I speak academic, grammatically perfect, clearly enunciated English (my Journalism degree)-this will help in educating students to speak correct, educated English. I have been trained in Kiev, Ukraine in advanced mathematics (spatial statistics), and my PhD in Sociology from the University of Southern California in Los Angeles is concentrated in Applied Statistics, Demography and Political Science. I have Graduate Diplomas in Economic Geography and Informatics from Kiev State University in Ukraine, where I learned to speak, read and write Russian. In 2007 I was a Research Fellow of the Institute of Foreign Relations in Taipei, Taiwan where I wrote and presented a paper in the strong state-big business relationship. I was interviewed in a televideo conference which was broadcast over South and Northeast Asia (including mainland China). I also wrote a research paper for the Humboldt Universitaet Berlin about Filipina migrants to Germany. I speak conversational (non technical) German, French and Russian. I understand and converse in Spanish when it is spoken slowly.

Given all these abilities, I am very patient with students, having been a teacher for 20 years. I do not hesitate to repeat my explanations. I always use simple illustrations to make the student understand. I especially understand the needs of those who are trying to learn American English, being a Filipino English speaker myself. I assure you that with me as your tutor, you will speak and write perfect English.
