

HASTINGS BOROUGH COUNCIL ARCHIVE

John Frost

An acquaintance of mine has been researching the archives of the Hastings Borough Council and has noted that on 21st March 1917 authorisation was given to pay Waterlow and Sons £65-7s-3d for “perforated postage stamps”. He assumes that this is for perforating of stamps. Could any member comment on what would have been the likely die.

Bulletin 342 (June 2006) Page 9