

Psalm 1

v1: Happinesses is the noble man or believer who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly or unbeliever, nor stands under control of the Old Sin Nature in legalism, nor sits in the seat of apostasy of the scornful ridiculing believers; v2: but his desirous love is in the law or Bible Doctrine pointing to the Lord for Occupation with the Person of Christ, and on his law or Bible Doctrine he inculcates from constant repetition like breathing day and night.
v3: He is stable like a tree with inner strength from deep roots of Metabolized Bible Doctrine planted by (Eph 5:26-7) doctrinal rivers of water, that results in production in all situations or pressures (1Pet 1:7-8), and its leaf is sustained by inner resources of Metabolized Bible Doctrine, and in time of pressure he will not succumb to hysteria. In whatever he does, he is produces Divine Good from Metabolized Bible Doctrine in the Stream of Consciousness of the Soul and is caused to be greatly successful.
v4: The unjustified or unbeliever are not like the tree, but are like chaff which the wind drives or scatters from place to place, constantly looking for circumstances for happiness.
v5: Therefore the unjustified or unbeliever will not stand before God in the judgment of baptism of fire(John 3:18), nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous in the millennium;
v6: for the LORD recognizes the believer having Absolute Righteousness through Salvation Adjustment to the Justice of God through faith in Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ and regeneration, but the way of the unjustified or unbeliever with Relative Righteousness will live forever in torment in the Lake of Fire .
