

Psalm 133:

v0: Song of Memory of Jonathan.

v1: Behold A fragrance of Memory, how good and how delightful for brothers to dwell together as one in blessing, harmony and rapport!

v2: It is like the precious anointing oil (Ex 30:20-25) upon the head, running gently down upon the beard, upon the beard of Aaron, flowing gently down onto the collar of his robes with a sweet scent!

v3: It is like the dew of prosperity of Mt Hermon, which is carried as rain onto the mountains of Zion keeping Israel combined! For there, in Zion, the LORD has decreed a command that there be national prosperity blessing, plus life for evermore.
