Writer's Showcase Permission Form

Thank you for submitting your manuscript for free publishing on The Writer's Showcase's International Ebook Library. Your manuscript is currently being prepared by L&R Hartley Publishers, in Australia for uploading to the World Wide Web (www).

We now need your permission to advertise and/or post your book on the Internet and to make it (or excerpts of it) available to potential publishers or your friends. It is important that you fill in this form as soon as possible and mail it (by conventional surface or airmail) to L&R Hartley in Australia.

Please use Black Ink as these forms are archived on computer.

I _____ give permission to The Writer's Showcase to publish my book entitled

_____ in the International Ebook Library.

By signing this document this I accept that I may be provided with a password for the free downloading of my book and that I may share this password with potential publishers (or friends) so that they also may download a copy free of charge. (See note below regarding large books)

I accept that this is a free service and that I will not be charged anything for the service and also agree that I will not exact any charges upon the publisher.

I also agree that other library users may download the book free (but without the password they may be charged a small handling fee).

I further agree that the publisher may supply free copies on CDROM if library users are unable to download (for example due to slow Internet access). These may also incur a small handling fee. (Note: Large books will not need a password as they will only be available on CDROM.)

I realise that I will still hold copyright on my manuscript and that I am only conferring limited permission to The Writer's Showcase to use an ebook version as detailed above.
