

Tonight

I can't wait until tonight,
to be with you.
Everything will work out alright,
tonight when we're together.

Dinner, maybe dancing;
who knows?
Tonight when we're together,
anything goes.

Anything you want,
while the night is still young;
to see the stars unseen,
to sing the songs unsung.

We don't have to hurry,
toward any field of endeavor.
The time may fly by,
but this night will last forever;
Tonight when we're together.
