to do obeisance to him, he would put out his hand, and take hold of him, and kiss him.

v5: Now it came to pass also, whenever anyone approached to do obeisance or bow down or salute him, he would extend his hand, and take hold of him, and greeted him with a kiss.

6: Thus Ab'salom did to all of Israel who came to the king for judgment; so Ab'salom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

v6: Consequently, Ab'salom behaved in this manner to all of Israel who came to the king for justice; so Ab'salom stole by deception the Right Lobe of the Streams of Consciousness of the Soul of the men of Israel.

7: And at the end of four years Ab'salom said to the king, "Pray let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed to the LORD, in Hebron.

v7: And also it came to pass at the end of four years Ab'salom spoke with the king, "Please Sir, let me go to Hebron, and fulfill my vow, which I have vowed to the LORD.

8: For your servant vowed a vow while I dwelt at Geshur in Aram, saying, `If the LORD will indeed bring me back to Jerusalem, then I will offer worship to the LORD.'"

v8: For your loyal subject vowed a vow while I was still living at Geshur in Aram or Syria, saying, `If the LORD restores me and brings me back to Jerusalem, then I will worship the LORD in Hebron.'"

9: The king said to him, "Go in peace." So he arose, and went to Hebron.

v9: Then the king replied to him in authority, "Go in peace or prosperity." So he arose, having personal motivation, and went to Hebron.

10: But Ab'salom sent secret messengers throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then say, `Ab'salom is king at Hebron!'"

v10: Meanwhile Ab'salom sent slandering propagandists to all the tribes of Israel, saying, "As soon as you hear the special sound of the trumpet, then shout the slogan, `Ab'salom is king in Hebron!'"

11: With Ab'salom went two hundred men from Jerusalem who were invited guests, and they went in their simplicity, and knew nothing.

v11: Incidentally 200 men from Jerusalem, who had been invited, followed Ab'salom, and they were following him in the sphere of their sincerity, and they knew absolutely nothing about the revolution.

12: And while Ab'salom was offering the sacrifices, he sent for Ahith'ophel the Gi'lonite, David's counselor, from his city Giloh. And the conspiracy grew strong, and the people with Ab'salom kept increasing.

v12: Now while he was offering sacrifices as a hypocritical facade of religion, Absalom sent for Ahith'ophel the Gi'lonite, David's advisor or counselor, from his home town of Giloh. Therefore the conspiracy gained momentum, and the general public kept coming to Ab'salom in constantly increasing numbers.

13: And a messenger came to David, saying, "The hearts of the men of Israel have gone after Ab'salom."

v13: And an intelligence officer who had been sent (by Joab) to David, reported (here in summary), "It has happened the Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul of the people of Israel follow Absalom, the revolution has begun."

14: Then David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, "Arise, and let us flee; or else there will be no escape for us from Ab'salom; go in haste, lest he overtake us quickly, and bring down evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword."

v14: Then David commanded all his loyal staff officials who were with him at Jerusalem, "Arise this is a Red ALERT, We must flee; for none of us will escape from Ab'salom; Be quick and ready to move out immediately, lest he, Absalom, pursues rapidly and overtakes us, and bring down evil upon us bringing disaster to our cause, and massacre and destroy by violence the city with the edge of the sword."

15: And the king's servants said to the king, "Behold, your servants are ready to do whatever my lord the king decides."

v15: And the king's staff replied to the king, "According to all that my Lord should choose or decide, here are your loyal subjects or You loyal staff are ready to do whatever my Lord the king should decide"

16: So the king went forth, and all his household after him. And the king left ten concubines to keep the house.

v16: So the king departed, and all his family after him, except ten women, his former mistresses, left behind under orders to keep and maintain the organization of the palace servants.

17: And the king went forth, and all the people after him; and they halted at the last house.

v17: Therefore the king departed with all the people in his loyal staff and followers; and they halted at the last outpost the eastern small fortress in the valley before crossing the Kedron river.

18: And all his servants passed by him; and all the Cher'ethites, and all the Pel'ethites, and all the six hundred Gittites who had followed him from Gath, passed on before the king.

v18: Then all his loyal staff marched by and passed in review before him; and all the Cher'ethites, and all the Pel'ethites, and all the six hundred Gittites the police of Jerusalem, who had accompanied him from Gath, all passed in review before the king.

19: Then the king said to It'tai the Gittite, "Why do you also go with us? Go back, and stay with the king; for you are a foreigner, and also an exile from your home.

v19: Then the king de juri said to It'tai the Gittite, "Why should you also go with us? Go back and remain with the king defacto; for you are a foreigner, and also an immigrant and not aligned with either side of the revolution, therefore YOU return to your own place or return to your place of duty of law enforcement in Jerusalem.

20: You came only yesterday, and shall I today make you wander about with us, seeing I go I know not where? Go back, and take your brethren with you; and may the LORD show steadfast love and faithfulness to you."

v20: You, Ittai, came only yesterday. Therefore today should I cause you to wander around marching with us, and I am going toward which I am going (meaning) when I do not know where I am going. Return and take back your countrymen with you; you are there leader and I only will order you as you respond to me; in grace, steadfast love, faithfulness and doctrine"

21: But It'tai answered the king, "As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, wherever my lord the king shall be, whether for death or for life, there also will your servant be."

v21: But It'tai replied to the king and said, "By the life of Jehovah and by the life of my Lord the king, assuredly with confidence in whatever place my lord the king may be, whether it means for me death or life, count on it your loyal subject will be there.

22: And David said to It'tai, "Go then, pass on." So It'tai the Gittite passed on, with all his men and all the little ones who were with him.

v22: Consequently David said to It'tai, "Move out and cross over the Kidron ford." Then It'tai the Gittite crossed over the Kidron with all his men and all the families who were with him.

23: And all the country wept aloud as all the people passed by, and the king crossed the brook Kidron, and all the people passed on toward the wilderness.

v23: And while the countryside around Jerusalem and the Kidron valley farms, wept aloud as all the people crossed over the Kidron, and the king crossed the brook Kidron last, while all the people crossed over the river before his face and took the highway over the mount of olives toward the northern Judean desert.

24: And Abi'athar came up, and lo, Zadok came also, with all the Levites, bearing the ark of the covenant of God; and they set down the ark of God, until the people had all passed out of the city.

v24: Now behold Zadok came and all the Levites with him, carrying the ark of the covenant of God; and they set down the ark of God so that all could see it on the west slope of the Mt of Olives, Now Abiathar offered sacrifices in Jerusalem until all the people who were stragglers had finished leaving the city and crossed over the kidron from the city.

25: Then the king said to Zadok, "Carry the ark of God back into the city. If I find favor in the eyes of the LORD, he will bring me back and let me see both it and his habitation;

v25: Then the king commanded Zadok only, "Return or Restore the ark of God back to the city. If, and I am confident it is true, I shall or have already found grace in the eyes of the LORD through application of the rationales, he will restore me again and he will cause me to see both the Ark and his habitation the tabernacle;

26: but if he says, 'I have no pleasure in you,' behold, here I am, let him do to me what seems good to him."

v26: but if he, God, communicates thus or in this manner, 'I have been dissatisfied or not pleased with you, David', then I am ready for punishment, let him do to me whatever seems best to him."

27: The king also said to Zadok the priest, "Look, go back to the city in peace, you and Abi'athar, with your two sons, Ahim'a-az your son, and Jonathan the son of Abi'athar.

v27: Then the king also said to Zadok the High Priest you are the Prophet a writer of scripture, "Return to the city in prosperity, tranquility, and good conscience; the 2 sons are to go with you, both Ahim'a-az your son, and Jonathan the son of Abi'athar these 2 sons with you.

28: See, I will wait at the fords of the wilderness, until word comes from you to inform me."

v28: Note, I will wait or delay at the fords of the desert, until an intelligence information report comes from you to inform me."

29: So Zadok and Abi'athar carried the ark of God back to Jerusalem; and they remained there.

v29: Therefore, Because of Abiathar, He, Zadok, returned the ark of God back to Jerusalem; and they, Zadok and Abiathar remained there.

30: But David went up the ascent of the Mount of Olives, weeping as he went, barefoot and with his head covered; and all the people who were with him covered their heads, and they went up, weeping as they went.

v30: And David ascended the forward slope of the Mount of Olives, and weeping as he kept climbing, and he was marching with his head veiled and barefooted; therefore, all the people who were with him each one covered his head, each one went up weeping as they went up.

31: And it was told David, "Ahith'ophel is among the conspirators with Ab'salom." And David said, "O LORD, I pray thee, turn the counsel of Ahith'ophel into foolishness."

v31: Now an intelligence agent reported to David saying, "Ahith'ophel the visier or secretary of state is among the conspirators with Ab'salom." Then David prayed, "Oh LORD, Please, Sir, frustrate the the counsel of Ahith'ophel."

32: When David came to the summit, where God was worshiped, behold, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat rent and earth upon his head.

v32: Now it came to pass after David approached the summit of the Mt of Olives, where people were accustomed or used to to worship pagan gods, behold, Hushai the Archite came out from hiding and met him and he approached with his robe torn and dust upon his head.

33: David said to him, "If you go on with me, you will be a burden to me.

v33: Then David said to him, "If you march on with me, then you will become a burden to me.

34: But if you return to the city, and say to Ab'salom, 'I will be your servant, O king; as I have been your father's servant in time past, so now I will be your servant,' then you will defeat for me the counsel of Ahith'ophel.

v34: But if you return to the city, and it is true you will because of your integrity do this, and if you would say to Ab'salom, 'I will be your loyal servant, O king (a lie); as I have been your father's servant in time past, so now I will be your loyal servant'; therefore you will help me by frustrating the counsel of Ahith'ophel.

35: Are not Zadok and Abi'athar the priests with you there? So whatever you hear from the king's house, tell it to Zadok and Abi'athar the priests.

v35: Is there not with you there Zadok and Abi'athar the high priests? Therefore it will come to pass that all the information you will hear from the palace of the king, you will report to to Zadok and Abi'athar the high priests.

36: Behold, their two sons are with them there, Ahim'a-az, Zadok's son, and Jonathan, Abi'athar's son; and by them you shall send to me everything you hear."

v36: Behold, their with them are there two sons, Ahim'a-az, Zadok's son, and Jonathan, Abi'athar's son; and by them you shall send me all the information you happen to hear."

37: So Hushai, David's friend, came into the city, just as Ab'salom was entering Jerusalem.

v37: Now David's friend Hushai, returned into the city, just as Ab'salom was entering Jerusalem.

Chapter 16

Second Samuel, chapter 16

1: When David had passed a little beyond the summit, Ziba the servant of Mephib'osheth met him, with a couple of asses saddled, bearing two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred bunches of raisins, a hundred of summer fruits, and a skin of wine.

v1: When David had passed a little beyond the summit, Ziba the servant of Mephib'osheth met him, with a couple of asses saddled, bearing two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred bunches of raisins, a hundred of summer fruits, and a skin of wine.

2: And the king said to Ziba, "Why have you brought these?" Ziba answered, "The asses are for the king's household to ride on, the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine for those who faint in the wilderness to drink."

v2: And the king said to Ziba, "Why have you brought these?" Ziba answered, "The asses are for the king's household to ride on, the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine for those who faint in the wilderness to drink."

3: And the king said, "And where is your master's son?" Ziba said to the king, "Behold, he remains in Jerusalem; for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will give me back the kingdom of my father.'"

v3: And the king shouted, "And where is your master's grandson?" Ziba replied to the king, "Behold, he is remaining in Jerusalem; for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will restore the kingdom of my father to me.'"

4: Then the king said to Ziba, "Behold, all that belonged to Mephib'osheth is now yours." And Ziba said, "I do obeisance; let me ever find favor in your sight, my lord the king."

v4: Then the king replied to Ziba, "Behold, all that belonged to Mephib'osheth is now yours." And Ziba said, "I do obeisance; let me ever find favor in your sight, my lord the king."

5: When King David came to Bahu'rim, there came out a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shim'e-i, the son of Gera; and as he came he cursed continually.

6: And he threw stones at David, and at all the servants of King David; and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left.

7: And Shim'e-i said as he cursed, "Begone, begone, you man of blood, you worthless fellow!

8: The LORD has avenged upon you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned; and the LORD has given the kingdom into the hand of your son Ab'salom. See, your ruin is on you; for you are a man of blood."

9: Then Abi'shai the son of Zeru'iah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over and take off his head."

10: But the king said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeru'iah? If he is cursing because the LORD has said to him, 'Curse David,' who then shall say, 'Why have you done so?'"

11: And David said to Abi'shai and to all his servants, "Behold, my own son seeks my life; how much more now may this Benjaminite! Let him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD has bidden him.

12: It may be that the LORD will look upon my affliction, and that the LORD will repay me with good for this cursing of me today."

13: So David and his men went on the road, while Shim'e-i went along on the hillside opposite him and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him and flung dust.

14: And the king, and all the people who were with him, arrived weary at the Jordan; and there he refreshed himself.

15: Now Ab'salom and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahith'ophel with him.

v15: Now Ab'salom and all the men of the revolution of Israel of all the tribes, came to Jerusalem, and Ahith'ophel with him.

16: And when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came to Ab'salom, Hushai said to Ab'salom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

v16: Then it came to pass when Hushai the Archite, David's honorable intelligence mole, had come to Ab'salom, that Hushai exuberantly said in flattery while falling down and humbling himself before Absalom, "Let the king live long and have a prosperous reign (but I am here to make sure you don't)! Let the king live long and have a prosperous reign (but I am here to make sure you don't)!

17: And Ab'salom said to Hushai, "Is this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?"

v17: And Ab'salom in arrogance and pettiness interrogated Hushai, "Is this your kindness or loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?"

18: And Hushai said to Ab'salom, "No; for whom the LORD and this people and all the men of Israel have chosen, his I will be, and with him I will remain.

v18: And Hushai replied to Ab'salom, "No; for whom the LORD, this people and all the men of Israel have chosen, to him I will be loyal, therefore I will remain with him.

19: And again, whom should I serve? Should it not be his son? As I have served your father, so I will serve you."

v19: Furthermore, whom should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of his son (idiom)? Just as I have served your father, so I will serve you."

20: Then Ab'salom said to Ahith'ophel, "Give your counsel; what shall we do?"

v20: Then Ab'salom said to Ahith'ophel, Bathsheba's grandfather the secretary of state, "Give us your advice; what shall we do now?"

21: Ahith'ophel said to Ab'salom, "Go in to your father's concubines, whom he has left to keep the house; and all Israel will hear that you have made yourself odious to your father, and the hands of all who are with you will be strengthened."

v21: Consequently Ahith'ophel advised Ab'salom, "Go into your father's 10 mistresses and wives, whom he has left to maintain the castle and rape them; and all Israel will hear that you have made yourself an odious stench in your father's nostrils becoming hateful to him, therefore the hands of all who are with you in revolution will be strengthened and they cannot back out of the revolution."

22: So they pitched a tent for Ab'salom upon the roof; and Ab'salom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

v22: So they pitched a tent calling for the assembly of the people and rolled up the sides for public view for Ab'salom upon the roof or battlements of the castle where David had first saw Bathsheba; and Ab'salom raped his father's mistresses in the sight of all the people of Israel.

23: Now in those days the counsel which Ahith'ophel gave was as if one consulted the oracle of God; so was all the counsel of Ahith'ophel esteemed, both by David and by Ab'salom.

v23: Consequently the advice of Ahithophel which he gave in those days was as if one was inquiring in the word of God; for the advice of Ahith'ophel was for Absalom when he was in charge as it had been for David when he was in charge in the past as if one were inquiring IN the WORD of GOD.

Chapter 17

Second Samuel, chapter 17

1: Moreover Ahith'ophel said to Ab'salom, "Let me choose twelve thousand men, and I will set out and pursue David tonight.

v1: Then Ahith'ophel presented a plan and requested of Ab'salom, "Please, Sir, Let me select twelve thousand men, and I will organize and move out with alacrity and pursue David tonight.

2: I will come upon him while he is weary and discouraged, and throw him into a panic; and all the people who are with him will flee. I will strike down the king only,

v2: Consequently, I will come upon him and surprise attack by night him while he is weak and fatigued from nervous exhaustion and weary of hands and has no nervous energy left, and I will terrify him and cause him to panic immobilizing him with fear; and all the people who are with him will flee. I will assassinate the king while he is alone or isolated,

3: and I will bring all the people back to you as a bride comes home to her husband. You seek the life of only one man, and all the people will be at peace."

v3: and I will restore all the people back to you as the return of all the people is tantamount to the the man whom you are seeking, OR the death of the man whom you are seeking to destroy is tantamount to the return of all the people, furthermore the death of David means that all the people will be at peace."

4: And the advice pleased Ab'salom and all the elders of Israel.

v4: So this plan seemed right to Ab'salom and all the ruling princes who had joined the revolutionary counsel of Israel.

5: Then Ab'salom said, "Call Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear what he has to say."

v5: Then Ab'salom commented, "Please, summon also Hushai the Archite, and let us hear also what he has to say."

6: And when Hushai came to Ab'salom, Ab'salom said to him, "Thus has Ahith'ophel spoken; shall we do as he advises? If not, you speak."

v6: When Hushai reported to Ab'salom, then Ab'salom confided in him saying, "After this manner Ahith'ophel has spoken, Ahithophel has submitted the following plan; shall we execute the plan as he advises? If not, speak and state your own opinions or objections."

7: Then Hushai said to Ab'salom, "This time the counsel which Ahith'ophel has given is not good."

v7: Then Hushai replied to Ab'salom, "The advice which Ahithophel has given you is not good at this time."

8: Hushai said moreover, "You know that your father and his men are mighty men, and that they are enraged, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field. Besides, your father is expert in war; he will not spend the night with the people.

v8: Furthermore Hushai advised, "You know your father and his army for they are GREAT soldiers, and that they are fierce, vehement, raging, with a ferocious like a mother bear deprived of her cubs in the bush. Furthermore your father is a professional soldier and expert in war; he will not bivouac with the frightened civilian people.

9: Behold, even now he has hidden himself in one of the pits, or in some other place. And when some of the people fall at the first attack, whoever hears it will say, 'There has been a slaughter among the people who follow Ab'salom.'

v9: Look now, he has concealed himself in some cave for ambush and attack, or in some other strategic place for counter attack. So it will come to pass when he, David, ambushes the revolutionary army in the first attack, then whoever hears the news reported will say, 'There has been a slaughter among the people who follow Ab'salom.'

10: Then even the valiant man, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will utterly melt with fear; for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and that those who are with him are valiant men.

v10: Then even the most brave and courageous men of the revolution, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will be utterly paralyzed with fear; for all Israel knows that your father is a great soldier, and that those who are with him are courageous brave men.

11: But my counsel is that all Israel be gathered to you, from Dan to Beer-sheba, as the sand by the sea for multitude, and that you go to battle in person.

v11: But I advise you to completely mobilize all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba under your own command, an army as numerous as the sand of the sea shore, personally led by you.

12: So we shall come upon him in some place where he is to be found, and we shall light upon him as the dew falls on the ground; and of him and all the men with him not one will be left.

v12: Then we will attack him in one of those places wherever he may be found, and we will fall on him at night like dew falls on the ground; and there will not remain in his presence even one living person OR neither he, David, nor any of his men will survive the battle.

13: If he withdraws into a city, then all Israel will bring ropes to that city, and we shall drag it into the valley, until not even a pebble is to be found there."

v13: If he, David, withdraws into a city, then all Israel shall bring ropes to that city, and we will drag it into the valley, until not even a small stone is to be found there."

14: And Ab'salom and all the men of Israel said, "The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahith'ophel." For the LORD had ordained to defeat the good counsel of Ahith'ophel, so that the LORD might bring evil upon Ab'salom.

v14: Then Ab'salom and all the generals of Israel concluded, "The advice of Hushai the Archite, (David's mole) is better than the advice of Ahith'ophel." For the Jehovah, the Lord Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, had ordained to frustrate the better plan of Ahith'ophel, in order that Jehovah, the Lord Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ might bring disaster or evil to Ab'salom.

15: Then Hushai said to Zadok and Abi'athar the priests, "Thus and so did Ahith'ophel counsel Ab'salom and the elders of Israel; and thus and so have I counseled.

v15: Then Hushai reported to Zadok and Abi'athar the priests, "Ahith'ophel advised Ab'salom and the princes of Israel to do such and such; and I have advised to do so and so. (The details already covered in prior narrative)

16: Now therefore send quickly and tell David, 'Do not lodge tonight at the fords of the wilderness, but by all means pass over; lest the king and all the people who are with him be swallowed up.'"

v16: Now therefore send couriers immediately and make this report to David and advise as follows, 'Do not spend the night at the fords of the desert, but rather cross over the river without delay; lest the king and all the people who are with him be destroyed.'"

17: Now Jonathan and Ahim'a-az were waiting at En-ro'gel; a maidservant used to go and tell them, and they would go and tell King David; for they must not be seen entering the city.

v17: Because they could not risk being seen entering the city, Jonathan and Ahim'a-az remained concealed and were standing by on alert to carry information at En-ro'gel; where a brilliant young female domestic servant was supposed to go and inform them, consequently they in turn would go and report to King David.

18: But a lad saw them, and told Ab'salom; so both of them went away quickly, and came to the house of a man at Bahu'rim, who had a well in his courtyard; and they went down into it.

v18: But a young man and arrogant hippy teenager spied on them, and made a report to Ab'saloms headquarters; consequently both of them departed very quickly, and came to the chateau of a general officer, Azmaveth, from the army of David near Bahu'rim, who had a great dry cistern in his courtyard used for storage and defense plans; and they climbed down into it.

19: And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and scattered grain upon it; and nothing was known of it.

v19: Then Asmavath's wife, moved rapidly and seized a covering and put it over mouth of the cistern, and scattered groats over it so that nothing was noticed by the pursuers.

20: When Ab'salom's servants came to the woman at the house, they said, "Where are Ahim'a-az and Jonathan?" And the woman said to them, "They have gone over the brook of water." And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

v20: When Ab'salom's patrol came to the woman at the chateau, they interrogated her asking, "Where are Ahim'a-az and Jonathan?" then the woman replied to them, "They have crossed over the little stream of water." And when they searched and could not find them, the revolutionary patrol returned to Jerusalem.

21: After they had gone, the men came up out of the well, and went and told King David. They said to David, "Arise, and go quickly over the water; for thus and so has Ahith'ophel counseled against you."

v21: And it came to pass the revolutionary patrol had departed or marched on, that they, the couriers, came up out of the cistern, and went and reported to King David, and they said in part to David, "Move out quickly and ford or cross the river; for Ahith'ophel has advised such and such against you."

22: Then David arose, and all the people who were with him, and they crossed the Jordan; by daybreak not one was left who had not crossed the Jordan.

v22: Then David immediately moved out rapidly, and all the people who were with him, and they forded the Jordan; by dawn not even one was left behind who had not crossed the Jordan.

23: When Ahith'ophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and went off home to his own city. And he set his house in order, and hanged himself; and he died, and was buried in the tomb of his father.

v23: When Ahith'ophel realized or saw that his plan was not executed or carried out or adopted, he saddled his ass, and rapidly went off to his chateaus in his home city. And he put all his personal affairs in order, and hanged himself; and he died, and was buried in the tomb of his father.

24: Then David came to Mahana'im. And Ab'salom crossed the Jordan with all the men of Israel.

v24: Now when David went to Mahana'im, then Ab'salom crossed the Jordan, he and his entire army.

25: Now Ab'salom had set Ama'sa over the army instead of Jo'ab. Ama'sa was the son of a man named Ithra the Ish'maelite, who had married Ab'igal the daughter of Nahash, sister of Zeru'iah, Jo'ab's mother.

v25: In the mean time Ab'salom had appointed Ama'sa to replace Joab in command of the Jewish professional army of Israel. Now Ama'sa was the son of a man, a bastard, and his father's name was Jether called Ithra the Ish'maelite, who had seduced Ab'igal the daughter of Nachash the king of Ammon, half sister of Zeru'iah, Jo'ab's mother.

26: And Israel and Ab'salom encamped in the land of Gilead.

v26: Both Israel and Ab'salom bivouaced in the land of Gilead, (East of the Jordan River).

27: When David came to Mahana'im, Shobi the son of Nahash from Rabbah of the Ammonites, and Machir the son of Am'miel from Lo-debar, and Barzil'lai the Gileadite from Ro'gelim, v27: Now it came to pass when David came to Mahana'im, that Shobi the younger son of Nachash of Rabbah King of the Ammonite people, and Makir the son of Am'miel from Lo-debar, and Barzil'lai the Gileadite from Ro'gelim, both north of Mahanaim.

28: brought beds, basins, and earthen vessels, wheat, barley, meal, parched grain, beans and lentils, v28: provided, brought furnished, sleeping rugs or beds, bowls and articles of pottery, wheat, barley, flour, roasted grains, beans and lentils, and dried foods,

29: honey and curds and sheep and cheese from the herd, for David and the people with him to eat; for they said, "The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness."

v29: honey, curds, sheep and cheese from cows milk, for David and his people to eat; for the industrialists concluded from thinking doctrine that, the people with David had become hungry while still moving with the result that they became exhausted and thirsty from their desert trek."

Chapter 18

Second Samuel, chapter 18

1: Then David mustered the men who were with him, and set over them commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds.

v1: Then David organized and mobilized these troops into the establishment army to fight the revolution, and he appointed over them general officer commanders of thousands ie Divisions or Brigades and field grade officer commanders of hundreds ie Battalions.

2: And David sent forth the army, one third under the command of Jo'ab, one third under the command of Abi'shai the son of Zeru'iah, Jo'ab's brother, and one third under the command of It'tai the Gittite. And the king said to the men, "I myself will also go out with you."

v2: Then David organized the army making the following assignments, the First Corps of one third was under the command of Jo'ab, the Second Corps was under the command of Abi'shai the son of Zeru'iah, Jo'ab's brother, and the Third Corps was under the command of It'tai the Gittite. Afterward the king made a general order announcement to the army, "Even I myself will definitely march out with you and assume overall command."

3: But the men said, "You shall not go out. For if we flee, they will not care about us. If half of us die, they will not care about us. But you are worth ten thousand of us; therefore it is better that you send us help from the city."

v3: But delegations from the whole army answered David, "You will not march out with us. For if we are forced to retreat, they, our officers will not take cognizance of our situation to retreat and not regroup us and not extricate us from this trouble. If half of us are to die, they, our officers, will not take cognizance of our casualties. Because now you are worth ten thousand of us; therefore it is better that you support us with the reserves kept in the city."

4: The king said to them, "Whatever seems best to you I will do." So the king stood at the side of the gate, while all the army marched out by hundreds and by thousands.

v4: So The king answered them, "I will do, Whatever seems best to you in your eyes." Therefore the king stood at the side of the gate, while all the army minus the reserve marched out by hundreds and by thousands.

5: And the king ordered Jo'ab and Abi'shai and It'tai, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man Ab'salom." And all the people heard when the king gave orders to all the commanders about Ab'salom.

v5: Then the king, in part, commanded Jo'ab and Abi'shai and It'tai the corps commanders of the Jewish armies, "Deal with the young man Absalom, gently for my sake." furthermore the entire army, including all the officers heard when the king gave orders to the corps commanders concerning Ab'salom.

6: So the army went out into the field against Israel; and the battle was fought in the forest of E'phraim.

v6: So the army marched out into the field to oppose Israel the army of the revolution; and the battle took place or was fought in the forest of E'phraim.

7: And the men of Israel were defeated there by the servants of David, and the slaughter there was great on that day, twenty thousand men.

v7: And there the army of Israel were defeated by the soldiers of David, and the slaughter there was great on that day, twenty thousand men.

8: The battle spread over the face of all the country; and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword.

v8: because the battle there was spread out over the entire countryside; and because of the panic in the rough terrain the forest devoured more of the revolutionary troops that day than the sword consumed.

9: And Ab'salom chanced to meet the servants of David. Ab'salom was riding upon his mule, and the mule went under the thick branches of a great oak, and his head caught fast in the oak, and he was left hanging between heaven and earth, while the mule that was under him went on.

v9: Now Ab'salom unexpectedly encountered the soldiers of one of the Reconnaissance Patrols of David and he fled in panic since Ab'salom was mounted on his royal mule, then the mule went under the thick branches of a large oak tree, so that the hair of his head caught fast in the branches of the oak tree, with the result that he was suspended between heaven and earth, while the mule he was riding kept on running.

10: And a certain man saw it, and told Jo'ab, "Behold, I saw Ab'salom hanging in an oak."

v10: When a unique junior officer in command of the patrol saw him, he went and made a reconnaissance report to Jo'ab and said, "Behold, I have seen Ab'salom hanging suspended from a great oak tree."

11: Jo'ab said to the man who told him, "What, you saw him! Why then did you not strike him there to the ground? I would have been glad to give you ten pieces of silver and a girdle."

v11: Then Jo'ab reprimanded the officer who had reported to him, "Now look here, you saw him, why then did you not strike him there to the ground right then and there? Furthermore I would have given you ten pieces of silver decorating you right then and there, and a promotion to the next rank."

12: But the man said to Jo'ab, "Even if I felt in my hand the weight of a thousand pieces of silver, I would not put forth my hand against the king's son; for in our hearing the king commanded you and Abi'shai and It'tai, 'For my sake protect the young man Ab'salom.'

v12: Then the unique officer replied to Jo'ab, "Even if I received in my hand the weight of a thousand pieces of silver or the medal of honor, I will not raise my hand against the king's son; for in our hearing the king commanded you and Abi'shai and It'tai saying, 'For my sake protect the young man Ab'salom.'

13: On the other hand, if I had dealt treacherously against his life (and there is nothing hidden from the king), then you yourself would have stood aloof."

v13: Otherwise, I would have acted deceitfully in my own soul and destroyed my honor, furthermore the entire matter cannot be concealed from the king, then you yourself would have been the first to take a stand against me officially reprimanding me for a different reason while congratulating me off the record."

14: Jo'ab said, "I will not waste time like this with you." And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them into the heart of Ab'salom, while he was still alive in the oak.

v14: Then Jo'ab retorted, "Not so will I be caused to delay with you or I will not waste any more time here with you." And he seized or grabbed three javelins and he carried them in his hand, and thrust them into the chest of Ab'salom, while he was still alive and suspended from the oak tree.

15: And ten young men, Jo'ab's armor-bearers, surrounded Ab'salom and struck him, and killed him.

v15: And the ten young elite soldiers of Jo'ab's armor-bearers or body guard, surrounded Ab'salom and hacked him to pieces, and caused him to die.

16: Then Jo'ab blew the trumpet, and the troops came back from pursuing Israel; for Jo'ab restrained them.

v16: Then Jo'ab gave the order to sound the trumpet for recall of the troops pursuing the revolutionary army, with the result that the troops came back from pursuing the army of Israel; for Jo'ab restrained the army.

17: And they took Ab'salom, and threw him into a great pit in the forest, and raised over him a very great heap of stones; and all Israel fled every one to his own home.

v17: Furthermore they seized violently the corpse of Ab'salom, and threw the corpse into a great deep pit in the forest, and erected over him a very great pile of rocks the sign of a disgraced traitor and criminal; meanwhile all the survivors of the revolutionary army of Israel fled in panic every one to his own home.

18: Now Ab'salom in his lifetime had taken and set up for himself the pillar which is in the King's Valley, for he said, "I have no son to keep my name in remembrance"; he called the pillar after his own name, and it is called Ab'salom's monument to this day.

v18: But Absalom during his lifetime had taken and erected a pillar as a monument to himself which is located in the kings valley, for he arrogantly thought, "I have not a son for the purpose of remembering or perpetuating my name"; Therefore he named the monument after his own name, and it is called Ab'salom's monument to this very day.

19: Then said Ahi'ma-az the son of Zadok, "Let me run, and carry tidings to the king that the LORD has delivered him from the power of his enemies."

v19: Then Ahi'ma-az the son of Zadok said, "Please Sir, Let me run, and announce good news of the victory and cheer up the king for the LORD has vindicated or delivered him from the power of his enemies."

20: And Jo'ab said to him, "You are not to carry tidings today; you may carry tidings another day, but today you shall carry no tidings, because the king's son is dead."

v20: Then Jo'ab replied to him, "You are not the man to carry good news this day; but you will announce the good news on another occasion, but this day you will not carry the news, because the king's son is dead."

21: Then Jo'ab said to the Cushite, "Go, tell the king what you have seen." The Cushite bowed before Jo'ab, and ran.

v21: Then Jo'ab spoke to the Kushite, the African headquarters runner, "Go, report to the king what you have seen." Consequently The Kushite saluted or bowed before Jo'ab, and started running and kept on running.

22: Then Ahi'ma-az the son of Zadok said again to Jo'ab, "Come what may, let me also run after the Cushite." And Jo'ab said, "Why will you run, my son, seeing that you will have no reward for the tidings?"

v22: Then Ahi'ma-az the son of Zadok said yet again to Jo'ab, "But Please sir, Come what may be, let me also keep running after the African." And finally Jo'ab replied, "Why are you motivated and why will you run, my son, you will have no reward for the news you bring, and you will never beat the African who is a far better runner than you?"

23: "Come what may," he said, "I will run." So he said to him, "Run." Then Ahi'ma-az ran by the way of the plain, and outran the Cushite.

v23: "But Come what may, Sir" he said one more time, "Please! Let me run." So Joab in thinking commanded him, "Run." Consequently Ahi'ma-az ran by way of the plain, and outran the African.

24: Now David was sitting between the two gates; and the watchman went up to the roof of the gate by the wall, and when he lifted up his eyes and looked, he saw a man running alone.

v24: While David was sitting in the courtyard between the inner and outer gates of the fortified city; the officer of the day went up to the top of the tower on the wall, and as he made his observations and stared intently and behold he saw one man running by himself.

25: And the watchman called out and told the king. And the king said, "If he is alone, there are tidings in his mouth." And he came apace, and drew near.

v25: then the officer of the day called out and reported to the king. And the king replied, "If he is alone, there is good news in his mouth." And the runner kept getting nearer and nearer.

26: And the watchman saw another man running; and the watchman called to the gate and said, "See, another man running alone!" The king said, "He also brings tidings."

v26: Then the officer of the day spotted another man running; so the officer of the day called to the sentry in the courtyard at the gate to have him hold the gate for both men and said, "behold there is another man running alone!" The king commented, "this one also brings good news."

27: And the watchman said, "I think the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahi'ma-az the son of Zadok." And the king said, "He is a good man, and comes with good tidings."

v27: Then the officer of the day made a personal comment saying, "In my opinion the running style of the first messenger is like the running style of Ahi'ma-az the son of Zadok." And the king who was standing there replied, "That one is an honorable man, and he will come with the better good news."

28: Then Ahi'ma-az cried out to the king, "All is well." And he bowed before the king with his face to the earth, and said, "Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delivered up the men who raised their hand against my lord the king."

v28: Then Ahi'ma-az called out and said to the king, "Shalom, Hail or Prosperity or Success or Victory" Afterward he knelt himself down in the presence of the king as per protocol with his face toward the ground, and said, "Praise belongs to the LORD your God, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, who has shut down the men who revolted against my lord the king."

29: And the king said, "Is it well with the young man Ab'salom?" Ahi'ma-az answered, "When Jo'ab sent your servant, I saw a great tumult, but I do not know what it was."

v29: And the king asked, "Is it well with the young man Absalom, is he safe?" Ahi'ma-az answered, "I saw great confusion of a great crowd when Jo'ab sent the Kings Servant the African and your servant, but I did not know what was happening."

30: And the king said, "Turn aside, and stand here." So he turned aside, and stood still.

v30: Then the king satisfied with the report said, "Turn around, and stand here." So he did an about face and turned aside, and stood at attention.

31: And behold, the Cushite came; and the Cushite said, "Good tidings for my lord the king! For the LORD has delivered you this day from the power of all who rose up against you."

v31: And behold, the Kushite the African arrived; and the Kushite the African said with official protocol, "Let my Lord the King receive the Good news! For the LORD has vindicated you this day from the hand of all who revolted and rose up against you."

32: The king said to the Cushite, "Is it well with the young man Ab'salom?" And the Cushite answered, "May the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise up against you for evil, be like that young man."

v32: Then the king interrogated the Kushite the African and said, "Is the young man Absalom safe?" And the Kushite the African replied, "Let the enemies of my lord the king, and all who revolt against you for evil, become like that young man."

33: And the king was deeply moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept; and as he went, he said, "O my son Ab'salom, my son, my son Ab'salom! Would I had died instead of you, O Ab'salom, my son, my son!"

v33: Then the king was emotionally disturbed, and went up to the guard room above the gate, and he wept; and thus he said as he went, "Absalom, my son, my son, Absalom if only I had died instead of you, O Ab'salom, my son, my son!"

Chapter 19

Second Samuel, chapter 19

1: It was told Jo'ab, "Behold, the king is weeping and mourning for Ab'salom."

v1: And it was reported to Jo'ab, "Behold, the king keeps on weeping while he mourns for Ab'salom."

2: So the victory that day was turned into mourning for all the people; for the people heard that day, "The king is grieving for his son."

v2: Consequently the victory on that day was turned into mourning for the entire army; because on that day of the victory and deliverance from the revolution, the army heard it said, "The king keeps on grieving for his son Absalom."

3: And the people stole into the city that day as people steal in who are ashamed when they flee in battle.

v3: On that day of the victory the soldiers of the army sneaked back into the city by stealth, like an army which has been disgraced sneaks back into town after they flee in panic during battle .

4: The king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, "O my son Ab'salom, O Ab'salom, my son, my son!"

v4: Meanwhile the king covered his face, and the king screamed in a very loud voice, "O my son Ab'salom, O Ab'salom, my son, my son!"

5: Then Jo'ab came into the house to the king, and said, "You have today covered with shame the faces of all your servants, who have this day saved your life, and the lives of your sons and your daughters, and the lives of your wives and your concubines, v5: Then Jo'ab came to the king's headquarters, and said, "Today You have disgraced, embarrassed and humiliated all your soldiers, who have this day delivered or rescued or saved your life, and the lives of your sons and your daughters, and the lives of your wives and your mistresses,

6: because you love those who hate you and hate those who love you. For you have made it clear today that commanders and servants are nothing to you; for today I perceive that if Ab'salom were alive and all of us were dead today, then you would be pleased.

v6: by having personal love for or sponsoring or helping those who hate and want to destroy you (Absalom) and continually hating those who love you (The army and intelligence corps). For you have demonstrated clearly today that commanders and troops mean nothing to you; furthermore today I perceive and conclude that this day if Ab'salom were alive and all of us were dead, then it would have been right in our eyes or you would have been pleased.

7: Now therefore arise, go out and speak kindly to your servants; for I swear by the LORD, if you do not go, not a man will stay with you this night; and this will be worse for you than all the evil that has come upon you from your youth until now."

v7: (Joab threatened) Now therefore, GET UP, GO OUT and SPEAK AND ENCOURAGE your troops; for I make a solemn oath by the Jehovah, the Lord Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, that if you do not go out to them emphatically count on it that you will not have a soldier with you and all of the army will desert you by sundown; therefore this evil will be worse for you than all the evil that has come upon you all of your life from your youth until this very moment."

8: Then the king arose, and took his seat in the gate. And the people were all told, "Behold, the king is sitting in the gate"; and all the people came before the king. Now Israel had fled every man to his own home.

9: And all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "The king delivered us from the hand of our enemies, and saved us from the hand of the Philistines; and now he has fled out of the land from Ab'salom.

10: But Ab'salom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why do you say nothing about bringing the king back?"

11: And King David sent this message to Zadok and Abi'athar the priests, "Say to the elders of Judah, `Why should you be the last to bring the king back to his house, when the word of all Israel has come to the king?"

12: You are my kinsmen, you are my bone and my flesh; why then should you be the last to bring back the king?"

13: And say to Ama'sa, `Are you not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if you are not commander of my army henceforth in place of Jo'ab."

14: And he swayed the heart of all the men of Judah as one man; so that they sent word to the king, "Return, both you and all your servants."

15: So the king came back to the Jordan; and Judah came to Gilgal to meet the king and to bring the king over the Jordan.

16: And Shim'e-i the son of Gera, the Benjaminite, from Bahu'rim, made haste to come down with the men of Judah to meet King David;

17: and with him were a thousand men from Benjamin. And Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, with his fifteen sons and his twenty servants, rushed down to the Jordan before the king,

18: and they crossed the ford to bring over the king's household, and to do his pleasure. And Shim'e-i the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he was about to cross the Jordan, 19: and said to the king, "Let not my lord hold me guilty or remember how your servant did wrong on the day my lord the king left Jerusalem; let not the king bear it in mind.

20: For your servant knows that I have sinned; therefore, behold, I have come this day, the first of all the house of Joseph to come down to meet my lord the king."

21: Abi'shai the son of Zeru'iah answered, "Shall not Shim'e-i be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD'S anointed?"

22: But David said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeru'iah, that you should this day be as an adversary to me? Shall any one be put to death in Israel this day? For do I not know that I am this day king over Israel?"

23: And the king said to Shim'e-i, "You shall not die." And the king gave him his oath.

24: And Mephib'osheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king; he had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came back in safety.

v24: And Mephib'osheth the grandson of Saul came down to meet the king; he had neither cared for his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king, David, departed until the day returned home in prosperity.

25: And when he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him, "Why did you not go with me, Mephib'osheth?"

26: He answered, "My lord, O king, my servant deceived me; for your servant said to him, `Saddle an ass for me, that I may ride upon it and go with the king.' For your servant is lame.

v26: He answered, "My lord, the king, my servant Ziba, deceived me; for your servant Mephibosheth, said to him, `I will Saddle an ass, and ride upon it and accompany the king.' For your servant is lame.

27: He has slandered your servant to my lord the king. But my lord the king is like the angel of God; do therefore what seems good to you.

v27: Then, He, Ziba, slandered your servant to my lord David, the king. But my lord the king is a messenger from God; do therefore what is good in your eyes and make the decision.

28: For all my father's house were but men doomed to death before my lord the king; but you set your servant among those who eat at your table. What further right have I, then, to cry to the king?"

v28: For all my father's estate was nothing but dead men before my lord the king; but you placed your servant Mephibosheth among those who ate at your table. What further right so I have, to cry out to the king?"

29: And the king said to him, "Why speak any more of your affairs? I have decided: you and Ziba shall divide the land."

v29: And the king replied to him, "Why do you speak any more of your business? I have made a decision: you and Ziba shall divide the estate."

30: And Mephib'osheth said to the king, "Oh, let him take it all, since my lord the king has come safely home."

v30: And Mephib'osheth replied to the king, "Let him take even all of it, since my lord the king has entered prosperously into his palace."

31: Now Barzil'lai the Gileadite had come down from Ro'gelim; and he went on with the king to the Jordan, to escort him over the Jordan.

32: Barzil'lai was a very aged man, eighty years old; and he had provided the king with food while he stayed at Mahana'im; for he was a very wealthy man.

33: And the king said to Barzil'lai, "Come over with me, and I will provide for you with me in Jerusalem."

34: But Barzil'lai said to the king, "How many years have I still to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?"

35: I am this day eighty years old; can I discern what is pleasant and what is not? Can your servant taste what he eats or what he drinks? Can I still listen to the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be an added burden to my lord the king?

36: Your servant will go a little way over the Jordan with the king. Why should the king recompense me with such a reward?

37: Pray let your servant return, that I may die in my own city, near the grave of my father and my mother. But here is your servant Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do for him whatever seems good to you."

38: And the king answered, "Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do for him whatever seems good to you; and all that you desire of me I will do for you."

39: Then all the people went over the Jordan, and the king went over; and the king kissed Barzil'lai and blessed him, and he returned to his own home.
40: The king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him; all the people of Judah, and also half the people of Israel, brought the king on his way.
41: Then all the men of Israel came to the king, and said to the king, "Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen you away, and brought the king and his household over the Jordan, and all David's men with him?"
42: All the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, "Because the king is near of kin to us. Why then are you angry over this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king's expense? Or has he given us any gift?"
43: And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, "We have ten shares in the king, and in David also we have more than you. Why then did you despise us? Were we not the first to speak of bringing back our king?" But the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

Chapter 20 Second Samuel, chapter 20

1: Now there happened to be there a worthless fellow, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjaminite; and he blew the trumpet, and said, "We have no portion in David, and we have no inheritance in the son of Jesse; every man to his tents, O Israel!"
2: So all the men of Israel withdrew from David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri; but the men of Judah followed their king steadfastly from the Jordan to Jerusalem.
3: And David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten concubines whom he had left to care for the house, and put them in a house under guard, and provided for them, but did not go in to them. So they were shut up until the day of their death, living as if in widowhood.
4: Then the king said to Ama'sa, "Call the men of Judah together to me within three days, and be here yourself."
5: So Ama'sa went to summon Judah; but he delayed beyond the set time which had been appointed him.
6: And David said to Abi'shai, "Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Ab'salom; take your lord's servants and pursue him, lest he get himself fortified cities, and cause us trouble."
7: And there went out after Abi'shai, Jo'ab and the Cher'ethites and the Pel'ethites, and all the mighty men; they went out from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.
8: When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Ama'sa came to meet them. Now Jo'ab was wearing a soldier's garment, and over it was a girdle with a sword in its sheath fastened upon his loins, and as he went forward it fell out.
9: And Jo'ab said to Ama'sa, "Is it well with you, my brother?" And Jo'ab took Ama'sa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.
10: But Ama'sa did not observe the sword which was in Jo'ab's hand; so Jo'ab struck him with it in the body, and shed his bowels to the ground, without striking a second blow; and he died. Then Jo'ab and Abi'shai his brother pursued Sheba the son of Bichri.
11: And one of Jo'ab's men took his stand by Ama'sa, and said, "Whoever favors Jo'ab, and whoever is for David, let him follow Jo'ab."
12: And Ama'sa lay wallowing in his blood in the highway. And any one who came by, seeing him, stopped; and when the man saw that all the people stopped, he carried Ama'sa out of the highway into the field, and threw a garment over him.
13: When he was taken out of the highway, all the people went on after Jo'ab to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.
14: And Sheba passed through all the tribes of Israel to Abel of Beth-ma'acah; and all the Bichrites assembled, and followed him in.
15: And all the men who were with Jo'ab came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-ma'acah; they cast up a mound against the city, and it stood against the rampart; and they were battering the wall, to throw it down.
16: Then a wise woman called from the city, "Hear! Hear! Tell Jo'ab, 'Come here, that I may speak to you.'"
17: And he came near her; and the woman said, "Are you Jo'ab?" He answered, "I am." Then she said to him, "Listen to the words of your maidservant." And he answered, "I am listening."
18: Then she said, "They were wont to say in old time, 'Let them but ask counsel at Abel'; and so they settled a matter."
19: I am one of those who are peaceable and faithful in Israel; you seek to destroy a city which is a mother in Israel; why will you swallow up the heritage of the LORD?"
20: Jo'ab answered, "Far be it from me, far be it, that I should swallow up or destroy!"
21: That is not true. But a man of the hill country of E'phraim, called Sheba the son of Bichri, has lifted up his hand against King David; give up him alone, and I will withdraw from the city." And the woman said to Jo'ab, "Behold, his head shall be thrown to you over the wall."
22: Then the woman went to all the people in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and threw it out to Jo'ab. So he blew the trumpet, and they dispersed from the city, every man to his home. And Jo'ab returned to Jerusalem to the king.
23: Now Jo'ab was in command of all the army of Israel; and Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada was in command of the Cher'ethites and the Pel'ethites;
24: and Ador'am was in charge of the forced labor; and Jehosh'aphat the son of Ahi'lud was the recorder;
25: and Sheva was secretary; and Zadok and Abi'athar were priests;
26: and Ira the Ja'irite was also David's priest.

Chapter 21

Second Samuel, chapter 21

1: Now there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David sought the face of the LORD. And the LORD said, "There is bloodguilt on Saul and on his house, because he put the Gib'eonites to death."

2: So the king called the Gib'eonites. Now the Gib'eonites were not of the people of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; although the people of Israel had sworn to spare them, Saul had sought to slay them in his zeal for the people of Israel and Judah.

3: And David said to the Gib'eonites, "What shall I do for you? And how shall I make expiation, that you may bless the heritage of the LORD?"

4: The Gib'eonites said to him, "It is not a matter of silver or gold between us and Saul or his house; neither is it for us to put any man to death in Israel." And he said, "What do you say that I shall do for you?"

5: They said to the king, "The man who consumed us and planned to destroy us, so that we should have no place in all the territory of Israel,

6: let seven of his sons be given to us, so that we may hang them up before the LORD at Gibeon on the mountain of the LORD." And the king said, "I will give them."

7: But the king spared Mephib'osheth, the son of Saul's son Jonathan, because of the oath of the LORD which was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

8: The king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Ai'ah, whom she bore to Saul, Armo'ni and Mephib'osheth; and the five sons of Merab the daughter of Saul, whom she bore to A'dri-el the son of Barzil'lai the Meho'lathite;

v8: So the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Ai'ah, whom she bore to Saul, Armo'ni and Mephib'osheth; and the five sons of Michelle the daughter of Saul, whom she bore to A'dri-el the son of Barzil'lai the Meho'lathite;

9: and he gave them into the hands of the Gib'eonites, and they hanged them on the mountain before the LORD, and the seven of them perished together. They were put to death in the first days of harvest, at the beginning of barley harvest.

v9: and he delivered them into the hands of the Gib'eonites, and they crucified them on the mountain before the LORD, so that the seven of them fell together in the hanging. So that they were put to death in the first days of harvest, at the beginning of barley harvest in april.

10: Then Rizpah the daughter of Ai'ah took sackcloth, and spread it for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until rain fell upon them from the heavens; and she did not allow the birds of the air to come upon them by day, or the beasts of the field by night.

v10: Then Rizpah the daughter of Ai'ah took sackcloth, and spread over herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until rain fell upon them from the heavens in october; and she did not allow the birds of the air to rest upon them by day, or the animals which feed on carrion by night.

11: When David was told what Rizpah the daughter of Ai'ah, the concubine of Saul, had done, v11: When David was told what Rizpah the daughter of Ai'ah, the concubine of Saul, had done,

12: David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan from the men of Ja'besh-gil'ead, who had stolen them from the public square of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, on the day the Philistines killed Saul on Gilbo'a;

v12: then David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan from the men of Ja'besh-gil'ead, who had recovered them from the public square of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, on the day the Philistines killed Saul on Gilbo'a;

13: and he brought up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan; and they gathered the bones of those who were hanged.

v13: and he brought up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan; and they gathered the bones of those who had been crucified.

14: And they buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan in the land of Benjamin in Zela, in the tomb of Kish his father; and they did all that the king commanded. And after that God heeded supplications for the land.

v14: And they buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan in the land of Benjamin in Zela, in the tomb of Kish his father; and they did all that the king commanded. And after that God heeded supplications for the land.

15: The Philistines had war again with Israel, and David went down together with his servants, and they fought against the Philistines; and David grew weary.

16: And Ish'bi-be'nob, one of the descendants of the giants, whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of bronze, and who was girded with a new sword, thought to kill David.

17: But Abi'shai the son of Zeru'iah came to his aid, and attacked the Philistine and killed him. Then David's men adjured him, "You shall no more go out with us to battle, lest you quench the lamp of Israel."

18: After this there was again war with the Philistines at Gob; then Sib'becai the Hu'shathite slew Saph, who was one of the descendants of the giants.

19: And there was again war with the Philistines at Gob; and Elha'nan the son of Ja'areo'egim, the Bethlehemite, slew Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20: And there was again war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, who had six fingers on each hand, and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; and he also was descended from the giants.

21: And when he taunted Israel, Jonathan the son of Shim'e-i, David's brother, slew him.

22: These four were descended from the giants in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

Chapter 22
Second Samuel, chapter 22

1: And David spoke to the LORD the words of this song on the day when the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul.

2: He said, "The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer,

3: my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold and my refuge, my savior; thou savest me from violence.

2Sam 22:3

v3: My God, My Rock, in whom I take refuge, My Shield and the horn of my salvation ( Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ in Hypostatic Union ) my stronghold, my refuge, my savior, you deliver me from violence (terrorism)

4: I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised, and I am saved from my enemies.

5: "For the waves of death encompassed me, the torrents of perdition assailed me;

6: the cords of Sheol entangled me, the snares of death confronted me.

7: "In my distress I called upon the LORD; to my God I called. From his temple he heard my voice, and my cry came to his ears.

8: "Then the earth reeled and rocked; the foundations of the heavens trembled and quaked, because he was angry.

9: Smoke went up from his nostrils, and devouring fire from his mouth; glowing coals flamed forth from him.

10: He bowed the heavens, and came down; thick darkness was under his feet.

11: He rode on a cherub, and flew; he was seen upon the wings of the wind.

12: He made darkness around him his canopy, thick clouds, a gathering of water.

13: Out of the brightness before him coals of fire flamed forth.

14: The LORD thundered from heaven, and the Most High uttered his voice.

15: And he sent out arrows, and scattered them; lightning, and routed them.

16: Then the channels of the sea were seen, the foundations of the world were laid bare, at the rebuke of the LORD, at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.

17: "He reached from on high, he took me, he drew me out of many waters.

18: He delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me; for they were too mighty for me.

19: They came upon me in the day of my calamity; but the LORD was my stay.

20: He brought me forth into a broad place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

21: "The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands he recompensed me.

22: For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

23: For all his ordinances were before me, and from his statutes I did not turn aside.

24: I was blameless before him, and I kept myself from guilt.

25: Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to my cleanness in his sight.

26: "With the loyal thou dost show thyself loyal; with the blameless man thou dost show thyself blameless;

27: with the pure thou dost show thyself pure, and with the crooked thou dost show thyself perverse.

28: Thou dost deliver a humble people, but thy eyes are upon the haughty to bring them down.

29: Yea, thou art my lamp, O LORD, and my God lightens my darkness.

30: Yea, by thee I can crush a troop, and by my God I can leap over a wall.

31: This God -- his way is perfect; the promise of the LORD proves true; he is a shield for all those who take refuge in him.

32: "For who is God, but the LORD? And who is a rock, except our God?

33: This God is my strong refuge, and has made my way safe.

34: He made my feet like hinds' feet, and set me secure on the heights.

35: He trains my hands for war, so that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

2Sam 22:35

v35: He, God trains my hands for battle, so that my arms can bend a bow of Bronze

36: Thou hast given me the shield of thy salvation, and thy help made me great.

2Sam 22:36

v36: You have also given me the Shield of your Salvation and your help makes me great.

37: Thou didst give a wide place for my steps under me, and my feet did not slip;

38: I pursued my enemies and destroyed them, and did not turn back until they were consumed.

39: I consumed them; I thrust them through, so that they did not rise; they fell under my feet.

40: For thou didst gird me with strength for the battle; thou didst make my assailants sink under me.

41: Thou didst make my enemies turn their backs to me, those who hated me, and I destroyed them.

42: They looked, but there was none to save; they cried to the LORD, but he did not answer them.

43: I beat them fine as the dust of the earth, I crushed them and stamped them down like the mire of the streets.

44: "Thou didst deliver me from strife with the peoples; thou didst keep me as the head of the nations; people whom I had not known served me.

45: Foreigners came cringing to me; as soon as they heard of me, they obeyed me.

46: Foreigners lost heart, and came trembling out of their fastnesses.

47: "The LORD lives; and blessed be my rock, and exalted be my God, the rock of my salvation, 48: the God who gave me vengeance and brought down peoples under me, 49: who brought me out from my enemies; thou didst exalt me above my adversaries, thou didst deliver me from men of violence.
50: "For this I will extol thee, O LORD, among the nations, and sing praises to thy name.
51: Great triumphs he gives to his king, and shows steadfast love to his anointed, to David, and his descendants for ever."

Chapter 23

Second Samuel, chapter 23

1: Now these are the last words of David: The oracle of David, the son of Jesse, the oracle of the man who was raised on high, the anointed of the God of Jacob, the sweet psalmist of Israel:

2: "The Spirit of the LORD speaks by me, his word is upon my tongue.

3: The God of Israel has spoken, the Rock of Israel has said to me: When one rules justly over men, ruling in the fear of God, v3: The God of Israel has spoken, the Rock of Israel Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ has said to me: He who rules over men righteously rules in the fear of the Lord. OR When one rules over men for a long time he must be just, ruling in the fear of the Lord.

4: he dawns on them like the morning light, like the sun shining forth upon a cloudless morning, like rain that makes grass to sprout from the earth.

5: Yea, does not my house stand so with God? For he has made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things and secure. For will he not cause to prosper all my help and my desire?

v5: Yea, although my dynasty is not so with God? He has made with me an everlasting covenant 2Sam 7:8-16, Ps 89, ordered in all things and secure or stabilized. For will he alone will cause to prosper all my help and my desire whether they follow or not?

6: But godless men are all like thorns that are thrown away; for they cannot be taken with the hand;

v6: But godless men are all like thorns and must be rejected; for they cannot be taken with the hand (association with reversionism results in becoming reversionistic and you will be judged with them);

7: but the man who touches them arms himself with iron and the shaft of a spear, and they are utterly consumed with fire."

v7: but the man who touches them arms himself with iron cutting weapons and the shaft of a spear, and they are utterly consumed with fire."

8: These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Josheb-basshe'beth a Tah-che'monite; he was chief of the three; he wielded his spear against eight hundred whom he slew at one time.

v8: These are the names of the knights who belonged to David had: The first of the three was the wise one who was sitting in the chair of authority, the senior general after Joab, chief of the 3 top knights; Adino the Epsen meaning the Spear, called this because he wielded his spear against eight hundred whom he killed in one battle.

9: And next to him among the three mighty men was Elea'zar the son of Dodo, son of Aho'hi. He was with David when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there for battle, and the men of Israel withdrew.

v9: And next to him in rank among the three great generals men was Elea'zar the son of Dodo, son of Aho'hi the fighting family of Benjamin. He was a knight of the first class having been with David when they disgraced or reproached the Philistines, who were concentrated there for battle when David killed Goliath, and the men of Israel had retreated from Goliath. 1Chron 11

10: He rose and struck down the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand cleaved to the sword; and the LORD wrought a great victory that day; and the men returned after him only to strip the slain.

v10: He, Eleazar, arose after Goliath was dead, and killed in combat the Philistines until his hand was cramping, so that his hand stuck to the hilt of his sword and he needed help to remove it; Therefore Jehovah manufactured out of doctrine in the soul of these men, a great victory that day; and the disorganized cowards of the routed Jewish army returned behind him only to strip and plunder the corpses of the dead.

11: And next to him was Shammah, the son of Agee the Har'arite. The Philistines gathered together at Lehi, where there was a plot of ground full of lentils; and the men fled from the Philistines.

v11: And next to him in rank was Shammah (meaning desolation), the son of Agee the Har'arite or Mountaineer. Now the Philistines were concentrated in battalion strength at Lehi, where there was a farm full of harvested lentils; and the Jewish detachment guarding the farm being outnumbered ran from the Philistines.

12: But he took his stand in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD wrought a great victory.

v12: But he, Shammah, took a defensive position in the middle of the field, and delivered or preserved it from danger, because he killed or slaughtered in combat the Philistines; therefore the LORD manufactured out of one man's Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, a great victory.

13: And three of the thirty chief men went down, and came about harvest time to David at the cave of Adullam, when a band of Philistines was encamped in the valley of Reph'aim.

v13: Now these three commanders over the thirty knights descended and came to David about harvest time at the cave of Adullam, when a regiment of Philistines was bivouaced encamped in the valley of Reph'aim between Jebus and Bethlehem.

14: David was then in the stronghold; and the garrison of the Philistines was then at Bethlehem.

v14: David was bivouacked then in the command post in the mountain fortress; and the garrison of the Philistines was then at Bethlehem.

15: And David said longingly, "O that some one would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem which is by the gate!"

v15: And David had an intense desire for himself and expressed it, "Who will cause me to drink water and be refreshed from the well of Bethlehem which is by the gate!"

16: Then the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem which was by the gate, and took and brought it to David. But he would not drink of it; he poured it out to the LORD,

v16: Then the three heroes fought their way through the encampment of the Philistines, and one drew water out of the well of Bethlehem which was by the gate while the others fought off the 2 forces of the Philistines, and they both lifted it up and caused it to be brought to David. But he was not willing to drink of it; he poured it out as a libation or memorial offering to the LORD, 17: and said, "Far be it from me, O LORD, that I should do this. Shall I drink the blood of the men who went at the risk of their lives?" Therefore he would not drink it. These things did the three mighty men.

v17: and David exclaimed, "Never dammit Never, God Forbid, O LORD, shall I drink this water. I shall not drink the blood of the noble men who marched for the price of their souls or at the risk of their lives?" Therefore he was not willing to drink it. And these three heroes manufactured out of Metabolized Bible Doctrine in their Stream of Consciousness of the Soul these things.

18: Now Abi'shai, the brother of Jo'ab, the son of Zeru'iah, was chief of the thirty. And he wielded his spear against three hundred men and slew them, and won a name beside the three.

v18: Now Abi'shai, the brother of Jo'ab, the son of Zeru'iah, became chief over the thirty third class knights. Because he, Abashai, wielded his spear oscillating it, against three hundred men and killed them in combat, therefore he had a reputation over the thirty Knights of the third class.

19: He was the most renowned of the thirty, and became their commander; but he did not attain to the three.

v19: He became more famous than the thirty, therefore he became to them a prince; but he did not attain to the rank of the three First Class Knights.

20: And Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada was a valiant man of Kabzeel, a doer of great deeds; he smote two ariels of Moab. He also went down and slew a lion in a pit on a day when snow had fallen.

v20: And Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada, the son of a man of great spiritual power a man from the city of Kabzeel, Benaiah, a man who performed great deeds; he thrust through mortally wounding and killing in combat two great highest decorated national heroes, Ariels of Moab. Also he descended and killed in combat in the middle of a pit or cistern on a snowy day and killed an angry lion.

21: And he slew an Egyptian, a handsome man. The Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but Benai'ah went down to him with a staff, and snatched the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear.

v21: Also he killed in combat a man, an assassin, from Egyptian, a man who caused great evil. The Egyptian assassin had a spear in his hand; but Benai'ah went at him with a swagger stick, and snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand, and meticulously killed him repeatedly stabbing him with his own spear.

22: These things did Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada, and won a name beside the three mighty men.

v22: These things were manufactured by Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul of Benai'ah the son of Jehoi'ada, therefore he had a greater reputation than the 30 knights in the 3rd class.

23: He was renowned among the thirty, but he did not attain to the three. And David set him over his bodyguard.

v23: He was more honorable than and promoted over the thirty, but he did not attain the rank of the three. And David promoted him as commander over his brigade of bodyguards for life.

24: As'ahel the brother of Jo'ab was one of the thirty; Elha'nan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem, v24: As'ahel the brother of Jo'ab was one of the thirty, honored posthumously despite being a fool; Elha'nan, meaning God is gracious, another son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

25: Shammah of Harod, Eli'ka of Harod, v25: Shammah of Harod, Eli'ka of Harod, from the tribe of Isichar the ones easily enslaved.

26: Helez the Paltite, Ira the son of Ikkesh of Teko'a,

27: Abi-e'zer, of An'athoth, Mebun'nai the Hu'shathite,

28: Zalmon the Aho'hite, Ma'harai of Netoph'ah,

29: Heleb the son of Ba'anah of Netoph'ah, It'tai the son of Ri'bai of Gib'e-ah of the Benjaminites, 30: Benai'ah of Pira'thon, Hid'dai of the brooks of Ga'ash,

31: Abi-al'bon the Ar'bathite, Az'maveth of Bahu'rim,

32: Eli'ahba of Sha-al'bon, the sons of Jashen, Jonathan,

33: Shammah the Har'arite, Ahi'am the son of Sharar the Har'arite, 34: Eliph'elet the son of Ahas'bai of Ma'acah, Eli'am the son of Ahith'ophel of Gilo, 35: Hezro of Carmel, Pa'arai the Arbite,

36: Igal the son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite,

37: Zelek the Ammonite, Na'harai of Be-er'oth, the armor-bearer of Jo'ab the son of Zeru'iah, v37: Zelek the gentile from Ammon normally a Jewish enemy, Na'harai of Be-er'oth, the armor-bearer of Jo'ab the son of Zeru'iah, v38: Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite, from Jatir.

38: Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

39: Uri'ah the Hittite: thirty-seven in all.

v39: Uri'ah the Hittite: A total of thirty-seven in all.

Chapter 24

Second Samuel, chapter 24

1: Again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he incited David against them, saying, "Go, number Israel and Judah."

2: So the king said to Jo'ab and the commanders of the army, who were with him, "Go through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beer-sheba, and number the people, that I may know the number of the people."

3: But Jo'ab said to the king, "May the LORD your God add to the people a hundred times as many as they are, while the eyes of my lord the king still see it; but why does my lord the king delight in this thing?"

4: But the king's word prevailed against Jo'ab and the commanders of the army. So Jo'ab and the commanders of the army went out from the presence of the king to number the people of Israel.

5: They crossed the Jordan, and began from Aro'er, and from the city that is in the middle of the valley, toward Gad and on to Jazer.

6: Then they came to Gilead, and to Kadesh in the land of the Hittites; and they came to Dan, and from Dan they went around to Sidon,

7: and came to the fortress of Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and Canaanites; and they went out to the Negeb of Judah at Beer-sheba.

8: So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9: And Jo'ab gave the sum of the numbering of the people to the king: in Israel there were eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand.

10: But David's heart smote him after he had numbered the people. And David said to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly in what I have done. But now, O LORD, I pray thee, take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly."

11: And when David arose in the morning, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying,

12: "Go and say to David, `Thus says the LORD, Three things I offer you; choose one of them, that I may do it to you."

13: So Gad came to David and told him, and said to him, "Shall three years of famine come to you in your land? Or will you flee three months before your foes while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days' pestilence in your land? Now consider, and decide what answer I shall return to him who sent me."

14: Then David said to Gad, "I am in great distress; let us fall into the hand of the LORD, for his mercy is great; but let me not fall into the hand of man."

15: So the LORD sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning until the appointed time; and there died of the people from Dan to Beer-sheba seventy thousand men.

16: And when the angel stretched forth his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD repented of the evil, and said to the angel who was working destruction among the people, "It is enough; now stay your hand." And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing floor of Arau'nah the Jeb'usite.

17: Then David spoke to the LORD when he saw the angel who was smiting the people, and said, "Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Let thy hand, I pray thee, be against me and against my father's house."

18: And Gad came that day to David, and said to him, "Go up, rear an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Arau'nah the Jeb'usite."

19: So David went up at Gad's word, as the LORD commanded.

20: And when Arau'nah looked down, he saw the king and his servants coming on toward him; and Arau'nah went forth, and did obeisance to the king with his face to the ground.

21: And Arau'nah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" David said, "To buy the threshing floor of you, in order to build an altar to the LORD, that the plague may be averted from the people."

22: Then Arau'nah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up what seems good to him; here are the oxen for the burnt offering, and the threshing sledges and the yokes of the oxen for the wood.

23: All this, O king, Arau'nah gives to the king." And Arau'nah said to the king, "The LORD your God accept you."

24: But the king said to Arau'nah, "No, but I will buy it of you for a price; I will not offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God which cost me nothing." So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.

25: And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the LORD heeded supplications for the land, and the plague was averted from Israel.

The Book of The Songs of Solomon

Chapter 1

Song of Solomon, chapter 1

1: The Song of Songs, which is Solomon's.

2: O that you would kiss me with the kisses of your mouth! For your love is better than wine,
 3: your anointing oils are fragrant, your name is oil poured out; therefore the maidens love you.
 4: Draw me after you, let us make haste. The king has brought me into his chambers. We will exult and rejoice in you; we will extol your love more than wine; rightly do they love you.
 5: I am very dark, but comely, O daughters of Jerusalem, like the tents of Kedar, like the curtains of Solomon.
 6: Do not gaze at me because I am swarthy, because the sun has scorched me. My mother's sons were angry with me, they made me keeper of the vineyards; but, my own vineyard I have not kept!
 7: Tell me, you whom my soul loves, where you pasture your flock, where you make it lie down at noon; for why should I be like one who wanders beside the flocks of your companions?
 8: If you do not know, O fairest among women, follow in the tracks of the flock, and pasture your kids beside the shepherds' tents.
 9: I compare you, my love, to a mare of Pharaoh's chariots.
 10: Your cheeks are comely with ornaments, your neck with strings of jewels.
 11: We will make you ornaments of gold, studded with silver.
 12: While the king was on his couch, my nard gave forth its fragrance.
 13: My beloved is to me a bag of myrrh, that lies between my breasts.

SS 1:13

v13: My beloved (RM) is to me a pouch of Murr which lies all night between my breasts

14: My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms in the vineyards of Enge'di.
 15: Behold, you are beautiful, my love; behold, you are beautiful; your eyes are doves.
 16: Behold, you are beautiful, my beloved, truly lovely. Our couch is green;
 17: the beams of our house are cedar, our rafters are pine.

Chapter 2
 Song of Solomon, chapter 2

1: I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.
 2: As a lily among brambles, so is my love among maidens.
 3: As an apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among young men. With great delight I sat in his shadow, and his fruit was sweet to my taste.
 4: He brought me to the banqueting house, and his banner over me was love.

SS 2:4 In presence

v4: He has brought me to the House of Wine (Dining Out) and his banner over me is Love (protection)

5: Sustain me with raisins, refresh me with apples; for I am sick with love.
 6: O that his left hand were under my head, and that his right hand embraced me!
 7: I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the gazelles or the hinds of the field, that you stir not up nor awaken love until it please.
 8: The voice of my beloved! Behold, he comes, leaping upon the mountains, bounding over the hills.
 9: My beloved is like a gazelle, or a young stag. Behold, there he stands behind our wall, gazing in at the windows, looking through the lattice.
 10: My beloved speaks and says to me: "Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away;
 11: for lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone.
 12: The flowers appear on the earth, the time of singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.
 13: The fig tree puts forth its figs, and the vines are in blossom; they give forth fragrance. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.
 14: O my dove, in the clefts of the rock, in the covert of the cliff, let me see your face, let me hear your voice, for your voice is sweet, and your face is comely.
 15: Catch us the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vineyards, for our vineyards are in blossom."
 16: My beloved is mine and I am his, he pastures his flock among the lilies.
 17: Until the day breathes and the shadows flee, turn, my beloved, be like a gazelle, or a young stag upon rugged mountains.

Chapter 3
 Song of Solomon, chapter 3

1: Upon my bed by night I sought him whom my soul loves; I sought him, but found him not; I called him, but he gave no answer.
 2: "I will rise now and go about the city, in the streets and in the squares; I will seek him whom my soul loves." I sought him, but found him not.
 3: The watchmen found me, as they went about in the city. "Have you seen him whom my soul loves?"
 4: Scarcely had I passed them, when I found him whom my soul loves. I held him, and would not let him go until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.
 5: I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the gazelles or the hinds of the field, that you stir not up nor awaken love until it please.
 6: What is that coming up from the wilderness, like a column of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all the fragrant powders of the merchant?
 7: Behold, it is the litter of Solomon! About it are sixty mighty men of the mighty men of Israel,

- 8: all girt with swords and expert in war, each with his sword at his thigh, against alarms by night.
 9: King Solomon made himself a palanquin from the wood of Lebanon.
 10: He made its posts of silver, its back of gold, its seat of purple; it was lovingly wrought within by the daughters of Jerusalem.
 11: Go forth, O daughters of Zion, and behold King Solomon, with the crown with which his mother crowned him on the day of his wedding, on the day of the gladness of his heart.

Chapter 4

Song of Solomon, chapter 4

- 1: Behold, you are beautiful, my love, behold, you are beautiful! Your eyes are doves behind your veil. Your hair is like a flock of goats, moving down the slopes of Gilead.
 2: Your teeth are like a flock of shorn ewes that have come up from the washing, all of which bear twins, and not one among them is bereaved.
 3: Your lips are like a scarlet thread, and your mouth is lovely. Your cheeks are like halves of a pomegranate behind your veil.
 4: Your neck is like the tower of David, built for an arsenal, whereon hang a thousand bucklers, all of them shields of warriors.
 5: Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle, that feed among the lilies.
 6: Until the day breathes and the shadows flee, I will hie me to the mountain of myrrh and the hill of frankincense.

SS 4:6

v6: Until the Day blows away, when the shadows flee away I will go to the mountain of Murr to the Hill of frankensense (fragrance of Memories)

- 7: You are all fair, my love; there is no flaw in you.
 8: Come with me from Lebanon, my bride; come with me from Lebanon. Depart from the peak of Ama'na, from the peak of Senir and Hermon, from the dens of lions, from the mountains of leopards.
 9: You have ravished my heart, my sister, my bride, you have ravished my heart with a glance of your eyes, with one jewel of your necklace.
 10: How sweet is your love, my sister, my bride! how much better is your love than wine, and the fragrance of your oils than any spice!
 11: Your lips distil nectar, my bride; honey and milk are under your tongue; the scent of your garments is like the scent of Lebanon.
 12: A garden locked is my sister, my bride, a garden locked, a fountain sealed.
 13: Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates with all choicest fruits, henna with nard,
 14: nard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense, myrrh and aloes, with all chief spices --
 15: a garden fountain, a well of living water, and flowing streams from Lebanon.
 16: Awake, O north wind, and come, O south wind! Blow upon my garden, let its fragrance be wafted abroad. Let my beloved come to his garden, and eat its choicest fruits.

Chapter 5

Song of Solomon, chapter 5

- 1: I come to my garden, my sister, my bride, I gather my myrrh with my spice, I eat my honeycomb with my honey, I drink my wine with my milk. Eat, O friends, and drink: drink deeply, O lovers!
 2: I slept, but my heart was awake. Hark! my beloved is knocking. "Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my perfect one; for my head is wet with dew, my locks with the drops of the night."
 3: I had put off my garment, how could I put it on? I had bathed my feet, how could I soil them?
 4: My beloved put his hand to the latch, and my heart was thrilled within me.
 5: I arose to open to my beloved, and my hands dripped with myrrh, my fingers with liquid myrrh, upon the handles of the bolt.
 6: I opened to my beloved, but my beloved had turned and gone. My soul failed me when he spoke. I sought him, but found him not; I called him, but he gave no answer.
 7: The watchmen found me, as they went about in the city; they beat me, they wounded me, they took away my mantle, those watchmen of the walls.
 8: I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if you find my beloved, that you tell him I am sick with love.
 9: What is your beloved more than another beloved, O fairest among women? What is your beloved more than another beloved, that you thus adjure us?
 10: My beloved is all radiant and ruddy, distinguished among ten thousand.
 11: His head is the finest gold; his locks are wavy, black as a raven.
 12: His eyes are like doves beside springs of water, bathed in milk, fitly set.
 13: His cheeks are like beds of spices, yielding fragrance. His lips are lilies, distilling liquid myrrh.
 14: His arms are rounded gold, set with jewels. His body is ivory work, encrusted with sapphires.
 15: His legs are alabaster columns, set upon bases of gold. His appearance is like Lebanon, choice as the cedars.
 16: His speech is most sweet, and he is altogether desirable. This is my beloved and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

Chapter 6

Song of Solomon, chapter 6

- 1: Whither has your beloved gone, O fairest among women? Whither has your beloved turned, that we may seek him with you?
- 2: My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices, to pasture his flock in the gardens, and to gather lilies.
- 3: I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine; he pastures his flock among the lilies.
- 4: You are beautiful as Tirzah, my love, comely as Jerusalem, terrible as an army with banners.
- 5: Turn away your eyes from me, for they disturb me -- Your hair is like a flock of goats, moving down the slopes of Gilead.
- 6: Your teeth are like a flock of ewes, that have come up from the washing, all of them bear twins, not one among them is bereaved.
- 7: Your cheeks are like halves of a pomegranate behind your veil.
- 8: There are sixty queens and eighty concubines, and maidens without number.
- 9: My dove, my perfect one, is only one, the darling of her mother, flawless to her that bore her. The maidens saw her and called her happy; the queens and concubines also, and they praised her.
- 10: "Who is this that looks forth like the dawn, fair as the moon, bright as the sun, terrible as an army with banners?"
- 11: I went down to the nut orchard, to look at the blossoms of the valley, to see whether the vines had budded, whether the pomegranates were in bloom.
- 12: Before I was aware, my fancy set me in a chariot beside my prince.
- 13: Return, return, O Shu'ammite, return, return, that we may look upon you. Why should you look upon the Shu'ammite, as upon a dance before two armies?

Chapter 7

Song of Solomon, chapter 7

- 1: How graceful are your feet in sandals, O queenly maiden! Your rounded thighs are like jewels, the work of a master hand.
- 2: Your navel is a rounded bowl that never lacks mixed wine. Your belly is a heap of wheat, encircled with lilies.
- 3: Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.
- 4: Your neck is like an ivory tower. Your eyes are pools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rab'bim. Your nose is like a tower of Lebanon, overlooking Damascus.
- 5: Your head crowns you like Carmel, and your flowing locks are like purple; a king is held captive in the tresses.
- 6: How fair and pleasant you are, O loved one, delectable maiden!
- 7: You are stately as a palm tree, and your breasts are like its clusters.
- 8: I say I will climb the palm tree and lay hold of its branches. Oh, may your breasts be like clusters of the vine, and the scent of your breath like apples,
- 9: and your kisses like the best wine that goes down smoothly, gliding over lips and teeth.
- 10: I am my beloved's, and his desire is for me.
- 11: Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the fields, and lodge in the villages;
- 12: let us go out early to the vineyards, and see whether the vines have budded, whether the grape blossoms have opened and the pomegranates are in bloom. There I will give you my love.
- 13: The mandrakes give forth fragrance, and over our doors are all choice fruits, new as well as old, which I have laid up for you, O my beloved.

Chapter 8

Song of Solomon, chapter 8

- 1: O that you were like a brother to me, that nursed at my mother's breast! If I met you outside, I would kiss you, and none would despise me.
- 2: I would lead you and bring you into the house of my mother, and into the chamber of her that conceived me. I would give you spiced wine to drink, the juice of my pomegranates.
- 3: O that his left hand were under my head, and that his right hand embraced me!
- 4: I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that you stir not up nor awaken love until it please.
- 5: Who is that coming up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? Under the apple tree I awakened you. There your mother was in travail with you, there she who bore you was in travail.
- 6: Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm; for love is strong as death, jealousy is cruel as the grave. Its flashes are flashes of fire, a most vehement flame.

SS 8:6 (Shepard Lover Speaking after rescuing her from the Harem of Solomon)

v6: Stamp me like a Signet ring on your Right Lobe, as a signet ring on your arm (body) For Cat 2 Love is as strong as death, Jealousy is as cruel as the Grave, Love's Flame is like a flame of Fire and is the Flame of the Lord (passion of Soul and Body)

7: Many waters cannot quench love, neither can floods drown it. If a man offered for love all the wealth of his house, it would be utterly scorned.

SS 8:7

v7: Many Waters are not able to extinguish the Fire of Category 2 Love nor can flood waters inundate it, If a man were to give all of the wealth of his estate for Category 2 Love it would be rejected.

- 8: We have a little sister, and she has no breasts. What shall we do for our sister, on the day when she is spoken for?
9: If she is a wall, we will build upon her a battlement of silver; but if she is a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.
10: I was a wall, and my breasts were like towers; then I was in his eyes as one who brings peace.
11: Solomon had a vineyard at Ba'al-ha'mon; he let out the vineyard to keepers; each one was to bring for its fruit a thousand pieces of silver.
12: My vineyard, my very own, is for myself; you, O Solomon, may have the thousand, and the keepers of the fruit two hundred.
13: O you who dwell in the gardens, my companions are listening for your voice; let me hear it.
14: Make haste, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or a young stag upon the mountains of spices.

The Book of Zechariah

Chapter 1

Zechariah, chapter 1

- 1: In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechari'ah the son of Berechi'ah, son of Iddo, the prophet, saying,
2: "The LORD was very angry with your fathers.
3: Therefore say to them, Thus says the LORD of hosts: Return to me, says the LORD of hosts, and I will return to you, says the LORD of hosts.
4: Be not like your fathers, to whom the former prophets cried out, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, Return from your evil ways and from your evil deeds.' But they did not hear or heed me, says the LORD.
5: Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live for ever?
6: But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? So they repented and said, As the LORD of hosts purposed to deal with us for our ways and deeds, so has he dealt with us."
7: On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month which is the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechari'ah the son of Berechi'ah, son of Iddo, the prophet; and Zechari'ah said,
8: "I saw in the night, and behold, a man riding upon a red horse! He was standing among the myrtle trees in the glen; and behind him were red, sorrel, and white horses.
9: Then I said, 'What are these, my lord?' The angel who talked with me said to me, 'I will show you what they are.'
10: So the man who was standing among the myrtle trees answered, 'These are they whom the LORD has sent to patrol the earth.'
11: And they answered the angel of the LORD who was standing among the myrtle trees, 'We have patrolled the earth, and behold, all the earth remains at rest.'
12: Then the angel of the LORD said, 'O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou have no mercy on Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these seventy years?'
13: And the LORD answered gracious and comforting words to the angel who talked with me.
14: So the angel who talked with me said to me, 'Cry out, Thus says the LORD of hosts: I am exceedingly jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion.
15: And I am very angry with the nations that are at ease; for while I was angry but a little they furthered the disaster.
16: Therefore, thus says the LORD, I have returned to Jerusalem with compassion; my house shall be built in it, says the LORD of hosts, and the measuring line shall be stretched out over Jerusalem.
17: Cry again, Thus says the LORD of hosts: My cities shall again overflow with prosperity, and the LORD will again comfort Zion and again choose Jerusalem.'"
18: And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, four horns!
19: And I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these?" And he answered me, "These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."
20: Then the LORD showed me four smiths.
21: And I said, "What are these coming to do?" He answered, "These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man raised his head; and these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations who lifted up their horns against the land of Judah to scatter it."

Chapter 2

Zechariah, chapter 2

- 1: And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand!
2: Then I said, "Where are you going?" And he said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its breadth and what is its length."
3: And behold, the angel who talked with me came forward, and another angel came forward to meet him,
4: and said to him, "Run, say to that young man, 'Jerusalem shall be inhabited as villages without walls, because of the multitude of men and cattle in it.
5: For I will be to her a wall of fire round about, says the LORD, and I will be the glory within her.'"
6: Ho! ho! Flee from the land of the north, says the LORD; for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heavens, says the LORD.

7: Ho! Escape to Zion, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon.

8: For thus said the LORD of hosts, after his glory sent me to the nations who plundered you, for he who touches you touches the apple of his eye:

9: "Behold, I will shake my hand over them, and they shall become plunder for those who served them. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me.

10: Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion; for lo, I come and I will dwell in the midst of you, says the LORD.

11: And many nations shall join themselves to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell in the midst of you, and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you.

12: And the LORD will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem."

13: Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD; for he has roused himself from his holy dwelling.

Chapter 3

Zechariah, chapter 3

1: Then he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to accuse him.

2: And the LORD said to Satan, "The LORD rebuke you, O Satan! The LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Is not this a brand plucked from the fire?"

3: Now Joshua was standing before the angel, clothed with filthy garments.

4: And the angel said to those who were standing before him, "Remove the filthy garments from him." And to him he said, "Behold, I have taken your iniquity away from you, and I will clothe you with rich apparel."

5: And I said, "Let them put a clean turban on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him with garments; and the angel of the LORD was standing by.

6: And the angel of the LORD enjoined Joshua,

7: "Thus says the LORD of hosts: If you will walk in my ways and keep my charge, then you shall rule my house and have charge of my courts, and I will give you the right of access among those who are standing here.

8: Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, you and your friends who sit before you, for they are men of good omen: behold, I will bring my servant the Branch.

9: For behold, upon the stone which I have set before Joshua, upon a single stone with seven facets, I will engrave its inscription, says the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the guilt of this land in a single day.

10: In that day, says the LORD of hosts, every one of you will invite his neighbor under his vine and under his fig tree."

Chapter 4

Zechariah, chapter 4

1: And the angel who talked with me came again, and waked me, like a man that is wakened out of his sleep.

2: And he said to me, "What do you see?" I said, "I see, and behold, a lampstand all of gold, with a bowl on the top of it, and seven lamps on it, with seven lips on each of the lamps which are on the top of it.

3: And there are two olive trees by it, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left."

4: And I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"

5: Then the angel who talked with me answered me, "Do you not know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord."

6: Then he said to me, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerub'babel: Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, says the LORD of hosts.

v6: Then he said to me, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerub'babel: It is not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, says the Jehovah God of the Armies.

7: What are you, O great mountain? Before Zerub'babel you shall become a plain; and he shall bring forward the top stone amid shouts of "Grace, grace to it!"

8: Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

9: "The hands of Zerub'babel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also complete it. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you.

10: For whoever has despised the day of small things shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerub'babel. "These seven are the eyes of the LORD, which range through the whole earth."

11: Then I said to him, "What are these two olive trees on the right and the left of the lampstand?"

12: And a second time I said to him, "What are these two branches of the olive trees, which are beside the two golden pipes from which the oil is poured out?"

13: He said to me, "Do you not know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord."

14: Then he said, "These are the two anointed who stand by the Lord of the whole earth."

Chapter 5

Zechariah, chapter 5

1: Again I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, a flying scroll!

2: And he said to me, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits, and its breadth ten cubits."
3: Then he said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the face of the whole land; for every one who steals shall be cut off henceforth according to it, and every one who swears falsely shall be cut off henceforth according to it."
4: I will send it forth, says the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter the house of the thief, and the house of him who swears falsely by my name; and it shall abide in his house and consume it, both timber and stones."
5: Then the angel who talked with me came forward and said to me, "Lift your eyes, and see what this is that goes forth."
6: And I said, "What is it?" He said, "This is the ephah that goes forth." And he said, "This is their iniquity in all the land."
7: And behold, the leaden cover was lifted, and there was a woman sitting in the ephah!
8: And he said, "This is Wickedness." And he thrust her back into the ephah, and thrust down the leaden weight upon its mouth.
9: Then I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, two women coming forward! The wind was in their wings; they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the ephah between earth and heaven.
10: Then I said to the angel who talked with me, "Where are they taking the ephah?"
11: He said to me, "To the land of Shinar, to build a house for it; and when this is prepared, they will set the ephah down there on its base."

Chapter 6 Zechariah, chapter 6

1: And again I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, four chariots came out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of bronze.
2: The first chariot had red horses, the second black horses,
3: the third white horses, and the fourth chariot dappled gray horses.
4: Then I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"
5: And the angel answered me, "These are going forth to the four winds of heaven, after presenting themselves before the LORD of all the earth.
6: The chariot with the black horses goes toward the north country, the white ones go toward the west country, and the dappled ones go toward the south country."
7: When the steeds came out, they were impatient to get off and patrol the earth. And he said, "Go, patrol the earth." So they patrolled the earth.
8: Then he cried to me, "Behold, those who go toward the north country have set my Spirit at rest in the north country."
9: And the word of the LORD came to me:
10: "Take from the exiles Heldai, Tobi'jah, and Jedai'ah, who have arrived from Babylon; and go the same day to the house of Josi'ah, the son of Zephani'ah.
11: Take from them silver and gold, and make a crown, and set it upon the head of Joshua, the son of Jehoz'adak, the high priest;
12: and say to him, `Thus says the LORD of hosts, "Behold, the man whose name is the Branch: for he shall grow up in his place, and he shall build the temple of the LORD."
v12: and say to him, `Thus says the LORD of armies, "Behold, the man whose name is the Branch: for he shall grow out from where he is, and he shall build the temple in Jerusalem of the LORD.
13: It is he who shall build the temple of the LORD, and shall bear royal honor, and shall sit and rule upon his throne. And there shall be a priest by his throne, and peaceful understanding shall be between them both."
14: And the crown shall be in the temple of the LORD as a reminder to Heldai, Tobi'jah, Jedai'ah, and Josi'ah the son of Zephani'ah.
15: "And those who are far off shall come and help to build the temple of the LORD; and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. And this shall come to pass, if you will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God."

Chapter 7 Zechariah, chapter 7

1: In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechari'ah in the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Chislev.
2: Now the people of Bethel had sent Share'zer and Reg'em-mel'ech and their men, to entreat the favor of the LORD,
3: and to ask the priests of the house of the LORD of hosts and the prophets, "Should I mourn and fast in the fifth month, as I have done for so many years?"
4: Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me;
5: "Say to all the people of the land and the priests, When you fasted and mourned in the fifth month and in the seventh, for these seventy years, was it for me that you fasted?
6: And when you eat and when you drink, do you not eat for yourselves and drink for yourselves?
7: When Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, with her cities round about her, and the South and the lowland were inhabited, were not these the words which the LORD proclaimed by the former prophets?"
8: And the word of the LORD came to Zechari'ah, saying,
9: "Thus says the LORD of hosts, Render true judgments, show kindness and mercy each to his brother,
10: do not oppress the widow, the fatherless, the sojourner, or the poor; and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart."

11: But they refused to hearken, and turned a stubborn shoulder, and stopped their ears that they might not hear.

v11: But they refused to pay attention and turned a stubborn shoulder to Bible Doctrine, and stopped their ears from listening to bible teaching.

12: They made their hearts like adamant lest they should hear the law and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent by his Spirit through the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from the LORD of hosts.

v12: So they made their Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul like carborundum so they could not hear the Bible Doctrine and the words which the Jehovah of the Armies had sent by his Spirit through the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from the Jehovah of the Armies.

13: "As I called, and they would not hear, so they called, and I would not hear," says the LORD of hosts, v13: "And it came to pass that just as I, Jehovah, called through the teaching of Bible Doctrine, and they would not listen, so they called, and I would not Listen," communicates Jehovah of the Armies.

14: "and I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they had not known. Thus the land they left was desolate, so that no one went to and fro, and the pleasant land was made desolate."

v14: "But I scattered them with a whirlwind through all the nations which they had not known. Therefore the land was desolated behind them so that no one went back and forth, or had no prosperity, and they made the pleasant land desolate."

Chapter 8

Zechariah, chapter 8

1: And the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

2: "Thus says the LORD of hosts: I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath.

3: Thus says the LORD: I will return to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and Jerusalem shall be called the faithful city, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts, the holy mountain.

4: Thus says the LORD of hosts: Old men and old women shall again sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each with staff in hand for very age.

5: And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in its streets.

6: Thus says the LORD of hosts: If it is marvelous in the sight of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvelous in my sight, says the LORD of hosts?

7: Thus says the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will save my people from the east country and from the west country;

8: and I will bring them to dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be my people and I will be their God, in faithfulness and in righteousness."

9: Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Let your hands be strong, you who in these days have been hearing these words from the mouth of the prophets, since the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10: For before those days there was no wage for man or any wage for beast, neither was there any safety from the foe for him who went out or came in; for I set every man against his fellow.

11: But now I will not deal with the remnant of this people as in the former days, says the LORD of hosts.

12: For there shall be a sowing of peace; the vine shall yield its fruit, and the ground shall give its increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

13: And as you have been a byword of cursing among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you and you shall be a blessing. Fear not, but let your hands be strong."

Zech 8:13+16-17

v13: and it shall come to pass in the millennium, that just as you were a curse among the nations with Antisemitism throughout history and the in the tribulation, O house of Judah and house of Israel with the administration of the 5th cycle of Divine Discipline BC721, 586, AD70, so will I deliver you in the restoration of Israel (Is 5:19-20, 10:19-23, 11:11-16, 14:1-3, 60:4-6, Joel 2;16, Zech 10:6-12) in the 2nd advent and you shall be a blessing. Fear not, but let your hands be strong."

14: For thus says the LORD of hosts: "As I purposed to do evil to you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, and I did not relent, says the LORD of hosts, 15: so again have I purposed in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah; fear not.

16: These are the things that you shall do: Speak the truth to one another, render in your gates judgments that are true and make for peace, v16: These are the things which you shall do: Speak the truth each one to his neighbor, decide judicial cases with truth and judgment for peace in your courts.

17: do not devise evil in your hearts against one another, and love no false oath, for all these things I hate, says the LORD."

v17: Let none of you devise evil in your Right Lobe against another person, avoid the motivation to engage in personal law suits, and do not condone perjury, for all of these things are what I hate, says the LORD."

18: And the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

19: "Thus says the LORD of hosts: The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah seasons of joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love truth and peace.

20: "Thus says the LORD of hosts: Peoples shall yet come, even the inhabitants of many cities;

21: the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, "Let us go at once to entreat the favor of the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts; I am going.'

22: Many peoples and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of the LORD.

Zech 8:22-23

v22: Many peoples in gentile nations and mighty nations will come to seek the LORD of armies in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of the LORD.

23: Thus says the LORD of hosts: In those days ten men from the nations of every tongue shall take hold of the robe of a Jew, saying, 'Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.'

v23: Thus says the LORD of the armies: In those days of the millennium, ten men from the gentile nations of every language shall take hold of the garment of a Jew, saying, 'Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.'

Chapter 9

Zechariah, chapter 9

1: An Oracle The word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach and will rest upon Damascus. For to the LORD belong the cities of Aram, even as all the tribes of Israel;

2: Hamath also, which borders thereon, Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise.

3: Tyre has built herself a rampart, and heaped up silver like dust, and gold like the dirt of the streets.

4: But lo, the Lord will strip her of her possessions and hurl her wealth into the sea, and she shall be devoured by fire.

5: Ash'kelon shall see it, and be afraid; Gaza too, and shall writhe in anguish; Ekron also, because its hopes are confounded. The king shall perish from Gaza; Ash'kelon shall be uninhabited;

6: a mongrel people shall dwell in Ashdod; and I will make an end of the pride of Philistia.

7: I will take away its blood from its mouth, and its abominations from between its teeth; it too shall be a remnant for our God; it shall be like a clan in Judah, and Ekron shall be like the Jeb'usites.

8: Then I will encamp at my house as a guard, so that none shall march to and fro; no oppressor shall again overrun them, for now I see with my own eyes.

9: Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! Lo, your king comes to you; triumphant and victorious is he, humble and riding on an ass, on a colt the foal of an ass.

10: I will cut off the chariot from E'phraim and the war horse from Jerusalem; and the battle bow shall be cut off, and he shall command peace to the nations; his dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

11: As for you also, because of the blood of my covenant with you, I will set your captives free from the waterless pit.

12: Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope; today I declare that I will restore to you double.

13: For I have bent Judah as my bow; I have made E'phraim its arrow. I will brandish your sons, O Zion, over your sons, O Greece, and wield you like a warrior's sword.

14: Then the LORD will appear over them, and his arrow go forth like lightning; the Lord GOD will sound the trumpet, and march forth in the whirlwinds of the south.

15: The LORD of hosts will protect them, and they shall devour and tread down the slingers; and they shall drink their blood like wine, and be full like a bowl, drenched like the corners of the altar.

16: On that day the LORD their God will save them for they are the flock of his people; for like the jewels of a crown they shall shine on his land.

17: Yea, how good and how fair it shall be! Grain shall make the young men flourish, and new wine the maidens.

Chapter 10

Zechariah, chapter 10

1: Ask rain from the LORD in the season of the spring rain, from the LORD who makes the storm clouds, who gives men showers of rain, to every one the vegetation in the field.

2: For the teraphim utter nonsense, and the diviners see lies; the dreamers tell false dreams, and give empty consolation. Therefore the people wander like sheep; they are afflicted for want of a shepherd.

3: "My anger is hot against the shepherds, and I will punish the leaders; for the LORD of hosts cares for his flock, the house of Judah, and will make them like his proud steed in battle.

4: Out of them shall come the cornerstone, out of them the tent peg, out of them the battle bow, out of them every ruler.

5: Together they shall be like mighty men in battle, trampling the foe in the mud of the streets; they shall fight because the LORD is with them, and they shall confound the riders on horses.

6: "I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph. I will bring them back because I have compassion on them, and they shall be as though I had not rejected them; for I am the LORD their God and I will answer them.

7: Then E'phraim shall become like a mighty warrior, and their hearts shall be glad as with wine. Their children shall see it and rejoice, their hearts shall exult in the LORD.

8: "I will signal for them and gather them in, for I have redeemed them, and they shall be as many as of old.

9: Though I scattered them among the nations, yet in far countries they shall remember me, and with their children they shall live and return.

10: I will bring them home from the land of Egypt, and gather them from Assyria; and I will bring them to the land of Gilead and to Lebanon, till there is no room for them.

11: They shall pass through the sea of Egypt, and the waves of the sea shall be smitten, and all the depths of the Nile dried up. The pride of Assyria shall be laid low, and the scepter of Egypt shall depart.

12: I will make them strong in the LORD and they shall glory in his name," says the LORD.

Chapter 11

Zechariah, chapter 11

1: Open your doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour your cedars!

2: Wail, O cypress, for the cedar has fallen, for the glorious trees are ruined! Wail, oaks of Bashan, for the thick forest has been felled!

3: Hark, the wail of the shepherds, for their glory is despoiled! Hark, the roar of the lions, for the jungle of the Jordan is laid waste!

4: Thus said the LORD my God: "Become shepherd of the flock doomed to slaughter.

5: Those who buy them slay them and go unpunished; and those who sell them say, 'Blessed be the LORD, I have become rich'; and their own shepherds have no pity on them.

6: For I will no longer have pity on the inhabitants of this land, says the LORD. Lo, I will cause men to fall each into the hand of his shepherd, and each into the hand of his king; and they shall crush the earth, and I will deliver none from their hand."

7: So I became the shepherd of the flock doomed to be slain for those who trafficked in the sheep. And I took two staffs; one I named Grace, the other I named Union. And I tended the sheep.

8: In one month I destroyed the three shepherds. But I became impatient with them, and they also detested me.

9: So I said, "I will not be your shepherd. What is to die, let it die; what is to be destroyed, let it be destroyed; and let those that are left devour the flesh of one another."

10: And I took my staff Grace, and I broke it, annulling the covenant which I had made with all the peoples.

11: So it was annulled on that day, and the traffickers in the sheep, who were watching me, knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12: Then I said to them, "If it seems right to you, give me my wages; but if not, keep them." And they weighed out as my wages thirty shekels of silver.

13: Then the LORD said to me, "Cast it into the treasury" -- the lordly price at which I was paid off by them. So I took the thirty shekels of silver and cast them into the treasury in the house of the LORD.

14: Then I broke my second staff Union, annulling the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15: Then the LORD said to me, "Take once more the implements of a worthless shepherd.

16: For lo, I am raising up in the land a shepherd who does not care for the perishing, or seek the wandering, or heal the maimed, or nourish the sound, but devours the flesh of the fat ones, tearing off even their hoofs.

17: Woe to my worthless shepherd, who deserts the flock! May the sword smite his arm and his right eye! Let his arm be wholly withered, his right eye utterly blinded!"

Chapter 12

Zechariah, chapter 12

1: An Oracle The word of the LORD concerning Israel: Thus says the LORD, who stretched out the heavens and founded the earth and formed the spirit of man within him:

v1: The crushing weight unable to be lifted of judgment or the Prophecy Oracle of disaster or catastrophe of the word of the LORD concerning Israel in the tribulation: A Dictum or divine decree from the LORD for the future, who stretched out or measured the heavens and ordained or founded the earth and formed or sculpted the spirit or life of man within him:

2: "Lo, I am about to make Jerusalem a cup of reeling to all the peoples round about; it will be against Judah also in the siege against Jerusalem.

v2: Behold I have appointed Jerusalem a drinking goblet causing staggering drunken intoxicated reeling of divine judgment, against Judah and Jerusalem.

3: On that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples; all who lift it shall grievously hurt themselves. And all the nations of the earth will come together against it.

v3: And it shall come to pass in that day that I shall appoint Jerusalem a heavy stone of burden too heavy to lift or deal with for all the antisemitic gentile armies and they will not have the strength to conquer it, All Those who try to lift or destroy her (Israel) will be annihilated, those who do this (in the future war) will be cut to pieces or crushed, although all the nations of the earth will be gathered against her, Jerusalem.

4: On that day, says the LORD, I will strike every horse with panic, and its rider with madness. But upon the house of Judah I will open my eyes, when I strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.

v4: Declares or Says the Lord Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ, in that day of the siege of Jerusalem the last days of the tribulation, I will cause to strike every horse or mechanized armored system in the invading armies with confusion, consternation, amazed terror, paralyzing terrifying mental fear and those who actually run them, the dictators, politicians, and Generals, with madness and disassociation from reality from influence of evil and psychopathic power lust; Therefore for the house of Judah, ie Israel, I will open my eyes and show favor with direct interference in Human History through exercise of divine deliverance, and I will again strike every mechanized armored system (last half of the tribulation) and destroy all the peoples with blindness of a supernatural darkness; (Is 13:9-10, Joel 2:10-11, 3:15, Amos 5:18, Luke 21:25-27, Ez 32:7-8, Rev

5: Then the clans of Judah shall say to themselves, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem have strength through the LORD of hosts, their God.'

v5: Then the 2 super-grace general officers of Judah, Israel in the tribulation, will think from Metabolized Bible Doctrine in their Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of their Souls, my strength or encouragement is found in the super-grace citizens of Jerusalem, (army is already dissipated and civilian believers are strong leaders) who lift the shield of faith in use of the Faith Rest Drill 4 stages in times of battle field stress, through the strength of Jehovah of the Armies Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ their God and ours.

6: "On that day I will make the clans of Judah like a blazing pot in the midst of wood, like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they shall devour to the right and to the left all the peoples round about, while Jerusalem shall still be inhabited in its place, in Jerusalem.

v6: In that day of maximum stress in the end of the tribulation just prior to the 2nd advent, I will manufacture out of Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul the generals of Judah like a pan of effective fire among the kindling of the super grace believers as troops in combat arms motivated to fight the invaders, like a flaming torch of leadership among the dry leaves or sheaves of the invading enemy, therefore they, motivated troops and staff and line, will consume, annihilate or cut to pieces the enemy invaders at this time; On the right hand and on the left hand all the troops surrounding Jerusalem; consequently the citizens of Jerusalem will again live in their own homes.

7: "And the LORD will give victory to the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem may not be exalted over that of Judah.

Zach 12:7

v7: And the Lord will give victory to the Tents or armies of Judah or Israel first around Jerusalem, in order that the glory of the House of David ( Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ ) and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem ( those who did battle with so little training) may not be magnified above the glory of above Judah (regular army in the field).

8: On that day the LORD will put a shield about the inhabitants of Jerusalem so that the feeblest among them on that day shall be like David, and the house of David shall be like God, like the angel of the LORD, at their head.

Zach 12:8

v8: In that day, ( Last days of the WW) The Lord will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem even the ones who are feeble (losers delivered by association with mature Believers) among them on that day they will be like David in great victory and the house of David like God like the angel of the Lord ( Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ Is 37:26, 2Kings 19:35), 9: And on that day I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

Zach 12:9

v9: And it shall come to pass in that day that I will search and destroy all the nations which come against Jerusalem.

10: "And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of compassion and supplication, so that, when they look on him whom they have pierced, they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for an only child, and weep bitterly over him, as one weeps over a first-born.

Zach 12:10

v10: And I will pour out on the house of David the line of Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ, on the inhabitants of Jerusalem who fight for Jerusalem and a spirit of compassion and supplication so that they seek and look on me whom they have pierced (understanding those killed have the opportunity to believe in Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ as all in history) and they shall mourn for him as one mourns for an only child and weep bitterly over him as one weeps bitterly over the first born.

11: On that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be as great as the mourning for Hadadrim'mon in the plain of Megid'do.

Zach 12:11

v11: On that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be as great in as that for Hadadrim'mon in the plain of Megid'do (Armageddon)

12: The land shall mourn, each family by itself; the family of the house of David by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves;

13: the family of the house of Levi by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the Shim'e-ites by itself, and their wives by themselves;

14: and all the families that are left, each by itself, and their wives by themselves.

Chapter 13

Zechariah, chapter 13

1: "On that day there shall be a fountain opened for the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to cleanse them from sin and uncleanness.

2: "And on that day, says the LORD of hosts, I will cut off the names of the idols from the land, so that they shall be remembered no more; and also I will remove from the land the prophets and the unclean spirit.

3: And if any one again appears as a prophet, his father and mother who bore him will say to him, 'You shall not live, for you speak lies in the name of the LORD'; and his father and mother who bore him shall pierce him through when he prophesies.

4: On that day every prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies; he will not put on a hairy mantle in order to deceive,

5: but he will say, 'I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the soil; for the land has been my possession since my youth.'

6: And if one asks him, 'What are these wounds on your back?' he will say, 'The wounds I received in the house of my friends.'"

7: "Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, against the man who stands next to me," says the LORD of hosts. "Strike the shepherd, that the sheep may be scattered; I will turn my hand against the little ones.

8: In the whole land, says the LORD, two thirds shall be cut off and perish, and one third shall be left alive.

9: And I will put this third into the fire, and refine them as one refines silver, and test them as gold is tested. They will call on my name, and I will answer them. I will say, 'They are my people'; and they will say, 'The LORD is my God.'"

Chapter 14

Zechariah, chapter 14

1: Behold, a day of the LORD is coming, when the spoil taken from you will be divided in the midst of you.

v1: Behold, a day of the LORD is coming, when the spoil taken from you because of lack of military support will be divided from plundering, invasion and destruction in a very violent way in the midst of you including rape and torture along with the taking of property.

v1: Behold, a day or period of time has come for the LORD from the end of the tribulation to the 2nd advent, when the prophet or great material wealth of temporal Super-Grace blessings, will be divided or distributed among you Super-Grace believers in the millennium.

2: For I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to battle, and the city shall be taken and the houses plundered and the women ravished; half of the city shall go into exile, but the rest of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

v2: Therefore just before the above deliverance (Dan 11, Ez 38-39, Dan 7,9, Rev 13, 17), I, God, will absolutely gather or assemble all the great invading armies of the nations against Jerusalem for warfare, and the city shall be captured in great violence way and the houses or other property plundered and robbed, and the women raped, and half of the city shall not resist and go into slavery but the remnant of the people, the super-grace believers with the developed Edification Complex of the Soul and Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, shall not be slaughtered in battle from the city

3: Then the LORD will go forth and fight against those nations as when he fights on a day of battle.

v3: Then the LORD, at the 2nd advent, will go forth and he himself will fight against those nations like his fighting on the day of battle against the Pharaoh at the Exodus and the Assyrian Invasion.

4: On that day his feet shall stand on the Mount of Olives which lies before Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives shall be split in two from east to west by a very wide valley; so that one half of the Mount shall withdraw northward, and the other half southward.

v4: Consequently on that day his feet shall strike and take a stand on the Mount of Olives which lies in front of Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives shall be split in two from east to west by a very wide valley; so that one half of the Mount shall withdraw or recede northward, and the other half southward.

5: And the valley of my mountains shall be stopped up, for the valley of the mountains shall touch the side of it; and you shall flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzzi'ah king of Judah. Then the LORD your God will come, and all the holy ones with him.

v5: And the valley of my mountains shall reach to Azel the Jerusalem suburb and split through the city itself, for the valley of the mountains shall run through the side of the city; and you will escape just as you have escaped from the earthquake in the days of Uzzi'ah king of Judah. Then the LORD your God will come, and all the holy ones with him.

6: On that day there shall be neither cold nor frost.

v6: And it shall come to pass on that day that there shall be no light, and the beautiful lights from the stars will be withdrawn or shut down.

7: And there shall be continuous day (it is known to the LORD), not day and not night, for at evening time there shall be light.

v7: But it shall be a unique day that same day shall be known only to Jehovah, God the Father, not day and not night, now it shall come to pass in the middle east, at evening time there shall be light from the 2nd advent of Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ.

8: On that day living waters shall flow out from Jerusalem, half of them to the eastern sea and half of them to the western sea; it shall continue in summer as in winter.

v8: Then it shall come to pass on that day in the beginning of the millennium that living waters will go out from Jerusalem, half of them to the eastern sea the dead sea, and half of them to the western sea the Mediterranean sea; it shall continue in summer and in winter.

9: And the LORD will become king over all the earth; on that day the LORD will be one and his name one.

Zech 14:9 (Perfect Government on the earth)

v9: Then Jehovah will be king over all the earth in that day the Lord will be unique and his name unique as his battlefield royalty.

10: The whole land shall be turned into a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. But Jerusalem shall remain aloft upon its site from the Gate of Benjamin to the place of the former gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Han'anel to the king's wine presses.

11: And it shall be inhabited, for there shall be no more curse; Jerusalem shall dwell in security.

12: And this shall be the plague with which the LORD will smite all the peoples that wage war against Jerusalem: their flesh shall rot while they are still on their feet, their eyes shall rot in their sockets, and their tongues shall rot in their mouths.

13: And on that day a great panic from the LORD shall fall on them, so that each will lay hold on the hand of his fellow, and the hand of the one will be raised against the hand of the other;

14: even Judah will fight against Jerusalem. And the wealth of all the nations round about shall be collected, gold, silver, and garments in great abundance.

15: And a plague like this plague shall fall on the horses, the mules, the camels, the asses, and whatever beasts may be in those camps.

16: Then every one that survives of all the nations that have come against Jerusalem shall go up year after year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of booths.

17: And if any of the families of the earth do not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, there will be no rain upon them.

18: And if the family of Egypt do not go up and present themselves, then upon them shall come the plague with which the LORD afflicts the nations that do not go up to keep the feast of booths.

19: This shall be the punishment to Egypt and the punishment to all the nations that do not go up to keep the feast of booths.

20: And on that day there shall be inscribed on the bells of the horses, "Holy to the LORD." And the pots in the house of the LORD shall be as the bowls before the altar;

21: and every pot in Jerusalem and Judah shall be sacred to the LORD of hosts, so that all who sacrifice may come and take of them and boil the flesh of the sacrifice in them. And there shall no longer be a trader in the house of the LORD of hosts on that day.

The Book of Zephaniah

Chapter 1

Zephaniah, chapter 1

1: The word of the LORD which came to Zephani'ah the son of Cushi, son of Gedali'ah, son of Amari'ah, son of Hezeki'ah, in the days of Josi'ah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

2: "I will utterly sweep away everything from the face of the earth," says the LORD.

3: "I will sweep away man and beast; I will sweep away the birds of the air and the fish of the sea. I will overthrow the wicked; I will cut off mankind from the face of the earth," says the LORD.

4: "I will stretch out my hand against Judah, and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off from this place the remnant of Ba'al and the name of the idolatrous priests;

5: those who bow down on the roofs to the host of the heavens; those who bow down and swear to the LORD and yet swear by Milcom;

6: those who have turned back from following the LORD, who do not seek the LORD or inquire of him."

7: Be silent before the Lord GOD! For the day of the LORD is at hand; the LORD has prepared a sacrifice and consecrated his guests.

8: And on the day of the LORD'S sacrifice – "I will punish the officials and the king's sons and all who array themselves in foreign attire.

9: On that day I will punish every one who leaps over the threshold, and those who fill their master's house with violence and fraud."

10: "On that day," says the LORD, "a cry will be heard from the Fish Gate, a wail from the Second Quarter, a loud crash from the hills.

11: Wail, O inhabitants of the Mortar! For all the traders are no more; all who weigh out silver are cut off.

12: At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the men who are thickening upon their lees, those who say in their hearts, 'The LORD will not do good, nor will he do ill.'

13: Their goods shall be plundered, and their houses laid waste. Though they build houses, they shall not inhabit them; though they plant vineyards, they shall not drink wine from them."

14: The great day of the LORD is near, near and hastening fast; the sound of the day of the LORD is bitter, the mighty man cries aloud there.

15: A day of wrath is that day, a day of distress and anguish, a day of ruin and devastation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness,

16: a day of trumpet blast and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the lofty battlements.

17: I will bring distress on men, so that they shall walk like the blind, because they have sinned against the LORD; their blood shall be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung.

18: Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them on the day of the wrath of the LORD. In the fire of his jealous wrath, all the earth shall be consumed; for a full, yea, sudden end he will make of all the inhabitants of the earth.

Chapter 2

Zephaniah, chapter 2

1: Come together and hold assembly, O shameless nation,

2: before you are driven away like the drifting chaff, before there comes upon you the fierce anger of the LORD, before there comes upon you the day of the wrath of the LORD.

3: Seek the LORD, all you humble of the land, who do his commands; seek righteousness, seek humility; perhaps you may be hidden on the day of the wrath of the LORD.

4: For Gaza shall be deserted, and Ash'kelon shall become a desolation; Ashdod's people shall be driven out at noon, and Ekron shall be uprooted.

5: Woe to you inhabitants of the seacoast, you nation of the Cher'ethites! The word of the LORD is against you, O Canaan, land of the Philistines; and I will destroy you till no inhabitant is left.

6: And you, O seacoast, shall be pastures, meadows for shepherds and folds for flocks.

7: The seacoast shall become the possession of the remnant of the house of Judah, on which they shall pasture, and in the houses of Ash'kelon they shall lie down at evening. For the LORD their God will be mindful of them and restore their fortunes.

8: "I have heard the taunts of Moab and the revilings of the Ammonites, how they have taunted my people and made boasts against their territory.

9: Therefore, as I live," says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, "Moab shall become like Sodom, and the Ammonites like Gomor'rah, a land possessed by nettles and salt pits, and a waste for ever. The remnant of my people shall plunder them, and the survivors of my nation shall possess them."

10: This shall be their lot in return for their pride, because they scoffed and boasted against the people of the LORD of hosts.

11: The LORD will be terrible against them; yea, he will famish all the gods of the earth, and to him shall bow down, each in its place, all the lands of the nations.

12: You also, O Ethiopians, shall be slain by my sword.

13: And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria; and he will make Nin'veh a desolation, a dry waste like the desert.

14: Herds shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the field; the vulture and the hedgehog shall lodge in her capitals; the owl shall hoot in the window, the raven croak on the threshold; for her cedar work will be laid bare.

15: This is the exultant city that dwelt secure, that said to herself, "I am and there is none else." What a desolation she has become, a lair for wild beasts! Every one who passes by her hisses and shakes his fist.

Chapter 3 Zephaniah, chapter 3

1: Woe to her that is rebellious and defiled, the oppressing city!

2: She listens to no voice, she accepts no correction. She does not trust in the LORD, she does not draw near to her God.

3: Her officials within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves that leave nothing till the morning.

4: Her prophets are wanton, faithless men; her priests profane what is sacred, they do violence to the law.

5: The LORD within her is righteous, he does no wrong; every morning he shows forth his justice, each dawn he does not fail; but the unjust knows no shame.

6: "I have cut off nations; their battlements are in ruins; I have laid waste their streets so that none walks in them; their cities have been made desolate, without a man, without an inhabitant.

7: I said, `Surely she will fear me, she will accept correction; she will not lose sight of all that I have enjoined upon her.' But all the more they were eager to make all their deeds corrupt."

8: "Therefore wait for me," says the LORD, "for the day when I arise as a witness. For my decision is to gather nations, to assemble kingdoms, to pour out upon them my indignation, all the heat of my anger; for in the fire of my jealous wrath all the earth shall be consumed.

9: "Yea, at that time I will change the speech of the peoples to a pure speech, that all of them may call on the name of the LORD and serve him with one accord.

10: From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, the daughter of my dispersed ones, shall bring my offering.

11: "On that day you shall not be put to shame because of the deeds by which you have rebelled against me; for then I will remove from your midst your proudly exultant ones, and you shall no longer be haughty in my holy mountain.

12: For I will leave in the midst of you a people humble and lowly. They shall seek refuge in the name of the LORD,

13: those who are left in Israel; they shall do no wrong and utter no lies, nor shall there be found in their mouth a deceitful tongue. For they shall pasture and lie down, and none shall make them afraid."

14: Sing aloud, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter of Jerusalem!

Zeph 3:14

v14: Shout with happiness oh daughters of Zion, Shout or Israel, rejoice with a superabundance of happiness, and exalt with all your Right Lobe of the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul, oh daughters of Jerusalem.

15: The LORD has taken away the judgments against you, he has cast out your enemies. The King of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst; you shall fear evil no more.

Zeph 3:15

v15: The Lord has removed or taken away his judgment of the 5th cycle of Divine Discipline against you, and the king or ruler of Israel ( Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ ) has cast out or mopped up your enemies, the Lord the king of Israel is in your midst, you will not see evil any more.

16: On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem: "Do not fear, O Zion; let not your hands grow weak.

17: The LORD, your God, is in your midst, a warrior who gives victory; he will rejoice over you with gladness, he will renew you in his love; he will exult over you with loud singing

Zeph 3:17

v17: The Lord ( Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ ) your God is in the midst of you, a warrior who causes victory, he will rejoice over you with a superabundance of happiness, he will renew you in his love, he will rejoice over you, and he will shout the first shout of happiness (the victory shout).

18: as on a day of festival. "I will remove disaster from you, so that you will not bear reproach for it.

19: Behold, at that time I will deal with all your oppressors. And I will save the lame and gather the outcast, and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth.

20: At that time I will bring you home, at the time when I gather you together; yea, I will make you renowned and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes," says the LORD.
