

Psalm 30

- v0: A Psalm and song of David of happiness at the consecration and turning point of the house for David.
- v1: I will raise up or build up in my soul you, Oh Jehovah, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, for thou have lifted or built me up, and you have not permitted my enemies rejoice over me.
- v2: Oh Jehovah my Elohim, I shouted to you for help, and you kept on in a process healing me.
- v3: Oh Jehovah, you have brought my soul back from the grave, you have restored me to life or kept me alive in order that I should not go down to the pit of reversionism.
- v4: Make music to the Lord, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, you men of Grace, and confess in rebound freely to God at the memory of his holiness.
- v5: For his anger lasts only a moment, and his grace lasts a lifetime. Weeping may endure for a, or pass in, the night but celebrating happiness comes in the dawn of super-grace , the JOY or Sharing the Happiness of the lord is your strength.
- v6: And in my prosperity as a super-grace believer I have said, "I shall never be unstable."
- v7: By your favor, Oh Lord, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, By your grace benefit you have made or caused my mountain Zion to stand up; You covered your face or disregarded me in grace benefits while in Gath in reversionism, I became neutralized with trouble and fear at Nob.
- v8: To you, Oh Lord I shouted; and unto you Lord I personally sought your grace for myself:
- v9: "What profit is there in my death or advantage is there in killing me, when I go down to the Pit of the Sin Unto Death? Shall the dust be caused to praise you? Will it declare the doctrine?"
- v10: Listen to me, Oh Lord, Jesus of Nazareth, The Christ, have mercy and be gracious to me! Oh Lord, be my helper!"
- v11: You have converted my mourning from reversionistic discipline into dancing for me; you have torn off my humble situation, my sackcloth or misery of living and clothed me with happiness
- v12: To the end or for the purpose that my honor of super-grace might make music to you and not be silent. Oh Jehovah my Elohim, I will be caused to praise you forever.
